⁸ Thus the Lord God shewed me: and, behold, a basket of summer fruit. ² And he said, ³ Amos, what seest thou? And I said, ⁴ A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, ⁵ The end is come upon my people Israel; ⁶ I will not again pass by them any more. ³ And the songs of the ⁷ temple ⁸ shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord God: ⁹ the dead bodies shall be many; in every place ¹⁰ shall they cast them forth ¹¹ with silence. ⁴ Hear this, ¹² O ye that would swallow up the needy, and cause the poor of the land to fail, ⁵ saying, When will ¹³ the new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and ¹⁴ the sabbath, that we may ¹⁵ set forth wheat? making ¹⁶ the ephah small, and the shekel great, and dealing falsely with ¹⁷ balances of deceit; ⁶ that we may buy the poor for ¹⁸ silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes, and sell the refuse of the wheat. ⁷ The LORD hath sworn by ¹⁹ the excellency of Jacob, Surely ²⁰ I will never forget any of their works. ⁸ Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? ²¹ yea, it shall rise up wholly like the River; and it shall be troubled ²² and sink again, like the River of Egypt. ⁹ And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord God, that ²³ I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day. ¹⁰ And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; ²⁴ and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, ²⁵ and baldness upon every head; ²⁶ and I will make it as the mourning for an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day. ¹¹ Behold, the days come, saith the

OBADIAH.

1 THE vision of Obadiah.

Thus saith the Lord God ^a concerning Edom: ^b We have heard tidings from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle. ² Behold, I have made thee small among the nations: thou art greatly despised. ³ The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of ¹ the rock, whose habitation is high; ⁴ that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground? ⁵ Though thou mount on high as the eagle, and though thy nest be set among the stars, I will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD. ⁶ If ^c thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not steal till they had enough? if ^d grapegatherers came to thee, would they not leave some gleanings? ⁷ How are ^e the things of Esau searched out! how are his hidden treasures sought up! ⁸ All the men of thy confederacy have ^f brought thee on thy way, even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; ⁹ they that eat thy bread lay a ^g snare under thee: ^h there is none understanding ⁱ in him. ¹⁰ Shall I not in that day, saith the LORD, destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of ^j the mount of Esau? ¹¹ And thy mighty men, ^k O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one may be cut off from ^l the mount of Esau by slaughter. ¹² For the violence done to thy brother Jacob shame shall cover thee, ^m and thou shalt be cut off for ever. ¹³ In the day that thou stoodest ⁿ on the other side, ¹⁴ in the day that strangers carried away his ^o substance, and foreigners entered into his gates, ^p and cast lots upon Jerusalem, even thou wast as one of them. ¹⁵ But look not thou on the day of thy brother in ^q the day of his disaster, and rejoice not over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; ^r neither speak proudly in the day of distress. ¹⁶ Enter not into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; ^s yea, look not thou on their affliction in the day of their calamity, ^t neither lay ye hands on their substance in the day of their calamity. ¹⁷ And stand thou not in the crossway, to cut off those of his that escape; and deliver not up those of his that remain in the day of distress. ¹⁸ For ^u the day of the LORD is near upon all the nations: ^v as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee; thy ^w dealing shall return upon thine own head. ¹⁹ For as ye have drunk upon ^x my holy mountain, so shall all the nations drink continually, yea, they shall drink, and ^y swallow down, ²⁰ and shall be as though they had not been. ²¹ But in mount Zion there shall be those that escape, and it shall be holy; ²² and the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions. ²³ And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for ^z stubble, and they shall burn among them, and devour them: ²⁴ and there shall not be any remaining to the house of Esau; for the LORD hath spoken it. ²⁵ And they of ^{aa} the South shall possess ^{ab} the mount of Esau; and they of ^{ac} the lowland the Philistines: and they shall possess the field of Ephraim, and the field of ^{ad} Samaria: and Benjamin shall possess Gilead. ²⁶ And the captivity of this ^{ae} host of the children of Israel, ²⁷ which are ^{af} among the Canaanites, shall possess even unto ^{ag} Zarephath; and the captivity of Jerusalem, which is in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the South. ²⁸ And saviours shall come up on mount Zion to judge ^{ah} the mount of Esau; and ^{ai} the kingdom shall be the LORD's.

JONAH.

1 Now the word of the LORD came unto ^aJonah the son of Amittai, saying, ²Arise, go to ^bNineveh, that ^cgreat city, and cry against it; ^dfor their wickedness is come up before me. ³But Jonah ^erose up to flee unto ^fTarshish from the presence of the LORD; and he went down to ^gJoppa, and found a ship going to ^hTarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto ⁱTarshish ^jfrom the presence of the LORD. ⁴But ^kthe LORD ^lsent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like ^mto be broken. ⁵Then the mariners were afraid, and ⁿcried every man unto his god; and ^othey cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it unto them. But Jonah was gone down into the innermost parts of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep. ⁶So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, ^pcall upon thy God, ^qif so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not. ⁷And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us ^rcast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah. ⁸Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; what is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou? ⁹And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew; and I fear ^sthe LORD, the God of heaven, ^twhich hath made the sea and the dry land. ¹⁰Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, What is this that thou hast done? For the men knew that ^uhe fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them. ¹¹Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea grew more and more tempestuous. ¹²And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: ^vfor I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you. ¹³Nevertheless the men rowed hard to get them back to the land; but they could not: for the sea grew more and more tempestuous against them. ¹⁴Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and ^wlay not upon us innocent blood: ^xfor thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee. ¹⁵So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: ^yand the sea ceased from her raging. ¹⁶Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly; ^zand they offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, ^{aa}and made vows. ¹⁷And the LORD prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah; ^{ab}and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights. ¹⁸Then ²Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly.

²And he said, ^{ac}I called ^{ad}by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, And he answered me; ^{ae}Out of the belly of ^{af}hell cried I, ^{ag}And thou heardest my voice. ³^{ah}For thou didst cast me into the depth, in the heart of the seas, And the flood was round about me; ^{ai}All thy waves and thy billows ^{aj}passed over me. ⁴^{ak}And I said, I am cast out from before thine eyes; ^{al}Yet I will look again toward thy holy temple. ⁵^{am}The waters compassed me about, ^{an}even to the soul; The deep was round about me; The weeds were wrapped about my head. ⁶I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; The earth with her bars ^{ao}closed upon me for ever: Yet hast thou brought up my life ^{ap}from ^{aq}the pit, O LORD my God. ⁷^{ar}When my soul fainted within me, I remembered the LORD:

⁵ Salvation is of the LORD.

⁶ And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

⁷ And the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying, ⁸ Arise, go unto

⁹ Nineveh, that great city, and ¹⁰ preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee. ¹¹ So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now ¹² Nineveh was ¹³ an exceeding great city, of three days' journey. ¹⁴ And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said,

Yet forty days, and ¹⁵ Nineveh shall be overthrown. ¹⁶ And the people of Nineveh believed God; ¹⁷ and they proclaimed a fast, and ¹⁸ put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. ¹⁹ And the tidings reached the king of Nineveh, and ²⁰ he arose from his throne, and laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, ²¹ and sat in ashes. ²² And he made proclamation and ²³ published through Nineveh ²⁴ by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor ²⁵ beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water: ²⁶ but let them be covered with sackcloth, both man and ²⁷ beast, and let them cry mightily unto God: yea, ²⁸ let them turn every one from his evil way, and from ²⁹ the violence that is in their hands. ³⁰ Who knoweth whether God will not turn and repent, ³¹ and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not? ³² And God saw their works, ³³ that they turned from their evil way; ³⁴ and God repentent of the evil, which he said he would do unto them; and he did it not. ³⁵ But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and ³⁶ he was angry.

³⁷ And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? ³⁸ Therefore I ³⁹ hastened to flee unto Tarshish: for I knew that ⁴⁰ thou art a gracious God, and full of compassion, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy, ⁴¹ and repentest thee of the evil. ⁴² Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; ⁴³ for it is better for me to die than to live.

⁴⁴ And the LORD said, ⁴⁵ Doest thou well to be angry? ⁴⁶ Then Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there ⁴⁷ made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

⁴⁸ And the LORD God prepared a ⁴⁹ gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his evil case. So Jonah was exceeding glad because of the gourd.

⁵⁰ But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd, that it withered.

⁵⁶ And God said to Jonah, ⁵⁷ Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry even unto death. ⁵⁸ And the LORD said, Thou hast had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night: ⁵⁹ and should not I have pity on ⁶⁰ Nineveh, that great city; wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much ⁶¹ cattle?

MICAH.

I THE word of the LORD that came to Micah^b the Morashtite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw^c concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 Hear, ye peoples, all of you; hearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and let the Lord God be witness² against you, the Lord from his holy temple. 3 For, behold, the Lord cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth. 4 And the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, as waters that are poured down a steep place. 5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem? 6 Therefore I will make Samaria as a heap of the field, and as the plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof. 7 And all her graven images shall be beaten to pieces, and all her hires shall be burned with fire, and all her idols will I lay desolate: for of the hire of an harlot hath she gathered them, and unto the hire of an harlot shall they return. 8 For this will I wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing like the jackals, and a mourning like the ostriches. 9 For her wounds are incurable: for it is come even unto Judah; it reacheth unto the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem. 10 Tell it not in Gath, weep not at all: at Beth-le-Aphrah^d have I rolled myself in the dust. 11 Pass ye away, O inhabitant of Shaphir, in nakedness and shame: the inhabitant of Zaanan is not come forth; the wailing of Beth-ezel shall take from you the stay thereof. 12 For the inhabitant of Maroth waiteth anxiously for good: because evil is come down from the Lord unto the gate of Jerusalem. 13 Bind the chariot to the swift steed, O inhabitant of Lachish: she was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion; for the transgressions of Israel were found in thee. 14 Therefore shalt thou give a parting gift to Moresheth-gath: the houses of Achzib shall be a deceitful thing unto the kings of Israel. 15 I will yet bring unto thee, O inhabitant of Mareshah, him that shall possess thee: the glory of Israel shall come even unto Adullam. 16 Make thee bald, and poll thee for the children of thy delight: enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

1 Woe to them that devise iniquity and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light, they practise it, because it is in the power of their hand. 2 And they covet fields, and seize them; and houses, and take them away: and they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage. 3 Therefore thus saith the Lord: Behold, against this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks, neither shall ye walk haughtily; for it is an evil time. 4 In that day shall they take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled: he changeth the portion of my people: how doth he remove it from me! to the rebellious he divideth our fields. 5 Therefore thou shalt have none that shall cast the line by lot in the congregation of the Lord. 6 Prophecy ye not, thus they prophesy. 7 They shall not prophesy to these: reproaches shall not depart. 7 Shall it be said, O house of Jacob, is the spirit of the Lord straitened? are these his doings? Do not my words do good to him that walketh uprightly? 8 But of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye strip the robe from off the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war. ⁹The women of my people ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their young children ye take away my glory for ever. ¹⁰Arise ye, and depart; for this is not ^byour rest: because of ^cuncleanness ¹that destroyeth, even with a grievous destruction. ¹¹If a man walking ²in ^dwind and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee ^eof wine and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people.

¹²I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; ^fI will surely gather ^gthe remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of ^hBozrah: ⁱas a flock in the midst of their pastures, they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men. ¹³The breaker is gone up before them: they have broken forth and passed on to the gate, ^jand are gone out thereat: and their king is passed on before them, and ^kthe LORD at the head of them.

¹And I said, ^lHear, I pray you, ye heads of Jacob, and rulers of the house of Israel: ^mis it not for you to know judgement? ⁿwho hate the good, and love the evil; ^owho pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones; ^pwho also eat the flesh of my people; and they flay their skin from off them, and break their bones: yea, they chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh upon the caldron. ^qThen shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not answer them: yea, ^rhe will hide his face from them at that time, according as they have wrought evil in their doings. ⁵Thus saith the LORD concerning ^sthe prophets that make my people to err; that bite with their teeth ^tand cry, Peace; and whoso putteth not into their mouths, they even ^uprepare war against him: ⁶Therefore ^vit shall be night unto you, that ye shall have no vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and ^wthe sun shall go down upon the prophets, and the day shall be black over them. ⁷And the seers shall be ashamed, and the diviners confounded; ^xyea, they shall all cover their lips: for ^ythere is no answer of God. ⁸But ^zI truly am full of power ^aby the spirit of the LORD, and of judgement, and of might, to declare unto Jacob ^bhis transgression, and to Israel his sin. ⁹Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and rulers of the house of Israel, ^cthat abhor judgement, and pervert all equity. ¹⁰They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity. ¹¹The heads thereof judge for reward, and ^dthe priests thereof teach for hire, and ^ethe prophets thereof divine for money: ^fyet will they lean upon the LORD, and ^gsay, Is not the LORD in the midst of us? ^hno evil shall come upon us. ¹²Therefore ⁱshall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem ^jshall become heaps, and ^kthe mountain of the house ^las the high places of a forest.

¹But in the latter days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established ^min the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and peoples shall flow unto it. ²And many nations shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth ⁿthe law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. ³And he shall judge ^obetween ^pmany peoples, and shall ^qreprove strong nations afar off; and they shall ^rbeat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. ⁴But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; ^sand none shall make them afraid: ^tfor the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it. ⁵For ^uall the peoples ^vwill walk every one in the name of his god, and ^wwe will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

⁶In that day, saith the LORD, ^xwill I assemble her ^ythat halteth, and I will gather her that is driven away, and her that I have afflicted;

7 and I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and ^bthe LORD shall reign over them ^cin mount Zion from henceforth even for ever. 8 And thou, O tower of 1 the flock, 2 the hill of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come; yea, the former dominion shall come, the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem. 9 Now why dost thou cry out aloud? ^dIs there no king in thee, ^eis thy counsellor perished, that ^fpangs have taken hold of thee as of a woman in travail?
 10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for ^gnow shalt thou go forth out of the city, and shalt dwell in the field, and ^hshalt come even unto Babylon; there shalt thou be rescued; ⁱthere shall the LORD redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies. 11 And now ^kmany nations are assembled against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and ^llet our eye ^msee its desire upon Zion. 12 But ⁿthey know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for ^ohe hath gathered them as the sheaves to the threshing-floor.
 13 Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many peoples: and ^pthou shalt devote ^qtheir gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto ^rthe LORD of the whole earth. 1 Now shalt thou gather thyself in troops, 5 O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us: ^sthey shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.
 2 But thou, Beth-lehem Ephrathah, which art little to be among the ^tthousands of ^uJudah, out of thee shall one come forth unto me that is to be ^vruler in Israel; ^wwhose goings forth are ^xfrom of old, ^yfrom everlasting. 3 Therefore will he give them up, ^zuntil the time that she which travaileth hath brought forth: then ^{aa}the residue of his brethren shall return ^{ab}unto the children of Israel. 4 And he shall stand, ^{ac}and shall feed ^{ad}his flock ^{ae}in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God: and they shall abide; for now ^bshall he be great unto the ends of the earth. 5 And this ^cman shall be ^dour peace: ^ewhen the Assyrian shall come into our land, and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven ^fshepherds, and eight ^gprincipal men. 6 And they shall ^hwaste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in the entrances thereof: and he shall deliver us from the Assyrian, ⁱwhen he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our border. 7 And ^jthe remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many peoples as dew from the LORD, as showers upon the grass; that tarrieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons of men. 8 And ^kthe remnant of Jacob shall be among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, ^las a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep: ^mwho, if he go through, treadeth down and teareth in pieces, and there is none to deliver. 9 Let thine hand ⁿbe lifted up above thine adversaries, and let all thine enemies be cut off.

10 And it shall come to pass ^jin that day, saith the LORD, that ^kI will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and will destroy thy chariots: 11 and I will cut off the cities of thy land, and will throw down all thy strong holds: 12 and I will cut off ^owitchcrafts out of thine hand; and ^pthou shalt have no ^qmore soothsayers: 13 and ^rI will cut off thy graven images and ^sthy ^tpillars out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt no more worship the work of thine hands. 14 And I will pluck up thine ^uAsherim out of the midst of thee: ^vand I will destroy thy ^wcities. 15 And ^xI will execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the nations ^ywhich have hated thee.

 saith: Arise, contend thou be-of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel. 3 O my people, ¹what have I done unto thee? and ²wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me. 4 For ¹I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and ²redeemed thee out of the house of bondage; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and ³Miriam. 5 O my people, remember now ⁴what Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him; remember from ⁵Shittim unto ⁶Gilgal, that ye may know ⁷the righteous acts of the LORD. 6 ¹Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before ²the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves of a year old? 7 ¹Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? ²shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? 8 He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and ¹what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to ²walk humbly with thy God?

9 The voice of the LORD crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom will ¹see ²thy name: hear ye ³the rod, and who hath appointed it. 10 Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant ²measure that is abominable? 11 Shall I be pure ³with wicked balances, and with a bag of deceitful weights? 12 For the rich men thereof are ⁴full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof ⁵have spoken lies, and ⁶their tongue is deceitful in their mouth. 13 Therefore I also have smitten thee with a grievous wound; ¹I have made thee desolate because of thy sins. 14 ¹Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy ²humiliation shall be in the midst of thee: and thou shalt remove, but shalt not carry away safe; and that which thou carriest away will I give up to the sword. 15 ¹Thou shalt sow, but shalt not reap: thou shalt tread the olives, but shalt not anoint thee with oil; and the vintage, but shalt not drink the wine. 16 For the statutes of ¹Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of ²Ahab, and ye walk in ³their counsels: that I should make thee ⁴a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof ⁵an hissing; and ye shall bear ⁶the reproach of my people.

17 Woe is me! for I am ¹as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the grape gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat; ²my soul desireth ³the firstripe fig. 2 ¹The godly man is perished out of the earth, and ²there is none upright among men: ³they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt ⁴every man his brother with a net. 3 ¹Their hands are upon that which is evil to do it diligently; ²the prince asketh, and ³the judge is ready for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth the mischief of his soul: thus they weave it together. 4 The best of them is ¹as a brier: ²the most upright is ³worse than a thorn hedge: the day of ⁴thy watchmen, even thy visitation, is come; ⁵now shall be their perplexity. 5 ¹Trust ye not in a friend, ²put ye not confidence in a ³guide: keep ⁴the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom. 6 For ¹the son dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter in law against her mother in law; ²a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

7 But as for me, ¹I will look unto the LORD; ²I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me. 8 ¹Rejoice not against me, O ²mine enemy: ³when I fall, I shall arise; ⁴when I sit in darkness, the LORD shall be a light unto me. 9 ¹I will bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him; until ²he plead my cause, and execute judgement for me: ³he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness. 10 Then ¹mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her; which ²said unto me, Where is the LORD thy God? ³Mine eyes shall behold her; now shall she be trodden down ⁴as the mire of the streets. 11 ¹As a day for building thy walls! 12 In that day shall ³the image; ^aI will make thy grave; ^bfor thou art vile. ¹⁵Behold, upon the mountains ^cthe feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! ^dKeep thy feasts, O Judah, ^eperform thy vows: ^ffor ¹the wicked one shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

¹He that dasheth in pieces ²is come up before thy face: ³keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily. ²For ⁴the LORD bringeth again the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and ⁵marred their vine branches. ³The shield of his mighty men is made red, ⁶the valiant men are in scarlet: the chariots ⁷flash with steel in the day of his preparation, and the ⁸spears are shaken terribly. ⁴The chariots rage in the streets, they jostle one against another in the broad ways: the appearance of them is like torches, they run like the lightnings. ⁵He remembereth ⁹his worthies: ¹⁰they stumble in their march; they make haste to the wall thereof, and the mantelet is prepared. ⁶The gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace is ¹¹dissolved. ⁷And Huzzab is ¹²uncovered, she is carried away, and her handmaids ¹³mourn as with the voice of doves, ¹⁴taberning upon their ¹⁵breasts. ⁸But ¹⁶Nineveh hath been ¹⁷from of old like a pool of water: yet they flee away; Stand, stand, ¹⁸they cry; but ¹⁹none ²⁰looketh back. ⁹Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold: for there is none end of the store, the ²¹glory of all pleasant furniture. ¹⁰She is empty, and void, and waste: and ²²the heart melteth, and ²³the knees smite together, and ²⁴anguish is in all loins, and ²⁵the faces of them all are waxed pale. ¹¹Where is the den of the lions, and the feeding place of ²⁶the young lions, where the lion ²⁷and the lioness walked, the lion's whelp, and ²⁸none made them afraid? ¹²The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his caves ²⁹with prey, and his dens with ravin. ¹³Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts, and ³⁰I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions: and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and ³¹the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

¹Woe to ³²the bloody city! it ³³is all full of lies and rapine; ²the prey departeth not. ³⁴The noise of the whip, and the noise of the rattling of wheels; and ³⁵prancing horses, and ³⁶jumping chariots; ³⁷the horseman ³⁸mounting, and the flashing sword, and ³⁹the glittering spear: ⁴⁰and a multitude of slain, and a great heap of carcases: and there is none end of the corpses; they stumble upon their corpses: ⁴¹because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the well favoured ⁴²harlot, ⁴³the mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts. ⁴⁴Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts, and ⁴⁵I will discover thy skirts ⁴⁶upon thy face; and I will shew the nations ⁴⁷thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame. ⁴⁸And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and ⁴⁹make thee vile, and will set thee as ⁵⁰a gazing-stock. ⁴⁹And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee ⁵¹shall flee from thee, and say, ⁵²Nineveh is laid waste: ⁵³who will be-moan her? ⁵⁴Whence shall I seek comforters for thee? ⁵⁵Art thou better than ⁵⁶No-amon, that was situate ⁵⁷among the ⁵⁸rivers, that had the waters round about her; whose rampart was ⁵⁹the sea, and her wall ⁶⁰was of the sea? ⁵⁹Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, and it was infinite; ⁶¹Put and ⁶²Lubim were thy helpers. ⁶³Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity: ⁶⁴her young children also were dashed in pieces at the top of all the streets: and ⁶⁵they cast lots for her honourable men, ⁶⁶and all her great men were bound in chains. ⁶⁷Thou also shalt be drunken, thou shalt be hid; ⁶⁸thou also shalt seek ⁶⁹a strong hold because of the enemy. ⁷⁰All thy fortresses shall be ⁷¹like fig trees

² O LORD, ^bhow long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear? I cry out unto thee ^cof violence, and thou wilt not save. ³ Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and ^dlook upon perverseness? for spoiling ^eand violence are before me: and there is strife, and contention riseth up. ⁴ Therefore the law is slackened, and judgement ^fdoth never go forth: ^gfor the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore judgement goeth forth perverted. ⁵ Behold ye among the nations, and regard, and wonder marvellously: ^afor ^bI work a work in your days, which ye will not believe though it be told you. ⁶ For, lo, ^cI raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation; ^dwhich march through the breadth of the earth, ^eto possess dwelling places that are not theirs. ⁷ They are terrible and dreadful: ^ftheir judgement and their dignity proceed from themselves. ⁸ Their horses also are swifter than leopards, and are more fierce than ^gthe evening wolves; and their horsemen ^hspread themselves: yea, their horsemen come from far; ⁱthey fly as an eagle that hasteth to devour.

⁹ They come all of them ^jfor violence; ^ktheir faces are set eagerly ^las ^mthe east wind; and they gather captives ⁿas the sand. ¹⁰ Yea, he scoffeth at kings, and princes are a derision unto him: ^ohe derideth every strong hold; for ^phe heapeth up dust, and taketh it. ¹¹ Then shall he sweep by ^qas a wind, and shall ^rpass over, and ^sbe guilty: ^teven he ^uwhose might is his god. ¹² Art not thou ^vfrom everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? ¹³ we shall not die. O LORD, ^wthou hast ordained him for judgement; and thou, O ^xRock, hast established him for correction. ¹⁴ Thou that art ^yof purer eyes than to behold evil, and that canst not look on perverseness, ^zwherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and ^{aa}holdest thy peace when the wicked swalloweth up the man that is more righteous than he; ¹⁵ and makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them? ¹⁶ He taketh up all of them ^{ab}with the angle, he catcheth them in his net, and gathereth them in his drag: therefore he rejoiceth and is glad. ¹⁷ Therefore he sacrificeth unto his net, and burneth incense unto his drag; because by ⁸ ^m Was the LORD displeased against the rivers?

^p Upon thy chariots of salvation?

⁹ Thy bow was made quite bare;

^q The oaths to the tribes were a ^r sure word. [Selah]

^s Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers.

¹⁰ ^t The mountains saw thee, and ^u were afraid;

¹⁵ ^{aj} Thou ^{ak} didst tread the sea with thine horses,

^{ao} Rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in my place:

That ^{ap} I should rest ^{aq} in the day of trouble,

^{ar} When it cometh up against the people ^{as} which invadeth him in troops.

¹⁷ For though the fig tree shall not blossom,

ZEPHANIAH.

I THE word of the LORD which I came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

2 I will utterly consume all things from off the face of the ground, saith the LORD. 3 I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the stumbling blocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the face of the ground, saith the LORD.

4 And I will stretch out mine hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the Chemarim with the priests; 5 and them that worship the host of heaven upon the housetops; and them that worship, which swear to the LORD and swear by Malcam; 6 and them that are turned back from following the LORD; and those that have not sought the LORD, nor inquired after him.

7 Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord God: for the day of the LORD is at hand: for the LORD hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath sanctified his guests. 8 And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORD's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, and the king's sons, and all such as are clothed with foreign apparel. 9 And in that day I will punish all those that leap over the threshold, which fill their master's house with violence and deceit. 10 And in that day, saith the LORD, there shall be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, and an howling from the second quarter, and a great crashing from the hills. 11 Howl ye inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the people of Canaan are undone: all they that were laden with silver are cut off. 12 And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with candles; and I will punish the men that are settled on their lees, that say in their heart, The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil. 13 And their wealth shall become a spoil, and their houses a desolation: yea, they shall build houses, but shall not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but shall not drink the wine thereof. 14 The great day of the LORD is near, it is near and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD; the mighty man crieth there bitterly. 15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, 16 a day of the trumpet and alarm, against the fenced cities, and against the high battlements. 17 And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as dung. 18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make an end, yea, a terrible end, of all them that dwell in the land.

1 Gather yourselves together, ye, gather together, O nation that hath no shame; 2 before the decree bring forth, before the day pass as the chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORD's anger come upon you. 3 Seek ye the LORD, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgement: seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORD's anger. 4 For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod at the noonday, and Ekron shall be rooted up. 5 Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! The word of the LORD is against you, O Canaan, the land of the Philistines; I will destroy thee, that there shall be no

1° In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet unto 2 Zerubbabel the son of 3 Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to 4 Joshua the son of 5 Jehozadak, the high priest, saying, 2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, 3 It is not the time for us to come, the time for the LORD's house to be built. 3 Then came the word of the LORD 4 by Haggai the prophet, saying, 4° Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your cieled houses, while 5 this house lieth waste? 5 Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts: 6° Consider your ways. 6° Ye have sown much, and bring in little; 7 ye eat, but ye have not enough; 8 ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; 9 ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that 10 earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes. 7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: 8° Consider your ways. 8 Go up to the 9 mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and 10 I will take pleasure in it, and 11 I will be glorified, saith the LORD. 9° Ye looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, 10 I did 11 blow upon it. Why? saith the LORD of hosts. Because of mine house 1 that lieth waste, while ye run every man to his own house. 10 Therefore 12 for your sake the heaven is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit. 11 And 12 I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon 13 the corn, and upon the wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and 14 upon all the labour of the hands.

12° Then 13 Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and 14 Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all 15 the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him; and the people did fear before the LORD. 13 Then spake Haggai 16 the LORD's messenger in the LORD's message unto the people, saying, 17 I am with you, saith the LORD. 14 And 18 the LORD stirred up the spirit of 19 Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of 20 Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all 21 the remnant of the people; and they came and 22 did work in the house of the LORD of

In the eighth month, ^ain the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto ^bZechariah the son of ^cBerechiah, the son of ^dIddo, the prophet, saying, 2^e The LORD hath been sore displeased with your fathers. 3 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts: ^f'Return unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and ^g'I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. 4^h Be ye not as your fathers, ⁱ'unto whom the former prophets cried, saying, 'Thus saith the LORD of hosts, ^j'Return ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but ^kthey did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD. 5^l Your fathers, where are they? and ^m'the prophets, do they live for ever? 6ⁿ But my words and my statutes, which I commanded ^omy servants the prophets, did they not ^povertake your fathers? and they turned and said, ^q'Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to ^rour ways, and according to ^sour doings, so hath he dealt with us.

7 Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month ^t'Shebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto ^bZechariah the son of ^cBerechiah, the son of ^dIddo, the prophet, saying, 8 I saw in the night, and behold ^ea man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the ^fbottom; and behind him there were ^g'horses, red, sorrel, and white. 9 Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And ^h'the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will shew thee what these be. 10 And ⁱthe man that stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, ^j'These are they whom the LORD hath sent to ^kwalk to and fro through the earth. 11 And they answered ^l'the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, ^m'We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sitteth still, and ⁿ'is at rest. 12 Then ^o'the angel of the LORD answered and said, ^p'O LORD of hosts, ^q'how long wilt thou not ^r'have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these ^s'threescore and ten years? 13 And the LORD answered ^t'the angel that talked with me with ^u'good words, ^veven comfortable words. 14 So ^w'the angel that talked with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts: ^x'I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. 15 ^y'And I am very sore displeased with the nations that are ^z'at ease: ^{aa}'for I was but a little displeased, ^{ab}'and they ^{ac}'helped forward the affliction. 16 Therefore thus saith the LORD: ^{ad}'I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies; ^{ae}'my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and ^{af}'a line shall be stretched forth over Jerusalem. 17 Cry yet again, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts: ^{ag}'My cities ^{ah}'through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; ^{ai}'and the LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet ^{aj}'choose Jerusalem.

18 And I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and behold ^{ak}'four horns. 19 And I said unto ^{al}'the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered me, ^{am}'These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem. 20 And the LORD shewed me four smiths. 21 Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, ^{an}'These are the horns which scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come ^{ao}'to fray them, to cast down the horns of the nations, ^{ap}'which lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it.

1 And I lifted up mine eyes, 2 and saw, and behold ^{aq}'a man with a measuring line in his hand. 2 Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, ^{ar}'To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof. 3 And, behold, ^{as}'the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him, 4 and said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, 'Jerusalem shall¹ be inhabited

 'as villages without walls, by reason of 'the multitude of men and cattle therein. 5 For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her 'a wall of fire round about, and I will be the glory in the midst of her. 6 Ho, ho,
 'flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD: for I have 'spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD. 7 'Ho Zion, escape, thou that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon. 8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts: 2 After glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: 'for he that toucheth you toucheth^b the apple of his eye. 9 For, behold, 'I will shake mine hand over them,
 'and they shall be a spoil to those that served them: and 'ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me. 10 'Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for, 'lo, I come,
 'and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD. 11 'And many nations shall join themselves to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people: 'and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and 'thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee. 12 'And the LORD shall inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and shall yet 'choose Jerusalem. 13 'Be silent, all flesh, before the LORD: for he is waked up out of his holy habitation.

1 And he shewed me 'Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, 'and 'Satan standing at his right hand to be his adversary. 2 And the LORD said unto Satan, 'The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan; yea, the LORD that hath 'chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this 'a brand plucked out of the fire? 3 Now
 'Joshua was 'clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel. 4 And he answered and spake unto 'those that stood before him, saying, 'Take the filthy garments from off him. And unto him he said, Behold, 'I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and 'I will clothe thee with rich apparel.
 5 And 'I said, 'Let them set a fair
 'mitre upon his head. So they set a fair 'mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments; and the angel of the LORD stood by.

 6 And the angel of the LORD protested unto 'Joshua, saying, 7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt 'keep my charge, then thou also shalt 'judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee^a a place of access among 'these that stand by. 8 Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou and thy fellows that sit before thee; for
 'they are men which are a 'sign:
 for, behold, I will bring forth^b my servant 'the 'Branch. 9 For behold,
 'the stone that I have set before Joshua; upon one stone are 'seven eyes: behold, I will 'engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and 'I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. 10 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbour^a under the vine and under the fig tree.

1 And 'the angel that talked 4 waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep. 2 And he said unto me, What seest thou?
 And I said, I have seen, and behold,
 'a candlestick all of gold, with its bowl upon the top of it, and its 'seven lamps thereon; 'there are seven pipes to each of the lamps, which are upon the top thereof:
 3 and 'two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.
 4 And I answered and spake to 'the angel that talked with me, saying,
 What are these, my lord? 5 Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, 'Know-est thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord. 6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying,
 This is the word of the LORD unto 'Zerubbabel, saying, 'Not by 'might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.
 7 Who art thou, 'O great mountain? before 'Zerubbabel 'thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth 'the head stone with shoutings of Grace, grace, unto it.
 8 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 9 'The hands of 'Zerubbabel have laid the founda-

also ^a finish it; ^b and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you. ^c 10 For who hath despised the day of small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see ^d the plummet in the hand of ^e Zerubbabel, even ^f these seven, ^g which are the eyes of the LORD; ^h they run to and fro through the whole earth. ⁱ 11 Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these ^j two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof? ^k 12 And I answered the second time, and said unto him, What be these ^l two olive branches, ^m which are beside the two golden spouts, that empty ⁿ the golden oil out of themselves? ^o 13 And he answered me and said, ^p Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord. ^q 14 Then said he, ^r These are the two sons of oil, that stand by ^s the LORD of the whole earth.

^t 1 Then again I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and behold, a flying ^u roll. ^v 2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying ^w roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits. ^x 3 Then said he unto me, This is ^y the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole land: for every one that ^z stealeth shall be purged out ^{aa} on the one side according to it; and every one that ^{ab} sweareth shall be purged out ^{ac} on the other side according to it. ^{ad} 4 I will cause it to go forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of ^{ae} him that sweareth falsely by my name: and ^{af} it shall abide in the midst of his house, and ^{ag} shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof.

^{ah} 5 ^{ai} Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, ^{aj} Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth. ^{ak} 6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is ^{al} the ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their ^{am} resemblance in all the land: ^{an} 7 (and behold, there was lifted up ^{ao} a talent of lead:) and this is a woman sitting in the midst of the ephah. ^{ap} 8 And he said, This is Wickedness; and he cast her down into the midst of the ephah: and he cast ^{aq} the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof. ^{ar} 9 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold, there came forth two women, and ^{as} the wind was in their wings; now they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven. ^{at} 10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah? ^{au} 11 And he said unto me, To build her an house in the ^{av} land of Shinar: and when it is ^{aw} prepared, she shall be set there ^{ax} in her own place.

^{ay} 6 ^{az} And again I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and behold, there came four chariots out from between ^{ba} two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of ^{bb} brass. ^{bc} 2 In the first chariot were ^{bd} red horses; and in the second chariot ^{be} black horses; ^{bf} 3 and in the third chariot ^{bg} white horses; and in the fourth chariot grised ^{bh} bay horses. ^{bi} 4 Then I answered and said unto ^{bj} the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord? ^{bk} 5 And the angel answered and said unto me, ^{bl} These are the four ^{bm} winds of heaven, which go forth from ^{bn} standing before ^{bo} the LORD of all the earth. ^{bp} 6 The chariot wherein are the black horses goeth forth toward ^{bq} the north country; and the white went forth after them; and the grised went forth toward ^{br} the south country. ^{bs} 7 And the ^{bt} bay went forth, and sought to go that they might ^{bu} walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, ^{bv} walk to and fro through the earth. ^{bw} 8 So they walked to and fro through the earth. ^{bx} 8 Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, they that go toward ^{by} the north country have quieted my spirit in ^{bz} the north country.

^{ca} 9 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, ^{cb} 10 Take of them of the captivity, even of ^{cc} Heldai, of Tobijah, and of ^{cd} Jedaiah; and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of ^{ce} Zephaniah, whither they are come from Babylon; ^{cf} 11 yea, take of them silver and gold, and make ^{cg} 12 crowns, ^{ch} and set them upon the head of ^{ci} Joshua

¹⁷ And it came to pass in ²⁷ the fourth year of king Darius, that the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah in the fourth ²⁸ day of the ninth month, even in ²⁹ 'Chisleu. ¹⁸ Now ³⁰ they of Beth-el had sent Sharezer and Regem-melech, and their men, ³¹ to intreat the favour of the LORD, ³² and ³³ to speak unto the priests of the house of the LORD of hosts, and to ³⁴ the prophets, saying, Should I weep in ³⁵ the fifth month, ³⁶ separating myself, as I have done these so many years? ³⁷ 4 Then came the word of the LORD of hosts unto me, saying, ³⁸ 5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in ³⁹ the fifth and in ⁴⁰ the seventh month, even these ⁴¹ seventy years, ⁴² did ye at all fast ⁴³ unto me, even to me? ⁴⁴ 6 And when ye eat, and when ye drink, ⁴⁵ do not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves? ⁴⁶ 7 ⁴⁷ Should ye not hear the words which the LORD hath cried ⁴⁸ by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in ⁴⁹ prosperity, ⁵⁰ and the cities thereof round about her, and the ⁵¹ South and the ⁵² lowland were inhabited? ⁵³ 8 And the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying, ⁵⁴ 9 Thus hath the LORD of hosts spoken, saying, ⁵⁵ Execute true judgement, and shew mercy and compassion every man to his brother: ⁵⁶ 10 and ⁵⁷ oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, ⁵⁸ nor the poor; and ⁵⁹ let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart. ⁶⁰ 11 But ⁶¹ they refused to hearken, ⁶² and ⁶³ pulled away the shoulder, and ⁶⁴ stopped their ears, that they should not hear. ⁶⁵ 12 Yea, ⁶⁶ they made their hearts as an adamant stone, ⁶⁷ lest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts had sent ⁶⁸ by his spirit by the hand of ⁶⁹ the former prophets: ⁷⁰ therefore came there great wrath from the LORD of hosts. ⁷¹ 13 ⁷² And it came to pass that, as he cried, and they would not hear; ⁷³ so they shall cry, and I will not hear, said the LORD of hosts; ⁷⁴ 14 ⁷⁵ but I will scatter them with a whirlwind among all ⁷⁶ the nations whom they have not known. ⁷⁷ Thus the land was desolate after them, ⁷⁸ that no man passed through nor returned: ⁷⁹ * for they laid the ⁸⁰ pleasant land desolate.

⁸¹ 8 And the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, ⁸² 2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: ⁸³ I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great fury. ⁸⁴ 3 Thus saith the LORD: ⁸⁵ I am returned unto Zion, and ⁸⁶ will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: ⁸⁷ and Jerusalem shall be called The city of truth; ⁸⁸ and the mountain of the LORD of hosts The holy mountain. ⁸⁹ 4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: There shall yet ⁹⁰ old men and old women ⁹¹ dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, every man with his staff in his hand ⁹² for very age. ⁹³ 5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof. ⁹⁴ 6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: ⁹⁵ If it be marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, ⁹⁶ should it also be marvellous in mine eyes? saith the LORD of hosts. ⁹⁷ 7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Behold, ⁹⁸ I will save my people ⁹⁹ from the east country, and from the west country: ¹⁰⁰ 8 and I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

9 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, even the temple, that it might be built. 10 For before those days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the adversary: for I set all men every one against his neighbour. 11 But now I will not be unto the remnant of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts. 12 For there shall be the seed of peace; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things. 13 And it shall come to pass that, as ye were a curse among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: ye fear not, but let your hands be strong. 14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts: As I thought to do evil unto you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and I repented not; so again have I thought in these days to do good unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: ye fear ye not. 15 These are the things that ye shall do; speak ye every man the truth with his neighbour; execute the judgement of truth and peace in your gates: and let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD.

18 And the word of the LORD of hosts came unto me, saying, 19 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore love truth and peace.

20 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come peoples, and the inhabitants of many cities: and the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to intreat the favour of the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts: I will go also. 22 Yea, many peoples and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to intreat the favour of the LORD. 23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold, out of all the languages of the nations, shall even take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.

1 The burden of the word of the LORD upon the land of Hadrach, and Damascus shall be its resting place: for the eye of man and of all the tribes of Israel is toward the LORD: 2 and Hamath also which bordereth thereon: Tyre and Zidon, because she is very wise. 3 And Tyre did build herself a strong hold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets. 4 Behold, the Lord will dispossess her, and he will smite her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire. 5 Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; Gaza also, and shall be sore pained; and Ekron, for her expectation shall be ashamed: and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited. 6 And a bastard shall dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines. 7 And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth; and he also shall be a remnant for our God: and he shall be as a chieftain in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite. 8 And I will encamp about mine house against the army, that none pass through or return: and no oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have I seen with mine eyes.

unto thee: he is just, and ¹having salvation; ²lowly, and riding upon an ass, even upon a colt the foal of an ass. ¹⁰And ¹I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and ²the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle bow shall be cut off; and ³he shall speak peace unto the nations: and ⁴his dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from ¹the River to the ends of the earth. ¹¹As for thee also, because of ²the blood of thy covenant ¹I have sent forth thy prisoners out of ²the pit wherein is no water. ¹²Turn you to the strong hold, ye ²prisoners of hope: even to-day do I declare that ¹I will render double unto thee. ¹³For ¹I have bent Judah for me, I have filled the bow with Ephraim; and I will stir up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, ²O Greece, and will make thee as the sword of a mighty man. ¹⁴And the LORD shall be seen over them, and ³his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and ²the LORD God shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with ²whirlwinds ²of the south. ¹⁵The LORD of hosts ²shall defend them; and ²they shall devour, ⁴and shall tread down the sling stones; and ²they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine: and they shall be filled like bowls, ²like the corners of the altar. ¹⁶And the LORD their God shall save them in that day as ²the flock of his people: for they shall be ²as the stones of a crown, ²lifted on high over his land. ¹⁷For how great is ²his ²goodness, and how great is ²his beauty! ¹corn shall make the young men flourish, and new wine the maids.

¹Ask ye ²of the LORD rain IO in the time of ²the latter rain, even of the LORD ²that maketh lightnings; and ²he shall give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field. ²For ²the teraphim ²have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie; and ²they have told false dreams, they comfort in vain: therefore ²they go their way like sheep, they are afflicted, because there is no shepherd. ³Mine anger is kindled against the shepherds, and ²I will punish the he-goats: for ²the LORD of hosts hath visited his flock the house of Judah, and shall make them as his goodly horse in the battle. ⁴From him shall come forth ²the corner stone, from him ²the nail, from him the battle bow, from him every ²exactor together. ⁵And they shall be as mighty men, ²treading down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle; and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them: ²and the riders on horses shall be confounded. ⁶And ²I will strengthen the house of Judah, and ²I will save the house of Joseph, and ²I will ¹⁰bring them again, ²for I have mercy upon them; and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for ²I am the LORD their God, and I will hear them. ⁷And they of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man, and ²their heart shall rejoice as through wine: yea, their children shall see it, and rejoice; their heart shall be glad in the LORD. ⁸²I will hiss for them, and ²gather them; for I have redeemed them: and ²they shall increase as they have increased. ⁹¹¹And I will sow them among the peoples; and ²they shall remember me in far countries: and they shall live with their children, and shall return. ¹⁰¹I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria; and ¹I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon; and ²place shall not be found for them. ¹¹And ²he shall pass through the sea of affliction, and shall smite ¹²the waves in the sea, ¹and all the depths of the Nile shall dry up: and the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, and ²the sceptre of Egypt shall depart away. ¹²And ²I will strengthen them in the LORD; and ²they shall walk up and down in his name, saith the LORD.

pride of Jordan is spoiled. 4 Thus said the LORD my God: 'Feed the flock of slaughter; 5 *whose¹ possessors slay them, and hold themselves not guilty; and they that sell them say, Blessed be the LORD, for *I am rich: and *their own shepherds pity them not. 6 For *I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king: and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them. 7 *So I fed the flock of slaughter, verily *v the poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called ^aBeauty, and the other I called ^bBands; *and I fed the flock. 8 And ^bI cut off the three shepherds in one month; for my soul was weary of them, and their soul also loathed me. 9 Then said I, I will not feed you: *that that dieth, let it die; and *that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let them which are left eat every one the flesh of another. 10 And I took ^dmy staff Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the peoples. 11 And it was broken in that day: and *thus *v the poor of the flock that gave heed unto me knew that it was the word of the LORD. 12 And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my hire; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my hire *thirty pieces of silver. 13 And the LORD said unto me, Cast it ^eunto the potter, / the goodly price that I was prized at of them. And I took the *thirty pieces of silver, and cast them ^eunto the potter, in the house of the LORD. 14 Then I cut asunder ^gmine other staff, even Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel. 15 And the LORD said unto me, Take unto thee yet again the instruments of ^aa foolish shepherd. 16 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, *which shall not ^hvisit those that be ^hcut off, neither shall seek ⁱthose that be scattered, nor heal that that is broken; neither shall he feed that which ⁱis sound, but ^jhe shall eat the flesh of the fat, and shall tear their hoofs in pieces. 17 *Woe to the worthless shepherd / that leaveth the flock / the sword shall be upon his arm, and *v upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

12 ¹The ¹²burden of the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

Thus saith the LORD, * which stretcheth forth the heavens, and * layeth the foundation of the earth, and * formeth the spirit of man within him: 2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem ^aa cup of reeling unto *all the peoples round about, and ¹⁴upon Judah also ¹⁵shall it be in the siege against Jerusalem. 3 And it shall come to pass / in that day, that I will make Jerusalem *a burdensome stone for all the peoples; *all that burden themselves with it shall be sore wounded; and *all the nations of the earth shall be gathered together against it. 4 / In that day, saith the LORD, *I will smite every horse *with astonishment, and his rider *with madness: and *I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the peoples *with blindness. 5 And the chieftains of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in the LORD of hosts their God. 6 / In that day will I make the chieftains of Judah *like a pan of fire among wood, and like a torch of fire among sheaves; and *they shall devour all the peoples round about, on the right hand and on the left: and ^bJerusalem shall yet again dwell in her own place, even in Jerusalem. 7 The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem be not magnified above Judah. 8 / In that day *shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and ^dhe ¹⁰that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, *as the angel of the LORD before them. 9 And it shall come to pass / in that day, that /I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem. 10 And ^gI will pour upon

I ¹THE ¹burden of the word of the LORD to Israel by ^{2b} Malachi.

^{2c} I have loved you, saith the LORD. ⁴ Yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? ⁸ Was not Esau Jacob's brother? saith the LORD:
 yet I loved Jacob; ³ but Esau I hated, and ² made his mountains a desolation, and gave his heritage to the jackals of the wilderness.
⁴ Whereas Edom saith, We are ⁶ beaten down, but we will return and build the waste places; thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down: and men shall call them The border of wickedness, and The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever. ⁵ And ^a your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, The LORD ⁶ be magnified ⁷ beyond the border of Israel.

⁶ A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be ^a a father, where is mine honour? and if I be ^a a master, where is my fear?
 saith the LORD of hosts unto you,
¹⁰ O priests, that despise my name.
⁴ And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name? ⁷ Ye offer polluted ^a bread upon mine altar.
⁶ And ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, ⁶ The table of the LORD is contemptible.
⁸ And when ye offer the blind for sacrifice, it is no evil! and when ye offer the lame and sick, it is no evil!
 Present it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee? or will he accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts. ⁹ And now, I pray you, ² intreat the favour of God, that he may be gracious unto us:
 this hath been ⁸ by your means:
⁷ will he ⁹ accept any of your persons? saith the LORD of hosts.
¹⁰ Oh that there were one among you that would shut the doors, that ye might not kindle fire on mine altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, ^a neither will I accept an offering at your hand. ¹¹ For from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same ^a my name ¹⁰ is great among the Gentiles; and in every place ¹¹ incense is offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for ^a my name ¹⁰ is great among the Gentiles, saith the LORD of hosts.

¹² But ye profane it, in that ye say,
¹⁰ The table of the LORD is polluted, and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible. ¹³ Ye say also, Behold, ^a what a weariness is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and ^a ye have brought that which was taken by violence, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye bring the offering: should I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD. ¹⁴ But cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock ^a a male, and ^a voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a blemished thing: for ^b I am a great king, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is ^c terrible among the Gentiles.

¹ And now, ^d O ye priests,
² ^a this commandment is for you.
^a If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, then will I send ² the curse upon you, and I will curse ^a your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart. ³ Behold, ^d I will rebuke ¹² the seed for your sake, and ¹ will spread dung upon your faces, even ^e the dung of your ¹³ sacrifices; and ye shall be taken away ¹⁴ with it. ⁴ And ye shall know that I have sent ^f this commandment unto you, that ¹⁰ my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.
⁵ My covenant was with him of life and ^a peace; and I gave them to him ^a that he might fear, and he feared me, and stood in awe of my name. ⁶ The law of truth was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and uprightness, and did ² turn many away from inquity. ⁷ For ⁷ the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is ⁸ the messenger of the LORD of hosts. ⁸ But ye are turned aside out of the way; 'ye have caused many to stumble in the law; ye have corrupted 'the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts. ⁹ Therefore 'have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but 'have had respect of persons in the law.

¹⁰ Have we not all 'one father? hath not 'one God created us? why do we 'deal treacherously every man against his brother, profaning the covenant of our fathers? ¹¹ Judah 'hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for 'Judah hath profaned the 'holiness of the LORD which he loveth, and hath married the daughter of a strange god. ¹² The LORD will cut off to the man that doeth this him that waketh and him that answereth, out of the tents of Jacob, 'and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts. ¹³ And this 'again ye do: 'ye cover the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, neither receiveth it with good will at your hand. ¹⁴ Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD 'hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, 'against whom 'thou hast dealt treacherously, though she is thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant. ¹⁵ And 'did he not make one, although he had the residue of the spirit? And wherefore one? He sought 'a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none 'deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. ¹⁶ For 'I hate putting away, saith the LORD, the God of Israel, and him that covereth his garment with violence, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye 'deal not treacherously.

¹⁷ Ye have wearied the LORD with your words. 'Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? In that 'ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or 'where is the God of judgement?

⁷ From the days of your fathers ye have turned aside from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. 'Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. 'But ye say, Wherein shall we return? 'Will a man rob God? yet ye rob me. 'But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? 'In tithes and 'offerings. ⁹ Ye are cursed with the curse; for ye rob me, even this whole nation. ¹⁰ Bring ye the whole tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and 'prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you 'the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. ¹¹ And I will rebuke 'the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts. ¹² And 'all nations shall call you happy : for ye shall be 'a delight-some land, saith the LORD of hosts.

13^m Your words have been stout against me, saith the LORD. ^aYet ye say, Wherein have we spoken against thee? 14 Ye have said, ^oIt is vain to serve God: and ^pwhat profit is it that we have kept his charge, and that we have walked ¹mournfully before the LORD of hosts? 15 And now we call ^qthe proud happy; yea, ^qthey that work wickedness are built up; yea, ^rthey tempt God, and are delivered. 16 Then they that feared the LORD ^sspake one with another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard, and ^aa book of remembrance was written before him, for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name. 17 And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, ^uin the day ²that I ^sdo make, ^veven a peculiar treasure; and ^wI will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him. 18 Then shall ye return and ^xdiscern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not. 1 For, behold, ⁴the day cometh, ^ait burneth as a furnace; and ^aall the proud, and ^aall that work wickedness, ^bshall be stubble: and the day that cometh ^bshall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that ^cit shall leave them neither root nor branch. 2 But unto you ^dthat fear my name shall ^ethe sun ^fof righteousness arise ^gwith healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and ^hgambol as calves of the stall. 3 And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet ⁱin the day that I ^sdo make. saith the LORD of hosts.

4^j Remember ye ^kthe law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him ^lin Horeb for all Israel, even statutes and judgments. 5^m Behold, I will send you ⁿElijah the prophet ^obefore the great and terrible day of the LORD come. 6 And he shall ^pturn the heart of the fathers ^qto the children, and the heart of the children ^rto their fathers; lest I come and ^ssmite the ^tearth with a ^ucurse.

REVISERS' PREFACE TO THE NEW TESTAMENT.

THE English Version of the New Testament here presented to the reader is a Revision of the Translation published in the year of Our Lord 1611, and commonly known by the name of the Authorised Version.

That Translation was the work of many hands and of several generations. The foundation was laid by William Tyndale. His translation of the New Testament was the true primary Version. The Versions that followed were either substantially reproductions of Tyndale's translation in its final shape, or revisions of Versions that had been themselves almost entirely based on it. Three successive stages may be recognised in this continuous work of authoritative revision: first, the publication of the Great Bible of 1539-41 in the reign of Henry VIII; next, the publication of the Bishops' Bible of 1568 and 1572 in the reign of Elizabeth; and lastly, the publication of the King's Bible of 1611 in the reign of James I. Besides these, the Genevan Version of 1560, itself founded on Tyndale's translation, must here be named; which, though not put forth by authority, was widely circulated in this country, and largely used by King James' Translators. Thus the form in which the English New Testament has now been read for 270 years was the result of various revisions made between 1525 and 1611; and the present Revision is an attempt, after a long interval, to follow the example set by a succession of honoured predecessors.

I. Of the many points of interest connected with the Translation of 1611, two require special notice; first, the Greek Text which it appears to have represented; and secondly, the character of the Translation itself.

1. With regard to the Greek Text, it would appear that, if to some extent the Translators exercised an independent judgement, it was mainly in choosing amongst readings contained in the principal editions of the Greek Text that had appeared in the sixteenth century. Wherever they seem to have followed a reading which is not found in any of those editions, their rendering may probably be traced to the Latin Vulgate. Their chief guides appear to have been the later editions of Stephanus and of Beza, and also, to a certain extent, the Complutensian Polyglott. All these were founded for the most part on manuscripts of late date, few in number, and used with little critical skill. But in those days it could hardly have been otherwise. Nearly all the more ancient of the documentary authorities have become known only within the last two centuries; some of the most important of them, indeed, within the last few years. Their publication has called forth not only improved editions of the Greek Text, but a succession of instructive discussions on the variations which have been brought to light, and on the best modes of distinguishing original readings from changes introduced in the course of transcription. While therefore it has long been the opinion of all scholars that the commonly received text needed thorough revision, it is but recently that materials have been acquired for executing such a work with even approximate completeness.

2. The character of the Translation itself will be best estimated by considering the leading rules under which it was made, and the extent to which these rules appear to have been observed.

The primary and fundamental rule was expressed in the following terms:— 'The ordinary Bible read in the Church, commonly called the Bishops' Bible, to be followed, and as little altered as the truth of the Original will permit.' There was, however, this subsequent provision:— 'These translations to be used, when they agree better with the text than the Bishops' Bible: Tyndale's, Matthew's, Coverdale's, Whitchurch's, Geneva.' The first of these rules, which was substantially the same as that laid down at the revision of the Great Bible in the reign of Elizabeth, was strictly observed. The other rule was but partially followed. The Translators made much use of the Genevan Version. They do not however appear to have frequently returned to the renderings of the other Versions named in the rule, where those Versions differed from the Bishops' Bible. On the other hand, their work shews evident traces of the influence of a Version not specified in the rules, the Rhemish, made from the Latin Vulgate, but by scholars conversant with the Greek Original.

Another rule, on which it is stated that those in authority laid great stress, related to the rendering of words that admitted of different interpretations. It was as follows:— 'When a word hath divers significations, that to be kept which hath been most commonly used by the most of the ancient fathers, being agreeable to the propriety of the place and the analogy of the faith.' With this rule was associated the following, on which equal stress appears to have been laid:— 'The old ecclesiastical words to be kept, viz. the word Church not to be translated Congregation, &c.' This latter rule was for the most part carefully observed; but it may be doubted whether, in the case of words that admitted of different meanings, the instructions were at all closely followed. In dealing with the more difficult words of this class, the Translators appear to have paid much regard to traditional interpretations, and especially to the authority of the Vulgate; but, as to the large residue of words which might properly fall under the rule, they used considerable freedom. Moreover they profess in their Preface to have studiously adopted a variety of expression which would now be deemed hardly consistent with the requirements of faithful translation. They seem to have been guided by the feeling that their Version would secure for the words they used a lasting place in the language; and they express a fear lest they should 'be charged (by scoffers) with some unequal dealing towards a great number of good English words,' which, without this liberty on their part, would not have a place in the pages of the English Bible. Still it cannot be doubted that they carried this liberty too far, and that the studied avoidance of uniformity in the rendering of the same words, even when occurring in the same context, is one of the blemishes in their work.

A third leading rule was of a negative character, but was rendered necessary by the experience derived from former Versions. The words of the rule are as follows:— 'No marginal notes at all to be affixed, but only for the explanation of the Hebrew or Greek words which cannot without some circumlocution so briefly and fitly be expressed in the text.' Here again the Translators used some liberty in their application of the rule. Out of more than 780 marginal notes originally appended to the Authorised Version of the New Testament, only a seventh part consists of explanations or literal renderings; the great majority of the notes being devoted to the useful and indeed necessary purpose of placing before the reader alternative renderings which it was judged that the passage or the words would fairly admit. The notes referring to variations in the Greek Text amount to about thirty-five.

Of the remaining rules it may be sufficient to notice one, which was for the most part consistently followed:— 'The names of the prophets and the holy writers, with the other names of the text, to be retained, as nigh as may be, accordingly as they were vulgarly used.' The Translators had also the liberty, in 'any place of special obscurity,' to consult those who might be qualified to give an opinion.

Passing from these fundamental rules, which should be borne in mind by any one who would rightly understand the nature and character of the Authorised Version, we must call attention to the manner in which the actual work of the translation was carried on. The New Testament was assigned to two separate Companies, the one consisting of eight members, sitting at Oxford, the other consisting of seven members, sitting at Westminster. There is no reason to believe that these Companies ever sat together. They communicated to each other, and likewise to the four Companies to which the Old Testament and the Apocrypha had been committed, the results of their labours; and perhaps afterwards reconsidered them: but the fact that the New Testament was divided between two separate bodies of men involved a grave inconvenience, and was beyond all doubt the cause of many inconsistencies. These probably would have been much more serious, had it not been provided that there should be a final supervision of the whole Bible, by selected members from Oxford, Cambridge, and Westminster, the three centres at which the work had been carried on. These supervisors are said by one authority to have been six in number, and by another twelve. When it is remembered that this supervision was completed in nine months, we may wonder that the incongruities which remain are not more numerous.

The Companies appear to have been occupied in the actual business of revision about two years and three quarters.

Such, so far as can be gathered from the rules and modes of procedure, is the character of the time-honoured Version which we have been called upon to revise. We have had to study this great Version carefully and minutely, line by line; and the longer we have been engaged upon it the more we have learned to admire its simplicity, its dignity, its power, its happy turns of expression, its general accuracy, and, we must not fail to add, the music of its cadences, and the felicities of its rhythm. To render a work that had reached this high standard of excellence still more excellent, to increase its fidelity without destroying its charm, was the task committed to us. Of that task, and of the conditions under which we have attempted its fulfilment, it will now be necessary for us to speak.

REVISERS' PREFACE TO THE NEW TESTAMENT.

II. The present Revision had its origin in action taken by the Convocation of the Province of Canterbury in February 1870, and it has been conducted throughout on the plan laid down in Resolutions of both Houses of the Province, and, more particularly, in accordance with Principles and Rules drawn up by a special Committee of Convocation in the following May. Two Companies, the one for the revision of the Authorised Version of the Old Testament, and the other for the revision of the same Version of the New Testament, were formed in the manner specified in the Resolutions, and the work was commenced on the twenty-second day of June 1870. Shortly afterwards, steps were taken, under a resolution passed by both Houses of Convocation, for inviting the co-operation of American scholars; and eventually two Committees were formed in America, for the purpose of acting with the two English Companies, on the basis of the Principles and Rules drawn up by the Committee of Convocation.

The fundamental Resolutions adopted by the Convocation of Canterbury on the third and fifth days of May 1870 were as follows:—

'1. That it is desirable that a revision of the Authorised Version of the Holy Scriptures be undertaken.

'2. That the revision be so conducted as to comprise both marginal renderings and such emendations as it may be found necessary to insert in the text of the Authorised Version.

'3. That in the above resolutions we do not contemplate any new translation of the Bible, or any alteration of the language, except where in the judgement of the most competent scholars such change is necessary.

'4. That in such necessary changes, the style of the language employed in the existing Version be closely followed.

'5. That it is desirable that Convocation should nominate a body of its own members to undertake the work of revision, who shall be at liberty to invite the co-operation of any eminent for scholarship, to whatever nation or religious body they may belong.'

The Principles and Rules agreed to by the Committee of Convocation on the twenty-fifth day of May 1870 were as follows:—

'1. To introduce as few alterations as possible into the Text of the Authorised Version consistently with faithfulness.

'2. To limit, as far as possible, the expression of such alterations to the language of the Authorised and earlier English Versions.

'3. Each Company to go twice over the portion to be revised, once provisionally, the second time finally, and on principles of voting as hereinafter is provided.

'4. That the Text to be adopted be that for which the evidence is decidedly preponderating; and that when the Text so adopted differs from that from which the Authorised Version was made, the alteration be indicated in the margin.

'5. To make or retain no change in the Text on the second final revision by each Company, except two thirds of those present approve of the same, but on the first revision to decide by simple majorities.

'6. In every case of proposed alteration that may have given rise to discussion, to defer the voting thereupon till the next Meeting, whensoever the same shall be required by one third of those present at the Meeting, such intended vote to be announced in the notice for the next Meeting.

'7. To revise the headings of chapters and pages, paragraphs, italics, and punctuation.

'8. To refer, on the part of each Company, when considered desirable, to Divines, Scholars, and Literary Men, whether at home or abroad, for their opinions.'

These rules it has been our endeavour faithfully and consistently to follow. One only of them we found ourselves unable to observe in all particulars. In accordance with the seventh rule, we have carefully revised the paragraphs, italics, and punctuation. But the revision of the headings of chapters and pages would have involved so much of indirect, and indeed frequently of direct interpretation, that we judged it best to omit them altogether.

Our communications with the American Committee have been of the following nature. We transmitted to them from time to time each several portion of our First Revision, and received from them in return their criticisms and suggestions. These we considered with much care and attention during the time we were engaged on our Second Revision. We then sent over to them the various portions of the Second Revision as they were completed, and received further suggestions, which, like the former, were closely and carefully considered. Last of all, we forwarded to them the Revised Version in its final form; and a list of those passages in which they desire to place on record their preference of other readings and renderings will be found at the end of the volume. We gratefully acknowledge their care, vigilance, and accuracy; and we humbly pray that their labours and our own, thus happily united, may be permitted to bear a blessing to both countries, and to all English-speaking people throughout the world.

The whole time devoted to the work has been ten years and a half. The First Revision occupied about six years; the Second, about two years and a half. The remaining time has been spent in the consideration of the suggestions from America on the Second Revision, and of many details and reserved questions arising out of our own labours. As a rule, a session of four days has been held every month (with the exception of August and September) in each year from the commencement of the work in June 1870. The average attendance for the whole time has been sixteen each day; the whole Company consisting at first of twenty-seven, but for the greater part of the time of twenty-four members, many of them residing at great distances from London. Of the original number four have been removed from us by death.

At an early stage in our labours, we entered into an agreement with the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge for the conveyance to them of our copyright in the work. This arrangement provided for the necessary expenses of the undertaking; and procured for the Revised Version the advantage of being published by Bodies long connected with the publication of the Authorised Version.

III. We now pass onward to give a brief account of the particulars of the present work. This we propose to do under the four heads of Text, Translation, Language, and Marginal Notes.

1. A revision of the Greek Text was the necessary foundation of our work; but it did not fall within our province to construct a continuous and complete Greek Text. In many cases the English rendering was considered to represent correctly either of two competing readings in the Greek, and then the question of the text was usually not raised. A sufficiently laborious task remained in deciding between the rival claims of various readings which might properly affect the translation. When these were adjusted, our deviations from the text presumed to underlie the Authorised Version had next to be indicated, in accordance with the fourth rule; but it proved inconvenient to record them in the margin. A better mode however of giving them publicity has been found, as the University Presses have undertaken to print them in connexion with complete Greek texts of the New Testament.

In regard of the readings thus approved, it may be observed that the fourth rule, by requiring that 'the text to be adopted' should be 'that for which the evidence is decidedly preponderating,' was in effect an instruction to follow the authority of documentary evidence without deference to any printed text of modern times, and therefore to employ the best resources of criticism for estimating the value of evidence. Textual criticism, as applied to the Greek New Testament, forms a special study of much intricacy and difficulty, and even now leaves room for considerable variety of opinion among competent critics. Different schools of criticism have been represented among us, and have together contributed to the final result. In the early part of the work every various reading requiring consideration was discussed and voted on by the Company. After a time the precedents thus established enabled the process to be safely shortened; but it was still at the option of every one to raise a full discussion on any particular reading, and the option was freely used. On the first revision, in accordance with the fifth rule, the decisions were arrived at by simple majorities. On the second revision, at which a majority of two thirds was required to retain or introduce a reading at variance with the reading presumed to underlie the Authorised Version, many readings previously adopted were brought again into debate, and either reaffirmed or set aside.

Many places still remain in which, for the present, it would not be safe to accept one reading to the absolute exclusion of others. In these cases we have given alternative readings in the margin, wherever they seem to be of sufficient importance or interest to deserve notice. In the introductory formula, the phrases 'many ancient authorities,' 'some ancient authorities,' are used with some latitude to denote a greater or lesser proportion of those authorities which have a distinctive right to be called ancient. These ancient authorities comprise not only Greek manuscripts, some of which were written in the fourth and fifth centuries, but versions of a still earlier date in different languages, and also quotations by Christian writers of the second and following centuries.

2. We pass now from the Text to the Translation. The character of the Revision was determined for us from the outset by the first rule, 'to introduce as few alterations as possible, consistently with faithfulness.' Our task was revision, not re-translation.

In the application however of this principle to the many and intricate details of our work, we have found ourselves constrained by faithfulness to introduce changes which might not at first sight appear to be included under the rule.

The alterations which we have made in the Authorised Version may be roughly grouped in five principal classes. First, alterations positively required by change of reading in the Greek Text. Secondly, alterations made where the Authorised Version appeared either to be incorrect, or to have chosen the less probable of two possible renderings. Thirdly, alterations of obscure or ambiguous renderings into such as are clear and express in their import. For it has been our principle not to leave any translation, or any arrangement of words, which could adapt itself to one or other of two interpretations, but rather to express as plainly as was possible that interpretation which seemed best to deserve a place in the text, and to put the other in the margin.

There remain yet two other classes of alterations which we have felt to be required by the same principle of faithfulness. These are, — Fourthly, alterations of the Authorised Version in cases where it was inconsistent with itself in the rendering of two or more passages confessedly alike or parallel. Fifthly, alterations rendered necessary by consequence, that is, arising out of changes already made, though not in themselves required by the general rule of faithfulness. Both these classes of alterations call for some further explanation.

The frequent inconsistencies in the Authorised Version have caused us much embarrassment from the fact already referred to, namely, that a studied variety of rendering, even in the same chapter and context, was a kind of principle with our predecessors, and was defended by them on grounds that have been mentioned above. The problem we had to solve was to discriminate between varieties of rendering which were compatible with fidelity to the true meaning of the text, and varieties which involved inconsistency, and were suggestive of differences that had no existence in the Greek. This problem we have solved to the best of our power, and for the most part in the following way.

Where there was a doubt as to the exact shade of meaning, we have looked to the context for guidance. If the meaning was fairly expressed by the word or phrase that was before us in the Authorised Version, we made no change, even where rigid adherence to the rule of translating, as far as possible, the same Greek word by the same English word might have prescribed some modification.

There are however numerous passages in the Authorized Version in which, whether regard be had to the recurrence (as in the first three Gospels) of identical clauses and sentences, to the repetition of the same word in the same passage, or to the characteristic use of particular words by the same writer, the studied variety adopted by the Translators of 1611 has produced a degree of inconsistency that cannot be reconciled with the principle of faithfulness. In such cases we have not hesitated to introduce alterations, even though the sense might not seem to the general reader to be materially affected.

The last class of alterations is that which we have described as rendered necessary by consequence; that is, by reason of some foregoing alteration. The cases in which these consequential changes have been found necessary are numerous and of very different kinds. Sometimes the change has been made to avoid tautology; sometimes to obviate an unpleasant alliteration or some other infelicity of sound; sometimes, in the case of smaller words, to preserve the familiar rhythm; sometimes for a convergence of reasons which, when explained, would at once be accepted, but until so explained might never be surmised even by intelligent readers.

This may be made plain by an example. When a particular word is found to recur with characteristic frequency in any one of the Sacred Writers, it is obviously desirable to adopt for it some uniform rendering. Again, where, as in the case of the first three Evangelists, precisely the same clauses or sentences are found in more than one of the Gospels, it is no less necessary to translate them in every place in the same way. These two principles may be illustrated by reference to a word that perpetually recurs in St. Mark's Gospel, and that may be translated either 'straightway,' 'forthwith,' or 'immediately.' Let it be supposed that the first rendering is chosen, and that the word, in accordance with the first of the above principles, is in that Gospel uniformly translated 'straightway.' Let it be further supposed that one of the passages of St. Mark in which it is so translated is found, word for word, in one of the other Gospels, but that there the rendering of the Authorised Version happens to be 'forthwith' or 'immediately.' That rendering must be changed on the second of the above principles; and yet such a change would not have been made but for this concurrence of two sound principles, and the consequent necessity of making a change on grounds extraneous to the passage itself.

This is but one of many instances of consequential alterations which might at first sight appear unnecessary, but which nevertheless have been deliberately made, and are not at variance with the rule of introducing as few changes in the Authorised Version as faithfulness would allow.

There are some other points of detail which it may be here convenient to notice. One of these, and perhaps the most important, is the rendering of the Greek aorist. There are numerous cases, especially in connexion with particles ordinarily expressive of present time, in which the use of the indefinite past tense in Greek and English is altogether different; and in such instances we have not attempted to violate the idiom of our language by forms of expression which it could not bear. But we have often ventured to represent the Greek aorist by the English preterite, even where the reader may find some passing difficulty in such a rendering, because we have felt convinced that the true meaning of the original was obscured by the presence of the familiar auxiliary. A remarkable illustration may be found in the seventeenth chapter of St. John's Gospel, where the combination of the aorist and the perfect shews, beyond all reasonable doubt, that different relations of time were intended to be expressed.

Changes of translation will also be found in connexion with the aorist participle, arising from the fact that the usual periphrasis of this participle in the Vulgate, which was rendered necessary by Latin idiom, has been largely reproduced in the Authorised Version by 'when' with the past tense (as for example in the second chapter of St. Matthew's Gospel), even where the ordinary participial rendering would have been easier and more natural in English.

In reference to the perfect and the imperfect tenses but little needs to be said. The correct translation of the former has been for the most part, though with some striking exceptions, maintained in the Authorised Version: while with regard to the imperfect, clear as its meaning may be in the Greek, the power of expressing it is so limited in English, that we have been frequently compelled to leave the force of the tense to be inferred from the context. In a few instances, where faithfulness imperatively required it, and especially where, in the Greek, the significance of the imperfect tense seemed to be additionally marked by the use of the participle with the auxiliary verb, we have introduced the corresponding form in English. Still, in the great majority of cases we have been obliged to retain the English preterite, and to rely either on slight changes in the order of the words, or on prominence given to the accompanying temporal particles, for the indication of the meaning which, in the Greek, the imperfect tense was designed to convey.

On other points of grammar it may be sufficient to speak more briefly.

Many changes, as might be anticipated, have been made in the case of the definite article. Here again it was necessary to consider the peculiarities of English idiom, as well as the general tenor of each passage. Sometimes we have felt it enough to prefix the article to the first of a series of words to all of which it is prefixed in the Greek, and thus, as it were, to impart the idea of definiteness to the whole series, without running the risk of overloading the sentence. Sometimes, conversely, we have had to tolerate the presence of the definite article in our Version, when it is absent from the Greek, and perhaps not even grammatically latent; simply because English idiom would not allow the noun to stand alone, and because the introduction of the indefinite article might have introduced an idea of oneness or individuality, which was not in any degree traceable in the original. In a word, we have been careful to observe the use of the article wherever it seemed to be idiomatically possible: where it did not seem to be possible, we have yielded to necessity.

As to the pronouns and the place they occupy in the sentence, a subject often overlooked by our predecessors, we have been particularly careful; but here again we have frequently been baffled by structural or idiomatic peculiarities of the English language which precluded changes otherwise desirable.

In the case of the particles we have met with less difficulty, and have been able to maintain a reasonable amount of consistency. The particles in the Greek Testament are, as is well known, comparatively few, and they are commonly used with precision. It has therefore been the more necessary here to preserve a general uniformity of rendering, especially in the case of the particles of causality and inference, so far as English idiom would allow.

Lastly, many changes have been introduced in the rendering of the prepositions, especially where ideas of instrumentality or of mediate agency, distinctly marked in the original, had been confused or obscured in the translation. We have however borne in mind the comprehensive character of such prepositions as 'of' and 'by,' the one in reference to agency and the other in reference to means, especially in the English of the seventeenth century; and have rarely made any change where the true meaning of the original as expressed in the Authorised Version would be apparent to a reader of ordinary intelligence.

3. We now come to the subject of Language.

The second of the rules, by which the work has been governed, prescribed that the alterations to be introduced should be expressed, as far as possible, in the language of the Authorised Version or of the Versions that preceded it.

To this rule we have faithfully adhered. We have habitually consulted the earlier Versions; and in our sparing introduction of words not found in them or in the Authorised Version we have usually satisfied ourselves that such words were employed by standard writers of nearly the same date, and had also that general hue which justified their introduction into a Version which has held the highest place in the classical literature of our language. We have never removed any archaisms, whether in structure or in words, except where we were persuaded either that the meaning of the words was not generally understood, or that the nature of the expression led to some misconception of the true sense of the passage. The frequent inversions of the strict order of the words, which add much to the strength and variety of the Authorised Version, and give an archaic colour to many felicities of diction, have been seldom modified. Indeed, we have often adopted the same arrangement in our own alterations; and in this, as in other particulars, we have sought to assimilate the new work to the old.

In a few exceptional cases we have failed to find any word in the older stratum of our language that appeared to convey the precise meaning of the original. There, and there only, we have used words of a later date; but not without having first assured ourselves that they are to be found in the writings of the best authors of the period to which they belong.

In regard of Proper Names no rule was prescribed to us. In the case of names of frequent occurrence we have deemed it best to follow generally the rule laid down for our predecessors. That rule, it may be remembered, was to this effect, 'The names of the prophets and the holy writers, with the other names of the text, to be retained, as high as may be, accordingly as they were vulgarly used.' Some difficulty has been felt in dealing with names less familiarly known. Here our general practice has been to follow the Greek form of names, except in the case of persons and places mentioned in the Old Testament: in this case we have followed the Hebrew.

4. The subject of the Marginal Notes deserves special attention. They represent the results of a large amount of careful and elaborate discussion, and will, perhaps, by their very presence, indicate to some extent the intricacy of many of the questions that have almost daily come before us for decision. These Notes fall into four main groups: first, notes specifying such differences of reading as were judged to be of sufficient importance to require a particular notice; secondly, notes indicating the exact rendering of words to which, for the sake of English idiom, we were obliged to give a less exact rendering in the text; thirdly, notes, very few in number, affording some explanation which the original appeared to require; fourthly, alternative renderings in difficult or debateable passages. The notes of this last group are numerous, and largely in excess of those which were admitted by our predecessors. In the 270 years that have passed away since their labours were concluded, the Sacred Text has been minutely examined, discussed in every detail, and analysed with a grammatical precision unknown in the days of the last Revision. There has thus been accumulated a large amount of materials that have prepared the way for different renderings, which necessarily came under discussion. We have therefore placed before the reader in the margin other renderings than those which were adopted in the text, wherever such renderings seemed to deserve consideration. The rendering in the text, where it agrees with the Authorised Version, was supported by at least one third, and, where it differs from the Authorised Version, by at least two thirds of those who were present at the second revision of the passage in question.

A few supplementary matters have yet to be mentioned. These may be thus enumerated, — the use of Italics, the arrangement in Paragraphs, the mode of printing Quotations from the Poetical Books of the Old Testament, the Punctuation, and, last of all, the Titles of the different Books that make up the New Testament, — all of them particulars on which it seems desirable to add a few explanatory remarks.

(a) The determination, in each place, of the words to be printed in italics has not been by any means easy; nor can we hope to be found in all cases perfectly consistent. In the earliest editions of the Authorised Version the use of a different type to indicate supplementary words not contained in the original was not very frequent, and cannot easily be reconciled with any settled principle. A review of the words so printed was made, after a lapse of some years, for the editions of the Authorised Version published at Cambridge in 1629 and 1638. Further, though slight, modifications were introduced at intervals between 1638 and the more systematic revisions undertaken respectively by Dr. Paris in the Cambridge Edition of 1762, and by Dr. Blayney in the Oxford Edition of 1769. None of them however rest on any higher authority than that of the persons who from time to time superintended the publication. The last attempt to bring the use of italics into uniformity and consistency was made by Dr. Scrivener in the Paragraph Bible published at Cambridge in 1870-73. In succeeding to these labours, we have acted on the general principle of printing in italics words which did not appear to be necessarily involved in the Greek. Our tendency has been to diminish rather than to increase the amount of italic printing; though, in the case of difference of readings, we have usually marked the absence of any words in the original which the sense might nevertheless require to be present in the Version; and again, in the case of inserted pronouns, where the reference did not appear to be perfectly certain, we have similarly had recourse to italics. Some of these cases, especially when there are slight differences of reading, are of singular intricacy, and make it impossible to maintain rigid uniformity.

(b) We have arranged the Sacred Text in paragraphs, after the precedent of the earliest English Versions, so as to assist the general reader in following the current of narrative or argument. The present arrangement will be found, we trust, to have preserved the due mean between a system of long portions which must often include several separate topics, and a system of frequent breaks which, though they may correctly indicate the separate movements of thought in the writer, often seriously impede a just perception of the true continuity of the passage. The traditional division into chapters, which the Authorised Version inherited from Latin Bibles of the later middle ages, is an illustration of the former method. These paragraphs, for such in fact they are, frequently include several distinct subjects. Moreover they sometimes, though rarely, end where there is no sufficient break in the sense. The division of chapters into verses, which was introduced into the New Testament for the first time in 1551, is an exaggeration of the latter method, with its accompanying inconveniences. The serious obstacles to the right understanding of Holy Scripture, which are interposed by minute subdivision, are often overlooked; but if any one will consider for a moment the injurious effect that would be produced by breaking up a portion of some great standard work into separate verses, he will at once perceive how necessary has been an alteration in this particular. The arrangement by chapters and verses undoubtedly affords facilities for reference: but this advantage we have been able to retain by placing the numerals on the inside margin of each page.

(c) A few words will suffice as to the mode of printing quotations from the Poetical Books of the Old Testament. Wherever the quotation extends to two or more lines, our practice has been to recognise the parallelism of their structure by arranging the lines in a manner that appears to agree with the metrical divisions of the Hebrew original. Such an arrangement will be found helpful to the reader; not only as directing his attention to the poetical character of the quotation, but as also tending to make its force and pertinence more fully felt. We have treated in the same way the hymns in the first two chapters of the Gospel according to St. Luke.

(d) Great care has been bestowed on the punctuation. Our practice has been to maintain what is sometimes called the heavier system of stopping, or, in other words, that system which, especially for convenience in reading aloud, suggests such pauses as will best ensure a clear and intelligent setting forth of the true meaning of the words. This course has rendered necessary, especially in the Epistles, a larger use of colons and semicolons than is customary in modern English printing.

(e) We may in the last place notice one particular to which we were not expressly directed to extend our revision, namely, the titles of the Books of the New Testament. These titles are no part of the original text; and the titles found in the most ancient manuscripts are of too short a form to be convenient for use. Under these circumstances, we have deemed it best to leave unchanged the titles which are given in the Authorised Version as printed in 1611.

We now conclude, humbly commending our labours to Almighty God, and praying that his favour and blessing may be vouchsafed to that which has been done in his name. We recognised from the first the responsibility of the undertaking; and through our manifold experience of its abounding difficulties we have felt more and more, as we went onward, that such a work can never be accomplished by organised efforts of scholarship and criticism, unless assisted by Divine help.

We know full well that defects must have their place in a work so long and so arduous as this which has now come to an end. Blemishes and imperfections there are in the noble Translation which we have been called upon to revise; blemishes and imperfections will assuredly be found in our own Revision. All endeavours to translate the Holy Scriptures into another tongue must fall short of their aim, when the obligation is imposed of producing a Version that shall be alike literal and idiomatic, faithful to each thought of the original, and yet, in the expression of it, harmonious and free. While we dare to hope that in places not a few of the New Testament the introduction of slight changes has cast a new light upon much that was difficult and obscure, we cannot forget how often we have failed in expressing some finer shade of meaning which we recognised in the original, how often idiom has stood in the way of a perfect rendering, and how often the attempt to preserve a familiar form of words, or even a familiar cadence, has only added another perplexity to those which already beset us.

Thus, in the review of the work which we have been permitted to complete, our closing words must be words of mingled thanksgiving, humility, and prayer. Of thanksgiving, for the many blessings vouchsafed to us throughout the unbroken progress of our corporate labours; of humility, for our failings and imperfections in the fulfilment of our task; and of prayer to Almighty God, that the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ may be more clearly and more freshly shewn forth to all who shall be readers of this Book.

I ¹THE book of the ²generation of Jesus Christ, ³the son of David, ⁴the son of Abraham.

⁵Abraham begat Isaac; and ⁶Isaac begat Jacob; and ⁷Jacob begat Judah and his brethren; ⁸and ⁹Judah begat Perez and Zerah of Tamar; and Perez begat Hezron; and Hezron begat ¹⁰Ram; ¹¹and ¹²Ram begat Amminadab; and Amminadab begat Nahshon; and Nahshon begat Salmon; ¹³and Salmon begat Boaz of ¹⁴Rahab; and Boaz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse; ¹⁵and ¹⁶Jesse begat David the king.

And ¹⁷David begat Solomon ¹⁸her that had been the wife of Uriah; ¹⁹and ²⁰Solomon begat Rehoboam; and Rehoboam begat Abijah; and Abijah begat ²¹Asa; ²²and ²³Asa begat Jehoshaphat; and Jehoshaphat begat Joram; ²⁴and Joram begat Uzziah; ²⁵and Uzziah begat Jotham; and Jotham begat Ahaz; and Ahaz begat Hezekiah; ²⁶and Hezekiah begat Manasseh; and Manasseh begat ²⁷Amon; and ²⁸Amon begat Josiah; ²⁹and ³⁰Josiah begat ³¹Jechoniah and his brethren, at the time of the ³²carrying away to Babylon.

³³And after the ³⁴carrying away to Babylon, ³⁵Jechoniah begat ³⁶Shealtiel; and ³⁷Shealtiel begat Zerubbabel; ³⁸and Zerubbabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor; ³⁹and Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud; ⁴⁰and Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob; ⁴¹and Jacob begat ⁴²Joseph the husband of Mary, who is called Christ.

⁴³So all the generations from Abraham unto David are fourteen generations; and from David unto the ⁴⁴carrying away to Babylon fourteen generations; and from the ⁴⁵carrying away to Babylon unto ⁴⁶the Christ fourteen generations.

⁴⁷Now the ⁴⁸birth ⁴⁹of ⁵⁰Jesus Christ was on this wise: ⁵¹When his mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found with child ⁵²of the ⁵³Holy Ghost. ⁵⁴And Joseph her husband, being a righteous man, and not willing ⁵⁵to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily. ⁵⁶But when he thought on these things, behold, ⁵⁷an angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is ⁵⁸conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost. ⁵⁹And she shall bring forth a son; and ⁶⁰thou shalt call his name JESUS; ⁶¹for it is he that shall save his people from their sins. ⁶²Now all this is come to pass, ⁶³that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying,

⁶⁴Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son,

And they shall call his name ⁶⁵Immanuel;

which is, being interpreted, God ⁶⁶with us. ⁶⁷And Joseph arose from his sleep, and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took unto him his wife; ⁶⁸and knew her not till she had brought forth a son; and ⁶⁹he called his name Jesus.

⁷⁰Now ⁷¹when Jesus was born ⁷²in ⁷³Bethlehem of Judaea ⁷⁴in the days of Herod the king, behold, ⁷⁵wise men from ⁷⁶the east came to Jerusalem, ⁷⁷saying, ⁷⁸Where is he that is born ⁷⁹King of the Jews? for we saw ⁸⁰his star in the east, and are come to ⁸¹worship him. ⁸²And when Herod the king heard it, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. ⁸³And gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where ²the Christ should be born. ⁵And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judæa: for thus it is written ¹by the prophet,

6 ²And thou Bethlehem, land of Judah,

Art in no wise least among the princes of Judah:

For out of thee shall come forth a governor,

Which shall be ²shepherd of my people Israel.

7 Then Herod privily called the ²wise men, and learned of them carefully ³what time the star appeared. ⁸And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search out carefully concerning the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word, that I also may come and worship him. ⁹And they, having heard the king, went their way; and lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. ¹⁰And when they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 And they came into the house and saw the young child with Mary his mother; and they fell down and worshipped him; and opening their treasures ²they offered unto him gifts, ³gold and ⁴frankincense and ⁵myrrh. ¹²And ⁶being warned of God ²in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

13 Now when they were departed, behold, ²an angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I tell thee: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him. ¹⁴And he arose and took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt; ¹⁵and was there until the death of Herod: ²that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, ³Out of Egypt did I call my son. ¹⁶Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the ²wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the male children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the borders thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had carefully learned of the ²wise men. ¹⁷Then was fulfilled that which was spoken ¹by Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

18 ²A voice was heard in Ramah, Weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children; And she would not be comforted, because they ²are not.

19 But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, ²⁰saying, Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for ²they are dead that sought the young child's life. ²¹And he arose and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. ²²But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judæa in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither; and ³being warned of God in a dream, he withdrew into the parts of Galilee, ²³and came and dwelt in a city called ²Nazareth: ²⁴that it might be fulfilled which was spoken ¹by the prophets, that he should be called a Nazarene.

1 And ⁴in those days cometh ³John the Baptist, preaching in ²the wilderness of Judæa, ²saying, Repent ye; for ²the kingdom of heaven is at hand. ³For this is he that was spoken of ¹by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

²The voice of one crying in the wilderness,

²Make ye ready the way of the Lord,

Make his paths straight.

4 Now John himself had ²his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his food was ²locusts and ³wild honey.

5 Then went out unto him Jerusalem, and all Judæa, and all the region round about Jordan; ⁶and they were baptized of him in the river Jordan, ²confessing their sins. ⁷But when he saw many of ²the Pharisees and ³Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said unto them, ²Ye offspring of ³vipers, who warned you to flee from ²the wrath to come? ⁸Bring forth therefore fruit ²worthy of ²repentance: ⁹and think not to say within yourselves,

* We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. 10 And even now is the axe laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. 11 I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire: 12 whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing-floor; and he will gather his wheat into the garner, but the chaff he will burn up with unquenchable fire.

13 Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to the Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him. 14 But John would have hindered him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me? 15 But Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffereth him. 16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway from the water: and lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming upon him; 17 and lo, a voice out of the heavens, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

1 Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil. 2 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he afterward hungered. 3 And the tempter came and said unto him, If thou art the Son of God, command that these stones become bread. 4 But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. 5 Then the devil taketh him into the holy city; and he set him on the pinnacle of the temple, 6 and saith unto him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written,

He shall give his angels charge concerning thee:

And on their hands they shall bear thee up,
Lest haply thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jesus said unto him, Again it is written, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God. 8 Again, the devil taketh him unto an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; 9 and he said unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. 10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. 11 Then the devil leaveth him; and behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

12 Now when he heard that John was delivered up, he withdrew into Galilee; 13 and leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali: 14 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali,

Toward the sea, beyond Jordan,

Galilee of the Gentiles,

The people which sat in darkness

Saw a great light,

And to them which sat in the region and shadow of death,

To them did light spring up.

17 From that time began Jesus to preach, and to say, Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 And walking by the sea of Galilee, he saw two brethren, Simon who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishers. 19 And he saith unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you fishers of men. 20 And they straightway left the nets, and followed him. 21 And going on from thence he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them. 22 And they straightway left the boat and their father, and followed him.

23 And Jesus went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people. 24 And the report of him went forth into all Syria: and they brought unto him all that were sick, holden with divers diseases and torments, possessed with devils, and epileptic, and palsied; and he healed them. 25 And there followed him great multitudes from Galilee and Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judæa and from beyond Jordan.

1 And seeing the multitudes, he went up into the mountain: and when he had sat down, his disciples came unto him: 2 and he opened his mouth and taught them, saying,

3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called sons of God.

10 Blessed are they that have been persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 11 Blessed are ye when men shall reproach you, and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. 12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost its savour, wherewith shall it be salted?

14 Cor. 12. 10. Col. 1. 11, 24. Heb. 10. 34. James 1. 2. 1 See ch. 21. 35. m Mark 9. 50. Luke 14. 34.

it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out and trodden under foot of men. 14 Ye are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hid. 15 Neither do men light a lamp, and put it under the bushel, but on the stand; and it shineth unto all that are in the house. 16 Even so let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

17 Think not that I came to destroy the law or the prophets: I came not to destroy, but to fulfil. 18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass away from the law, till all things be accomplished. 19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. 20 For I say unto you, that except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 Ye have heard that it was said to them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgement: 22 but I say unto you, that every one who is angry with his brother shall be in danger of the judgement; and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council; and whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of the hell of fire. 23 If therefore thou art offering thy gift at the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee, leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way, first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. 24 Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art with him in the way; lest haply the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison. 25 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou have paid the last farthing.

27¹ Ye have heard that it was said, ²⁸Thou shalt not commit adultery: ²⁸but I say unto you, that ²⁹every one that looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. ²⁹And if thy right eye ³⁰cause thee to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not thy whole body be cast into ³¹hell. ³⁰And if thy right hand ³¹cause thee to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not thy whole body go into ³²hell. ³¹It was said also,

33 Again, ³⁴ye have heard that it was said to them of old time, ³⁴Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but ³⁵thou shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths: ³⁴but I say unto you, ³⁵Swear not at all: neither by the heaven, for ³⁶it is the throne of God; ³⁵nor by the earth, for it is the footstool of his feet; nor ³⁶by Jerusalem, for it is ³⁷the city of the great King. ³⁶Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, for thou canst not make one hair white or black. ³⁷But let your speech be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: and ³⁸whatsoever is more than these is of ³⁹the evil one.

38¹ Ye have heard that it was said, ³⁹An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth: ³⁹but I say unto you, ⁴⁰Resist not ⁴¹him that is evil: but ⁴²whosoever ⁴³smiteth thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also. ⁴⁰And ⁴⁴if any man would go to law with thee, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloke also. ⁴¹And whosoever shall ⁴⁵compel thee to go one mile, go with him twain. ⁴²Give to him that asketh thee, and ⁴⁶from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.

43¹ Ye have heard that it was said,

⁴⁴Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and ⁴⁵hate thine enemy: ⁴⁴but I say unto you, ⁴⁶Love your enemies, and ⁴⁷pray for them that persecute you; ⁴⁵that ye may be sons of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and ⁴⁸sendeth rain on the just and the unjust. ⁴⁶For if ye love them that love you, what reward have ye? do not even the ⁴⁹publicans the same? ⁴⁷And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even ⁵⁰the Gentiles the same? ⁴⁸Ye therefore shall be ⁵¹perfect, ⁵²as your heavenly Father is perfect.

6¹ Take heed that ye ²do not ³your righteousness before men, ⁴to be seen of them: else ye have no reward with your Father which is in heaven.

5 And when ye pray, ye shall not be as the hypocrites: for they love ⁶to stand and pray in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. ⁶Verily I say unto you, They have received their reward. ⁶But thou, when thou prayest, ⁷enter into thine inner chamber, and having shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret,

⁸and thy Father which seeth in secret shall recompense thee. ⁷And in praying use not vain repetitions, as ⁸the Gentiles do: for ⁹they think that they shall be heard ¹⁰for their much speaking. ⁸Be not therefore like unto them: ⁹for ¹⁰your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him. ⁹After this manner therefore pray ye: ¹⁰Our Father which art in heaven, ¹¹Hallowed be thy name. ¹⁰Thy kingdom come. ¹¹Thy will be done, ¹²as in heaven, so on earth. ¹¹Give us ¹²this day ¹³our daily bread. ¹²And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. 13 And ^abring us not into temptation, but ^adeliver us from ¹¹the evil one.²² 14 ^aFor if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. 15 ^aBut if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 Moreover ^awhen ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may be seen of men to fast. ^aVerily I say unto you, They have received their reward. 17 But thou, when thou fastest, ^aanoint thy head, and wash thy face; 18 that thou be not seen of men to fast, but of thy Father which is in secret: ^aand thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall recompense thee.

19 ^bLay not up for yourselves treasures upon the earth, where ^cmoth and rust doth consume, and where thieves ^abreak through and steal: 20 ^bbut lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth consume, and where thieves do not ^abreak through nor steal: 21 for where thy treasure is, there will thy heart be also. 22 ^aThe lamp of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. 23 ^aBut if ^athine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is the darkness!

24 ^aNo man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and ^amammon. 25 ^aTherefore I say unto you, ^aBe not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than the food, and the body than the raiment? 26 ^aBehold the birds of the heaven, that they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father feedeth them. ^aAre not ye of much more value than they? 27 And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit unto his ^astature? 28 And why are ye anxious concerning raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: 29 yet I say unto you, that ^aeven Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. 30 But if God doth so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, ^aO ye of little faith? 31 Be not therefore anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? 32 For after all these things do ^athe Gentiles seek; ^afor your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. 33 But ^aseek ye first ^ahis kingdom, and his righteousness; ^aand all these things shall be added unto you. 34 ^aBe not therefore anxious for the morrow: for the morrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

7 ^aJudge not, that ye be not judged. 2 ^aFor with what judgement ye judge, ye shall be judged: and ^awith what measure ye mete, it shall be measured unto you. 3 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but ^aconsiderest not the beam that is in thine own eye? 4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me cast out the mote out of thine eye; and lo, the beam is in thine own eye? 5 Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

6 ^aGive not that which is holy unto ^athe dogs, neither cast your ^bpearls before the swine, lest haply they trample them under their feet, and turn and rend you.

7 ^aAsk, ^aand it shall be given you; ^aseek, and ye shall find; ^aknock, and it shall be opened unto you: 8 for every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. 9 Or what man is there of you, who, if his son shall ask him for ^aa loaf, will give him ^aa stone; 10 or if he shall ask for a fish, will give him a serpent? 11 If ye then, ^abeing evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall ^ayour Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him? 12^a All things therefore whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do ye also unto them: for this is ¹the law and the prophets.

13^a Enter ye in by the narrow gate: for wide ¹is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many be they that enter in thereby. 14^a For narrow is the gate, and straitened ¹the way, that leadeth unto life, and ²few be they that find it.

15^a Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ¹ravening wolves. 16^a By their fruits ye shall know them. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? 17 Even so ¹every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but the corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. 18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. 19^a Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. 20 Therefore ¹by their fruits ye shall know them. 21^a Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall ¹enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that ¹doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. 22^a Many will say to me ¹in that day, Lord, Lord, did we not ¹prophecy by thy name, and ¹by thy name cast out ¹devils, and by thy name do many ¹mighty works? 23^a And then will I profess unto them, I ¹never knew you: ¹depart from me, ye that work iniquity. 24^a Every one therefore which heareth these words of mine, and doeth them, shall be likened unto ¹a wise man, which built his house upon the rock: 25 and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon the rock. 26 And every one that heareth these words of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto ¹a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: 27 and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and smote upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall thereof.

28 And it came to pass, when Jesus ended these words, ¹the multitudes were astonished at his teaching: 29^a for he taught them as ¹one having authority, and not as their scribes.

8 ¹And when he was come down from the mountain, ¹a great multitudes followed him. 2^a And behold, there came to him a leper and ¹worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. 3 And he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou made clean. And straightway his leprosy was cleansed. 4 And Jesus saith unto him, ¹See thou tell no man; but go thy way, ¹shew thyself to the priest, and ¹offer the gift that Moses commanded, ¹for a testimony unto them.

5 And ¹when he was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him, 6 and saying, Lord, my ¹servant lieth in the house sick of the palsy, grievously tormented. 7 And he saith unto him, I will come and heal him. 8 And the centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not ¹worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof: but ¹only say ¹the word, and my ¹servant shall be healed. 9 For I also am a man ¹under authority, having under myself soldiers: and I say to this one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my ¹servant, Do this, and he doeth it. 10 And when Jesus heard it, ¹he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, ¹I have not found so great ¹faith, no, not in Israel. 11 And I say unto you, that ¹many shall come from the east and the west, and shall ¹sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven: 12^a but the sons of the kingdom ¹shall be cast forth into the outer darkness: ¹there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth. 13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; ¹as thou hast believed, ¹so be it done unto thee. 14 And the ¹servant was healed in that hour.

14^a And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw ¹his wife's mother lying sick of a fever. 15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her; and she arose, and ministered unto him. 16 And when even was come, they brought unto him many ¹ possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits ² with a word, and healed all that were sick: 17 ³ that it might be fulfilled which was spoken ⁴ by Isaiah the prophet, saying, ⁵ 'Himself took our infirmities, and bare our diseases.

18 Now ⁶ when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, ⁷ he gave commandment to depart unto the other side. 19 ⁸ And there came ⁹ a scribe, and said unto him, 'Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. 20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the heaven ¹⁰ have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. 21 And another of the disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. 22 But Jesus saith unto him, Follow me; and leave ¹¹ the dead to bury their own dead.

23 ¹² And when he was entered into a boat, his disciples followed him. 24 And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, inasmuch that the boat was covered with the waves: but ¹³ he was asleep. 25 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, 'Save, Lord; we perish. 26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye ¹⁴ fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and ¹⁵ rebuked the winds and the sea; and ¹⁶ there was a great calm. 27 And the men ¹⁷ marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even ¹⁸ the winds and the sea obey him?

28 ¹⁹ And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gadarenes, there met him two ²⁰ possessed with devils, coming forth out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man could pass by that way. 29 And behold, they ²¹ cried out, saying, 'What have we to do with thee, ²² thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us ²³ before the time? 30 Now there was afar off from them a herd of many swine feeding. 31 And the ²⁴ devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, send us away into the herd of swine. 32 And he said unto them, Go. And they came out, and went into the swine: and behold, the whole herd rushed down the steep into the sea, and perished in the waters. 33 And they that fed them fled, and went away into the city, and told everything, and what was befallen to them that were ²⁵ possessed with devils. 34 And behold, all the city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, ²⁶ they besought him that he would depart from their borders.

1 And he entered into a boat, and crossed over, and came into ²⁷ his own city. 2 ²⁸ And behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus ²⁹ seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy, 'Son, be of good cheer: ³⁰ thy sins are forgiven. 3 And behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, 'This man blasphemeth. 4 And Jesus ³¹ knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts? 5 For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins are forgiven; or to say, Arise, and walk? 6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath ³² power on earth to forgive sins (then saith he to the sick of the palsy), Arise, and take up thy bed, and go unto thy house. 7 And he arose, and departed to his house. 8 But when the multitudes saw it, ³³ they were afraid, and ³⁴ glorified God, which had ³⁵ given such ³⁶ power unto men.

9 ³⁷ And as Jesus passed by from thence, he saw a man, called ³⁸ Matthew, sitting at the place of toll: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 And it came to pass, as he ³⁹ sat at meat in the house, behold, many ⁴⁰ publicans and sinners came and sat down with Jesus and his disciples. 11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, ⁴¹ 'Why eateth your ⁴² Master with ⁴³ the publicans and sinners? 12 But when he heard it, he said, They that are ⁴⁴ whole have no need of a physician, but they that are sick. 13 But go ye and learn ⁴⁵ what this meaneth, ⁴⁶ I desire mercy, and not sacrifice: for ⁴⁷ I came not to call the righteous, ⁴⁸ but sinners.

ciples of John, saying, 'Why do we and *the Pharisees fast ¹ oft, but thy disciples fast not? ¹⁵ And Jesus said unto them, *Can the sons of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but *the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and *then will they fast. ¹⁶ And no man putteth a piece of undressed cloth upon an old garment; for that which should fill it up taketh from the garment, and a worse rent is made. ¹⁷ Neither do men put new wine into old ² wine-skins: else the skins burst, and the wine is spilled, and the skins perish: but they put new wine into fresh wine-skins, and both are preserved.

¹⁸ *While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came ² a ruler, and *worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live. ¹⁹ And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples. ²⁰ And behold, a woman, ^o who had an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched ^q the border of his garment: ²¹ for she said within herself, If I do but touch his garment, I shall be ⁴ made whole. ²² But Jesus turning and seeing her said, Daughter, ^{be} of good cheer; thy faith hath ⁵ made thee whole. *And the woman was ⁶ made whole from that hour. ²³ And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw ^r the flute-players, and the crowd making a tumult, ²⁴ he said, Give place: for ^s the damsel is not dead, but ⁷ sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn. ²⁵ But ^t when the crowd was put forth, he entered in, and ^u took her by the hand; and the damsel arose. ²⁶ And ⁶ the fame hereof went forth into all that land.

²⁷ *And as Jesus passed by from thence, two blind men followed him, crying out, and saying, Have mercy on us, 'thou son of David. ²⁸ And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They say unto him, Yea, Lord. ²⁹ *Then touched he their eyes, saying, *According to your faith be it done unto

you. ³⁰ And their eyes were opened. And Jesus ⁷ strictly charged them, saying, *See that no man know it. ³¹ *But they went forth, and spread abroad his fame in all that land.

³² And as they went forth, behold, ⁸ there was brought to him a dumb man ⁷ possessed with a ⁸ devil. ³³ And when the ⁸ devil was cast out, the dumb man spake: and the multitudes ⁹ marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel. ³⁴ But the Pharisees said, *By the prince of the ¹⁰ devils casteth he out ¹⁰ devils.

³⁵ *And Jesus went about all the cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness. ³⁶ But *when he saw the multitudes, *he was moved with compassion for them, because they were distressed and scattered, ^u as sheep not having a shepherd. ³⁷ *Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few. ³⁸ *Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he ^v send forth labourers into his harvest. ¹ *And he called

IO unto him his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of disease and all manner of sickness.

² Now the names of the twelve apostles are these: The first, Simon, ^o who is called Peter, and *Andrew his brother; ⁴ James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; ³ Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and *Matthew the publican; James the son of Alphæus, and Thaddæus; ⁴ Simon the ¹¹ Cananean, and Judas Iscariot, who also ¹² betrayed him. ⁵ *These twelve Jesus sent forth, and charged them, saying,

Go not into any way of the Gentiles, and enter not into any city of ^r the Samaritans: ⁶ but go rather to ⁴ the lost sheep of ⁶ the house of Israel. ⁷ And as ye go, preach, saying, ⁷ The kingdom of heaven is at hand. ⁸ *Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out ¹⁰ devils: ¹ freely ye received, freely give. ⁹ *Get you no gold, nor silver, nor brass in your ¹³ purses; ¹⁰ no wallet for your journey, neither two coats, nor shoes, nor staff:

for "the labourer is worthy of his food. 11 And into whatsoever city or village ye shall enter, search out who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go forth. 12 And as ye enter into the house, salute it. 13 And if the house be ^o worthy, let ^o your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let ^o your peace return to you. 14 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, as ye go forth out of that house or that city, shake off the dust of your feet. 15 Verily I say unto you, ^o It shall be more tolerable for ^o the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgement, than for that city.

16 Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore ^o wise as serpents, and ^o harmless as doves. 17 But beware of men: for ^o they will deliver you up to ^o councils, and ^o in their synagogues they will scourge you; 18 yea and before governors and kings shall ye be brought for my sake, ^o for a testimony to them and to the Gentiles. 19 But ^o when they deliver you up, ^o be not anxious how or what ye shall speak: for ^o it shall be given you in that hour what ye shall speak. 20 For it is not ye that speak, but ^o the Spirit of your Father that speaketh in you. 21 And brother shall deliver up brother to death, and the father his child: and children shall rise up against parents, and ^o cause them to be put to death. 22 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: ^o but he that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved. 23 But when they ^o persecute you in this city, ^o flee into the next: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone through the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.

24 A disciple is not above his ^o master, nor a ^o servant above his lord. 25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his ^o master, and the ^o servant as his lord. ^o If they have called the master of the house ^o Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household! 26 Fear them not therefore: ^o for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. 27 What I tell you in the darkness, speak ye in the light: and what ye hear in the ear, proclaim upon ^o the housetops. 28 And ^o be not afraid of them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him ^o which is able to destroy both soul and body in ^o hell. 29 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and not one of them shall fall on the ground without your Father: 30 but ^o the very hairs of your head are all numbered. 31 Fear not therefore; ^o ye are of more value than many sparrows. 32 Every one therefore who shall confess ^o me before men, ^o him will I also confess before my Father which ^o is in heaven. 33 But ^o whosoever shall deny me before men, ^o him will I also deny before my Father which ^o is in heaven.

34 Think not that I came to ^o send peace on the earth: ^o I came not to ^o send peace, but a sword! 35 For I came ^o to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law: 36 and a man's foes shall be they of his own household. 37 He that loveth father or mother more than me is not ^o worthy of me; and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. 38 And ^o he that doth not take his cross and ^o follow after me, is not worthy of me. 39 He that ^o findeth his ^o life shall lose it; and he that ^o loseth his ^o life for my sake shall find it.

40 He that receiveth you receiveth me, and ^o he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me. 41 He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward. 42 And ^o whosoever shall give to drink unto one of ^o these little ones a cup of cold water only, in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

2^a Now when John heard ^a in the prison the works of ^b the Christ, he sent by ^c his disciples, and said unto him, 3 Art thou ^d he that cometh, or ^e look we for another? 4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Go your way and tell John the things which ye do hear and see: 5 ^f the blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and ^g the poor have ^h good tidings preached to them. 6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall ⁱ find none occasion of stumbling in me. 7 And as these went their way, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out ^j into the wilderness to behold? ^k a reed shaken with the wind? 8 But what went ye out for to see? a man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that wear soft raiment are in kings' houses. 9 ^l But wherefore went ye out? to see ^m a prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet. 10 This is he, of whom it is written,

ⁿ Behold, I send my messenger before thy face,
Who shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not arisen a greater than John the Baptist: yet he that is ^o but little in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. 12 And ^p from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and men of violence take it by force. 13 ^q For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John. 14 And if ye are willing to receive ^r it, this is ^s Elijah, which is to come. 15 ^t He that hath ears ^u to hear, let him hear. 16 But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the market-places, which call unto their fellows, 17 and say, We piped unto you, and ye did not dance; we wailed, and ye did not ^v mourn. 18 For John came ^w neither eating ^x nor drinking, and they say, He hath a ^y devil. 19 The Son of man came ^z eating and drinking, and they say, Behold, a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, ^a a friend of ^b publicans and sinners! And ^c wisdom ^d is justified by her ^e works.

20 ^f Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his ^g mighty works were done, because they repented not. 21 ^h Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the ⁱ mighty works had been done in ^j Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. 22 ^k Howbeit I say unto you, it shall be more tolerable for ^l Tyre and Sidon in ^m the day of judgement, than for you. 23 And thou, Capernaum, ⁿ shalt thou be exalted unto heaven? thou shalt ^o go down unto ^p Hades: for if the ^q mighty works had been done in Sodom which were done in thee, it would have remained until this day. 24 ^r Howbeit I say unto you, that ^s it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in ^t the day of judgement, than for thee.

25 ^u At that season Jesus answered and said, I ^v thank thee, O Father, ^w Lord of heaven and earth, that ^x thou didst hide these things from the wise and understanding, and didst ^y reveal them unto babes: 26 yea, Father, ^z for so ^a it was well-pleasing in thy sight, 27 ^b All things have been delivered unto me of my Father: and no one knoweth the Son, ^c save the Father; neither doth any know the Father, save the Son, and he ^d to whomsoever the Son willeth to reveal ^e him. 28 ^f Come unto ^g me, all ye that labour and are ^h heavy laden, and I will give you rest. 29 Take my ⁱ yoke upon you, and ^j learn of me; for I am ^k meek and lowly in heart: and ^l ye shall find rest unto your souls. 30 For ^m my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

1 At that season ^a Jesus 12 went on the sabbath day through the cornfields; and his disciples were an hungry, and ^b began to pluck ears of corn, and to eat. 2 But the Pharisees, when they saw it, said unto him, ^c Behold, thy disciples do ^d that which

⁹ And he departed thence, and ¹ went into their synagogue: ¹⁰ and behold, a man having a withered hand. And they asked him, saying, ¹ Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day? ² that they might accuse him. ¹¹ And he said unto them, What man shall there be of you, that shall have one sheep, and ¹ if this fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out? ¹² ¹ How much then is a man of more value than a sheep! Wherefore ¹ it is lawful to do good on the sabbath day. ¹³ Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And ¹ he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, as the other. ¹⁴ But the Pharisees went out, and ¹ took counsel against him, how they might destroy him. ¹⁵ And Jesus perceiving ¹ it ² withdrew from thence: and ¹ many followed him; and he healed them all, ¹⁶ and ¹ charged them that they should not make him known: ¹⁷ ¹ that it might be fulfilled which was spoken ² by Isaiah the prophet, saying, ¹⁸ ¹ Behold, my ² servant whom I have chosen; ¹⁹ ¹ My beloved in whom my soul is well pleased: ²⁰ ¹ I will put my Spirit upon him, And he shall declare judgement to the Gentiles. ¹⁹ He shall not strive, nor cry aloud;

Neither shall any one hear his voice in the streets. ²⁰ A bruised reed shall he not break, And smoking flax shall he not quench, Till he send forth judgement unto victory.

²¹ ¹ And in his name shall the Gentiles hope.

²² ¹ Then was brought unto him ² one possessed with a devil, blind and dumb: and he healed him, inasmuch that the dumb man spake and saw. ²³ And all the multitudes were amazed, and said, ¹ Is this the son of David? ²⁴ But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This man doth not cast out ² devils, ¹ but ² by Beelzebub the prince of the ³ devils. ²⁵ And ¹ knowing their thoughts ² he said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand: ²⁶ and if Satan casteth out Satan, he is divided against himself; how then shall his kingdom stand? ²⁷ And if I ² by Beelzebub cast out ³ devils, ¹ by whom do ² your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. ²⁸ But if I ² by the Spirit of God cast out ³ devils, then is ¹ the kingdom of God come upon you. ²⁹ Or ¹ how can one enter into the house of the strong man, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then ¹ he will spoil his house. ³⁰ ¹ He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth. ³¹ ¹ Therefore I say unto you, Every sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven ² unto men; but ¹ the blasphemy against the Spirit shall not be forgiven. ³² And whosoever shall speak ² a word ³ against the Son of man, ¹ it shall be forgiven him; but ¹ whosoever shall speak against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in ² this ³ world, nor in that which is to come. ³³ ¹ Either make the tree good, and its fruit good; or make the tree corrupt, and its fruit corrupt; ² for the tree is known by its fruit. ³⁴ ¹ Ye offspring of vipers, how can ye, ² being evil, speak good things? ³ for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. 35^c The good man out of his good treasure bringeth forth good things: and the evil man out of his evil treasure bringeth forth evil things. 36 And I say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgement. 37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees answered him, saying, 1 Master, we would see a sign from thee. 39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it but the sign of Jonah the prophet: 40 for as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the whale; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. 41 The men of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgement with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, a greater than Jonah is here. 42 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgement with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, a greater than Solomon is here. 43 But the unclean spirit, when he is gone out of the man, passeth through waterless places, seeking rest, and findeth it not. 44 Then he saith, I will return into my house whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. 45 Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter in and dwell there; and the last state of that man cometh worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this evil generation.

46 While he was yet speaking to the multitudes, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, seeking to speak to him. 47 And one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, seeking to speak to thee. 48 But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren? 49 And he stretched forth his hand towards his disciples, and said, Behold, my mother and my brethren! 50 For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, and mother.

1 On that day went Jesus out of the house, and sat by the sea side. 2 And there were gathered unto him great multitudes, so that he entered into a boat, and sat; and all the multitude stood on the beach. 3 And he spake to them many things in parables, saying, Behold, the sower went forth to sow; 4 and as he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured them: 5 and others fell upon the rocky places, where they had not much earth: and straightway they sprang up, because they had no deepness of earth: 6 and when the sun was risen, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. 7 And others fell upon the thorns; and the thorns grew up, and choked them: 8 and others fell upon the good ground, and yielded fruit, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. 9 He that hath ears, let him hear.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables? 11 And he answered and said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. 12 For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he hath. 13 Therefore speak I to them in parables; because seeing they see not, and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand. 14 And unto them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which saith,

By hearing ye shall hear, and shall in no wise understand; And seeing ye shall see, and shall in no wise perceive:

And their ears are *dull of hearing,

And *their eyes they have closed;

Least haply they should perceive with their eyes,

And hear with their ears,

And *understand with their heart,

And *should turn again, And I should heal them.

16 But *blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear. 17 *For verily I say unto you, *that many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not; and to hear the things which ye hear, and heard them not. 18 *Hear then ye the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word of *the kingdom, and *understandeth it not, then cometh *the evil one, and snatcheth away that which hath been sown in his heart. This is he that was sown by the way side.

20 And he that was sown upon the rocky places, this is he that heareth the word, and straightway *with joy receiveth it; 21 yet hath he not root in himself, but *endureth for a while; and when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, straightway *he stumbleth. 22 And he that was sown among the thorns, this is he that heareth the word; and

*the care of *the ¹ world, and *the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful. 23 And he that was sown upon the good ground, this is he that heareth the word, and *understandeth it; who verily *beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some *a hundred-fold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 Another parable set he before them, saying, *The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man that sowed good seed in his field: 25 but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed *tares also among the wheat, and went away. 26 But when the blade sprang up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. 27 And the *servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? whence then hath it tares? 28 And he said unto them, *An enemy hath done this. And the *servants say unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? 29 But he saith, Nay; lest haply while ye gather up the tares, ye root up the wheat with them. 30 Let both grow together until the harvest; and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather up first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but *gather the wheat into my barn.

31 Another parable set he before them, saying, *The kingdom of heaven is like unto *a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field: 32 which indeed is less than all seeds; but when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the heaven come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 Another parable spake he unto them; *The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in *three *measures of meal, till it was *all leavened. 34 *All these things spake Jesus in parables unto the multitudes; and without a parable spake he nothing unto them: 35 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken *by the prophet, saying,

*I will open my mouth in parables; *I will utter things hidden *from the foundation ⁷ of the world. 36 Then he left the multitudes, and went into *the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, *Explain unto us the parable of the tares of the field. 37 And he answered and said, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man; 38 and the field is the world; and the good seed, these are *the sons of the kingdom; and the tares are *the sons of the evil one; 39 and the enemy that sowed them is the devil: and *the harvest is ⁸ the end of the world; and the reapers are angels. 40 As therefore the tares *are gathered up and burned with fire; so shall it be in ⁸ the end of the world. 41 *The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all *things that cause stumbling, and *things that do iniquity, 42 *and shall cast them into the furnace of fire: ^athere shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth. ⁴³Then shall ^athe righteous shine forth as the sun ^jin the kingdom of their Father. ^aHe that hath ears, let him hear.

⁴⁴The kingdom of heaven ⁱis like unto a treasure hidden in the field; which a man found, and hid; and ⁱin his joy ^mhe goeth and selleth all that he hath, and ^abuyeth that field.

⁴⁵Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a merchant seeking goodly pearls: ⁴⁶and having found ^aone pearl of great price, ^mhe went and sold all that he had, and ^abought it.

⁵³And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence. ⁵⁴And coming into ^ahis own country ^bhe taught them in their synagogue, inasmuch that ^athey were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these ^amighty works? ⁵⁵Is not this ^athe carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and ^ahis brethren, James, and Joseph, and Simon, and Judas? ⁵⁶And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things? ⁵⁷And ^athey were ^aoffended in him. But Jesus said unto them, ^aA prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house. ⁵⁸And he did not many ^amighty works there ^abecause of their unbelief.

¹At that season ^aHerod ¹⁴the tetrarch heard the report concerning Jesus, and said unto his servants, ⁱThis is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore do ^mthese powers work in him. ³For ^aHerod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and ^aput him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife. ⁴For John said unto him, ²It is not lawful for thee to have her. ⁵And when he would have put him to death, he ^afeared the multitude, because they counted him as ^aa prophet. ⁶But when Herod's ^abirthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced in the midst, and pleased Herod. ⁷Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she should ask. ⁸And she, being put forward by her mother, saith, Give me here in a charger the head of John the Baptist. ⁹And the king was grieved; but for the sake of his oaths, and of them which sat at meat with him, he commanded it to be given; and he sent, and beheaded John in the prison. ¹¹And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother. ¹²And ^ahis disciples came, and took up the corpse, and buried him; and they went and told Jesus.

¹³Now when Jesus heard ^ait, ^ahe withdrew from thence in a boat, to a desert place apart; and when the multitudes heard ^athereof, they followed him ^aon foot from the cities. ¹⁴And he came forth, and ^asaw a great multitude, and ^ahe had compassion on them, and healed their sick. ¹⁵And when even was come, the disciples came to him, saying, The place is desert, and the time is already past; ^msend the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves food. ¹⁶But Jesus said unto them, They have no need to go away; ^agive ye them to eat. ¹⁷And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes. ¹⁸And he said, Bring them hither to me. ¹⁹And he commanded the multitudes to ¹sit down on the grass; and he took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and ²looking up to heaven, ³he blessed, and brake and gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes. ²⁰And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up that which remained over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. ²¹And they that did eat were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

²²And straightway he ^bconstrained the disciples to enter into the boat, and to go before him unto the other side, till he should send the multitudes away. ²³And after he had sent the multitudes away, ^che went up into the mountain apart to pray: and when ^deven was come, he was there alone. ²⁴But the boat ^awas now in the midst of the sea, distressed by the waves; for the wind was contrary. ²⁵And ^din the fourth watch of the night he came unto them, walking upon the sea. ²⁶And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, ^ethey were troubled, saying, It is ^fan apparition: and they cried out for fear. ²⁷But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, ^gBe of good cheer; it is I; ^hbe not afraid. ²⁸And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee upon the waters. ²⁹And he said, Come. And Peter went down from the boat, and ⁱwalked upon the waters, ^jto come to Jesus. ³⁰But when he saw the wind ^k, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, ^lLord, save me. ³¹And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and took hold of him, and saith unto him, ^mO thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou ⁿdoubt? ³²And when they were gone up into the boat, ^othe wind ceased. ³³And ^pthey that were in the boat ^qworshipped him, saying, ^rOf a truth thou art ^sthe Son of God.

³⁴And when they had crossed over, they came to the land, unto ^tGennesaret. ³⁵And when the men of that place knew him, they sent into all that region round about, and ^ubrought unto him all that were sick; ³⁶and they besought that they might only touch ^vthe border of his garment: and ^was many as touched were made whole.

15 ^xThen there come to Jesus ^yfrom Jerusalem Pharisees and ^zscribes, saying, ¹Why do thy disciples transgress ²the tradition of ³the elders? ⁴for they wash not their hands when they eat bread. ³And he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God because of your tradition? ⁴For God said, ^aHonour thy father and thy mother: and, ^bHethat speaketh evil of father or mother, let him ^cdie the death. ⁵But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, That wherewith thou mightest have been profited by me is given to God; ⁶he shall not honour his father. ⁷And ye have ^dmade void the ^eword of God because of your tradition. ⁷^dYe hypocrites, well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying,

⁸‘This people honoureth me with their lips;

But their heart is far from me.

⁹But in vain do they worship me,

Teaching as their ^fdoctrines the precepts of men.

¹⁰And he called to him the multitude, and said unto them, ¹Hear, and understand: ¹¹^aNot that which entereth into the mouth defileth the man; but that which proceedeth out of the mouth, this defileth the man. ¹²Then came the disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were ^boffended, when they heard this saying? ¹³But he answered and said, ^cEvery ^dplant which my heavenly Father planted not, ^eshall be rooted up. ¹⁴Let them alone: ^fthey are blind guides. And ^gif the blind guide the blind, both shall fall into a pit. ¹⁵And Peter answered and said unto him, ^hDeclare unto us the parable. ¹⁶And he said, ⁱAre ye also even yet without understanding? ¹⁷Perceive ye not, that ^jwhatsoever goeth into the mouth passeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught? ¹⁸But ^kthe things which proceed out of the mouth come forth out of the heart; and they defile the man. 19 For out of the heart come forth evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, railings: 20 these are the things which defile the man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not the man.

21 And Jesus went out thence, and withdrew into the parts of Tyre and Sidon. 22 And behold, a Canaanitish woman came out from those borders, and cried, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil. 23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us. 24 But he answered and said, I was not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel. 25 But she came and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me. 26 And he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread and cast it to the dogs. 27 But she said, Yea, Lord: for even the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table. 28 Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it done unto thee even as thou wilt. 29 And her daughter was healed from that hour.

30 And Jesus departed thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee; and he went up into the mountain, and sat there. 31 And there came unto him great multitudes, having with them the lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and they cast them down at his feet; and he healed them: 32 inasmuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb speaking, the maimed whole, and the lame walking, and the blind seeing: and they glorified the God of Israel.

33 And Jesus called unto him his disciples, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days and have nothing to eat: and I would not send them away fasting, lest haply they faint in the way. 33 And the disciples say unto him,

Whence should we have so many loaves in a desert place, as to fill so great a multitude? 34 And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few small fishes. 35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground; 36 and he took the seven loaves and the fishes; and he gave thanks and brake, and gave to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes. 37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up that which remained over of the broken pieces, seven baskets full. 38 And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children. 39 And he sent away the multitudes, and entered into the boat, and came into the borders of Magadan.

16 And the Pharisees and Sadducees came, and tempting him asked him to shew them a sign from heaven. 2 But he answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the heaven is red. 3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to-day: for the heaven is red and lowring. 4 Ye know how to discern the face of the heaven; but ye cannot discern the signs of the times. 5 An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of Jonah. And he left them, and departed.

6 And the disciples came to the other side and forgot to take bread. 7 And Jesus said unto them, Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees. 8 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, We took no bread. 9 And Jesus perceiving it said, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have no bread? 10 Do ye not yet perceive, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up? 11 Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up? 12 How is it that ye do not perceive that I spake not to you concerning bread? But beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees. 13 Then understood they how that he bade

¹³ Now when Jesus came into the parts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Who do men say ² that the Son of man is? ¹⁴ And they said, Some say ³ John the Baptist; some, ⁴ Elijah: and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets. ¹⁵ He saith unto them, But who say ye that I am? ¹⁶ And Simon Peter answered and said, ⁷ Thou art ⁸ the Christ, ⁹ the Son of ¹⁰ the living God. ¹⁷ And Jesus answered and said unto him, ¹⁸ Blessed art thou, ¹⁹ Simon Bar-Jonah: for ²⁰ flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, ²¹ but my Father which is in heaven. ²² And I also say unto thee, that ²³ thou art ²⁴ Peter, and ²⁵ upon this ²⁶ rock I will build my church; and ²⁷ the gates of ²⁸ Hades shall not prevail against it. ²⁹ I will give unto thee ³⁰ the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and ³¹ whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. ³² Then charged he the disciples that they should tell no man that he was the Christ.

³³ From that time began ³⁴ Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that ³⁵ he must go unto Jerusalem, and ³⁶ suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and ³⁷ the third day be raised up. ³⁸ And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, ³⁹ Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall never be unto thee. ⁴⁰ But he turned, and said unto Peter, ⁴¹ Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art ⁴² a stumblingblock unto me: for thou ⁴³ mindest not the things of God, but the things of men. ⁴⁴ Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man would come after me, let him ⁴⁵ deny himself, and ⁴⁶ take up his cross, and follow me. ⁴⁷ For ⁴⁸ who-soever would save his ⁴⁹ life shall lose it: and whosoever shall lose his ⁵⁰ life for my sake shall find it. ⁵¹ For ⁵² what shall a man be profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and forfeit his ¹ life? or ² what shall a man give in exchange for his ³ life? ⁴ For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with ⁵ his angels; and ⁶ then shall he render unto every man according to his ⁷ deeds. ⁸ Verily I say unto you, There be some of them that stand here, which shall in no wise ⁹ taste of death, ¹⁰ till they see the Son of man ¹¹ coming in his kingdom.

17 And after six days Jesus taketh with him ¹ Peter, and James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart: ² and he was ³ transfigured before them: and ⁴ his face did shine as the sun, and ⁵ his garments became white as the light. ⁶ And behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elijah talking with him. ⁷ And Peter answered, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, I will make here three ⁸ tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. ⁹ While he was yet speaking, behold, ¹⁰ a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold, ¹¹ a voice out of the cloud, saying, ¹² This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; ¹³ hear ye him. ¹⁴ And when ¹⁵ the disciples heard it, ¹⁶ they fell on their face, and were sore afraid. ¹⁷ And Jesus came and ¹⁸ touched them and said, Arise, and ¹⁹ be not afraid. ²⁰ And lifting up only eyes, they saw no one, save Jesus only.

²¹ And as they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, ²² Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen from the dead. ²³ And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes ²⁴ that Elijah must first come? ²⁵ And he answered and said, Elijah indeed cometh, and ²⁶ shall restore all things: ²⁷ but I say unto you, that Elijah is come already, and they knew him not, but ²⁸ did unto him whatsoever they listed. ²⁹ Even so shall the Son of man also suffer of them. ³⁰ Then understood the disciples that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

³¹ And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a man, kneeling to him, and saying, 15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is ^eepileptic, and suffereth grievously: for oft-times he falleth into the fire, and oft-times into the water. 16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and ^ethey could not cure him. 17 And Jesus answered and said, O ^efaithless and ^eperverse generation, ^ehow long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? bring him hither to me. 18 And Jesus ^erebuked him; and the ¹devil went out from him: and ^ethe boy was cured from that hour. 19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast it out? 20 And he saith unto them, ^eBecause of your little faith: for ^everily I say unto you, ^bIf ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ^cye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and ^enothing shall be impossible unto you.¹

22 ^eAnd while they ^babode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be delivered up into the hands of men; 23 and they shall kill him, and ^ethe third day he shall be raised up. And they were exceeding sorry.

24 And ^ewhen they were come to Capernaum, they that received ^athe ¹half-shekel came to Peter, and said, Doth not your ^emaster pay the ¹half-shekel? 25 He saith, Yea. And when he came into the house, Jesus spake first to him, saying, ^eWhat thinkest thou, Simon? the kings of the earth, from whom do they receive ¹toll or ¹tribute? from their sons, or from strangers? 26 And when he said, From strangers, Jesus said unto him, Therefore the sons are free. 27 But, lest we ^ecause them to stumble, go thou to the sea, and cast a hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a ^eshekel: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

18 ^eIn that hour came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who then is ¹greatest in the kingdom of heaven? 2 And he called to him a little child, and set him in the midst of them, 3 and said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye ^eturn, and ^ebecome as little children, ye ^eshall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven. 4 ^eWhosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is the ¹greatest in the kingdom of heaven. 5 And ^ewhoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me: 6 but ^ewhoso shall cause one of these little ones which believe on me to stumble, it is profitable for him that ^aa great millstone should be hanged about his neck, and ^ethat he should be sunk in the depth of the sea. 7 Woe unto the world because of ^eoccasions of stumbling! ^efor it must needs be that the occasions come; ^ebut woe to that man through whom the occasion cometh! 8 ^eAnd if thy hand or thy foot causeth thee to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from thee: it is good for thee to enter into life maimed or halt, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into ^ethe eternal fire. 9 ^eAnd if thine eye causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is good for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the ¹hell of fire. 10 See that ye despise not ^eone of these little ones; for I say unto you, that in heaven ^etheir angels do always ^ebehold the face of my Father which is in heaven.¹⁰ 12 ^eHow think ye? ^bif any man have a hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and go unto the mountains, and seek that which goeth astray? 13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth over it more than over the ninety and nine which have not gone astray. 14 Even so ^eit is not ¹¹the will of ¹²your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15 ^eAnd if thy brother sin ¹³against thee, ^ego, shew him his fault between thee and him alone: if he hear thee, thou hast ^egained thy brother. 16 But if he hear ^ethee not, take with thee one or two more, that ^aat the mouth of two witnesses or three every word may be established. ¹⁷ And if he refuse to hear them, ^atell it unto the ¹ church: and if he refuse to hear the ¹ church also, ^alet him be unto thee as ^athe Gentile and ^athe publican. ¹⁸ Verily I say unto you, ^aWhat things soever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and what things soever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. ¹⁹ Again I say unto you, that if two of you shall ^aagree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, ^ait shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven. ²⁰ For where two or three are ^agathered together in my name, ^athere am I in the midst of them. ²¹ Then came Peter, and said to him, Lord, how oft ^ashall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? ^auntil seven times? ²² Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times; but, Until ^aseventy times seven. ²³ Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would ^amake a reckoning with his ^aservants. ²⁴ And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ^aten thousand ^atalents. ²⁵ But forasmuch as he had not ^awherewith to pay, his lord commanded him ^ato be sold, and his wife, and ^achildren, and all that he had, and payment to be made. ²⁶ The ^aservant therefore fell down and ^aworshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. ²⁷ And the lord of that ^aservant, being moved with compassion, released him, and ^aforgave him the ^adebt. ²⁸ But that ^aservant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, which owed him a hundred ^apence: and he laid hold on him, and took ^ahim by the throat, saying, Pay what thou owest. ²⁹ So his fellow-servant fell down and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee. ³⁰ And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay that which was due. ³¹ So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were exceeding sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done. ³² Then his lord called him unto him, and saith to him, Thou wicked ^aservant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou besoughtest me: ³³ ^ashouldst not thou also have had mercy on thy fellow-servant, even as I had mercy on thee? ³⁴ And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, ^atill he should pay all that was due. ³⁵ So shall also my heavenly Father do unto you, if ye forgive not every one his brother ^afrom your hearts.

³ And there came unto him ^aPharisees, ^atempting him, and saying, ^aIs it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? ⁴ And he answered and said, ^aHave ye not read, that he which ^amade them from the beginning made them male and female, ⁵ and said, ^aFor this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and ^athe twain shall become one flesh? ⁶ So that they are no more twain, but one flesh. ^aWhat therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. ⁷ They say unto him, ^aWhy then did Moses command to give a bill of divorce, and to put ^aher away? ⁸ He saith unto them, Moses for your ^ahardness of heart suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it hath not been so. ⁹ And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, ¹⁰ except for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: ¹¹ and he that marrieth her when she is put away committeth adultery. ¹² The disciples say unto him, If the case of the man is so with his wife, it is not expedient to marry. ¹³ But he said unto them, ^aAll men cannot receive this saying, but ^athey to ^awhom it is given. ¹⁴ For there are eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are eunuchs, which were made eunuchs by men: and there are eunuchs, * which made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 * Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should lay his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples * rebuked them. 14 But Jesus said, * Suffer the little children, and * forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven. 15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 * And behold, one came to him and said, 17 Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may * have * eternal life? 17 And he said unto him, * Why askest thou me concerning that which is good? One there is who is good: but * if thou wouldest enter into life, keep the commandments. 18 He saith unto him, Which? And Jesus said, * Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, 19 Honour thy father and thy mother: and, * Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. 20 The young man saith unto him, * All these things have I observed: what lack I yet? 21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wouldest be * perfect, go, * sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have * treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. 22 * But when the young man heard the saying, he went away sorrowful: for he was one that had great possessions.

23 And Jesus said unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, * It is hard for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of heaven. 24 * And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into * the kingdom of God. 25 And when the disciples heard it, they were astonished exceedingly, saying, Who then can be saved? 26 And Jesus * looking upon them said to them, * With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible. 27 Then answered Peter and said unto him, Lo, * we have left all, and followed thee; what then shall we have? 28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, that ye which have followed me, in the regeneration * when the Son of man shall sit on the throne of his glory, * ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones * judging the twelve tribes of Israel. 29 * And every one that hath left houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, * or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive * a hundredfold, and shall * inherit eternal life. 30 But * many shall be last that are first; and * first that are last. 1 For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a 20 man that is a householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard. 2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for * a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. 3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing in the marketplace idle; 4 and to them he said, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way. 5 Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did likewise. 6 And * about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing; and he saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle? 7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard. 8 And * when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his * steward, Call the labourers, and pay them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first. 9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny. 10 And when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise received every man a penny. 11 And when they received it, they murmured against the householder, 12 saying, These last have spent but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden of the day and * the scorching heat. 13 But he answered and said to one of them, * Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a

1 penny? 14 Take up ^e that which is thine, and go thy way; it is my will to give unto this last, even as unto thee. 15 ^f Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? or ^g is thine eye evil, because I am good? 16 So ^h the last shall be first, and the first last.

17 ⁱ And as Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples apart, and in the way he said unto them, 18 Behold, ^j we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests and scribes; and they shall ^k condemn him to death, 19 and shall ^l deliver him unto the Gentiles ^m to mock, and to scourge, and ⁿ to crucify: and ^o the third day he shall be raised up.

20 ^p Then came to him ^q the mother of the sons of Zebedee with her sons, ^r worshipping him, and asking a certain thing of him.

21 And he said unto her, What wouldest thou? She saith unto him, Command that these my two sons ^s may sit, one on thy right hand, and one on thy left hand, ^t in thy kingdom.

22 But Jesus answered and said, ^u Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able ^v to drink the cup that I am about to drink? They say unto him, We are able. 23 He saith unto them, ^w My cup indeed

^x ye shall drink: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left hand, is not mine to give, ^y but it is ^z for them for whom it hath been prepared of my Father. 24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation concerning the two brethren.

25 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, ^a Ye know that the rulers of the Gentiles ^b lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. 26 ^c Not so shall it be among you: but whosoever will become great among you shall be your ^d minister; 27 and whosoever would be first among you shall be your ^e servant: 28 even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but ^f to minister, and ^g to give his life a ransom for ^h many.

29 ⁱ And as they went out from

Jericho, a great multitude followed him. 30 And behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, Lord, have mercy on us, thou ^j son of David. 31 And the multitude ^k rebuked them, that they should hold their peace: but they cried out the more, saying, Lord, have mercy on us, thou son of David. 32 And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I should do unto you? 33 They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened. 34 And Jesus, being moved with compassion, touched their eyes: and straightway they received their sight, and followed him.

1 ⁱ And when they drew 21 high unto Jerusalem, and came unto Bethphage, unto ^j the mount of Olives, then Jesus ^k sent two disciples, 2 saying unto them, Go into the village that is over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me. 3 And if any one say aught unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them. 4 Now this is come to pass, ^l that it might be fulfilled which was spoken ^m by the prophet, saying,

5 ⁿ Tell ye the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, ^o Meek, and riding upon an ass, And upon a colt the foal of an ass.

6 And the disciples went, and did even as Jesus appointed them, 7 and brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their garments; and he sat thereon. 8 And the most part of the multitude ^p spread their garments in the way; and others cut branches from the trees, and spread them in the way. 9 And the multitudes that went before him, and that followed, cried, saying, ^q Hosanna ^r to the son of David: ^s Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna ^t in the highest. 10 And ^u when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was stirred, saying, Who is this? 11 And the multitudes said, This is ^v the prophet, Jesus, ^w from Nazareth of Galilee.

12^a And Jesus entered into the temple ^b of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of ^c the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold ^d the doves; 13 and he saith unto them, It is written, ^e My house shall be called a house of prayer: but ^f ye make it a den of robbers. 14^g And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple: and he healed them. 15^h But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children that were crying in the temple and saying, ⁱ Hosanna to the son of David; they were moved with indignation, 16 and said unto him, Hearest thou what these are saying? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea: ^j did ye never read, ^k Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise? 17 And ^l he left them, and ^m went forth out of the city to ⁿ Bethany, and lodged there.

18^o Now in the morning as he returned to the city, ^p he hungered. 19^q And seeing ^r a fig tree by the way side, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only; and he saith unto it, Let there be no fruit from thee henceforward for ever. And immediately the fig tree withered away. 20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How did the fig tree immediately wither away? 21 And Jesus answered and said unto them, ^s Verily I say unto you, ^t If ye have faith, and ^u doubt not, ye shall not only do what is done to the fig tree, but even if ye shall say unto this mountain, ^v Be thou taken up and cast into the sea, it shall be done. 22 And ^w all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, ^x believing, ye shall receive.

23^y And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him ^z as he was teaching, and said, ^{aa} By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority? 24 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one ^{ab} question, which if ye tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things. 25 The baptism of John, ^{ac} whence was it?

^{ad} from heaven or from men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, ^{ae} Why then did ye not believe him? 26 But if we shall say, From men; ^{af} we fear the multitude; for all hold John as ^{ag} a prophet. 27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We know not. He also said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things. 28^{ah} But what think ye? A man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, ^{ai} Son, go work to-day in ^{aj} the vineyard. 29 And he answered and said, I will not: but afterward he ^{ak} repented himself, and went. 30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not. 31 Whether of the twain did the will of his father? They say, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that ^{al} the publicans and ^{am} the harlots go into ^{an} the kingdom of God before you. 32 For John came unto you ^{ao} in the way of righteousness, and ^{ap} ye believed him not: but ^{aq} the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye saw it, did not even ^{ar} repent yourselves afterward, that ye might believe him.

33^{as} Hear another parable: There was a man that was a householder, which planted ^{at} a vineyard, ^{au} and set a hedge about it, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and ^{av} let it out to husbandmen, and ^{aw} went into another country. 34 And when the season of the fruits drew near, he sent his ^{ax} servants to the husbandmen, ^{ay} to receive ^{az} his fruits. 35^{ba} And the husbandmen took his ^{bb} servants, and beat one, and killed another, and ^{bc} stoned another. 36^{bd} Again, he sent other ^{be} servants more than the first: and they did unto them in like manner. 37 But afterward he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son. 38 But the husbandmen, when they saw the son, said among themselves, ^{bf} This is the heir; come, ^{bg} let us kill him, and take his inheritance. 39 And they took him, and ^{bh} cast him forth out of the vineyard, and killed him. 40^{bi} When therefore the lord of the vineyard shall come, what will he do unto those husband-men? 41 They say unto him, "He will miserably destroy those miserable men, and "will let out the vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons. 42 Jesus saith unto them, "Did ye never read in the scriptures,

"The stone which the builders rejected,

The same was made the head of the corner:

This was from the Lord,

And it is marvellous in our eyes?

43 Therefore say I unto you, "The kingdom of God "shall be taken away from you, and shall be given to a nation "bringing forth the fruits thereof. 44 "And "he that falleth on this stone shall be broken to pieces: but "on whomsoever it shall fall, "it will scatter him as dust.

45 And when the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them. 46 And "when they sought to lay hold on him, "they feared the multitudes, because they took him for "a prophet.

22 "I and Jesus answered and spake again in parables unto them, saying, 2 "The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a certain king, which made "a marriage feast for his son, 3 and "sent forth his "servants to call them that were bidden to the marriage feast: and they would not come. 4 "Again he sent forth other "servants, saying, Tell them that are bidden, Behold, I have made ready my "dinner: "my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come to the marriage feast. 5 But "they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his merchandise: 6 and the rest laid hold on his "servants, and "entreated them shamefully, and "killed them. 7 But the king was wroth; and he sent his armies, and "destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. 8 Then saith he to his "servants, The wedding is ready, but they that were bidden were not "worthy. 9 Go ye therefore unto "the partings of the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage feast. 10 And those "servants went out into the highways, and "gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was filled with guests. 11 But when the king came in to behold the guests, he saw there "a man which had not on a wedding-garment: 12 and he saith unto him, "Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding-garment? And he was speechless. 13 Then the king said to the "servants, Bind him hand and foot, and "cast him out into the outer darkness; "there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth. 14 For many are "called, but few "chosen.

15 "Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how "they might ensnare him in his talk. 16 And they send to him "their disciples, with "the Herodians, saying, "Master, "we know that thou art true, and teachest "the way of God in truth, and carest not for any one: for "thou regardest not the person of men. 17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give "tribute unto "Cæsar, or not? 18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why "tempt ye me, ye hypocrites? 19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a "penny. 20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? 21 They say unto him, Cæsar's. Then saith he unto them, "Render therefore unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's: and unto God the things that are God's. 22 And when they heard it, they marvelled, and "left him, and went their way.

23 On that day there came to him "Sadducees, "o which say that there is no resurrection: and they asked him, 24 saying, "Master, Moses said, "If a man die, having no children, his brother "shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. 25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first married and deceased, and having no seed left his wife unto his brother; 26 in like manner the second also, and the third, unto the "seventh. 27 And after them all the woman died. 28 In the resurrection therefore whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her. 29 But Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, ^anot knowing the scriptures, nor ^rthe power of God. ³⁰For in the resurrection they neither ^rmarry, nor ^rare given in marriage, but are as angels ¹in heaven. ³¹But as touching the resurrection of the dead, ^rhave ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, ³²^r'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not ^rthe God of the dead, but of the living. ³³And when the multitudes heard it, ^rthey were astonished at his teaching.

³⁴^rBut the Pharisees, when they heard that he had put ^rthe Sadducees to silence, gathered themselves together. ³⁵^rAnd one of them, ^aa lawyer, asked him a question, ^r'tempting him, ³⁶^rMaster, which is the great commandment in the law? ³⁷And he said unto him, ^b'Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. ³⁸This is the great and first commandment. ³⁹^rAnd ^ca second like ^{unto} it is this, ^r'Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. ⁴⁰^rOn these two commandments hangeth ^rthe whole law, and the prophets.

⁴⁵If David then calleth him Lord, ^rhow is he his son? ⁴⁶^rAnd no one was able to answer him a word, ^r'neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

¹Then ^cspake Jesus to the multitudes and to his disciples, ^asaying, ^r'The scribes and the Pharisees ^csit on Moses' seat: ³all things therefore whatsoever they bid you, ^rthese do and observe: ^rbut do not ye after their works; ^rfor they say, and do not.

¹³But woe ^runto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye ^rshut the kingdom of heaven ^hagainst men: for ye ^renter not in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering in to enter.

¹⁵Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one ⁱproselyte; and when he is become so, ye make him twofold more ^aa son of ¹⁰hell than yourselves.

¹⁶Woe unto you, ^rye ^rblind guides, which say, ^r'Whosoever shall swear by the ¹¹temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the ¹¹temple, he is ¹²a debtor. ¹⁷Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or ^r'the ¹¹temple that hath sanctified the gold? ¹⁸And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by ^r'the gift that is upon it, he is ¹²a debtor. ¹⁹Ye blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or ^r'the altar that sanctifieth the gift? ²⁰He therefore that sweareth by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon. ²¹And he that sweareth by the ¹¹temple, sweareth by it, and by ^r'him that dwelleth therein. ²²And he that sweareth by ^r'the heaven, sweareth

23 "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for "ye tithe mint and "anise and "cummin, and have left undone the weightier matters of the law, "judgement, and mercy, and faith: "but these ye ought to have done, and not to have left the other undone. 24 Ye blind guides, which strain out the gnat, and swallow "the camel.

25 "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for "ye cleanse the outside of "the cup and of the platter, but within they are full from "extortion and excess. 26 Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first the inside of "the cup and of the platter, that the outside thereof may become clean also.

27 "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto "whited sepulchres, which outwardly appear beautiful, but inwardly are full of dead men's bones, and of "all uncleanness. 28 Even so ye also "outwardly appear righteous unto men, but inwardly ye are full of "hypocrisy and iniquity.

29 "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and garnish the tombs of the righteous, 30 and say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we should not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets. 31 Wherefore ye witness to yourselves, that ye are "sons of them that slew the prophets. 32 "Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers. 33 Ye serpents, "ye offspring of vipers, how shall ye escape the judgement of "hell? 34 "Therefore, behold, "I send unto you "prophets, and wise men, and "scribes: "some of them shall ye kill and crucify; and "some of them shall ye "scourge in your synagogues, and "persecute from city to city: 35 that upon you may come all "the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of "Abel the righteous unto the blood of "Zachariah son of Barachiah, "whom ye slew between "the sanctuary and "the altar. 36 Verily I say unto you, "All these things shall come upon this generation.

37 "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem,

"which killeth the prophets, and stoneth them that are sent unto her! "how often would I have "gathered "thy children together, "even as a hen gathereth her chickens "under her wings, and "ye would not! 38 Behold, "your house is left unto you "desolate. 39 For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, "Blessed "be he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

1 "And Jesus went out from the temple, and was going on his way; and his disciples came to him to shew him the buildings of the temple. 2 But he answered and said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, "There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat on "the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him "privately, saying, Tell us, "when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy "coming, and of "the end of the world? 4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, "Take heed that no man lead you astray. 5 For "many shall come in my name, saying, I am "the Christ; and shall lead many astray. 6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye "be not troubled: for these things "must needs come to pass; but the end is not yet. 7 For "nation shall rise against nation, and "kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be "famines and earthquakes in divers places. 8 But all these things are the beginning of "travail. 9 Then "shall they deliver you up "unto tribulation, and "shall kill you: and "ye shall be hated of all the nations for my name's sake. 10 And then shall many stumble, and shall "deliver up one another, and shall hate one another. 11 And many "false prophets shall arise, "and shall lead many astray. 12 And because iniquity shall be multiplied, "the love of the many shall wax cold. 13 "But he that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved. 14 And "this gospel of the kingdom "shall be preached in the whole "world "for a testimony *unto all the nations; and *then shall the end come.

15 When therefore ye see the abomination of desolation, *which was spoken of ¹by Daniel the prophet, standing in ²the holy place (*let him that readeth understand), ³then let them that are in Judæa flee unto the mountains: ⁴17 *let him that is on ⁵the housetop not go down to take out the things that are in his house: ⁶18 and let him that is in the field not return back to take his cloke. ⁷19 But *woe unto them that are with child and to them that give suck in those days! ⁸20 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on a sabbath: ⁹21 for then shall be a great tribulation, ¹⁰such as hath not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, nor ever shall be. ¹¹22 And except those days had been shortened, no flesh would have been saved: but for ¹²the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. ¹³23 *Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is the Christ, or, Here; believe ¹⁴*it not. ¹⁵24 For there shall arise ¹⁶*false Christs, and ¹⁷*false prophets, and ¹⁸*shall shew great signs and wonders; ¹⁹so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect. ²⁰25 Behold, ²¹I have told you beforehand. ²²26 If therefore they shall say unto you, Behold, ²³he is in the wilderness; go not forth: Behold, he is in the inner chambers; believe ²⁴*it not. ²⁵27 *For as the lightning cometh forth from the east, and is seen even unto the west; so shall be ²⁶the ²⁷coming of the Son of man. ²⁸28 *Whosoever the carcass is, there will the ²⁹eagles be gathered to together. ³⁰29 But immediately, after ³¹the tribulation of those days, ³²the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and ³³the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken: ³⁴30 and then ³⁵*shall appear ³⁶the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then ³⁷*shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and ³⁸*they shall see the Son of man coming on the clouds of heaven ³⁹with power and great glory. ⁴⁰31 And ⁴¹*he shall send forth his angels ⁴²with ⁴³a great sound of ⁴⁴a trumpet, and they shall ⁴⁵*gather together ⁴⁶*his elect from ⁴⁷the four winds, ⁴⁸*from one end of heaven to the other.

32 Now from the fig tree learn her parable: when her branch is now become tender, and putteth forth its leaves, ye know that the summer is nigh; ³³33 even so ye also, when ye see all these things, know ye that ³⁴he is nigh, ³⁵even ³⁶at the doors. ³⁷34 *Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all these things be accomplished. ³⁸35 *Heaven and earth shall pass away, but ³⁹my words shall not pass away. ⁴⁰36 But of that day and hour ⁴¹*knoweth no one, not even the angels of heaven, ⁴²neither the Son, ⁴³but the Father only. ⁴⁴37 *And as ⁴⁵were the days of Noah, ⁴⁶so shall be the ⁴⁷coming of the Son of man. ⁴⁸38 *For as in those days which were before the flood they were eating and drinking, ⁴⁹*marrying and giving in marriage, until ⁵⁰*the day that Noah entered into the ark, ⁵¹39 and they knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; ⁵²so shall be ⁵³the ⁵⁴coming of the Son of man. ⁵⁵40 *Then shall two men be in the field; one is taken, and one is left: ⁵⁶41 *two women shall be grinding ⁵⁷at the mill; one is taken, and one is left. ⁵⁸42 *Watch therefore: for ye know not on what day ⁵⁹*your Lord cometh. ⁶⁰43 *But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what watch ⁶¹the thief was coming, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be ⁶²broken through. ⁶³44 Therefore be ye also ⁶⁴*ready: for in an hour that ye think not ⁶⁵the Son of man cometh. ⁶⁶45 Who then is ⁶⁷the faithful and ⁶⁸*wise ⁶⁹servant, whom his lord hath set over his household, to give them their food in due season? ⁷⁰46 *Blessed is that ⁷¹servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. ⁷²47 Verily I say unto you, that ⁷³he will set him over all that he hath. ⁷⁴48 But if that evil ⁷⁵servant shall say in his heart, My lord ⁷⁶*tarrieth; ⁷⁷49 and shall begin to beat his fellow-servants, and shall eat and drink with ⁷⁸the drunken; ⁷⁹50 the lord of that ⁸⁰servant shall come ⁸¹in a day when thou deliveredst unto me five talents: lo, I have gained other five talents. ⁴⁹ His lord said unto him, Well done, good and ⁵⁰ faithful ⁵¹ servant: ⁵² thou hast been faithful over a few things, ⁵³ I will set thee over many things: enter thou into ⁵⁴ the joy of thy lord. ⁵⁵ And he also that ⁵⁶ received the two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: lo, I have gained other two talents. ⁵⁷ His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful ⁵⁸ servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will set thee over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord. ⁵⁹ And he also that had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art ⁶⁰ a hard man, reaping ⁶¹ where thou didst not sow, and gathering where thou didst not scatter: ⁶² and I was afraid, and went away and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, ⁶³ thou hast thine own. ⁶⁴ But his lord answered and said unto him, Thou ⁶⁵ wicked and ⁶⁶ slothful ⁶⁷ servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I did not scatter; ⁶⁸ yet thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the bankers, and at my coming I should have received back mine own with interest. ⁶⁹ Take ye away therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him that hath the ten talents. ⁷⁰ For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not, even that which he hath shall be taken away. ⁷¹ And ⁷² cast ye out ⁷³ the unprofitable ⁷⁴ servant into the outer darkness: ⁷⁵ there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth.

⁷⁶ But when the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the angels with him, ⁷⁷ then shall he sit on the throne of his glory: ⁷⁸ and before him ⁷⁹ shall be gathered ⁸⁰ all the nations: and ⁸¹ he shall separate them one from another, as the shepherd separateth ⁸² the sheep from the ⁸³ goats: ⁸⁴ and he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the ⁸⁵ goats on the left. ⁸⁶ Then shall ⁸⁷ the King say unto ⁸⁸ them on his right hand, Come, ye ⁸⁹ blessed of my Father, ⁹⁰ inherit ⁹¹ the kingdom ⁹² prepared for you ⁹³ from the foundation of the world: ⁹⁴ for ⁹⁵ I was an hungred, and

26 And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these words, he said unto his disciples, 2 Ye know that after two days the passover cometh, and the Son of man is delivered up to be crucified. 3 Then were gathered together the chief priests, and the elders of the people, unto the court of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas ; 4 and they took counsel together that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him. 5 But they said, Not during the feast, lest a tumult arise among the people.

6 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, 7 there came unto him a woman having an alabaster cruse of exceeding precious ointment, and she poured it upon his head, as he sat at meat. 8 But when the disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste ? 9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor. 10 But Jesus perceiving it said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman ? for she hath wrought a good work upon me. 11 For ye have the poor always with you ; but me ye have not always. 12 For in that she poured this ointment upon my body, she did it to prepare me for burial. 13 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, that also which this woman hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

14 Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, 15 and said, What are ye willing to give me, and I will deliver him unto you ? And they weighed unto him thirty pieces of silver. 16 And from that time he sought opportunity to deliver him unto them.

17 Now on the first day of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, Where wilt thou that we make ready for thee to eat the passover ? 18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand ; I keep the passover at thy house with my disciples. 19 And the disciples did as Jesus appointed them ; and they made ready the passover. 20 Now when even was come, he was sitting at meat with the twelve disciples ; 21 and as they were eating, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me. 22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began to say unto him every one, Is it I, Lord ? 23 And he answered and said, He that dipped his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me. 24 The Son of man goeth, even as it is written of him : but woe unto that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed ! good were it for that man if he had not been born. 25 And Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Is it I, 'Rabbi? He saith unto him, 'Thou hast said. 26^a And as they were eating, Jesus took ^b bread, and ^c blessed, and brake it; and he gave to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; ^d this is my body. 27 And he took ^e a cup, and ^f gave thanks, and gave to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; ^g 28 for ^h this is my ⁱ blood of ^j the ^k covenant, which is shed for ^l many ^m unto remission of sins. 29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you ⁿ in my Father's kingdom.

30^a And when they had sung a hymn, ^b they went out unto ^c the mount of Olives.

31 Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall be ^d offended in me this night: for it is written, I will ^e smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad. 32 But after I am raised up, ^f I will go before you into Galilee. 33 But ^g Peter answered and said unto him, If all shall be ^h offended in thee, I will never be ⁱ offended. 34^k Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that this night, ^l before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. 35^m Peter saith unto him, Even if I must die with thee, ⁿ yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36^a Then cometh Jesus with them ^b unto ^c a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto his disciples, Sit ye here, while I go yonder and pray. 37 And he took with him ^d Peter and ^e the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and sore troubled. 38 Then saith he unto them, ^f My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: abide ye here, and ^g watch with me. 39 And he went forward a little, and fell on his face, ^h and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let ⁱ this cup pass away from me: ^j nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt. 40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour? 41^k Watch and ^l pray, that ye ^m enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. 42 Again a second time he went away, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cannot pass away, except I drink it, ⁿ thy will be done. 43 And he came again and found them sleeping, for ^o their eyes were heavy. 44 And he left them again, and went away, and prayed ^p a third time, saying again the same words. 45 Then cometh he to the disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, ^q the hour is at hand, and ^r the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 46 Arise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that betrayeth me.

47^a And while he yet spake, lo, ^b Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people. 48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that is he: take him. 49 And straightway he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, ^c Rabbi; and ^d kissed him. 50 And Jesus said unto him, ^e Friend, ^f do that for which thou art come. Then they came and laid hands on Jesus, and took him. 51 And behold, one of them that were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his ^g sword, and smote the ^h servant of the high priest, and struck off his ear. 52 Then saith Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into its place: for ⁱ all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword. 53 Or ^j thinkest thou that I cannot beseech my Father, and he shall even now send me ^k more than twelve ^l legions of angels? 54^m How then should the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be? 55 In that hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a robber with swords and staves to seize me? ⁿ I sat daily in the temple ^o teaching, and ye took me not. 56 But ^p all this is come to pass, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. ^q Then all the disciples left him, and fled.

57^a And ^b they that had taken Jesus led him away to the ^c house of ^d Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together. 58 But ^e Peter followed him afar off, unto ^f the court of the high priest, and entered in, and sat with the officers, to see the end. 59 Now the chief priests and the whole council sought false witness against Jesus, that they might put him to death; 60 and they found it not, though many false witnesses came. But afterward came two, 61 and said, This man said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days. 62 And the high priest stood up, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee? 63 But Jesus held his peace. 64 And the high priest said unto him, I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God. 65 Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Henceforth ye shall see the Son of man sitting at the right hand of power, and coming on the clouds of heaven. 66 Then the high priest rent his garments, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy: what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard the blasphemy: 67 what think ye? They answered and said, He is worthy of death. 68 Then did they spit in his face and buffet him: and some smote him with the palms of their hands, 69 saying, Prophecy unto us, thou Christ: who is he that struck thee? 70 Now Peter was sitting without in the court: and a maid came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus the Galilean. 71 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest. 72 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and saith unto them that were there, This man also was with Jesus the Nazarene. 73 And again he denied with an oath, I know not the man. 74 And after a little while they that stood by came and said to Peter, Of a truth thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee. 75 Then began he to curse and to swear, I know not the man. And straightway the cock crew. 76 And Peter remembered the word which Jesus had said, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

Now when morning was come, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death: 2 and they bound him, and led him away, and delivered him up to Pilate the governor.

Then Judas, which betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, 4 saying, I have sinned in that I betrayed innocent blood. But they said, What is that to us? see thou to it. 5 And he cast down the pieces of silver into the sanctuary, and departed; and he went away and hanged himself. 6 And the chief priests took the pieces of silver, and said, It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, since it is the price of blood. 7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in. 8 Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day. 9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was priced, whom certain of the children of Israel did price; 10 and they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

Now Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest. 12 And when he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing. 13 Then saith Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee? 14 And he gave him no answer, not even to one word: insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly. 15 Now at the feast the governor was wont to release unto the multitude one prisoner, whom they would. 16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas. 17 When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or ^w Jesus which is called Christ? ¹⁸ For he knew that ^x for envy they had delivered him up. ¹⁹ And while he was sitting on ^v the judgement-seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with ^t that righteous man: for I have suffered many things this day ^a in a dream because of him. ²⁰ Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the multitudes that they should ^b ask for Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. ²¹ But the governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? And they said, Barabbas. ²² Pilate saith unto them, What then shall I do unto Jesus which is called Christ? ^c They all say, Let him be crucified. ²³ And he said, Why, ^d what evil hath he done? But they cried out exceedingly, saying, Let him be crucified. ²⁴ So when Pilate saw that he prevailed nothing, but rather that ^e a tumult was arising, he took water, and ^f washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent ¹ of the blood of ^g this righteous man: ^h see ye to it. ²⁵ And all the people answered and said, ⁱ His blood be on us, and ^j on our children. ²⁶ Then released he unto them Barabbas: but Jesus he ^k scourged and delivered to be crucified.

with them, that he might ^c bear his cross. ³³ And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, The place of a skull, ³⁴ they gave him wine to drink mingled with ^d gall: and when he had tasted it, he would not drink. ³⁵ And when they had crucified him, ^e they parted his garments among them, casting lots: ³⁶ and they sat and ^f watched him there. ³⁷ And they set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS ^g THE KING OF THE JEWS. ³⁸ Then are there crucified with him two ^h robbers, ⁱ one on the right hand, and one on the left. ³⁹ And ^j they that passed by ^k railed on him, ^l wagging their heads, ^m and saying, ⁿ Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself: ^o if thou art ^p the Son of God, come down from the cross. ⁴¹ In like manner also the chief priests mocking ^q him, with the scribes and elders, said, ⁴² He saved others; ^r himself he cannot save. ^s He is the King of Israel; let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe on him. ⁴³ He trusteth on God: let him deliver him now, if he desireth him: for he said, I am the Son of God. ⁴⁴ And the robbers also that were crucified with him cast upon him the same reproach.

⁴⁵ Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the ¹ land until the ninth hour. ⁴⁶ And about the ninth hour Jesus ² cried with a loud voice, saying, ³ Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is, My God, my God, ⁴ why hast thou forsaken me? ⁴⁷ And some of them that stood there, when they heard it, said, This man calleth Elijah. ⁴⁸ And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with ⁵ vinegar, and put it on a reed, and ⁶ gave him to drink. ⁴⁹ And the rest said, Let be; let us see whether Elijah cometh to save him. ⁵⁰ And Jesus ⁷ cried again with a loud voice, and ⁸ yielded up his spirit. ⁵¹ And behold, ⁹ the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and ¹⁰ the earth did quake; and the rocks were rent; and the tombs were opened; and many bodies of "the saints" that had fallen asleep were raised; 53 and coming forth out of the tombs after his resurrection they entered into "the holy city and appeared unto many." 54 "Now the centurion, and they that were with him" watching Jesus, when they saw the earthquake, and the things that were done, feared exceedingly, saying, "Truly this was ^{1d} the Son of God." 55 And "many women were there beholding" from afar, which had followed Jesus from Galilee, "ministering unto him: 56 among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and ² the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

57 "And when even was come, there came a rich man from Arimathæa, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple: 58 this man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded it to be given up. 59 And Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 and ³ laid it in his own new tomb, ⁴ which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled ⁵ a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed. 61 And Mary Magdalene was there, and ⁶ the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 Now on the morrow, which is the day after "the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together unto Pilate, 63 saying, Sir, we remember that ⁷ that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, ⁸ "After three days I rise again. 64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, ⁹ lest haply his disciples come and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: and the last error will be worse than the first. 65 Pilate said unto them, ¹⁰ "Ye have ¹¹ a guard: go your way, ¹² make it as sure as ye can. 66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, ¹³ sealing the stone, the guard being with them.

28 ¹ "Now late on the sabbath day, as it began to dawn to-day, the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and ² the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

2 And behold, there was a great earthquake; for ³ an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled away the stone, and sat upon it. 3 ⁴ His appearance was as lightning, and ⁵ his raiment white as snow: 4 and for fear of him the watchers did quake, and ⁶ became as dead men. 5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which hath been crucified. 6 He is not here; for he is risen, ⁷ even as he said. Come, see the place ⁸ where the Lord lay. 7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples. He is risen from the dead; and lo, ⁹ he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you. 8 And they departed quickly from the tomb ¹⁰ with fear and great joy, and ran to bring his disciples word. 9 And behold, Jesus ¹¹ met them, saying, All hail. And they came and ¹² took hold of his feet, and ¹³ worshipped him. 10 Then saith Jesus unto them, Fear not: ¹⁴ go tell ¹⁵ my brethren that they depart into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

11 Now while they were going, behold, some of ¹⁶ the guard came into the city, and told unto the chief priests all the things that were come to pass. 12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, 13 saying, Say ye, ¹⁷ "His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept. 14 And if this ¹⁸ come to ¹⁹ the governor's ears, we will ²⁰ persuade him, and rid you of care. 15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying was spread abroad among the Jews, and continueth ²¹ until this day.

16 But the eleven disciples ²² went into Galilee, unto the mountain where Jesus had appointed them. 17 And when they saw him, they ²³ worshipped him: but some doubted. 18 And Jesus came to them and spake unto them, saying, ²⁴ "All authority hath been given unto me ²⁵ in heaven and on earth. 19 ²⁶ Go ye therefore, and ²⁷ make disciples of ²⁸ all the nations, ²⁹ baptizing them ³⁰ into ³¹ the name of the Father and

of Jesus Christ, ² the Son of God.

³ Even as it is written ⁴ in Isaiah the prophet,

⁵ Behold, I send my messenger before thy face,

Who shall prepare thy way;

⁶ The voice of one crying in the wilderness,

⁷ Make ye ready the way of the Lord,

Make his paths straight;

⁸ John came, who baptized in the wilderness and preached ⁹ the baptism of ¹⁰ repentance ¹¹ unto remission of sins. ¹² And there went out unto him all the country of Judæa, and all they of Jerusalem; and they were baptized of him in the river Jordan, ¹³ confessing their sins. ¹⁴ And John was ¹⁵ clothed with camel's hair, and ¹⁶ had a leathern girdle about his loins, and did eat ¹⁷ locusts and ¹⁸ wild honey. ¹⁹ And he preached, saying, ²⁰ There cometh after me he that is mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not ²¹ worthy to stoop down and unloose. ²² I baptized you ²³ with water; but ²⁴ he shall baptize you ²⁵ with the ²⁶ Holy Ghost.

²⁷ And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus ²⁸ came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John ²⁹ in the Jordan. ³⁰ And straightway coming up out of the water, he ³¹ saw ³² the heavens rent asunder, ³³ and the Spirit as a dove descending upon him: ³⁴ and ³⁵ a voice came out of the heavens,

³⁶ Thou art my beloved Son, in thee
I am well pleased.

³⁷ And straightway the Spirit driveth him forth into the wilderness. ³⁸ And he was in the wilderness forty days ³⁹ tempted of ⁴⁰ Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and ⁴¹ the angels ministered unto him.

⁴² Now after that John was delivered up, Jesus ⁴³ came into Galilee, preaching ⁴⁴ the gospel of God,

⁴⁵ and saying, ⁴⁶ The time is fulfilled, and ⁴⁷ the kingdom of God is at hand:

⁴⁸ repent ye, and believe in the gospel.

⁴⁹ And passing along by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew the brother of Simon casting a net in the sea: for they were fishers.

⁵⁰ And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become ⁵¹ fishers of men. ⁵² And straightway they left the nets, and followed him. ⁵³ And going on a little further, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the boat mending the nets. ⁵⁴ And straightway he called them: and they left their father

Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went after him.

⁵⁵ And they go into Capernaum; and straightway ⁵⁶ on the sabbath day ⁵⁷ he entered into the synagogue and taught. ⁵⁸ And ⁵⁹ they were astonished at his teaching: ⁶⁰ for he taught them as having authority, and not as the scribes. ⁶¹ And straightway there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, ⁶² saying, ⁶³ What have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? ⁶⁴ I know thee who thou art, ⁶⁵ the Holy One of God. ⁶⁶ And Jesus ⁶⁷ rebuked ⁶⁸ him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. ⁶⁹ And the unclean spirit, ⁷⁰ tearing him and ⁷¹ crying with a loud voice, came out of him.

⁷² And they were all ⁷³ amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What is this?

⁷⁴ a new teaching! with authority

⁷⁵ he teacheth them as having authority, and not as the scribes.

⁷⁶ And they were all ⁷⁷ amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What is this?

⁷⁸ a new teaching! with authority

he commandeth even the unclean spirits, and they obey him. 28 And the report of him went out straightway everywhere into all the region of Galilee round about.

29^w And straightway, ¹ when they were come ² out of the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. 30 Now ¹ Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever; and straightway they tell him of her: 31 and he came and ² took her by the hand, and raised her up; and the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were sick, and them that were ² possessed with devils. 33 And all the city was gathered together at the door. 34^b And he healed many that were sick with divers diseases, and cast out many ² devils; and ¹ he suffered not the ² devils to speak, because they knew him⁴.

35^d And in the morning, a great while before day, he rose up and went out, and departed into a desert place, and ¹ there prayed. 36 And Simon and they that were with him followed after him; 37 and they found him, and say unto him, ¹ All are seeking thee. 38 And he saith unto them, Let us go elsewhere into the next towns, that I may preach there also; for ¹ to this end came I forth. 39^a And ¹ he went into their synagogues throughout all Galilee, preaching and casting out ² devils.

40^f And there cometh to him a leper, beseeching him, ¹ and ² kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, ¹ If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. 41 And being moved with compassion, he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou made clean. 42 And straightway the leprosy departed from him, and he was made clean. 43 And ¹ he ² strictly charged him, and straightway sent him out, 44 and saith unto him, ¹ See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, ² shew thyself to the priest, and ¹ offer for thy cleansing the things which Moses commanded, ² for a testimony unto them. 45¹ But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to spread abroad the ¹ matter, inasmuch that ² Jesus could no more openly enter into ³ a city, but was without in ⁴ desert places: and ¹ they came to him from every quarter.

1 And when he entered again ² into ³ Capernaum after some days, it was noised that he was ¹⁰ in the house. 2 And many were gathered together, so that there was no longer room for them, no, not even about the door: and he spake the word unto them. 3¹ And they come, bringing unto him a man sick of the palsy, borne of four. 4 And when they could not ¹¹ come nigh unto him for the crowd, ¹² they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed whereon the sick of the palsy lay. 5 And Jesus ² seeing their faith saith unto the sick of the palsy, ¹³ Son, ¹⁴ thy sins are forgiven. 6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, 7 Why doth this man thus speak? ¹⁵ he blasphemeth: ¹⁶ who can forgive sins but one, ¹⁷ even God? 8 And straightway Jesus, ¹⁸ perceiving in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, saith unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts? 9 Whether is easier, to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins are forgiven; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk? 10 But that ye may know that ¹⁹ the Son of man hath ²⁰ power on earth to forgive sins (he saith to the sick of the palsy), 11 I say unto thee, Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thy house. 12 And he arose, and straightway took up the bed, and went forth before them all; inasmuch that they were all amazed, and ²¹ glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

13 And he went forth again by the sea side; and ¹ all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them. 14¹ And as he passed by, he saw ² Levi the ³ son of Alphæus sitting at the place of toll, and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him. 15 And it came to pass, that he was sitting at meat in his house, and many

1 ^a publicans and sinners sat down with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him. 16 And ^a the scribes ^a of the Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with the sinners and publicans, said unto his disciples, 17 He eateth ^a and drinketh with publicans and sinners. 18 And when Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are ^a whole have no need of a physician, but they that are sick: ^a I came not to call the righteous, ^a but sinners.

18 And ^a John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting: and they come and say unto him, ^a Why do John's disciples and ^a the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not? 19 And Jesus said unto them, ^a Can the sons of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. 20 But ^a the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and ^a then will they fast in that day. 21 No man seweth a piece of undressed cloth on an old garment: else that which should fill it up taketh from it, the new from the old, and a worse rent is made. 22 And no man putteth new wine into old ^a wine-skins: else the wine will burst the skins, and the wine perisheth, and the skins: but they put new wine into fresh wine-skins.

23 And it came to pass, that he was going on the sabbath day through the cornfields; and his disciples ^a began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn. 24 And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, ^a why do they on the sabbath day ^a that which is not lawful? 25 And he said unto them, ^a Did ye never read ^a what David did, when he had need, and was an hungry, he, and they that were with him? 26 How he entered into the house of God ^a when ^a Abiathar was high priest, and did eat ^a the shewbread, which it is not lawful to eat save for the priests, and gave also to them that were with him? 27 And he said unto them, ^a The sabbath was made for man, and ^a not man for the sabbath: ^a so that ^a the Son of man is lord even of the sabbath.

3 ^a And ^a he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had his hand withered. 2 And ^a they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him. 3 And he saith unto the man that had his hand withered, ^a Stand forth. 4 And he saith unto them, ^a Is it lawful on the sabbath day to do good, or to do harm? to save a life, or to kill? But they held their peace. 5 And when he had ^a looked round about on them with anger, being grieved at ^a the hardening of their heart, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And ^a he stretched it forth: and his hand was restored. 6 And the Pharisees went out, and straightway with ^a the Herodians ^a took counsel against him, how they might destroy him.

7 And Jesus with his disciples withdrew to the sea: and ^a a great multitude from Galilee followed: and from Judæa, ^a and from Jerusalem, and from ^a Idumæa, and beyond Jordan, and about ^a Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, hearing ^a what great things he did, came unto him. 9 And he spake to his disciples, that ^a a little boat should wait on him because of the crowd, lest they should ^a throng him: 10 for ^a he had healed many; insomuch that as many as had ^a plagues ^a pressed upon him ^a that they might touch him. 11 And the unclean spirits, whensoever they beheld him, ^a fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art ^a the Son of God. 12 And ^a he charged them much that they should not make him known.

13 And he goeth up into the mountain, and calleth unto him ^a whom he himself would: and they went unto him. 14 And he appointed twelve, ^a that they might be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach, ^a and to have authority to cast out ^a devils: 15 ^a and Simon ^a he surnamed Peter; 17 and ^a James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of

James; and them he surnamed Boanerges, which is, ^cSons of thunder: ¹⁸and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and ^fMatthew, and Thomas, and James the ^{son} of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the ¹Cananean, ¹⁹and Judas Iscariot, which also betrayed him.

And he cometh ²⁰into a house. ²⁰And the multitude cometh together again, ^aso that they could not so much as eat bread. ²¹And when ^jhis friends heard it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, He ^kis beside himself. ²²And ^lthe scribes which came down from Jerusalem said, ^mHe hath Beelzebub, and, ⁿBy the prince of the ^odevils casteth he out the ^pdevils. ²³And he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan? ²⁴And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. ²⁵And if a house be divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. ²⁶And if Satan hath risen up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end. ²⁷But ^qno one can enter into the house of the strong ^rman, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong ^rman; and ^sthen he will spoil his house. ²⁸Verily I say unto you, All their sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and their blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme: ²⁹but whosoever shall ^tblaspheme against the Holy Spirit hath never forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin: ³⁰because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

³¹And there come his mother and his ^ubrethren; and, standing without, they sent unto him, calling him. ³²And a multitude was sitting about him; and they say unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee. ³³And he answereth them, and saith, Who is my mother and my brethren? ³⁴And ^vlooking round on them which sat round about him, he saith, Behold, my mother and my brethren! ³⁵For ^wwhosoever shall ^xdo the will of God, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

And again ^yhe began to teach by the sea side. And there ^zis gathered unto him a very great multitude, ^{aa}so that he entered into a boat, and sat in the sea; and all the multitude were by the sea on the land. ²And ^{ab}he taught them many things in parables, and said unto them in his teaching, ^{ac}Hearken: Behold, ^{ad}the sower went forth to sow: ^{ae}and it came to pass, as he sowed, some ^{af}seed fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured it. ⁵And other fell on the rocky ^{ag}ground, where it had not much earth; and straightway it sprang up, because it had no deepness of earth: ⁶and ^{ah}when the sun was risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, ^{ai}it withered away. ⁷And other fell among ^{aj}the thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. ⁸And others fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit, growing up and increasing; and brought forth, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and ^{ak}a hundredfold. ⁹And he said, ^{al}Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

¹⁰And ^{am}when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parables. ¹¹And he said unto them, ^{an}Unto you is given ^{ao}the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto ^{ap}them that are without, all things are done in parables: ¹²^{aq}that ^{ar}seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest haply they ^{as}should turn again, and it should be forgiven them. ¹³And he saith unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how shall ye know all the parables? ¹⁴The sower soweth ^{at}the word. ¹⁵And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; and when they have heard, straightway cometh Satan, and taketh away the word which hath been sown in them. ¹⁶And these in like manner are they that are sown upon the rocky ^{au}places, who, when they have heard the word, straightway receive it ^{av}with joy; ^{aw}and they have no root in themselves, but ^{ax}endure for a while; then, when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, straightway ^{ay}they stumble. ¹⁸And others are they that are sown among the thorns; these are they that have heard the word, ^{az}and ^{ba}the cares of ^{bb}the ^{bc}world, and ^{bd}the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. 20 And those are they that were sown upon the good ground; such as hear the word, and accept it; and ^wbear fruit, ^xthirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hundredfold.

21 ^yAnd he said unto them, ^zIs the lamp brought to be put under the bushel, or under the bed, and not to be put on the stand? 22 ^aFor there is nothing hid, save that it should be manifested; neither was ^banything made secret, but that it should come to light. 23 ^cIf any man hath ears to hear, let him hear. 24 And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: ^dwith what measure ye mete it shall be measured unto you: and more shall be given unto you. 25 ^eFor he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he hath.

26 And he said, ^fSo is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed upon the earth; ^gand should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, ^hhe knoweth not how. 28 The earth ⁱbeareth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, then the full corn in the ear. 29 But when the fruit ^jis ripe, straightway ^khe ^lputteth forth the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 ^mAnd he said, How shall we liken the kingdom of God? or in what parable shall we set it forth? 31 ⁿIt is like ^oa grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown upon the earth, though it be less than all the seeds that are upon the earth, 32 yet when it is sown, groweth up, and becometh greater than all the herbs, and putteth out great branches; so that the birds of the heaven can lodge under the shadow thereof.

33 And ^pwith many such parables spake he ^qthe word unto them, ^ras they were able to hear it: 34 and ^swithout a parable spake he not unto them: but ^tprivately to his own disciples he ^uexpounded all things.

35 ^vAnd on that day, when even was come, he saith unto them, Let us go over unto the other side. 36 And leaving the multitude, they take him with them, ^weven as he was, in the boat. And other boats were with him. 37 And there ariseth a great storm of wind, and the waves ^xbeat into the boat, inso-much that the boat was now filling. 38 And he himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion: and they awake him, and say unto him, ^yMaster, carest thou not that we perish? 39 And he awoke, and ^zrebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and ^athere was a great calm. 40 And he said unto them, Why are ye ^bfearful? have ye not yet faith? 41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, ^cWho then is this, that even ^dthe wind and the sea obey him?

1 ^eAnd they came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gerasenes. 2 And when he was come out of the boat, straightway there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, 3 ^fwho had his dwelling in the tombs: and no man could any more bind him, no, not with a chain; 4 because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been rent asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: and no man had strength to tame him. 5 And always, night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out, and cutting himself with stones. 6 And when he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and ^gworshipped him; 7 and ^hcrying out with a loud voice, he saith, ⁱWhat have I to do with thee, Jesus, ^jthou Son of ^kthe Most High God? ^lI adjure thee by God, torment me not. 8 For he said unto him, Come forth, thou unclean spirit, out of the man. 9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he saith unto him, My name is ^mLegion; for we are many. 10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country. 11 Now there was there on the mountain side a great herd of swine feeding. 12 And they besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them. 13 And he gave them leave. And the unclean spirits came out, and entered into the swine: and the herd rushed down the steep into the sea, ⁿin number about two thousand; and they were choked in the sea. 14 And they that fed them fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they came to see what it was that had come to pass. 15 And they came to Jesus, and beheld ¹him that was possessed with devils sitting, ²clothed and in his right mind, even him that had ³the legion : and they were afraid. 16 And they that saw it declared unto them how it befell ¹him that was possessed with devils, and concerning the swine. 17 And ¹they began to beseech him to depart from their borders. 18 And as he was entering into the boat, he that had been possessed with ²devils besought him that he might be with him. 19 And he suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go to thy house unto thy friends, and ¹tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and how he had mercy on thee. 20 And he went his way, and began to publish in ²Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him : and all men did marvel.

21 And when Jesus had crossed over again in the boat unto the other side, a great multitude was gathered unto him : and he was by the sea. 22 ¹And there cometh one of ²the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name ; and seeing him, he falleth at his feet, 23 and beseecheth him much, saying, My little daughter is at the point of death : I pray thee, that thou come and ³lay thy hands on her, that she may be ⁴made whole, and live. 24 And he went with him ; and a great multitude followed him, and they ⁵thronged him.

25 And a woman, ⁶which had an issue of blood twelve years, 26 and had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse, 27 having heard the things concerning Jesus, came in the crowd behind, and touched his garment. 28 For she said, If I touch but his garments, I shall be ⁷made whole. 29 ⁸And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up ; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her ⁹plague. 30 And straightway Jesus, perceiving in himself that

¹⁰the power proceeding from him had gone forth, turned him about in the crowd, and said, Who touched my garments? 31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? 32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing. 33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what had been done to her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth. 34 And he said unto her, Daughter, ¹¹thy faith hath ¹²made thee whole ; go in peace, and be whole of thy ¹³plague.

35 While he yet spake, they come from ¹⁴the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying, Thy daughter is dead : why ¹⁵troublest thou ¹⁶the ¹⁷Master any further? 36 But Jesus, ¹⁸not heeding the word spoken, saith unto ¹⁹the ruler of the synagogue, Fear not, only believe. 37 And he suffered no man to follow with him, save ²⁰Peter, and James, and ²¹John the brother of James. 38 And they come to the house of the ruler of the synagogue ; and he beholdeth a tumult, and many weeping and wailing greatly. 39 And when he was entered in, he saith unto them, ²²Why make ye a tumult, and weep? the child is not dead, but ²³sleepeth. 40 And they laughed him to scorn. But he, ²⁴having put them all forth, taketh the father of the child and her mother and them that were with him, and goeth in where the child was. 41 And ²⁵taking the child by the hand, he saith unto her, Talitha cumi ; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, ²⁶Arise. 42 And straightway the damsel rose up, and walked ; for she was twelve years old. And they were amazed straightway with a great amazement. 43 And ²⁷he charged them much that no man should know this : and he commanded that something should be given her to eat.

1 ²⁸And he went out from ²⁹thence ; and he cometh into ³⁰his own country ; and his disciples follow him. 2 And ³¹when the sabbath was come, he began to teach in the synagogue : and ³²many hearing him were astonished, saying, Whence hath this man these things?

and, What is the wisdom that is given unto this man, and what mean such ¹mighty works wrought by his hands? ³Is not this ²the carpenter, the son of Mary, and ¹brother of James, and Joses, and Judas, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And ⁴they were ²offended in him. ⁴And Jesus said unto them, ⁵"A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house. ⁵And ⁶he could there do no ⁸mighty work, save that ⁷he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them. ⁶And ⁷he marvelled because of their unbelief.

⁷And he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits; ⁸and he charged them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no bread, no wallet, no ⁹money in their ⁹purse; ⁹but to go ¹⁰shod with sandals: and, said he, put not on two coats. ¹⁰And he said unto them, Whosoever ye enter into a house, there abide till ye depart thence. ¹¹And whatsoever place shall not receive you, and they hear you not, as ye go forth thence, ¹¹shake off the dust that is under your feet ¹²for a testimony unto them. ¹²And they went out, and ¹²preached ¹³that men should repent. ¹³And they cast out many ¹⁴devils, and ¹⁴anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

¹⁴And king Herod heard thereof; for his name had become known: and ¹⁵he said, ¹⁵"John ¹⁶the Baptist is risen from the dead, and therefore do these powers work in him. ¹⁵But others said, It is Elijah. And others said, It is ¹⁶a prophet, even as one of the prophets. ¹⁶But Herod, when he heard thereof, said, John, whom I beheaded, he is risen. ¹⁷For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and ¹⁷found him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her. ¹⁸For John said unto Herod, ¹⁸"It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife. ¹⁹And Herodias ¹⁹set herself against him, and desired to kill him; and she could not; ²⁰for Herod ²⁰feared John, knowing that he was a righteous man and a holy, and kept him safe. And when he heard him, he ²¹was much perplexed; and he ²¹heard him gladly. ²¹And when a convenient day was come, that Herod ²²on his birthday ²²made a supper to his lords, and the ²³high captains, and the chief men of Galilee; ²²and when ²³the daughter of Herodias herself came in and danced, ²³she pleased Herod and them that sat at meat with him; and the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee. ²³And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, ²⁴unto the half of my kingdom. ²⁴And she went out, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John ²⁵the Baptist. ²⁵And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou forthwith give me in a charger the head of John ²⁶the Baptist. ²⁶And the king was exceeding sorry; but for the sake of his oaths, and of them that sat at meat, he would not reject her. ²⁷And straightway the king sent forth a soldier of his guard, and commanded to bring his head: and he went and beheaded him in the prison, ²⁸and brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel; and the damsel gave it to her mother. ²⁹And when ²⁹his disciples heard thereof, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

³⁰And ³⁰the apostles gather themselves together unto Jesus; and they told him all things, whatsoever they had done, and whatsoever they had taught. ³¹And he saith unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while. For there were many coming and going, and ³²they had no leisure so much as to eat. ³²And they went away in ³³the boat to a desert place apart. ³³And ³⁴the people saw them going, and many ³⁴knew them, and they ran

And "they say unto him, "Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat? 38 And he saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, "Five, and two fishes. 39 And he commanded them that all should "sit down by companies upon the green grass. 40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties. 41 And he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and "looking up to heaven, "he blessed, and brake the loaves; and he gave to the disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all. 42 And they did all eat, and were filled. 43 And they took up broken pieces, twelve basketfuls, and also of the fishes. 44 And they that ate the loaves were five thousand men.

45 "And straightway he "constrained his disciples to enter into the boat, and to go before him unto the other side "to Bethsaida, while he himself sendeth the multitude away. 46 And after he had taken leave of them, "he departed into the mountain to pray. 47 And when "even was come, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land. 48 And seeing them distressed in rowing, for the wind was contrary unto them, about "the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking on the sea; and "he would have passed by them: 49 but they, when they saw him walking on the sea, supposed that it was "an apparition, and cried out: 50 for they all saw him, and

"were troubled. But he straightway spake with them, and saith unto them, "Be of good cheer: it is I; "be not afraid. 51 And he went up unto them into the boat; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves; 52 for "they understood not concerning the loaves, but their heart "was hardened.

53 "And when they had "crossed over, they came to the land unto "Gennesaret, and moored to the shore. 54 And when they were come out of the boat, straightway the people "knew him, 55 and ran round about that whole region, and began to carry about "on their beds "those that were sick, where they heard he was. 56 And wheresoever he entered, into villages, or into cities, or into the country, "they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and besought him that they might touch if it were but "the border of his garment: and "as many as touched "him were made whole.

7 "And there are gathered together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, "which had come from Jerusalem, 2 and had seen that some of his disciples ate their bread with "defiled, that is, unwashed, hands. 3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands "diligently, eat not, holding "the tradition of "the elders: 4 and when they come from the marketplace, except they "wash themselves, they eat not: and many other things there be, which they have received to hold, "washings of "cups, and pots, and brasen vessels¹⁰. 5 And the Pharisees and the scribes ask him, Why walk not thy disciples according to "the tradition of "the elders, "but eat their bread with "defiled hands? 6 And he said unto them, Well did Isaiah prophesy of you "hypocrites, as it is written,

"This people honoureth me with their lips, But their heart is far from me. 7 But in vain do they worship me, Teaching as their "doctrines the precepts of men.

God, and hold fast the tradition of men. 9 And he said unto them, Full well do ye ^areject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your tradition. 10 For Moses said, ^bHonour thy father and thy mother; and, ^cHe that speaketh evil of father or mother, let him ^ddie the death: 11 but ye say, If a man shall say to his father or his mother, That wherewith thou mightest have been profited by me is ^eCorban, that is to say, Given to God; 12 ye no longer suffer him to do ought for his father or his mother; 13 ^fmaking void the word of God by your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things ye do. 14 And he called to him the multitude again, and said unto them, ^gHear me all of you, and understand: 15 ^hthere is nothing from without the man, that going into him can defile him: but the things which proceed out of the man are those that defile the man. 17 And when he was entered ⁱinto the house from the multitude, ^jhis disciples asked of him the parable. 18 And he saith unto them, ^kAre ye so without understanding also? Perceive ye not, that whatsoever from without goeth into the man, ^lit cannot defile him; 19 because it goeth not into his heart, ^mbut into his belly, and goeth out into the draught? ⁿ*This he said*, making all meats clean. 20 And he said, ^oThat which proceedeth out of the man, that defileth the man. 21 For from within, out of the heart of men, ^pevil thoughts proceed, fornications, 22 thefts, ^qmurders, adulteries, covetings, wickednesses, deceit, ^r lasciviousness, ^san evil eye, ^trailing, ^upride, ^vfoolishness: 23 ^wall these evil things proceed from within, and defile the man.

24 And from thence he arose, and went away into the borders of Tyre ^xand Sidon. And he entered into a house, and would have no man know it: and he could not be hid. 25 But straightway a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, having heard of him, came and fell down at his feet. 26 ^yNow the woman was a ^zGreek, ^{aa}a Syrophenician by race. And she besought him that he would cast forth the ^{ab}devil out of her daughter. 27 And he said unto her, Let the children ^{ac}first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's ^{ad}bread and ^{ae}cast it to the dogs. 28 But she answered and saith unto him, Yes, Lord: even the dogs under the table eat of the children's ^{af}crumbs. 29 And he said unto her, For this saying ^{ag}go thy way; the ^{ah}devil is gone out of thy daughter. 30 And she went away unto her house, and found the child laid upon the bed, and the ^{ai}devil gone out.

31 ^{aj}And again he went out from the borders of Tyre, and came through Sidon unto ^{ak}the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the borders of ^{al}Decapolis. 32 And they bring unto him ^{am}one that was deaf, and ^{an}had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to ^{ao}lay his hand upon him. 33 And ^{ap}he took him aside from the multitude privately, and put his fingers into his ears, and ^{aq}he spat, and touched his tongue; 34 and ^{ar}looking up to heaven, ^{as}he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened. 35 ^{at}And his ears were opened, and the bond of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain. 36 And ^{au}he charged them that they should tell no man: but ^{av}the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it. 37 And they were ^{aw}beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh even the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

8 ^{ax}In those days, when there was again a great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, ^{ay}I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: 3 and if I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint in the way; and some of them are come from far. 4 And his disciples answered him, Whence shall one be able to fill these men with ^{az}bread here in a desert place? 5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? 6 And they said, ^{ba}Seven. 6 And he commandeth the multitude to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and ^{bb}having given thanks, he brake, and gave to his disciples, to set before them; and they set them before the multitude. 7 And they had a few small fishes: and having blessed them, he commanded to set these also before them. 8 And they did eat, and were filled: and they took up, of broken pieces that remained over, seven baskets. 9 And they were about four thousand: and he sent them away. 10 And straightway he entered into the boat with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him. 12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation. 13 And he left them, and again entering into the boat departed to the other side.

14 And they forgot to take bread; and they had not in the boat with them more than one loaf. 15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod. 16 And they reasoned one with another, saying, We have no bread. 17 And Jesus perceiving it saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? do ye not yet perceive, neither understand? have ye your heart hardened? 18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember? 19 When I brake the five loaves among the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve. 20 And when the seven among the four thousand, how many basketfuls of broken pieces took ye up? And they say unto him, Seven. 21 And he said unto them, Do ye not yet understand?

22 And they come unto Bethsaida. And they bring to him a blind man, and beseech him to touch him. 23 And he took hold of the blind man by the hand, and brought him out of the village; and when he had spit on his eyes, and laid his hands upon him, he asked him,

Seest thou aught? 24 And he looked up, and said, I see men; for I behold them as trees, walking. 25 Then again he laid his hands upon his eyes; and he looked stedfastly, and was restored, and saw all things clearly. 26 And he sent him away to his home, saying, Do not even enter into the village.

27 And Jesus went forth, and his disciples, into the villages of Cæsarea Philippi: and in the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Who do men say that I am? 28 And they told him, saying, John the Baptist: and others, Elijah; but others, One of the prophets. 29 And he asked them, But who say ye that I am? Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ. 30 And he charged them that they should tell no man of him. 31 And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, and the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. 32 And he spake the saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him. 33 But he turning about, and seeing his disciples, rebuked Peter, and saith, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou mindest not the things of God, but the things of men. 34 And he called unto him the multitude with his disciples, and said unto them, If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. 35 For whosoever would save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's shall save it. 36 For what doth it profit a man, to gain the whole world, and forfeit his life? 37 For what should a man give in exchange for his life? 38 For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of man also shall be ashamed of him, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels. 1 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There be some here of them that stand by, which shall in no wise "taste of death, "till they see the kingdom of God come "with power.

2^a And after six days Jesus taketh with him "Peter, and James, and John, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart by themselves: and he was "transfigured before them: 3 and "his garments became glistening, exceeding white; so as no fuller on earth can whiten them. 4 And there appeared unto them Elijah with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus. 5 And Peter answereth and saith to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three "tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. 6 For "he wist not what to answer; for they became sore afraid. 7 And there came "a cloud overshadowing them: and there came "a voice out of the cloud, "This is my beloved Son: "hear ye him. 8 And suddenly looking round about, they saw no one any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9^a And as they were coming down from the mountain, "he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, "save when the Son of man should have risen again from the dead. 10^k And they kept the saying, "questioning among themselves what the rising again from the dead should mean. 11 And they asked him, saying, "The scribes say "that Elijah must first come. 12 And he said unto them, Elijah indeed cometh first, and "restoreth all things: and "how is it written of the Son of man, that he should "suffer many things and "be set at nought? 13 But I say unto you, that Elijah is come, and "they have also done unto him whatsoever they listed, even as it is written of him.

14^a And when they came to the disciples, they saw a great multitude about them, and scribes questioning with them. 15 And straightway all the multitude, when they saw him, "were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him. 16 And he asked them, What question ye with them? 17 And one of the multitude answered him, "Master, I brought unto thee my son, which hath "a dumb spirit; 18 and where-soever it taketh him, it "dasheth him down: and he foameth, and grindeth his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast it out; and "they were not able. 19 And he answereth them and saith, O "faithless generation, "how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? bring him unto me. 20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit "tare him grievously; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming. 21 And he asked his father, How long time is it since this hath come unto him? And he said, From a child. 22 And oft-times it hath cast him both into the fire and into the waters, to destroy him: but "if thou canst do anything, have compassion on us, and help us. 23 And Jesus said unto him, "If thou canst! "All things are possible to him that believeth. 24 Straightway the father of the child cried out, and said "I believe; "help thou mine unbelief. 25 And when Jesus saw that "a multitude came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying unto him, "Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I command thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him. 26 And having cried out, and "torn him much, he came out: and the child became as one dead; inasmuch that the more part said, He is dead. 27 But Jesus "took him by the hand, and raised him up; and he arose. 28 And when he was come "into the house, his disciples asked him privately, "saying, We could not cast it out. 29 And he said unto them, This kind can come out by nothing, save by prayer.

30 And they went forth from thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it. 31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, "The Son of man is delivered up into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and when he is killed, "after three days he shall rise again. 32^a But they understood not the saying, and were afraid to ask him.

³⁸ John said unto him, ² Master, we saw one ² casting out ² devils in thy name: and ³ we forbade him, because he followed not us. ³⁹ But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a ⁴ mighty work in my name, and be able quickly to speak evil of me. ⁴⁰ For he that is not against us is for us. ⁴¹ For ⁴ whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink, ⁵ because ye are Christ's, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward. ⁴² And ² whosoever shall cause one of ⁶ these little ones that believe ⁶ on me to stumble, ⁷ it were better for him if ⁷ a great millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea. ⁴³ And if thy hand cause thee to stumble, cut it off: it is good for thee to enter into life maimed, rather than having thy two hands to go into ⁸ hell, into ⁸ the unquenchable fire. ⁴⁵ And if thy foot cause thee to stumble, cut it off: it is good for thee to enter into life halt, rather than having thy two feet to be cast into ⁸ hell. ⁴⁷ And if thine eye cause thee to stumble, cast it out: it is good for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into ⁸ hell; ⁴⁸ where ⁸ their worm dieth not, and ⁸ the fire is not quenched. ⁴⁹ For every one shall be salted with fire ¹⁰. ⁵⁰ Salt is good: ⁹ but if the salt have lost its saltiness, wherewith will ye season it? ⁹ Have salt in yourselves, and ¹⁰ be at peace one with another.

¹³ And they brought unto him little children, that he should touch them: and the disciples ² rebuked them. ¹⁴ But when Jesus saw it, he was moved with indignation, and said unto them, ³ Suffer the little children to come unto me; ² forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. ¹⁵ Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not ⁶ receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall in no wise enter therein. ¹⁶ And ⁶ he took them in his arms, and blessed them, ⁴ laying his hands upon them.

¹⁷ And as he was going forth ¹² into the way, there ran one to him, and ⁷ kneeled to him, and asked him, Good ² Master, what shall I do that I may ⁹ inherit eternal life? ¹⁸ And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good save one, even God. ¹⁹ Thou knowest the commandments, ¹ Do not

³² And they were in the way, going up to Jerusalem; and ² Jesus was going before them: and ² they were amazed; ² and they that followed were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them the things that were to happen unto him, saying, ³³ Behold, I we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests and the scribes; and they shall ¹ condemn him to death, and shall ¹ deliver him unto the Gentiles: ³⁴ and they shall ² mock him, and shall ¹ spit upon him, and shall scourge him, and shall kill him; and ² after three days he shall rise again.

³⁵ And there come near unto him James and John, ² the sons of Zebedee, saying unto him, ¹ Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us ² whatsoever we shall ask of thee. ³⁶ And he said unto them, ² What would ye that I should do for you? ³⁷ And they said unto him, Grant unto us that we ² may sit, one on thy right hand, and one on ² thy left hand, ² in thy glory. ³⁸ But Jesus said unto them, ² Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able ² to drink the cup that I drink? or ² to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? ³⁹ And they said unto him, We are able. And Jesus said unto them, ² The cup that I drink ² ye shall drink; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal ² shall ye be baptized: ⁴⁰ but to sit on my right hand or on ² my left hand is not mine to give: ² but it is for them for whom it hath been ² prepared. ⁴¹ And when the ten heard it, they began to be moved with indignation concerning James and John. ⁴² And Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles ² lord it over them; and their great ones exercise authority over them. ⁴³ But ² it is not so among you: but whosoever would become great among you, shall be your ² minister: ⁴⁴ and whosoever would be first among you, shall be ² servant of all. ⁴⁵ For verily the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but ² to minister, and ² to give his life a ransom for ² many.

he cried out the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me. 49 And Jesus stood still, and said, Call ye him. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, 'Be of good cheer: rise, he calleth thee. 50 And he, casting away his garment, sprang up, and came to Jesus. 51 And Jesus answered him, and said, 'What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? And the blind man said unto him, 'Rabboni, that I may receive my sight. 52 And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; 'thy faith hath made thee whole. And straightway he received his sight, and followed him in the way.

II And when they draw nigh unto Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and 'Bethany, at 'the mount of Olives, he sendeth 'two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go your way into the village that is over against you: and straightway as ye enter into it, ye shall find a colt tied, 'whereon no man ever yet sat; loose him, and bring him. 3 And if any one say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye, The Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him back hither. 4 And they went away, and found a colt tied at the door without in the open street; and they loose him. 5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt? 6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had said; and they let them go. 7 And they bring the colt unto Jesus, and cast on him their garments; and he sat upon him. 8 And many spread their garments upon the way; and others 'branches, which they had cut from the fields. 9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, 'Hosanna; 'Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord: 10 Blessed is 'the kingdom that cometh, 'the kingdom of 'our father 'David: 'Hosanna 'in the highest.

11 And he entered into Jerusalem, into the temple; and when he had looked round about upon all things, it being now eventide, 'he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

12 And on the morrow, when they were come out from Bethany,

'he hungered. 13 And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find anything thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for 'it was not the season of figs. 14 And he answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit from thee henceforward for ever. And his disciples heard it.

15 And they come to Jerusalem: and he entered into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and them that bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of 'the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold 'the doves; and he would not suffer that any man should carry a vessel through the temple. 17 And he taught, and said unto them, Is it not written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations? but 'ye have made it a den of robbers. 18 And the chief priests and the scribes heard it, and 'sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, for 'all the multitude was astonished at his teaching.

20 And as they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away from the roots. 21 And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, 'Rabbi, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away. 22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, 'Have 'faith in God. 23 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall say unto this mountain, 'Be thou taken up and cast into the sea; and shall not 'doubt in his heart, but shall believe that what he saith cometh to pass; he shall have it. 24 Therefore I say unto you, 'All things whatsoever ye pray and ask for, 'believe that ye 'have received them, and ye shall have them. 25 And whensoever 'ye stand praying, forgive, 'if ye have aught against any one; that 'your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.

what authority doest thou these things? or who gave thee this authority to do these things? 29 And Jesus said unto them, I will ask of you one ¹ question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. 30 The baptism of John, was it ² from heaven, or from men? answer me. 31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, ³ Why then did ye not believe him? 32 ⁴ But should we say, From men — ⁵ they feared the people: ⁶ for all verily held John to be ⁷ a prophet. 33 And they answered Jesus and say, We know not. And Jesus saith unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

12 And he began to speak unto them in parables. A man planted ¹ a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and digged ² a pit for the winepress, and built a tower, and ³ let it out to husbandmen, and ⁴ went into another country. ⁵ And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a ⁶ servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruits of the vineyard. ⁷ And they took him, and beat him, and sent him away empty. ⁸ And again ⁹ he sent unto them another ¹⁰ servant; and him ¹¹ they wounded in the head, and ¹² handled shamefully. ¹³ And he sent another; and him they killed: and many others; beating some, and killing some. ¹⁴ He had yet one, ¹⁵ a beloved son: he sent him ¹⁶ last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son. ¹⁷ But those husbandmen said among themselves, ¹⁸ This is the heir; come, ¹⁹ let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours. ²⁰ And they took him, and killed him, and ²¹ cast him forth out of the vineyard. ²² What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do? ²³ he will ²⁴ come and destroy the husbandmen, and ²⁵ will give the vineyard unto others. ²⁶ Have ye not read even ²⁷ this scripture;

The same was made the head of the corner:

11 This was from the Lord, And it is marvellous in our eyes?

13 ⁴ And they send unto him certain of ⁵ the Pharisees and of ⁶ the Herodians, that they might ⁷ catch him in talk. 14 And when they were come, they say unto him, ⁸ Master, ⁹ we know that thou art true, and carest not for any one: for ¹⁰ thou regardest not the person of men, but of a truth teachest ¹¹ the way of God: Is it lawful to give ¹² tribute unto ¹³ Caesar, or not? 15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing ¹⁴ their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why ¹⁵ tempt ye me? bring me ¹⁶ a ¹⁷ penny, that I may see it. 16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Caesar's. 17 And Jesus said unto them, ¹⁸ Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and unto God the things that are God's. And they marvelled greatly at him.

18 And there come unto him ¹⁹ Sadducees, ²⁰ which say that there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying, 19 ²¹ Master, Moses wrote unto us, ²² If a man's brother die, and leave a wife behind him, and leave no child, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. 20 There were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed; 21 and the second took her, and died, leaving no seed behind him; and the third likewise: 22 and the seven left no seed. Last of all the woman also died. 23 In the resurrection whose wife shall she be of them? 24 Jesus said unto them, Is it not for this cause that ye err, that ²⁵ ye know not the scriptures, nor ²⁶ the power of God? 25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither ²⁷ marry, nor ²⁸ are given in marriage; but are as angels in heaven. 26 But as touching the dead, that they are raised; ²⁹ have ye not read in ³⁰ the book of Moses, ³¹ in ³² the place concerning the Bush, how God spake unto him, saying, ³³ I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? 27 He is not the God of the dead, but of the living: ye do greatly err.

28 And one of the scribes came, and heard them questioning together, and knowing that he had answered them well, asked him, What commandment is the first of all? 29 Jesus answered, The first is, Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one: 30 and thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength. 31 The second is this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these. 32 And the scribe said unto him, Of a truth, Master, thou hast well said that he is one; and there is none other but he: 33 and to love him with all the heart, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is much more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices. 34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 And Jesus answered and said, as he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that the Christ is the son of David? 36 David himself said in the Holy Spirit,

The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, Till I make thine enemies thy footstool of thy feet.

37 David himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he his son? And the common people heard him gladly.

38 And in his teaching he said, Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and to have salutations in the marketplaces, 39 and chief seats in the synagogues, and chief places at feasts: 40 they which devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers; these shall receive greater condemnation.

41 And he sat down over against the treasury, and beheld how the multitude cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much. 42 And there came a poor widow, and she cast in two mites, which make a farthing. 43 And he called unto him his disciples, and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, This poor widow cast in more than all they which are casting into the treasury: 44 for they all did cast in of their superfluity; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

12 And as he went forth out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, behold, what manner of buildings! 2 And Jesus said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left here one stone upon another, which shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat on the mount of Olives over against the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when these things are all about to be accomplished? 5 And Jesus began to say unto them, Take heed that no man lead you astray. 6 Many shall come in my name, saying, I am he; and shall lead many astray. 7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be not troubled: these things must needs come to pass; but the end is not yet. 8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: there shall be earthquakes in divers places; there shall be famines: these things are the beginning of travail.

9 But take ye heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in synagogues shall ye be beaten; and before governors and kings shall ye stand for my sake, for a testimony unto them. 10 And the gospel must first be preached unto all the nations. 11 And when they lead you to judgment, and deliver you up, be not anxious beforehand what ye shall speak: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Ghost. 12 And brother shall deliver up brother to death, and the father his child; and children shall rise up against parents, and ¹ cause them to be put to death. 13^r And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: ² but he that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved.

14 But when ye see ³ the abomination of desolation standing where he ought not ⁴ (let him that readeth understand), then let them that are in Judæa flee unto the mountains: 15 and ⁵ let him that is on ⁶ the housetop not go down, nor enter in, to take anything out of his house: 16 and let him that is in the field not return back to take his cloke. 17 But ⁷ woe unto them that are with child and to them that give suck in those days! 18 And pray ye that it be not in the winter. 19 For those days shall be ⁸ tribulation, ⁹ such as there hath not been the like ¹⁰ from the beginning of the creation which ¹¹ God created until now, and never shall be. 20 And except the Lord had shortened the days, no flesh would have been saved: but for ¹² the elect's sake, whom ¹³ he chose, he shortened the days. 21 And ¹⁴ then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is the Christ; or, Lo, there; 22 believe ¹⁵ not: for there shall arise ¹⁶ false Christs and false prophets, and ¹⁷ shall shew signs and wonders, ¹⁸ that they may lead astray, if possible, ¹⁹ the elect. 23 But ²⁰ take ye heed: behold, ²¹ I have told you all things beforehand.

24 But in those days, after ¹ that tribulation, ² the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, 25 and ³ the stars shall be falling from heaven, and the powers that are in the heavens shall be shaken. 26 And then shall they see ⁴ the Son of man coming in clouds ⁵ with great power and glory. 27 And then ⁶ shall he send forth the angels, and shall ⁷ gather together ⁸ his elect from ⁹ the four winds, from ¹⁰ the uttermost part of the earth ¹¹ to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 Now from the fig tree learn her parable: when her branch is now become tender, and putteth forth its leaves, ye know that the summer is nigh; 29 even so ye also, when ye see these things coming to pass, know ye that ¹ he is nigh, even ² at the doors. 30^r Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, until all these things be accomplished. 31^r Heaven and earth shall pass away: but ³ my words shall not pass away. 32 But of that day or that hour ⁴ knoweth no one, not even the angels in heaven, ⁵ neither the Son, ⁶ but the Father. 33^r Take ye heed, ⁷ watch ⁸ and pray: for ye know not when the time is. 34^r It is as when a man, ⁹ sojourning in another country, having left his house, and given authority to his ¹⁰ servants, ¹¹ to each one his work, commanded also ¹² the porter to watch. 35^r Watch therefore: for ye know not when the lord of the house cometh, whether ¹³ at even, or ¹⁴ at midnight, or ¹⁵ at cockcrow, or ¹⁶ in the morning; 36 lest ¹⁷ coming suddenly he ¹⁸ find you sleeping. 37 And what I say unto you I say unto all, ¹⁹ Watch.

1^r Now after two days was I the feast of ¹ the passover and the unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes ² sought how they might take him with subtlety, and kill him: ³ for they said, Not during the feast, ⁴ lest haply there shall be a tumult of the people.

3^r And while he was in ¹ Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having ² an alabaster cruse of ointment of ³ spikenard very costly; and she brake the cruse, and poured it over his head. 4 But there were some that had indignation among themselves, saying, To what purpose hath this waste of the ointment been made? 5 For this ointment might have been sold for above three hundred ⁶ pence, and ⁷ given to the poor. 6 And they ⁸ murmured against her. But Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me. 7 For ⁹ ye have the poor always with you, and whensoever ¹⁰ ye will ye can do them good: but ¹¹ me ye have not always. 8^r She hath done what she could: she hath anointed my body aforehand for the burying. 9 And verily I say unto you, Whosoever the gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, that also which this woman hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

10 And Judas Iscariot, he that was one of the twelve, went away unto the chief priests, that he might deliver him unto them. 11 And they, when they heard it, were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently deliver him unto them.

12 And on the first day of unleavened bread, when they sacrificed the passover, his disciples say unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and make ready that thou mayest eat the passover? 13 And he sendeth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him; 14 and whosoever he shall enter in, say to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is my guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? 15 And he will himself shew you a large upper room furnished and ready: and there make ready for us. 16 And the disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

17 And when it was evening he cometh with the twelve. 18 And as they sat and were eating, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you shall betray me, even he that eateth with me. 19 They began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? 20 And he said unto them, It is one of the twelve, he that dipeth with me in the dish. 21 For the Son of man goeth, even as it is written of him: but woe unto that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had not been born.

22 And as they were eating, he took bread, and when he had blessed, he brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take ye: this is my body. 23 And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave to them: and they all drank of it. 24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of the covenant, which is shed for many. 25 Verily I say unto you, I will no more drink of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out unto the mount of Olives.

27 And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered abroad. 28 Howbeit, after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee. 29 But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I. 30 And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that thou to-day, even this night, before the cock crow twice, shalt deny me thrice. 31 But he spake exceeding vehemently, If I must die with thee, I will not deny thee. And in like manner also said they all.

32 And they come unto a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith unto his disciples, Sit ye here, while I pray. 33 And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be greatly amazed, and sore troubled. 34 And he saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful even unto death: abide ye here, and watch. 35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away from him. 36 And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; remove this cup from me: howbeit not what I will, but what thou wilt. 37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest thou not watch one hour? 38 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. 39 And again he went away, and prayed, saying the same words. 40 And again he came, and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy; and they wist not what to answer him. 41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest : ^b It is enough ; ^c the hour is come ; behold, ^d the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 42 Arise, let us be going : behold, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 ^e And straightway, while he yet spake, cometh ^f Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders. 44 Now he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that is he ; take him, and lead him away safely. 45 And when he was come, straightway he came to him, and saith, ^g Rabbi ; and ^h he kissed him. 46 And they laid hands on him, and took him. 47 But a certain one of them that stood by drew his ⁱ sword, and smote the ^j servant of the high priest, and struck off his ear. 48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a robber, with swords and staves to seize me ? 49 ^k I was daily with you in the temple ^l teaching, and ye took me not : but ^m this is done that the scriptures might be fulfilled. 50 ⁿ And they all left him, and fled.

53 ^q And ^r they led Jesus away to the high priest : and there come together with him all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes. 54 ^s And ^t Peter had followed him afar off, ^u even within, into ^v the court of the high priest ; and he was sitting with ^w the officers, and ^x warming himself in the light of the fire. 55 Now the chief priests and the whole ^y council sought witness against Jesus to put him to death ; and found it not. 56 ^z For many bare false witness against him, and their witness ^a agreed not together. 57 And there stood up certain, and bare false witness against him, saying, 58 ^b We heard him say, ^c I will destroy this temple ^d that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another ^e made without hands. 59 And not even so did their witness agree together. 60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing ? what is it which these witness against thee ? 61 But ^f he held his peace, and answered nothing. ^g Again the high priest asked him, and saith unto him, Art thou ^h the Christ, the Son of ⁱ the Blessed ? 62 And Jesus said, I am : and ^j ye shall see the Son of man ^k sitting at the right hand of power, and ^l coming with the clouds of heaven. 63 And the high priest ^m rent his clothes, and saith, What further need have we of witnesses ? 64 Ye have heard ⁿ the blasphemy : what think ye ? And they ^o all condemned him to be ^p worthy of death. 65 ^q And some began ^r to spit on him, and ^s to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophecy : and the officers received him ^t with ^u blows of their hands.

66 ^v And as Peter was beneath in ^w the court, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest ; 67 and seeing Peter ^x warming himself, she looked upon him, and saith, Thou also wast with ^y the Nazarene, ^z even Jesus. 68 But he denied, saying, ^a I neither know, nor understand ^b what thou sayest : and he went out into the ^c porch ; ^d and ^e the cock crew. 69 And the maid saw him, and began again to say to them that stood by, This is ^f one of them. 70 But he again denied it. And after a little while again they that stood by said to Peter, Of a truth thou art ^g one of them ; for thou art a Galilean. 71 But he began to curse, and to swear, I know not this man of whom ye speak. 72 And straightway ^h the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word, how that Jesus said unto him, ⁱ Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt ^j deny me thrice. ^k And when he thought thereon, he wept.

15 ^l And straightway in the morning the chief priests with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, ^m held a consultation, and ⁿ bound Jesus, and ^o carried him away, and ^p delivered him up to ^q Pilate. 2 ^r And Pilate asked him, ^s Art thou the King of the Jews ? 4 And Pilate again asked him, saying, 'Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they accuse thee of. 5 But Jesus 'no more answered anything; insomuch that Pilate marvelled.

6^a Now at ¹the feast he used to release unto them one prisoner, whom they asked of him. 7 And there was one called Barabbas, lying bound with them that had 'made insurrection, 'men who in the insurrection had committed murder. 8 And the multitude went up and began to ask him to do as he was wont to do unto them. 9 And Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews? 10 For he perceived that ^afor envy the chief priests had delivered him up. 11 But the chief priests stirred up the multitude, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them. 12 And Pilate again answered and said unto them, What then shall I do unto him 'whom ye call the King of the Jews? 13 And they cried out again, Crucify him. 14 And Pilate said unto them, Why, ^awhat evil hath he done? But they cried out exceedingly, Crucify him. 15 And Pilate, wishing to content the multitude, released unto them Barabbas, and delivered Jesus, when he had ^ascourged him, to be crucified.

16^a And the soldiers led him away within ^athe court, which is ^athe ^aPrætorium; and they call together the whole ^aband. 17 And they clothe him with ^apurple, and plaiting a crown of thorns, they put it on him; 18 and they began to salute him, Hail, 'King of the Jews! 19 And they smote his head with a reed, and ^adid spit upon him, and bowing their knees ^aworshipped him. 20 And when they had ^amocked him, they took off from him ^athe purple, and put on him his garments. And they ^alead him out to crucify him.

21^a And they ^acompel one passing by, Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, the father of Alexander and ^aRufus, to go with them, that he might ^abear his cross. 22^a And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull. 23 And they offered him wine mingled with ^amyrrh: but he received it not. 24 And they crucify him, and ^apart his garments among them, casting lots upon them, what each should take. 25 And ^ait was the third hour, and they crucified him. 26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, ^aTHE KING OF THE JEWS. 27 And with him they crucify two ^arobbers; ^aone on his right hand, and one on his left. 29 And ^athey that passed by rallied on him, ^awagging their heads, and saying, ^aHa! 'thou that destroyest the ^atemple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself, 30 and come down from the cross. 31 In like manner also the chief priests mocking ^ahim among themselves with the scribes said, ^a'He saved others; ^a'himself he cannot save. 32 Let ^a'the Christ, ^a'the King of Israel, now come down from the cross, that we may ^asee and believe. ^aAnd they that were crucified with him reproached him.

33 And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole ^aland until the ninth hour. 34 And at the ninth hour Jesus ^acried with a loud voice, ^aEloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, ^awhy hast thou forsaken me? 35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elijah. 36 And one ran, and filling a sponge full of ^a'vinegar, put it on a reed, ^aand gave him to drink, saying, Let be; let us see whether Elijah cometh to take him down. 37 And Jesus ^auttered a loud voice, and ^a'gave up the ghost. 38 And ^a'the veil of the ^atemple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom. 39 ^aAnd when the centurion, which stood by over against him, saw that he ^aso gave up the ghost, he said, ^a'Truly this man was ^athe Son of God. 40 And there were also ^awomen beholding ^afrom afar: among whom were both ^aMary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James ^a'the ^aless and of Joses, and ^aSalome; 41 who, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ^a'ministered unto him; and many other

16 ^aAnd when the sabbath was past, ^bMary Magdalene, and ^cMary the mother of James, and ^dSalome, ^ebought spices, that they might come and anoint him. ^fAnd very early on the first day of the week, they come to the tomb when the sun was risen. ^gAnd they were saying among themselves, Who shall roll us away ^hthe stone from the door of the tomb? ⁱAnd looking up, they see that the stone is rolled back: for ^jit was exceeding great. ^kAnd ^lentering into the tomb, they saw ^ma young man sitting on the right side, ⁿarrayed in ^oa white robe; and ^pthey were amazed. ^qAnd he saith unto them, ^rBe not amazed: ye seek Jesus, ^sthe Nazarene, which hath been crucified: he is risen; he is nothere: behold, the place where they laid him! ^tBut go, tell his disciples and Peter, ^uHe goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, ^vas he said unto you. ^wAnd they went out, and fled from the tomb; for trembling and astonishment had come upon them:

and they said nothing to any one; for they were afraid.

⁹Now when he was risen early on the first day of the week, ¹⁰he appeared first to ¹¹Mary Magdalene, ¹²from whom he had cast out seven ¹³devils. ¹⁴She went and told them that had been with him, ¹⁵as they ¹⁶mourned and wept. ¹⁷And they, when they heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her ¹⁸disbelieved.

¹²And after these things ¹³he was manifested in ¹⁴another form unto two of them, as they walked, on their way into the country. ¹⁵And they went away and told it unto the rest: neither believed they them.

¹⁴And afterward ¹⁵he was manifested ¹⁶unto the eleven themselves as they sat at meat; and he upbraided them with their ¹⁷unbelief and ¹⁸hardness of heart, because ¹⁹they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen. ²⁰And he said unto them, ²¹Go ye into all the world, and ²²preach the gospel to ²³the whole creation. ²⁴He that believeth and ²⁵is baptized ²⁶shall be saved; but ²⁷he that ²⁸disbelieveth shall be condemned. ²⁹And ³⁰these signs shall follow them that believe: ³¹in my name shall they cast out ³²devils; ³³they shall speak with ³⁴new tongues; ³⁵and ³⁶they shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall in no wise hurt them; ³⁷they shall lay hands ³⁸on the sick, and they shall recover.

¹⁹So then the Lord Jesus, ²⁰after he had spoken unto them, ²¹was received up into heaven, and ²²sat down at the right hand of God. ²³And they went forth, and preached everywhere, ²⁴the Lord working with them, and confirming ²⁵the word ²⁶by the signs that followed. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO S. LUKE.

I FORASMUCH as many have taken in hand to draw up a narrative concerning those matters which ^ahave been ¹fulfilled among us, ²even as they ^cdelivered them unto us, which ^dfrom the beginning were ^eeyewitnesses and ^fministers of ^gthe word, ³it seemed good to me also, having traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write unto thee ^hin order, ⁱmost excellent ^jTheophilus; ⁴that thou mightest know ^kthe certainty concerning the ^lthings ^mwherein ⁿthou wast instructed.

5 THERE was ^oin the days of Herod, king of Judæa, a certain priest named Zacharias, ^pof ^qthe course of Abijah: and he had a wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. ⁶And they were both ^rrighteous before God, ^swalking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord ^tblameless. ⁷And they had no child, because that ^uElisabeth was barren, and ^vthey both were ^wnow ^xwell stricken in years.

8 Now it came to pass, ^ywhile he executed the priest's office before God in the order of ^zhis course, ⁹according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was ^{aa}to enter into ^{ab}the ^{ac}temple of the Lord and burn incense. ¹⁰And the whole multitude of the people ^{ad}were praying ^{ae}without at the hour of incense. ¹¹And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of ^{af}the altar of incense. ¹²And ^{ag}Zacharias was troubled when he saw ^{ah}him, and ^{ai}fear fell upon him. ¹³But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: because ^{aj}thy supplication is heard, and

thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and ^{ak}thou shalt call his name John. ¹⁴And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall ^{al}rejoice at his birth. ¹⁵For he shall be ^{am}great in the sight of the Lord, and ^{an}he shall drink no wine nor ^{ao}strong ^{ap}drink; and ^{aq}he shall be ^{ar}filled with the ^{as}Holy Ghost, ^{at}even from his mother's womb. ¹⁶And many of the children of Israel shall he turn unto the Lord their God. ¹⁷And ^{au}he shall ^{av}go before his face ^{aw}in the spirit and power of Elijah, ^{ax}to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and ^{ay}the disobedient ^{az}to walk in the wisdom of the just; ^{ba}to make ready for the Lord a people prepared ^{bb}for him. ¹⁸And Zacharias said unto the angel, ^{bc}Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife ^{bd}well stricken in years. ¹⁹And the angel answering said unto him, I am ^{be}Gabriel, ^{bf}that stand in the presence of God; and I was sent to speak unto thee, and to bring thee these good tidings. ²⁰And behold, ^{bg}thou shalt be silent and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall come to pass, because thou believedst not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season. ²¹And the people were waiting for Zacharias, and they marvelled ^{bh}while he tarried in ^{bi}the ^{bj}temple. ²²And when he came out, he could not speak unto them; and they perceived that he had seen a vision in ^{bk}the ^{bl}temple: and ^{bm}he continued making signs unto them, and remained dumb. ²³And it came to pass, ^{bn}when the days of his ^{bo}ministration were fulfilled, he departed unto his house.

24 And after these days Elisabeth his wife conceived; and she hid herself five months, saying, ^{bp}Thus hath the Lord done unto me in the days wherein he looked upon me, to take away my reproach among men.

26 Now in the sixth month the angel ^a Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named ^c Nazareth, ^a to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, ^c of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. 28 And he came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou ^d that art ¹ highly favoured, ^e the Lord ^{is} with thee ². 29 But ^f she was greatly troubled at the saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this might be. 30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for ^g thou hast found ^h favour with God. 31 And behold, ⁱ thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and ^j shalt call his name Jesus. 32 He shall be great, and ^k shall be called the Son of ^l the Most High: and the Lord God ^m shall give unto him the throne of ⁿ his father David: 33 and he shall reign over the house of Jacob ^o for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. 34 And Mary said unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? 35 And the angel answered and said unto her, ^p The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of ^q the Most High shall overshadow thee: wherefore also ^r that which ^s is to be born ^t shall be called

39 And Mary arose in these days and went into ^{ac} the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah; and entered into the house of Zacharias and saluted Elisabeth. 41 And it came to pass, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth ^{ad} was filled with the Holy Ghost; 42 and she lifted up her voice with a loud cry, and said, ^{ae} Blessed art thou among women, and ^{af} blessed is ^{ag} the fruit of thy womb. 43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of ^{ah} my Lord should come unto me? 44 For behold, when the voice of thy salutation came into mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy. 45 And ^{ai} blessed is she that ^{aj} believed; for there shall be a fulfilment of the things which have been spoken to her from the Lord. 46 And Mary said,

^{ak} My ^{al} soul doth ^{am} magnify the Lord,

47 ^{an} And my ^{ao} spirit hath rejoiced in ^{ap} God my Saviour.

48 For ^{aq} he hath looked upon the low estate of his ^{ar} handmaiden: For behold, from henceforth all generations ^{as} shall call me blessed.

49 For ^{at} he that is mighty ^{au} hath done to me great things; And ^{av} holy is his name.

50 And ^{aw} his mercy is unto generations and generations On them that fear him.

51 ^{ax} He hath shewed strength with his arm;

^{ay} He hath scattered the proud ^{az} in the imagination of their heart.

52 ^{ba} He hath put down princes from ^{bb} their thrones,

^{bc} And hath exalted them of low degree.

53 ^{bd} The hungry he hath filled with good things;

And the rich ^{be} he hath sent empty away.

54 He hath ^{bf} holpen ^{bg} Israel his servant,

^{bh} That he might remember mercy ^{bi} (As he spake unto our fathers)

55 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned unto her house.

57 Now Elisabeth's time was fulfilled that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son. 58 And her neighbours and her kinsfolk heard that the Lord ^{bk} had magnified his mercy towards her; and they rejoiced with her. 59 And it came to pass ^{bl} on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called him

bk Mark 1. 4

Zacharias, after the name of his father. 60 And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called John. 61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name. 62 And they made signs to his father, what he would have him called. 63 And he asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, saying, His name is John. 64 And they marvelled all. And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, blessing God. 65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judaea. 66 And all that heard them laid them up in their heart, saying, What then shall this child be? For the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

68 Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel;

For he hath visited and wrought redemption for his people,

69 And hath raised up a horn of salvation for us

In the house of his servant David

70 (As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets which have been since the world began),

71 Salvation from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;

72 To shew mercy towards our fathers,

And to remember his holy covenant;

73 The oath which he swore unto Abraham our father,

74 To grant unto us that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies

Should serve him without fear,

75 In holiness and righteousness before him all our days.

76 Yea and thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Most High:

For thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to make ready his ways;

77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people

In the remission of their sins,

78 Because of the tender mercy of our God,

Whereby the dayspring from on high shall visit us,

79 To shine upon them that sit in darkness and the shadow of death;

To guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

Now it came to pass in those days, there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be enrolled.

This was the first enrolment made when Quirinius was governor of Syria.

3 And all went to enrol themselves, every one to his own city.

4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David;

5 to enrol himself with Mary, who was betrothed to him, being great with child.

6 And it came to pass, while they were there, the days were fulfilled that she should be delivered.

7 And she brought forth her first-born son; and she wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were shepherds in the same country abiding in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock.

9 And an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all the people:

11 for there is born to you this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this is the sign unto you; Ye shall find a babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a manger.

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 Glory to God in the highest,

"And on earth ¹peace among ²men in whom he is well pleased.

15 And it came to pass, when the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this ³thing that is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us. 16 And they came with haste, and found both Mary and Joseph, and the babe ⁴lying in the manger. 17 And when they saw it, they made known concerning the saying which was spoken to them about this child.
 18 And all that heard it wondered at the things which were spoken unto them by the shepherds. 19 But ⁵"Mary kept all these ⁶sayings, pondering them in her heart. 20 And the shepherds returned, ⁷glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, even as it was spoken unto them.

21 And ⁸when eight days were fulfilled for circumcising him, ⁹his name was called Jesus, which was so called by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And ¹⁰when the days of their purification according to the law of Moses were fulfilled, they brought him up to Jerusalem, ¹¹to present him to the Lord 23 (as it is written in ¹²the law of the Lord, ¹³Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord), 24 and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in ¹⁴the law of the Lord, ¹⁵"A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons. 25 And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and this man was ¹⁶righteous and ¹⁷de-vout, ¹⁸looking for ¹⁹the consolation of Israel; and the Holy Spirit was upon him. 26 And it had been revealed unto him by the Holy Spirit, that he should not ²⁰see death, before he had seen ²¹the Lord's Christ.
 27 And he came ²²in the Spirit into the temple: and when ²³the parents brought in the child Jesus, that they might do concerning him after the custom of the law, 28 then he received him into his arms, and ²⁴"blessed God, and said,

29 Now ²⁵lettest thou thy ²⁶servant depart, O ²⁷Lord,

²⁸According to thy word, ²⁹in peace;

30 For ³⁰mine eyes have seen thy ³¹salvation,

31 ³²Which thou hast prepared before the face of all peoples;

32 ³³A light for ³⁴revelation to the Gentiles,

And ³⁵the glory of ³⁶thy people Israel.

33 And ³⁷his father and his mother were marvelling at the things which were spoken concerning him; 34 and Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this ³⁸child is set ³⁹for the falling and rising up of many in Israel; and for a sign ⁴⁰which is spoken against; 35 yea and a sword shall pierce through thine own soul; that thoughts out of many hearts may be revealed. 36 And there was one Anna, ⁴¹a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher (she was ⁴²of a great age, having lived with a husband seven years from her virginity, 37 and she had been a widow even for fourscore and four years), which departed not from the temple, ⁴³worshipping with ⁴⁴fastings and supplications night and day. 38 And coming up at that very hour she gave thanks unto God, and spake of him to all them that were ⁴⁵looking for the redemption of Jerusalem. 39 And when they had accomplished all things that were according to ⁴⁶the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city ⁴⁷Naza-reth.

40 ⁴⁸And the child grew, and waxed strong, ⁴⁹filled with wisdom; and ⁵⁰the grace of God was upon him.

41 And ⁵¹his parents went ⁵²every year to Jerusalem at ⁵³the feast of the passover. 42 And when he was twelve years old, ⁵⁴they went up after the custom of the feast; 43 and when they had fulfilled ⁵⁵the days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and ⁵⁶his parents knew it not; 44 but supposing him to be in the company, they went a day's journey; and they sought for him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance: 45 and when they found him not, they returned to Jerusalem, seeking for him. 46 And 1 Many ancient authorities read peace, good pleasure among men. 2 Gr. men of good pleasure. 3 Or, saying. 4 Or, things. 5 Gr. bondservant. 6 Gr. Master. 7 Or, the unwelcoming of the Gentiles. 8 Gr. advanced in many days. 9 Gr. becoming full of wisdom.

it came to pass, after three days they found him in the temple, ¹sitting in the midst of ²the ³doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions: ⁴7 and all that heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. ⁵8 And when they saw him, they were astonished: and his mother said unto him, ⁶3 Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, ⁷thy father and I sought thee sorrowing. ⁸49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that ⁹I must be ¹⁰in ¹¹my Father's house? ¹²50 And ¹³they understood not the saying which he spake unto them. ¹⁴51 And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth; and he was subject unto them: and ¹⁵his mother kept all ¹⁶these ¹⁷sayings in her heart.

¹⁸52 And Jesus ¹⁹advanced in wisdom and ²⁰stature, and in ²¹ favour with God and men.

²²3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of ²³Tiberius Cæsar, ²⁴"Pontius Pilate" being governor of Judæa, and ²⁵Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituræa and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, ²⁶2 in ²⁷the high-priesthood of Annas and ²⁸Caïaphas, ²⁹"the word of God came unto ³⁰John the son of Zacharias in ³¹the wilderness. ³²3 And he came into all the region round about Jordan, preaching ³³the baptism of repentance ³⁴unto remission of sins; ³⁵4 as it is written in ³⁶the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, ³⁷"The voice of one crying in the wilderness,

³⁸"Make ye ready the way of the Lord, ³⁹Make his paths straight.

⁴⁰5 ⁴¹"Every valley shall be filled, ⁴²"And every mountain and hill shall be brought low;

⁴³"And the crooked shall become straight, ⁴⁴And the rough ways smooth;

⁴⁵6 ⁴⁶"And all flesh shall see ⁴⁷the salvation of God.

⁴⁸7 He said therefore to the multitudes that went out to be baptized of him, ⁴⁹"Ye offspring of ⁵⁰vipers, who warned you to flee from ⁵¹the wrath to come? ⁵²8 Bring forth therefore fruits ⁵³worthy of ⁵⁴repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, ⁵⁵"We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of ⁵⁶these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. ⁵⁷9 And even now is the axe also laid unto the root of the trees: ⁵⁸"every tree therefore that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. ⁵⁹10 And the multitudes asked him, saying, ⁶⁰"What then must we do? ⁶¹11 And he answered and said unto them, ⁶²"He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath food, let him do likewise. ⁶³12 And ⁶⁴there came also ⁶⁵publicans to be baptized, and they said unto him, ⁶⁶"Master, ⁶⁷"what must we do? ⁶⁸13 And he said unto them, ⁶⁹"Extort no more than that which is appointed you. ⁷⁰14 And ⁷¹10 ⁷²soldiers also asked him, saying, And we, ⁷³"what must we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither ⁷⁴11 ⁷⁵exact ⁷⁶anything wrongfully; and be content with your ⁷⁷wages.

⁷⁸15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men reasoned in their hearts concerning John, ⁷⁹"whether haply he were ⁸⁰the Christ; ⁸¹16 ⁸²John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but ⁸³there cometh he that is mightier than I, ⁸⁴the latchet of whose shoes I am not ⁸⁵12 worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you ⁸⁶13 ⁸⁷with the Holy Ghost and ⁸⁸with ⁸⁹fire: ⁹⁰17 whose ⁹¹fan is in his hand, thoroughly to cleanse his threshing-floor, and to ⁹²gather the wheat into his garner; ⁹³"but the chaff he will burn up with ⁹⁴unquenchable fire.

¹⁰²21 Now it came to pass, when all the people were baptized, that, ¹⁰³"Jesus also having been baptized, and praying, ¹⁰⁴the heaven was opened, ¹⁰⁵22 and ¹⁰⁶the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily form, as a dove, upon him, and ¹⁰⁷a voice came out of heaven, ¹⁰⁸"Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

p Matt. 4. 8.

23 And Jesus, himself, when he began to teach, was about thirty years of age, being the son (as was supposed) of Joseph, the son of Heil, 24 the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph, 25 the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggal, 26 the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Se-mein, the son of Josech, the son of Joda, the son of Joanan, 27 the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri, 28 the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmadam, the son of Er, the son of Jesus, 29 the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, 30 the son of Symeon, the son of Judas, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonam, the son of Eliakim, the son of Melea, 31 the son of Menna, the son of Mattathia, the son of Nathan, the son of David, 32 the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nahshon, 33 the son of Amminadab, the son of Arni, the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, 34 the son of Judah, the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Terah, the son of Nabor, 35 the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Shelah, the son of Cainan, 36 the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah, 37 the son of Lamech, the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalaleel, 38 the son of Cainan, the son of Enos, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God.

And Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness during forty days, being tempted of the devil. And he did eat nothing in those days: and when they were completed, he hungered. 3 And the devil said unto him, If thou art the Son of God, command this stone that it become bread. 4 And Jesus answered unto him, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone. 5 And he led him up, and shewed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. 6 And the devil said unto him, To thee will I give all this authority, and the glory of them: for it hath been delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it. 7 If thou therefore wilt worship before me, it shall all be thine. 8 And Jesus answered and said unto him, It is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. 9 And he led him to Jerusalem, and set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence: 10 for it is written,

He shall give his angels charge concerning thee, to guard thee: 11 and,

On their hands they shall bear thee up, Lest haply thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jesus answering said unto him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had completed every temptation, he departed from him for a season.

14 And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and a fame went out concerning him through all the region round about. 15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.

16 And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and he entered, as his custom was, into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up to read. 17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Isaiah. And he opened the book, and found the place where it was written,

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me,

Because he anointed me to preach good tidings to the poor:

He hath sent me to proclaim release to the captives, And recovering of sight to the blind,

To set at liberty them that are bruised,

19 ¶ To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.
 20 And he closed the ¹ book, and gave it back to the attendant, and ² sat down: and the eyes of all in the synagogue were ³ fastened on him. 21 And he began to say unto them, To-day ⁴ hath ⁵ this scripture been fulfilled in your ears. 22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at ⁶ the words of grace which proceeded out of his mouth: and they said, ⁷ Is not this ⁸ Joseph's son? 23 And he said unto them, Doubtless ye will say unto me this parable, ⁹ Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done ¹⁰ at Capernaum, do also here in thine own country. 24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, ¹¹ No prophet is acceptable in his own country. 25 But of a truth I say unto you, There were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when ¹² the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when there came a great famine over all the land; 26 and unto none of them was Elijah sent, ¹³ but only to ¹⁴ Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow. 27 And ¹⁵ there were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, ¹⁶ but only Namaan the Syrian. 28 And they were all filled with wrath in the synagogue, as they heard these things; 29 and they rose up, and ¹⁷ cast him forth out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might throw him down headlong. 30 But he ¹⁸ passing through the midst of them went his way.
 31 And he ¹⁹ came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee. And ²⁰ he was teaching them ²¹ on the sabbath day: 32 and ²² they were astonished at his teaching; ²³ for his word was with authority. 33 And ²⁴ in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean ²⁵ devil; and he cried out with a loud voice, 34 ²⁶ Ah! ²⁷ what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? ²⁸ I know thee who thou art, ²⁹ the Holy One of God. 35 And Jesus ³⁰ rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

And when the ³¹ devil had thrown him down in the midst, he came out of him, having done him no hurt. 36 And ³² amazement came upon all, and they spake together, one with another, saying, What is ³³ this word? ³⁴ for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out. 37 And ³⁵ there went forth a rumour concerning him into every place of the region round about.

38 And he rose up from the synagogue, and entered into the house of Simon. And ³⁶ Simon's wife's mother was holden with a great fever; and they besought him for her. 39 And he stood over her, and ³⁷ rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she rose up and ministered unto them.

40 And when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and ³⁸ he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them. 41 And ³⁹ devils also came out from many, ⁴⁰ crying out, and saying, Thou art ⁴¹ the Son of God. And rebuking them, ⁴² he suffered them not to speak, because they knew that he was ⁴³ the Christ.

42 And when it was day, he came out and went ⁴⁴ into a desert place: and ⁴⁵ the multitudes sought after him, and came unto him, and would have stayed him, that he should not go from them. 43 But he said unto them, ⁴⁶ I must ⁴⁷ preach the ⁴⁸ good tidings of the kingdom of God to the other cities also: for therefore was I sent.

5 Now it came to pass, while the multitude pressed upon him, and heard the word of God, that he was standing by ⁵¹ the lake of Gennesaret; 2 and he saw two boats standing by the lake: but the fishermen had gone out of them, and were ⁵² washing their nets. 3 And he entered into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. And ⁵³ he sat down and taught the multitudes out of the boat. 4 And when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, ⁵⁴ Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. ⁵ And Simon answered and said, Master, ^{we} we toiled all night, and took nothing: but at thy word I will let down the nets. ⁶ And when they had this done, ^{they} they inclosed a great multitude of fishes; and ^{their} their nets were breaking; ⁷ and they beckoned unto ^{their} their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. ⁸ But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, ^{Depart} Depart from me; for ^I I am a sinful man, O Lord. ⁹ For he was amazed, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken; ¹⁰ and so were also James and John, sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt ^{catch} catch men. ¹¹ And when they had brought their boats to land, ^{they} they left all, and followed him.

¹² And it came to pass, while he was in one of the cities; ^{behold}, a man full of leprosy: and when he saw Jesus, he ^{fell} fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, ^{if} if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. ¹³ And he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou made clean. And straightway the leprosy departed from him. ¹⁴ And he charged him ^{to} to tell no man: but go thy way, and shew ^{thyself} thyself to the priest, and ^{offer} offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, ^{for} for a testimony unto them. ¹⁵ But so much the more went abroad the report concerning him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed of their infirmities. ¹⁶ But ^{he} he withdrew himself into the deserts, and ^{prayed} prayed.

him. ¹⁹ And not finding by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went up to ^{the} the housetop, and let him down ^{through} through the tiles with his couch into the midst before Jesus. ²⁰ And ^{seeing} seeing their faith, he said, Man, ^{thy} thy sins are forgiven thee. ²¹ And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this that speaketh ^{blasphemies} blasphemies? ^{Who} Who can forgive sins, but God alone? ²² But Jesus ^{perceiving} perceiving their reasonings, answered and said unto them, ^{What} What reason ye in your hearts? ²³ Whether is easier to say, Thy sins are forgiven thee; or to say, Arise and walk? ²⁴ But that ye may know that ^{the} the Son of man hath ^{power} power on earth to forgive sins (he said unto him that was palsied), I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go unto thy house. ²⁵ And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his house, ^{glorifying} glorifying God. ²⁶ And amazement took hold on all, and they ^{glorified} glorified God; and they were filled ^{with} with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to-day.

²⁷ And after these things he went forth, and beheld ^a a publican, named ^{Levi} Levi, sitting at the place of toll, and said unto him, Follow me. ²⁸ And ^{he} he forsook all, and rose up and followed him. ²⁹ And Levi made him a great feast in his house: and there was a great multitude ^{of} of publicans and of others that were sitting at meat with them. ³⁰ And ^{the} the Pharisees and ^{their} their scribes murmured against his disciples, saying, ^{Why} Why do ye eat and drink with the publicans and sinners? ³¹ And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are whole have no need of a physician; but they that are sick. ³² ^I I am not come to call the righteous ^{but} but sinners ^{to} to repentance. ³³ And they said unto him, ^{The} The disciples of John ^{fast} fast often, and ^{make} make supplications; ^{likewise} likewise also the ^{disciples} disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink. ³⁴ And Jesus said unto them, ^{Can} Can ye make the sons of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? ³⁵ But ^{the} the days will come; and when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, [•] then will they fast in those days. 36 And he spake also a parable unto them; No man rendeth a piece from a new garment and putteth it upon an old garment; else he will rend the new, and also the piece from the new will not agree with the old. 37 And no man putteth new wine into old ¹⁵ wine-skins; else the new wine will burst the skins, and itself will be spilled, and the skins will perish. 38 But new wine must be put into fresh wine-skins. 39 And no man having drunk old wine desireth new: for he saith, The old is ² good.

6 ¹ Now it came to pass on a sabbath, that he was going through the cornfields; and his disciples ² plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands. ³ But certain of the Pharisees said, 'Why do ye ⁴ that which it is not lawful to do on the sabbath day? ⁵ And Jesus answering them said, ⁶ Have ye not read even this, 'what David did, when he was an hungred, he, and they that were with him; ⁷ how he entered into the house of God, and did take and eat ⁸ the shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him; ⁹ which it is not lawful to eat save for the priests alone? ¹⁰ And he said unto them, ¹¹ The Son of man is lord of the sabbath.

6 And it came to pass on another sabbath, that [•] he entered into the synagogue ² and taught: and there was a man there, and his right hand was withered. ⁷ And the scribes and the Pharisees ⁸ watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath; ⁹ that they might find how to accuse him. ⁸ But [•] he knew their thoughts; and he said to the man that had his hand withered, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth. ⁹ And Jesus said unto them, I ask you, ¹⁰ Is it lawful on the sabbath to do good, or to do harm? to save a life, or to destroy it? ¹⁰ And [•] he looked round about on them all, and said unto him, Stretch forth thy hand. And [•] he did so: and his hand was restored. ¹¹ But they were filled with ¹² madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

12 And it came to pass in these days, that ² he went out into the mountain to pray; and he continued all night in prayer to God. ¹³ And when it was day, [•] he called his disciples: [•] and [•] he chose from them twelve, whom also he named [•] apostles; ¹⁴ Simon, [•] whom he also named Peter, and [•] Andrew his brother, and [•] James and John, and Philip and Bartholomew, ¹⁵ and [•] Matthew and Thomas, and James ^{the son of} Alphæus, and Simon which was called [•] the Zealot, ¹⁶ and [•] Judas ^{the son of} James, and Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor; ¹⁷ and [•] he came down with them, and stood on a level place, and [•] a great multitude of his disciples, and a great number of the people from all Judæa and Jerusalem, and the sea coast of [•] Tyre and Sidôn, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases; ¹⁸ and [•] they that were troubled with unclean spirits were healed. ¹⁹ And all the multitude ¹ sought to touch him: for [•] power came forth from him: and healed them all.

20 And [•] he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, [•] and said, Blessed ^{are} ye poor: for [•] yours is the kingdom of God. ²¹ Blessed ^{are} ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. [•] Blessed ^{are} ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh. ²² Blessed ^{are} ye, when [•] men shall hate you, and when they shall [•] separate you from their company, and [•] reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, [•] for the Son of man's sake. ²³ Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy: for behold, your reward is great in heaven: for [•] in the same manner did their fathers unto the prophets. ²⁴ But woe unto you that are rich! [•] for ye [•] have received your consolation. ²⁵ Woe unto you, ye that are full now! for [•] ye shall hunger. [•] Woe unto you, [•] ye that laugh now! [•] for ye shall mourn and weep. ²⁶ Woe unto you, [•] when all men shall speak well of you! for [•] in the same manner did their fathers to [•] the false prophets.

that curse you, ^a pray for them that despitefully use you. ²⁹ ^a To him that ^a smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and from him that taketh away thy cloke withhold not thy coat also. ³⁰ ^a Give to every one that asketh thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again. ³¹ And ^a as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise. ³² And ^a if ye love them that love you, what thank have ye? for even sinners love those that love them. ³³ And if ye do good to them that do good to you, what thank have ye? for even sinners do the same. ³⁴ And ^a if ye ^a lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? even sinners lend to sinners, to receive again as much. ³⁵ But ^a love your enemies, and do them good, and lend, ¹ never ^a despairing; and your reward shall be great, and ^a ye shall be sons of ^a the Most High: for ^a he is kind toward the unthankful and evil. ³⁶ ^a Be ye merciful, even as ^a your Father is merciful. ³⁷ And ^a judge not, and ye shall not be judged: and condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: ^a release, and ye shall be released: ^a give, and it shall be given unto you; ³⁸ good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, shall they give ^a into your bosom. For ^a with what measure ye mete it shall be measured to you again.

³⁹ And he spake also a parable unto them, ^a Can the blind guide the blind? shall they not both fall into a pit? ⁴⁰ ^a The disciple is not above his ^a master: but every one when he is ^a perfected shall be as his ^a master. ⁴¹ And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but ^a considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? ⁴² Or how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me cast out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote that is in thy brother's eye. ⁴³ For ^a there is no good tree that bringeth forth corrupt fruit; nor again a corrupt tree that bringeth forth good fruit. ⁴⁴ For ^a each tree is known by its own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes. ⁴⁵ ^a The good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth ^a that which is evil: ^a for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

⁴⁶ And ^a why ^a call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say? ⁴⁷ Every one that cometh unto me, and heareth my words, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like: ⁴⁸ he is like a man building a house, who digged and went deep, and laid a foundation upon the rock: and when a flood arose, the stream brake against that house, and could not shake it: ^a because it had been well builded. ⁴⁹ But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that built a house upon the earth without a foundation; against which the stream brake, and straightway it fell in; and ^a the ruin of that house was great.

¹ After he had ended all his sayings in the ears of the people, ^a he entered into Capernaum.

² And a certain centurion's ^a servant, who was ^a dear unto him, was sick and at the point of death. ³ And when he heard concerning Jesus, ^a he sent unto him elders of the Jews, asking him that he would come and save his ^a servant. ⁴ And they, when they came to Jesus, besought him earnestly, saying, ^a He is worthy that thou shouldest do this for him: ⁵ for he loveth our nation, and himself built us ^a our synagogue. ⁶ And Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, ^a trouble not thyself: for I am not ^a worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: ⁷ wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but ^a say the word, and my ^a servant shall be healed. ⁸ For I also am a man set under authority, having under myself soldiers: and I say to this one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my ¹servant, Do this, and he doeth it. ⁹ And when Jesus heard these things, ²he marvelled at him, and turned and said unto the multitude that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great ³faith, no, not in Israel. ¹⁰ And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the ¹servant whole.

¹¹ And it came to pass ²soon afterwards, that he went to a city called Nain; and his disciples went with him, and a great multitude. ¹² Now when he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, there was carried out one that was dead, ³the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her. ¹³ And when the Lord saw her, ⁴he had compassion on her, and ⁵said unto her, Weep not. ¹⁴ And he came nigh and touched ⁶the bier: and the bearers stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, ⁷Arise. ¹⁵ And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And ⁸he gave him to his mother. ¹⁶ And fear took hold on all: and ⁹they glorified God, saying, ¹⁰A great prophet is arisen among us: and, ¹¹God hath visited his people. ¹⁷ And this report went forth concerning him in the whole of Judæa, and all the region round about.

¹⁸ And ¹the disciples of John told him of all these things. ¹⁹ And John calling unto him ²two of his disciples sent them to the Lord, saying, Art thou ³he that cometh, or ⁴look we for another? ²⁰ And when the men were come unto him, they said, John the Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou ⁵he that cometh, or ⁶look we for another? ²¹ In that hour, ⁷he cured many of diseases and ⁸plagues and evil spirits; and ⁹on many that were blind he bestowed sight. ²² And he answered and said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; ¹⁰the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, ¹¹the lepers are cleansed, and ¹²the deaf hear, ¹³the dead are raised up, ¹⁴the poor have ¹⁵good tidings preached to them. ²³ And blessed is he, whosoever shall ¹find none occasion of stumbling in me.

²⁴ And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out ¹into the wilderness to behold? ²a reed shaken with the wind? ²⁵ But what went ye out to see? a man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and livedelicately, are in kings' courts. ²⁶ But what went ye out to see? ³a prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet. ²⁷ This is he of whom it is written,

¹Behold, I send my messenger before thy face,
Who shall prepare thy way before thee.

²⁸ I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there is none greater than John: yet he that is ⁴but little in the kingdom of God is greater than he. ²⁹ And all the people when they heard, and ⁵the publicans, justified God, ⁷as being baptized with ⁶the baptism of John. ³⁰ But the Pharisees and ⁸the lawyers ⁹rejected for themselves ¹⁰the counsel of God, ¹¹being not baptized of him. ³¹ Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation, and to what are they like? ³² They are like unto children that sit in the marketplace, and call one to another; which say, We piped unto you, and ye did not dance; we wailed, and ye did not weep. ³³ For John the Baptist is come ¹²eating no bread ¹³nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a ¹⁴devil. ³⁴ The Son of man is come ¹⁵eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold, a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, ¹⁶a friend of publicans and sinners! ³⁵ And ¹⁷wisdom ¹⁸is justified of all her children.

³⁶ And ¹one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he entered into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat. ³⁷ And behold, a woman which was in the city, a sinner; and when she knew that he was sitting at meat in the Pharisee's house, she brought ¹¹an alabaster cruse of ointment, and standing behind at his feet, weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears, and ¹²wiped them with the hair of her head, and ¹ kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. ³⁹ Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, ² This man, if he were ³ a prophet, ⁴ would have perceived who and what manner of woman this is which toucheth him, that she is a sinner. ⁴⁰ And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, ⁵ Master, say on. ⁴¹ A certain lender had two debtors: the one owed five hundred ⁶ pence, and the other fifty. ⁴² When they had not ⁷ wherewith to pay, he ⁸ forgave them both. Which of them therefore will love him most? ⁴³ Simon answered and said, He, I suppose, to whom he forgave the most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged. ⁴⁴ And turning to the woman, he said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, ⁹ thou gavest me no water for my feet: but ¹⁰ she hath wetted my feet with her tears, and wiped them with her hair. ⁴⁵ Thou gavest me no kiss: but she, since the time I came in, hath not ceased to ¹¹ kiss my feet. ⁴⁶ My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but she hath anointed my feet with ointment. ⁴⁷ Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, ¹² which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little. ⁴⁸ And he said unto her, ¹³ Thy sins are forgiven. ⁴⁹ And they that sat at meat with him began to say ¹⁴ within themselves, ¹⁵ Who is this that even forgiveth sins? ⁵⁰ And he said unto the woman, ¹⁶ Thy faith hath saved thee; ¹⁷ go in peace.

8 And it came to pass soon afterwards, that he went about through cities and villages, preaching and ¹ bringing the ² good tidings of the kingdom of God, and with him the twelve, and ³ certain women which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, ⁴ Mary that was called Magdalene, ⁵ from whom seven ⁶ devils had gone out, and ⁷ Joanna the wife of Chuza Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto ⁸ them of their substance.

⁹ And his disciples asked him what this parable might be. ¹⁰ And he said, ¹¹ Unto you it is given ¹² to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to the rest in parables; ¹³ that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand. ¹⁴ Now the parable is this: The seed is ¹⁵ the word of God. ¹⁶ And those by the way side are they that have heard; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word from their heart, that they may not ¹⁷ believe and be saved. ¹⁸ And those on the rock ¹⁹ are they which, when they have heard, receive the word ²⁰ with joy; and these have no root, which ²¹ for a while believe, and in time of temptation ²² fall away. ²³ And that which fell among the thorns, these are they that have heard, and ²⁴ as they go on their way they are choked with ²⁵ cares and riches and pleasures of ²⁶ this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. ²⁷ And that in the good ground, these are such as in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it fast, and ²⁸ bring forth fruit ²⁹ with patience.

¹⁶ And ¹⁷ no man, when he hath lighted a lamp, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but putteth it on a stand, that they which enter in may see the light. ¹⁸ For nothing is hid, that shall not be made manifest; nor ¹⁹ anything secret, that shall not be known and come to light. ²⁰ Take heed therefore how ye hear: ²¹ for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall

19^a And there came to him his mother and his brethren, and they could not come at him for the crowd. 20 And it was told him, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee. 21 But he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these^a which hear the word of God, and do it.

22^a Now it came to pass on one of those days, that he entered into a boat, himself and his disciples; and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake; and they launched forth. 23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filling with water, and were in jeopardy. 24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. And he awoke, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm. 25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And being afraid they marvelled, saying one to another, Who then is this, that he commandeth even the winds and the water, and they obey him?

26^a And they arrived at the country of the ² Gerasenes, which is over against Galilee. 27 And when he was come forth upon the land, there met him a certain man out of the city, who had devils; and for a long time he had worn no clothes, and abode not in any house, but in the toms. 28 And when he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the Most High God? I beseech thee, torment me not. 29 For he commanded the unclean spirit to come out from the man. For oftentimes it had seized him: and he was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters; and breaking the bands asunder, he was driven of the devil into the deserts. 30 And Jesus asked him, What is thy name? And he said, Legion; for many devils were entered into him. 31 And they intreated him that he would not command them to depart into the abyss. 32 Now there was there a herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they intreated him that he would give them leave to enter into them. And he gave them leave. 33 And the devils came out from the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd rushed down the steep into the lake, and were choked. 34 And when they that fed them saw what had come to pass, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country. 35 And they went out to see what had come to pass; and they came to Jesus, and found the man, from whom the devils were gone out, sitting, clothed and in his right mind, at the feet of Jesus: and they were afraid. 36 And they that saw it told them how he that was possessed with devils was made whole. 37 And all the people of the country of the Gerasenes round about asked him to depart from them; for they were holden with great fear: and he entered into a boat, and returned. 38 But the man from whom the devils were gone out prayed him that he might be with him: but he sent him away, saying, 39 Return to thy house, and declare how great things God hath done for thee. And he went his way, publishing throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done for him.

40 And as Jesus returned, the multitude welcomed him; for they were all waiting for him. 41 And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him to come into his house; 42 for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the multitudes thronged him.

43 And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, and could not be healed of any, 44 came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately the issue of her blood stanch'd. 45 And Jesus said, Who is it that touched me? And when all denied, Peter said, ¹and they that were with him, Master, the multitudes press thee and crush thee. ⁴⁶But Jesus said, Some one did touch me: for I perceived that ²power had gone forth from me. ⁴⁷And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared in the presence of all the people for what cause she touched him, and how she was healed immediately. ⁴⁸And he said unto her, Daughter, ³thy faith hath ⁴made thee whole; ⁵go in peace.

⁴⁹While he yet spake, there cometh one from ⁶the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying, Thy daughter is dead; ⁷trouble not ⁸the ⁹Master. ⁵⁰But Jesus hearing it, answered him, Fear not: only believe, and she shall be ⁴made whole. ⁵¹And when he came to the house, he suffered not any man to enter in with him, save ²Peter, and ³John, and James, and the father of the maiden and her mother. ⁵²And all were weeping, and ³bewailing her: but he ⁴said, Weep not; for ⁵she is not dead, but ⁶sleepeth. ⁵³And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead. ⁵⁴But he, ⁷taking her by the hand, called, saying, Maiden, ⁸arise. ⁵⁵And ⁹her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately: and he commanded that ¹⁰something be given her to eat. ⁵⁶And her parents were amazed: but ¹¹he charged them to tell no man what had been done.

¹And he called the twelve together, and gave them power and authority over all ²devils, and to cure diseases. ²And he sent them forth to ³preach the kingdom of God, and to heal ⁴the sick. ³And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, ⁴neither staff, nor wallet, nor bread, nor money; neither have two coats. ⁴And into whatsoever house ye enter, there abide, and thence depart. ⁵And as many as receive you not, when ye depart from that city, ⁶shake off the dust from your feet ⁷for a testimony ⁸against them. ⁶And they departed, and went throughout the villages, preaching the gospel, and healing everywhere.

⁷Now ¹Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done: and he was much perplexed, because that it was said by some, that ²John was risen from the dead; ³and ⁴by some, that Elijah had appeared; and ⁵by others, that one of the old prophets was risen again. ⁹And Herod said, John I beheaded: but who is this, about whom I hear such things? And ¹⁰he sought to see him.

¹⁰And the apostles, when they were returned, declared unto him what things they had done. ¹¹And he took them, and withdrew apart to a city called Bethsaida. ¹¹But the multitudes perceiving it followed him: and he ²welcomed them, and ³spoke to them of the kingdom of God, and ⁴them that had need of healing he healed. ¹²And ¹the day began to wear away; and the twelve came, and said unto him, ²Send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place. ¹³But he said unto them, ³Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more than ⁴five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy food for all this people. ¹⁴For they were about five thousand men. And he said unto his disciples, Make them ¹sit down in companies, about fifty each. ¹⁵And they did so, and made them all ²sit down. ¹⁶And he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and ³looking up to heaven, ⁴he blessed them, and brake; and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude. ¹⁷And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up that which remained over to them of broken pieces, twelve baskets.

¹⁸And it came to pass, as he was praying alone, the disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Who do the multitudes say that I am? ¹⁹And they answering said, ¹John the Baptist; but others say, ²Elijah; and others, that one of the old prophets is risen again. ²⁰And he said unto them, But who say ye that I am? And Peter answering said, ³The Christ of God. ²¹But he charged them, and commanded them to tell this to no man; ²² saying, ²³ The Son of man must ²⁴ suffer many things, and ²⁵ be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and ²⁶ the third day be raised up. ²⁷ And he said unto all, If any man would come after me, let him ²⁸ deny himself, and ²⁹ take up his cross ³⁰ daily, and follow me. ³¹ For ³² whosoever would save his ³³ life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his ³⁴ life for my sake, the same shall save it. ³⁵ For what is a man profited, if he gain the whole world, and lose or forfeit his own self? ³⁶ For ³⁷ whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, ³⁸ when he cometh in ³⁹ his own glory, and ⁴⁰ the glory of the Father, and of ⁴¹ the holy angels. ⁴² But I tell you of a truth, There be some of them that stand here, which shall in no wise ⁴³ taste of death, ⁴⁴ till they see the kingdom of God.

⁴⁵ And it came to pass about eight days after these sayings, he took with him ⁴⁶ Peter and John and James, and ⁴⁷ went up into the mountain to pray. ⁴⁸ And as he was praying, the fashion of his countenance was ⁴⁹ altered, and ⁵⁰ his raiment became white and dazzling. ⁵¹ And behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elijah; ⁵² who appeared in glory, and spake of his ⁵³ decease which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. ⁵⁴ Now Peter and they that were with him ⁵⁵ were heavy with sleep: but ⁵⁶ when they were fully awake, ⁵⁷ they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him. ⁵⁸ And it came to pass, as they were parting from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three ⁵⁹ tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah: ⁶⁰ not knowing what he said. ⁶¹ And while he said these things, there came ⁶² a cloud and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud. ⁶³ And ⁶⁴ a voice came out of the cloud, saying, ⁶⁵ This is ⁶⁶ my Son, ⁶⁷ my chosen: ⁶⁸ hear ye him. ⁶⁹ And when the voice ⁷⁰ came, Jesus was found alone. ⁷¹ And they held their peace, and told no man in those days any of the things which they had seen.

⁷² And it came to pass, on the next day, when they were come down from the mountain, a great multitude met him. ⁷³ And behold, a man from the multitude cried, saying, ⁷⁴ Master, I beseech thee to look upon my son; for ⁷⁵ he is mine only child: ⁷⁶ and behold, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it ⁷⁷ teareth him that he foameth, and it hardly departeth from him, bruising him sorely. ⁷⁸ And I besought thy disciples to cast it out; and ⁷⁹ they could not. ⁸⁰ And Jesus answered and said, O faithless and ⁸¹ perverse generation, ⁸² how long shall I be with you, and bear with you? bring hither thy son. ⁸³ And as he was yet a coming, the ⁸⁴ devil ⁸⁵ dashed him down, and ⁸⁶ tare him grievously. But Jesus ⁸⁷ rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and ⁸⁸ gave him back to his father. ⁸⁹ And they were all astonished at ⁹⁰ the majesty of God.

⁹⁷ And there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be ⁹⁸ greatest. ⁹⁹ But when Jesus ¹⁰⁰ saw the reasoning of their heart, he took a little child, and set him by his side, ¹⁰¹ and said unto them, ¹⁰² Whosoever shall receive this little child in my name receiveth me: and ¹⁰³ whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for ¹⁰⁴ he that is ¹⁰⁵ least among you all, the same is great.

¹⁰⁶ And John answered and said, ¹⁰⁷ Master, we saw one ¹⁰⁸ casting out devils in thy name; and ¹⁰⁹ we forbade him, because he followeth not with us, ¹¹⁰ 50 But Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: ^afor he that is not against you is for you.

51 And it came to pass, when the days ¹were well-nigh come that ¹he should be received up, ²he stedfastly set his face ²to go to Jerusalem, ³and ³sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of ⁴the Samaritans, to make ready for him. 53 And ⁵they did not receive him, because ⁶his face was as though he were going to Jerusalem. 54 And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we bid ⁷fire to come down from heaven, and consume them ⁸? 55 But he turned, and rebuked them ⁹. 56 And they went to another village.

57 And as they went ¹in the way, ²a certain man said unto him, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. 58 And Jesus said unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the heaven have ⁴nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. 59 And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. 60 But he said unto him, Leave ¹the dead to bury their own dead; but go thou and ²publish abroad the kingdom of God. 61 And another also said, I will follow thee, Lord; ³but first suffer me to bid farewell to them that are at my house. 62 But Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

IO Now after these things the Lord appointed ¹seventy ²others, and ³sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself was about to come. 2 ⁴And he said unto them, The harvest is plenteous, but the labourers are few: ⁵pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth labourers into his harvest. 3 Go your ways: ⁶behold, I send you forth as lambs in the midst of wolves. 4 ⁷Carry no purse, no wallet, no shoes: and ⁸salute no man on the way. 5 And into whatsoever house ye shall ⁹enter, first say, ¹⁰Peace be to this house.

6 And if ¹a son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon ²him: but if not, ³it shall turn to you again. 7 And in that same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for ⁴the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house. 8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you: ⁹and heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, ¹⁰The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you. 10 But into whatsoever city ye shall enter, and they receive you not, go out into the streets thereof and say, ¹¹Even the dust from your city, that cleaveth to our feet, we do wipe off against you: howbeit know this, that ¹²the kingdom of God is come nigh. 12 ¹³I say unto you, ¹⁴It shall be more tolerable in ¹⁵that day for Sodom, than for that city. 13 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the ¹⁶mighty works had been done in ¹⁷Tyre and Sidon, which were done in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. 14 ¹⁸Howbeit it shall be more tolerable for ¹⁹Tyre and Sidon in the judgement, than for you. 15 And thou, Capernaum, ²⁰shalt thou be exalted unto heaven? thou shalt be brought down unto ²¹Hades. 16 ²²He that heareth you heareth me; and ²³he that rejecteth you rejecteth me; and ²⁴he that rejecteth me rejecteth him that sent me.

17 And ²⁵the seventy returned with joy, saying, Lord, ²⁶even the ²⁷devils are subject unto us in thy name. 18 And he said unto them, ²⁸I beheld Satan ²⁹fallen as lightning from heaven. 19 Behold, I have given you authority ³⁰to tread upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of ³¹the enemy: and ³²nothing shall in any wise hurt you. 20 ³³Howbeit in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rejoice that ³⁴your names are written in heaven.

joined ¹⁴ in the Holy Spirit, and said, I ¹⁵ thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that ¹⁶ thou didst hide these things from the wise and understanding, and didst ¹⁷ reveal them unto babes: yea, Father; ¹⁸ for so ¹⁹ it was well-pleasing in thy sight. ²⁰ All things have been delivered unto me of my Father: and no one knoweth who the Son is, ²¹ save the Father; and who the Father is, ²² save the Son, and he ²³ to whomsoever the Son willeth to reveal him. ²⁴ And turning to the disciples, he said privately, ²⁵ Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see: ²⁶ for I say unto you, ²⁷ that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not; and to hear the things which ye hear, and heard them not.

²⁸ And behold, a certain lawyer stood up and ²⁹ tempted him, saying, ³⁰ Master, what shall I do to ³¹ inherit eternal life? ³² And he said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou? ³³ And he answering said, ³⁴ Thou shalt love the Lord thy God ³⁵ with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and ³⁶ thy neighbour as thyself. ³⁷ And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: ³⁸ this do, and thou shalt live. ³⁹ But he, ⁴⁰ desiring to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour? ⁴¹ Jesus made answer and said, A certain man ⁴² was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho; and he fell among robbers, which both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. ⁴³ And by chance a certain ⁴⁴ priest was going down that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. ⁴⁵ And in like manner ⁴⁶ a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side. ⁴⁷ But a certain ⁴⁸ Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he was moved with compassion, ⁴⁹ and came to him, and ⁵⁰ bound up his wounds, pouring on them ⁵¹ oil and wine; and he set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. ⁵² And on the morrow he took out two ⁵³ pence, and gave them to the host, and said, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, I, when I come back again, will repay thee. ⁵⁴ Which of these three, thinkest thou, proved neighbour unto him that fell among the robbers? ⁵⁵ And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. And Jesus said unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

⁵⁶ Now as they went on their way, he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named ⁵⁷ Martha ⁵⁸ received him into her house. ⁵⁹ And she had a sister called ⁶⁰ Mary, which also ⁶¹ sat at the Lord's feet, and heard his word. ⁶² But Martha was ⁶³ troubled about much serving; and she came up to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister did leave me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me. ⁶⁴ But the Lord answered and said unto her, ⁶⁵ Martha, Martha, thou art ⁶⁶ anxious and troubled about many things: ⁶⁷ but one thing is needful: for Mary hath chosen ⁶⁸ the good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

⁶⁹ And it came to pass, as he was praying in a certain place, that when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, even as John also taught ⁷⁰ his disciples. ⁷¹ And he said unto them, ⁷² When ye pray, say, ⁷³ Father, ⁷⁴ Hallowed be ⁷⁵ thy name. ⁷⁶ Thy kingdom come. ⁷⁷ Give us ⁷⁸ day by day ⁷⁹ our daily bread. ⁸⁰ And ⁸¹ forgive us our sins; for we ourselves also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And ⁸² bring us not into temptation ⁸³.

⁸⁴ And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say to him, Friend, lend me three loaves; ⁸⁵ for a friend of mine is come to me from a journey, and I have nothing to set before him; ⁸⁶ and he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give

14 And he was casting out a devil which was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb man spake; and the multitudes marvelled. 15 But some of them said, By Beelzebub the prince of the devils casteth he out devils. 16 And others, tempting him, sought of him a sign from heaven. 17 But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house fall-eth. 18 And if Satan also is divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils by Beelzebub. 19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. 20 But if I by the finger of God cast out devils, then is the kingdom of God come upon you. 21 When the strong man fully armed guardeth his own court, his goods are in peace: 22 but when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him his whole armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils. 23 He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth. 24 The unclean spirit when he is gone out of the man, passeth through waterless places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will turn back unto my house whence I came out. 25 And when he is come, he findeth it swept and garnished. 26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more evil than himself; and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man cometh worse than the first.

27 And it came to pass, as he said these things, a certain woman out of the multitude lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the breasts which thou didst suck. 28 But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

29 And when the multitudes were gathering together unto him, he began to say, This generation is an evil generation: it seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it but the sign of Jonah. 30 For even as Jonah became a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation. 31 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgement with the men of this generation, and shall condemn them: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, a greater than Solomon is here. 32 The men of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgement with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, a greater than Jonah is here.

33 No man, when he hath lighted a lamp, putteth it in a cellar, neither under the bushel, but on the stand, that they which enter in may see the light. 34 The lamp of thy body is thine eye: when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when it is evil, thy body also is full of darkness. 35 Look therefore whether the light that is in thee be not darkness. 36 If therefore thy whole body be full of light, having no part dark, it shall be wholly full of light, as when the lamp with its bright shining doth give thee light.

37 Now as he spake, a Pharisee asked him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat.

38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled ^p that he had not first washed before ¹⁰ dinner. 39 And the Lord said unto him, ^v Now do ye Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter; but your inward part is full of ^v extortion and wickedness. 40 ^v Ye foolish ones, ^v did not he that made the outside make the inside also? 41 Howbeit ^v give for alms those things which ² are within; and behold, ^v all things are clean unto you.

42 ^v But woe unto you Pharisees! for ^v ye tithe the mint and rue and every herb, and pass over ^v judgement and ^v the love of God: ^v but these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. 43 Woe unto you Pharisees! for ^v ye love the chief seats in the synagogues, and the salutations in ^b the market-places. 44 Woe unto you! ^v for ye are as the tombs which appear not, and the men that walk over them know it not.

45 And one of ^d the lawyers answering saith unto him, ^v Master, in saying this thou reproachest us also. 46 And he said, Woe unto you ^v lawyers also! for ^v ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers. 47 ^v Woe unto you! for ye build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. 48 ^v So ye are witnesses and ^v consent unto the works of ^v your fathers: for they killed them, and ye build their tombs. 49 Therefore also said ^k the wisdom of God, ^v 'I will send unto them ^v prophets and apostles; ^v and some of them they shall ^v kill and persecute; so that ^v the blood of all the prophets, which was shed ^v from the foundation of the world, may be ^v required of this generation; 51 from the blood of ^v Abel unto the blood of ^v Zachariah, who perished between ^v the altar and ^v the ^v sanctuary: yes, I say unto you, it shall be ^v required of this generation. 52 Woe unto you ^v lawyers! ^v for ye took away the key of ^v knowledge: ye ^v entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

said unto him, ¹Master, bid my brother divide the inheritance with me. ¹⁴But he said unto him, ²Man, ³who made me a judge or a divider over you? ¹⁵And he said unto them, ¹Take heed, and keep yourselves from all covetousness: ²for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. ¹⁶And he spake a parable unto them, saying, ¹The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully: ¹⁷and he reasoned within himself, saying, ¹What shall I do, because I have not where to bestow my fruits? ¹⁸And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my ¹barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my corn and my goods. ¹⁹And I will say to my ²soul, ³Soul, thou hast much goods laid up ⁴for many years; take thine ease, ⁵eat, drink, be merry. ²⁰But God said unto him, ¹Thou foolish one, ²this night ³is thy ⁴soul required of thee; and the things which thou hast prepared, ⁵whose shall they be? ²¹So is he ¹that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

²²And he said unto his disciples, ¹Therefore I say unto you, ²Be not anxious for ³your ⁴life, what ye shall eat; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. ²³For the ¹life is more than the food, and the body than the raiment. ²⁴Consider the ravens, that they sow not, neither reap; which have no store-chamber nor barn; and God feedeth them: ²⁵of how much more value are ye than the birds! ²⁵And which of you by being anxious can add a cubit unto his ⁶stature? ²⁶If then ye are not able to do even that which is least, why are ye anxious concerning the rest? ²⁷Consider the lilies, how they grow: they toil not, neither do they spin; yet I say unto you, ²⁸Even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. ²⁸But if God doth so clothe the grass in the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven; how much more ²⁹shall he clothe you, ³⁰O ye of little faith? ²⁹And seek not ye what ye shall eat, and what ye shall drink, neither ¹be ye of doubtful mind. ³⁰For all these things ²do the nations of the world seek after: but ³your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things. ³¹Howbeit ²seek ye ³his kingdom, ⁴and these things shall be added unto you. ³²Fear not, little ⁵flock; for ⁶it is your Father's good pleasure to give you ⁷the kingdom. ³³Sell that ye have, and ⁴give alms; ⁵make for yourselves purses which wax not old, ⁶a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief draweth near, neither moth destroyeth. ³⁴For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

⁴¹And Peter said, Lord, ¹speakest thou this parable unto us, or even unto all? ⁴²And the Lord said, Who then is ²the faithful and ³wise ⁴steward, whom his lord shall set over his household, to give them their portion of food in due season? ⁴³Blessed is that ⁵servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. ⁴⁴Of a truth I say unto you, that ⁶he will set him over all that he hath. ⁴⁵But if that ⁷servant shall say in his heart, My lord ⁸delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and the maidservants,

and to eat and drink, and to be drunken; 45 the lord of that servant shall come in a day when he expecteth not, and in an hour when he knoweth not, and shall cut him asunder, and appoint his portion with the unfaithful. 47 And that servant, which knew his lord's will, and made not ready, nor did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes; 48 but he that knew not, and did things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. And to whomsoever much is given, of him shall much be required: and to whom they commit much, of him will they ask the more.

49 I came to cast fire upon the earth; and what will I, if it is already kindled? 50 But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished! 51 Think ye that I am come to give peace in the earth? 52 I tell you, Nay; but rather division: for there shall be from henceforth five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three. 53 They shall be divided, father against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against her mother; mother in law against her daughter in law, and daughter in law against her mother in law.

54 And he said to the multitudes also, When ye see a cloud rising in the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it cometh to pass. 55 And when ye see a south wind blowing, ye say, There will be a scorching heat; and it cometh to pass. 56 Ye hypocrites, ye know how to interpret the face of the earth and the heaven; but how is it that ye know not how to interpret this time? 57 And why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right? 58 For as thou art going with thine adversary before the magistrate, on the way give diligence to be quit of him; lest haply he hale thee unto the judge, and the judge shall deliver thee to the officer, and the officer shall cast thee into prison. 59 I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou have paid the very last mite.

13 Now there were some present at that very season which told him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. 2 And he answered and said unto them, Think ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they have suffered these things? 3 I tell you, Nay; but, except ye repent, ye shall all in like manner perish. 4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and killed them, think ye that they were offenders above all the men that dwell in Jerusalem? 5 I tell you, Nay; but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 And he spake this parable; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came seeking fruit thereon, and found none. 7 And he said unto the vinedresser, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why doth it also cumber the ground? 8 And he answering saith unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it: 9 and if it bear fruit thenceforth, well; but if not, thou shalt cut it down.

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath day. 11 And behold, a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years; and she was bowed together, and could in no wise lift herself up. 12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her, and said to her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity. 13 And he laid his hands upon her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God. 14 And the ruler of the synagogue, being moved with indignation because Jesus had healed on the sabbath, answered and said to the multitude, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the day of the sabbath. 15 But the Lord answered him, and said, Ye hypocrites, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering? 16 And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan had bound, 10, these eighteen years, to have been loosed from this bond on the day of the sabbath? 17 And as he said these things, "all his adversaries were put to shame: and "all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 "He said therefore, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I liken it? 19 It is like unto "a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his own garden; and it grew, and became a tree; and the birds of the heaven lodged in the branches thereof. 20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God? 21 "It is like unto leaven, which a woman took and hid in "three "measures of meal, till it was "all leavened.

22 "And he went on his way through cities and villages, teaching, and "journeying on unto Jerusalem. 23 And one said unto him, Lord, are they few "that be saved? And he said unto them, 24 "Strive "to enter in by the narrow door: for many, I say unto you, shall seek to enter in, and shall not be "able. 25 "When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, "Lord, open to us; and he shall answer and say to you, "I know you not whence ye are; 26 then shall ye begin to say, "We did eat and drink in thy presence, and thou didst teach in our streets; 27 and he shall say, I tell you, "I know not whence ye are, "depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity. 28 "There shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see "Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and "yourselves cast forth without. 29 And "they shall come from the east and west, and from the north and south, and "shall "sit down in the kingdom of God. 30 And behold, "there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.

31 In that very hour there came certain Pharisees, saying to him, Get thee out, and go "hence: for "Herod would fain kill thee. 32 And he said unto them, Go and say to that fox, Behold, I cast out "devils and perform cures to-day and to-morrow, and the third day "I am perfected. 33 Howbeit "I "must go on my way to-day and to-morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that "a prophet perish out of Jerusalem. 34 "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, "which killeth the prophets, and stoneth them that are sent unto her! "how often would I have "gathered "thy children together, "even as a hen gathereth her own brood "under her wings, and "ye would not! 35 Behold, "your house is left unto you desolate: and I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until ye shall say, "Blessed "is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

1 And it came to pass, "when he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a sabbath to eat bread, that they were "watching him. 2 And behold, there was before him a certain man which had the dropsy. 3 And Jesus answering spake unto "the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath, or not? 4 But they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go. 5 And he said unto them, "Which of you shall have "an ass or an ox fallen into a well, and will not straightway draw him up on a sabbath day? 6 And they could not answer again unto these things.

7 And he spake a parable unto those which were bidden, when he marked "how they chose out the chief seats; 8 saying unto them, When thou art bidden of any man to a marriage feast, "sit not down in the chief seat; lest haply a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him, 9 and he that bade thee and him shall come and say to thee, Give this man place; and then thou shalt begin with shame to take the lowest place. 10 But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest place; "that when he that hath bidden thee cometh, he may say to thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have glory in the presence of all that sit at meat with thee. 11 For "every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 And he said to him also that had bidden him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, nor thy kinsmen, nor rich neighbours; lest haply they also bid thee again, and a recompense be made thee. 13 But when thou makest a feast, bid the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind; and thou shalt be blessed; 14 because they have not wherewith to recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed in the resurrection of the just.

15 And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God. 16 But he said unto him, A certain man made a great supper; and he bade many: 17 and he sent forth his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready. 18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a field, and I must needs go out and see it: I pray thee have me excused. 19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused. 20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. 21 And the servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor and maimed and blind and lame. 22 And the servant said, Lord, what thou didst command is done, and yet there is room. 23 And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and constrain them to come in, that my house may be filled. 24 For I say unto you, that none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

25 Now there went with him great multitudes: and he turned, and said unto them, 26 If any man cometh unto me, and hateth not his own father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. 27 Whosoever doth not bear his own cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. 28 For which of you, desiring to build a tower, doth not first sit down and count the cost, whether he have wherewith to complete it? 29 Lest haply, when he hath laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, all that behold begin to mock him, 30 saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. 31 Or what king, as he goeth to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and take counsel whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? 32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and asketh conditions of peace. 33 So therefore whosoever he be of you that renounceth not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple. 34 Salt therefore is good: but if even the salt have lost its savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned? 35 It is fit neither for the land nor for the dunghill: men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

Now all the publicans and sinners were drawing near unto him to hear him. 2 And both the Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

3 And he spake unto them this parable, saying, 4 What man of you, having a hundred sheep, and having lost one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? 5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. 6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and his neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost. 7 I say unto you, that even so there shall be joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine righteous persons, which need no repentance.

8 Or what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a lamp, and sweep the house, and seek diligently until she find it? 9 And when she hath found it, she calleth together her friends and neighbours, saying, Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I had lost. ¹⁰ Even so, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of ^b the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

¹¹ And he said, A certain man had two sons: ¹² and the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me ^c the portion of ¹ thy substance that falleth to me. And ^d he divided unto them ^e his living. ¹³ And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country; and there he wasted his substance with ^f riotous living. ¹⁴ And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that country; and he began to be in want. ¹⁵ And he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. ¹⁶ And he ^g would fain have been filled with

² the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him. ¹⁷ But ^h when he ⁱ came to himself he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish here with hunger! ¹⁸ I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, ^j I have sinned against ^k heaven, and in thy sight: ¹⁹ I am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants. ²⁰ And he arose, and came to his father. But while he was yet afar off, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and ^l ran, and ^m fell on his neck, and ⁿ kissed him. ²¹ And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight: ^o I am no more worthy to be called thy son. ²² But the father said to his ^p servants, Bring forth quickly ^q the best robe, and put it on him; and put ^r a ring on his hand, and ^s shoes on his feet: ²³ and bring ^t the fatted calf, and kill it, and let us eat, and ^u make merry: ²⁴ for this my son ^v was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry. ²⁵ Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing. ²⁶ And he called to him one of the ^w servants, and inquired what these things might be. ²⁷ And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound. ²⁸ But he was angry, and would not go in: and his father came out, and intreated him. ²⁹ But he answered and said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, and I never transgressed a commandment of thine: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might ^x make merry with my friends: ³⁰ but when this thy son came, ^y which hath devoured ^z thy living with harlots, thou killedst for him the fatted calf. ³¹ And he said unto him, Son, ^{aa} thou art ever with me, and all that is mine is thine. ³² But it was meet ^{ab} to make merry and be glad: for this thy brother ^{ac} was dead, and is alive again; and ^{ad} was lost, and is found.

16 ^{ae} And he said also unto the disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had ^{af} a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he was wasting his goods. ² And he called him, and said unto him, What is this that I hear of thee? render the account of thy ^{ag} stewardship; for thou canst be no longer steward. ³ And the steward said within himself, What shall I do, seeing that my lord taketh away the stewardship from me? I have not strength to dig; to beg I am ashamed. ⁴ I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. ⁵ And calling to him each one of his lord's debtors, he said to the first, How much owest thou unto my lord? ⁶ And he said, A hundred ^{ah} measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy ^{ai} bond, and sit down quickly and write fifty. ⁷ Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, A hundred ^{aj} measures of wheat. He saith unto him, Take thy ^{ak} bond, and write fourscore. ⁸ And his lord commended ^{al} the unrighteous steward because he had done ^{am} wisely: for the sons of this ^{an} world are for their own generation ^{ao} wiser than the sons of the light. ⁹ And I say unto you, ^{ap} Make to yourselves friends ¹ by means of ² the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when it shall fail, they may receive you into the eternal tabernacles. ¹⁰ 'He that is ¹ faithful in a very little is faithful also in much: and he that is unrighteous in a very little is unrighteous also in much. ¹¹ If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? ¹² And if ye have not been faithful in ² that which is another's, who will give you that which is ³ your own? ¹³ ² No ³ servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

¹⁹ Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in ¹¹ purple and fine linen, ¹² faring sumptuously every day: ²⁰ and a certain beggar named Lazarus ¹³ was laid at his gate, full of sores, ²¹ and desiring to be fed with ¹⁴ the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table; yea, even the dogs came and licked his sores. ²² And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and that he was carried away by ¹⁵ the angels ¹⁶ into Abraham's bosom: and the rich man also died, and was buried. ²³ And in ¹⁷ Hades he lifted up his eyes, ¹⁸ being in torments, and ¹⁹ seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus ²⁰ in his bosom. ²⁴ And he cried and said, ²¹ Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and ²² cool my tongue; for ²³ I am in anguish in this flame. ²⁵ But Abraham said, ²⁴ Son, remember that ²⁵ thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things: but now here he is comforted, and thou art in anguish. ²⁶ And ²⁶ beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, that they which would pass from hence to you may not be able, and that none may cross over from thence to us. ²⁷ And he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house; ²⁸ for I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. ²⁹ But Abraham saith, They have ²⁹ Moses and the prophets; ³⁰ let them hear them. ³⁰ And he said, Nay, ³¹ father Abraham: but if one go to them from the dead, they will repent. ³¹ And he said unto him, If they hear not ³² Moses and the prophets, ³³ neither will they be persuaded, if one rise from the dead.

17 ¹ And he said unto his disciples, ² It is impossible but that ³ occasions of stumbling should come: but ⁴ woe unto him, through whom they come! ⁵ It were well for him if a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble. ⁶ Take heed to yourselves: ⁷ if thy brother sin, ⁸ rebuke him; and if he repent, ⁹ forgive him. ¹⁰ And if he sin against thee ¹¹ seven times in the day, and seven times turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

⁵ And ⁵ the apostles said unto the Lord, ⁶ Increase our faith. ⁶ And the Lord said, ⁷ If ye have faith as ⁸ a grain of mustard seed, ye would say unto this ⁹ sycamine tree, Be thou rooted up, and be thou planted in the sea; and it would have obeyed you. ⁷ But who is there of you, having a ¹⁰ servant plowing or keeping sheep, that will say unto him, when he is come in from the field, Come straightway and sit down to meat; ⁸ and will not rather say unto ¹¹And it came to pass, ¹²as they were on the way to Jerusalem, that ^dhe was passing ⁴through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. ¹²And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, ^ewhich stood afar off: ¹³and they lifted up their voices, saying, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. ¹⁴And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go and ^fshew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, as they went, they were cleansed. ¹⁵And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, with a loud voice ^gglorifying God; ¹⁶and ^hhe fell upon his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was ⁱa Samaritan. ¹⁷And Jesus answering said, Were not ^jthe ten cleansed? but where are the nine? ¹⁸Were there none found that returned ^kto give glory to God, save this ^lstranger? ¹⁹And he said unto him, Arise, and go thy way: ^mthy faith hath ⁿmade thee whole.

²⁰And being asked by the Pharisees, ^owhen the kingdom of God cometh, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God ^pcometh not with observation: ²¹neither ^qshall they say, Lo, here! or, There! for lo, the kingdom of God is ^rwithin you.

²²And he said unto the disciples, ^sThe days will come, when ye shall desire ^tto see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it. ²³^uAnd they shall say to you, Lo, there! Lo, here! go not away, nor follow after them: ²⁴for as the lightning, when it lighteneth out of the one part under the heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall the Son of man be ^vin his day. ²⁵But first ^wmust

he suffer many things and ^xbe rejected of this generation. ²⁶^yAnd as it came to pass in the days of ^zNoah, even so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. ²⁷^{aa}They ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark; and the flood came, and destroyed them all. ²⁸Likewise even as it came to pass in the days of ^{ab}Lot; they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; ²⁹but in the day that Lot went out from Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all: ³⁰after the same manner shall it be ^{ac}in the day that the Son of man is revealed. ³¹In that day, ^{ad}he which shall be on ^{ae}the house-top, and his goods in the house, let him not go down to take them away: and let him that is in the field likewise not return back. ³²Remember Lot's wife. ³³^{af}Whosoever shall seek to ^{ag}gain his ¹⁰life shall lose it: but whosoever shall lose ^{ah}his ¹⁰life shall ^{ai}preserve it. ³⁴I say unto you, In that night there shall be two men on one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left. ³⁵^{aj}There shall be two women ^{ak}grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left. ³⁷And they answering say unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, ^{al}Where the body is, thither will the ^{am}eagles also be gathered together.

¹And he spake a parable unto them to the end that they ought ^{an}always to pray, and not ^{ao}to faint; ²saying, There was in a city a judge, which ^{ap}feared not God, and regarded not man: and there was a widow in that city; and she came oft unto him, saying, ^{aq}Avenge me of mine adversary. ⁴And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, ^{ar}Though I fear not God, nor regard man; ^{as}yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest she ^{at}wear me out by her continual coming. ⁶And the Lord said, Hear what ^{au}the unrighteous judge saith. ⁷And ^{av}shall not God avenge ^{aw}his elect, ^{ax}which cry to him day and night, and "he is long-suffering over them? 8 I say unto you, that he will avenge them "speedily. Howbeit when the Son of man cometh, "shall he find ¹faith on the earth?

9 And he spake also this parable unto certain "which trusted "in themselves that they were righteous, "and set ²all others at nought: 10 Two men ^bwent up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. 11 The Pharisee "stood and prayed "thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as the rest of men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. 12 "I fast twice in the week; "I give tithes of all that I get. 13 But the publican, "standing afar off, "would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but ^asmote his breast, saying, God, ^a"be merciful to me ^aa sinner. 14 I say unto you, This man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for "every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; but he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 "And they brought unto him also their babes, that he should touch them: but when the disciples saw it, they "rebuked them. 16 But Jesus called them unto him, saying, "Suffer the little children to come unto me, and "forbid them not: "for of such is the kingdom of God. 17 "Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not "receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall in no wise enter therein.

18 "And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good "Master, What shall I do to "inherit eternal life? 19 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, even God. 20 Thou knowest the commandments, "Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and mother. 21 And he said, "All these things have I observed from my youth up. 22 And when Jesus heard it, he said unto him, One thing thou lackest yet: "sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have "treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. 23 "But when he heard these things, he became exceeding sorrowful; for he was very rich. 24 And Jesus seeing him said, "How hardly shall they that have riches enter into "the kingdom of God! 25 For it is easier for a camel to enter in through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into "the kingdom of God. 26 And they that heard it said, Then who can be saved? 27 But he said, "The things which are impossible with men are possible with God. 28 And Peter said, Lo, "we have left "our own, and followed thee. 29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, ^bThere is no man that hath left house, or wife, or brethren, or parents, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, 30 who shall not receive "manifold more ^cin this time, and in "the "world to come eternal life.

31 "And he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, "we go up to Jerusalem, and "all the things that are written ^dby the prophets shall be accomplished unto the Son of man. 32 For he shall be "delivered up unto the Gentiles, and shall be "mocked, and shamefully entreated, and "spit upon: 33 and they shall scourge and kill him: and "the third day he shall rise again. 34 "And they understood none of these things; and "this saying was hid from them, and they perceived not the things that were said.

35 "And it came to pass, as he drew nigh unto Jericho, a certain "blind man sat by the way side begging: 36 and hearing a multitude going by, he inquired what this meant. 37 And they told him, that "Jesus of Nazareth passeth by. 38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, "thou son of David, have mercy on me. 39 And they that went before "rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried out the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me. 40 And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him, 41 "What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight. 42 And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight : *thy faith hath¹ made thee whole. 43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, *glorifying God : and *all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

1 And *he entered and I⁹ was passing through Jericho. 2 And behold, a man called by name Zacchæus ; and he was a chief publican, and he was rich. 3 And *he sought to see Jesus who he was ; and could not for the crowd, because he was little of stature. 4 And he ran on before, and climbed up into^a a sycomore tree to see him : for he was to pass that way. 5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and said unto him, Zacchæus, make haste, and come down ; for to-day^b I must abide at thy house. 6 And he made haste, and came down, and *received him joyfully. 7 And when they saw it, they all^c murmured, saying, He is gone in to lodge with a man that is a sinner. 8 And Zacchæus stood, and said unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods^d I give to the poor ; and if I have^e wrongfully exacted ought of any man, I restore^f fourfold. 9 And Jesus said unto him, To-day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as^h he also is a son of Abraham. 10 For *the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because^j they supposed that the kingdom of God was immediately to appear. 12 He said therefore, *A certain nobleman went into a far country, to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. 13 And he called^k ten² servants of his, and gave them ten³ pounds, and said unto them, Trade ye^l herewith^m till I come. 14 But *his citizens hated him, and sent an ambassage after him, saying, We will not that this man reign over us. 15 And it came to pass, when he was come back again, having received the kingdom, that he commanded these² servants, unto whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by trading. 16 And the first came before him, saying, Lord, thy pound hath made ten pounds more. 17 And he said unto him, Well done, thou good⁴ servant : because thou wast found⁵ faithful in a very little, *have thou authority over ten cities. 18 And the second came, saying, Thy pound, Lord, hath made five pounds. 19 And he said unto him also, Be thou also over five cities. 20 And⁶ another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I kept laid up in^a a napkin : 21 for I feared thee, because thou art⁷ an austere man : thou takest up⁸ that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow. 22 He saith unto him, *Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, *thou wicked⁹ servant. Thou knewest that I am⁷ an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow ; 23 then wherefore gavest thou not my money into the bank, and⁹ I at my coming should have required it with interest? 24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take away from him the pound, and give it unto him that hath the ten pounds. 25 And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds. 26 I say unto you, that^v unto every one that hath shall be given ; but from him that hath not, even that which he hath shall be taken away from him. 27 Howbeit¹⁰ *these mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and^w slay them before me.

28 And when he had thus spoken, *he went on before, *going up to Jerusalem.

29 *And it came to pass, when he drew nigh unto Bethphage and *Bethany, at the mount that is called^b the mount of Olives, he sent^c two of the disciples, 30 saying, Go your way into the village over against you ; in the which as ye enter ye shall find a colt tied, *whereon no man ever yet sat : loose him, and bring him. 31 And if any one ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say, The Lord hath need of him. 32 And they that were sent went away, and found^d even as he had said unto them. 33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them,

Why loose ye the colt? ³⁴ And they said, The Lord hath need of him. ³⁵ And they brought him to Jesus: and they threw their garments upon the colt, and set Jesus thereon. ³⁶ And as he went, they spread their garments in the way. ³⁷ And as he was now drawing nigh, even at the descent of the mount of Olives, ³⁸ the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice ³⁹ for all the mighty works which they had seen; ⁴⁰ saying, 'Blessed is the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and ⁴¹ glory in the highest. ⁴² And some of the Pharisees from the multitude said unto him, ⁴³ Master, rebuke thy disciples. ⁴⁴ And he answered and said, I tell you that, if these shall hold their peace, ⁴⁵ the stones will cry out.

⁴⁶ And when he drew nigh, he saw the city and wept over it, ⁴⁷ saying, ⁴⁸ If thou hadst known in this day, even thou, the things which belong unto peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes. ⁴⁹ For the days shall come upon thee, when thine enemies shall cast up a bank about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, ⁵⁰ and shall dash thee to the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

⁵¹ And he entered into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold, ⁵² saying unto them, It is written, ⁵³ And my house shall be a house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of robbers.

⁵⁴ And he was teaching daily in the temple. ⁵⁵ But the chief priests and the scribes and the principal men of the people sought to destroy him: ⁵⁶ and they could not find what they might do; for the people all hung upon him, listening.

or who is he that gave thee this authority? ⁶⁰ And he answered and said unto them, I also will ask you a question; and tell me: ⁶¹ The baptism of John, was it ⁶² from heaven, or from men? ⁶³ And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, 'Why did ye not believe him? ⁶⁴ But if we shall say, From men; all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was ⁶⁵ a prophet. ⁶⁶ And they answered, that they knew not whence it was. ⁶⁷ And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

⁶⁸ And he began to speak unto the people this parable: A man planted ⁶⁹ a vineyard, and ⁷⁰ let it out to husbandmen, and ⁷¹ went into another country for a long time. ⁷² And at the season he sent unto the husbandmen a ⁷³ servant, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: ⁷⁴ but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty. ⁷⁵ And he sent yet another ⁷⁶ servant: and him also they beat, and ⁷⁷ handled him shamefully, and sent him away empty. ⁷⁸ And he sent yet a third: and him also they wounded, and cast him forth. ⁷⁹ And the lord of the vineyard said, What shall I do? I will send my ⁸⁰ beloved son: it may be they will reverence him. ⁸¹ But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned one with another, saying, ⁸² This is the heir: let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours. ⁸³ And they cast him forth out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do unto them? ⁸⁴ He will come and destroy these husbandmen, and ⁸⁵ will give the vineyard unto others. And when they heard it, they said, ⁸⁶ God forbid. ⁸⁷ But he looked upon them, and said, What then is this that is written,

The same was made the head of the corner?

⁸⁸ Every one that falleth on that stone shall be broken to pieces; but ⁸⁹ on whomsoever it shall fall, it will scatter him as dust.

20 And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which feigned themselves to be righteous, that they might take hold of his speech, so as to deliver him up to the rule and to the authority of the governor. 21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, and acceptest not the person of any, but of a truth teachest the way of God: 22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Caesar, or not? 23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, 24 Shew me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? And they said, Caesar's. 25 And he said unto them, Then render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and unto God the things that are God's. 26 And they were not able to take hold of the saying before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 And there came to him certain of the Sadducees, they which say that there is no resurrection; and they asked him, 28 saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, that if a man's brother die, having a wife, and he be childless, his brother should take the wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. 29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died childless; 30 and the second; 31 and the third took her; and likewise the seven also left no children, and died. 32 Afterward the woman also died. 33 In the resurrection therefore whose wife of them shall she be? for the seven had her to wife. 34 And Jesus said unto them, The sons of this world marry, and are given in marriage: 35 but they that are accounted worthy to attain to that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage: 36 for neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. 37 But that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed in the place concerning the Bush, when he callesth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. 38 Now he is not the God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him. 39 And certain of the scribes answering said, Master, thou hast well said. 40 For they durst not any more ask him any question.

41 And he said unto them, How say they that the Christ is David's son? 42 For David himself saith in the book of Psalms,

The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet.

44 David therefore calleth him Lord, and how is he his son?

45 And in the hearing of all the people he said unto his disciples, 46 Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love salutations in the marketplaces, and chief seats in the synagogues, and chief places at feasts; 47 which devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater condemnation.

21 And he looked up, and saw the rich men that were casting their gifts into the treasury. 2 And he saw a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites. 3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, This poor widow cast in more than they all: 4 for all these did of their superfluity cast in unto the gifts: but she of her want did cast in all the living that she had.

5 And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and offerings, he said, 6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in which there shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. 7 And they asked him, saying, Master, when therefore shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when these things are about to come to pass? 8 And he said, Take heed that ye be not led astray: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am he; and, The time is at hand: go ye not after them. 9 And when ye shall hear of wars and tumults, be not terrified: for these things ^m must needs come to pass first; but the end is not immediately.

10 Then said he unto them, ⁿ Nation shall rise against nation, and ^o kingdom against kingdom: 11 and there shall be great ^p earthquakes, and in divers places ^q famines and pestilences; and there shall be ^r terrors and great ^s signs from heaven. 12 But before all these things, ^t they shall lay their hands on you, and shall persecute you, delivering you up to ^u the synagogues and ^v prisons, ^w bringing you before ^x kings and ^y governors for my name's sake. 13 ^z It shall turn unto you for a testimony. 14 Settle it therefore in your hearts, ^a not to meditate beforehand how to answer: 15 for ^b I will give you a mouth and ^c wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to withstand or ^d to gainsay. 16 But ye shall be delivered up ^e even by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolk, and friends; and ^f some of you ^g shall they cause to be put to death. 17 ^h And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake. 18 And ⁱ not a hair of your head shall perish. 19 In your ^j patience ^k ye shall win your ^l souls.

20 But ^m when ye see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that ⁿ her desolation is at hand. 21 Then let them that are in Judaea flee unto the mountains; and let them that are in the midst of her depart out; and let not them that are in the country enter therein. 22 For these are ^o days of ^p vengeance, ^q that all things which are written may be fulfilled. 23 ^r Woe unto them that are with child and to them that give suck in those days! for there shall be great distress upon the ^s land, and ^t wrath unto this people. 24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and ^u shall be led captive into all the nations: and ^v Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, ^w until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled. 25 And ^x there shall be signs in sun and moon ^y and stars; and upon the earth ^z distress of nations, in perplexity for the roaring of the sea and the billows; 26 men

29 And he spake to them a parable: Behold the fig tree, and all the trees: 30 when they now shoot forth, ye see it and know ^h of your own selves that the summer is now nigh. 31 Even so ye also, when ye see these things coming to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh. 32 ⁱ Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all things be accomplished. 33 ^j Heaven and earth shall pass away: but ^k my words shall not pass away.

34 But take heed to yourselves, ^l lest haply ^m your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and ⁿ cares of this life, and ^o that day come on you suddenly ^p as a snare: 35 for ^q so shall it come ^r upon all them that dwell on the face of all the earth. 36 But ^s watch ye at every season, ^t making supplication, that ye may ^u prevail to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and ^v to stand before the Son of man.

37 And ^w every day he was teaching in the temple; and ^x every night he went out, and lodged in the mount that is called ^y the mount of Olives. 38 And ^z all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, to hear him.

1 ^a Now the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called ^b the Passover. 2 And the chief priests and the scribes ^c sought how they might put him to death; for they feared the people.

3 ^d And ^e Satan entered into ^f Judas who was called Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve. 4 And he went away, and communed with the chief priests and ^g captains, how he might deliver him unto them. 5 And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money. 6 And he consented, and sought opportunity to deliver him unto them ¹ in the absence of the multitude.

7^a And ^b the day of unleavened bread came, on which the passover must be sacrificed. 8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and make ready for us the passover, that we may eat. 9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we make ready? 10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house whereinto he goeth. 11 And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, 'The ² Master saith unto thee, Where is ^c the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? 12 And he will shew you ^a a large upper room furnished: there make ready. 13 And they went, and found ^d as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

14^e And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the apostles with him. 15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer: 16 for I say unto you, I will not eat of it, ^a until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God. 17 And he received a cup, and ^b when he had given thanks, he said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves: 18^f for I say unto you, I will not drink from henceforth of the fruit of the vine, ^a until the kingdom of God shall come. 19^g And he took ^b bread, and ^c when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave to them, saying, 'This is my body ^d which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. 20 And the cup in like manner after supper, saying, 'This cup is ^e the new ^f covenant in my blood, ^g even that which is poured out for you. 21^h But behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is ⁱ with me on the table. 22 For the Son of man indeed goeth, ^a as it hath been determined: but woe unto that man through whom he is betrayed! 23 And they began to question among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

is accounted to be ^b greatest. 25^c And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles ^d have lordship over them; and they that have authority over them are called ^e Benefactors. 26^f But ye ^g shall not be so: but ^h he that is the greater among you, let him become as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. 27 For whether is greater, ^a he that ^b sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that ^c sitteth at meat? but ^d I am in the midst of you as he that serveth. 28 But ye are they which have continued with me ^e in my temptations; 29 and ^f I appoint unto you a kingdom, even as my Father appointed unto me, 30^g that ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom; and ^h ye shall sit on thrones judging ⁱ the twelve tribes of Israel. 31 Simon, Simon, behold, ^a Satan ^b asked to have you, ^c that he might sift you as wheat: 32 but ^d I made supplication for thee, that thy faith fail not: and do thou, when once thou hast turned again, ^e stablish thy brethren. 33 And he said unto him, Lord, with thee I am ready to go both ^a to prison and ^b to death. 34^f And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, until thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 And he said unto them, ^a When I sent you forth without purse, and wallet, and shoes, lacked ye anything? And they said, Nothing. 36 And he said unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise a wallet: ^b and he that hath none, let him sell his cloke, and buy a sword. 37 For I say unto you, that ^c 'this which is written must be fulfilled in me, ^d And he was reckoned with transgressors: for ^e that which concerneth me hath ^f fulfilment. 38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two ^a swords. And he said unto them, ^b It is enough.

39^c And he came out, and went, ^d as his custom was, unto ^e the mount of Olives; and the disciples also followed him. 40^f And when he was at ^a the place, he said unto them, ^vPray that ye ^wenter not into temptation. ⁴¹And he was parted from them about a stone's cast; and ^zhe kneeled down and prayed, ⁴²saying, ^yFather, if thou be willing, remove ^zthis cup from me: ^a"nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done. ⁴³¹And there appeared unto him ^ban angel from heaven, strengthening him. ⁴⁴And ^vbeing in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat became as it were great drops of blood falling down upon the ground. ⁴⁵And when he rose up from his prayer, he came unto the disciples, and found them sleeping for sorrow, ⁴⁶and said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and ^cpray, that ye enter not into temptation.

⁴⁷^dWhile he yet spake, behold, a multitude, and he that was called ^eJudas, one of the twelve, went before them; and he drew near unto Jesus to kiss him. ⁴⁸But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss? ⁴⁹And when they that were about him saw what would follow, they said, Lord, shall we smite ^fwith the sword? ⁵⁰And a certain one of them smote the ^gservant of the high priest, and struck off his right ear. ⁵¹But Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him. ⁵²And Jesus said unto the chief priests, and ^hcaptains of the temple, and elders, which were come against him, Are ye come out, as against a robber, with swords and staves? ⁵³When ⁱI was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched not forth your hands against me: but this is ^jyour hour, and ^kthe power of darkness.

said, Thou also art ^oone of them. But Peter said, Man, I am not. ⁵⁹And after the space of about one hour another ^pconfidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this man also was with him: for he is a Galilean. ⁶⁰But Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew. ⁶¹And the Lord turned, and ^qlooked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how that he said unto him, ^r"Before the cock crow this day, thou shalt ^sdeny me thrice. ⁶²And he went out, and wept bitterly.

⁶³^tAnd the men that held ^uJesus mocked him, and beat him. ⁶⁴^vAnd they blindfolded him, and asked him, saying, ^wProphecy: ^x"who is he that struck thee? ⁶⁵And many other things spake they against him, ^yreviling him.

⁶⁶^zAnd as soon as it was day, ^athe assembly of the elders of the people was gathered together, both chief priests and scribes; and they led him away into their ^bcouncil, ^csaying, ⁶⁷^d"If thou art ^ethe Christ, tell us. But he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe: ⁶⁸and if I ask ^fyou, ye will not answer. ⁶⁹But from henceforth shall the Son of man be seated ^gat the right hand of the power of God. ⁷⁰And they all said, Art thou then ^hthe Son of God? And he said unto them, ⁱ"Ye say that I am. ⁷¹And they said, What further need have we of witness? for we ourselves have heard from his own mouth.

¹^jAnd the whole company ^kof them rose up, and brought him before Pilate. ²And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this man ^l"perverting our nation, and ^mforbidding to give tribute to ⁿCæsar, and saying that he himself is ^oChrist ^pa king. ³And Pilate asked him, saying, ^q"Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, ^r"Thou sayest. ⁴And Pilate said unto the chief priests and the multitudes, ^s"I find no fault in this man. ⁵But they were the more urgent, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, and ^t"beginning from Galilee even unto this place. ⁶But when Pilate heard it, he asked whether the man were a Galilean. 7 And when he knew that he was of Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him unto Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem in these days.

8 Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was of a long time desirous to see him, because he had heard concerning him; and he hoped to see some miracle done by him. 9 And he questioned him in many words; but he answered him nothing. 10 And the chief priests and the scribes stood, vehemently accusing him. 11 And Herod with his soldiers set him at nought, and mocked him, and arraying him in gorgeous apparel sent him back to Pilate. 12 And Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 And Pilate called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, 14 and said unto them, Ye brought unto me this man, as one that perverteth the people: and behold, I, having examined him before you, found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him: no, nor yet Herod: 15 for he sent him back unto us; and behold, nothing worthy of death hath been done by him. 16 I will therefore chastise him, and release him. 18 But they cried out altogether, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas: 19 one who for a certain insurrection made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison. 20 And Pilate spake unto them again, desiring to release Jesus; 21 but they shouted, saying, Crucify, crucify him. 22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath this man done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him and release him. 23 But they were instant with loud voices, asking that he might be crucified. And their voices prevailed. 24 And Pilate gave sentence that what they asked for should be done. 25 And he released him that for insurrection and murder had been cast into prison, whom they asked for;

*but Jesus he delivered up to their will.

26 And when they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, and laid on him the cross, to bear it after Jesus.

27 And there followed him a great multitude of the people, and of women who bewailed and lamented him. 28 But Jesus turning unto them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children. 29 For behold, the days are coming, in which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the breasts that never gave suck. 30 Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us. 31 For if they do these things in the green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 And there were also two others, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

33 And when they came unto the place which is called The skull, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand and the other on the left. 34 And Jesus said, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And parting his garments among them, they cast lots. 35 And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also scoffed at him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself. If this is the Christ of God, his chosen. 36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, offering him vinegar, 37 and saying, If thou art the King of the Jews, save thyself. 38 And there was also a superscription over him, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, Art not thou the Christ? save thyself and us. 40 But the other answered, and rebuking him said, Dost thou not even fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? 41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds : but this man hath done nothing amiss. 42 And he said, Jesus, remember me ^o when thou comest ¹ in thy kingdom. 43 And he said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in ² Paradise.

44 And it was now about the sixth hour, and a darkness came over the whole ³ land until the ninth hour, ⁴ the sun's light failing : 45 and ⁵ the veil of the ⁶ temple was rent in the midst. 46 And ⁷ when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, ⁸ into thy hands I ⁹ commend my spirit : and having said this, ¹⁰ he gave up the ghost. 47 And ¹¹ when the centurion saw what was done, ¹² he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man. 48 And all the multitudes that came together to this sight, when they beheld the things that were done, returned ¹³ smiting their breasts. 49 And all ¹⁴ his acquaintance, and ¹⁵ the women that followed with him from Galilee ¹⁶ stood afar off, seeing these things.

50 And behold, a man named Joseph, who was a councillor, a good man and a righteous ¹⁷ (he had not consented to their counsel and deed), a man of Arimathæa, a city of the Jews, who ¹⁸ was looking for the kingdom of God : 52 this man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. 53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and ¹⁹ laid him in a tomb that was hewn in stone, ²⁰ where never man had yet lain. 54 And it was the day of ²¹ the Preparation, and the sabbath ²² drew on. 55 And ²³ the women, ²⁴ which had come with him out of Galilee, followed after, and beheld the tomb, and how his body was laid. 56 And they returned, and ²⁵ prepared spices and ointments.

And on the sabbath they rested ²⁶ according to the commandment.

27 But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came unto the tomb, ²⁷ bringing the spices which they had prepared. 28 And they found ²⁸ the stone rolled away from the tomb. 3 And they entered in, and found not the body ²⁹ of the Lord Jesus. 4 And it came to pass, while they were perplexed thereabout, behold, ³⁰ two ³¹ men stood by them in dazzling apparel : 5 and as they were ³² 'af-frighted, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye ³³ the living among the dead? 6 He is not here, but is risen : remember how he spake unto you ³⁴ when he was yet in Galilee, 7 ³⁵ saying that the Son of man ³⁶ must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and ³⁷ be crucified, and ³⁸ the third day rise again. 8 And ³⁹ they remembered his words, 9 and returned ⁴⁰ from the tomb, and ⁴¹ told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest. 10 Now they were ⁴² Mary Magdalene, and ⁴³ Joanna, and Mary the mother of James : and the other women with them told these things unto the apostles. 11 And these words appeared in their sight as idle talk ; and ⁴⁴ they disbelieved them. 12 ⁴⁵ But ⁴⁶ Peter arose, and ran unto the tomb ; and stooping and looking in, he seeth ⁴⁷ the linen cloths by themselves ; and he ⁴⁸ departed to his home, wondering at that which was come to pass.

13 And behold, ⁴⁹ two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was three-score furlongs from Jerusalem. 14 And they communed with each other of all these things which had happened. 15 And it came to pass, while they communed and questioned together, that Jesus himself drew near, and went with them. 16 ⁵⁰ But their eyes were holden that they should not know him. 17 And he said unto them, ⁵¹ What communications are these that ye have one with another, as ye walk? And they stood still, looking sad. 18 And one of them, named Cleopas, answering said unto him, ⁵² Dost thou alone sojourn in Jerusalem and not know the things which are come to pass there in these days? 19 And he said unto them, What things? priests and ^uour rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him. ²¹ But we hoped that it was he ^vwhich should redeem Israel. Yea and beside all this, it is now ^wthe third day since these things came to pass. ²² Moreover certain women of our company amazed us, ^xhaving been early at the tomb; ²³ and ^ywhen they found not his body, they came, saying, that ^zthey had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive. ²⁴ And certain of them that were with us went to the tomb, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not. ²⁵ And he said unto them, O foolish men, and slow of heart to believe ¹in all that the prophets have spoken! ²⁶ Behoved it not ²the Christ to suffer these things, and to enter into ³his glory? ²⁷ And ⁴beginning from ⁵Moses and from ⁶all the prophets, he interpreted to them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself. ²⁸ And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they were going: and ⁷he made as though he would go further. ²⁹ And they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and ⁸the day is now far spent. And he went in to abide with them. ³⁰ And it came to pass, when he had sat down with them to meat, he took the ⁹bread, and ¹⁰blessed it, and brake, and gave to them. ³¹ And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and ¹¹he vanished out of their sight. ³² And they said one to another, ¹²Was not our heart burning within us, while he spake to us in the way, while he ¹³opened to us the scriptures? ³³ And they rose up that very hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and ¹⁴found the eleven gathered together, and ¹⁵them that were with them, ³⁴saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and ¹⁶bath appeared to Simon. ³⁵ And they rehearsed the things that ¹⁷happened in the way, and ¹⁸how he was known of them in ¹⁹the breaking of the bread.

³⁶ And as they spake these things, ²⁰he himself stood in the midst of them, ²¹and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. ³⁷ But they were ²²terrified and ²³affrighted, and ²⁴supposed that they beheld a spirit. ³⁸ And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and wherefore do reasonings arise in your heart? ³⁹ See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: ²⁵handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye behold me having. ⁴⁰ And when he had said this, ²⁶he shewed them his hands and his feet. ⁴¹ And while they still disbelieved ²⁷for joy, and wondered, ²⁸he said unto them, Have ye here anything to eat? ⁴² And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish. ⁴³ And he took it, and ²⁹did eat before them.

⁴⁴ And he said unto them, ³⁰These are my words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, ³¹how that all things must needs be fulfilled, which are written in the law of Moses, and the prophets, and ³²the psalms, concerning me. ⁴⁵ Then ³³opened he their mind, that they might understand the scriptures; ⁴⁶ and he said unto them, Thus ³⁴it is written, ³⁵that the Christ should suffer, and ³⁶rise again from the dead the third day; ⁴⁷ and that ³⁷repentance ³⁸and remission of sins should be preached ³⁹in his name ⁴⁰unto all the ⁴¹nations, ⁴²beginning from Jerusalem. ⁴⁸ Ye are witnesses of these things. ⁴⁹ And behold, I send forth ⁴³the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city, until ye ⁴⁴be clothed with ⁴⁵power ⁴⁶from on high.

⁵⁰ And ⁴⁷he led them out until they were over against ⁴⁸Bethany: and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them. ⁵¹ And it came to pass, while he blessed them, ⁴⁹he parted from them, ⁵⁰and was carried up into heaven. ⁵² And they ⁵¹worshipped him, and ⁵²returned to Jerusalem ⁵³with great joy: ⁵³ and ⁵⁴were continually in the temple, ⁵⁵blessing God.

came ¹ by Jesus Christ. ¹⁸ No man hath seen God at any time; ¹⁹ the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, ²⁰ he hath declared him.

¹⁹ And this is the witness of John, when the Jews sent unto him from Jerusalem priests and Levites to ask him, ²⁰ Who art thou? ²¹ And he confessed, and denied not; and he confessed, I am not the Christ. ²² And they asked him, What then? ²³ Art thou Elijah? And he saith, I am not. ²⁴ Art thou the prophet? And he answered, No. ²⁵ They said therefore unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself? ²⁶ He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said Isaiah the prophet. ²⁷ And they had been sent from the Pharisees. ²⁸ And they asked him, and said unto him, Why then baptizest thou, if thou art not the Christ, neither Elijah, neither the prophet? ²⁹ John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: in the midst of you standeth one whom ye know not, ³⁰ even he that cometh after me, the latchet of whose shoe I am not worthy to unloose. ³¹ These things were done in Bethany beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

³² On the morrow he seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold, the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world! ³³ This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is become before me: for he was before me. ³⁴ And I knew him not; but that he should be made manifest to Israel, for this cause came I baptizing with water. ³⁵ And John bare witness, saying, I have beheld the Spirit descending as a dove out of heaven; and it abode upon him. ³⁶ And I knew him not: but ^ohe that sent me to baptize ^{1a} with water, he said unto me, Upon whomsoever thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and abiding upon him, ^{the} same is he that baptizeth ^{1a} with the Holy Spirit. ³⁴ And I have seen, and have borne witness that this is the Son of God.

³⁵ Again on the morrow John was standing, and two of his disciples; ³⁶ and he looked upon Jesus as he walked, and saith, Behold, ^{the} Lamb of God! ³⁷ And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus. ³⁸ And Jesus turned, and beheld them following, and saith unto them, ² What seek ye? And they said unto him, ¹ Rabbi (which is to say, being interpreted, ³ Master), where abidest thou? ³⁹ He saith unto them, Come, and ye shall see. They came therefore and saw where he abode; and they abode with him that day: it was about the tenth hour. ⁴⁰ ^{One} of the two that heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. ⁴¹ He findeth first his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found ^{the} Messiah (which is, being interpreted, ³⁰ Christ). ⁴² He brought him unto Jesus. Jesus looked upon him, and said, Thou art Simon the son of ¹² John: thou shalt be called ² Cephas (which is by interpretation, ⁵ Peter).

⁴³ On ^{the} morrow he was minded ^{to} go forth into Galilee, and he findeth Philip: and Jesus saith unto him, Follow me. ⁴⁴ Now ² Philip was from Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter. ⁴⁵ Philip findeth ² Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom ² Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus ² of Nazareth, ^{the} son of Joseph. ⁴⁶ And Nathanael said unto him, ^{Can} any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see. ⁴⁷ Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold, ^{an} Israelite indeed, ⁱⁿ whom is no guile! ⁴⁸ Nathanael saith unto him, Whence ² knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee. ⁴⁹ Nathanael answered him, ² Rabbi, ^{thou} art the Son of God; ^{thou} art ² King of Israel. ⁵⁰ Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee underneath the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these. ⁵¹ And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye shall see ^{the} heaven opened, and ^{the} angels of God ascending and descending upon ^{the} Son of man.

¹ And ^{the} third day there was ² a marriage in ² Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there: ² and Jesus also was bidden, and ^{his} disciples, to the marriage. ³ And when the wine failed, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine. ⁴ And Jesus saith unto her, ² Woman, ^{what} have I to do with thee? ² mine hour is not yet come. ⁵ His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it. ⁶ Now there were six waterpots of stone set there ² after the Jews' manner of purifying, containing two or three ² firkins apiece. ⁷ Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. ⁸ And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the ² ruler of the feast. And they bare it. ⁹ And when the ruler of the feast tasted ^{the} water ⁷ now become wine, and knew not whence it was (but the servants which had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast calleth the bridegroom, ¹⁰ and saith unto him, Every man setteth on first the good wine; and when men have drunk freely, then that which is worse: thou hast kept the good wine until now. ¹¹ This beginning of his signs did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested ^{his} glory; and ^{his} disciples believed on him.

¹³ And ^{the} passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus ² went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁴ ² And he found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: ¹⁵ and he made a scourge of cords, and cast all out

1 Or, in 2 Or, Teacher 3 That is, Anointed. 4 Gr. Joannes: called in Matt. 16. 17, Jonah. 5 That is, Rock or Stone. 6 Or, steward 7 Or, that it had become of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the changers' money, and overthrew their tables; ¹⁶and to them that sold the doves he said, Take these things hence; make not ¹⁷my Father's house a house of merchandise. ¹⁷His disciples remembered that it was written, ¹⁸The zeal of thine house shall eat me up. ¹⁸The Jews therefore answered and said unto him, ¹⁹What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things? ¹⁹Jesus answered and said unto them, ²⁰Destroy this ¹temple, and in three days ²¹I will raise it up. ²⁰The Jews therefore said, Forty and six years was this ¹temple in building, and wilt thou raise it up in three days? ²¹But he spake of ²the ¹temple of his body. ²²When therefore he was raised from the dead, ²his disciples remembered that he spake this; and they believed ³the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

¹Now there was a man of the Pharisees, named ²Nicodemus, ²a ruler of the Jews: ²a the same came unto him ³by night, and said to him, ⁴Rabbi, ⁵we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these signs that thou doest, ⁶except God be with him. ³Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be ⁷born ⁸anew, he cannot ⁹see the kingdom of God. ⁴Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born? ⁵Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born ¹⁰of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. ⁶That which is born of the flesh is ¹¹flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit ¹²is spirit. ⁷Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born

⁸anew. ⁸The wind bloweth ⁹where it listeth, and thou hearest the voice thereof, but knowest not whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit. ⁹Nicodemus answered and said unto him, ¹⁰How can these things be? ¹⁰Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou the teacher of Israel, ¹¹and understandest not these things? ¹¹Verily, verily, I say unto thee, ¹²We speak that we do know, and bear witness of that we have seen; and ¹³ye receive not our witness. ¹²If I told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you heavenly things? ¹³And ¹⁴no man hath ascended into heaven, but ¹⁵he that descended out of heaven, ¹⁶even the Son of man, ¹⁷which is in heaven. ¹⁴And ¹⁸as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man ¹⁹be lifted up: ¹⁵that whosoever ²⁰believeth may ²¹in him ²²have eternal life.

¹⁶For ²³God so loved ²⁴the world, ²⁵that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not ²⁶perish, but have eternal life. ¹⁷For ²⁷God sent not the Son into the world ²⁸to judge the world; but that the world should be saved through him. ¹⁸He that believeth on him is not judged: he that believeth not hath been judged already, because he hath not ²⁹believed on the name of the only begotten Son of God. ¹⁹And this is the judgement, that ³⁰the light is come into the world, and ³¹men loved the darkness rather than the light; for ³²their works were evil. ²⁰For every one that ³³doeth ill hateth the light, and cometh not to the light, ³⁴lest his works should be ³⁵reproved. ²¹But he that ³⁶doeth the truth ³⁷cometh to the light, that his works may be made manifest, ³⁸that they have been wrought in God.

²²After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judea; and there he tarried with them, and ³⁹baptized. ²³And John also was baptizing in ⁴⁰Ænon near to ⁴¹Salim, because there ⁴²was much water there: and they came, and were baptized. ²⁴For ⁴³John was not yet cast into prison. ²⁵There arose therefore a questioning on the part of John's disciples with a Jew about ^apurifying. ²⁶And they came unto John, and said to him, ^bRabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, ^cto whom thou hast borne witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and ^dall men come to him. ²⁷John answered and said, ^eA man can receive nothing, ^fexcept it have been given him ^gfrom heaven. ²⁸Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, ^hI am not the Christ, but, that ⁱI am sent before him. ²⁹^mHe that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but ⁿthe friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, ^orejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled. ³⁰^pHe must increase, but I must decrease. ³¹^qHe that cometh from above ^ris above all: he that is of the earth is of the earth, and of the earth ^she speaketh: ^the that cometh from heaven ^uis above all. ³²^vWhat he hath seen and heard, of that he beareth witness; ^wand no man receiveth his witness. ³³He that hath received his witness ^xhath set his seal to ^ythis, ^zthat God is true. ³⁴For he whom ^aGod hath sent speaketh the words of God: for he giveth not the Spirit ^bby measure. ³⁵^cThe Father loveth the Son, and ^dhath given all things into his hand. ³⁶^eHe that believeth on the Son hath eternal life; but ^fhe that ^gobeyeth not the Son shall not ^hsee life, but the wrath of God abideth on him.

¹When therefore the Lord ⁴knew how that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and ^abaptizing more disciples than John ^b(although Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples), ³he left Judæa, and departed ^cagain into Galilee. ⁴And ^dthe multitudes pass through Samaria. ⁵So he cometh to a city of Samaria, called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground ^ethat Jacob gave to his son Joseph: ⁶and Jacob's ^fwell was there. Jesus therefore, ^gbeing wearied with his journey, sat ^hthus by the ⁱwell. It was about the sixth hour. ⁷There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, ⁸Give me to drink. ⁹For his disciples were gone away into the city to buy food. ⁹The Samaritan woman therefore saith unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a Samaritan woman? ¹⁰^mFor Jews have no dealings with Samaritans. ¹⁰Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee ⁿliving water. ¹¹The woman saith unto him, ^oSir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water? ¹²^pArt thou greater than our father Jacob, ^qwhich gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his sons, and his cattle? ¹³Jesus answered and said unto her, Every one that drinketh of this water shall thirst again: ¹⁴but ^rwhosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him ^sshall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall become ^tin him a well of water springing up unto eternal life. ¹⁵The woman saith unto him, ^uSir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come all the way hither to draw. ¹⁶Jesus saith unto her, Go, ^vcall thy husband, and come hither. ¹⁷The woman answered and said unto him, I have no husband. Jesus saith unto her, Thou saidst well, I have no husband: ^wfor thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: this hast thou said truly. ¹⁹The woman saith unto him, ^xSir, I perceive that ^ythou art ^za prophet. ²⁰^aOur fathers worshipped in ^bthis mountain; and ye say, that ^cin Jerusalem is ^dthe place where men ought to worship. ²¹Jesus saith unto her, ^eWoman, believe me, ^fthe hour cometh, when ^gneither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, shall ye worship the Father. ²²^hYe worship that which ye know not: ⁱwe worship that which we know: ^jfor salvation is ^kfrom the Jews. ²³But ^lthe hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father ^min spirit and ⁿtruth: ^ofor such doth the Father

²⁴ seek to be his worshippers. ²⁴ God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship in spirit and truth. ²⁵ The woman saith unto him, I know that ¹ Messiah cometh (which is called Christ): when he is come, ² he will declare unto us all things. ²⁶ Jesus saith unto her, ³ I that speak unto thee am ^{he}.

³² But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not. ³³ The disciples therefore said one to another, ⁷ Hath any man brought him ought to eat? ³⁴ Jesus saith unto them, ⁸ My meat is ⁹ to do the will of him that sent me, and ¹⁰ to accomplish his work. ³⁵ Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh the harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields, ¹¹ that they are ¹² white already unto harvest. ³⁶ He that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal; that ¹³ he that soweth and ¹⁴ he that reapeth ¹⁵ may rejoice together.

³⁹ And ¹⁹ from that city many of the Samaritans believed on him ²⁰ because of the word of the woman, ²¹ who testified, He told me all things that ever I did. ⁴⁰ So when the Samaritans came unto him, they besought him to abide with them: and he abode there two days. ⁴¹ And many more believed ²² because of his word; ⁴² and they said to the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy speaking: for we have heard for ourselves, ²³ and know that this is indeed ²⁴ the Saviour ²⁵ of the world.

⁴³ And after ²⁶ the two days he went forth from thence into Galilee. ⁴⁴ For Jesus himself testified, ²⁷ that a prophet hath no honour in his own country. ⁴⁵ So when he came into Galilee, the Galilæans received him, ²⁸ having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast: for ²⁹ they also went unto the feast.

⁴⁶ He came therefore again unto ³⁰ Cana of Galilee, ³¹ where he made the water wine. And there was a certain ³² nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum. ⁴⁷ When he heard that Jesus ³³ was come out of Judæa into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought ³⁴ him that he would come down, and heal his son; for he was at the point of death. ⁴⁸ Jesus therefore said unto him, ³⁵ Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will in no wise believe. ⁴⁹ The ³⁶ nobleman saith unto him, ³⁷ Sir, come down ³⁸ ere my child die. ⁵⁰ Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. The man believed the word that Jesus spake unto him, and he went his way. ⁵¹ And as he was now going down, his ³⁹ servants met him, saying, that his son lived. ⁵² So he inquired of them the hour when he began to amend. They said therefore unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. ⁵³ So the father knew that ⁴⁰ it was at that hour in which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, ⁴¹ and his whole house. ⁵⁴ This is again the second sign that Jesus did, having come out of Judæa into Galilee.

¹ After these things there ⁵ was ⁴² a ⁴³ feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

² Now there is in Jerusalem by ⁴⁴ the sheep gate a pool, which is called in Hebrew ⁴⁵ Bethesda, having five porches. ³ In these lay a multitude of them that were sick, blind, halt, ⁴⁶ withered ⁴⁷. ⁴ And a certain man was there, which had been thirty and eight years in his infirmity. ⁶ When Jesus saw him

1 Or, God is spirit. 2 Or, white unto harvest. Already he that reapeth &c. 3 Or, king's officer. 4 Or, Lord. 5 Or, bondservants. 6 Many ancient authorities read the feast. 7 Some ancient authorities read Bethesda, others, Bethesda. 8 Many ancient authorities insert, wholly or in part, waiting for the moving of the water: 4 for an angel of the Lord went down at certain seasons into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole, with whatsoever disease he was holden.

lying, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wouldest thou be made whole? ⁷ The sick man answered him, ¹ Sir, I have no man, ² when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me. ³ Jesus saith unto him, ⁴ Arise, take up thy bed, and walk. ⁹ And straightway the man was made whole, and took up his bed and walked.

¹⁰ Now it was the sabbath on that day. ¹⁰ So the Jews said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath, and ¹¹ it is not lawful for thee to take up thy bed. ¹¹ But he answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk. ¹² They asked him, Who is the man that said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk? ¹³ But he that was healed wist not who it was: for ¹⁴ Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in the place. ¹⁴ Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: ¹⁵ sin no more, ¹⁵ lest a worse thing befall thee. ¹⁵ The man went away, and told the Jews that it was Jesus which had made him whole. ¹⁶ And for this cause did the Jews ¹⁶ persecute Jesus, ¹⁶ because he did these things on the sabbath. ¹⁷ But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh even until now, and I work. ¹⁸ For this cause therefore the Jews ¹⁸ sought the more to kill him, ¹⁸ because he not only ¹⁸ brake the sabbath, but also called God ¹⁸ his own Father, ¹⁸ making himself equal with God.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, ¹⁹ The Son ¹⁹ can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father doing: for what things soever he doeth, these the Son also doeth in like manner. ²⁰ For ²⁰ the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and ²⁰ greater works than these will he shew him, that ²⁰ ye may marvel. ²¹ For as the Father ²¹ raiseth the dead and ²¹ quickeneth them, even so ²¹ the Son also quickeneth ²¹ whom he will. ²² For neither ²² doth the Father judge any man, but he ²³ hath given all judgement unto the Son; ²³ that all may honour the Son, even as they ²³ honour the Father. ²⁴ He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which sent him. ²⁴ Verily, verily, I say unto you, ²⁴ He that heareth my word, and ²⁴ believeth him that sent me, hath eternal life, and ²⁴ cometh not into judgement, but ²⁴ hath passed out of death into life. ²⁵ Verily, verily, I say unto you, ²⁵ The hour cometh, and now is, when ²⁵ the dead shall hear ²⁵ the voice of the Son of God; and they that hear ²⁵ shall live. ²⁶ For as the Father hath life in himself, ²⁶ even so gave he to the Son also to have life in himself: ²⁷ and he ²⁷ gave him authority to execute judgement, because he is ²⁷ the Son of man. ²⁸ Marvel not at this: for ²⁸ the hour cometh, in which ²⁸ all that are in the tombs shall hear his voice, ²⁹ and shall come forth; ²⁹ they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have ²⁹ done ill, unto the resurrection of judgement.

³⁰ I can of myself do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and ³⁰ my judgement is righteous; because ³⁰ I seek not mine own will, ³⁰ but the will of him that sent me. ³¹ If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true. ³² It is ³² another that beareth witness of me; and ³² I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true. ³³ Ye have sent unto John, and he hath borne witness unto the truth. ³⁴ But ³⁴ the witness which I receive is not from man: howbeit I say these things, that ye may be saved. ³⁵ He was the lamp that burneth and ³⁵ shineth: and ³⁵ ye were willing to rejoice for a season in his light. ³⁶ But ³⁶ the witness which I have is greater than ³⁶ that of John: for ³⁶ the works which the Father hath given me ³⁶ to accomplish, the very works that I do, ³⁶ bear witness of me, that ³⁶ the Father hath sent me. ³⁷ And the Father which sent me, ³⁷ he hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, ³⁸ nor seen his form. ³⁸ And ³⁸ ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he sent, him ye believe not. 39¹ Ye search the scriptures, because ye think that in them ye have eternal life; and these are they which bear witness of me; 40 and ye will not come to me, that ye may have life. 41¹ I receive not glory from men. 42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in yourselves. 43 I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive. 44 How can ye believe, which receive glory one of another, and the glory that cometh from the only God ye seek not? 45 Think not that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, on whom ye have set your hope. 46 For if ye believed Moses, ye would believe me; for he wrote of me. 47 But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

6 After these things Jesus went away to the other side of the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias. 2 And a great multitude followed him, because they beheld the signs which he did on them that were sick. 3 And Jesus went up into the mountain, and there he sat with his disciples. 4 Now the passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand. 5 Jesus therefore lifting up his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude cometh unto him, saith unto Philip, Whence are we to buy bread, that these may eat? 6 And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do. 7 Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one may take a little. 8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, 9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two fishes: but what are these among so many? 10 Jesus said, Make the people sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. 11 Jesus therefore took the loaves; and having given thanks, he distributed to them that were set down; likewise also of the fishes as much as they would.

12 And when they were filled, he saith unto his disciples, Gather up the broken pieces which remain over, that nothing be lost. 13 So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which remained over unto them that had eaten. 14 When therefore the people saw the sign which he did, they said, This is of a truth the prophet that cometh into the world.

15 Jesus therefore perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force, to make him king, withdrew again into the mountain himself alone.

16 And when evening came, his disciples went down unto the sea; 17 and they entered into a boat, and were going over the sea unto Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. 18 And the sea was rising by reason of a great wind that blew. 19 When therefore they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they behold Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the boat: and they were afraid. 20 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid. 21 They were willing therefore to receive him into the boat: and straightway the boat was at the land whither they were going.

22 On the morrow the multitude which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save one, and that Jesus entered not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples went away alone. 23 (howbeit there came boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks): 24 when the multitude therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they themselves got into the boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus. 25 And when they found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither? 26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw signs, but because ye ate of the loaves, and were filled. 27 "Work not for the meat which perisheth, but for "the meat which abideth unto eternal life, which "the Son of man shall give unto you: for "him the Father, even God, hath sealed. 28 They said therefore unto him, What must we do, that we may work "the works of God? 29 Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, "that ye believe on him whom I "he hath sent. 30 They said therefore unto him, "What then doest thou for a sign, that we may see, and believe thee? what workest thou? 31 "Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, "He gave them bread out of heaven to eat. 32 Jesus therefore said unto them, Verily, verily,

 I say unto you, It was not Moses that gave you the bread out of heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread out of heaven. 33 For the bread of God is "that which cometh down out of heaven, and giveth life unto the world. 34 They said therefore unto him, "Lord, evermore give us this bread. 35 Jesus said unto them, "I am the bread of life: "he that cometh to me shall not hunger, and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. 36 But "I said unto you, that ye have seen me, and yet believe not. 37 "All that which "the Father giveth me shall come unto me; and "him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. 38 For "I am come down from heaven, not to do "mine own will,
 but "the will of him "that sent me.
 39 And "this is the will of him that sent me, that of "all that which he hath given me "I should lose nothing, but "should raise it up at the last day. 40 For this is the will of my Father, that every one that "beholdeth the Son, and "believeth on him, "should have eternal life; and "I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews therefore murmured concerning him, because he said,
 "I am the bread which came down out of heaven. 42 And they said,
 "Is not this Jesus, "the son of Joseph, whose father and mother
 "we know? how doth he now say,
 "I am come down out of heaven?
 43 Jesus answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves. 44 No man can come to me, except the Father which sent me

 "draw him: and "I will raise him up in the last day. 45 It is written in the prophets, "And they shall all be "taught of God. "Every one that hath heard from the Father, and hath learned, cometh unto me.
 46 "Not that any man hath seen the Father, save "he which is from God, he "hath seen the Father.
 47 Verily, verily, I say unto you,
 "He that believeth hath eternal life.
 48 "I am the bread of life. 49 "Your fathers did eat the manna in the wilderness, and "they died. 50 "This is the bread which cometh down out of heaven, that a man may eat thereof, "and not die. 51 I am the living bread "which came down out of heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: yea and the bread which I will give is "my flesh, "for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore strove one with another, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?
 53 Jesus therefore said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of "the Son of man and drink his blood, ye "have not life in yourselves. 54 He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood "hath eternal life; and "I will raise him up at the last day.
 55 For my flesh is "meat indeed, and my blood is "drink indeed.
 56 He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood "abideth in me, and I in him. 57 As "the living Father "sent me, and "I live because of the Father; so he that eat-eth me, he also shall live because of me. 58 "This is the bread which came down out of heaven: not as the fathers did eat, and died: he that eateth this bread shall live for ever. 59 These things said he in "the synagogue, as he taught "in Capernaum.

60 "Many therefore of his disciples, when they heard this, said, This is "a hard saying; who can hear "it? 61 But Jesus "knowing in himself that his disciples murmured at this, said unto them, Doth this cause you to stumble? 62 What then if ye should behold "the Son of man "ascending "where he was before? 63^f It is the spirit that quickeneth; ^kthe flesh profiteth nothing: ^lthe words that I have spoken unto you are spirit, and are life. 64 But ^mthere are some of you that believe not. For Jesus ⁿknew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and ^owho it was that should betray him. 65 And he said, For this cause have I said unto you, ^pthat no man can come unto me, except it be given unto him of the Father.

66^q Upon this many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. 67 Jesus said therefore unto ^rthe twelve, Would ye also go away? 68 Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou ^shast ^tthe words of eternal life. 69 And ^uwe have believed and know that ^vthou art ^wthe Holy One of God. 70 Jesus answered them, ^xDid not I choose you ^ythe twelve, and one of you is ^za devil? 71 Now he spake of Judas ^athe son of Simon Iscariot, for ^bhe it was that should betray him, ^cbeing one of the twelve.

7^d And after these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Judæa, because ^ethe Jews sought to kill him. 2 Now the ^ffeast of the Jews, ^gthe feast of tabernacles, was at hand. 3 His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judæa, that ^hthy disciples also may behold thy works which thou doest. 4 For no man doeth anything in secret, ⁱand himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou doest these things, ^jmanifest thyself to the world. 5^k For even ^lhis brethren did not believe on him. 6 Jesus therefore saith unto them, ^mMy time is not yet come; but your time is always ready. 7 The world cannot hate you; but ⁿme it hateth, because I testify of it, that ^oits works are evil. 8 Go ye up unto the feast: I go not up ^pyet unto this feast; because ^qmy time is not yet fulfilled. 9 And having said these things unto them, he abode ^rstill in Galilee.

10 But when ^shis brethren were gone up unto the feast, then went he also up, not publicly, but as it were in secret. 11 ^tThe Jews therefore ^usought him at the feast, and said, Where is he? 12 And there was much ^vmurmuring among the multitudes concerning him: ^wsome said, He is a good man; others said, Not so, but he ^xleadeth the multitude astray. 13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him ^yfor fear of the Jews.

14 But when it was now the midst of the feast Jesus went up ^zinto the temple, and taught. 15 The Jews therefore ^amarvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned? 16 Jesus therefore answered them, and said, ^bMy teaching is not mine, but his ^cthat sent me. 17 ^dIf any man willeth to do his will, ^ehe shall know of the teaching, whether it be of God, or ^fwhether I ^gspeak from myself. 18 He that speaketh from himself ^hseeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh the glory of him that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. 19 ⁱDid not Moses give you the law, and ^jyet none of you doeth the law? ^kWhy seek ye to kill me? 20 The multitude answered, ^lThou hast a ^mdevil: who seeketh to kill thee? 21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I did ⁿone work, and ye all ^omarvel. 22 For this cause hath ^pMoses given you circumcision (not that it is of Moses, but ^qof the fathers); and on the sabbath ye circumcise a man. 23 If a man receiveth circumcision on the sabbath, that the law of Moses may not be broken; ^rare ye wroth with me, because I made a man every whit whole on the sabbath? 24 ^sJudge not according to appearance, but judge righteous judgement.

25 Some therefore of them of Jerusalem said, Is not this he whom ^tthey seek to kill? 26 And lo, ^uhe speaketh openly, and they say nothing unto him. Can it be that ^vthe rulers indeed know that this is the Christ? 27 Howbeit ^wwe know this man ^xwhence he is: but when the Christ cometh, ^yno one knoweth whence he is. 28 Jesus therefore cried ^zin the temple, teaching and saying, ^aYe both know me, and know whence I am; and ^bI am not come of myself, but ^che that sent me is true, ^dwhom ye

12 Again therefore Jesus spake unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in the darkness, but shall have the light of life. 13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest witness of thyself; thy witness is not true. 14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Even if I bear witness of myself, my witness is true; for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye know not whence I come, or whither I go. 15 Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man. 16 Yea and if I judge, my judgement is true; for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me. 17 Yea and in your law it is written, that the witness of two men is true. 18 I am he that beareth witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me. 19 They said therefore unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye know neither me, nor my Father: if ye knew me, ye would know my Father also. 20 These words spake he in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man took him; because his hour was not yet come.

21 He said therefore again unto them, I go away, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sin: whither I go, ye cannot come. 22 The Jews therefore said, Will he kill himself, that he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come? 23 And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world. 24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for except ye believe that I am he, ye shall die in your sins. 25 They said therefore unto him, Who art thou? Jesus said unto them, 26 Even that which I have also spoken unto you from the beginning. 26 I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you: howbeit he that sent me is true; and the things which I heard from him, these speak I unto the world. 27 They perceived not that he spake to them of the Father. 28 Jesus therefore said, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself, but as the Father taught me, I speak these things. 29 And he that sent me is with me; he hath not left me alone; for I do always the things that are pleasing to him. 30 As he spake these things, many believed on him.

31 Jesus therefore said to those Jews which had believed him, If ye abide in my word, then are ye truly my disciples; 32 and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. 33 They answered unto him, We be Abraham's seed, and have never yet been in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free? 34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Every one that committeth sin is the bondservant of sin. 35 And the bondservant abideth not in the house for ever: the son abideth for ever. 36 If therefore the Son shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. 37 I know that ye are Abraham's seed; yet ye seek to kill me, because my word hath not free course in you. 38 I speak the things which I have seen with my Father: and ye also do the things which ye heard from your father. 39 They answered and said unto him, Our father is Abraham. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham. 40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I heard from God: this did not Abraham. 41 Ye do the works of your father. They said unto him, We were not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God. 42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I came forth and am come from God; for neither have I come of myself, but he sent me. 43 Why do ye not understand my speech? Even because ye cannot hear my word. 44 Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father it is your will to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and stood not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. ¹When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father thereof. ⁴⁵But because I say the truth, ye believe me not. ⁴⁶Which of you convicteth me of sin? If I say truth, why do ye not believe me? ⁴⁷He that is of God heareth the words of God: for this cause ye hear them not, because ye are not of God. ⁴⁸The Jews answered and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil? ⁴⁹Jesus answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye dishonour me. ⁵⁰But I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth. ⁵¹Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my word, he shall never see death. ⁵²The Jews said unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my word, he shall never taste of death. ⁵³Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself? ⁵⁴Jesus answered, If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing: it is my Father that glorifieth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God; and ye have not known him: but I know him; and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be like unto you, a liar: but I know him, and keep his word. ⁵⁵Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day; and he saw it, and was glad. ⁵⁷The Jews therefore said unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham? ⁵⁸Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am. ⁵⁹They took up stones therefore to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple.

1 And as he passed by, he saw a man blind from his birth. 2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Rabbi, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he should be born blind? 3 Jesus answered, Neither did this man sin, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him. 4 We must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work. 5 When I am in the world, I am the light of the world. 6 When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and anointed his eyes with the clay, and said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam (which is by interpretation, Sent). He went away therefore, and washed, and came seeing. 8 The neighbours therefore, and they which saw him aforetime, that he was a beggar, said, Is not this he that sat and begged? 9 Others said, It is he: others said, No, but he is like him. He said, I am he. 10 They said therefore unto him, How then were thine eyes opened? 11 He answered, The man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to Siloam, and wash: so I went away and washed, and I received sight. 12 And they said unto him, Where is he? He saith, I know not.

13 They bring to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind. 14 Now it was the sabbath on the day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes. 15 Again therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. And he said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see. 16 Some therefore of the Pharisees said, This man is not from God, because he keepeth not the sabbath. But others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such signs? And there was a division among them. 17 They say therefore unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, in that he opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a prophet. 18 The Jews therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight, and asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see? 20 His parents answered and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind: ²¹ but how he now seeth, we know not; or who opened his eyes, we know not: ask him; he is of age; he shall speak for himself. ²² These things said his parents, ²³ because they feared the Jews: for ²⁴ the Jews had agreed already, that if any man should confess him to be Christ, ²⁵ he should be put out of the synagogue. ²⁶ Therefore said his parents, ²⁷ He is of age; ask him. ²⁸ So they called a second time the man that was blind, and said unto him, ²⁹ Give glory to God: we know that ³⁰ this man is a sinner. ³¹ He therefore answered, Whether he be a sinner, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I ³² was blind, now I see. ³³ They said therefore unto him, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes? ³⁴ He answered them, ³⁵ I told you even now, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? would ye also become his disciples? ³⁶ And they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but ³⁷ we are disciples of Moses. ³⁸ We know that God hath spoken unto Moses: but as for this man, ³⁹ we know not whence he is. ⁴⁰ The man answered and said unto them, Why, herein is ⁴¹ the marvel, that ⁴² ye know not whence he is, and yet he opened mine eyes. ⁴³ We know that ⁴⁴ God heareth not sinners: but ⁴⁵ if any man be a worshipper of God, and do his will, him he heareth. ⁴⁶ Since the world began it has never heard that any one opened the eyes of a man born blind. ⁴⁷ If this man were not from God, he could do nothing. ⁴⁸ They answered and said unto him, ⁴⁹ Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out. ⁵⁰ Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and finding him, he said, Dost thou believe on ⁵¹ the Son of God? ⁵² He answered and said, ⁵³ And who is he, Lord, that I may believe on him? ⁵⁴ Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and ⁵⁵ he it is that speaketh with thee. ⁵⁶ And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him. ⁵⁷ And Jesus said, ⁵⁸ For judgement came I into this world, ⁵⁹ that they which see not may see; and ⁶⁰ that they which see may become blind.

1 Or, When one speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for his father also is a liar. 2 Or, demon. 3 Or, that he should see. 4 Or, was born. 5 Or, was hidden, and went by. 6 Many anointed his eyes and going through the midst of them went his way and so passed by. 7 Or, and with the clay thereof anointed his eyes

Those of the Pharisees which were with him heard these things, and said unto him, ⁶¹ Are we also blind? ⁶² Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ⁶³ ye would have no sin: but now ye say, We see; your sin remaineth.

I Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the fold of the sheep, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. ² But he that entereth in by the door is ³ the shepherd of the sheep. ⁴ To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice; and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. ⁵ When he hath put forth all his own, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice. ⁶ And ⁷ a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers. ⁸ This ⁹ parable spake Jesus ¹⁰ unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

¹¹ Jesus therefore said unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, ¹² I am the door of the sheep. ¹³ All that came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. ¹⁴ I am the door: by me if any man enter in, ¹⁵ he shall be saved, and shall ¹⁶ go in and go out, and ¹⁷ shall find pasture. ¹⁸ The thief cometh not, but that he may steal and, ¹⁹ kill, and destroy: I came that they may have life, and may ²⁰ have it abundantly. ²¹ I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd ²² layeth down his life for the sheep. ²³ He that is ²⁴ a hireling, and not a shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, beholdeth the wolf coming, and ²⁵ leaveth the sheep, and fleeth, and the wolf snatcheth them, and ²⁶ scattereth them: ²⁷ he fleeth because ²⁸ he is a hireling, and ²⁹ careth not for the sheep. ³⁰ I am the good shepherd; and ³¹ I know mine own, and ³² mine own know me, ³³ even as the Father knoweth me, and I know the Father; and ³⁴ I lay down my life for the sheep. ³⁵ And ³⁶ other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: ³⁷ them also I must ³⁸ bring, and ³⁹ they shall hear my voice; and ⁴⁰ they shall become ⁴¹ one flock, ⁴² one shepherd. 17^c Therefore doth the Father love me, ^cbecause ^cI lay down my life, that I may take it again. 18^c No one ^ctaketh it away from me, but ^cI lay it down ^cof myself. I have ^cpower to lay it down, and ^cI have ^cpower to take it again. ^cThis commandment received I from my Father.

19^c There arose a division again among the Jews because of these words. 20 And many of them said, ^cHe hath a ^cdevil, and ^cis mad; why hear ye him? 21 Others said, These are not the sayings of one possessed with a ^cdevil. ^cCan a ^cdevil open the eyes of the blind?

22^c And it was the feast of ^bthe dedication at Jerusalem: it was winter; 23 and Jesus was walking in the temple ^cin Solomon's porch. 24 The Jews therefore came round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou hold us in suspense? If thou art ^cthe Christ, ^ctell us plainly. 25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believe not: ^cthe works that I do ^cin my Father's name, these bear witness of me. 26 But ^aye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep. 27 ^cMy sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: 28 and ^cI give unto them eternal life; and ^cthey shall never perish, and ^cno one shall snatch them out of my hand. 29 ^cMy Father, ^cwhich hath given them unto me, ^cis greater than all; and no one is able to snatch ^cthem out of ^cthe Father's hand. 30 ^cI and the Father are one. 31 ^cThe Jews took up stones again to stone him. 32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from the Father; for which of those works do ye stone me? 33 The Jews answered him, For a good work we stone thee not, but ^cfor blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, ^cmakest thyself God. 34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in ^cyour law, ^cI said, Ye are gods? 35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came (and the scripture cannot be ^cbroken), 36 say ye of him, whom ^cthe Father ^csanctified and ^csent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because ^cI said, I am the Son of God? 37^b If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not. 38 But if I do them, ^cthough ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know and understand that ^cthe Father is in me, and I in the Father. 39^c They sought again to take him: and ^che went forth out of their hand.

40 And he went away again beyond Jordan into the place ^cwhere John was at the first baptizing; and there he abode. 41 And many came unto him; and they said, John indeed did no sign: but ^aall things whatsoever John spake of this man were true. 42 And ^amany believed on him there.

I Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus of Bethany, of the village of ^cMary and her sister Martha. 2 And ^cit was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick. 3 The sisters therefore sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, ^che whom thou lovest is sick. 4 But when Jesus heard it, he said, ^cThis sickness is not unto death, but for ^cthe glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified thereby. 5 Now ^cJesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. 6 When therefore he heard that he was sick, ^che abode at that time two days in the place where he was. 7 Then after this he saith to the disciples, ^cLet us go into Judæa again. 8 The disciples say unto him, ^cRabbi, ^cthe Jews were but now seeking to stone thee; and goest thou thither again? 9 Jesus answered, ^cAre there not twelve hours in the day? ^cIf a man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world. 10 But ^cif a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because the light is not ^cin him. 11 These things spake he: and after this he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus ^cis fallen asleep; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep. 12 The disciples therefore said unto him, Lord, if he is fallen asleep, he will ^crecover. 13 Now Jesus had spoken of his death: but they thought that he spake of taking rest in sleep. 14 Then Jesus therefore said unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead. 15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him. ¹⁶ Thomas therefore, who is called ¹ Didymus, said unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, ² that we may die with him.

¹⁷ So when Jesus came, he found that he had been in the tomb ⁴ four days already. ¹⁸ Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off; ¹⁹ and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary, ²⁰ to console them concerning their brother. ²⁰ Martha therefore, when she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary still sat in the house. ²¹ Martha therefore said unto ^d Jesus, Lord, ^e if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. ²² And even now I know that, whatsoever thou shalt ask of God, ^f God will give thee. ²³ Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again. ²⁴ Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in ^h the resurrection at the last day. ²⁵ Jesus said unto her, ⁱ I am the resurrection, and ^j the life: he that believeth on me, ^k though he die, ^l yet shall he live: ^m and whosoever liveth and believeth on me ⁿ shall never die. Believest thou this? ²⁷ She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: ²⁸ I have believed that ^o thou art the Christ, the Son of God, ^p even ^q he that cometh into the world. ²⁸ And when she had said this, she went away, and called Mary ^r her sister secretly, saying, ^s The ^t Master is here, and calleth thee. ²⁹ And she, when she heard it, arose quickly, and went unto him. ³⁰ (Now Jesus was not yet come into the village, but was still in the place where Martha met him.) ³¹ The Jews then ^u which were with her in the house, and were comforting her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, supposing that she was going unto the tomb to ^v weep there. ³² Mary therefore, when she came where Jesus was, and saw him, fell down at his feet, saying unto him, ^w Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. ³³ When Jesus therefore saw her ^x weeping, and the Jews ^y also ^z weeping which came with her, he ^{aa} groaned in the spirit, and ^{ab} was ^{ac} troubled, ³⁴ and said, Where have ye laid him? They say unto him, Lord, come and see. ³⁵ Jesus wept. ³⁶ The Jews therefore said, Behold ^{ad} how he loved him! ³⁷ But some of them said, Could not this man, ^{ae} which opened the eyes of him that was blind, ^{af} have caused that this man also should not die? ³⁸ Jesus therefore again ^{ag} ^{ah} groaning in himself cometh to the tomb. Now it was ^{ai} a cave, and ^{aj} a stone lay ^{ak} against it. ³⁹ Jesus saith, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for ^{al} he hath been dead ^{am} four days. ⁴⁰ Jesus saith unto her, ^{an} Said I not unto thee, that, if thou believedst, thou shouldest see ^{ao} the glory of God? ⁴¹ So they took away the stone. And Jesus ^{ap} lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou heardest me. ⁴² And ^{aq} I knew that thou hearest me always: but ^{ar} because of the multitude which standeth around I said it, ^{as} that they may believe that thou didst send me. ⁴³ And when he had thus spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth. ⁴⁴ He that was dead came forth, ^{at} bound hand and foot with ^{au} grave-clothes; and ^{av} his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

⁴⁵ Many therefore of the Jews, ^{aw} which came to Mary and ^{ax} beheld ^{ay} that which he did, believed on him. ⁴⁶ But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them the things which Jesus had done.

⁴⁷ The chief priests therefore and the Pharisees ^{az} gathered ^{ba} a council, and said, ^{bb} What do we? for this man doeth many signs. ⁴⁸ If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and ^{bc} the Romans will come and take away both our ^{bd} place and our nation. ⁴⁹ But a certain one of them, ^{be} Caiaphas, ^{bf} being high priest that year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all, ^{bg} so nor do ye take account that ^{bh} it is expedient for you that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not. 51 Now this he said not of himself: but ^abeing high priest that year, ^bhe prophesied that Jesus should die for the nation; 52 and ^cnot for the nation only, but ^dthat he might also gather together into one the children of God that are scattered abroad. 53 So from that day forth they ^etook counsel that they might put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore ^fwalked no more openly among the Jews, but departed thence into the country near to the wilderness, into a city called ^gEphraim: and there he tarried with the disciples. 55 Now ^hthe passover of the Jews was at hand: and ⁱmany went up to Jerusalem out of the country before the passover, ^jto purify themselves. 56 ^kThey sought therefore for Jesus, and spake one with another, as they stood in the temple, What think ye? That he will not come to the feast? 57 Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given commandment, that, if any man knew where he was, he should shew it, that they might take him.

12 Jesus therefore six days before ^lthe passover came to Bethany, ^mwhere Lazarus was, whom Jesus raised from the dead. 2 So they made him a supper there: and ⁿMartha served; but Lazarus was one of them that sat at meat with him. 3 ^oMary therefore took a pound of ointment of ^pspikenard, very precious, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment. 4 But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples, which should betray him, saith, 5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred ^qpence, and ^rgiven to the poor? 6 Now this he said, not because he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and ^shaving the ^tbag ^utook away what was put therein. 7 Jesus therefore said, ^vSuffer her to keep it against the day of my burying. 8 For the poor ye have always with you; but me ye have not always.

9 The ^wcommon people therefore of the Jews learned that he was there: and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, ^xwhom he had raised from the dead. 10 But the chief priests took counsel that they might put Lazarus also to death; 11 because that ^yby reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 On the morrow ^za great multitude that had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 took the branches of ^{aa}the palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried out, ^{ab}Hosanna: Blessed ^{ac}is ^{ad}he that cometh in the name of the Lord, even ^{ae}the King of Israel. 14 And Jesus, having found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written, 15 ^{af}Fear not, daughter of Zion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt. 16 ^{ag}These things understood not his disciples at the first: but ^{ah}when Jesus was glorified, then ^{ai}remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him. 17 ^{aj}The multitude therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, bare witness. 18 For this cause also the multitude went and met him, ^{ak}for that they heard that he had done this sign. 19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, 20 Behold how ye prevail nothing: lo, ^{al}the world is gone after him.

20 Now there were certain ^{am}Greeks ^{an}among those that went up to worship at the feast: 21 these therefore came to ^{ao}Phillip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus. 22 Philip cometh and telleth ^{ap}Andrew: Andrew cometh, and Philip, and they tell Jesus. 23 And Jesus answereth them, saying, 24 The hour is come, ^{aq}that the Son of man should be glorified. 24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^{ar}Except a grain of wheat fall into the earth and die, it abideth by itself alone; but if it die, it beareth much fruit. 25 ^{as}He that loveth his ^{at}life loseth it; and ^{au}he that ^{av}hateth his ^{aw}life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. 26 If any man serve me, let him ^{ax}follow me; and ^{ay}where I am, there shall also my servant be: ^rif any man serve me, ^rhim will the Father honour. ²⁷Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, ^rsave me from ^rthis ¹hour. But ^rfor this cause came I unto ^rthis hour. ²⁸Father, glorify thy name. There came therefore ^ra voice out of heaven, ^{saying}, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again. ²⁹The multitude therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it had thundered: others said, ^rAn angel hath spoken to him. ³⁰Jesus answered and said, ^rThis voice hath not come for my sake, but for your sakes. ³¹Now is ^rthe judgement of this world: now shall ^rthe prince of this world ^rbe cast out. ³²And I, ^rif I be lifted up ^rfrom the earth, ^rI will draw ^rall men unto myself. ³³But this he said, ^rsignifying by what manner of death he should die. ³⁴The multitude therefore answered him, We have heard out of the law that ^rthe Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, 'The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?' ³⁵Jesus therefore said unto them, ^rYet a little while is ^rthe light ^ramong you. ^rWalk while ye have the light, that darkness ^rovertake you not: and ^rhe that walketh in the darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. ³⁶While ye have the light, believe on the light, that ye may become ^rsons of light.

These things spake Jesus, and he departed and ^rhid himself from them. ³⁷But though he had done so many signs before them, yet they believed not on him: ³⁸that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, ^rLord, who hath believed our report? And to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

³⁹For this cause they ^rcould not believe, for that Isaiah said again, ⁴⁰'He hath blinded their eyes, and he ^rhardened their heart; Lest they should see with their eyes, and perceive with their heart, And should turn, And I should heal them.

⁴¹These things said Isaiah, because ^rhe saw his glory; and ^rhe spake of him. ⁴²Nevertheless ^reven of the rulers many believed on him; but ^rbecause of the Pharisees they did not ^rconfess ^ras ^rif, lest they should be ^rput out of the synagogue: ⁴³for they loved the glory of men more than the glory of God.

⁴⁴And Jesus cried and said, ^rHe that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but ^ron him that sent me. ⁴⁵And ^rhe that ^rbeholdeth me beholdeth him that sent me. ⁴⁶I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me may not abide in the darkness. ⁴⁷And if any man ^rhear my sayings, and keep them not, ^rI judge him not: for ^rI came not to judge the world, but to save the world. ⁴⁸He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my sayings, hath one that judgeth him: ^rthe word that I spake, the same shall judge him ^rin the last day. ⁴⁹For ^rI spake not from myself; but the Father ^rwhich sent me, he hath given me a ^rcommandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. ⁵⁰And I know that his commandment is life eternal: the things therefore which I speak, even as the Father hath said unto me, so I speak.

I Now ^rbefore ^rthe feast of the passover, Jesus knowing that ^rhis hour was come that he ^rshould depart out of this world unto the Father, ^rhaving loved ^rhis own which were in the world, he loved them ^runto the end. ²And during supper, ^rthe devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him, ³Jesus, knowing ^rthat the Father had given all things into his hands, and that ^rhe came forth from God, and ^rgoeth unto God, ⁴riseth from supper, and layeth aside his garments; and he took a towel, and ^rgirded himself. ⁵Then he ^rpour-eth water into the bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. ⁶So he cometh to Simon Peter. He saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? ⁷Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do ^rthou knowest not now; but thou shalt understand hereafter. ⁸Peter saith unto him,

Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, ¹If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. ⁹Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. ¹⁰Jesus saith to him, He that is bathed needeth not ¹¹save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ¹²ye are clean, ¹³but not all. ¹⁴For he knew him that should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

¹²So when he had washed their feet, and ¹³taken his garments, and ¹⁴sat down again, he said unto them, ¹⁵Know ye what I have done to you? ¹⁶Ye call me, ¹⁷Master, and, Lord: and ye say well; for so I am. ¹⁸If I then, the Lord and the ¹⁹Master, have washed your feet, ²⁰ye also ought to wash one another's feet. ²¹For I have given you an example, ²²that ye also should do as I have done to you. ²³Verily, verily, I say unto you, ²⁴A ²⁵servant is not greater than his lord; neither ²⁶one that is sent greater than he that sent him. ²⁷If ye know these things, ²⁸ye are blessed if ye do them. ²⁹I speak not of you all: I know ³⁰whom I ³¹have chosen: but ³²that the scripture may be fulfilled, ³³He that eateth ³⁴my bread lifted up his heel against me. ³⁵From henceforth ³⁶I tell you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ³⁷ye may believe that ³⁸I am ³⁹he. ⁴⁰Verily, verily, I say unto you, ⁴¹He that receiveth whosoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

⁴²When Jesus had thus said, ⁴³he was troubled in the spirit, and testified, and said, ⁴⁴Verily, verily, I say unto you, that ⁴⁵one of you shall betray me. ⁴⁶The disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake. ⁴⁷There was at the table reclining ⁴⁸in Jesus' bosom ⁴⁹one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved. ⁵⁰Simon Peter therefore beckoneth to him, and saith unto him, Tell us who it is of whom he speaketh. ⁵¹He leaning back, ⁵²as he was, on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it? ⁵³Jesus therefore answereth, ⁵⁴He it is, for whom I shall ⁵⁵dip the sop, and give it him. So when he had dipped the sop, he taketh and ⁵⁶giveth it to Judas, ⁵⁷the son of Simon Iscariot. ⁵⁸And after the sop, then ⁵⁹entered Satan into him. Jesus therefore saith unto him, ⁶⁰That thou doest, do quickly. ⁶¹Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him. ⁶²For some thought, ⁶³because Judas had the ⁶⁴bag, that Jesus said unto him, Buy what things we have need of ⁶⁵for the feast; or, that he should ⁶⁶give something to the poor. ⁶⁷He then having received the sop went out straightway: ⁶⁸and it was night.

⁶⁹When therefore he was gone out, Jesus saith, ⁷⁰Now ⁷¹is the Son of man glorified, and ⁷²God ⁷³is glorified in him; ⁷⁴and ⁷⁵God shall glorify him in himself, and ⁷⁶straightway shall he glorify him. ⁷⁷Little children, ⁷⁸yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and ⁷⁹as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say unto you. ⁸⁰A new commandment ⁸¹I give unto you, ⁸²that ye love one another; ⁸³even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. ⁸⁴By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

⁹²Let not your heart be ⁹³troubled: ⁹⁴ye believe in God, believe also in me. ⁹⁵In ⁹⁶my Father's house are many ⁹⁷mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you; for ⁹⁸I go to prepare a place for you. ⁹⁹And if I go and prepare a place for you, I come again, and will receive you ¹⁰⁰unto myself; that ¹⁰¹where I am, ¹⁰²there ye may be also. ¹⁰³And whither I go, ye know the way. ¹⁰⁴Thomas saith unto him, Lord, can do nothing. 6 If a man abide not in me, 'he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. 7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatsoever ye will, and it shall be done unto you. 8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; and so shall ye be my disciples. 9 Even as the Father hath loved me, I also have loved you: abide ye in my love. 10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love. 11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be fulfilled. 12 This is my commandment, that ye love one another, even as I have loved you. 13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. 14 Ye are my friends, if ye do the things which I command you. 15 No longer do I call you servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I heard from my Father I have made known unto you. 16 Ye did not choose me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that ye should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should abide: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you. 17 These things I command you, that ye may love one another. 18 If the world hateth you, ye know that it hath hated me before it hated you. 19 If ye were of the world, the world would love its own: but because ye are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. 20 Remember the word that I said unto you, A servant is not greater than his lord. If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they kept my word, they will keep yours also. 21 But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me. 22 If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no excuse for their sin. 23 He that hateth me hateth my Father also. 24 If I had not done among them the works which none other did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father. 25 But this cometh to pass, that the word may be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause. 26 But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall bear witness of me: 27 and ye also bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

16 These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be made to stumble. 2 They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the hour cometh, that whosoever killeth you shall think that he offereth service unto God. 3 And these things will they do, because they have not known the Father, nor me. 4 But these things have I spoken unto you, that when their hour is come, ye may remember them, how that I told you. And these things I said not unto you from the beginning, because I was with you. 5 But now I go unto him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou? 6 But because I have spoken these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart. 7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; it is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I go, I will send him unto you. 8 And he, when he is come, will convict the world in respect of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgement: 9 of sin, because they believe not on me; 10 of righteousness, because I go to the Father, and ye behold me no more; 11 of judgement, because the prince of this world hath been judged. 12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. 13 Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he shall

^b guide you into all the truth: for he shall not speak from himself; but ^c what things soever he shall hear, ^d these shall he speak: and he shall declare unto you the things that are to come. ¹⁴ He shall ^d glorify me: for he shall take of mine, and shall declare ^{it} unto you. ¹⁵ All things whatsoever the Father hath are mine: ^f therefore said I, that he taketh of mine, and shall declare ^{it} unto you. ¹⁶ A little while, and ye behold me no more; and ^h again a little while, and ye shall see me. ¹⁷ Some of his disciples therefore said one to another, What is this that he saith unto us, ^j A little while, and ye behold me not; and again a little while, and ye shall see me: and, ^k Because I go to the Father? ¹⁸ They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? ⁱ We know not what he saith. ¹⁹ Jesus perceived that they were desirous to ask him, and he said unto them, Do ye inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, A little while, and ye behold me not, and again a little while, and ye shall see me? ²⁰ Verily, verily, I say unto you, that ^{ye} shall weep and lament, but ^e the world shall rejoice: ye shall be sorrowful, but ^g your sorrow shall be turned into joy. ²¹ A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but when she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for the joy that a man is born into the world. ²² And ye therefore now have sorrow: but ⁱ I will see you again, and ^h your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no one taketh away from you. ²³ And ⁱⁿ that day ye shall ^l ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^{if} ye shall ask anything of the Father, ^{he} will give it you in my name. ²⁴ Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ^{ask}, and ye shall receive, ^{that} your joy may be fulfilled. ²⁵ These things have I spoken unto you in ^{2a} proverbs: ^b the hour cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in ^{2a} proverbs, but shall tell you plainly of the Father. ²⁶ In that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will ^c pray the Father for you; ²⁷ for the Father himself loveth you, because ^e ye have loved me, and ^f have believed that I came forth from the Father. ²⁸ I came out from the Father, and am come into the world: again, ⁱ I leave the world, and go unto the Father. ²⁹ His disciples say, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no ⁴ proverb. ³⁰ Now know we that ^j thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that ^k thou camest forth from God. ³¹ Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe? ³² Behold, ^{the} hour cometh, yea, is come, that ^{ye} shall be scattered, every man to ^{his} own, and ^o shall leave me alone: ^p and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. ³³ These things have I spoken unto you, that ⁱⁿ me ye may have peace. ³⁴ In the world ye have tribulation: but ^{be} of good cheer; ³⁵ I have overcome the world.

ⁱ These things spake Jesus; 17 and ^l lifting up his eyes to heaven, he said, Father, ^{the} hour is come; ^g glorify thy Son, that the Son may ^g glorify thee: ² even as ^{thou} gavest him authority over all flesh, that ^{whatsoever} thou hast given him, ^b to them he should give eternal life. ³ And this is life eternal, ^{that} they should know thee ^{the} only ⁷ true God, and ^{him} whom thou didst send, even Jesus Christ. ⁴ I ^{glorified} thee on the earth, ^{having} accomplished the work which thou hast given me to do. ⁵ And now, O Father, ^{glorify} thou me with thine own self with the glory ^{which} I had with thee ^{before} the world was. ⁶ I manifested thy name unto the men ^{whom} thou gavest me out of the world: ^{thine} they were, and thou gavest them to me; and they have kept thy word. ⁷ Now they know that all things ^{whatsoever} thou hast given me are from thee: ⁸ for ^{the} words which thou gavest me I have given unto them; and they received them, and knew of a truth that ^I came forth from thee, and ^{they} believed that thou didst send me. ⁹ I ^{pray} for them: ¹⁰ I pray not for the world, but for those "whom thou hast given me; for "they are thine: 10 and "all things that are mine are thine, and thine are mine: and "I am glorified in them. 11 And I am no more in the world, and "these are in the world, and "I come to thee. "Holy Father, "keep them in thy name "which thou hast given me, "that they may be one, "even as we are. 12 While I was with them, I kept them in thy name which thou hast given me: and I "guarded them, and "not one of them perished, but "the son of perdition; "that the scripture might be fulfilled. 13 But now I come to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they may have "my joy fulfilled in themselves. 14 "I have given them thy word; and "the world hated them, "because they are not of the world, "even as I am not of the world. 15 I "pray not that thou shouldest "take them "from the world, but "that thou shouldest "keep them "from "the evil one. 16 "They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. 17 "Sanctify them in the truth: "thy word is truth. 18 "As thou didst send me into the world, even so sent I them into the world. 19 And "for their sakes "I "sanctify myself, that they themselves also "may be sanctified in truth. 20 Neither for these only do I "pray, but for them also "that believe on me through their word; 21 "that they may all be one; even as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that "they also may be in "us: that the world "may believe that thou didst send me. 22 And "the glory which thou hast given me "I have given unto them; "that they may be one, even as we are one; 23 "I in them, and thou in me, "that they may be perfected into one; "that the world may know that thou didst send me, and "lovest them, even as "thou lovest me. 24 Father, "that which thou hast given me, I will "that, where I am, they also may be "with me; "that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovest me "before the foundation of the world. 25 "O righteous Father, "the world knew thee not, but I knew thee; and these knew that thou didst send me; 26 and "I made known unto them thy name, and will make it known; that the love "wherewith thou lovest me may be in them, and "I in them.

18 When Jesus had spoken these words, "he went forth with his disciples over "the "brook "Kidron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, himself and his disciples. 2 Now Judas also, which betrayed him, knew "the place: for "Jesus oft-times resorted thither with his disciples. 3 "Judas then, having received the "band of soldiers, and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons. 4 Jesus therefore, "knowing all the things that were coming upon him, went forth, and saith unto them, "Whom seek ye? 5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, was standing with them. 6 "When therefore he said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground. 7 Again therefore he asked them, "Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth. 8 Jesus answered, I told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way: 9 "that the word might be fulfilled which he spake, Of those whom thou hast given me I lost not one. 10 Simon Peter therefore "having a sword drew it, and struck the high priest's "servant, and cut off his right ear. Now the "servant's name was Malchus. 11 Jesus therefore said unto Peter, Put up the sword into the sheath: "the cup which the Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 So the "band and the "chief captain, and the officers of the Jews, seized Jesus and bound him, 13 and "led him to "Annas first; for he was father in law to "Caiaphas, which was high priest that year. 14 Now Caiaphas was he which gave counsel to the Jews, "that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15¹ And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. Now that disciple was known unto the high priest, and entered in with Jesus into the court of the high priest; 16² but Peter was standing at the door without. So the other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, went out and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter. 17³ The maid therefore that kept the door saith unto Peter, Art thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not. 18 Now the servants and the officers were standing there, having made a fire of coals; for it was cold; and they were warming themselves: and Peter also was with them, standing and warming himself.

19⁴ The high priest therefore asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his teaching. 20 Jesus answered him, I have spoken openly to the world; I ever taught in synagogues, and in the temple, where all the Jews come together; and in secret spake I nothing. 21 Why askest thou me? ask them that have heard me, what I spake unto them: behold, these know the things which I said. 22 And when he had said this, one of the officers standing by struck Jesus with his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so? 23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me? 24⁵ Annas therefore sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.

25⁶ Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore unto him, Art thou also one of his disciples? He denied, and said, I am not. 26 One of the servants of the high priest, being a kinsman of him whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him? 27 Peter therefore denied again: and straightway the cock crew.

28⁷ They lead Jesus therefore from Caiaphas into the palace: and it was early; and they themselves entered not into the palace, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the passover. 29⁸ Pilate therefore went out unto them, and saith, What accusation bring ye against this man? 30 They answered and said unto him, If this man were not an evil-doer, we should not have delivered him up unto thee. 31 Pilate therefore said unto them, Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law. The Jews said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death: 32⁹ that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying by what manner of death he should die.

33¹⁰ Pilate therefore entered again into the palace, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews? 34 Jesus answered, Sayest thou this of thyself, or did others tell it thee concerning me? 35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done? 36 Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence. 37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end have I been born, and to this end I come into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. 38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth?

And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find no crime in him. 39¹¹ But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews? 40 They cried out therefore again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

1 Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. 2¹² And the soldiers plaited a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and arrayed him in a purple garment; and they came unto him, and said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they struck him with their hands. 4 And Pilate went out again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him out to you, that ye may know that ^dI find no crime in him. 5 Jesus therefore came out, wearing ^ethe crown of thorns and the purple garment. And Pilate saith unto them, ^fBehold, the man! 6 When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, ^gTake him yourselves, and crucify him: for ^hI find no crime in him. 7 The Jews answered him, We have a law, and ⁱby that law he ought to die, because ^jhe made himself the Son of God. 8 When Pilate therefore heard this saying, ^khe was the more afraid; ^land ^mhe entered into the ⁿpalace again, and saith unto Jesus, ^oWhence art thou? But ^pJesus gave him no answer. 9 Pilate therefore saith unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have ^qpower to release thee, and have ^rpower to crucify thee? 11 Jesus answered him, ^sThou wouldest have no ^tpower against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore ^uhe that delivered me unto thee ^vhath greater sin. 12 Upon this ^wPilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou release this man, thou art not Cæsar's friend: ^xevery one that maketh himself a king ^yspeaketh against Cæsar. 13 When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on ^zthe judgement-seat at a place called The Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha. 14 Now it was ^athe Preparation of the passover: it was about the sixth hour. And he saith unto the Jews, ^bBehold, your King! 15 They therefore cried out, ^cAway with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cæsar. 16 ^dThen therefore he ^edelivered him unto them to be crucified.

They took Jesus therefore: 17 and ^fhe went out, ^gbearing the cross for himself, unto the place called The place of a skull, which is called in Hebrew Golgotha: 18 ^hwhere they crucified him, and with him two others, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. 19 And Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. And there was written, JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS. 20 This title therefore read many of the Jews: ⁱfor ^jthe place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and in Latin, and in Greek. 21 The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but, that he said, I am King of the Jews. 22 Pilate answered, ^kWhat I have written I have written. 23 ^lThe soldiers therefore, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the ^mcoat: now the ⁿcoat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. 24 They said therefore one to another, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: ^othat the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith,

And upon my vesture did they cast lots.

These things therefore the soldiers did. 25 ^qBut there were standing by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. 26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and ^rthe disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, ^sWoman, behold, thy son! 27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold, thy mother! And from that hour the disciple took her unto ^this own home.

28 After this Jesus, knowing that all things are now ^ufinished, ^vthat the scripture might be accomplished, saith, ^wI thirst. 29 There was set there a vessel full of vinegar: ^xso they put a sponge full of the vinegar upon hyssop, and brought it to his mouth. 30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, ^yIt is finished: and he bowed his head, and ^zgave up his spirit.

1 Ex. 12. 16. of that sabbath was ^aa high day), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. 32 The soldiers therefore came, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other ^uwhich was crucified with him: 33 but when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: 34 howbeit one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and straightway there came out ^ublood and water. 35 And ^uhe that hath seen hath borne witness, and ^uhis witness is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, ^uthat ye also may believe. 36 ^uFor these things came to pass, that the scripture might be fulfilled, ^aA bone of him ^bshall not be ^bbroken. 37 And again another scripture saith, ^cThey shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 ^dAnd after these things Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly ^efor fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took away his body. 39 And there came also ^fNicodemus, he who at the first came to him by night, ^gbringing a ^hmixture of ⁱmyrrh and aloes, about a hundred pound weight. 40 So they took the body of Jesus, and ^jbound it in ^klinen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury. 41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a ^lgarden; and ^min the garden a new tomb ⁿwherein was never man yet laid. 42 There then because of the Jews' ^oPreparation (^pfor the tomb was nigh at hand) they laid Jesus.

20 ^qNow on the first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, while it was yet dark, unto the tomb, and seeth ^rthe stone taken away from the tomb. 2 She runneth therefore, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, ^swhom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and ^twe know not where they have laid him. 3 Peter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and they went toward the tomb. 4 And they ran both together: and the other disciple outran Peter, and came first to the tomb; 5 and stooping and looking in, he seeth ^uthe linen cloths lying; yet entered he not in. 6 Simon Peter therefore also cometh, following him, and entered into the tomb; and he beholdeth the linen cloths lying, 7 and ^vthe napkin, that was upon his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. 8 Then entered in therefore the other disciple also, ^wwhich came first to the tomb, and he saw, and believed. 9 For as yet ^xthey knew not the scripture, ^ythat he must rise again from the dead. 10 So the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 But Mary was standing without at the tomb weeping: 12 so, as she wept, she stooped and looked into the tomb; 13 and ^zshe beholdeth ^atwo angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. 14 And they say unto her, ^bWoman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, ^cBecause they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him. 15 When she had thus said, she turned herself back, and ^dbeholdeth Jesus standing, and ^eknew not that it was Jesus. 16 Jesus saith unto her, ^fWoman, why weepest thou? ^gwhom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be ^hthe gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away. 17 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turneth herself, and saith unto him in Hebrew, ⁱRabboni; which is to say, ^jMaster. 18 Jesus saith to her, ^kTouch me not; for I am not yet ascended unto the Father: but go unto ^lmy brethren, and say to them, ^mI ascend unto my Father and your Father, and ⁿmy God and your God. 19 Mary Magdalene ^ocometh and telleth the disciples, I have seen the Lord; and ^phow that he had said these things unto her.

19 ^qWhen therefore it was evening, ^ron that day, the first day of the week, and ^swhen the doors were shut where the disciples were, ^tfor fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, ^uPeace be unto you. 20 And when he had said this, ^vhe

shewed unto them his hands and his side. ¹The disciples therefore were glad, when they saw the Lord. ²¹Jesus therefore said to them again, Peace be unto you: as ²the Father hath sent me, ³even so send I you. ²²And when he had said this, he ⁴breathed on them, and saith unto them, ⁵Receive ye the ⁶Holy Ghost: ²³whose soever sins ye forgive, they are forgiven unto them; whose soever ⁷sins ye retain, they are retained.

²⁴But ¹Thomas, one of the twelve, called ²Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. ²⁵The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, ³Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe.

²⁶And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Jesus cometh, ¹the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, ²Peace be unto you. ²⁷Then saith he to Thomas, ³Reach hither thy finger, and see my hands; and reach ⁴hither thy hand, and put it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing. ²⁸Thomas answered and said unto him, ¹My Lord and my God. ²⁹Jesus saith unto him, Because thou hast seen me, ²thou hast believed: ³blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

³⁰Many other signs therefore did Jesus ¹in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book: ³¹but these are written, that ye may ²believe that Jesus is the Christ, ³the Son of God; and that believing ⁴ye may have life ⁵in his name.

¹After these things Jesus ²manifested himself ³again to the disciples at ⁴the sea of Tiberias; and he manifested ⁵himself on this wise. ²There were together Simon Peter, and ³Thomas called ⁴Canana in Galilee, and ⁵the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples. ³Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also come with thee. They went forth, and entered into the boat; and ¹that night they took nothing. ⁴But when day was now breaking, Jesus stood on the beach: howbeit the disciples ⁵knew not that it was Jesus. ⁵Jesus therefore saith unto them, Children, have ye aught to eat? They answered him, No. ⁶And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes. ⁷That disciple therefore ⁸whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, ⁹he girt his coat about him (for he was ¹naked), and ²cast himself into the sea. ⁸But the other disciples came in ³the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits off), dragging the net full of fishes. ⁹So when they got out upon the land, they see ⁴a fire of coals there, and ⁵fish laid thereon, and ⁶bread. ¹⁰Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now taken. ¹¹Simon Peter therefore went ¹up, and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, the net was not rent. ¹²Jesus saith unto them, ¹Come and ²break your fast. And ³none of the disciples durst inquire of him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord. ¹³Jesus cometh, and ⁴taketh the ⁵bread, and giveth them, and the fish likewise. ¹⁴This is now the third time that Jesus was manifested to the disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

¹⁵So when they had ¹broken their fast, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, ²Simon, ³son of ⁴John, ⁵lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I ¹love thee. He saith unto him, Feed ²my lambs. ¹⁶He saith to him again a second time, Simon, ³son of ⁴John, ⁵lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I ¹love thee. He saith unto him, ²Tend ³my sheep. ¹⁷He saith unto him the third time, Simon, ³son of ⁴John, ⁵lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him ¹the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, ^a thou knowest all things; thou ¹ knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed ^a my sheep. ¹⁸ Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, ^a thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest; but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not. ¹⁹ Now this he spake, signifying ^a by what manner of death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, ^a Follow me. ²⁰ Peter, turning about, seeth ^a the disciple whom Jesus loved following; ^a which also leaned back on his breast at the supper, and said, Lord, who is he that betrayeth thee? ²¹ Peter therefore seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, ^a and what shall this man do? ²² Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry ^a till ^a I come, what ^a is that to thee? ^a follow thou me. ²³ This saying therefore went forth among ^a the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, that he should not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what ^a is that to thee?

²⁵ And ^a there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which if they should be written every one, I suppose that ^a even the world itself would not contain the books that should be written.

¹ THE ^a former treatise I made, ^a I O ^a Theophilus, concerning all that Jesus began ^a both to do and to teach, ^a until the day in which ^a he was received up, after that he ^a had given commandment ^a through ^a the ^a Holy Ghost unto the apostles whom he had chosen: ^a to whom he also ^a shewed himself alive after his passion by many proofs, appearing unto them by the space of forty days, and speaking the things concerning the kingdom of God: ^a and, ^a being assembled together with them, ^a he charged them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, which, ^a said he, ye heard from me: ^a for ^a John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized ^a with the Holy Ghost ^a not many days hence.

⁶ They therefore, when they were come together, asked him, saying, Lord, ^a dost thou at this time ^a restore the kingdom to Israel? ^a 7 And he said unto them, ^a It is not for you to know ^a times or seasons, which the Father hath ^a set within his own authority. ^a 8 But ye shall receive ^a power, ^a when the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ^a ye shall be ^a my witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa and ^a Samaria, and ^a unto the uttermost part of the earth. ^a 9 And when he had said these things, as they were looking, ^a he was taken up; and ^a a cloud received him out of their sight. ^a 10 And while they were looking stedfastly into heaven as he went, behold, ^a two ^a men stood by them in ^a white apparel; ^a 11 which also said, ^a Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye looking into heaven? this Jesus, which was received up from you into heaven, ^a shall ^a so come in like manner as ye beheld him going into heaven.

John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas the son of James. 14 These all with one accord continued stedfastly in prayer, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.

15 And in these days Peter stood up in the midst of the brethren, and said (and there was a multitude of persons gathered together, about a hundred and twenty), 16 Brethren, it was needful that the scripture should be fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost spake before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who was guide to them that took Jesus. 17 For he was numbered among us, and received his portion in this ministry. 18 (Now this man obtained a field with the reward of his iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out. 19 And it became known to all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch that in their language that field was called Akeldama, that is, The field of blood.) 20 For it is written in the book of Psalms,

Let his habitation be made desolate,

And let no man dwell therein:

and, His office let another take.

21 Of the men therefore which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and went out among us, 22 beginning from the baptism of John, unto the day that he was received up from us, of these must one become a witness with us of his resurrection. 23 And they put forward two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. 24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew of these two the one whom thou hast chosen, 25 to take the place in this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas fell away, that he might go to his own place. 26 And they gave lots for them; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

1 And when the day of Pentecost was now come, they were all together in one place. 2 And suddenly there came from heaven a sound as of the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. 3 And there appeared unto them tongues parting asunder, like as of fire; and it sat upon each one of them. 4 And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 Now there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under heaven. 6 And when this sound was heard, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speaking in his own language. 7 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying, Behold, are not all these which speak Galileans? 8 And how hear we, every man in our own language, wherein we were born? 9 Parthians and Medes and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, in Judæa and Cappadocia, in Pontus and Asia, 10 in Phrygia and Pamphylia, in Egypt and the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and sojourners from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretans and Arabians, we do hear them speaking in our tongues the mighty works of God. 12 And they were all amazed, and were perplexed, saying one to another, What meaneth this? 13 But others mocking said, They are filled with new wine.

14 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and spake forth unto them, saying, Ye men of Judæa, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and give ear unto my words. 15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose; seeing it is but the third hour of the day; 16 but this is that which hath been spoken by the prophet Joel;

17 And it shall be in the last days, saith God, I will pour forth of my Spirit upon all flesh: And your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,

And your young men shall see

 And your old men shall dream dreams:

18 Yea and on my ¹servants and on my ²handmaidens in those days

Will I pour forth of my Spirit;
 and ³they shall prophesy.

19 And I will shew wonders in the heaven above,
 And signs on the earth beneath;
 Blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

20 ⁴The sun shall be turned into darkness,
 And the moon into blood,
 Before ⁵the day of the Lord come,

That great and notable day:

21 And it shall be, that ⁶whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, ⁷a man approved of God unto you ⁸by ⁹mighty works and wonders and signs, which ¹⁰God did by him in the midst of you, even as ye yourselves know; ¹¹him, ¹²being delivered up by ¹³the determinate counsel and ¹⁴foreknowledge of God, ¹⁵ye by the hand of ¹⁶lawless men did crucify and slay: ¹⁷whom God raised up, having loosed the pangs of death: because ¹⁸it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

25 For David saith concerning him, ¹⁹I beheld the Lord always before my face;

For he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:

26 Therefore my heart was glad,
 and my tongue rejoiced;
 Moreover my flesh also shall ²⁰dwell ²¹in hope:

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul ²²in Hades,

²³Neither wilt thou give thy ²⁴Holy One to ²⁵see corruption.

28 Thou madest known unto me
 the ways of life;

Thou shalt make me full of gladness ²⁶with thy countenance.

29 Brethren, I may say unto you freely of ²⁷the patriarch David, ²⁸that he both died and ²⁹was buried, and ³⁰his tomb is with us unto this day. ³¹Being therefore a prophet, and knowing that ³²God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins ³³he would set one upon his throne; ³⁴he foreseeing this spake of the resurrection of the Christ, that ³⁵neither was he left in Hades, nor did his flesh see corruption. ³⁶This Jesus did ³⁷God raise up, ³⁸whereof we all are witnesses. ³⁹Being therefore ⁴⁰by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of ⁴¹the Father ⁴²the promise of the Holy Ghost, ⁴³he hath poured forth this, which ye see and hear. ⁴⁴For ⁴⁵David ascended not into the heavens: but he saith himself,

⁴⁶The Lord said unto my Lord,
 Sit thou on my right hand,

35 Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet.

36 Let ⁴⁷all the house of Israel therefore know assuredly, that ⁴⁸God hath made him ⁴⁹both Lord and Christ, this Jesus ⁵⁰whom ye crucified.

37 Now when ⁵¹they heard this,
 they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and the rest of

mon; 45 and 'they sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all, according as any man had need. 46 And day by day, 'continuing stedfastly 'with one accord in the temple, and 'breaking bread at home, they did take their food 'with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 praising God, and 'having favour with all the people. And the Lord 'added ¹ to them 'day by day those that 'were being saved.

1 Now Peter and John were ³ going up into the temple at 'the hour of prayer, 'being the ninth hour. 2 And a certain man 'that was lame from his mother's womb was carried, 'whom they laid daily at the door of the temple which is called Beautiful, 'to ask alms of them that entered into the temple; 3 who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked to receive an alms. 4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him, with John, said, Look on us. 5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something from them. 6 But Peter said, 'Silver and gold have I none; but what I have, that give I thee. 'In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk. 7 And he took him by the right hand, and raised him up: and immediately his feet and his ankle-bones received strength. 8 And 'leaping up, he stood, and began to walk; and he entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God. 9 And 'all the people saw him walking and praising God: 10 and they took knowledge of him, that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And 'as he held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in 'the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering. 12 And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this 'man? or why fasten ye your eyes on us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made him to walk? 13 'The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, 'the God of our fathers, 'hath glorified his 'Servant Jesus; whom 'ye delivered up, and 'denied before the face of Pilate, 'when he had determined to release him. 14 But ye denied 'the Holy and 'Righteous One, and 'asked for a murderer to be granted unto you, 15 and killed 'the 'Prince of life; 'whom God raised from the dead; 'whereof we are witnesses. 16 And 'by 'faith in his name hath 'his name made this man strong, whom ye behold and know: yea, the faith which is 'through him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all. 17 And now, brethren, I wot that 'in ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers. 18 But the things which God 'foreshewed 'by the mouth of all the prophets, that 'his Christ should 'suffer, he thus fulfilled. 19 'Repent ye therefore, and 'turn again, that 'your sins may be blotted out, that so there may come seasons of refreshing from the presence of the Lord; 20 and that he may send the Christ 'who hath been appointed for you, even Jesus: 21 'whom the heaven must receive until the times of 'restoration of all things, whereof 'God spake by the mouth of his holy prophets which have been since the world began. 22 Moses indeed said, 'A prophet shall the Lord God raise up unto you from among your brethren, 'like unto me; 'to him shall ye hearken in all things whatsoever he shall speak unto you. 23 And it shall be, that every soul, which shall not hearken to that prophet, 'shall be utterly destroyed from among the people. 24 Yea and 'all the prophets from Samuel and them that followed after, as many as have spoken, they also told of these days. 25 'Ye are the sons of the prophets, and of 'the covenant which God 'made with your fathers, saying unto Abraham, 'And in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed. 26 Unto you 'first God, having 'raised up his Servant, sent him 'to bless you, 'in turning away every one of you from your iniquities.

1 And as they spake unto the 4 people, 1 the priests and 2 the captain of the temple and 3 the Sadducees came upon them, 2 being sore troubled because they taught the people, and proclaimed 1 in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. 3 And they laid hands on them, and 4 put them in ward unto the morrow: for it was now eventide. 4 But many of them that heard the word believed; and 5 the number of the men came to be about five thousand.

5 And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers and elders and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem; 6 and 7 Annas the high priest was there, and 8 Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest. 7 And when they had set them in the midst, they inquired, 9 By what power, or 10 in what name, have ye done this? 8 Then Peter, 9 filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders, 9 if we this day are examined 10 concerning a good deed done to an impotent man, 2 by what means this man is 3 made whole; 10 be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that 4 in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, 5 whom God raised from the dead, even in 6 him doth this man stand here before you whole. 11 He is the stone which was 4 set at nought of you the builders, which was made the head of the corner. 12 And 4 in none other is there 5 salvation: for 5 neither is there any other 6 name under heaven, that is 7 given among men, wherein we must be saved.

13 Now when they beheld the boldness of Peter and John, and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. 14 And seeing the man which was healed 5 standing with them, 6 they could say nothing against it. 15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, 16 saying, 17 What shall we do to these men? for that indeed 18 a notable 9 miracle hath been wrought through them, is manifest to all that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it. 17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us threaten them, 18 that they speak henceforth to no man in this name. 18 And they called them, and charged them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus. 19 But Peter and John answered and said unto them, 19 Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you rather than unto God, judge ye: 20 for 20 we cannot but speak the things which 9 we saw and heard. 21 And they, when they had further threatened them, let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, 21 because of the people; for all men glorified God 4 for that which was done. 22 For the man was more than forty years old, on whom this 6 miracle of healing was wrought.

23 And being let go, they came to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said unto them. 24 And they, when they heard it, lifted up their voice to God 4 with one accord, and said, O 6 Lord, 7 thou that didst make the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all that in them is: 25 8 who by the Holy Ghost, by the mouth of our father David thy servant, didst say,

9 Why did the Gentiles rage,
And the peoples 9 imagine vain things?

32 And the multitude of them that believed were of ^oone heart and ^psoul: and not one of ^qthem said that aught of the things which he possessed was his own; but ^rthey had all things common.

33 And with great ^spower gave the apostles their witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus¹: and ^tgreat grace was upon them all. 34 ^uFor neither was there among them any that lacked: for ^vas many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, 35 and ^wlaid them at the apostles' feet: and ^xdistribution was made unto each, according as any one had need.

36 And Joseph, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas (which is, being interpreted, ^ySon of ^zexhortation), a Levite, a man of Cyprus by race, 37 having a field, sold it, and brought the money, and ^{aa}laid it at the apostles' feet.

1 But a certain man named 5 Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, ^{ab}and ^{ac}kept back ^{ad}part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and ^{ae}laid it at the apostles' feet. 3 But Peter said, Ananias, why hath ^{af}Satan filled thy heart to ^{ag}lie ^{ah}to the Holy Ghost, and ^{ai}to keep back ^{aj}part of the price of the land? 4 Whiles it remained, did it not remain thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thy power? How is it that thou hast conceived this thing in thy heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but ^{ak}unto God.

5 And Ananias hearing these words ^{al}fell down and gave up the ghost: and ^{am}great fear came upon all that heard it. 6 And the ^{an}young men arose and ^{ao}wrapped him round, and they carried him out and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in. 8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much. And she said, Yea, for so much. 9 But Peter ^{ap}said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together ^{aq}to tempt ^{ar}the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and they shall carry thee out. 10 And she fell down immediately at his feet, and gave up the ghost: and the young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her by her husband. 11 And ^{as}great fear came upon the whole church, and upon all that heard these things.

12 And ^{at}by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; and they were all ^{au}with one accord in ^{av}Solomon's porch. 13 But of the rest durst no man join himself to them: howbeit ^{aw}the people magnified them; 14 ^{ax}and believers ^{ay}were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women; 15 ^{az}insomuch that they even ^{ba}carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that, as Peter came by, ^{bb}at the least his shadow might overshadow some one of them. 16 And there also came together the multitude from the cities round about Jerusalem, ^{bc}bringing sick folk, and them that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 But the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him (which is the sect of ^{bd}the Sadducees), and they were filled with ^{be}jealousy, 18 and laid hands on the apostles, and ^{bf}put them in public ward. 19 But ^{bg}an angel of the Lord by night ^{bh}opened the prison doors, and brought them out, and said, 20 Go ye, and stand and speak in the temple to the people all ^{bi}the words of ^{bj}this ^{bk}Life. 21 And when they heard ^{bl}this, ^{bm}they entered into the temple ^{bn}about daybreak, and taught. keepers standing at the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within. ²⁴ Now when the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were much perplexed concerning them whereunto this would grow. ²⁵ And there came one and told them, Behold, the men whom ye put in the prison are in the temple standing and teaching the people. ²⁶ Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them, but without violence; for they feared the people, lest they should be stoned. ²⁷ And when they had brought them, they set them before the council. And the high priest asked them, ²⁸ saying, We straitly charged you not to teach in this name: and behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us. ²⁹ But Peter and the apostles answered and said, We must obey God rather than men. ³⁰ The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew, hanging him on a tree. ³¹ Him did God exalt with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and remission of sins. ³² And we are witnesses of these things; and so is the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him. ³³ But they, when they heard this, were cut to the heart, and were minded to slay them. ³⁴ But there stood up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in honour of all the people, and commanded to put the men forth a little while. ³⁵ And he said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves as touching these men, what ye are about to do. ³⁶ For before these days rose up Theudas, giving himself out to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed, and came to nought. ³⁷ After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the enrolment, and drew away some of the people after him; he also perished; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad. ³⁸ And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will be overthrown: ³⁹ but if it is of God, ye will not be able to overthrow them; lest haply ye be found even to be fighting against God. ⁴⁰ And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles unto them, they beat them and charged them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. ⁴¹ They therefore departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonour for the Name. ⁴² And every day, in the temple and at home, they ceased not to teach and to preach Jesus as the Christ.

6 Now in these days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, there arose a murmuring of the Grecian Jews against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration. ² And the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not fit that we should forsake the word of God, and serve tables. ³ Look ye out therefore, brethren, from among you seven men of good report, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. ⁴ But we will continue stedfastly in prayer, and in the ministry of the word. ⁵ And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch: ⁶ whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.

⁸ And Stephen, full of grace and power, wrought great wonders and signs among the people. ⁹ But there arose certain of them that were of the synagogue called the synagogue of the Libertines, and of the Cyrenians, and of the Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and Asia, disputing with Stephen. ¹⁰ And they were not able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spake. 11 Then ^athey suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and ^bagainst God. 12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and seized him, and brought him into the council, 13 and ^cset up ^dfalse witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak words against ^ethis holy place, and the law: 14 for we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth ^fshall destroy this place, and shall ^gchange ^hthe customs which Moses delivered unto us. 15 And all that sat in the council, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face ⁱas it had been the face of an angel.

1 And the high priest said, 7 Are these things so? 2 And he said,

^jBrethren and fathers, hearken. ^kThe God ^lof glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, ^mbefore he dwelt in Haran, 3 and said unto him, ⁿGet thee out of thy land, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee. 4 ^oThen came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Haran: and from thence, ^pwhen his father was dead, ^qGod removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell: 5 and he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: and he promised ^rthat he would give it to him in possession, and to his seed after him, ^swhen as yet he had no child. 6 And God spake on this wise, that ^this seed should ^usojourn in a strange land, and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil, ^vfour hundred years. 7 And the nation to which they shall be in bondage ^wwill I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, ^xand serve me in this place. 8 And ^yhe gave him the covenant of circumcision: and ^zso Abraham begat Isaac, and ^{aa}circumcised him the eighth day; and ^{ab}Isaac begat Jacob, and ^{ac}Jacob the twelve patriarchs. 9 And the patriarchs, ^{ad}moved with jealousy against Joseph, ^{ae}sold him into Egypt: and ^{af}God was with him, 10 and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and ^{ag}gave him favour and wisdom before Pharaoh king of Egypt; and ^{ah}he made him governor over Egypt and all his house. 11 Now ^{ai}there came a famine over all Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance. 12 ^{aj}But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent forth our fathers the first time. 13 And ^{ak}at the second time ^{al}Joseph was made known to his brethren; and ^{am}Joseph's race became manifest unto Pharaoh. 14 And ^{an}Joseph sent, and called to him Jacob his father, and all his kindred, ^{ao}threescore and fifteen souls. 15 And ^{ap}Jacob went down into Egypt; and ^{aq}he died, himself, ^{ar}and our fathers; 16 and ^{as}they were carried over unto Shechem, and laid in the tomb that ^{at}Abraham bought for a price in silver of the sons of ^{au}Hamor in Shechem. 17 But ^{av}as the time of the promise drew nigh, which God vouchsafed unto Abraham, ^{aw}the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, 18 till there arose another king over Egypt, ^{ax}which knew not Joseph. 19 ^{ay}The same dealt subtilly with our race, and evil entreated our fathers, ^{az}that ^{ba}they should cast out their babes to the end they might not ^{bb}live. 20 ^{bc}At which season Moses was born, and was ^{bd}exceeding fair; and he was nourished three months in his father's house: 21 and ^{be}when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son. 22 And Moses ^{bf}was instructed in ^{bg}all the wisdom of the Egyptians; and he was ^{bh}mighty in his words and works. 23 But when he was well-nigh forty years old, it came into his heart ^{bi}to visit his brethren the children of Israel. 24 And seeing one of ^{bj}them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, smiting the Egyptian: 25 and he supposed that his brethren understood how that God by his hand was giving them ^{bk}deliverance; but they understood not. 26 ^{bl}And the day following he appeared unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another? 27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying,

"Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us? 28 Wouldest thou kill me, as thou kildest the Egyptian yesterday? 29 And Moses fled at this saying, and became a sojourner in the land of Midian, where he begat two sons. 30 And when forty years were fulfilled, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush. 31 And when Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold, there came a voice of the Lord, 32 I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob. And Moses trembled, and durst not behold. 33 And the Lord said unto him, Loose the shoes from thy feet: for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground. 34 I have surely seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and have heard their groaning, and I am come down to deliver them:
 and now come, I will send thee into Egypt. 35 This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? him hath God sent to be both a ruler and a deliverer with the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush. 36 This man led them forth, having wrought wonders and signs in Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years.
 37 This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, A prophet shall God raise up unto you from among your brethren, like unto me. 38 This is he that was in the church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sinai, and with our fathers: who received living oracles to give unto us: 39 to whom our fathers would not be obedient, but thrust him from them, and turned back in their hearts unto Egypt, 40 saying unto Aaron, Make us gods which shall go before us:
 for as for this Moses, which led us forth out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.
 41 And they made a calf in those days, and brought a sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their hands. 42 But God turned, and gave them up to serve the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets,

 "Did ye offer unto me slain beasts and sacrifices
 Forty years in the wilderness,
 O house of Israel?

43 And ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch,
 And the star of the god Rephan,
 The figures which ye made to worship them:
 And I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of the testimony in the wilderness, even as he appointed who spake unto Moses, that he should make it according to the figure that he had seen. 45 Which also our fathers, in their turn, brought in with Joshua when they entered on the possession of the nations, which God thrust out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David; 46 who found favour in the sight of God, and asked to find a habitation for the God of Jacob.
 47 But Solomon built him a house.
 48 Howbeit the Most High dwelleth not in houses made with hands;
 as saith the prophet,
 49 The heaven is my throne,

And the earth the footstool of my feet:

What manner of house will ye build me? saith the Lord:

Or what is the place of my rest?
 50 Did not my hand make all these things?

51 Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye. 52 Which of the prophets did not your fathers persecute? and they killed them which shewed before of the coming of the Righteous One; of whom ye have now become betrayers and murderers; 53 ye who received the law as it was ordained by angels, and kept it not.

54 Now when they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth. 55 But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up sted-fastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, 56 and said, Behold, I see ^v the heavens opened, and ^u the Son of man standing ^w on the right hand of God. 57 But they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and rushed upon him with one accord; 58 and ^x they cast him out of the city, and ^y stoned him: and ^z the witnesses laid down their garments ^a at the feet of a young man named Saul. 59 And they stoned Stephen, ^b calling upon the Lord, and saying, Lord Jesus, ^c receive my spirit. 60 And he ^d kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, ^e Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, ^f he fell ^g asleep. ^h And ⁱ Saul was ^k consenting unto his death.

And there arose on that day a great persecution against the church which was in Jerusalem; and ^l they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles. ^m And devout men buried Stephen, and ⁿ made great lamentation over him. 3 But ^o Saul laid waste the church, entering into every house, and ^p halting men and women committed them to prison.

^q They therefore that were scattered abroad went about preaching the word. 5 And ^r Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and proclaimed unto them the Christ. 6 And the multitudes gave heed with one accord unto the things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard, ^s and saw the signs which he did. 7 ^t For from many of those which had ^u unclean spirits, they came out, crying with a loud voice: and many that were palsied, and that were lame, were healed. 8 And ^v there was much joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, Simon by name, which beforetime in the city ^w used sorcery, and amazed the ^x people of Samaria, ^y giving out that himself was some great one: to whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, ^z This man is called ^a Great. ^b And they gave heed to him, because that of long time he had ^c amazed them with his sorceries. ^d But when ^e they believed

Philip preaching good tidings ^b concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, ^c they were baptized, both men and women. 13 And Simon also himself believed: and being baptized, he continued with Philip; and ^d beholding signs and ^e great ^f miracles wrought, ^g he was amazed.

14 Now when ^h the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that ⁱ Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John: 15 who, when they were come down, prayed for them, ^j that they might receive the Holy Ghost: 16 for ^k as yet he was ^l fallen upon none of them: only ^m they had been baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. 17 Then ⁿ laid they their hands on them, and ^o they received the Holy Ghost. 18 Now when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the ^p Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, 19 saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay my hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost. 20 But Peter said unto him, ^q Thy silver perish with thee, because thou hast thought to obtain the gift of God ^r with money. 21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this ^s matter: for ^t thy heart is not right before God. 22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray the Lord, ^u if perhaps the thought of thy heart shall be forgiven thee. 23 For I see that thou ^v art in ^w the gall of bitterness and in ^x the bond of iniquity. 24 And Simon answered and said, ^y Pray ye for me to the Lord, that none of the things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 They therefore, when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and ^z preached the gospel to many villages of the Samaritans.

26 But ^a an angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go ^b toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza: the same is desert. 27 And he arose and went: and behold, ^c a man of ^d Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, ^e who was overall her treasure, ^f who had come to Jerusalem for to worship; ²⁸ and he was returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah. ²⁹ And ^b the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot. ³⁰ And Philip ran to him, and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest? ³¹ And he said, ^c How can I, except some one shall ^d guide me? And ^e he besought Philip to come up and sit with him. ³² Now the place of the scripture which he was reading was this,

^f He was led as a sheep to the slaughter;

And as a lamb before his shearer is dumb,

So he openeth not his mouth:

³³ In his ^g humiliation his judgment was taken away:

His generation who shall declare?

For his life is taken from the earth.

³⁴ And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other? ³⁵ And Philip opened his mouth, and ^a beginning from this scripture, ^h preached unto him Jesus. ³⁶ And as they went on the way, they came unto a certain water; and the eunuch saith, Behold, here is water; ⁱ what doth hinder me to be baptized? ¹ ³⁸ And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. ³⁹ And when they came up out of the water, ^k the Spirit of the Lord ^l caught away Philip; and the eunuch saw him no more, for he went on his way rejoicing. ⁴⁰ But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached the gospel to all the cities, till he came to Caesarea.

¹ But Saul, ^m yet ⁿ breathing threatening and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto ^o the high priest, ² and asked of him letters to Damascus ^p unto the synagogues, that if he found any that were of ^q the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. ³ And as he journeyed, it came to pass that he drew nigh unto Damascus: and suddenly there shone round about him a light out of heaven: ⁴ and he fell upon the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou ^r me? ⁵ And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus ^s whom thou persecutest: ⁶ but ^t rise, and enter into the city, and it shall be told thee ^u what thou must do. ⁷ And ^v the men that journeyed with him stood speechless, ^w hearing the ^x voice, but beholding no man. ⁸ And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, ^y he saw nothing; and they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus. ⁹ And he was three days without sight, and did neither eat nor drink.

Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named ^z Ananias; and the Lord said unto him in a vision, Ananias. And he said, ^{aa} Behold, I am here, Lord. ¹¹ And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one named Saul, a man ^{ab} of Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth; ¹² and he hath seen a man named Ananias coming in, and ^{ac} laying his hands on him, that he might receive his sight. ¹³ But Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard from many of this man, ^{ad} how much evil he did to ^{ae} thy ^{af} saints at Jerusalem: ¹⁴ and here he hath authority from ^{ag} the chief priests to bind all that ^{ah} call upon thy name. ¹⁵ But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for ^{ai} he is ^{aj} a ^{ak} chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name ^{al} before the Gentiles and ^{am} kings, and the children of Israel: ¹⁶ for ^{an} I will shew him how many things ^{ao} he must suffer ^{ap} for my name's sake. ¹⁷ And ^{aq} Ananias departed, and entered into the house; and ^{ar} laying his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, who appeared unto thee in the way which thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mayest receive thy sight, and ^{as} be filled with the Holy Ghost. ¹⁸ And straightway there fell from his eyes as it were scales, and ^{at} he received his sight; and ^{au} he arose and was baptized; ¹⁹ and ^{av} he took food and was strengthened.

And ^{aw} he was certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus. 20 And straightway in the synagogues he proclaimed Jesus, ^vthat he is the Son of God. 21 And all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he ^wthat in Jerusalem ^zmade havock of them which called on this name? and he had come hither for this intent, that he might bring them bound before the chief priests. 22 But Saul ^yincreased the more in strength, and ^zconfounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving ^athat this is the Christ.

23 And ^bwhen many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel together to kill him: 24 but their ^cplot became known to Saul. And ^dthey watched the gates also day and night that they might kill him: 25 but his disciples took him by night, and ^elet him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket.

26 And ^fwhen he was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: and they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. 27 But ^gBarnabas took him, and ^hbrought him to the apostles, and declared unto them ⁱhow he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and ^jhow at Damascus he had ^kpreached boldly in the name of Jesus. 28 And he was with them ^lgoing in and going out at Jerusalem, ^mpreaching boldly in the name of the Lord: and he spake and disputed against ⁿthe ^oGrecian Jews; but ^pthey went about to kill him. 30 And when ^qthe brethren knew it, they brought him down to Cæsarea, and sent him forth ^rto Tarsus.

31 So ^sthe church throughout all Judæa and Galilee and Samaria had peace, being ^tedified; and, ^uwalking ^vin the fear of the Lord and ^win the comfort of the Holy Ghost, ^xwas multiplied.

32 And it came to pass, ^yas Peter went throughout all parts, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at ^zLydda. 33 And there he found a certain man named ^aÆneas, which had kept his bed eight years; for he was palsied. 34 And Peter said unto him, ^bÆneas, ^cJesus Christ healeth thee: arise, and make thy bed. And straightway he arose. 35 ^dAnd all that dwelt at Lydda and in ^eSharon saw him, and ^fthey turned to the Lord.

36 Now there was at ^gJoppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called ^hDorcas: this woman was full of ⁱgood works and almsdeeds which she did. 37 And it came to pass in those days, that she fell sick, and died: and when they had washed her, they laid her in ^jan upper chamber. 38 And as Lydda was nigh unto Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men unto him, intreating him, ^kDelay not to come on unto us. 39 And Peter arose and went with them. And when he was come, they brought him into ^lthe upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them. 40 But Peter ^mput them all forth, and ⁿkneeled down, and prayed; and turning to the body, ^ohe said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes; and when she saw Peter, she sat up. 41 And he gave her his hand, and raised her up; and calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive. 42 And it became known throughout all Joppa: and ^pmany believed on the Lord. 43 And it came to pass, that he abode many days in Joppa ^qwith one Simon a tanner.

IO 1 Now there was a certain man in Cæsarea, Cornelius by name, a centurion of ^rthe band called the Italian ^sband, ^ta devout man, and ^uone that feared God with all his house, who gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God always. 3 ^vHe saw in a vision openly, as it were ^wabout the ninth hour of the day, ^xan angel of God coming in unto him, and saying to him, Cornelius. 4 And he, fastening his eyes upon him, and being affrighted, said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms ^yare gone up ^zfor a memorial before God. 5 And now send men to Joppa, and fetch one Simon, who is surnamed Peter: 6 he lodgeth ^awith one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side. 7 And when the angel that spake unto him was departed, he called two of his ^bhousehold-servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually; 8 and having rehearsed all things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 Now on the morrow, as they were on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, ^aPeter went up ^aupon the housetop to pray, about ^athe sixth hour: 10 and he became hungry, and desired to eat: but while they made ready, he fell into ^aa trance; 11 and he beholdeth ^athe heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending, as it were a great sheet, let down by four corners upon the earth: 12 wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts and creeping things of the earth and fowls of the heaven. 13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill and eat. 14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; ^afor I have never eaten anything that is ^acommon and ^aunclean. 15 And ^aa voice came unto him again the second time, ^aWhat God hath cleansed, make not thou common. 16 And this was done thrice: and straightway the vessel was received up into heaven.

17 Now while Peter was much perplexed in himself what ^bthe vision which he had seen might mean, behold, ^cthe men that were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simon's house, stood before the gate, 18 and called and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodging there. 19 And while Peter thought on ^bthe vision, ^dthe Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee. 20 But arise, and get thee down, and ^ego with them, nothing doubting: for I have sent them. 21 And Peter went down to the men, and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come? 22 And they said, Cornelius a centurion, a righteous man and ^fone that feareth God, and well reported of by all the nation of the Jews, was warned ^gof God by ^ga holy angel to send for thee into his house, and ^hto hear words from thee. 23 So he called them in and lodged them.

And on the morrow he arose and went forth with them, and ⁱcertain of ⁱthe brethren from Joppa accompanied him. 24 And on the morrow ⁱthey entered into Cæsa-

rea. And Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his kinsmen and his near friends. 25 And when it came to pass that Peter entered, Cornelius met him, and ^kfell down at his feet, and ^kworshipped him. 26 But Peter raised him up, saying, ^kStand up; I myself also am a man. 27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and findeth many come together: 28 and he said unto them, Ye yourselves know ^lhow that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew ^lto join himself or come unto one of another nation; and ^lyet unto me hath God shewed that I should not call any man common or unclean: 29 wherefore also I came without gainsaying, when I was sent for. I ask therefore with what intent ye sent for me. 30 And Cornelius said, ^mFour days ago, until this hour, I was keeping ^mthe ninth hour of prayer in my house; and behold, ⁿa man stood before me in bright apparel, 31 and saith, Cornelius, ⁿthy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God. 32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call unto thee Simon, who is surnamed Peter; he lodgeth in the house of Simon a tanner, by the sea side. 33 Forthwith therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God, to hear all things that have been commanded thee of the Lord. 34 And Peter opened his mouth, and said,

Of a truth I perceive that ^oGod is no ^orespector of persons: 35 but ^oin every nation he that feareth him, and ^oworketh righteousness, is acceptable to him. 36 ^oThe word which he sent unto the children of Israel, ^opreaching ^ogood tidings of ^opeace by Jesus Christ (^ohe is Lord of all)—37 that saying ye yourselves know, which was published throughout all Judæa, ^obeginning ^ofrom Galilee, after the baptism which John preached: 38 ^oeven Jesus of Nazareth, how that ^oGod anointed him ^owith the Holy Ghost and with ^opower: who went about doing good, and healing all ^othat were oppressed of the devil; ^ofor God was with him. 39 And ^awe are witnesses of all things which he did both in the country of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; ^bwhom also they slew, hanging him on a tree. 40 ^cHim God raised up ^dthe third day, and gave him to be ^emade manifest, 41 ^fnot to all the people, but unto ^gwitnesses that were chosen before of God, ^heven to us, ⁱwho did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead. 42 And ^jhe charged us to preach unto the people, and to testify ^kthat this is he which is ordained of God ^lto be the Judge ^mof quick and dead. 43 ⁿTo him bear ^oall the prophets witness, that ^pthrough his name ^qevery one that believeth on him shall receive ^rremission of sins.

44 While Peter yet spake these words, ^sthe Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word. 45 And ^tthey of the circumcision which believed were amazed, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also ^uwas poured out ^vthe gift of the Holy Ghost. 46 For they heard them ^wspeak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, 47 ^xCan any man forbid the water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost ^yas well as we? 48 And he ^zcommanded them ^ato be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

II Now the apostles and ^bthe brethren that were in Judaea heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. 2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they ^cthat were of the circumcision contended with him, 3 saying, ^d'Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst ^eeat with them. 4 But Peter began, and expounded the ^fmatter unto them in order, saying, 5 ^gI was in the city of Joppa praying; and in a trance I saw a vision, a certain vessel descending, as it were a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even unto me: 6 upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw the fourfooted beasts of the earth and wild beasts and creeping things and fowls of the heaven. 7 And I heard also a voice saying unto me, Rise, Peter; kill and eat. 8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath ever entered into my mouth. 9 But a voice answered the second time out of heaven, What God hath cleansed, make not thou common. 10 And this was done thrice: and all were drawn up again into heaven. 11 And behold, forthwith three men stood before the house in which we were, having been sent from Caesarea unto me. 12 And the Spirit bade me go with them, ^hmaking no distinction. And ⁱthese six brethren also accompanied me; and we entered into the man's house: 13 and he told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, and saying, Send to Joppa, and fetch Simon, whose surname is Peter; 14 ^jwho shall speak unto thee words, whereby ^kthou shalt be saved, thou and all thy house. 15 And as I began to speak, ^lthe Holy Ghost fell on them, ^meven as on us at the beginning. 16 And I remembered the word of the Lord, how that he said, ⁿ'John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized ^owith the Holy Ghost. 17 If then ^pGod gave unto them ^q'the like gift as ^rhe did also unto us, ^swhen we believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, ^twho was I, ^uthat I could withstand God? 18 And when they heard these things, they held their peace, and ^vglorified God, saying, ^w'Then to the Gentiles also hath God ^xgranted ^yrepentance unto life.

19 ^bThey therefore that were scattered abroad upon the tribulation that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phoenicia, and Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to none save only to Jews. 20 But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the ^cGreeks also, ^dpreaching the Lord Jesus. 21 And ^ethe hand of the Lord was with them; and a great number that believed ^fturned unto the Lord. 22 And the report concerning them came to the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas as far as Antioch: 23 who, when he was come, and had seen ^gthe grace of God, was glad; and he exhorted them all, ¹that ²with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord: ²⁴for he was a good man, and ³full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and much people ⁴was added unto the Lord. ²⁵And he went forth to ⁵Tarsus to seek for Saul: ²⁶and when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that even for a whole year they were gathered together ⁶with the church, and taught much people; and that the disciples were called ⁷'Christians' first in Antioch.

²⁷Now in these days there came down ⁸"prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch. ²⁸And there stood up one of them named ⁹"Agabus, and signified ¹⁰by the Spirit that there should be a great ¹¹"famine over all ¹²the world: which came to pass in the days of ¹³"Claudius. ²⁹And the disciples, every man according to his ability, ¹⁴determined ¹⁵to send ¹⁶"relief unto ¹⁷the brethren that dwelt in Judæa: ³⁰"which also they did, sending it to ¹⁸the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

¹⁹Now about that time Herod ¹²the king put forth his hands to afflict certain of the church.

²And he killed ¹"James the brother of John ³"with the sword. ³And when he saw ⁴that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to seize Peter also. And ⁵those were ⁶the days of unleavened bread. ⁴And when he had taken him, he put him ⁷in prison, and delivered him to four ⁸"quaternions of soldiers to guard him; intending after the Passover to bring him forth to the people. ⁵Peter therefore was kept in the prison: but prayer was made earnestly ⁹of the church unto God for him. ⁶And when Herod was about to bring him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, ¹⁰bound with two chains: and guards before the door kept the prison. ⁷And behold, ¹¹"an angel of the Lord ¹²"stood by him, and a light shined in the cell: and ¹³he smote Peter on the side, and awoke him, saying, Rise up quickly. And ¹⁴his chains fell off from his hands. ⁸And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and ¹⁵bind on thy sandals.

And he did so. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me. ⁹And he went out, and followed; and he wist not that it was true which was done ¹⁶by the angel, but ¹⁷thought he saw a vision. ¹⁰And when they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth into the city; ¹⁸which opened to them of its own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and straightway the angel departed from him. ¹¹And when Peter ¹⁹was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a truth, that ²⁰'the Lord hath sent forth his angel and ²¹'delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews. ¹²And when he had considered ²²the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of ²³"John whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together and ²⁴were praying. ¹³And when he knocked at the door of the gate, ²⁵a maid came to answer, named Rhoda. ¹⁴And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate ²⁶for joy, but ran in, and told that Peter stood before the gate. ¹⁵And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she confidently affirmed that it was even so. And they said, It is ²⁷'his angel. ¹⁶But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened, they saw him, and were amazed. ¹⁷But he, ²⁸'beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him forth out of the prison. And he said, Tell these things unto ²⁹'James, and to ³⁰'the brethren. And he departed, and went to another place. ¹⁸Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter. ¹⁹And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the guards, and ³¹'commanded that they should be ³²'put to death. And he went down from Judæa to Cæsarea, and tarried there.

²⁰Now he was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: and they came with one accord to him, and, ³³'having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, they asked for peace, because ^atheir country was fed from the king's country. ²¹And upon a set day Herod arrayed himself in royal apparel, and sat on the ¹ throne, and made an oration unto them. ²²And the people shouted, saying, The voice of a god, and not of a man. ²³And immediately ^aan angel of the Lord smote him, because ^ahe gave not God the glory: and ^bhe was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

²⁴But ^cthe word of God grew and multiplied.

13 Now there were at Antioch, in the church that was there, ^fprophets and ^gteachers, ^hBarnabas, and Symeon that was called Niger, and ⁱLucius of Cyrene, and Manaen the foster-brother of ^jHerod the tetrarch, and Saul. ²And as they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, ^jthe Holy Ghost said, ^kSeparate me Barnabas and Saul ^lfor the work whereunto I have called them. ³Then, when they had fasted and ^mprayed and laid their hands on them, ⁿthey sent them away.

⁴So they, being sent forth ^oby the Holy Ghost, went down to Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus. ⁵And when they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God ^pin the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also ^qJohn as their ^rattendant. ⁶And when they had gone through the whole island unto Paphos, they found a certain ^ssorcerer, ^ta false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-Jesus; ⁷which was with ^uthe proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. The same called unto him Barnabas and Saul, and sought to hear the word of God. ⁸But Elymas the ^vsorcerer (for so his name by interpretation) ^wwithstood them, seeking to turn aside ^xthe proconsul from the faith. ⁹But Saul, who is also called Paul, ^yfilled with the Holy Ghost, fastened his eyes on him, ¹⁰and said, O full of all guile and all ^zvillany, thou ^ason of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease ^bto pervert ^cthe right ways of the Lord? ¹¹And now, behold, ^cthe hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun ^dfor a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking ^esome to lead him by the hand. ¹²Then the proconsul, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at ^fthe teaching of the Lord.

¹³Now Paul and his company set sail from Paphos, and came to Perga in Pamphylia: and ^gJohn departed from them and returned ^hto Jerusalem. ¹⁴But they, passing through from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia; and ⁱthey went into the synagogue ^jon the sabbath day, and sat down. ¹⁵And after ^kthe reading of ^lthe law and the prophets ^mthe rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Brethren, if ye have any ⁿword of exhortation for the people, say on. ¹⁶And Paul stood up, and ^obeckoning with the hand said,

Men of Israel, and ^pye that fear God, hearken. ¹⁷The God of this people Israel ^qchose our fathers, and ^rexalted the people ^swhen they sojourned in the land of Egypt, and ^twith a high arm led them forth out of it. ¹⁸And for about the time of ^uforty years ^vwe suffered he their manners in the wilderness. ¹⁹And ^wwhen he had destroyed ^xseven nations in the land of Canaan, ^yhe gave ^zthem their land for an inheritance, for about four hundred and fifty years: ²⁰and after these things ^ahe gave ^bthem judges until ^cSamuel the prophet. ²¹And afterward ^dthey asked for a king: and ^eGod gave unto them Saul ^fthe son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for the space of forty years. ²²And ^gwhen he had removed him, ^hhe raised up David to be their king; to whom also he bare witness, and said, ⁱI have found David the son of Jesse, ^ja man after my heart, ^kwho shall do all my ^lwill. ²³Of this man's seed hath God ^maccording to promise brought unto Israel ⁿa Saviour, Jesus; ²⁴when John had first preached ^obefore his ^pcoming

the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. 25 And as John was fulfilling his course, he said, What suppose ye that I am? I am not he. But behold, there cometh one after me, the shoes of whose feet I am not worthy to unloose. 26 Brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and those among you that fear God, to us is the word of this salvation sent forth. 27 For they that dwell in Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning him. 28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet asked they of Pilate that he should be slain. 29 And when they had fulfilled all things that were written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a tomb. 30 But God raised him from the dead: 31 and he was seen for many days of them that came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now his witnesses unto the people. 32 And we bring you good tidings of the promise made unto the fathers, 33 how that God hath fulfilled the same unto our children, in that he raised up Jesus; as also it is written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. 34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he hath spoken on this wise, I will give you the holy and sure blessings of David. 35 Because he saith also in another psalm, Thou wilt not give thy Holy One to see corruption. 36 For David, after he had in his own generation served the counsel of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption: 37 but he whom God raised up saw no corruption. 38 Be it known unto you therefore, brethren, that through this man is proclaimed unto you remission of sins: 39 and by him every one that believeth is justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. 40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken in the prophets;

Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish;
For I work a work in your days,
A work which ye shall in no wise believe, if one declare it unto you.

And as they went out, they besought that these words might be spoken to them the next sabbath. Now when the synagogue broke up, many of the Jews and of the devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in the grace of God.

And the next sabbath almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of God. But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things which were spoken by Paul, and blasphemed. 46 And Paul and Barnabas spake out boldly, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first be spoken to you. Seeing ye thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. 47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying,

I have set thee for a light of the Gentiles,
That thou shouldst be for salvation unto the uttermost part of the earth.

And as the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of God: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed. 49 And the word of the Lord was spread abroad throughout all the region. 50 But the Jews urged on the devout women of honourable estate, and the chief men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and cast them out of their borders. 51 But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium. 52 And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Ghost.

And it came to pass in Iconium, that they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of Jews and 8 And at Lystra there sat a certain man, impotent in his feet, ^aa cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked. 9 The same heard Paul speaking: who, fastening his eyes upon him, and ^bseeing that he had faith to be ^cmade whole, 10 said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he ^dleaped up and walked. 11 And when the multitudes saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, ^eThe gods are come down to us in the likeness of men. 12 And they called Barnabas, ^f2^v Jupiter; and Paul, ^gMercury, because he was the chief speaker. 13 And the priest of ^h2^v Jupiter whose temple was before the city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and ⁱwould have done sacrifice with the multitudes. 14 But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they ^jrent their garments, and sprang forth among the multitude, crying out 15 and saying, Sirs, ^kwhy do ye these things? We also are men ^lof like ^mpassions with you, and bring you good tidings, that ⁿye should turn from these ^ovain things unto ^pthe living God, ^qwho made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all that in them is: 16 who in the generations gone by ^rsuffered all the nations ^sto walk in their own ways. 17 And yet ^the left not himself without witness, in that he ^udid good, and ^vgave you from heaven rains and ^afruitful seasons, filling your hearts with ^bfood and ^cgladness. 18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the multitudes from doing sacrifice unto them.

19^v But there came Jews thither from Antioch and Iconium; and having persuaded the multitudes, ^athey stoned Paul, and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead. 20 But as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and entered into the city: and on the morrow he went forth with Barnabas to Derbe. 21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had ^bmade many disciples, they returned to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antioch, 22^v confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting them ^cto continue in ^dthe faith, and that ^ethrough many tribulations we must enter into the kingdom of God. 23 And when they had ^fappointed for them ^gelders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, ^hthey commended them to the Lord, on whom they had believed. 24 And they passed through Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia. 25 And when they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia; 26 and thence they sailed to Antioch, ⁱfrom whence they had been ^jcommitted to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled. 27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, ^kthey rehearsed all things that God had done with them, and ^lhow that he had ^mopened ⁿa door of faith unto the Gentiles. 28 And they tarried no little time with the disciples.

1^v And certain men came 15 down from Judea and taught ^athe brethren, ^bsaying, Except ye be ^ccircumcised ^dafter the custom of Moses, ye cannot be saved. 2 And when Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and ^equestioning with them, ^fthe brethren appointed that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto ^gthe apostles and elders about this question. 3 They therefore, ^hbeing brought on their way by the church, passed through both Phenicia and Samaria, ⁱdeclar^{ing} the conversion of the Gentiles: and ¹they caused great joy unto all ²the brethren. 4 And ³when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church and ⁴the apostles and the elders, and ⁵they rehearsed all things that God had done with them. 5 But there rose up certain of ⁶the sect of the Pharisees who believed, saying, ⁷It is needful ⁸to circumcise them, and to charge them to keep the law of Moses.

6 And ¹the apostles and the elders were gathered together to consider of this matter. 7 And when there had been much ²questioning,
Peter rose up, and said unto them,

Brethren, ye know how that ¹a good while ago God made choice among you, ²that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear ³the word of ⁴the gospel, and believe. 3 And God, ⁵which knoweth the heart, ⁶bare them witness, ⁷giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us; 9 and ⁸he made no distinction between us and them, ⁹cleansing their hearts ¹⁰by faith. 10 Now therefore why ¹¹tempt ye God, ¹²that ye should put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, ¹³which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?
11 But we ¹⁴believe that we shall be ¹⁵saved through ¹⁶the grace of the Lord Jesus, ¹⁷in like manner as they.

12 And all the multitude kept silence; and they hearkened unto Barnabas and Paul ¹⁸rehearsing what signs and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them. 13 And after they had held their peace, ¹⁹James answered, saying,

Brethren, hearken unto me:
14 ²⁰Symeon hath rehearsed how first God did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them ²¹a people for his name.
15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written, 16 ²²After these things I will return,
And I will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen;
And I will build again the ruins thereof,

And I will set it up:
17 That the residue of men ²³may seek after the Lord,
And all the Gentiles, ²⁴upon whom my name is called,

18 Saith the Lord, ²⁵who maketh these things ²⁶known from the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore ²⁷my judgement is, that we trouble not them which from among the Gentiles ²⁸turn to God; ²⁹but that we ³⁰write unto them, ³¹that they abstain from ³²the pollutions of idols, and from ³³fornication, and from ³⁴what is strangled, and from ³⁵blood. 21 For Moses from generations of old hath in every city them that preach him, ³⁶being read in the synagogues every sabbath.

22 Then it seemed good to ³⁷the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men out of their company, and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; ³⁸namely, Judas called ³⁹'Barsabbas, and ⁴⁰Silas, chief men among ⁴¹the brethren: 23 and they wrote ⁴²thus by them, ⁴³'The apostles and the elder brethren unto ⁴⁴the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia, ⁴⁵greeting: 24 For-asmuch as we have heard that ⁴⁶certain ⁴⁷'which went out from us have ⁴⁸'troubled you with words, subverting your souls; to whom we gave no commandment; 25 it seemed good unto us, having come ⁴⁹to one accord, to choose out men and send them unto you with our ⁵⁰'beloved Barnabas and Paul, ⁵¹men that have ⁵²hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore ⁵³'Judas and Silas, who themselves also shall tell you the same things by word of mouth. 28 For it seemed good ⁵⁴to the Holy Ghost, and ⁵⁵to us, ⁵⁶to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things; 29 ⁵⁷that ye abstain from ⁵⁸'things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication; from which if ye keep yourselves, it shall be well with you.
⁵⁹Fare ye well.

30 So they, when they were dismissed, came down to Antioch; and having gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle.
31 And when they had read it, they rejoiced for the ⁶⁰consolation.
32 And Judas and Silas, being themselves also ⁶¹prophets, ⁶²exhorted ⁶³the brethren with many words, and confirmed them. 33 And after they had spent some time there, they were dismissed "in peace from 'the brethren unto those that had sent them forth. 35 But "Paul and Barnabas tarried in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 And after some days Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us return now and visit 'the brethren "in every city wherein we proclaimed the word of the Lord, and see how they fare. 37 And Barnabas was minded to take with them "John also, who was called Mark. 38 But Paul thought not good to take with them him "who withdrew from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work. 39 And there arose "a sharp contention, so that they parted asunder one from the other, and "Barnabas took Mark with him, and sailed away unto Cyprus; 40 but Paul chose Silas, and went forth, "being commended by "the brethren to "the grace of the Lord. 41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, "confirming the churches.

16 And he came also to Derbe and to Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named "Timothy, "the son of a Jewess which believed; but his father was a Greek. 2 The same was well reported of by "the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium. 3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and he "took and circumcised him because of the Jews that were in those parts: for they all knew that his father was a Greek. 4 And as they went on their way through the cities, they delivered them "the decrees for to keep, "which had been ordained of "the apostles and elders that were at Jerusalem. 5 "So the churches were strengthened in "the faith, and increased in number "daily.

6 And "they went through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, having been forbidden of the Holy Ghost to speak the word in Asia; 7 and when they were come over against Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia; and "the Spirit of Jesus suffered them not; 8 and passing by Mysia, they came down "to Troas. 9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There was a man of Macedonia standing, beseeching him, and saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us. 10 And when he had seen the vision, straightway "we sought to go forth into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Setting sail therefore from Troas, we "made a straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis; 12 and from thence to "Philippi, which is a city of Macedonia, the first of the district, "a Roman colony: and we were in this city tarrying certain days. 13 And "on the sabbath day we went forth without the gate "by a river side, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we "sat down, and spake unto the women which were come together. 14 And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, "one that worshipped God, heard us: "whose "heart the Lord opened, to give heed unto the things which were spoken by Paul. 15 And when she was baptized, "and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she "constrained us.

16 And it came to pass, as we were going to "the place of prayer, that a certain maid having "a spirit of "divination met us, "which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying. 17 The same following after Paul and us "cried out, saying, These men are "servants of "the Most High God, which proclaim unto you "the way of salvation. 18 And this she did for many days. But Paul, being sore troubled, turned and said to the spirit, "I charge thee "in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And "it came out that very hour.

19 But "when her masters saw that the hope of their gain was "gone, they laid hold on Paul and Silas, and "dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers, 20 and when they had brought them unto the "magistrates, they said, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, 21 and "set forth customs which it is not lawful for us to receive, or to observe, ¹being Romans. 22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the ¹magistrates rent their garments off them, and commanded ²to beat them with rods. 23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely: 24 who, having received such a charge, cast them into the inner ³prison, and made their feet fast in ⁴the stocks. 25 But ⁵about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns unto God, and the prisoners were listening to them; 26 and suddenly ⁶there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison-house were shaken: and immediately ⁷all the doors were opened; and ⁸every one's bands were loosed. 27 And the jailor being roused out of sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword, and ⁹was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. 28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here. 29 And he called for lights; and sprang in, and, trembling for fear, ¹⁰fell down before Paul and Silas, 30 and brought them out, and said, Sirs, ¹¹what must I do to be ¹²saved? 31 And they said, ¹³Believe on the Lord Jesus, and thou shalt be saved, thou ¹⁴and thy house. 32 And they spake the word of ¹⁵the Lord unto him, with all that were in his house. 33 And he took them ¹⁶the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and ¹⁷was baptized, he and all his, immediately. 34 And he brought them up into his house, and set ¹⁸meat before them, and ¹⁹rejoiced greatly, with all his house, ²⁰having believed in God.

35 But when it was day, the ¹magistrates sent the ²serjeants, saying, Let those men go. 36 And the jailor reported the words to Paul, saying, The ¹magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore come forth, and go in peace. 37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us publicly, ²uncondemned, men that are Romans, and have cast us into prison; and do they now cast us out privily? nay verily;

but let them come themselves and bring us out. 38 And the ³serjeants reported these words unto the ⁴magistrates: and ⁵they feared, when they heard that they were Romans; 39 and they came and besought them; and when they had brought them out, ⁶they asked them to go away from the city. 40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of ⁷Lydia: and when they had seen ⁸the brethren, they ⁹comforted them, and departed.

I Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to ¹Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews: 2 and Paul, ²as his custom was, went in unto them, and for three ³sabbath days reasoned with them ⁴from the scriptures, 3 ⁵opening and alleging, that it behoved ⁶the Christ to suffer, and ⁷to rise again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom, said he, I proclaim unto you, is the Christ. 4 And ⁸some of them were persuaded, and consorted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout ⁹Greeks ¹⁰a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few. 5 ¹¹But the Jews, being moved with ¹²jealousy, took unto them ¹³certain vile fellows of the rabble, and gathering a crowd, set the city on an uproar; and assailing the house of ¹⁴Jason, they sought to bring them forth to the people. 6 And when they found them not, ¹⁵they dragged Jason and certain brethren before the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned ¹⁶the world upside down are come hither also; 7 whom Jason hath received: and these all act contrary to ¹⁷the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is ¹⁸another king, one Jesus. 8 And they troubled the multitude and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things. 9 And when they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.

10 And ¹the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who when they were come thither ²went into the synagogue of the Jews. 11 Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, every sabbath, and ¹persuaded Jews and Greeks.

5 But ^awhen Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul ^bwas constrained by the word, ^ctestifying to the Jews that ^dJesus was the Christ. 6 And when they opposed themselves, and ^eblasphemed, ^fhe shook out his raiment, and said unto them, ^gYour blood be upon your own heads; ^hI am clean: ⁱfrom henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles. 7 And he departed thence, and went into the house of a certain man named Titus ^jJustus, ^kone that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue. 8 And ^lCrispus, the ruler of the synagogue, ^mbelieved in the Lord ⁿwith all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized. 9 And the Lord said unto Paul ^oin the night by ^pa vision, ^qBe not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace: ^rfor I am with thee, and ^sno man shall set on thee to harm thee: ^tfor I have much people in this city. 11 And he dwelt there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 But when Gallio was ^uproconsul of Achaia, ^vthe Jews with one accord rose up against Paul, and ^wbrought him before the judgement-seat, 13 saying, This man persuadeth men to worship God contrary to ^xthe law. 14 But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked villainy, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you: 15 but ^yif they are questions about words and names and ^zyour own law, look to it yourselves; I am not minded to be a judge of these matters. 16 And he drave them from the judgement-seat. 17 And they all laid hold on Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgement-seat. And Gallio cared for none of these things.

18 And Paul, having tarried after this yet many days, took his leave of ^athe brethren, and sailed thence for Syria, and with him ^bPriscilla and Aquila; ^chaving shorn his head in Cenchree: ^dfor he had a vow. 19 And they came to ^eEphesus, and he left them there: but ^fhe himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews. 20 And when they asked him to abide a longer time, he consented not; ^gbut taking his leave of them, and saying, I will return again unto you, ^hif God will, he set sail from Ephesus. 22 And when he had landed at Cæsarea, he ⁱwent up and saluted the church, and went down to Antioch. 23 And having spent some time ^jthere, he departed, and ^kwent through the region of Galatia and Phrygia in order, ^lestablishing all the disciples.

24 Now a certain Jew named ^mApollos, an Alexandrian by race, ⁿa learned man, came to Ephesus; and he was ^omighty in the scriptures. 25 This man had been ^pinstructed in ^qthe way of the Lord; and ^rbeing fervent in spirit, he spake and taught carefully the things concerning Jesus, knowing only ^sthe baptism of John: 26 and he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. But when ^tPriscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him ^uthe way of God more carefully. 27 And when he was minded to pass over into ^vAchaia, ^wthe brethren encouraged him, and ^xwrote to the disciples to receive him: and when he was come, ^yhe ^zhelped them much which had ^abelieved through grace: 28 for he powerfully confuted the Jews, ^band that publicly, shewing by the scriptures ^cthat Jesus was the Christ.

1 And it came to pass, that, 19 while ^dApollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed ^ethrough the upper country came to Ephesus, and found certain disciples: 2 and he said unto them, ^fDid ye receive the Holy Ghost when ye believed? And they said unto him, Nay, ^gwe did not so much as hear whether ^hthe Holy Ghost was given. 3 And he said, ⁱInto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Into ^jJohn's baptism. 4 And Paul said, ^kJohn baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, ^lthat they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Jesus. 5 And when they heard this, ^mthey were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. 6 And ^awhen Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and ^bthey spake with tongues, and ^cprophe- sied. 7 And they were in all about twelve men.

8 And ^dhe entered into the syna- gogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, reasoning and persuading ^eas to the things ^fconcerning the kingdom of God.

9 ^gBut when some were hardened and ^hdisobedient, speaking evil of ⁱthe Way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus. 10 And this continued for the space of ^jtwo years; so that ^kall they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks. 11 And ^lGod wrought special ^mmiracles by the hands of Paul: 12 ⁿinsomuch that unto the sick were carried away from his body handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and ^othe evil spirits went out. 13 But certain also of the strolling Jews, ^pexorcists, ^qtook upon them to name over them which had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, ^r"I adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, a chief priest, which did this. 15 And the evil spirit answered and said unto them, ^s"Jesus I ^tknow, and Paul I know; but who are ye? 16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and mastered both of them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house ^unaked and wounded. 17 And this became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, that dwelt at Ephesus; and fear fell upon them all, and ^vthe name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. 18 Many also of them that had believed came, ^wconfessing, and declaring their deeds. 19 And not a few of them that practised ^xcurious arts brought their books together, and burned them in the sight of all: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand ^ypieces of silver. 20 So ^zmightily grew the word of the Lord and prevailed.

21 Now after these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, ^{aa}when he had passed through ^{ab}Macedonia and Achaia, ^{ac}to go to Jeru- salem, saying, After I have been there, ^{ad}I must also see Rome. 22 And having sent into Macedonia two of them that ^{ae}ministered unto him, ^{af}Timothy and ^{ag}Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia ^{ah}for a while. 23 And about that time ^{ai}there arose no small stir concerning ^{aj}the Way. 24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines of ^{ak}Diana, ^{al}brought no little business unto the craftsmen; 25 ^{am}whom he gathered together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this business we have our wealth. 26 And ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, ^{an}saying that ^{ao}they be no gods, which are made with hands: 27 and not only is there danger that this our trade come into disrepute; but also that the temple of the ^{ap}great goddess ^{aq}Diana be made of no account, and that she should even be deposed from her magnificence, whom all Asia and ^{ar}the world worshippeth. 28 And when they heard this, they were filled with wrath, and cried out, saying, ^{as}Great ^{at}is ^{au}Diana of the Ephesians. 29 And the city was filled with the confusion: and they rushed with one accord into the theatre, having seized ^{av}Gaius and ^{aw}Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's ^{ax}companions in travel. 30 And when Paul was minded to enter in unto the people, the disci- ples suffered him not. 31 And cer- tain also of the ^{ay}chief officers of Asia, being his friends, sent unto him, and besought him not to adventure himself into the theatre. 32 ^{az}Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was in confusion; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together. 33 ^{ba}And they brought Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander ^{bb}beckoned with the hand, and would have made a defence unto the people. 34 But when they perceived that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, "Great is ¹Diana of the Ephesians. 35 And when the townclerk had quieted the multitude, he saith, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there who knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is temple-keeper of the great ¹Diana, and of the image which fell down from ²Jupiter? 36 Seeing then that these things cannot be gainsaid, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rash. 37 For ye have brought hither ²these men, which are neither ³robbers of temples nor blasphemers of our goddess. 38 If therefore Demetrius, and the craftsmen that are with him, have a matter against any man, ⁴the courts are open, and there are ⁵proconsuls: let them accuse one another. 39 But if ye seek anything about other matters, it shall be settled in the regular assembly. 40 For indeed we are in danger to be ⁶accused concerning this day's riot, there being no cause for it: and as touching it we shall not be able to give account of this concourse. 41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

20 ¹And after the uproar was ceased, Paul having sent for the disciples and exhorted them, took leave of them, and ²departed for to go into Macedonia. 2 And when he had gone through those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece. 3 And when he had spent three months there, and ³a plot was laid against him by the Jews, as he was about to set sail for Syria, he determined to return through Macedonia. 4 And there accompanied him ⁴as far as Asia ⁵Sopater of Beroea, the son of Pyrrhus; and of the Thessalonians, ⁶Aristarchus and Secundus; and ⁷Gaius of Derbe, and ⁸Timothy; and of Asia, ⁹Tychicus and ¹⁰Trophimus. 5 But these ⁶had gone before, and were waiting for ⁷us at ⁸Troas. 6 And we sailed away from Philippi after ⁹the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days; where we tarried seven days.

coursed with them, intending to depart on the morrow; and prolonged his speech until midnight. 8 And there were many lights in ³the upper chamber, where we were gathered together. 9 And there sat in the window a certain young man named Eutychus, borne down with deep sleep; and as Paul discoursed yet longer, being borne down by his sleep he ⁴fell down from the third story, and was taken up dead. 10 And Paul went down, and ⁵fell on him, and embracing him said, ⁶Make ye no ado; for his life is in him. 11 And when he was gone up, and ⁷had broken the bread, and eaten, and had talked with them a long while, even till break of day, he departed. 12 And they brought the lad alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 But we, going before to the ship, set sail for Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, intending himself to go ⁸by land. 14 And when he met us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene. 15 And sailing from thence, we came the following day over against Chios; and the next day we touched at Samos; and ⁹the day after we came to Miletus. 16 For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, ¹⁰to be at Jerusalem ¹¹the day of Pentecost.

17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called to him ¹²the ¹³elders of the church. 18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them,

"Ye yourselves know, ¹⁴from the first day that I set foot in Asia, ¹⁵after what manner I was with you all the time, 19 ¹⁶serving the Lord ¹⁷with all lowliness of mind, and with ¹⁸tears, and with trials which befell me by ¹⁹the plots of the Jews: 20 how that I ²⁰shrank not from declaring unto you anything that was profitable, and ²¹teaching you publicly, and from house to house, 21 ²²testifying both to Jews and to Greeks ²³repentance toward God, and ²⁴faith toward our Lord Jesus ²⁵Christ. 22 And now, behold, I go

he kneeled down, and prayed with them all. ³⁷ And ¹ they all wept sore, and ² fell on Paul's neck, and ³ kissed him, ⁴ sorrowing most of all for ⁵ the word which he had spoken, that they should behold his face no more. And ¹ they brought him on his way unto the ship.

And when it came to pass

²¹ that ¹ we were parted from them, and had set sail, we ² came with a straight course unto Cos, and the next day unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara: ³ and having found a ship crossing over unto Phoenicia, we went aboard, and set sail. ³ And when we had come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left hand, we sailed unto Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden. ⁴ And having found the disciples, we tarried there seven days: and these said to Paul ⁵ through the Spirit, that he should not set foot in Jerusalem. ⁵ And when it came to pass that we had accomplished the days, we departed and went on our journey; and they all, with wives and children, ⁶ brought us on our way, till we were out of the city: and ⁷ kneeling down on the beach, we prayed, ⁸ and bade each other farewell; and we went on board the ship, but they returned home again.

⁷ And when we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais; and we saluted ¹ the brethren, and abode with them one day. ⁸ And on the morrow we departed, and came unto Cesarea: and entering into the house of ² Philip ³ the evangelist, who was one of the seven, we abode with him. ⁹ Now this man had four daughters, virgins, ¹⁰ which did prophesy. ¹⁰ And as we tarried there ¹¹ many days, there came down from Judaea a certain prophet, named ¹² Agabus. ¹¹ And coming to us, and ¹³ taking Paul's girdle, he bound his own feet and hands, and said, ¹⁴ Thus saith the Holy Ghost, ¹⁵ So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and ¹⁶ shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles. ¹² And when we heard these things, both we and they of that place ¹⁷ besought him not to go up to Jerusalem. ¹³ Then Paul answered, 'What do ye, weeping and breaking my heart? for 'I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem 'for the name of the Lord Jesus. 14 And when he would not be persuaded, 'we ceased, saying, 'The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after these days we ¹ took up our baggage, and went up to Jerusalem. 16 And there went with us also certain of the disciples from Cæsarea, bringing with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, 'the brethren received us gladly. 18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto 'James; and all 'the elders were present. 19 And when he had saluted them, 'he rehearsed one by one 'the things which God had wrought among the Gentiles by his 'ministry. 20 And they, when they heard it, 'glorified God; and they said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many 'thousands there are among the Jews of them which have believed; and they are all 'zealous for the law: 21 and they have been informed concerning thee, that thou teachest all 'the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses,

'telling them 'not to circumcise their children, neither 'to walk after 'the customs. 22 What is it therefore, they will certainly hear that thou art come. 23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men 'which have a vow on them;

24 these take, and 'purify thyself with them, and be at charges for them, 'that they may shave their heads: and all shall know that there is no truth in the things whereof they have been informed concerning thee; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, keeping the law. 25 But as touching the Gentiles which have believed, 'we 'wrote, giving judgement that they should keep themselves from things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from what is strangled, and from fornication. 26 Then Paul 'took the men, and the next day 'purified himself with them 'went into the temple, declaring the fulfilment of the days of purification, until

'the offering was offered for every one of them.

27 And when 'the seven days were almost completed, 'the Jews from Asia, 'when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the multitude, and laid hands on him, 28 crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man, that 'teacheth all men everywhere against the people, and 'the law, and 'this place: and moreover he brought Greeks also into the temple, and 'hath defiled 'this holy place. 29 For they had before seen with him in the city 'Trophimus the Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple. 30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they laid hold on Paul, and 'dragged him out of the temple: and straightway the doors were shut. 31 'And as they were seeking to kill him, tidings came up to the 'chief captain of 'the 'band, that all Jerusalem was in confusion. 32 And forthwith 'he took soldiers and centurions, and ran down upon them: and they, when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, left off beating Paul. 33 Then the chief captain came near, and laid hold on him, and commanded him 'to be bound 'with two chains; and inquired who he was, and what he had done. 34 And 'some shouted one thing, some another, among the crowd: and when he could not know the certainty for the uproar, he commanded him to be brought into 'the castle. 35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the crowd; 36 for the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, 'Away with him.

37 And as Paul was about to be brought into the castle, he saith unto the chief captain, May I say something unto thee? And he said, Dost thou know Greek? 38 Art thou not then 'the Egyptian, which before these days stirred up to sedition and led out 'into the wilderness the four thousand men of the Assassins? 39 But Paul said, 'I am a Jew, of Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and I beseech thee, give me leave to speak unto the people. 40 And when he had given him

22 ¹Brethren and fathers, hear ye the defence which I now make unto you.

²And when they heard that he spake unto them in ^athe Hebrew language, they were the more quiet: and he saith, ³I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city, ^aat the feet of ^aGamaliel, instructed ^aaccording to the strict manner of ^athe law of our fathers, ^abeing zealous for God, ^aeven as ye all are this day: ⁴and ^aI persecuted ^athis Way ^aunto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women. ⁵As also ^athe high priest doth bear me witness, and all ^athe estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto ^athe brethren, and journeyed to Damascus, to bring them also which were there unto Jerusalem in bonds, for to be punished. ⁶And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and drew nigh unto Damascus, about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me. ⁷And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? ⁸And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am ^aJesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest. ⁹And they that were with me beheld indeed the light, but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me. ¹⁰And I said, ^bWhat shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do. ¹¹And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

¹²And ^aone Ananias, a devout man ^aaccording to the law, ^awell reported of by all the Jews that dwell there, ¹³came unto me, and standing by me said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And ^ain that very hour I ^alooked up on him. ¹⁴And he said, ^aThe

God of our fathers ^ahath appointed thee ^ato know his will, and ^ato see ^athe Righteous One, and ^ato hear a voice from his mouth. ¹⁵For ^athou shalt be a witness for him unto all men of what ^athou hast seen and heard. ¹⁶And now why tarriest thou? ^aArise, and be baptized, ^aand wash away thy sins, ^acalling on his name. ¹⁷And it came to pass, that, ^awhen I had returned to Jerusalem, and while ^aI prayed in the temple, I fell into ^aa trance, ¹⁸and saw him saying unto me, ^aMake haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: because they will not receive of thee testimony concerning me. ¹⁹And I said, Lord, they themselves know that ^aI imprisoned and ^abeat in every synagogue them that believed on thee: ²⁰and when the blood of Stephen ^athy witness was shed, ^aI also was standing by, and ^aconsenting, and ^akeeping the garments of them that slew him. ²¹And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee forth ^bfar hence unto the Gentiles.

²²And they gave him audience unto this word; and they lifted up their voice, and said, ^aAway with such a fellow from the earth: for ^ait is not fit that he should live. ²³And as they cried out, and threw off their garments, and cast dust into the air, ²⁴the chief captain commanded him to be brought into ^athe castle, bidding that he should be ^aexamined by scourging, that he might know for what cause they so shouted against him. ²⁵And when they had tied him up ^awith the thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge ^aa man that is a Roman, and uncondemned? ²⁶And when the centurion heard it, he went to the chief captain, and told him, saying, What art thou about to do for this man is a Roman. ²⁷And the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? And he said, Yea. ²⁸And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this citizenship. And Paul said, But I am a Roman born. ²⁹They then which were about ^ato examine him straightway departed from him: and the chief captain also ^awas afraid, ^awhen he knew that he was a Roman, and because ^k he had bound him.

30 But on the morrow, ^l desiring to know the certainty, wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him, and commanded the chief priests and all the council to come together, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

1 And Paul, looking sted-

23 fastly on the council, said,

Brethren, ^m I have lived before God in all good conscience until this day. 2 And the high priest ⁿ Ananias commanded them that stood by him ^o to smite him on the mouth. 3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou

^p whited ^q wall: and sittest thou to judge me according to the law, and

^r commandest me to be smitten ^s contrary to the law? 4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou ^t God's high priest? 5 And Paul said, ^u I wist not, brethren, that he was high priest: for it is written, ^v Thou shalt not speak evil of a ruler of thy people. 6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were ^w Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Brethren, ^x I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees: ^y touching the ^z hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question. 7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and Sadducees:

and the assembly was divided. 8 For the Sadducees ^a say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both. 9 And there arose a great clamour: and some of ^b the scribes of the Pharisees' part stood up, and strove, saying, ^c We find no evil in this man: and what ^d if a spirit hath spoken to him, or an angel?

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into ^e the castle.

11 And ^f the night following ^g the Lord stood by him, and said, ^h Be of good cheer: for ⁱ as thou hast testified concerning me at Jerusalem, so must thou ^j bear witness also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, ^k the Jews banded together, and ^l bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which made this conspiracy. 14 And they came to the chief priests and the elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, to taste nothing until we have killed Paul. 15 Now therefore do ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you, as though ye would judge of his case more exactly: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to slay him. 16 But ^m Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, ⁿ and he came and entered into ^o the castle, and told Paul. 17 And Paul called unto him one of the centurions, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath something to tell him. 18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and saith, Paul

^p the prisoner called me unto him, and asked me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say to thee. 19 And the chief captain took him by the hand, and going aside asked him privately, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, ^q The Jews have agreed to ask thee to bring down Paul to-morrow unto the council, as though thou wouldest inquire somewhat more exactly concerning him. 21 Do not thou therefore yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which

^r have bound themselves under a curse, neither to eat nor to drink till they have slain him: and now are they ready, looking for the promise from thee. 22 So the chief captain let the young man go, charging him, Tell no man that thou hast signified these things to me. 23 And he called unto him two of the centurions, and said, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go as far as Caesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night: 24 and ^s he bade them provide beasts, that they might set Paul thereon, and bring him safe unto ^t Felix ^u the governor. 25 And he wrote a letter after this form:

excellent governor Felix, 'greeting. 27 "This man was seized by the Jews, and "was about to be slain of them, "when I came upon them with the soldiers, and rescued him, "having learned that he was a Roman. 28 And "desiring to know the cause wherefore they accused him, "I brought him down unto their council: 29 whom I found to be accused "about questions of their law, but "to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds. 30 And "when it was shewn to me "that there would be a plot against the man, I sent him to thee forthwith, "charging his accusers also to speak against him before thee."

31 So the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris. 32 But on the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to "the castle: 33 and they, when they came to Caesarea, and delivered the letter to the governor, presented Paul also before him. 34 And when he had read it, he asked of what "province he was; and when he understood "that he was of Cilicia, 35 I will hear thy cause, said he, "when thine accusers also are come: and he commanded him to be kept in Herod's "palace.

24 And "after five days the high priest "Ananias came down with certain elders, and with an orator, one Tertullus; and they informed "the governor against Paul. 2 And when he was called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying,

Seeing that by thee we enjoy much "peace, and that by thy "providence evils are corrected for this nation, 3 we accept it in all ways and in all places, "most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. 4 But, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I intreat thee to hear us of thy clemency a few words. 5 For we have found this man "a pestilent fellow, and "a mover of insurrections among all the Jews throughout "the world, and a ring-leader of "the sect of the Nazarenes: 6 "who moreover assayed to profane the temple: on whom also we laid hold: 7 "from whom thou wilt be able, by examining him thyself, to take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him. 9 And the Jews also joined in the charge, affirming that these things were so.

10 And when the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, Paul answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do cheerfully make my defence: 11 seeing that thou canst take knowledge, that "it is not more than twelve days since I "went up "to worship at Jerusalem: 12 and "neither in the temple did they find me disputing with any man or stirring up a crowd, nor in the synagogues, nor in the city. 13 "Neither can they prove to thee the things whereof they now accuse me. 14 But this I confess unto thee, that after "the Way which they call "a sect, "so serve I "the God of our fathers, believing all things which are "according to the law, and which are written in the prophets: 15 "having "hope toward God, which these also themselves "look for, that there shall be "a resurrection "both of the just and unjust. 16 Herein do I also "exercise myself to have a conscience "void of offence toward God and men alway. 17 Now "after "many years "I came to bring alms to "my nation, and "offerings: 18 "amidst which they found me "purified in the temple, with no crowd, nor yet with tumult: but "there were certain Jews from Asia — 19 "who ought to have been here before thee, and to make accusation, if they had aught against me. 20 Or else let these men themselves say what wrong-doing they found, when I stood before the council, 21 except it be for this one voice, "that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question before you this day.

22 But Felix, having more exact knowledge concerning "the Way,

1 Some ancient authorities omit I brought him down unto their council. 2 Many ancient authorities add Pharisee. 3 Or, Praetorium. 4 Or, the inhabited earth. 5 Some ancient authorities insert and we would have judged him according to our law. 6 But the chief captain Lyngas came, and with great violence took him away out of our hands, 8 commanding his accusers to come before thee. 9 Or, hereby 7 Or, accept 8 Or, some 9 Or, in presenting which sias the chief captain shall come down, I will determine your matter. 23 And he gave order to the centurion that he should be kept in charge, and should have indulgence; and not to forbid any of his friends to minister unto him.

24 But after certain days, Felix came with Drusilla, his wife, which was a Jewess, and sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ Jesus. 25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, and temperance, and the judgement to come, Felix was terrified, and answered, Go thy way for this time; and when I have a convenient season, I will call thee unto me. 26 He hoped withal that money would be given him of Paul: wherefore also he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him. 27 But when two years were fulfilled, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus; and desiring to gain favour with the Jews, Felix left Paul in bonds.

25 come into the province, after three days went up to Jerusalem from Cæsarea. 2 And the chief priests and the principal men of the Jews informed him against Paul; 3 and they besought him, asking favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem;
4 saying wait to kill him on the way.
4 Howbeit Festus answered, that Paul was kept in charge at Cæsarea, and that he himself was about to depart thither shortly. 5 Let them therefore, saith he, which are of power among you, go down with me, and if there is anything amiss in the man, let them accuse him.

6 And when he had tarried among them not more than eight or ten days, he went down unto Cæsarea; and on the morrow he sat on the judgement-seat, and commanded Paul to be brought. 7 And when he was come, the Jews which had come down from Jerusalem stood round about him, bringing against him many and grievous charges, which they could not prove; 8 while Paul said in his defence, Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Cæsar, have I sinned at all. 9 But Festus, desiring to gain favour with the Jews, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me? 10 But Paul said, I am standing before Cæsar's judgement-seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou also very well knowest. 11 If then I am a wrong-doer, and have committed anything worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if none of those things is true, whereof these accuse me, no man can give me up unto them.

12 I appeal unto Cæsar. 12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Thou hast appealed unto Cæsar: unto Cæsar shalt thou go.

13 Now when certain days were passed, Agrippa the king and Bernice arrived at Cæsarea, and salu-tated Festus. 14 And as they tarried there many days, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying, There is a certain man left a prisoner by Felix: 15 about whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, asking for sentence against him.
16 To whom I answered, that it is not the custom of the Romans to give up any man, before that the accused have the accusers face to face, and have had opportunity to make his defence concerning the matter laid against him. 17 When therefore they were come together here, I made no delay, but on the next day sat down on the judgement-seat, and commanded the man to be brought. 18 Concerning whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no charge of such evil things as I supposed; 19 but had certain questions against him of their own religion, and of one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. 20 And I, being perplexed how to inquire concerning these things, asked whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters. 21 But when Paul had appealed to be kept for the decision of the emperor, I commanded him to be kept till I should send him to Cæsar. 22 And Agrippa said unto Festus, I also could wish to hear the man myself.

23 So on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and they were entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and the principal men of the city, at the command of Festus Paul was brought in. 24 And Festus saith, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye behold this man, about whom *all the multitude of the Jews made suit to me, both at Jerusalem and here, *crying that he ought not to live any longer. 25 But I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death: and *as he himself appealed to ¹⁴ the emperor I determined to send him. 26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I may have somewhat to write. 27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not withal to signify the charges against him.

21 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, that I am to make my defence before thee this day touching all the things whereof I am accused by the Jews: ³ especially because thou art expert in all *customs and *questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently. 4 My manner of life then from my youth up, which was from the beginning among mine own nation, and at Jerusalem, know all the Jews; 5 having knowledge of me from the first, if they be willing to testify, how that *after the strictest sect of our religion I lived *a Pharisee. 6 And now I stand here to be judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers; ⁷ unto which promise our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God night and day, hope to attain. And concerning this hope I am accused by the Jews, O king! 8 Why is it judged

'incredible with you, if God doth raise the dead? 9 I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. 10 And *this I also did in Jerusalem: and I both shut up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death, I gave my vote against them. 11 And *punishing them oftentimes in all the synagogues, I strove to make them *blaspheme; and *being exceedingly mad against them, I *persecuted them even unto foreign cities. 12 Whereupon as I journeyed to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests, 13 at midday, O king, I saw on the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them that journeyed with me. 14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying unto me *in the Hebrew language, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick against the goad. 15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. 16 But arise, and stand upon thy feet: for to this end have I appeared unto thee, to appoint thee a minister and a witness both of the things wherein thou hast seen me, and of the things wherein I will appear unto thee; 17 delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom I send thee, 18 to open their eyes, that they may turn from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive remission of sins and an inheritance among them that are sanctified by faith in me. 19 Wherefore, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision: 20 but declared both to them of Damascus first, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the country of Judaea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance. 21 For this cause the Jews seized me in the temple, and assayed to kill me. 22 Having therefore obtained the help that is from God, ^bI stand unto this day testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what ^cthe prophets and Moses did say should come; ^d23 ^ehow that the Christ ^fmust suffer, and ^ghow that ^hhe first ⁱby the resurrection of the dead ^jshould proclaim ^klight both to the people and to the Gentiles.

^l24 And as he thus made his defence, Festus saith with a loud voice, Paul, ^mthou art mad; thy much learning doth turn thee to madness. ⁿ25 But Paul saith, I am not mad, ^omost excellent Festus; but speak forth ^pwords of truth and ^qsoberness. ^r26 For ^sthe king knoweth of these things, unto whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him; for this hath not been done in a corner. ^t27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest. ^u28 And Agrippa said unto Paul, With but little persuasion thou wouldest fain make me ^va Christian. ^w29 And Paul said, I would to God, that whether with little or with much, not thou only, but also all that hear me this day, ^xmight become such as I am, except ^ythese bonds.

^z30 And the king rose up, and ^athe governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them: ^b31 and when they had withdrawn, they spake one to another, saying, ^c'This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds. ^d32 And Agrippa said unto Festus, ^e'This man might have been set at ^fliberty, if he had not appealed ^gunto Caesar.

^h27 ⁱAnd when it was determined ^jthat ^kwe should sail for Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the ^l'Augustan ^mband. ⁿ2 And embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail unto the places on the coast of Asia, we put to sea, ^oAristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. ^p3 And the next day we touched at Sidon: and ^qJulius ^rtreated Paul kindly, and ^sgave him leave to go unto his friends and ^trefresh himself. ^u4 And putting to sea from thence, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. ^v5 And when we had sailed across the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, ^wa city of Lycia. ^x6 And there the centurion found ^ya ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy; and he put us therein. ^z7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and were come with difficulty over against Cnidus, the wind not ^afurther suffering us, we sailed under the lee of Crete, over against Salomone; ^b8 and with difficulty coasting along it we came unto a certain place called Fair Havens; ^cnigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

^d9 And when much time was spent, and the voyage was now dangerous, because ^ethe Fast was now already gone by, Paul admonished them, ^f10 and said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with ^ginjury and much loss, not only of the lading and the ship, but also of our lives. ^h11 But the centurion gave more heed to ⁱthe master and to the owner of the ship, than to those things which were spoken by Paul. ^j12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to put to sea from thence, if by any means they could reach Phenix, and winter ^kthere; ^lwhich is a haven of Crete, looking ^mnorth-east and south-east. ⁿ13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete, close in shore. ^o14 But after no long time there ^pbeat down from it a tempestuous wind, which is called Euraquillo: ^q15 and when the ship was caught, and could not face the wind, we gave way to it, and were driven. ^r16 And running under the lee of a small island called ^sCauda, we were able, with difficulty, to secure the boat: ^t17 and when they had hoisted it up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should ^ube cast upon the Syrtis, they lowered the gear, and so were driven. ^v18 And as we laboured exceedingly with the storm, the next day they began ^wto throw ^xthe freight overboard; ^y19 and the third day they cast out with their own hands ^zthe tackling of the ship. ^a20 And when neither sun nor stars shone upon us for many days, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was now taken away. 21 And when they had been long without food, then Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have set sail from Crete, and have gotten this injury and loss. 22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. 23 For there stood by me this night an angel of the God whose I am, whom also I serve, 24 saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must stand before Cæsar: and lo, God hath granted thee all them that sail with thee. 25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even so as it hath been spoken unto me. 26 Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven to and fro in the sea of Adria, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were drawing near to some country; 28 and they sounded, and found twenty fathoms: and after a little space, they sounded again, and found fifteen fathoms. 29 And fearing lest haply we should be cast ashore on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and wished for the day. 30 And as the sailors were seeking to flee out of the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would lay out anchors from the foreship, 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved. 32 Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off. 33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take some food, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye wait and continue fasting, having taken nothing. 34 Wherefore I beseech you to take some food: for this is for your safety: for there shall not a hair perish from the head of any of you. 35 And when he had said this, and had taken bread, he gave thanks to God in the presence of all: and he brake it, and began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and themselves also took food. 37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen souls. 38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea. 39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they perceived a certain bay with a beach, and they took counsel whether they could drive the ship upon it. 40 And casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time loosing the bands of the rudders; and hoisting up the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach. 41 But lighting upon a place where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground; and the foreship struck and remained unmoveable, but the stern began to break up by the violence of the waves. 42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape. 43 But the centurion, desiring to save Paul, stayed them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves overboard, and get first to the land: 44 and the rest, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. And so it came to pass, that they all escaped safe to the land.

28 And when we were escaped, then we knew that the island was called Melita. 2 And the barbarians shewed us no common kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us all, because of the present rain, and because of the cold. 3 But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, a viper came out by reason of the heat, and fastened on his hand. 4 And when the barbarians saw the beast hanging from his hand, they said one to another, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped from the sea, yet Justice hath not suffered to live. 5 Howbeit he shook off the beast into the fire, and took no harm. 6 But they expected that he would have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but when they were long in expectation, and beheld no-

¹⁶ And when we entered into Rome, ¹⁷ Paul was suffered to abide by himself with the soldier that guarded him.

¹⁷ And it came to pass, that after three days he called together ¹⁸ those that were the chief of the Jews: and when they were come together, he said unto them, I, brethren, ¹⁹ though I had done nothing against the people, or ²⁰ the customs of our fathers, yet was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans: ¹⁸ who, when they had examined me, ¹⁹ desired to set me at liberty, ²⁰ because there was no cause of death in me. ¹⁹ But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained ²¹ to appeal unto Cæsar; not that I had sought to accuse ²² my nation of. ²⁰ For this cause therefore did I ²¹ intreat you to see and to speak with me: for ²² because of ²³ the hope of Israel I am bound with ²⁴ this ²⁵ chain. ²¹ And they said unto him, We neither received letters from Judæa concerning thee, nor did any of ²⁶ the brethren come hither and report or speak any harm of thee. ²² But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this ²⁷ sect, it is known to us that everywhere ²⁸ it is spoken against.

²³ And when they had appointed him a day, they came to him into his lodging in great number; ²⁹ to whom he expounded ³⁰ the matter, testifying ³¹ the kingdom of God, and ³² persuading them concerning Jesus, ³³ both from the law of Moses and from the prophets, from morning till evening. ²⁴ And ³⁴ some believed the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved. ²⁵ And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, ³⁵ Well spake the Holy Ghost ³⁶ by Isaiah the prophet unto your fathers, ³⁷ saying,

³⁸ Go thou unto this people, and say,

³⁹ By hearing ye shall hear, and shall in no wise understand; And seeing ye shall see, and shall in no wise perceive:

²⁷ ⁴⁰ For this people's heart is waxed gross,

And their ears are dull of hearing,

And their eyes they have closed; Lest haply they should perceive with their eyes,

And hear with their ears, And understand with their heart,

And ⁴¹ should turn again, And I should heal them.

²⁸ Be it known therefore unto you, that ⁴² this ⁴³ salvation of God ⁴⁴ is sent unto the Gentiles: ⁴⁵ they will also hear. ⁴⁶

³⁰ And he abode two whole years in his own hired dwelling, and ⁴⁷ received all that went in unto him, ⁴⁸ preaching ⁴⁹ the kingdom of God, and teaching the things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ ⁵⁰ with all boldness, ⁵¹ none forbidding him.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ROMANS.

I PAUL, ^aa ¹servant of Jesus Christ, ^bcalled to be an apostle, ^cseparated unto the gospel of God, ^dwhich ^ehe promised afore ^fby his prophets in the holy scriptures, ^gconcerning his Son, ^hwho was born of the seed of David ⁱaccording to the flesh, ^jwho was ^kdeclared to be the Son of God ^lwith power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection of the dead; ^meven Jesus Christ our Lord, ⁿthrough whom ^owe received grace and ^papostleship, ^qunto obedience ^rof faith ^samong all the nations, for his name's sake: ^tamong whom are ye also, ^ucalled to be Jesus Christ's: ^vto all that are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: ^wGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

^xFirst, ^yI thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, ^zthat your faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world. ^{aa}For God is my witness, ^{ab}whom I serve in my spirit in the gospel of his Son, ^{ac}how unceasingly I make mention of you, ^{ad}to always in my prayers making request, if by any means now at length I may be prospered ^{ae}by the will of God to come unto you. ^{af}For ^{ag}I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established; ^{ah}that is, that I with you may be comforted in you, ^{ai}each of us by the other's faith, both yours and mine. ^{aj}And I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that ^{ak}oftentimes I purposed to come unto you (and ^{al}was hindered hitherto), that I might have some ^{am}fruit in you also, even as in the rest of the Gentiles. ^{an}I am debtor both to Greeks and to ^{ao}Barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish. ^{ap}So, ^{aq}as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you also that are in Rome. ^{ar}For ^{as}I am not ashamed of the gospel: for it is ^{at}the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew ^{au}first, and also to ^{av}the Greek. ^{aw}For therein is revealed ^{ax}a righteousness of God ^{ay}by faith unto faith: ^{az}as it is written, But the righteous shall live ^{ba}by faith.

^{bb}For ^{bc}by the wrath of God ^{bd}is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who ^{be}hold down the truth in unrighteousness; ^{bf}because ^{bg}that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God manifested it unto them. ^{bh}For the invisible things of him since the creation of the world are clearly seen, ^{bi}being perceived through the things that are made, ^{bj}even his everlasting power and divinity; ^{bk}that they may be without excuse: ^{bl}because that, knowing God, they glorified him not as God, neither gave thanks; but ^{bm}became vain in their reasonings, and their senseless heart was darkened. ^{bn}Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, ^{bo}and ^{bp}changed the glory of ^{bq}the incorruptible God for the likeness of an image of corruptible man, and of birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

^{br}Wherefore ^{bs}God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts unto uncleanness, that their bodies should be ^{bt}dishonoured among themselves: ^{bu}for that they exchanged the truth of God for ^{bv}a lie, and worshipped and served the creature rather than the Creator, ^{bw}who is blessed ^{bx}for ever. Amen.

^{by}For this cause ^{bz}God gave them up unto ^{ca}vile passions: for their women changed the natural use into that which is against nature: ^{cb}and likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another, ^{cc}men with men working unseemliness, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was due.

^{cd}And even as they ^{ce}refused to heart, in ^athe spirit, not in the letter; ^awhose praise is not of men, but of God.

3 ¹What advantage then hath the Jew? or what is the profit of circumcision? ²A Much every way: first of all, that ³they were intrusted with ⁴the oracles of God. ³For ⁴what if some were without faith? ⁵shall their want of faith make of none effect the faithfulness of God? ⁴¹God forbid: yea, ⁶let God be found true, but ⁴every man a liar; as it is written,

⁶That thou mightest be justified in thy words,

And mightest prevail when thou ⁷comest into judgement.

5 But if our unrighteousness commendeth the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who visiteth ^awith wrath? (¹^A I speak after the manner of men.) 6 God forbid: for then how shall ⁶God judge the world? ⁷²But if the truth of God through my lie abounded unto his glory, ⁷why am I also still judged as a sinner? ⁸and why not (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), ⁸Let us do evil, that good may come? whose condemnation is just.

⁹What then? ⁹are we in worse case than they? No, in no wise: for we before laid to the charge both ¹⁰of Jews and ¹⁰Greeks, that they are all ¹⁰under sin; ¹⁰as it is written,

¹⁰There is none righteous, no, not one;

11 There is none that understandeth,
There is none that seeketh after God;

12 They have all turned aside, they are together become unprofitable;

There is none that doeth good, no, not so much as one:

13 ¹Their throat is ¹an open sepulchre;

With their tongues they have used deceit:

²The poison of asps is under their lips:

14 ³Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:

15 ⁴Their feet are swift to shed blood;

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways;

17 And ⁵the way of peace have they not known:

18 ⁶There is no fear of God before their eyes.

⁸that every mouth may be stopped, and ⁸all the world may be brought under the judgement of God: ²⁰because ⁸by ⁸the works of the law shall no flesh be ⁹justified in his sight: for ⁹through the law cometh the knowledge of sin. ²¹But now apart from the law ⁹a righteousness of God ⁹hath been manifested, ⁹being witnessed by the law and the prophets; ²²even the righteousness of God ⁹through faith ⁹in Jesus Christ unto all ⁹them that believe; ⁹for there is no distinction;

²³for ⁹all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God; ²⁴¹⁰being justified freely ¹⁰by his grace ¹⁰through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: ²⁵whom God ¹⁰set forth ¹⁰to be ¹⁰a propitiation, through ¹⁰faith, ¹⁰by his blood, to shew his righteousness, because of the passing over of ¹⁰the sins done aforetime, in ¹⁰the forbearance of God; ²⁶for the shewing, ¹⁰I say, of his righteousness at this present season: that he might himself be ¹⁰just, and the ¹⁰justifier of him that ¹⁰hath faith ¹⁰in Jesus. ²⁷Where then is the glorying? It is excluded. By what manner of law? of works? Nay: but by a law of faith. ²⁸¹¹We reckon therefore that a man is justified by faith ¹¹apart from ¹¹the works of the law. ²⁹Or ¹¹is God the God of Jews only? is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yea, of Gentiles also: ³⁰so if be that ¹¹God is one, and he shall justify the circumcision ¹¹by faith, and ¹¹the uncircumcision ¹¹through faith. ³¹Do we then make ¹¹the law of none effect ¹¹through faith? God forbid: nay, we establish ¹¹the law.

found? ^a For if Abraham was justified ¹ by works, he hath whereof to glory; but ² not toward God. ³ For what saith the scripture? ^a And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. ⁴ Now ⁵ to him that worketh, the reward is not reckoned as of grace, but as of debt. ⁵ But to him that worketh not, but ⁶ believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is reckoned for righteousness. ⁶ Even as David also pronounceth blessing upon the man, unto whom God reckoneth righteousness apart from works, ⁷ saying,

^a Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven,

And whose sins are covered.

⁸ Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not ^b reckon sin.

⁹ Is this blessing then pronounced upon ^c the circumcision, or upon the uncircumcision also? for ^d we say, To Abraham his faith was reckoned for righteousness. ¹⁰ How then was it reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision; ¹¹ and ^e he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision: that ^f he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be in uncircumcision, that righteousness might be reckoned unto them; ¹² and the father of circumcision to them who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham which he had in uncircumcision. ¹³ For not ² through the law was ³ the promise to Abraham or to his seed, ⁴ that he should be heir of the world, but through the righteousness of faith. ¹⁴ For ⁵ if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of none effect: ¹⁵ for the law worketh wrath; but ⁶ where there is no law, ⁷ neither is there transgression. ¹⁶ For this cause ⁸ it is of faith, ⁹ that ¹⁰ it may be according to grace; ¹¹ to the end that the promise may be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, ¹² who is the father of us all ¹⁷ (as it is written, ^a A father of many nations have I made thee) before him whom he believed, ^b even God, ^c who quickeneth the dead, and calleth ^d the things that are not, as though they were. ¹⁸ Who in hope believed against hope, to the end that he might become a father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, ^e So shall thy seed be. ¹⁹ And without being weakened in faith he considered his own body ^f now ^g as good as dead (^h he being about a hundred years old), and ⁱ the deadness of Sarah's womb: ²⁰ yea, looking unto the promise of God, he wavered not through unbelief, but waxed strong through faith, giving glory to God, ²¹ and being fully assured that, what he had promised, ²² he was able also to perform. ²³ Wherefore also it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. ²⁴ Now ²⁵ it was not written for his sake alone, that it was reckoned unto him; ²⁶ but for our sake also, unto whom it shall be reckoned, ²⁷ who believe on ²⁸ him that raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, ²⁹ who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised ³⁰ for our justification.

¹ Being therefore justified ⁵ ¹ by faith, ² let us have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; ³ through whom also we have ⁴ had our access ⁵ by faith into this grace ⁶ wherein we stand; and ⁷ let us ⁸ rejoice in hope of the glory of God. ³ And not only so, but ⁴ let us also ⁵ rejoice in our tribulations: knowing that tribulation ⁶ worketh patience; ⁷ and patience, probation; and probation, hope: ⁸ and ⁹ hope putteth not to shame; because the love of God ¹⁰ hath been shed abroad in our hearts through the ¹¹ Holy Ghost which was given unto us. ⁶ For ⁷ while we were yet weak, in due season ⁸ Christ died for the ungodly. ⁷ For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: for peradventure for ¹⁰ the good man some one would even dare to die. ⁸ But ⁹ God commendeth his own love toward us, in that, ¹⁰ while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. ⁹ Much more then, being now justified ¹¹ by his blood, shall we be saved from ¹the wrath of God through him. ¹⁰For if, ¹¹while we were enemies, ¹²we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, shall we be saved ¹³by ¹⁴his life; ¹⁵and not only so, ¹⁶but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received ¹⁷the reconciliation.

¹²Therefore, as ¹⁸through one man sin entered into the world, and ¹⁹death through sin; and ²⁰so death passed unto all men, for that ²¹all sinned: — ²²for until the law sin was in the world: but ²³sin is not imputed when there is no law. ²⁴Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over them that had not sinned ²⁵after the likeness of Adam's transgression, ²⁶who is a figure of ²⁷him that was to come.

²⁵But not as the trespass, so also ²⁶is the free gift. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound unto ²⁷the many. ²⁸And not as through one that sinned, so is the gift: for ²⁹the judgement came of one unto condemnation, but the free gift came of many trespasses unto ³⁰justification.

⁴⁵What shall we say then? ⁴⁶Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? ⁴⁷God forbid. We who ⁴⁸died to sin, how shall we any longer live therein? ⁴⁹Or are ye ignorant that all we ⁵⁰who were baptized ⁵¹into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? ⁵²We were ⁵³buried therefore with him through baptism into death: that like as ⁵⁴Christ was raised from the dead through ⁵⁵the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in ⁵⁶newness of life. ⁵⁷For ⁵⁸if we have become ⁵⁹united with him by ⁶⁰the likeness of his death, we shall be also ⁶¹by the likeness of his resurrection; ⁶²knowing this, that ⁶³our old man ⁶⁴was crucified with him, that ⁶⁵the body of sin might be done away, that so we should no longer be in bondage to sin; ⁶⁶for ⁶⁷he that hath died ⁶⁸is justified from sin. ⁶⁹But ⁷⁰if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him; ⁷¹knowing that ⁷²Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; ⁷³death no more hath dominion over him. ⁷⁴For ⁷⁵the death that he died, he died unto sin ⁷⁶once; but ⁷⁷the life that he liveth, he liveth unto God. ⁷⁸Even so reckon ye also yourselves to be ⁷⁹dead unto sin, but alive unto God in Christ Jesus.

⁸⁰Let not ⁸¹sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey the lusts thereof: ⁸²neither present your members unto sin as ⁸³instruments of unrighteousness; but ⁸⁴present yourselves unto God, as alive from the dead, and your members as ⁸⁵instruments of righteousness unto God. ⁸⁶For ⁸⁷sin shall not ⁸⁸have dominion over you: for ye are not under law, but under grace.

⁸⁹What then? ⁹⁰shall we sin, ⁹¹because we are not under law, but under grace? God forbid. ⁹²Know ye not, that ⁹³to whom ye present yourselves as ⁹⁴servants unto obedience, his ⁹⁵servants ye are whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness? ⁹⁶But ⁹⁷thanks be to God, ⁹⁸that, whereas ye were ⁹⁹servants of sin, ye became obedient from the heart to that ¹⁰⁰form of teaching whereunto ye were delivered; ¹⁰¹and ¹⁰²being made free from sin, ¹⁰³ye became ¹⁰⁴servants of righteousness. ¹⁰⁵For ¹⁰⁶I speak after the manner of men because we are not under law, but under grace? God forbid. ¹⁰⁷Know ye not, that ¹⁰⁸to whom ye present yourselves as ¹⁰⁹servants unto obedience, his ¹¹⁰servants ye are whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness? ¹¹¹But ¹¹²thanks be to God, ¹¹³that, whereas ye were ¹¹⁴servants of sin, ye became obedient from the heart to that ¹¹⁵form of teaching whereunto ye were delivered; ¹¹⁶and ¹¹⁷being made free from sin, ¹¹⁸ye became ¹¹⁹servants of righteousness. ¹²⁰For ¹²¹I speak after the manner of men because we are not under law, but under grace? God forbid. ¹²²Know ye not, that ¹²³to whom ye present yourselves as ¹²⁴servants unto obedience, his ¹²⁵servants ye are whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness? ¹²⁶But ¹²⁷thanks be to God, ¹²⁸that, whereas ye were ¹²⁹servants of sin, ye became obedient from the heart to that ¹³⁰form of teaching whereunto ye were delivered; ¹³¹and ¹³²being made free from sin, ¹³³ye became ¹³⁴servants of righteousness. ¹³⁵For ¹³⁶I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for ^aas ye presented your members ^aas servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity, even so now present your members ^aas servants to righteousness unto sanctification. ^aFor ^awhen ye were ^aservants of sin, ye were free in regard of righteousness. ^aWhat fruit then had ye at that time in the things ^awhereof ye are now ashamed? ^afor the end of those things is death. ^aBut now ^abeing made free from sin, and ^abecome servants to God, ^aye have your fruit unto sanctification, and ^athe end eternal life. ^aFor the wages of sin is death; but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

7 Or are ye ignorant, brethren (for I speak to men that know the law), how that the law hath dominion over a man for so long time as he liveth? ^aFor the woman that hath a husband is bound by law to the husband while he liveth; but if the husband die, she is discharged from the law of the husband. ^aSo then if, while the husband liveth, ^ashe be joined to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if the husband die, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she be joined to another man. ^aWherefore, my brethren, ^aye also were made dead ^ato the law ^athrough the body of Christ; that ye should be joined to another, even to him who was raised from the dead, ^athat we might bring forth fruit unto God. ^aFor when we were in the flesh, the ^asinful passions, which were through the law, wrought ^ain our members ^ato bring forth fruit unto death. ^aBut now we have been discharged from the law, having died to that wherein we were holden; so that we serve ^ain newness of the spirit, and not in oldness of the letter.

^aWhat shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Howbeit, ^aI had not known sin, except through the law: for I had not known ^acoveting, except the law had said, Thou shalt not ^acovet: ^abut sin, ^afinding occasion, wrought in me through the commandment all manner of ^acoveting: ^afor apart from ^athe law sin is dead. ^aAnd I was alive apart from ^athe law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died; ^aand the commandment, ^awhich was unto life, this I found to be unto death: ^afor sin, ^afinding occasion, through the commandment ^abeguil'd me, and through it slew me. ^aSo that the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and righteous, and good. ^aDid then that which is good become death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might be shewn to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good;—that through the commandment sin might become exceeding sinful. ^aFor we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, ^asold under sin. ^aFor that which I ^ado I know not: for ^anot what I would, that do I practise; but what I hate, that I do. ^aBut if what I would not, that I do, I consent unto ^athe law that it is good. ^aSo now ^ait is no more I that ^ado it, but sin which dwelleth in me. ^aFor I know that ^ain me, that is, in my flesh, dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me, but to ^ado that which is good is not. ^aFor the good which I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I practise. ^aBut if what I would not, that I do, ^ait is no more I that ^ado it, but sin which dwelleth in me. ^aI find then ^athe law, that, to me who would do good, evil is present. ^aFor ^aI delight ^ain the law of God after ^athe inward man: ^abut I see ^aa different law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity ^aunder the law of sin which is in my members. ^aO wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me out of ^athe body of this death? ^aFor ^aI thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then ^aI myself with the mind serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

8 There is therefore now no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus. ^aFor the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus ^amade me free from the law of sin and of death. ^aFor ^awhat the law could not do, ^ain that it was weak through the flesh, *God, sending his own Son *in the likeness of 1 sinful flesh *and *as an offering for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: 4 that *the ordinance of the law might be fulfilled in us, *who walk not after the flesh, but after the spirit. 5 For *they that are after the flesh do mind *the things of the flesh; but they that are after the spirit *the things of the spirit. 6 For *the mind of the flesh is death; but the mind of the spirit is life and peace: 7 because the mind of the flesh is *enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, *neither indeed can it be: 8 and they that are in the flesh cannot please God. 9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the spirit, if so be that *the Spirit of God dwelleth in you. But *if any man hath not *the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. 10 And if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the spirit is life because of righteousness. 11 But if the Spirit of *him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ Jesus from the dead shall quicken also your mortal bodies *through his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 So then, brethren, we are debtors, *not to the flesh, to live after the flesh: 13 for if ye live after the flesh, ye must die; but if by the spirit ye *mortify the *deeds of the body, ye shall live. 14 For as many as are *led by the Spirit of God, these are *sons of God. 15 For *ye received not *the spirit of bondage again unto fear; but ye received the spirit of *adoption, whereby we cry, *Abba, Father. 16 *The Spirit himself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are children of God: 17 and if children, then *heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; *if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified with him.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time *are not worthy to be compared with *the glory which shall be revealed to us-ward. 19 For the earnest expectation of the creation waiteth for *the revealing of the sons of God. 20 For the creation *was subjected to vanity, not of its own will, but *by reason of him who subjected it, 21 *in hope that *the creation itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. 22 For we know that *the whole creation *groaneth and travaileth in pain *together until now. 23 And not only so, but ourselves also, which have *the firstfruits of the Spirit, *even we ourselves groan within ourselves, *waiting for our adoption, to wit, *the redemption of our body. 24 For *by hope were we saved: but *hope that is seen is not hope: *for who *hoped for that which he seeth? 25 But if we hope for that which we see not, then do we with *patience wait for it.

26 And in like manner the Spirit also helpeth our infirmity: for *we know not how to pray as we ought; but *the Spirit himself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered; 27 and *he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is *the mind of the Spirit, 12 because he *maketh intercession for the saints *according to the will of God. 28 And we know that to them that love God 13 all things work together *for good, even to *them that are called according to his purpose. 29 For whom he *foreknew, he also *foreordained *to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be *the firstborn among many brethren: 30 and whom he foreordained, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also *justified: and whom he justified, them he also *glorified.

31 What then shall we say to these things? *If God is for us, who is against us? 32 *He that spared not his own Son, but *delivered him up for us all, how shall he not also with him freely give us all things? 33 Who shall lay anything to the charge of God's elect? 13 *It is God that justifieth: 34 *who is he that shall condemn? 14 *It is Christ Jesus that died, yea rather, that was raised from the dead, *who is at the right hand of God, * who also maketh intercession for us. 35 Who shall separate us from the love ¹ of Christ? shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? 36 Even as it is written,

“For thy sake ^b we are killed all the day long;

We were accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

37 Nay, in all these things we are more than ^c conquerors through ^d him that loved us. 38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, 39 nor height, nor depth, nor any other ^e creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

9 I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience bearing witness with me in the Holy Ghost, ^a that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart. 3 For ^f I could ^g wish that I myself were ^h anathema from Christ for my brethren's sake, my kinsmen ⁱ according to the flesh: ^j 4 who are ^k ‘Israelites; whose is ^l the adoption, and ^m the glory, and ⁿ the covenants, and ^o the giving of the law, and ^p the service of God, and ^q the promises; ^r 5 whose are ^s the fathers, and of whom is Christ as concerning the flesh, ^t 6 who is over all, ^u God blessed ^v for ever. Amen. 6 But ^w it is not as though the word of God hath come to nought. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel: 7 neither, ^x because they are Abraham's seed, are they all children: but, ^y ‘In Isaac shall thy seed be called. 8 That is, it is not the children of the flesh that are children of God; but ^z ‘the children of the promise are reckoned for a seed. 9 For this is a word of promise, ^{aa} According to this season will I come, and Sarah shall have a son. 10 And not only so; but ^{ab} Rebecca also having conceived by one, ^{ac} even by our father Isaac — 11 for the children being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of ^{ad} ‘him that calleth, ^{ae} as it was said unto her, ^{af} ‘The elder shall serve the younger. 13 Even as it is written, ^{ag} ‘Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.

14 What shall we say then? ^{ah} ‘Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid. 15 For he saith to Moses, ^{ai} ‘I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion. 16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that hath mercy. 17 For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, ^{aj} ‘For this very purpose did I raise thee up, that I might shew in thee my power, and that my name might be published abroad in all the earth. 18 So then he hath mercy on whom he will, and whom he will ^{ak} ‘he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he still find fault? For ^{al} ‘who withstandeth his will? 20 Nay but, O man, who art thou ^{am} that repliest against God? ^{an} ‘Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why didst thou make me thus? 21 Or ^{ao} ‘hath not the potter a right over the clay, from the same lump to make ^{ap} ‘one part a vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour? 22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering ^{aq} ‘vessels of wrath ^{ar} fitted unto destruction: 23 ^{as} ‘and that he might make known ^{at} ‘the riches of his glory upon vessels of mercy, which he ^{au} ‘afore prepared unto glory, 24 ^{av} even us, whom he also ^{aw} ‘called, ^{ax} ‘not from the Jews only, but also from the Gentiles? 25 As he saith also in Hosea,

‘I will call that my people, which was not my people;
And her beloved, which was not beloved.

26 ^{ay} ‘And it shall be, ^{az} that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people,
There shall they be called sons of ^{ba} ‘the living God.

27 And Isaiah crieth concerning Israel, ^{bb} ‘If the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, ^{bc} ‘it is the remnant that shall be saved: 28 for the Lord will execute

1 Some ancient authorities read of God. 2 Or, creation 3 Or, pray 4 Some modern interpreters place a full stop after flesh, and translate, He who is God over all be (is) blessed for ever: or, He who is over all is God, blessed for ever. Others punctuate, flesh, who is over all. God be (is) blessed for ever. 5 Gr. unto the ages. 6 Some ancient authorities omit and.

his word upon the earth, finishing it and cutting it short. 29 And, as Isaiah hath said before,

"Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed,

"We had become as Sodom, and had been made like unto Gomorrah.

30 What shall we say then? "That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith: 31 but Israel, following after a law of righteousness, did not arrive at that law. 32 Wherefore? 1 Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by works. They stumbled at the stone of stumbling; 33 even as it is written,

"Behold, I lay in Zion a stone of stumbling and a rock of offence:

"And he that believeth on him shall not be put to shame.

IO Brethren, my heart's desire and my supplication to God is for them, that they may be saved. 2 For I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. 3 For being ignorant of God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God. 4 For Christ is the end of the law unto righteousness to every one that believeth. 5 For Moses writeth that the man that doeth the righteousness which is of the law shall live thereby. 6 But the righteousness which is of faith saith thus, "Say not in thy heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down:) 7 or, Who shall descend into the abyss? (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead.) 8 But what saith it? "The word is nigh thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach: 9 because if thou shalt confess with thy mouth Jesus as Lord, and shalt believe in thy heart that God raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved: 10 for with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. 11 For the scripture saith, "Whosoever believeth on him shall not be put to shame. 12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek: for the same Lord is Lord of all, and is rich unto all that call upon him: 13 for, "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. 14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? 15 and how shall they preach, except they be sent? even as it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of them that bring glad tidings of good things! 16 But they did not all hearken to the glad tidings. For Isaiah saith, "Lord, who hath believed our report? 17 So belief cometh of hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ. 18 But I say, Did they not hear? Yea, verily,

"Their sound went out into all the earth, And their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did Israel not know? First Moses saith,

"I will provoke you to jealousy with that which is no nation,

With a nation void of understanding will I anger you.

20 And Isaiah is very bold, and saith,

"I was found of them that sought me not;

I became manifest unto them that asked not of me.

21 But as to Israel he saith, "All the day long did I spread out my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

I say then, Did God cast off his people? God forbid.

For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. 2 God did not cast off his people which he foreknew. Or wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elijah? how he pleadeth with God against Israel, 3 Lord, they have killed thy prophets, they have digged down thine altars: and I am left alone, and they seek my life. 4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? "I have left for myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal.

1 Or, Because, doing it not by faith, but as it were by works, they stumbled. 2 Or, it 3 Gr. good pleasure. 4 Or, that 5 Some ancient authorities read confess the word with thy mouth, that Jesus is Lord. 6 Or, a gospel 7 Or, gospel 8 Gr. the inhabited earth. 9 Or, in

5 Even so then at this present time also there is ^a a remnant according to the election of grace. 6 But if it is by grace, it is no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. 7 What then? ^a That which Israel seeketh for, that he obtained not; but the election obtained it, and the rest ^a were hardened: 8 according as it is written, ^a God gave them a spirit of stupor, ^a eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, unto this very day. 9 And David saith,

^a Let their table be made a snare, and a trap,

And a stumblingblock, and a recompense unto them:

10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see,

And bow thou down their back alway.

11 I say then, Did they stumble that they might fall? God forbid: but by their ¹ fall ¹ salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy. 12 Now if their fall is the riches of the world, and their loss the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fullness?

13 But I speak to you that are Gentiles. Inasmuch then as ¹ I am an apostle of Gentiles, I glorify my ministry: 14 if by any means I may provoke to jealousy them that are my flesh, and ^a may save some of them. 15 For if the casting away of them is ^a the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead? 16 And ^a if the firstfruit is holy, so is the lump: and if the root is holy, so are the branches. 17 But if ^a some of the branches were broken off, and thou, ^a being a wild olive, wast grafted in among them, and didst become partaker with them ^a of the root of the fatness of the olive tree; 18 glory not over the branches: but if thou gloriest, it is not thou that bearest the root, but the root thee. 19 Thou wilt say then, Branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in. 20 Well; by their unbelief they were broken off, and thou ^a standest by thy faith. ^a Be not highminded, but ^a fear: 21 for if God spared not the natural branches, neither will he spare thee.

22 Behold then the goodness and severity of God: toward them that fell, severity; but toward thee, God's goodness, ^a if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise ^a thou also shalt be cut off. 23 And ^a they also, if they continue not in their unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again. 24 For if thou wast cut out of that which is by nature a wild olive tree, and wast grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, have you ignorant of this mystery, ^a lest ye be wise in your own conceits, that ^a a hardening in part hath befallen Israel, ^a until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in; 26 and so all Israel shall be saved: even as it is written,

^a There shall come out ^a of Zion the Deliverer;

He shall turn away ^a ungodliness from Jacob:

27 And this is ^a my ^a covenant unto them,

^a When I shall take away their sins.

28 As touching the gospel, they are enemies for your sake: but as touching the election, they are ^a beloved for the fathers' sake. 29 For the gifts and ^a the calling of God are ^a without repentance. 30 For as ye ^a in time past were disobedient to God, but now have obtained mercy by their disobedience, 31 even so have these also now been disobedient, that by the mercy shewn to you they also may now obtain mercy. 32 For God ^a hath shut up all unto disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O the depth ^a of the riches ^a both of ^a the wisdom and the knowledge of God! ^a how unsearchable are his judgements, and his ways past tracing out! 34 For ^a who hath known the mind of the Lord? or ^a who hath been his counsellor? 35 or ^a who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again? 36 For ^a of him, and through him, and unto him, are all things. ^a To him be the glory ^a for ever. Amen.

1 Or, trespass. 2 Many ancient authorities read of the root and of the fatness. 3 Or, ungodliness. 4 Or, the covenant from me. 5 Or, not repented of. 6 Or, of the riches and the wisdom &c. 7 Or, both of wisdom &c. 8 Or, unto the ages.

¹ I beseech you therefore, 12 brethren, by the mercies of God, ¹ to present your bodies ¹ a living sacrifice, holy, ¹ acceptable to God, which is your ² reasonable ² service. ² And ² be not fashioned according to this ⁴ world: but be ye transformed by ³ the renewing of your mind, that ye may ¹ prove what is ⁶ the good and ¹ acceptable and perfect will of God.

³ For I say, ³ through the grace that was given me, to every man that is among you, ³ not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but so to think as to think soberly, ³ according as God hath dealt to each man ² a measure of faith.

⁴ For ⁴ even as we have many members in one body, and all the members have not the same office: ⁵ so we, ⁷ who are many, ⁷ are one body in Christ, and severally ⁷ members one of another. ⁶ And ⁶ having gifts differing according to the grace that was given to us, whether ⁷ prophecy, let us prophecy ⁷ according to the proportion of ⁶ our faith; ⁷ or ⁷ ministry, let us give ourselves to our ministry; or he that teacheth, to his teaching; ⁸ or he that exhorteth, to his exhorting: he that giveth, let him do it with ⁷ liberality; ⁸ he that ruleth, with ⁷ diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with ⁸ cheerfulness. ⁹ Let love be without hypocrisy. ⁹ Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good. ¹⁰ In ⁴ love of the brethren be tenderly affectioned one to another; ⁹ in honour preferring one another; ¹¹ in diligence not slothful; ⁹ fervent in spirit; ⁹ serving ⁹ the Lord; ¹² rejoicing in hope; ⁹ patient in tribulation; ⁹ continuing stedfastly in prayer; ¹³ communicating to the necessities of the saints; ⁹ given to hospitality. ¹⁴ Bless them that persecute you; bless, and curse not. ¹⁵ Rejoice with them that rejoice; weep with them that weep. ¹⁶ Be of the same mind one toward another. ¹⁷ Set not your mind on high things, but ¹⁰ condescend to ¹¹ things that are lowly. ¹⁷ Be not wise in your own conceits. ¹⁷ Render to no man evil for evil. ¹⁷ Take thought for things honourable in the sight of all men. ¹⁸ If it be possible, as much as in you lieth, ¹⁸ be at peace with all men. ¹⁹ ¹⁸ Avenge not yourselves, beloved, but give place unto ¹² wrath: for it is written, ¹⁸ Vengeance belongeth unto me; I will recompense, saith the Lord. ²⁰ But ¹⁹ if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him to drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head. ²¹ Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

13 Let every soul ¹ be in subjection to the higher powers: for ² there is no power but of God; and the powers that be are ordained of God. ² Therefore he that resisteth the power, withstandeth the ordinance of God: and they that withstand shall receive to themselves judgement. ³ For rulers are not a terror to the good work, but to the evil. And wouldest thou have no fear of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have ¹ praise from the same: ⁴ for ¹² he is a minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for ¹² he beareth not the sword in vain: for ¹² he is a minister of God, ¹² an avenger for wrath to him that doeth evil. ⁵ Wherefore ye must needs be in subjection, not only because of the wrath, but also ⁵ for conscience sake. ⁶ For for this cause ye pay tribute also; for they are ministers of God's service, attending continually upon this very thing. ⁷ Render to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

11 And this, knowing the season, that now it is high time for you ¹to awake out of sleep: ¹for now is ¹salvation nearer to us than when we ¹first believed. 12 ²The night is far spent, and the day is at hand: let us therefore ¹cast off ²the works of darkness, and ¹let us put on the armour of light. 13 ³Let us walk honestly, as in the day; ²not in revelling and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, ²not in strife and jealousy. 14 But ²put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, ²to fulfil the lusts thereof.

1 But ¹him that is weak in faith receive ye, yet not ²to doubtful disputations. 2 ³One man hath faith to eat all things: but he that is weak eateth herbs. 3 Let not him that eateth set at nought him that eateth not; and ²let not him that eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him. 4 ⁴Who art thou that judgest the ⁴servant of another? to his own lord he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be made to stand; for the Lord hath power to make him stand. 5 ⁵One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. ⁵Let each man be fully assured in his own mind. 6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord: and he that eateth, eateth unto the Lord, for ⁶he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, unto the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks. 7 For ⁷none of us liveth to himself, and none dieth to himself. 8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; or whether we die, we die unto the Lord: ⁸whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. 9 For to this end Christ ⁹died, and lived again, that he might be Lord ⁹of both the dead and the living. 10 But thou, why dost thou judge thy brother? or thou again, why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for ¹⁰we shall all stand before ¹⁰the judgement-seat of God. 11 For it is written,

¹¹As I live, saith the Lord, to me every knee shall bow,

And every tongue shall ⁶confess to God.

12 So then ¹²each one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 ¹³Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge ye this rather, ¹³that no man put a stumblingblock in his brother's way, or an occasion of falling. 14 I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, ¹⁴that nothing is unclean of itself: ¹⁴save that to him who accounteth anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. 15 For if because of meat thy brother is grieved, ¹⁵thou walkest no longer in love. ¹⁵Destroy not with thy meat him for whom Christ died. 16 ¹⁶Let not then your good be evil spoken of: 17 ¹⁷for the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but ¹⁷righteousness and ¹⁷peace and joy in the Holy Ghost. 18 For he that herein serveth Christ is ¹⁸well-pleasing to God, and approved of men. 19 So then ¹⁹let us ¹⁹follow after things which make for peace, and things whereby we may ¹⁹edify one another. 20 ²⁰Overthrow not for meat's sake the work of God. ²⁰All things indeed are clean; howbeit ²⁰it is evil for that man who eateth with offence. 21 ²¹It is good not to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor to ²¹do anything whereby thy brother stumbleth. 22 The faith which thou hast, have thou to thyself before God. ²²Happy is he that judgeth not himself in that which he ²²approveth. 23 But he that doubteth is condemned if he eat, because ²³he eateth not of faith; and whatsoever is not of faith is sin.⁹

15 ¹⁵Now ¹⁵we that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. 2 ²Let each one of us please his neighbour for that which is good, unto edifying. 3 For ³Christ also pleased not himself; but, as it is written, ³The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell upon me. 4 For ⁴whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our ⁴learning, that through patience and through ⁴comfort of the scriptures we might have hope. 5 Now the God of patience and of comfort grant you ⁵to be of the same mind

one with another according to Christ Jesus: 6 that with one accord ye may with one mouth glorify 'the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. 7 Wherefore receive ye one another, even as Christ also received 'you, to the glory of God. 8 For I say that Christ 'hath been made a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, that 'he might confirm the promises given unto the fathers, 9 and 'that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written,

"Therefore will I *give praise unto thee among the Gentiles, And sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith,

*Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again,

*Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; And let all the peoples praise him.

12 And again, Isaiah saith,

*There shall be 'the root of Jesse,

And he that ariseth to rule over the Gentiles;

*On him shall the Gentiles hope.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all 'joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, in the power of the Holy Ghost.

14 And 'I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye yourselves are full of goodness, filled with *all knowledge, able also to admonish one another. 15 But I write the more boldly unto you in some measure, as putting you again in remembrance, *because of the grace that was given me of God, 16 that I should be *a minister of Christ Jesus unto the Gentiles, 17 ministering the gospel of God, that 'the offering up of the Gentiles might be made acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost. 17 I have therefore *my glorying in Christ Jesus 'in things pertaining to God. 18 For I will not dare to speak of any 'things save those which Christ wrought through me, *for the obedience of the Gentiles, by word and deed, 19 'in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of 'the Holy Ghost; so that 'from Jerusalem, and round about 'even unto Illyricum, I have *fully preached the gospel of Christ; 20 yea, 'making it my aim so to preach the gospel, not where Christ was already named, 'that I might not build upon another man's foundation; 21 but, as it is written,

"They shall see, to whom no tidings of him came,

And they who have not heard shall understand.

22 Wherefore also 'I was hindered these many times from coming to you: 23 but now, having no more any place in these regions, and 'having these many years a longing to come unto you, 24 whensoever I go 'unto Spain (for I hope to see you in my journey, and 'to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first in some measure I shall have been satisfied with your company) — 25 but now, I say, 'I go unto Jerusalem, ministering unto the saints. 26 For 'it hath been the good pleasure of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the saints that are at Jerusalem. 27 Yea, it hath been their good pleasure; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, 'they owe it to them also to minister unto them in carnal things. 28 When therefore I have accomplished this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will go on by you 'unto Spain. 29 And I know that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of Christ.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and by 'the love of the Spirit, that ye 'strive together with me in your prayers to God for me; 31 'that I may be delivered from them that are disobedient in Judaea, and that 'my ministration which I have for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints; 32 that I may come unto you in joy through the will of God, and together with you *find rest. 33 Now 'the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

I PAUL, ^a called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ ^b through the will of God, and ^c Sosthenes ^d our brother, ^e unto the church of God which is at Corinth, even them that are ^f sanctified in Christ Jesus, ^g called to be saints, with all that ^h call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, their Lord and ours: ⁱ Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I ^j thank ^k my God always concerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus; ^l 5 that in everything ^m ye were enriched in him, in all ⁿ utterance and all knowledge; ^o 6 even as ^p the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: ^q 7 so that ye come behind in no gift; ^r 8 waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ; ^s 8 who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye be ^t unproveable ^u in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ^v 9 God is faithful, through whom ye were called into ^w the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no ^x divisions among you; but that ye be perfected together ^y in the same mind and in the same judgement. ^z 11 For it hath been signified unto me concerning you, my brethren, by them which are of the household of Chloe, that there are ^{aa} contentions among you. ^{ab} 12 Now this I mean, that ^{ac} each one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of ^{ad} Apollos; and I of ^{ae} Cephas; and I of Christ. ^{af} 13 ^{ag} Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye ^{ah} baptized into the name of Paul? ^{ai} 14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, save ^{aj} Crispus and ^{ak} Gaius; ^{al} 15 lest any man should say that ye were baptized in my name. ^{am} 16 And I baptized also ^{an} the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other. ^{ao} 17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: ^{ap} not in wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made void.

18 For the word of the cross is to ^{aq} them that are perishing ^{ar} foolishness; but unto us ^{as} which are being saved it is ^{at} the power of God. ^{au} 19 For it is written,

^{av} I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, And the prudence of the prudent will I reject.

20 ^{aw} Where is the wise? ^{ax} where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this ^{ay} world? ^{az} hath not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? ^{ba} 21 For seeing that in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom knew not God, it was God's good pleasure through the foolishness of the ^{bb} preaching to save them that believe. ^{bc} 22 Seeing that ^{bd} Jews ask for signs, and Greeks seek after wisdom: ^{be} 23 but we preach ^{bf} Christ ^{bg} crucified, unto Jews a stumbling-block, and unto Gentiles foolishness; ^{bh} 24 but unto ^{bi} them that are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ ^{bj} is the power of God, and ^{bk} the wisdom of God. ^{bl} 25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ^{bm} behold your calling, brethren, how that ^{bn} not many wise after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, ^{bo} are called: ^{bp} 27 but ^{bq} God chose the foolish things of the world, that he might put to shame them that are wise; and ^{br} God chose the weak things of the world, that he might put to shame the things that are strong; ^{bs} 28 and the base things of the world, and the things that are despised, did God choose, ^{bt} yea ^{bu} and the ^{bv} things that are not, that he might ^{bw} bring to nought the things that are: ^{bx} 29 that no flesh should glory before God. 30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who was made unto us "wisdom from God, 1 and "righteousness and "sanctification, and "redemption: 31 that, according as it is written, "He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

And I, brethren, when I came unto you, "came not with excellency of "speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you "the "mystery of God. 2 For I determined not to know anything among you, save "Jesus Christ, and him crucified. 3 And "I was with you "in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling. 4 And my "speech and my "preaching were not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of "the Spirit and of power: 5 that your faith should not "stand in the wisdom of men, but "in the power of God.

Howbeit we speak wisdom among "the "perfect: yet "a wisdom not of this "world, nor of the rulers of this "world, "which are coming to nought: 7 but we speak God's wisdom in a mystery, even the wisdom that hath been hidden,
 "which God foreordained before the worlds unto our glory: 8 which none of "the rulers of this world knoweth: for "had they known it, they would not have crucified "the Lord of glory: 9 but as it is written,

"Things which eye saw not, and ear heard not,
 And which entered not into the heart of man,

Whatsoever things God "prepared "for them that love him.
 10 But unto us "God revealed "them through the Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, "the deep things of God. 11 "For who among men knoweth the things of a man, "save the spirit of the man, which is in him? even so the things of God none knoweth, save the Spirit of God. 12 But "we received, not "the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us by God. 13 Which things also we speak, not "in words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Spirit teacheth: 20 11 comparing spiritual things with spiritual. 14 Now the "natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are "foolishness unto him; and "he cannot know them, because they are spiritually "judged. 15 But he that is "spiritual "judgeth all things, and he himself is "judged of no man.

 16 "For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he should instruct him? But "we have the mind of Christ.

And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto "spiritual, but as unto "carnal, as unto "babes in Christ. 2 "I fed you with milk, not with meat; for ye were not yet able to bear it: nay, not even now are ye able; 3 for ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you "jealousy and strife, are ye not carnal, and walk after the manner of men? 4 For "when one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos: "are ye not men? 5 What then is Apollos? and what is Paul?
 "Ministers through whom ye believed; and "each as the Lord gave to him. 6 "I planted, "Apollos watered; "but God gave the increase. 7 So then "neither is he that planteth anything, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. 8 Now he that plant-eth and he that watereth are one:
 but each "shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.
 9 For we are "God's fellow-workers:
 ye are God's "husbandry, "God's building.

According to the grace of God which was given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder I laid a "foundation; and "another buildeth thereon. But let each man take heed how he buildeth thereon. 11 For "another foundation can no man lay
 "than that which is laid, "which is Jesus Christ. 12 But if any man buildeth on the foundation gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, stubble; 13 "each man's work shall be made manifest: for "the day shall declare it, because it is revealed "in fire; 14 and "the fire itself shall 15 Or, and each man's work, of what sort it is, the fire shall prove it.

prove each man's work of what sort it is. ¹⁴ If any man's work shall abide which he built thereon, ¹⁵ he shall receive a reward. ¹⁶ If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; ¹⁷ yet so as through fire.

¹⁸ 'Know ye not that ye are a temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? ¹⁹ If any man destroyeth the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

²⁷ Let a man so account of us, as of ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. ²⁸ Here, moreover, it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. ²⁹ But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgement; yea, I judge not mine own self. ³⁰ For I know nothing against myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord. ³¹ Wherefore I judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall each man have his praise from God.

and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? but if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it? ³⁴ Already are ye filled, already ye are become rich, ye have reigned without us: yea and I would that ye did reign, that we also might reign with you. ³⁵ For, I think, God hath set forth us the apostles last of all, as men doomed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men. ³⁶ We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye have glory, but we have dishonour. ³⁷ Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace; ³⁸ and we toil, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure; ³⁹ being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, the offscouring of all things, even until now.

⁴⁰ I write not these things to shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved children. ⁴¹ For though ye should have ten thousand tutors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I begat you through the gospel. ⁴² I beseech you therefore, be ye imitators of me. ⁴³ For this cause have I sent unto you Timothy, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who shall put you in remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, even as I teach everywhere in every church. ⁴⁴ Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you. ⁴⁵ But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will; and I will know, not the word of them which are puffed up, but the power. ⁴⁶ For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power. ⁴⁷ What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of meekness?

⁴⁸ It is actually reported that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not even among the Gentiles, that one of you hath his father's wife. ⁴⁹ And ye are puffed up, and did not rather mourn, that he that had done this deed might be taken away from among you. ³ For I verily, ⁴ being absent in body but present in spirit, have already, as though I were present, judged him that hath so wrought this thing, ⁵ in the name of our Lord Jesus, ye being gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus, ⁶ to deliver such a one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, ⁷ that the spirit may be saved ⁸ in the day of the Lord ⁹ Jesus. ⁶ Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that ¹⁰ a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? ⁷ Purge out the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, even as ye are unleavened. For our passover also hath been sacrificed, even Christ: ⁸ wherefore let us ⁹ keep the feast, ¹⁰ not with old leaven, neither with ¹¹ the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

⁹ I wrote unto you in my epistle ¹⁰ to have no company with fornicators; ¹⁰ ¹¹ not altogether with ¹² the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous and extortioners, or with idolaters; ¹³ for then must ye needs go out of the world: ¹¹ but ¹⁴ now I write unto you not to keep company, if any man ¹⁵ that is named a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one no, not to eat. ¹² For what have I to do with judging ¹⁶ them that are without? ¹⁷ Do not ye judge them that are within, ¹³ whereas they that are without God judgeth? ¹⁸ Put away the wicked man from among yourselves.

them to judge who are of no account in the church? ⁵ I say this to move you to shame. Is it so, that there cannot be found among you one wise man, who shall be able to decide between his brethren, ⁶ but brother goeth to law with brother, and that before unbelievers? ⁷ Nay, already it is altogether ⁸ a defect in you, that ye have lawsuits one with another. ⁹ Why not rather take wrong? why not rather be defrauded? ⁸ Nay, but ye yourselves do wrong, and defraud, and that ⁹ your brethren. ⁹ Or know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: ¹⁰ neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with men, ¹⁰ nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. ¹¹ And ¹² such were some of you: but ¹³ ye ¹⁴ were washed, but ¹⁵ ye were sanctified, but ¹⁶ ye were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and in the Spirit of our God.

¹² All things are lawful for me; but not all things are expedient. All things are lawful for me; but I will not be brought under the power of any. ¹³ Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall bring to nought both it ¹⁴ and them. But the body is not for fornication, but ¹⁵ for the Lord; and ¹⁶ the Lord for the body: ¹⁴ and ¹⁷ God both raised the Lord, and ¹⁸ will raise up us ¹⁹ through his power. ¹⁵ Know ye not that ²⁰ your bodies are members of Christ? shall I then take away the members of Christ, and make them members of a harlot? God forbid. ¹⁶ Or know ye not that he that is joined to a harlot is one body? for, ¹⁷ The twain, saith he, shall become one flesh. ¹⁷ But he that is joined unto the Lord ¹⁸ is one spirit. ¹⁸ Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication ¹⁹ sinneth against his own body. ¹⁹ Or ²⁰ know ye not that your body is ²¹ temple of the ²² Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have from God? and ²³ ye are not your own; ²⁰ for whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 Only, ^aas the Lord hath distributed to each man, as God hath called each, so let him walk. ^bAnd so ordain I in ^call the churches. 18 Was any man called being uncircumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Hath any been called in uncircumcision? ^dlet him not be circumcised. 19 ^eCircumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing; but ^fthe keeping of the commandments of God. 20 ^gLet each man abide in that calling wherein he was called. 21 Wast thou called being a bondservant? care not for it: ^hbut if thou canst become free, use it rather. 22 For he that was called in the Lord, being a bondservant, is ⁱthe Lord's freeman: likewise he that was called, being free, is ^ja Christ's bondservant. 23 ^kYe were bought with a price; ^lbecome not bondservants of men. 24 Brethren, ^mlet each man, wherein he was called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins ¹I have no commandment of the Lord: but I give my judgement, as ²one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be ³faithful. 26 I think therefore that this is good by reason of the present distress, namely, that ⁴it is good for a man ⁵to be as he is, 27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife. 28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Yet such shall have tribulation in the flesh: and I would spare you. 29 But this I say, brethren, ⁶the time ⁷is shortened, that henceforth ⁸both those that have wives may be as though they had none; 30 and those that weep, as though they wept not; and those that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and those that buy, ⁹as though they possessed not; 31 and those that use the world, as not ¹⁰abusing it: for ¹¹the fashion of this world passeth away. 32 But I would have you to be ¹²free from cares. ¹³He that is unmarried is careful for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord: 33 but he that is married is careful for the things of the world, how he may please his ¹wife. 34 And there is a difference also between the wife and the virgin. She that is unmarried is careful for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married is careful for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. 35 And this I say for your own profit; not that I may ^pcast a ²snare upon you, but for that which is seemly, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction. 36 But if any man thinketh that he becometh himself unseemly toward his ³virgin daughter, if she be ⁴past the flower of her age, and if need so requireth, let him do what he will; he sinneth not; let them marry. 37 But he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power as touching his own will, and hath determined this in his own heart, to keep his own ⁵virgin daughter, shall do well. 38 So then both he that giveth his own ⁶virgin daughter in marriage ⁷doeth well; and he that giveth her not in marriage shall do better. 39 ⁸A wife is bound for so long time as her husband liveth; but if the husband be ⁹dead, she is free to be married to whom she will; only ¹⁰in the Lord. 40 But she is happier if she abide as she is, ¹¹after my judgement: and I think ¹²that I also have the Spirit of God.

8 Now concerning ¹³things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have ¹⁴knowledge. Knowledge ¹⁵puffeth up, ¹⁶but love ¹⁷edifieth. ¹⁸2^a If any man thinketh that he knoweth anything, ¹⁹he knoweth not yet as he ought to know; ²⁰3 but if any man loveth God, ²¹the same is known of him. ²²4 Concerning therefore the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that ²³no idol is ²⁴anything in the world, and that ²⁵there is no God but one. ²⁶5 For though there be ²⁷that are called gods, whether in heaven or on earth; as there are gods many, and lords many; ²⁸6 yet ²⁹to us there is one God, the Father, ³⁰of whom are all things, and we unto him; and ³¹one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we ³²through him. ³³7 Howbeit in all men there is not that knowledge: but some, ³⁴being used until now to the idol, eat as ³⁵of a thing sacrificed to an idol; and ³⁶their conscience being weak is defiled. ³⁷8 But ³⁸meat will not commend us to God: neither, if we eat not, ³⁹are we the worse; nor, if we eat, ⁴⁰are we the better. ⁴¹9 But take heed ⁴²lest by any means this ⁴³liberty of yours become a stumblingblock ⁴⁴to the weak. ⁴⁵10 For if a man see thee which hast knowledge sitting at meat in ⁴⁶an idol's temple, will not his conscience, if he is weak, ⁴⁷be emboldened to eat things sacrificed to idols? ⁴⁸11 For ⁴⁹through thy knowledge he that is weak ⁵⁰perisheth, the brother for whose sake Christ died. ⁵¹12 And thus, sinning against the brethren, and ⁵²wounding their conscience when it is weak, ⁵³ye sin against Christ. ⁵⁴13 Wherefore, ⁵⁵if meat maketh my brother to stumble, I will eat no flesh for evermore, that I make not my brother to stumble.

⁵⁶1^a Am I not free? ⁵⁷2 Am I not an apostle? ⁵⁸3 Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? ⁵⁹4 Are not ye my work in the Lord? ⁶⁰5 If to others I am not an apostle, yet at least I am to you: for ⁶¹the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord. ⁶²3 My defence to them that examine me is this. ⁶³4 Have we no right to eat and to drink? ⁶⁴5 Have we no right to lead about a wife that is a ⁶⁵believer, even as the rest of the apostles, and ⁶⁶the brethren of the Lord, and ⁶⁷Cephas? ⁶⁸6 Or I only and Barnabas, have we not a right to forbear working? ⁶⁹7 What soldier ever serveth at his own charges? ⁷⁰8 Who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock? ⁷¹8 Do I speak these things after the manner of men? or saith not the law also the same? ⁷²9 For it is written in the law of Moses, ⁷³Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn. Is it for the oxen that God careth, ⁷⁴10 or ⁷⁵12 saith he it altogether for our sake? Yea, ⁷⁶for our sake it was written: because ⁷⁷he that ploweth ought to plow in hope, and he that thresheth, to thresh in hope of partaking. ¹¹ If we sowed unto you spiritual things, is it a great matter if we shall reap your carnal things? ¹² If others partake of this right over you, do not we yet more? Nevertheless ¹³ we did not use this right; but we bear all things, ¹⁴ that we may cause no hindrance to the gospel of Christ. ¹⁵ Know ye not that ¹⁶ they which minister about sacred things eat of the things of the temple, and they which wait upon the altar have their portion with the altar? ¹⁷ Even so did the Lord ordain that ¹⁸ they which proclaim the gospel should live of the gospel. ¹⁹ But ²⁰ I have used none of these things: and I write not these things that it may be so done in my case: for it were good for me rather to die, than that any man should make ²¹ my glorying void. ²² For if I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of; for ²³ necessity is laid upon me; for woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel. ²⁴ For if I do this of mine own will, I have a reward: but if not of mine own will, I have ²⁵ a stewardship intrusted to me. ²⁶ What then is my reward? That, when I preach the gospel, ²⁷ I may make the gospel without charge, so as not to ²⁸ use to the full my right in the gospel. ²⁹ For ³⁰ though I was free from all men, ³¹ I brought myself under bondage to all, that I might ³² gain the more. ³³ And ³⁴ to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, not being myself under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law; ³⁵ to ³⁶ them that are without law, as without law, not being without law to God, but ³⁷ under law to Christ, that I might gain them that are without law. ³⁸ To the weak I became weak, that I might gain the weak: ³⁹ I am become all things to all men, that ⁴⁰ I may by all means save some. ⁴¹ And I do all things for the gospel's sake, ⁴² that I may be a joint partaker thereof. ⁴³ Know ye not that they which run in a ⁴⁴ race run all, but one receiveth the prize? Even so ⁴⁵ run, that ye may attain. ⁴⁶ And every man that ⁴⁷ striveth in the games is temperate in all things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible crown; but we ¹ an incorruptible. ² I therefore so run, as not uncertainly; so ³ fight I, as not ⁴ beating the air: ⁵ but I ⁶ buffet my body, and ⁷ bring it into bondage: lest by any means, after that I have preached to others, ⁸ I myself should be ⁹ rejected.

1 Or, wife, and is divided. 2 So also the wife and the virgin: she that is unmarried is careful &c. Many ancient authorities read wife, and is divided. 3 So also the woman that is unmarried and the virgin is careful &c. 4 Or, constraining. 5 Or, no one. 6 Or, virgin (omitting daughter). 7 Or, fallen asleep. 8 Or, buildeth up. 9 Or, do we lack. 10 Or, do we abound. 11 Or, power. 12 Or, he buildeth up. 13 Or, in. 14 Or, sister. 15 Or, saith he to, as he doubtless doth, for our sake?

¹ For I would not, brethren, IO have you ignorant, how that our fathers were all under ² the cloud, and all ³ passed through the sea; ⁴ and were all baptized ⁵ unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; ⁶ and ⁷ did all eat the same ⁸ spiritual meat; ⁹ and ¹⁰ did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them: and the rock was Christ. ¹¹ Howbeit with most of them God was not well pleased: for ¹² they were overthrown in the wilderness. ¹³ Now ¹⁴ these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as ¹⁵ they also lusted. ¹⁶ Neither be ye idolaters, ¹⁷ as were some of them; as it is written, ¹⁸ The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. ¹⁹ Neither let us commit fornication, ²⁰ as some of them committed, and ²¹ fell in one day three and twenty thousand. ²² Neither let us tempt the ²³ Lord, as some of them tempted, and ²⁴ perished by the serpents. ²⁵ Neither murmur ye, ²⁶ as some of them murmured, and ²⁷ perished by ²⁸ the destroyer. ²⁹ Now these things happened unto them ³⁰ by way of example; and ³¹ they were written for our admonition, ³² upon whom the ends of the ages are come. ³³ Wherefore ³⁴ let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. ³⁵ There hath no temptation taken you but such as man can bear: but ³⁶ God is faithful, ³⁷ who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation make also the way of escape, that ye may be able to endure it.

¹⁴ Wherefore, my beloved, ¹⁵ flee from idolatry. ¹⁶ I speak ¹⁷ as to wise men; judge ye what I say. ¹⁸ The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a ¹⁹ communion of the blood of Christ? ²⁰ The ²¹ bread which we break, is it not a ²² com-

23 ¹⁸ All things are lawful; but all things are not expedient. All things are lawful; but all things ¹⁹ edify not. 24 ²⁰ Let no man seek his own, but ²¹ each his neighbour's good. 25 ²² Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, eat, asking no question for conscience sake; ²³ for ²⁴ the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof. 27 If one of them that believe not biddeth you ²⁵ to a feast, and ye are disposed to go; ²⁶ whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake. 28 But if any man say unto you, This hath been offered in sacrifice, eat not, for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: 29 conscience, I say, ³⁰ not thine own, but the other's; for ³¹ why is my liberty judged by another conscience? 30 ³² If I by grace partake, why am I evil spoken of for that? for which I give thanks? 31 Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or ³³ whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. 32 ³⁴ Give no occasion of stumbling, either to Jews, or to Greeks, or to ³⁵ the church of God: 33 even as ³⁶ I also please all men in all things, ³⁷ not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of the many, that they may be saved. 1 ³⁸ Be ye imitators

II of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 Now I praise you ³ that ye remember me in all things, and ⁴ hold fast the traditions, ⁵ even as I delivered them to you. 3 But I would have you know, that ⁶ the head of every man is Christ; and ⁷ the head of the woman is the man; and ⁸ the head of Christ is God. 4 Every man praying or ⁹ prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head. 5 But every woman praying or ¹⁰ prophesying ¹¹ with her head unveiled dishonoureth her head: for it is one and the same thing ¹² as if she were shaven. 6 For if a woman is not veiled, let her also be shorn: but if it is a shame to a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be veiled. 7 For a man indeed ought not to have his head veiled, forasmuch as ⁸ he is the image and glory of God: but ⁹ the woman is the glory of the man. 8 For ¹⁰ the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man: 9 for neither was the man created for the woman; but ¹¹ the woman for the man: 10 for this cause ought the woman to ¹² have a sign of authority on her head, ¹³ because of the angels. 11 Howbeit ¹⁴ neither is the woman without the man, nor the man without the woman, in the Lord. 12 For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman; but ¹⁵ all things are of God. 13 Judge ye ¹⁶ in yourselves: is it seemly that a woman pray unto God unveiled? 14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a dishonour to him? 15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering. 16 But ¹⁷ if any man seemeth to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither ¹⁸ the churches of God.

17 But in giving you this charge, I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better but for the worse. 18 For first of all, when ye come together ¹⁹ in the church, ²⁰ I hear that ²¹ divisions exist among you; and I partly believe it. 19 For ²² there must be also ²³ heresies among you, ²⁴ that they which are approved may be made manifest among you. 20 When therefore ye assemble yourselves together, it is not possible to eat the Lord's supper: 21 for in your eating each one taketh before ²⁵ other his own supper; and one is hungry, and ²⁶ another is drunken. 22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye ^m the ¹ church of God, and ⁿ put them to shame that ² have not? What shall I say to you? ³ shall I praise you in this? I praise you not. ²³ For ⁴ I received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, how that ⁵ the Lord Jesus in the night in which he was betrayed took bread; ²⁴ and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, This is my body, which ⁶ is for you: this do in remembrance of me. ²⁵ In like manner also the cup, after supper, saying, This cup is the new ⁷ covenant in my blood: this do, as oft as ye drink ⁸ it, in remembrance of me. ²⁶ For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death ⁹ till he come. ²⁷ Wherefore ¹⁰ whosoever shall eat the bread or drink the cup of the Lord ¹¹ unworthily, shall be guilty of ¹² the body and the blood of the Lord. ²⁸ But ¹³ let a man prove himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup. ²⁹ For he that eateth and drinketh, eateth and drinketh judgement unto himself, if he ¹⁴ discern not the body. ³⁰ For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few ¹⁵ sleep. ³¹ But ¹⁶ if we ¹⁷ discerned ourselves, we should not be judged. ³² But ¹⁸ when we are judged, ¹⁹ we are chastened of the Lord, that we may not be ²⁰ condemned with the world. ³³ Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, wait one for another. ³⁴ If any man is hungry, ²¹ let him eat at home; that your coming together be not unto judgement. And the rest ²² will I set in order ²³ whensoever I come.

which lacked; ²⁵ that there should be no ²⁶ schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another. ²⁶ And whether one member suffereth, all the members suffer with it; or one member is ²⁷ honoured, ²⁸ all the members rejoice with it. ²⁷ Now ²⁹ ye are the body of Christ, and ³⁰ severally ³¹ members thereof. ²⁸ And ³² God hath set some in the church, first ³³ apostles, secondly ³⁴ prophets, thirdly ³⁵ teachers, then ³⁶ miracles, then ³⁷ gifts of healings, ³⁸ helps, ³⁹ governments, ⁴⁰ divers kinds of tongues. ²⁹ Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all ⁴¹ workers of ⁴² miracles? ³⁰ have all gifts of healings? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret? ³¹ But ⁴³ desire earnestly the greater gifts. And a still more excellent way shew I unto you.

I If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal. ² And if I have the gift of ⁴⁴ prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, ⁴⁵ so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. ³ And ⁴⁶ if I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and ⁴⁷ if I give my body ⁴⁸ to be burned, but have not love, it profiteth me nothing. ⁴ Love suffereth long, and ⁴⁹ is kind; love ⁵⁰ envieth not; love vaunteth not itself, ⁵¹ is not puffed up, ⁵² doth not behave itself unseemly, ⁵³ seeketh not its own, is not provoked, ⁵⁴ taketh not account of evil; ⁵⁵ rejoiceth not in unrighteousness, but ⁵⁶ rejoiceth with the truth; ⁵⁷ beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, ⁵⁸ endureth all things. ⁸ Love never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall be done away; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall be done away. ⁹ For ⁵⁹ we know in part, and we prophesy in part: ⁶⁰ but ⁶¹ when that which is perfect is come, that which is in part shall be done away. ¹¹ When I was a child, I spake as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child; now that I am become a man, I have put away childish things. ¹² For ⁶² now we see in a mirror, ⁶³ darkly; but ⁶⁴ then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I ⁶⁵ know even as also ⁶⁶ I have been ⁶⁷ known. ¹³ But now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; ¹⁰ and the ⁶⁸ greatest of these is love.

I ⁶⁹ Follow after love; yet ⁷⁰ desire earnestly ⁷¹ spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may ⁷² prophesy. ² For ⁷³ he that speaketh in a tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God; for no man ⁷⁴ understandeth; but in the spirit he speaketh mysteries. ³ But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men edification, and comfort, and consolation. ⁴ He that speaketh in a tongue ⁷⁵ edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth ⁷⁶ edifieth the church. ⁵ Now I would have you all speak with tongues, but ⁷⁷ rather that ye should prophesy: and greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying. ⁶ But now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of ⁷⁸ revelation, or of knowledge, or of prophesying, or of ⁷⁹ teaching? ⁷ Even things without life, giving a voice, whether pipe or harp, if they give not a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped? ⁸ For ⁸⁰ if the trumpet give an uncertain voice, who shall prepare himself for war? ⁹ So also ye, unless ye utter by the tongue speech easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye will be ⁸¹ speaking into the air. ¹⁰ There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and ⁸² no kind is without signification. ¹¹ If then I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be to him that speaketh ⁸³ a barbarian, and he that speaketh will be a barbarian ⁸⁴ unto me. ¹² So also ye, since ye are zealous of ⁸⁵ spiritual gifts, seek that ye may abound unto the edifying of the church. ¹³ Wherefore let him that speaketh in a tongue pray that he may interpret. ¹⁴ For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful. ¹⁵ What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: ¹⁶ I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. ¹⁷ Else if thou blest with the spirit, how shall he that filleth the place of the unlearned say? Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest? ¹⁸ For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified. ¹⁹ I thank God, I speak with tongues more than you all: ²⁰ howbeit in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, than I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

²¹ Brethren, be not children in mind: howbeit in malice be ye babes, but in mind be men. ²² In the law it is written, By men of strange tongues and by the lips of strangers will I speak unto this people; and not even thus will they hear me, saith the Lord. ²³ Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to the unbelieving: but prophesying is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to them that believe. ²⁴ If therefore the whole church be assembled together, and all speak with tongues, and there come in men unlearned or unbelieving, will they not say that ye are mad? ²⁵ But if all prophesy, and there come in one unbelieving or unlearned, he is reprov'd by all, he is judged by all; ²⁶ the secrets of his heart are made manifest; and so he will fall down on his face and worship God, declaring that God is among you indeed.

²⁷ What is it then, brethren? When ye come together, each one hath a psalm, hath a teaching, hath a revelation, hath a tongue, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying. ²⁸ If any man speaketh in a tongue, let it be by two, or at the most three, and that in turn; and let one interpret: ²⁹ but if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God. ³⁰ And let the prophets speak by two or three, and let the others discern. ³¹ But if a revelation be made to another sitting by, let the first keep silence. ³² For ye all can prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted; ³³ and the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets; ³⁴ for God is not a God of confusion, but of peace; as in all the churches of the saints.

³⁵ Let the women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but let them be in subjection, as also saith the law. ³⁶ And if they would learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home: for it is shameful for a woman to speak in the church. ³⁷ What? was it from you that the word of God went forth? or came it unto you alone?

³⁸ If any man thinketh himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him take knowledge of the things which I write unto you, that they are the commandment of the Lord. ³⁹ But if any man is ignorant, let him be ignorant.

Now I make known unto you, brethren, the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye received, wherein also ye stand, by which also ye are saved; I make known, I say, in what words I preached it unto you, if ye hold it fast, except ye believed in vain. ³ For I delivered unto you first of all that which also I received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; and that he was buried; and that he hath been raised on the third day according to the scriptures; and that he appeared to Cephas; then to the twelve; ⁶ then he appeared to above five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain until now, but some are fallen asleep; ⁷ then he appeared to James; then to all the apostles; ⁸ and last of all, as unto one born out of due time, he appeared to me also. ⁹ For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because ⁹I persecuted the church of God. ¹⁰But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not found ¹vain; but ²I laboured more abundantly than they all: ³'yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. ¹¹Whether then ⁴be I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

¹²Now if Christ is preached that he hath been raised from the dead, ¹³how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? ¹³But if there is no resurrection of the dead, ¹⁴neither hath Christ been raised: ¹⁴and if Christ hath not been raised, then is our preaching ¹vain, ²your faith also is ¹vain. ¹⁵Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we witnessed of God that ³he raised up ³Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead are not raised. ¹⁶For if the dead are not raised, neither hath Christ been raised: ¹⁷and if Christ hath not been raised, your faith is vain; ¹⁸ye are yet in your sins. ¹⁸Then they also which ²are fallen asleep in Christ have perished. ¹⁹'If in this life only we have hoped in Christ, ²we are of all men most pitiable.

²⁰But now ³hath Christ been raised from the dead, ⁴the firstfruits of them that are asleep. ²¹For since ⁵by man came death, ⁶by man came also the resurrection of the dead. ²²For ⁴as in Adam all die, so also in ⁵Christ shall all be made alive. ²³But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; ⁵then they that are Christ's, ⁷at his ⁶coming. ²⁴Then cometh the end, when he shall deliver up ⁸the kingdom to ⁶God, even the Father; when he shall have abolished ⁸all rule and all authority and power. ²⁵For he must reign, 'till he hath put all his enemies under his feet. ²⁶The last enemy that shall be ⁷abolished is death. ²⁷For, ⁸He put all things in subjection under his feet. ⁷But when he saith, All things are put in subjection, it is evident that he is excepted who did subject all things unto him. ²⁸And when ⁸all things have been subjected unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subjected to him that did subject all things unto him, that ⁹God may be all in all.

²⁹Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them? ³⁰why do ⁹we also stand in jeopardy every hour? ³¹I protest by ¹⁰that glorying in you, brethren, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, ¹¹I die daily. ³²If after the manner of men ⁹I fought with beasts at Ephesus, ⁹what doth it profit me? If the dead are not raised, ⁷let us eat and drink, ⁸for to-morrow we die. ³³'Be not deceived: ¹¹'Evil company doth corrupt good manners. ³⁴¹⁰'Awake up righteously, and sin not; for ¹¹'some have no knowledge of God: ¹²I speak this to move you to shame.

³⁵But some one will say, ¹³'How are the dead raised? and with what manner of body do they come? ³⁶Thou foolish one, ¹⁴'that which thou thyself sowest is not quickened, except it die: ³⁷and that which thou sowest, thou sowest not the body that shall be, but a bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other kind; ³⁸but God giveth it a body even as it pleased him, and to each seed a body of its own. ³⁹All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another flesh of birds, and another of fishes. ⁴⁰There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. ⁴¹There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in glory. ⁴²¹⁵'So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: ⁴³it is sown in dishonour; ¹⁶it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: ⁴⁴it is sown a ¹⁷natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. ⁴⁵So also it is written, ¹⁸'The first man Adam became a living soul. ⁶The last Adam became a ⁷life-giving spirit. ⁶Howbeit that is not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; then that which is spiritual. ⁴⁷⁷The first man is of the earth, ⁸earthy: ⁹the second man is of heaven. ⁴⁸As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, ⁹such are they also that are heavenly. ⁴⁹And ¹⁰as we have borne the image of the earthy, ¹¹we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

⁵⁰Now this I say, brethren, that ¹flesh and blood ²cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. ⁵¹Behold, I tell you a mystery: ³We shall not all sleep, ⁴but we shall all be changed, ⁵in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for ⁶the trumpet shall sound, and ⁷the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. ⁵³For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and ⁸this mortal must put on immortality. ⁵⁴But when ⁹this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written, ¹⁰'Death is swallowed up' ¹¹in victory. ⁵⁵¹²'O death, where is thy victory? O death, where is thy sting?' ⁵⁶The sting of death is sin; and ⁷the power of sin is the law: ⁵⁷but thanks be to God, ⁸which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁵⁸⁹Wherefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in ¹⁰the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that ¹¹your labour is not ¹²vain in the Lord.

¹Now concerning ²the collection for the saints, as I gave order to the churches of Galatia, so also do ye. ³Upon ⁴the first day of the week let each one of you lay by him in store, ⁵as he may prosper, ⁶that no collections be made when I come. ³And when I arrive, ⁶whomsoever ye shall approve by letters, them will I send to carry your bounty unto Jerusalem: ⁴and if it be meet for me to go also, they shall go with me. ⁵But ⁷I will come unto you, when

I shall have passed through ⁸Macedonia; for ⁹I do pass through Macedonia; ⁶but with you it may be that I shall abide, or even winter, that ye may ⁷set me forward on my journey whithersoever I go. ⁷For I do not wish to see you now ⁸by the way; for I hope to tarry a while with you, ⁹if the Lord permit. ⁸But I will tarry at Ephesus until ⁹Pentecost; ⁹for ¹⁰a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and ¹¹there are many adversaries.

¹⁰Now ¹if Timothy come, see that he be with you without fear; for ²he worketh ³the work of the Lord, as I also do: ¹¹let no man therefore despise him. But ¹²set him forward on his journey ¹³in peace, that he may come unto me: for I expect him with the brethren. ¹²But as touching ¹³Apollos the brother, I besought him much to come unto you with the brethren: and it was not at all ¹⁴his will to come now; but he will come when he shall have opportunity.

¹³Watch ye, ¹⁴stand fast in the faith, ¹⁵quit you like men, ¹⁶be strong. ¹⁴Let all that ye do be done in love.

¹⁵Now I beseech you, brethren (ye know ¹⁶the house of Stephanas, that it is ¹⁷the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have set themselves ¹⁸to minister unto the saints), ¹⁶that ye also be in subjection unto such, and to every one that helpeth in the work and laboureth. ¹⁷And I rejoice at the ¹⁸coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: for ¹⁹that which was lacking on your part they supplied. ¹⁸For they ²⁰refreshed my spirit and yours: ²¹acknowledge ye therefore them that are such.

¹⁹The churches of Asia salute you. ²⁰Aquila and Prisca salute you much in the Lord, with ²¹the church that is in their house. ²⁰All the brethren salute you. ²²Salute one another with a holy kiss.

²¹The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand. ²²If any man loveth not the Lord, let him be ²³anathema. ²²Maran atha. ²³The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you. ²⁴My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

I PAUL, ^aan apostle of Christ Jesus ^bthrough the will of God, and ^cTimothy ^dour brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, ^ewith all the saints which are in the whole of Achaia: ^fGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

^g3 Blessed be the ^hGod and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and ⁱGod of all comfort; ^j4 who comforteth us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort them that are in any affliction, through the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God. ^k5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound unto us, even so our comfort also aboundeth through Christ. ^l6 But ^mwhether we be afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation; or whether we be comforted, it is for your comfort, which worketh in the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: ⁿ7 and our hope for you is steadfast; knowing that, ^oas ye are partakers of the sufferings, so also are ye of the comfort. ^p8 For we would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning ^qour affliction which befell us in Asia, that we were weighed down exceedingly, beyond our power, inasmuch that we despaired even of life: ^r9 yea, we ourselves have had the ^sanswer of death within ourselves, that we ^tshould not trust in ourselves, ^ubut in God ^vwhich raiseth the dead: ^w10 who delivered us out of so great a death, and will deliver: ^xon whom we have ^yset our hope that he will also still deliver us; ^z11 ye also helping together on our behalf by your supplication; that, ^{aa}for the gift bestowed upon us by means of many, thanks may be given by many persons on our behalf.

^{ab}12 For our glorying is this, ^{ac}the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and ^{ad}sincerity of God, ^{ae}not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God, we behaved ourselves in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. ^{af}13 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or even acknowledge, and I hope ye will acknowledge unto the end: ^{ag}14 as also ye did acknowledge us ^{ah}in part, that ^{ai}we are your glorying, even as ^{aj}ye also are ours, ^{ak}in the day of our Lord Jesus.

^{al}15 And in this confidence ^{am}I was minded to come before unto you, that ye might have ^{an}a second ^{ao}benefit; ^{ap}16 and by you ^{aq}to pass into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come unto you, and of you to be set forward on my journey unto Judaea. ^{ar}17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I shew fickleness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose ^{as}according to the flesh, that with me there should be the yea yea and the nay nay? ^{at}18 But as ^{au}God is faithful, ^{av}our word toward you is not yea and nay. ^{aw}19 For ^{ax}the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you ^{ay}by us, even ^{az}by me and ^{ba}Silvanus and Timothy, was not yea and nay, but ^{bb}in him is yea. ^{bc}20 For ^{bd}how many soever be the promises of God, in him is the yea: wherefore also through him is ^{be}the Amen, unto the glory of God through us. ^{bf}21 Now he that stablisheth us with you ^{bg}in Christ, and ^{bh}anointed us, is God; ^{bi}22 who also ^{bj}sealed us, and ^{bk}gave us the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

^{bl}23 But ^{bm}I call God for a witness upon my soul, that ^{bn}I spare you I forbore to come unto Corinth. ^{bo}24 Not that we ^{bp}have lordship over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for ^{bq}by ^{br}faith ye stand. ^{bs}25 But I determined this ^{bt}for myself, ^{bu}that I would not come again to you with sorrow. ^{bv}26 For ^{bw}if I make you sorry, who then is he that maketh me glad, but he that is made sorry by me? 3 And I wrote this very thing, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; ^whaving confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all. 4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart ^xI wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be made sorry, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But ^yif any hath caused sorrow, ^zhe hath caused sorrow, not to me, but ^ain part (that I press not too heavily) to you all. 6 Sufficient to such a one is ^bthis punishment which was inflicted by ¹the many; ²so that contrariwise ^cye should ³rather forgive him and comfort him, lest by any means such a one should be swallowed up with his overmuch sorrow. 8 Wherefore I beseech you to confirm your love toward him. 9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know ^dthe proof of you, ^ewhether ye are obedient in all things. 10 But to whom ye forgive anything, I forgive also: for what I also have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, for your sakes have I forgiven it in the ^fperson of Christ; 11 that no advantage may be gained over us by Satan: for ^gwe are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Now when ^hI came to Troas for the gospel of Christ, and when ⁱa door was opened unto me in the Lord, 13 ^jI had no relief for my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother; but taking my leave of them, I went forth into Macedonia. 14 But ^kI thank be unto God, which always ^lleadeth us in triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest through us ^mthe savour of his knowledge in every place. 15 For we are a sweet savour of Christ unto God, in ⁿthem that are being saved, and in ^othem that are perishing; 16 ^pto the one a savour from death unto death; ^qto the other a savour from life unto life. And ^rwho is sufficient for these things? 17 For we are not as the many, ^scorrupting the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, speak we in Christ.

3 ^tAre we beginning again to commend ourselves? or need we, ^uas do some, ^vepistles of commendation to you or from you? 2 ^wYe are our epistle, written in our hearts, known and read of all men; 3 being made manifest that ye are an epistle of Christ, ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of ^xthe living God; not in ^ytables of stone, but in ^ztables that are ^ahearts of flesh. 4 And ^bsuch confidence have we through Christ to God-ward: 5 ^cnot that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from ourselves; but ^dour sufficiency is from God; 6 who also made us sufficient as ^eministers of ^fa new ^gcovenant; not of ^hthe letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but ⁱthe spirit giveth life. 7 But if ^jthe ministration of death, ^kwritten, and engraven on stones, came ^lwith glory, ^mso that the children of Israel could not look stedfastly upon the face of Moses for the glory of his face; which ⁿglory ^owas passing away: 8 how shall not rather the ministration of the spirit be with glory? 9 ^pFor if ^qthe ministration of condemnation is glory, much rather doth ^rthe ministration of righteousness exceed in glory. 10 For verily that which hath been made glorious hath not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the glory that surpasseth. 11 For if that which ^spasseth away ^twas ^uwith glory, much more that which remaineth ^vis in glory.

12 Having therefore such a hope, ^wwe use great boldness of speech, 13 and ^xare not as Moses, ^ywho put a veil upon his face, that the children of Israel should not look stedfastly ^zon the end of that which ^awas passing away: 14 but ^btheir ^cminds were ^dhardened: for until this very day ^eat the reading of ^fthe old ^gcovenant the same veil ^hremaineth unlifted; which ⁱveil is done away in Christ. 15 But unto this day, whensoever Moses is read, a veil lieth upon their heart. 16 But whensoever ^jit shall turn to the Lord, 'the veil is taken away. 17 Now the Lord is the Spirit: and where 'the Spirit of the Lord is, there is 'liberty. 18 But we all, with unveiled face ¹ reflecting as a mirror 'the glory of the Lord, 'are transformed into the same image 'from glory to glory, even as from ² the Lord the Spirit.

1 Therefore seeing we have 4 'this ministry, even as ³ we obtained mercy, we faint not: 2 but we have renounced ⁴ the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor ⁵ handling the word of God deceitfully; but ⁶ by the manifestation of the truth ⁷ commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 3 But and ⁸ if our gospel is veiled, ⁹ it is veiled in ¹⁰ them that are perishing: 4 in whom ¹¹ the god of this ¹² world hath blinded the ¹³ minds of the unbelieving, ¹⁴ that ¹⁵ the ¹⁶ light of ¹⁷ the gospel of the glory of Christ, ¹⁸ who is the image of God, should not dawn upon them. 5 For ¹⁹ we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ²⁰ ourselves as your ²¹ servants ²² for Jesus' sake. 6 Seeing it is God, that said, ²³ Light shall shine out of darkness, ²⁴ who shined in our hearts, to give ²⁵ the ²⁶ light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in ²⁷ earthen vessels, ²⁸ that the exceeding greatness of the power may be of God, and not from ourselves; 8 we are ²⁹ pressed on every side, yet not straitened; perplexed, yet not unto despair; 9 pursued, yet ³⁰ not forsaken; ³¹ smitten down, yet not destroyed; 10 ³² always bearing about in the body the ³³ dying of Jesus, ³⁴ that the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our body. 11 For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh. 12 So then ³⁵ death worketh in us, but life in you. 13 But having ³⁶ the same spirit of faith, according to that which is written, ³⁷ I believed, and therefore did I speak; we also believe. 14 Cp. ch. 1. 5. 9 & Rom. 6. 5 & 8. 36. x 2 Tim. 2. 11. lieve, and therefore also we speak; 14 knowing that ³⁸ he which raised up ³⁹ the Lord Jesus ⁴⁰ shall raise up us also with Jesus, and shall ⁴¹ present us with you. 15 For ⁴² all things are for your sakes, that ⁴³ the grace, being multiplied through ⁴⁴ the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound ⁴⁵ unto the glory of God.

1 For we know that if ⁵¹ the earthly house of our ⁵² tabernacle be dissolved, we have a building from God, ⁵³ a house not made with hands, eternal, in the heavens. 2 For verily in this ⁵⁴ we groan, longing to be ⁵⁵ clothed upon with our habitation which is from heaven: 3 if so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked. 4 For indeed we that are in this ⁵⁶ tabernacle do groan, ⁵⁷ being burdened; not for that ⁵⁸ we would be unclothed, but that we would be clothed upon, that what is mortal ⁵⁹ may be swallowed up of life. 5 Now he that wrought us for this very thing is God, ⁶⁰ who gave unto us the earnest of the Spirit. 6 Being therefore always of good courage, and knowing that, ⁶¹ whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord 7 (for ⁶² we walk by faith, not ⁶³ by ⁶⁴ sight); 8 we are of good courage, I say, and ⁶⁵ are willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be at home with the Lord. 9 Wherefore also we ⁶⁶ make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be ⁶⁷ well-pleasing unto him. 10 For ⁶⁸ we must all be made manifest before the judgement-seat of Christ; ⁶⁹ that each one may receive the things ⁷⁰ done ⁷¹ in the body, according to what he hath done, whether ⁷² it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore ^b the fear of the Lord, we persuade men, but ^c we are made manifest unto God; and I hope that we are made manifest also in your consciences. 12 ^d We are not again commending ourselves unto you, but ^e speak as giving you occasion of glorying on our behalf, that ye may have wherewith to answer them that glory in appearance, and not in heart. 13 For whether we ^f are beside ourselves, it is unto God; or whether we are of sober mind, it is unto you. 14 For the love of Christ ^g constraineth us; because we thus judge, that ^h one died for all, therefore all died; 15 and he died for all, ⁱ that they which live should no longer live unto themselves, but ^j unto him who for their sakes died and rose again. 16 Wherefore we henceforth ^k know no man after the flesh: even though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now we know ^l him so no more. 17 Wherefore if any man is ^m in Christ, ⁿ he is ^o a new creature: ^p the old things are passed away; behold, they are become new. 18 But all things are of God, ^q who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and gave unto us ^r the ministry of reconciliation; 19 to wit, that God was in Christ reconciling the world unto himself, ^s not reckoning unto them their trespasses, and having ^t committed unto us ^u the word of reconciliation.

20 ^v We are ambassadors therefore on behalf of Christ, ^w as though God were intreating by us: we beseech ^x you on behalf of Christ, be ye reconciled to God. 21 ^y Him who knew no sin ^z he made to be sin on our behalf; that we might become ^{aa} the righteousness of God in him.

22 ^{ab} And ^{ac} working together with ^{ad} him ^{ae} we intreat also ^{af} that ye receive not the grace of God in vain ^{ag} a (for he saith,

^{ah} At an acceptable time I hearkened unto thee,

And in a day of salvation did I succour thee:

behold, ^{ai} now is the ^{aj} acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation); ^{ak} giving no occasion of stumbling in anything, that our ministration be not blamed; ^{al} but in everything commending ourselves, ^{am} as ministers of God, ^{an} in much patience, ^{ao} in afflictions, ^{ap} in necessities, in distresses, ^{aq} in stripes, in imprisonments, ^{ar} in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings; ^{as} in pureness, ^{at} in knowledge, in longsuffering, in kindness, ^{au} in the ^{av} Holy Ghost, in ^{aw} love unfeigned, ^{ax} in the word of truth, ^{ay} in the power of God; ^{az} by ^{ba} the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, ^{bb} by glory and dishonour, ^{bc} by evil report and good report; ^{bd} as deceivers, and yet true; ^{be} as unknown, and yet well known; ^{bf} as dying, and behold, we live; ^{bg} as chastened, and not killed; ^{bh} as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; ^{bi} as poor, yet making many rich; ^{bj} as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 Our mouth is open unto you, O Corinthians, ^{bk} our heart is enlarged. 12 Ye are not straitened in us, but ^{bl} ye are straitened in your own affections. 13 Now ^{bm} as for a recompense in like kind (I speak ^{bn} as unto ^{bo} my children), be ye also enlarged.

14 ^{bp} Be not unequally yoked with unbelievers: for ^{bq} what fellowship have righteousness and iniquity? or ^{br} what communion hath light with darkness? 15 And ^{bs} what concord hath Christ with ^{bt} Belial? or what portion hath a believer with an unbeliever? 16 And what agreement hath ^{bu} a temple of God with idols? for ^{bv} we are ^{bw} a temple of the living God; even as God said, ^{bx} I will dwell in them, and ^{by} walk in them; and ^{bz} I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 17 Wherefore saith the Lord,

And touch no unclean thing;

And I will receive you,

18 ^{cb} And will be to you a Father,

And ye shall be to me sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. 19 Having therefore these promises, beloved, ^{cc} let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2¹ "Open your hearts to us: "we wronged no man, we corrupted no man, we took advantage of no man. 3 I say it not to condemn you: for I have said before, that "ye are in our hearts to die together and live together. 4 "Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is "my glorying on your behalf: "I am filled with comfort, I overflow with joy in all our affliction.

5 For even "when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no relief, but we were afflicted on every side; "without were fightings, within were fears. 6 Nevertheless "he that comforteth the lowly, even God, "comforted us by the "coming of Titus; 7 and not by his "coming only, but also by the comfort wherewith he was comforted in you, while he told us your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced yet more. 8 For "though I made you sorry with my epistle, I do not regret it, though "I did regret; "for I see that that epistle made you sorry, though but for a season. 9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but "that ye were made sorry unto repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly sort, that ye might suffer loss by us in nothing. 10 For "a godly sorrow worketh repentance "unto salvation, a repentance which bringeth no regret: but "the sorrow of the world worketh death. 11 For behold, this selfsame thing, that ye were made sorry after a godly sort, what earnest care it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what longing, yea, "what zeal, yea, what avenging! In everything ye approved yourselves to be pure in the matter. 12 So although I wrote unto you, I wrote not for his cause "that did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be made manifest unto you in the sight of God. 13 Therefore "we have been comforted: and in our comfort we joyed the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit "hath been refreshed by you all. 14 For "if in anything I have gloried to him on your behalf, I was not put to shame; but as we spake all things to you "in truth, so our glorying also, which I made before Titus, was found to be truth. 15 And his inward affection is more abundantly toward you, whilst he remembereth "the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him. 16 I rejoice that in everything "I am of good courage concerning you.

1 Moreover, brethren, we make 8 known to you the grace of God which hath been "given in the churches of Macedonia; 2 how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and "their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their "liberality. 3 For "according to their power, I bear witness, yea and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord, 4 beseeching us with much intreaty "in regard of this grace and the fellowship in "the ministering to the saints: 5 and this, not as we had hoped, but first they "gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us by the will of God. 6 Inasmuch that "we exhorted Titus, that as he had made a beginning before, so he would also complete in you "this grace also. 7 But as "ye abound in everything, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all earnestness, and in "your love to us, "see that ye abound in this grace also. 8 "I speak not by way of commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love. 9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, "though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might become rich. 10 And herein "I give my judgement: for "this is expedient for you, who were the first to make a beginning "a year ago, not only to do, but also to will. 11 But now complete the doing also; that as there was the readiness to will, so there may be the completion also out of your ability. 12 For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable "according as a man hath, not according as he hath not. 13 For I say not this, that others may be eased, and ye distressed: 14 but by equality; your abundance being a supply at this present time for "their want, that their abundance also may become a supply for a your want; that there may be equality: 15 as it is written, b He that gathered much had nothing over; and he that gathered little had no lack.

16 But c thanks be to God, d which putteth the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus. 17 For indeed e he accepted our exhortation; but being himself very earnest, he went forth unto you of his own accord. 18 And we have sent together with him f the brother whose praise in the gospel is spread through g all the churches; 19 and not only so, but who was also h appointed by the churches to travel with us in the matter of i this grace, which is ministered by us j to the glory of the Lord, and to show our readiness: 20 avoiding this, that any man should blame us in the matter of this bounty which is ministered by us: 21 for k we take thought for things honourable, l not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. 22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence which he hath in you. 23 Whether any inquire about Titus, he is m my partner and my fellow-worker to you-ward; or our brethren, they are n the 1 messengers of the churches, they are the glory of Christ. 24 2 Shew ye therefore unto them in the face of the churches the proof of your love, and of o our glorying on your behalf.

1 For as touching p the ministering to the saints, q it is superfluous for me to write to you: 2 for I know your readiness, r of which I glory on your behalf to them of Macedonia, that Achaia hath been prepared s for a year past; and t your zeal hath stirred up u very many of them. 3 But v I have sent the brethren, that our glorying on your behalf may not be made void in this respect; that, w even as I said, ye may be prepared: x lest by any means, if y there come with me any of Macedonia, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be put to shame in this confidence.

1 Gr. apostles. 2 Or, Shew ye therefore in the face . . . on your behalf unto them. 3 Or, emulation of you. 4 Gr. the more part. 5 Gr. blessing. 6 Or, covetousness. 7 Gr. with blessings. 8 Gr. of sorrow. 9 Gr. singleness.

5 I thought it necessary therefore to intreat the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your aforepromised z bounty, that the same might be ready, a as a matter of bounty, and b not of c extortion.

6 But this I say, d He that soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he that soweth e bountifully shall reap also f bountifully. 7 Let each man do according as he hath purposed in his heart; g not h grudgingly, or of necessity: for h God loveth a cheerful giver. 8 And i God is able to make all grace abound unto you; that ye, having always all sufficiency in everything, may abound unto every good work: 9 as it is written,

d He hath scattered abroad, he hath given to the poor;
His righteousness abideth for ever.

10 And he that supplieth j seed to the sower and bread for food, shall supply and multiply your seed for sowing, and k increase the fruits of your righteousness: 11 ye being enriched in everything unto all l liberality, which worketh m through us thanksgiving to God. 12 For the ministration of this service not only filleth up the measure of n the wants of the saints, but aboundeth also through many thanksgivings unto God; 13 seeing that through the proving of you by this ministration o they glorify God for the obedience of your p confession unto the gospel of Christ, and for the q liberality of your contribution unto them and unto all; 14 while they themselves also, with supplication on your behalf, long after you by reason of the exceeding grace of God in you. 15 1 Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift.

1 Now r I Paul myself intreat you by the s meekness and t gentleness of Christ, I who in your presence am lowly among you, but being absent am of good courage toward you: 2 yea, I beseech you, u that I may not when present shew courage with the confidence wherewith I count to be bold against v some, which count of us as if we walked according to the flesh. 3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh 4 (for 'the weapons of 'our warfare are not of the flesh, but 'mighty 'before God 'to the casting down of strong holds); 5 casting down 'imagination, and 'every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing every thought into captivity to 'the obedience of Christ; 6 and 'being in readiness to avenge all disobedience, 'when your obedience shall be fulfilled. 7 2^a Ye look at the things that are before your face. 3 If any man trusteth in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again with himself, that, even as 'he is Christ's, 'so also are we. 8 For though I should glory somewhat abundantly concerning 'our authority (which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for casting you down), I shall not be put to shame: 9 that I may not seem as if I would terrify you by my letters. 10 For, His letters, they say, are weighty and strong; but 'his bodily presence is weak, and 'his speech of no account. 11 Let such a one reckon this, that, what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such are we also in deed when we are present. 12 For we are not bold 'to number or 'compare ourselves with certain of them that 'commend themselves; but they themselves, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are 'without understanding. 13 But we will not glory 'beyond our measure, but 'according to the measure of the 'province which God apportioned to us as a measure, 'to reach even unto you. 14 For we stretch not ourselves overmuch, as though we reached not unto you: for 'we 'came even as far as unto you in the gospel of Christ: 15 not glorying beyond our measure, that is, in other men's labours; but having hope that, 'as your faith groweth, we shall be 'magnified in you according to our 'province unto further abundance, 16 so as to preach the gospel even unto the parts beyond you, and not to glory in another's 'province in regard of things ready to our hand. 17 But 'he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. 18 For 'not he that commendeth himself is approved, but 'whom the Lord commendeth.

I Would that ye could bear with me in a little foolishness: 'nay indeed bear with me. 2 For I am jealous over you with 'a godly jealousy: for 'I espoused you to one husband, 'that I might present you 'as a pure virgin to Christ. 3 But I fear, lest by any means, 'as the serpent beguiled Eve in his craftiness, your 'minds 'should be corrupted from the 'simplicity and the 'purity that is toward Christ. 4 For if he that cometh 'preacheth another Jesus, whom we did not preach, or 'if ye receive a different spirit, which ye did not receive, or 'a different gospel, which ye did not accept, ye do well to bear with him. 5 For I reckon that 'I am not a whit behind 'the very chiefest apostles. 6 But 'though I be rude in speech, 'yet am I not in knowledge; nay, in everything 'we have made it manifest among all men to you-ward. 7 Or 'did I commit a sin in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because 'I preached to you the gospel of God for nought? 8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them that I might minister unto you; 9 and when I was present with you and was 'in want, 'I was not a burden on any man; for the brethren, when they came from Macedonia, 'supplied the measure of my want; and in everything I kept myself 'from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself. 10^m As the truth of Christ is in me, 'no man shall stop me of this glorying in the regions of Achaia. 11 Wherefore? 'because I love you not? 'God knoweth. 12 But what I do, that I will do, 'that I may cut off 'occasion from them which desire an occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we. 13 For such men are 'false apostles, 'deceitful workers, 'fashioning themselves into apostles of Christ. 14 And no marvel; for even Satan fashioneth himself into 'an angel of light. 15 It is no great thing therefore if his ministers also fashion themselves as ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think me foolish; but if ye do, yet as foolish receive me, that I also may glory a little. 17 That which I speak, I speak not after the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of glorying. 18 Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also. 19 For ye bear with the foolish gladly, being wise yourselves.

20 For ye bear with a man, if he bringeth you into bondage, if he devoureth you, if he taketh you captive, if he exalteth himself, if he smiteth you on the face. 21 I speak by way of disparagement, as though we had been weak.

Yet whereinsoever any is bold (I speak in foolishness), I am bold also. 22 Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I. 23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as one beside himself) I more; in labours more abundantly, in prisons more abundantly, in stripes above measure, in deaths oft. 24 Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one. 25 Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day have I been in the deep; 26 in journeyings often, in perils of rivers, in perils of robbers, in perils from my countrymen, in perils from the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; 27 in labour and travail, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. 28 Beside those things that are without, there is that which presseth upon me daily, anxiety for all the churches.

29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is made to stumble, and I burn not? 30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things that concern my weakness. 31 The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, he who is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not. 32 In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king guarded the city of the Damascenes, in order to take me: 33 and through a window was I let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped his hands.

12 I must needs glory, though it is not expedient; but I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. 2 I know a man in Christ, fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I know not; or whether out of the body, I know not; God knoweth), such a one caught up even to the third heaven. 3 And I know such a man (whether in the body, or apart from the body, I know not; God knoweth), how that he was caught up into Paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. 4 On behalf of such a one will I glory; but on mine own behalf I will not glory, save in my weaknesses. 5 For if I should desire to glory, I shall not be foolish; for I shall speak the truth: but I forbear, lest any man should account of me above that which he seeth me to be, or heareth from me. 6 And by reason of the exceeding greatness of the revelations—wherefore, that I should not be exalted overmuch, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to buffet me, that I should not be exalted overmuch. 7 Concerning this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me. 8 And he hath said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my weaknesses, that the strength of Christ may rest upon me. 9 Wherefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

10 I am become foolish: ye compelled me; for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing was I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I am nothing. 11 Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, by signs and wonders and mighty works. 12 For what is there wherein ye were made inferior to the rest of the churches, except it be that ^b I myself was not a burden to you? forgive me this wrong.

¹⁴ Behold, ^c this is the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be a burden to you; for ^d I seek not yours, but you: for ^e the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but ^f the parents for the children. ¹⁵ And ^g I will most gladly spend and be ^h spent for your souls. If ⁱ I love you more abundantly, am I loved the less? ¹⁶ But be it so, ^j I did not myself burden you; but, being crafty, I caught you with guile. ¹⁷ Did I take advantage of you ^k by any one of them whom I have sent unto you? ¹⁸ ^l I exhorted Titus, and I sent ^m the brother with him. Did Titus take any advantage of you? walked we not by the same Spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

¹⁹ Ye think all this time that we are excusing ourselves unto you. ⁿ In the sight of God speak we in Christ. But ^o all things, beloved, are for your edifying. ²⁰ For I fear, lest by any means, ^p when I come, I should find you not such as I would, and should myself be found of you such as ye would not; lest by any means there should be strife, jealousy, wraths, factions, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, ^q tumults; ²¹ lest, when I come again, my God should humble me before you, and I should mourn for many of them ^r that have sinned heretofore, and repented not of the uncleanness and ^s fornication and lasciviousness which they committed.

and I do say ^v beforehand, ^w as when I was present the second time, so now, being absent, to ^x them that have sinned heretofore, and to all the rest, that, ^y if I come again, I will not spare; ³ seeing that ye seek a proof of Christ ^z that speaketh in me; who to you-ward is not weak, but ^{aa} is powerful in you: ⁴ for ^{ab} he was crucified through weakness, yet he ^{ac} liveth through the power of God. For ^{ad} we also are weak ^{ae} in him, but ^{af} we shall live with him through the power of God toward you. ⁵ Try your own selves, whether ye be in the faith; ^{ag} prove your own selves. Or know ye not as to your own selves, that ^{ah} Jesus Christ is in you? unless indeed ye be reprobate. ⁶ But I hope that ye shall know that we are not reprobate. ⁷ Now we pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we may appear approved, but that ye may do that which is honourable, ⁷ though we be as reprobate. ⁸ For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. ⁹ For we rejoice, when ^{ai} we are weak, and ye are strong: this we also pray for, even ^{aj} your perfecting. ¹⁰ For this cause I write these things while absent, ^{ak} that I may not when present deal ^{al} sharply, according to ^{am} the authority which the Lord gave me for building up, and not for casting down.

¹¹ ^{an} Finally, brethren, ^{ao} farewell. ^{ai} Be perfected; be comforted; ^{ap} be of the same mind; ^{aq} live in peace: and the God of love and ^{ar} peace shall be with you. ¹² ^{as} Salute one another with a holy kiss.

¹³ All the saints salute you.

¹⁴ The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and ^{at} the love of God, and ^{au} the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all.

I PAUL, ^aan apostle (^bnot from man, neither through ^c1 man, but ^dthrough Jesus Christ, and God the Father, ^ewho raised him from the dead), ^fand all ^gthe brethren which are with me, unto ^hthe churches of Galatia: ⁱ3 Grace to you and peace ^jfrom God the Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, ^k4 who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of this present ^levil ^mworld, according to the will of ⁿour God and Father: ^o5 to whom ^pbe the glory ^qfor ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are ^rso quickly removing from ^shim that called you in the grace of Christ unto ^ta different gospel; ^u7 which is not another gospel: only ^vthere are some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. ^w8 But though we, or ^xan angel from heaven, should preach ^yunto you any gospel ^zother than that which we preached unto you, ^{aa}let him be anathema. ^{ab}9 As we have said before, so say I now again, If any man preacheth unto you any gospel other than that which ye received, ^{ac}let him be anathema. ^{ad}10 For am I now persuading men, or God? or am I seeking ^{ae}to please men? If I were still pleasing men, I should not be a ^{af}servant of Christ.

11 For ^{ag}I make known to you, brethren, as touching ^{ah}the gospel which was preached by me, that it is not after man. ^{ai}12 For neither did I receive it from ^{aj}1 man, nor was I taught it, but it came to me ^{ak}through revelation of Jesus Christ. ^{al}13 For ye have heard of ^{am}my manner of life in time past ^{an}in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure ^{ao}I persecuted the church of God, and made havock of it: ^{ap}14 and I advanced in the Jews' religion beyond many of mine own age ^{aq}among my countrymen, being more exceedingly ^{ar}zealous for ^{as}the traditions of my fathers. ^{at}15 But when it was the good pleasure of God, ^{au}who separated me, even ^{av}from my mother's womb, and ^{aw}called me through his grace, ^{ax}16 to reveal his Son in me, ^{ay}that I might preach him among the Gentiles; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood: ^{az}17 neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me: but I went away into Arabia; and again I returned unto Damascus.

18 Then ^{ba}after three years ^{bb}I went up to Jerusalem to ^{bc}visit Cephas, and tarried with him fifteen days. ^{bd}19 But other of the apostles saw I none, ^{be}10 save James ^{bf}the Lord's brother. ^{bg}20 Now touching the things which I write unto you, behold, ^{bh}before God, I lie not. ^{bi}21 Then I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia. ^{bj}22 And I was still unknown by face unto ^{bk}the churches of Judæa which were in Christ: ^{bl}23 but they only heard say, He that once persecuted us now preacheth the faith of which he once made havock; ^{bm}24 and they glorified God in me.

1 Then ^{bn}12 after the space of fourteen years ^{bo}I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus also with me. ^{bp}2 And I went up by revelation; and I laid before them the gospel which ^{bq}I preach among the Gentiles, but privately before them ^{br}who ^{bs}12 were of repute, ^{bt}lest by any means I should be running, or ^{bu}had run, in vain. ^{bv}3 But not even Titus who was with me, being a Greek, ^{bw}was compelled to be circumcised: ^{bx}4 ¹³and that because of the false brethren privily brought in, who ^{by}came in privily to spy out ^{bz}our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, ^{ca}that they might bring us into bondage: ^{cb}5 to whom we gave place in the way of subjection, no, not for an hour; that ^{cc}the truth of the gospel might continue with you. ^{cd}6 But from those ^{ce}who ¹²were reputed to be somewhat ^{cf}(¹⁴ whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: ^a God accepteth not man's person) — they, I say, who were of repute ^b imparted nothing to me: ^c but contrariwise, when they saw that I had been ^d intrusted with ^e the gospel of the uncircumcision, even as Peter with ^f the gospel of the circumcision ^g (for he that wrought for Peter unto the apostleship of the circumcision wrought for me also unto the Gentiles); ^h and when they perceived ⁱ the grace that was given unto me, James and Cephas and John, they ^j who ^k were reputed to be ^l pillars, ^m gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, that we should go unto the Gentiles, and they unto the circumcision; ⁿ roonly they would that we should remember the poor; ^o which very thing I was also zealous to do.

¹¹ But ^p when Cephas came to Antioch, I resisted him ^q to the face, because he stood condemned. ¹² For before that certain came from James, ^r he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they came, he drew back and separated himself, fearing ^s them that were of the circumcision. ¹³ And the rest of the Jews dissembled likewise with him; inasmuch that even Barnabas was carried away with their dissimulation. ¹⁴ But when I saw that they ^t walked not uprightly according to ^u the truth of the gospel, I said unto Cephas ^v before them all, If thou, being a Jew, ^w livest as do the Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, how compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews? ¹⁵ We being Jews by nature, and not ^x sinners of the Gentiles, ^y yet knowing that ^z a man is not justified by ^{aa} the works of the law, ^{ab} save through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed on Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law: ^{ac} because by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. ¹⁷ But if, while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found ^{ad} sinners, is Christ a minister of sin? God forbid. ¹⁸ For if I build up again those things which I destroyed, I prove myself a transgressor. ¹⁹ For I through ^{ae} the law ^{af} died unto ^{ag} the law, that I might ^{ah} live unto God.

1 Or, are 2 Or, works of law 3 Or, but only 4 Or, law 5 Or, and it is no longer I that live, but Christ &c. 6 Or, message 7 Or, do ye now make an end in the flesh? 8 Or, powers. 9 Or, in 10 Or, ye perceive 11 Gr. justifieth. 12 Gr. nations. 13 Or. in.

²⁰ I have been ^{ai} crucified with Christ; ^{aj} yet I live; and ^{ak} yet no longer I, but Christ liveth ^{al} in me: and that ^{am} life which I now live in the flesh I live in faith, ^{an} the faith which is in the Son of God, ^{ao} who loved me, and ^{ap} gave himself up for me. ²¹ I do not make void the grace of God: for ^{aq} if righteousness is through ^{ar} the law, ^{as} then Christ died for nought.

¹ O foolish Galatians, who did ³ bewitch you, ⁴ before whose eyes Jesus Christ was openly ⁵ set forth crucified? ² This only would I learn from you, ⁶ Received ye the Spirit by ⁷ the works of the law, or by ⁸ the ⁹ hearing of faith? ³ Are ye so foolish? ⁴ having begun in the Spirit, ⁵ are ye now perfected in the flesh? ⁴ Did ye suffer so many things in vain? if it be indeed in vain. ⁵ He therefore that supplieth to you the Spirit, and ⁶ worketh ⁷ miracles ⁸ among you, ⁹ doeth he it ¹⁰ by ¹¹ the works of the law, or by ¹² the hearing of faith? ⁶ Even as ⁷ Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. ⁷ Know therefore that ⁸ they which be of faith, the same are ⁹ sons of Abraham. ³ And the scripture, foreseeing that ⁴ God ⁵ would justify the ⁶ Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand unto Abraham, ⁶ saying, ⁷ In thee shall all the nations be blessed. ⁹ So then they which be of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham. ¹⁰ For as many as are of ¹¹ the works of the law are ¹² under a curse: for it is written, ¹³ Cursed is every one which continueth not in ¹⁴ all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them. ¹¹ Now that ¹² no man is justified ¹³ by the law in the sight of God, is evident: for, ¹⁴ The righteous shall live by faith; ¹⁵ and the law is not of faith; but, ¹⁶ He that doeth them shall live in them. ¹³ Christ ¹⁴ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us: for it is written, ¹⁵ Cursed is every one that hangeth ¹⁶ on a tree: ¹⁴ that ¹⁵ upon the Gentiles might come the blessing of Abraham in Christ Jesus; that ¹⁶ we might receive ¹⁷ the promise of the Spirit through faith. ¹⁵ Brethren, ¹⁶ I speak after the manner of men: ^dThough it be but a man's ¹covenant, yet when it hath been confirmed, no one maketh it void, or addeth thereto. ¹⁶Now ^eto Abraham were ^fthe promises spoken, and to his seed. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, ^gAnd to thy seed, which is Christ. ¹⁷Now this I say; A ¹covenant confirmed beforehand by God, the law, which came ^hfour hundred and thirty years after, doth not disannul, so as ⁱto make the promise of none effect. ¹⁸For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise: but ^jGod hath granted it to Abraham by promise. ¹⁹What then is the law? ^kIt was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise hath been made; and ^lit was ^mordained through angels ⁿby the hand of a mediator. ²⁰Now ^oa mediator is not a mediator of one; but ^pGod is one. ²¹Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for ^qif there had been a law given which could make alive, verily righteousness would have been of the law. ²²Howbeit the scripture ^rhath shut up all things under sin, that ^sthe promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given ^tto them that believe. ²³But before ^ufaith came, we were kept in ward under the law, ^vshut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. ²⁴So that ^wthe law hath been our ^xtutor to bring us unto Christ, ^ythat we might be justified by faith. ²⁵But now that faith is come, we are no longer under a tutor. ²⁶For ^zye are all sons of God, through faith, in Christ Jesus. ²⁷For as many of you as ^{aa}were baptized ^{ab}into Christ did ^{ac}but on Christ. ²⁸There can be neither Jew nor Greek, there can be neither bond nor free, ^{ad}there can be no male and female: for ^{ae}ye all are one man in Christ Jesus. ²⁹And ^{af}if ye are Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, ^{ag}heirs according to promise. ³⁰But I say that so long as the ⁴heir is a child, he differeth nothing from a bondservant, though he is lord of all; ³¹but is under guardians and stewards until the term appointed of the father.

³²So we also, when we were children, ³³were held in bondage under ³⁴the ³⁵rudiments of the world: ³⁶but ³⁷when the fulness of the time came, God sent forth his Son, ³⁸born ³⁹of a woman, born ⁴⁰under the law, ⁴¹that he might ⁴²redeem them which were under the law, that we might receive ⁴³the adoption of sons. ⁴⁴And because ye are sons, God sent forth ⁴⁵the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba, Father. ⁴⁶So that thou art no longer a bondservant, but a son; and if a son, then ⁴⁷an heir through God. ⁴⁸Howbeit at that time, ⁴⁹not knowing God, ye ⁵⁰were in bondage to them which by nature ⁵¹are no gods: ⁵²but now that ye have come to know God, or rather ⁵³to be known of God, ⁵⁴how turn ye back again to ⁵⁵the weak and beggarly ⁵⁶rudiments, whereunto ye desire to be in bondage over again? ⁵⁷Ye observe days, and months, and seasons, and years. ⁵⁸I am afraid of you, ⁵⁹lest by any means I have bestowed labour upon you in vain. ⁶⁰I beseech you, brethren, be as I am, for I am as ye are. ⁶¹Ye did me no wrong: ⁶²but ye know that ⁶³because of an infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you ⁶⁴the ⁶⁵first time: ⁶⁶and that which was a temptation to you in my flesh ye despised not, nor ⁶⁷rejected; but ye received me ⁶⁸as an angel of God, ⁶⁹even ⁷⁰as Christ Jesus. ⁷¹Where then is that gratulation ⁷²of yourselves? for I bear you witness, that, if possible, ye would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me. ⁷³So then am I become your enemy, because ⁷⁴I ⁷⁵tell you the truth? ⁷⁶They zealously seek you in no good way; nay, they desire to shut you out, that ye may seek them. ⁷⁷But it is good to be zealously sought in a good matter at all times, and ⁷⁸not only when I am present with you. ⁷⁹My little children, ⁸⁰of whom I am again in travail until Christ ⁸¹be formed in you, ⁸²yea, I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I am perplexed about you. ⁸³Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law? ⁸⁴For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, ^aone by the handmaid, and ^bone by the freewoman. 23 Howbeit ^athe son by the handmaid is born after the flesh; but ^athe son by the freewoman is born through promise. 24 Which things contain an allegory: for these women are two covenants; ^aone from mount Sinai, bearing children unto bondage, which is Hagar. 25 ^aNow this Hagar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to the Jerusalem that now is: for she is in bondage with her children. 26 But ^athe Jerusalem that is above is free, which is our mother. 27 For it is written,

^aRejoice, thou barren that bearest not;
Break forth and cry, thou that travailest not:

For more are the children of the desolate than of her which hath the husband.

28 Now ^awe, brethren, ^aas Isaac was, ^aare children of promise. 29 But as then he that was born after the flesh ^apersecuted him that was born after the Spirit, ^aeven so it is now. 30 Howbeit what saith the scripture? ^aCast out the handmaid and her son: for the son of the handmaid shall not inherit with the son of the freewoman. 31 Wherefore, brethren, we are not children of a handmaid, but ^aof the freewoman.

^aWith ^afreedom did Christ ^aset us free: ^astand fast therefore, and be not entangled again in ^aa yoke of bondage.

^aBehold, I Paul say unto you, that, ^aif ye receive circumcision, ^aChrist will profit you nothing.

^aYea, I testify again to every man that receiveth circumcision, that ^ahe is a debtor to do the whole law.

^aYe are ^asevered from Christ, ^aye who would be justified by the law; ^aye are fallen away from grace. 7 For we through the Spirit by faith

^await for the hope of righteousness. 6 For in Christ Jesus ^aneither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision; but ^afaith ^aworking through love. 7 ^aYe were running well; who did hinder you that ye should not obey ^athe truth? 8 This persuasion came not of ^ahim that calleth you. 9 ^aA little leaven leaveneth the whole lump. 10 ^aI have confidence to you-ward in the Lord, that ye will be ^anone otherwise minded: but ^ahe that troubleth you shall bear his judgement, whosoever he be. 11 But I, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, ^awhy am I still persecuted? then hath ^athe stumbling-block of the cross been done away. 12 I would that ^athey which unsettle you would even ^acut themselves off.

13 For ye, brethren, were called ^afor freedom; ^aonly use not your freedom for an occasion to the flesh, but through love ^abe servants one to another. 14 For ^athe whole law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; ^aThou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. 15 But if ye ^abite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 But I say, ^aWalk by the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil ^athe lust of the flesh. 17 For ^athe flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary the one to the other; ^athat ye may not do the things that ye would. 18 But if ye are ^aled by the Spirit, ^aye are not under the law. 19 Now ^athe works of the flesh are manifest, which are these, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, 20 idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousies, wraths, factions, divisions, 21 heresies, 22 envyings, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I ^aforewarn you, even as I did ^aforewarn you, that ^athey which practise such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. 22 But ^athe fruit of the Spirit is ^alove, joy, peace, longsuffering, ^akindness, goodness, faithfulness, 23 ^ameekness, ^atemperance: ^aagainst such there is no law. 24 And they that are of Christ Jesus ^ahave crucified the flesh with the ^apassions and the lusts thereof.

25 If we live by the Spirit, ^aby the Spirit let us also walk. 26 ^aLet us not be vainglorious, provoking one another, envying one another.

^aBrethren, ^aeven if a man be overtaken in any trespass, ^aye which are spiritual, restore such a one in ^aa spirit of meekness; looking to thyself, lest thou also be tempted. 2 ^aBear ye one another's burdens, and ^aso fulfil ^athe law of Christ. 3 For ^bif a man thinketh himself to be something, ^cwhen he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. 4 But let each man ^dprove his own work, and then shall he have his glorying in regard of himself alone, and not of ^ehis neighbour. 5 For ^eeach man shall bear his own ^fburden.

6 But ^glet him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things. 7 ^hBe not deceived; ⁱGod is not mocked: for ^jwhatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. 8 For ^khe that soweth unto his own flesh ^lshall of the flesh reap corruption; but ^mhe that soweth unto the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap eternal life. 9 And ⁿlet us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, ^oif we faint not. 10 So then, ^pas we have opportunity, let us ^qwork that which is good toward all men, and especially toward them that are ^rof the household of the faith.

11 See with how large letters I ^shave written unto you ^twith mine own hand. 12 ^uAs many as desire to make a fair show in the flesh, ^vthey compel you to be circumcised; only ^wthat they may not be persecuted ^xfor the cross of Christ. 13 For not even they who ^yreceive circumcision do themselves keep ^zthe law; but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh. 14 But far be it from me to glory, ^{aa}save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through ^{ab}which the world ^{ac}hath been crucified unto me, and I unto the world. 15 For ^{ad}neither is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but ^{ae}a new ^{af}creature. 16 And as many as shall walk by this rule, ^{ag}peace ^{ah}be upon them, and mercy, and upon ^{ai}the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me: for ^{aj}I bear branded on my body the marks of Jesus.

18 ^{ak}The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be ^{al}with your spirit, brethren. Amen.

that we should be ^dunto the praise of his glory, we who ¹had before hoped in Christ: ¹³in whom ye also, having heard ^ethe word of the truth, the gospel of your salvation, — in whom, having also believed, ^fye were sealed with the Holy Spirit ^gof promise, ¹⁴which is ^han earnest of our ⁱinheritance, unto ^jthe redemption of ^kGod's own possession, ^lunto the praise of his glory.

¹⁵For this cause I also, ^mhaving heard of the faith in the Lord Jesus which is ⁿamong you, and ^owhich ye ^pshow toward all the saints, ¹⁶cease not to give thanks for you, ^qmaking mention of you in my prayers; ¹⁷that ^rthe God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, ^smay give unto you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him; ¹⁸having the eyes of your heart enlightened, that ye may know what is ^tthe hope of his calling, what ^uthe riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, ¹⁹and what the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, ^vaccording to that working of ^wthe strength of his might ^xso which he wrought in Christ, ^ywhen he raised him from the dead, and ^zmade him to sit at his right hand ^{aa}in the heavenly places, ²¹far above ^{ab}all rule, and authority, and power, and dominion, and ^{ac}every name that is named, not only in ^{ad}this ^{ae}world, but also in that which is to come: ²²and ^{af}he put all things in subjection under his feet, and gave him to be ^{ag}head over all things to the church, ²³which is his body, ^{ah}the fulness of him ^{ai}that filleth ^{aj}all in all.

¹And you ^{ak}did he quicken, when ²ye were ^{al}dead through your trespasses and sins, ²wherein aforetime ye walked according to the ^{am}course of this world, according to ^{an}the prince of the power of the air, of the spirit that now worketh in ^{ao}the sons of disobedience; ³among whom we also all once lived in ^{ap}the lusts of our flesh, doing the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and ^{ar}were by nature ^{as}children of wrath, even as the rest: — ⁴but God, being ^{at}rich in mercy, ⁵for his great love wherewith he loved us, ⁵even ^{au}when we were dead through our trespasses, ^{av}quickened us together ^{aw}with Christ ^{ax}(^{ay}by grace have ye been saved), ⁶and raised us up with him, and ^{az}made us to sit with him in the heavenly places, in Christ Jesus: ⁷that in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding ^{ba}riches of his grace in ^{bb}kindness toward us in Christ Jesus: ⁸for ^{bc}by grace have ye been saved ^{bd}through faith; and that ^{be}not of yourselves: ⁸it is the gift of God: ⁹not of works, ⁹that no man should glory. ¹⁰For ^{cf}we are his workmanship, ¹⁰created in Christ Jesus ^{cg}for good works, ¹⁰which God afore prepared ^{ch}that we should walk in them.

¹¹Wherefore remember, that aforetime ye, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called ^{ci}Circumcision, in the flesh, made by hands; ¹²that ye were at that time separate from Christ, ^{ck}alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from ^{cl}the covenants of the promise, ^{cl}having no hope and without God in the world. ¹³But now in Christ Jesus ye that once were ^{cm}far off are made nigh ^{cn}in the blood of Christ. ¹⁴For ^{co}he is our peace, ^{co}who made both one, and brake down the middle wall of partition, ¹⁵having abolished ^{cp}in his flesh the enmity, ^{cp}even the law of commandments contained in ^{cq}ordinances; that he might create in himself of the twain one ^{cr}new man, ¹⁶making peace; ¹⁶and might ^{cs}reconcile them both in one body unto God through the cross, having slain the enmity thereby: ¹⁷and he came and ^{ct}preached peace to you that were ^{cu}far off, and peace to them that were ^{cv}nigh: ¹⁸for ^{cw}through him we both have ^{cx}our access in ^{cy}one Spirit unto the Father. ¹⁹So then ye are no more ^{cz}strangers and sojourners, but ye are ^{da}fellow-citizens with the saints, and ^{db}of the household of God,

¹¹For this cause I Paul, ¹²the prisoner of Christ Jesus ¹³in behalf of you Gentiles,—¹⁴if so be that ye have heard of ¹⁵the dispensation of ¹⁶that grace of God which was given me to you-ward; ¹⁷how that ¹⁸by revelation was made known unto me the mystery, ¹⁹as I wrote afore in few words, ²⁰whereby, when ye read, ye can perceive my understanding in ²¹the mystery of Christ; ²²which in other generations was not made known unto the sons of men, as it hath now been revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets in the Spirit; ²³to wit, that the Gentiles are ²⁴fellow-heirs, and ²⁵fellow-members of the body, and ²⁶fellow-partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel, ²⁷whereof I was made ²⁸a minister, according to the gift of ²⁹that grace of God which was given me ³⁰according to the working of his power. ³¹Unto me, ³²who am less than the least of all saints, was this grace given, ³³to preach unto the Gentiles the ³⁴unsearchable riches of Christ; ³⁵and ³⁶to make all men see what is the ³⁷dispensation of the mystery ³⁸which from all ages hath been hid in God ³⁹who created all things; ⁴⁰to the intent that now unto ⁴¹the principalities and the powers ⁴²in the heavenly places ⁴³might be made known through the church the manifold ⁴⁴wisdom of God, ⁴⁵according to ⁴⁶the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord: ⁴⁷in whom we have ⁴⁸boldness and ⁴⁹access in ⁵⁰confidence through ⁵¹our faith in him. ⁵²Wherefore I ask that ⁵³ye faint not at my tribulations ⁵⁴for you, ⁵⁵which ⁵⁶are your glory.

⁵⁷For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father, ⁵⁸from whom ⁵⁹every ⁶⁰family in heaven and on earth is named, ⁶¹that he would grant you, according to ⁶²the riches of his glory, ⁶³that ye may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in ⁶⁴the inward man; ⁶⁵that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; to the end that ye, being ⁶⁶rooted and ⁶⁷grounded in love, ⁶⁸may be strong to apprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and ⁶⁹height and depth, ⁷⁰and to know the love of Christ ⁷¹which passeth knowledge, that ⁷²ye may be filled unto all ⁷³the fulness of God.

⁷⁴Now unto ⁷⁵him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, ⁷⁶according to the power that worketh in us, ⁷⁷unto him ⁷⁸be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus unto ⁷⁹all generations for ever and ever. Amen.

⁸⁰I therefore, ⁸¹the prisoner in the Lord, beseech you to ⁸²walk worthily of ⁸³the calling wherewith ye were called, ⁸⁴with all ⁸⁵lowliness and ⁸⁶meekness, with ⁸⁷longsuffering, ⁸⁸forbearing one another in love; ⁸⁹giving diligence to keep the unity of the Spirit in ⁹⁰the bond of peace. ⁹¹There is ⁹²one body, and ⁹³one Spirit, even as also ye were called in one ⁹⁴hope of your calling; ⁹⁵one Lord, ⁹⁶one faith, ⁹⁷one baptism, ⁹⁸one God and Father of all, ⁹⁹who is over all, and through all, and in all. ¹⁰⁰But ¹⁰¹unto each one of us was ¹⁰²the grace given ¹⁰³according to the measure of the gift of Christ. ¹⁰⁴Wherefore he saith, ¹⁰⁵When he ascended on high, ¹⁰⁶he led captivity captive, ¹⁰⁷And gave gifts unto men.

¹⁰⁸Now this, He ascended, what is it but that he also descended ¹⁰⁹into ¹¹⁰the lower parts of the earth? ¹¹¹He that descended is the same also that ¹¹²ascended ¹¹³far above all the heavens, that he might ¹¹⁴fill all things. ¹¹⁵And ¹¹⁶he gave some to be ¹¹⁷apostles; and some, prophets; and some, ¹¹⁸evangelists; and some, ¹¹⁹pastors and teachers; ¹²⁰that ¹²¹of the perfecting of the saints, unto the work of ministering, unto ¹²²the building up of ¹²³the body of Christ; ¹²⁴till we all attain unto ¹²⁵the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto "a fullgrown man, unto the measure of the stature of "the fullness of Christ: 14 that we may be no longer children, "tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, in craftiness, after "the wiles of error; 15 but 1st speaking truth in love, may "grow up in all things into him, which is "the head, even Christ; 16 "from whom all the body fitly framed and knit together "through that which every joint supplieth, "according to the working in due measure of each several part, maketh the increase of the body unto the building up of itself in love.

17 This I say therefore, and "testify in the Lord, "that ye no longer walk as the Gentiles also walk, "in the vanity of their mind, 18 "being darkened in their understanding, "alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, because of "the hardening of their heart; 19 who "being past feeling "gave themselves up to lasciviousness, "to work all uncleanness with "greediness. 20 But ye did not so "learn Christ; 21 if so be that "ye heard him, and "were taught in him, even as truth is in Jesus: 22 that ye "put away, as concerning your former manner of life, "the old man, which waxeth corrupt after "the lusts of deceit; 23 and that ye "be renewed in the spirit of your mind, 24 and put on "the new man, "which after God hath been "created in righteousness and holiness of truth.

25 Wherefore, putting away falsehood, "speak ye truth each one with his neighbour: for "we are members one of another. 26 "Be ye angry, and sin not; let not the sun go down upon your "wrath: 27 "neither give place to the devil. 28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather "let him labour, "working with his hands the thing that is good, "that he may have whereof to give to him that hath need. 29 "Let no corrupt speech proceed out of your mouth, but such as is good for "edifying as the need may be, that it may give "grace to them that hear. 30 And "grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, "in whom ye were sealed unto the day of "redemption. 31 "Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and railing, be put away from you, with all "malice: 32 and "be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, "forgiving each other, even as God also in Christ forgave "you.

1st Be ye therefore imitators 5 of God, as beloved children; 2 and "walk in love, "even as Christ also loved you, and "gave himself up for "us, "an offering and a sacrifice to God for "an odour of a sweet smell. 3 But "fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, "let it not even be named among you, as becometh saints; 4 "nor filthiness, nor foolish talking, or jesting, "which are not befitting: but rather "giving of thanks. 5 For this ye know of a surety, that "no fornicator, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, "which is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. 6 "Let no man "deceive you with empty words: for because of these things cometh "the wrath of God upon "the sons of disobedience. 7 Be not ye therefore "partakers with them; 8 for "ye were once "darkness, but are now light in the Lord: "walk as children of light 9 (for "the fruit of the light is in all goodness and righteousness and truth), 10 "proving what is well-pleasing unto the Lord; 11 and "have no fellowship with the "unfruitful "works of darkness, but rather even 10th reprove them; 12 for the things which are done by them in secret "it is a shame even to speak of. 13 But "all things when they are 11 reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for everything that is made manifest is light. 14 Wherefore he saith, "A wake, thou that sleepest, and "arise from the dead, and "Christ shall shine upon thee.

15 Look therefore carefully how ye walk, not as unwise, but as wise; 16 12th redeeming the time, because "the days are evil. 17 Wherefore be ye not foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. 18 And 'be not drunken with wine, wherein is riot, but be filled with the Spirit; 19 speaking one to another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody with your heart to the Lord; 20 giving thanks always for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God, even the Father; 21 subjecting yourselves one to another in the fear of Christ.

22 Wives, be in subjection unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. 23 For the husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the head of the church, being himself the saviour of the body. 24 But as the church is subject to Christ, so let the wives also be to their husbands in everything. 25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself up for it; 26 that he might sanctify it, having cleansed it by the washing of water with the word, 27 that he might present the church to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.
 28 Even so ought husbands also to love their own wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his own wife loveth himself: 29 for no man ever hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as Christ also the church; 30 because we are members of his body.
 31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and the twain shall become one flesh. 32 This mystery is great: but I speak in regard of Christ and of the church.
 33 Nevertheless do ye also severally love each one his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she fear her husband.

1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

2 Honour thy father and mother (which is the first commandment with promise), 3 that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth. 4 And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but nurture them in the chastening and admonition of the Lord.

5 Servants, be obedient unto them that according to the flesh are your masters, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ; 6 not in the way of eyeservice, as men-pleasers;
 but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; 7 with good will doing service, as unto the Lord, and not unto men: 8 knowing that whatsoever good thing each one doeth, the same shall he receive again from the Lord, whether he be bond or free. 9 And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, as and forbear threatening:
 knowing that both their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is no respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of his might. 11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. 12 For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world-rulers of this darkness, against the spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places. 13 Wherefore take up the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having done all, to stand. 14 Stand therefore, having girded your loins with truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, 15 and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace; 16 withal taking up the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one.
 17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: 18 with all prayer and supplication praying at all seasons in the Spirit, and watching thereunto in all perseverance and supplication for all the saints, 19 and on my behalf, that utterance may be given unto me in opening my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel, 20 for which I am

I PAUL and Timothy, ²servants of Christ Jesus, to all the ³saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the ⁴bishops and ⁵deacons: ⁶Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 ¹I thank my God ²upon all my remembrance of you, ⁴always in every supplication of mine on behalf of you all making my supplication with joy, ⁵for your fellowship in furtherance of the gospel from the first day until now; ⁶being confident of this very thing, that he which began ⁷a good work in you ⁸will perfect it until ⁹the day of Jesus Christ: ⁷even as it is right for me to be thus minded on behalf of you all, because ¹I have you ²in my heart, inasmuch as, both ¹in my bonds and in ²the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are ³partakers with me of grace. ⁸For ¹God is my witness, ²how I long after you all in the tender mercies of Christ Jesus. ⁹And this I pray, that ¹your love may abound yet more and more ²in knowledge and all discernment; ¹⁰so that ye may ³approve the things that are excellent; ¹that ye may be sincere and void of offence unto ²the day of Christ; ¹¹being filled with ³the ⁴fruits of righteousness, which are ⁵through Jesus Christ, ⁶unto the glory and praise of God.

12 Now I would have you know, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto ¹the progress of the gospel; ¹³so that ²my bonds became manifest in Christ ³throughout the whole prætorian guard, and ⁴to all the rest; ¹⁴and that most of the brethren in the Lord, ⁵being confident through my bonds, are more abundantly bold ⁶to speak the word of God without fear. ¹⁵Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will: ¹⁶the one ¹do it of love, ²knowing that I am set for ³the defence of the gospel: ¹⁷but the other proclaim Christ ⁴of faction, not sincerely, thinking to raise up affliction for me in my bonds. ¹⁸What then? only that in every way, whether in pretence or in truth, Christ is proclaimed; and therein I rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. ¹⁹For I know that this shall turn to my salvation, ¹through your supplication and ²the supply of ³the Spirit of Jesus Christ, ²⁰according to my earnest expectation and hope, ¹that in nothing shall I be put to shame, but ²that with all ³boldness, as always, ²⁰now also Christ ¹shall be magnified in my body, ²whether by life, or by death. ²¹For to me ³to live is Christ, and to die is gain. ²²But if to live in the flesh, — if this is the fruit of my work, then ¹⁰what I shall choose ¹¹I wot not. ²³But I am in a strait betwixt the two, having the desire ²to depart and ³be with Christ; for it is very far better: ²⁴yet to abide in the flesh is more needful for your sake. ²⁵And ¹having this confidence, I know that I shall abide, yea, and abide with you all, for your 'progress and 'joy¹ in the faith; ²⁶ that 'your glorying may abound in Christ Jesus in me through my presence with you again. ²⁷ Only² let your manner of life be 'worthy of the gospel of Christ: that, whether I come and see you or be absent, I may hear of your state, 'that ye stand fast in one spirit, with 'one soul 'striving³ for the faith of the gospel; ²⁸ and in nothing affrighted by the adversaries: which is for them 'an evident token of perdition, but 'of your salvation, and that from God; ²⁹ because to you 'it hath been granted in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also 'to suffer in his behalf: ³⁰ having the same 'conflict which 'ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

2 If there is therefore any comfort in Christ, if any consolation of 'love, if any 'fellowship of the Spirit, if any 'tender mercies and compassions, ² fulfil ye my joy, that ye be 'of the same mind, having the same love, being of one accord, 'of one mind; ³ doing nothing through 'faction or through 'vainglory, but 'in lowliness of mind each counting other better than himself; ⁴ not looking each of you to his own things, but each of you also to the things of others. ⁵ Have this mind in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: ⁶ 'who, 'being in 'the form of God, counted it not⁶ 'a prize to be on an equality with God, ⁷ but 'emptied himself, taking the form of a 'servant, 'being made in the likeness of men; ⁸ and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, 'becoming obedient even unto death, 'yea, the death of the cross. ⁹ Wherefore also 'God 'highly exalted him, and gave unto him 'the name which is above every name; ¹⁰ that in the name of Jesus 'every knee should bow, 'of things in heaven and things on earth and 'things under the earth, ¹¹ and that 'every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is 'Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

¹² So then, my beloved, 'even as ye have always 'obeyed, not¹⁰ as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; ¹³ for 'it is God which worketh in you both to will and to work, for 'his good pleasure. ¹⁴ Do all things 'without murmurings and 'disputings; ¹⁵ that ye may be blameless and harmless, 'children of God 'without blemish 'in the midst of 'a crooked and perverse generation, among whom ye are seen 'as¹¹ lights in the world, ¹⁶ holding forth 'the word of life; that 'I may have whereof to glory in 'the day of Christ, that 'I did not run in vain neither labour in vain. ¹⁷ Yea, and if I am¹² offered upon the sacrifice and 'service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all: ¹⁸ and in the same manner do ye also joy, and rejoice with me.

¹⁹ But I hope in the Lord Jesus 'to send Timothy shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state. ²⁰ For I have no man 'likeminded, who will care¹³ truly for your state. ²¹ For they all 'seek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ. ²² But ye know 'the proof of him, that, 'as a child serveth¹⁴ a father, so 'he served with me in furtherance of the gospel. ²³ Him therefore I hope to send forthwith, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me: ²⁴ but 'I trust in the Lord that I myself also shall come shortly. ²⁵ But I counted it necessary to send to you 'Epaphroditus, my brother and fellow-worker and 'fellow-soldier, and your¹⁴ messenger and 'minister to my need; ²⁶ since he longed¹⁵ after you all, and was sore troubled, because ye had heard that he was sick: ²⁷ for indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow. ²⁸ I have sent him therefore the more diligently, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. ²⁹ Receive him therefore in the Lord with all joy ; and ¹hold such in honour : ²because ³for the work of ¹Christ he came nigh unto death, hazarding his life ⁴to supply that which was lacking in your service toward me.

¹Finally, my brethren, ²re-3joice in the Lord. ³To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not irksome, but for you it is safe. ⁴Beware of ⁵the dogs, beware of ⁶the evil workers, beware of the concision : ³for ⁷we are the circumcision, ⁸who worship ⁹by the Spirit of God, and ¹⁰glory in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh : ⁴though I myself might have confidence even in the flesh : if any other man ⁵thinketh to have confidence in the flesh, I yet more : ⁵circumcised the eighth day, ⁶of the stock of Israel, ⁷of the tribe of Benjamin, ⁸a Hebrew of Hebrews ; ⁶as touching the law, ⁹a Pharisee ; ⁶as touching zeal, ⁷persecuting the church ; ⁸as touching the righteousness which is in the law, found blameless. ⁷Howbeit ⁹what things were ⁸gain to me, ¹⁰these have I counted loss for Christ. ⁸Yea verily, and I count all things to be loss for ⁹the excellency of ¹⁰the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord : for whom I ¹suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but ²dung, that I may gain Christ, ⁹and be found in him, ¹⁰not having ¹¹a righteousness of mine own, ¹²even that which is of the law, but ¹³that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is of God ¹⁴by faith : ¹⁰that I may know him, and ¹⁵the power of his resurrection, and ¹⁶the fellowship of his sufferings, becoming conformed unto his death ; ¹¹if by any means I may ¹⁷attain unto the resurrection from the dead. ¹²Not that I have already ¹⁸obtained, or ¹⁹am already made perfect : but I press on, if so be that I may ²⁰apprehend that for which also I was apprehended by Christ Jesus. ¹³Brethren, I count not myself ²¹yet to have apprehended : but one thing ²²I do, ²³forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which are before, ²⁴I press on toward the goal unto ²⁵the prize of the ²⁶high calling of God in Christ Jesus. ¹⁵Let us therefore, as many as be ¹⁶perfect, be thus minded : and if in anything ¹⁷ye are otherwise minded, ¹⁸even this shall God reveal unto you : ¹⁶only, whereunto we have already attained, ¹⁹by that same ²⁰rule let us walk.

¹⁷Brethren, ²¹be ye imitators together of me, and mark them which so walk ²²even as ye have us for an ensample. ¹⁸For ²³many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you ²⁴even weeping, ²⁵that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ : ¹⁹whose end is perdition, ²⁰whose god is the belly, and ²¹whose glory is in their shame, who ²²mind earthly things. ²⁰For ²³our ²⁴citizenship is in heaven ; ²⁵from whence also we ²⁶wait for a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ : ²¹who shall fashion anew ²²the body of our humiliation, ²³that it may be ²⁴conformed to the body of his glory, ²⁵according to the working whereby he is able even ²⁶to subject all things unto himself.

¹Wherefore, my brethren be-4loved and ²longed for, ³my joy and ⁴crown, so ⁵stand fast in the Lord, my beloved.

²I exhort Euodia, and I exhort Syntyche, to be ³of the same mind in the Lord. ³Yea, I beseech thee also, true yokefellow, help these women, for they laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow-workers, ⁴whose names are in the book of life.

⁴¹²Rejoice in the Lord alway : again I will say, ¹³Rejoice. ⁵Let your ¹⁴forbearance be known unto all men. ⁶The Lord is at hand. ⁶In nothing be anxious ; ⁷but in everything by prayer and supplication ⁸with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. ⁷And ⁸the peace of God, ⁹which passeth all understanding, shall guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus.

⁸Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are ¹⁴honourable, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely,

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS.

³ We give thanks to God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, ⁴ having heard of ⁵ your faith in Christ Jesus, and of ⁶ the love which ye have toward all the saints, ⁵ because of ⁷ the hope ⁸ which is laid up for you in the heavens, whereof ye heard before in ⁹ the word of the truth of the gospel, ⁶ which is come unto you; even as it is also ⁷ in all the world ¹ bearing fruit and increasing, as it doth in you also, since the day ye ⁸ heard and knew ⁹ the grace of God in truth; ⁷ even as ye learned of ¹⁰ Epaphras our beloved ¹¹ fellow-servant, who is ¹² a faithful minister of Christ on ³ our behalf, ⁸ who also declared unto us your ⁹ love in the Spirit.

⁹ For this cause we also, ¹⁰ since the day we heard it, ¹¹ do not cease to pray and make request for you, that ¹² ye may be filled with ¹³ the knowledge of his will in all ¹⁴ spiritual wisdom and understanding, ¹⁵ to walk worthily of the Lord ¹⁶ unto all pleasing, ¹⁷ bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing ¹⁸ in the knowledge of God; ¹¹ ¹⁹ strengthened ²⁰ with all power, according to the might of his glory, unto ²¹ all patience and longsuffering ²² with joy; ¹² ²³ giving thanks unto the Father, who made ²⁴ us meet to be partakers of ²⁵ the inheritance of the saints in light; ¹³ who ²⁶ delivered us out of ²⁷ the power of darkness, and translated us into ²⁸ the kingdom of ²⁹ the Son of his love; ¹⁴ in whom we have our redemption, the forgiveness of our sins: 15¹ who is the image of ¹the invisible God, ¹the firstborn of all creation; 16¹ for in him were all things created, ¹in the heavens and upon the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether ¹thrones or ¹dominions or principalities or powers; all things have been created ¹through him, and unto him; 17¹ and ¹he is before all things, and ¹in him all things ¹consist. 18¹ And ¹he is the head of the body, the church: who is ¹the beginning, ¹the first-born from the dead; ²that in all things he might have the preeminence. 19¹ For it was the good pleasure of ¹the Father that ¹in him should all the ¹fulness dwell; 20¹ and ¹through him to reconcile all things ¹unto ¹himself, ¹having made peace ¹through the blood of his cross; through him, ¹I say, whether things upon the earth, or things in the heavens. 21¹ And you, being in time past alienated and enemies in your mind ¹in your evil works, yet now ¹hath he reconciled 22¹ in the body of his flesh through death, ¹to present you holy and without blemish and ¹unreprovable before him: 23¹ if so be that ye continue in the faith, ¹grounded and stedfast, and not moved away from ¹the hope of the gospel which ye heard, which was preached ¹in all creation under heaven; ²whereof I Paul was made a minister.

24¹ Now ¹I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and ¹fill up on my part ¹that which is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh ¹for his body's sake, which is the church; 25¹ whereof I was made a minister, according to ¹the ¹dispensation of God which was given me to you-ward, ¹to fulfil the word of God, 26¹ even ¹the mystery which hath been hid ¹from all ages and generations: but now hath it been manifested to his saints, 27¹ to whom God was pleased to make known what is ¹the riches of the glory of ¹this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, ¹the hope of glory: 28¹ whom we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that

¹For I would have you know 2¹ how greatly I ¹strive for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; 2¹ that ¹their hearts may be comforted, they ¹being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the ¹full assurance of understanding, that they may know ¹the mystery of God, ¹even Christ, 3¹ in whom are all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge hidden. 4¹ This I say, ¹that no one may delude you with persuasiveness of speech. 5¹ For ¹though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your ¹order, and ¹the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.

6¹ As therefore ye received Christ Jesus the Lord, 20¹ walk in him, 7¹ rooted and ¹built up in him, and ¹established ¹in your faith, even ¹as ye were taught, abounding ¹in thanksgiving.

8¹ Take heed lest there shall be any one that maketh spoil of you through his ¹philosophy and ¹vain deceit, after ¹the tradition of men, after the ¹rudiments of the world, and not after Christ: 9¹ for ¹in him dwelleth all the fulness of the God-head ¹bodily, 10¹ and ¹in him ye are made full, who is ¹the head of all principality and power: 11¹ in whom ¹ye were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in ¹the putting off of the body of the flesh, in the circumcision of Christ; 12¹ ¹having been buried with him in baptism, wherein ¹ye were also raised with him through faith in ¹the working of God, ¹who raised him from the dead. 13¹ And you, being dead through your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, you, ¹I say, ¹did he quicken together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses; 14¹ ¹having blotted out ¹the bond written in ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us: and he hath taken it out of the way, nailing it to the cross; 15¹ having put off from himself the principalities and the powers, ²he made a show of them openly, ³triumphing over them in it.

16 Let no man therefore ¹judge you ²in meat, or in drink, or in respect of ³a feast day or ⁴a new moon or a sabbath day: 17⁵ which are a shadow of the things to come; but ⁶the body is Christ's. 18 Let no man ⁷rob you of your prize ⁸by a voluntary humility and worshipping of the angels, ⁹dwelling in the things which he hath ¹⁰seen, vainly ¹¹puffed up by ¹²his fleshly mind, 19 and ¹³not ¹⁴holding dear the Head, from whom all the body, being supplied and knit together through the joints and bands, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 If ¹we died with Christ from the ²rudiments of the world, ³why, as though living in the world, do ye subject yourselves to ordinances, 21 ⁴Handle not, nor taste, nor touch 22 (⁵all which things are to perish with the using), after ⁶the precepts and doctrines of men? 23 Which things have indeed a show of wisdom in ⁷will-worship, and humility, and severity to the body; ⁸but are ⁹not of any ¹⁰value against the indulgence of the flesh.

3 If then ye were raised together with Christ, seek ¹the things that are above, where Christ is, ²seated on the right hand of God. 2³ Set your mind on the things that are above, not on the things that are upon the earth. 3 For ⁴ye died, and your life is hid with Christ in God. 4 When Christ, ⁵who is ⁶our life, ⁷shall be manifested, then shall ye also with him be manifested ⁸in glory.

5⁹ Mortify therefore ¹⁰your members which are upon the earth; ¹¹of fornication, uncleanness, ¹²passion, evil desire, and covetousness, the ¹³which is idolatry; 6¹⁴ for which things' sake cometh the wrath of God ¹⁵upon the sons of disobedience; 7¹⁶ in the which ye also walked aforetime, when ye lived in these things. 8 But now ⁹put ye also away all these; ¹⁰anger, wrath, malice, railing, ¹¹shameful speaking out of your mouth: 9¹² lie not one to another; seeing that ¹³ye have put off ¹⁴the old man with his doings, 10 and ¹⁵have put on ¹⁶the new man, ¹⁷which is being renewed unto knowledge ¹⁸after the image of him that ¹⁹created him: 11²⁰ where there cannot be Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, ²¹Scythian, bondman, freeman: but Christ is ²²all, and in all.

12²³ Put on therefore, as ²⁴God's elect, holy and beloved, ²⁵a heart of compassion, ²⁶kindness, ²⁷humility, meekness, longsuffering; 13²⁸ forbearing one another, and ²⁹forgiving each other, ³⁰if any man have a complaint against any; ³¹even as ³²the Lord forgave you, so also do ye: 14 and above all these things ³³put on ³⁴love, which is ³⁵the bond of ³⁶perfectness. 15 And let ³⁷the peace of Christ ³⁸rule in your hearts, to the which also ye were called ³⁹in one body; and ⁴⁰be ye thankful. 16 Let ⁴¹the word of ⁴²Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing ⁴³one another ⁴⁴with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing ⁴⁵with grace in your hearts unto God. 17 And ⁴⁶whatsoever ye do, in word or in deed, ⁴⁷do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, ⁴⁸giving thanks to God the Father through him.

² Continue stedfastly in prayer, watching therein ¹ with thanksgiving; ³ withal praying for us also, that God may ⁴ open unto us a door for the word, ⁵ to speak the mystery of Christ, ⁶ for which I am also in bonds; ⁴ that I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak. ⁵ Walk in wisdom toward ⁶ them that are without, ⁴ redeeming the time. ⁶ Let your speech be always ⁷ with grace, ⁸ seasoned with salt, ⁹ that ye may know how ye ought to answer each one.

⁶ We give thanks to God always for you all, ⁷ making mention of you in our prayers; ⁸ remembering ⁹ without ceasing ¹⁰ your work of faith and labour of ¹¹ love and ¹² patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, before ¹³ our God and Father; ¹⁴ knowing, ¹⁵ brethren beloved of God, ¹⁶ your election, ¹⁷ how that ¹⁸ our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and

¹⁹ in the ²⁰ Holy Ghost, and ²¹ in much ²² assurance; even as ye know ²³ what manner of men we shewed ourselves toward you for your sake. ²⁴ And ²⁵ ye became imitators of us, ²⁶ and of the Lord, ²⁷ having received the word in much affliction, ²⁸ with ²⁹ joy of the ³⁰ Holy Ghost; ³¹ so that ye became an ensample to all that believe in Macedonia and in Achaia. ³² For from you hath ³³ sounded forth the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but ³⁴ in every place your faith to God-ward is gone forth; so that we need not to speak anything. ³⁵ For they themselves report concerning us what manner of ^wentering in we had unto you; and how ^ywe turned unto God ^zfrom idols, to serve a living and ^atrue God, and ^bto wait for his Son ^bfrom heaven, ^cwhom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, ^dwhich delivereth us from ^ethe wrath to come.

^fFor yourselves, brethren, 2 know our ^gentering in unto you, ^hthat it hath not been found vain: ⁱa but having suffered before, and been shamefully entreated, as ye know, ^jat Philippi, ^kwe waxed bold in our God ^lto speak unto you the gospel of God in much ^mconflict. ⁿFor ^oour exhortation ^pis not of ^qerror, nor of ^runcleanness, nor ^sin guile: ^ta but even as we have been approved of God ^uto be intrusted with the gospel, so we speak; not as ^vpleasing men, but God ^wwhich proveth our hearts. ^xFor neither at any time were we found using words of flattery, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness, ^yGod is witness; ^znor seeking glory of men, neither from you, nor from others, ^awhen we might have ^bbeen ^cburdensome, as ^dapostles of Christ. ^eBut we were ^fgentle in the midst of you, ^gas when a nurse cherisheth her own children: ^heven so, being affectionately desirous of you, we were well pleased to impart unto you, not the gospel of God only, ⁱbut also our own souls, because ye were become very dear to us. ^jFor ye remember, brethren, ^kour labour and travail: ^lworking night and day, that we might not burden any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God. ^mYe are witnesses, and ⁿGod also, ^ohow holily and righteously and unblameably we behaved ourselves toward you that believe: ^pas ye know how we dealt with each one of you, ^qas a father with his own children, exhorting you, and encouraging you, and ^rtestifying, ^sto the end that ^tye should walk worthily of God, ^uwho ^vcalleth you into ^whis own kingdom and glory.

^xAnd for this cause ^ywe also thank God without ceasing, that, when ye received from us ^zthe word of the message, even the word of God, ye accepted ^ait ^bnot as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, ^cwhich also worketh in you that believe. ^dFor ye, brethren, ^ebecame imitators of ^fthe churches of God which are in Judaea in Christ Jesus: for ^gye also suffered the same things of your own countrymen, ^heven as they did of the Jews; ⁱwho both killed the Lord Jesus and ^jthe prophets, and drave out us, and please not God, and ^kare contrary to all men; ^lfor bidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved; ^mto fill up their sins alway: but ⁿthe wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

^oBut we, brethren, being bereaved of you for ^aa short season, ^bin presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more exceedingly ^cto see your face with great desire: ^dbecause we would fain have come unto you, I Paul once and again; and Satan ^ehindered us. ^fFor what is our hope, or ^gjoy, or crown of glorying? ^hAre not even ye, before our Lord Jesus at his ⁱcoming? ^jFor ye are our glory and our joy.

^kWherefore when we could 3 no longer forbear, we thought it good ^ato be left behind at Athens alone; ^band ^csent Timothy, ^dour brother and ^eGod's minister in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith; ^fthat no man be moved by these afflictions; for yourselves know that ^ghereunto we are appointed. ^hFor verily, when we were with you, we told you ⁱbeforehand that we are to suffer affliction; ^jeven as it came to pass, and ye know. ^kFor this cause I also, ^lwhen I could no longer forbear, ^msent that I might know your faith, ⁿlest by any means ^othe tempter had tempted you, and ^pour labour should be in vain. ^qBut ^rwhen Timothy came even now unto us from you, and brought us glad tidings of ^syour faith and love, and ^tthat ye have good remembrance of us always, ^ulonging to see us, even as we also ^vto see you; ^wfor this cause, brethren, ^xwe were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction through your faith: ^yfor now we live, if ye ^zstand fast in the Lord. ^aFor ^bwhat thanksgiving can we render again unto God for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God; 10 "night and day praying exceedingly "that we may see your face, and "may perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now may "our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus, "direct our way unto you; 12 and the Lord "make you to increase and abound in love "one toward another, and toward all men, even as we also do toward you; 13 to the end he may "establish your hearts unblameable in holiness before "our God and Father, at "the "coming of our Lord Jesus "with all his saints.

4 Finally then, brethren, we beseech and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that, as ye "received of us "how ye ought to walk and "to please God, even as ye do walk, — that ye "abound more and more. 2 For "ye know what "charge we gave you through the Lord Jesus. 3 For this is the will of God, even "your sanctification, "that ye abstain from fornication; 4 that each one of you know how to possess himself of his own "vessel in sanctification and "honour, 5 not in "the passion of lust, "even as the Gentiles "which know not God; 6 that no man "transgress, and "wrong his brother in the matter: because the Lord is "an avenger in all these things, as also we "forewarned you and testified. 7 For "God called us not for "unclean-ness, but in sanctification. 8 Therefore "he that rejecteth, rejecteth not man, but God, "who giveth his Holy Spirit unto you.

9 But concerning "love of the brethren "ye have no need that one write unto you: for ye yourselves are "taught of God "to love one another; 10 for indeed "ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brethren, that ye "abound more and more; 11 and that ye "study "to be quiet, and "to do your own business, and "to work with your hands, even as we charged you; 12 that ye may "walk honestly toward them "that are without, and may have need of nothing.

13 But we would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning them that fall asleep; "that ye sorrow not, even as the rest, "which have no hope. 14 For "if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so "them also that are fallen asleep "in Jesus will God bring with him. 15 For this we say unto you "by the word of the Lord, that "we that are alive, that are left unto "the "coming of the Lord, shall in no wise precede them that are fallen asleep. 16 For "the Lord himself shall descend "from heaven, "with a shout, with the voice of "the archangel, and "with the trump of God: and "the dead in Christ shall rise first: 17 then we that are alive, that are left, shall together with them be "caught up "in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so "shall we ever be with the Lord. 18 Wherefore "comfort one another with these words.

5 But concerning "the times and the seasons, brethren, "ye have no need that aught be written unto you. 2 For yourselves know perfectly that "the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. 3 When they are saying, Peace and safety, then "sudden destruction cometh upon them, "as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall in no wise escape. 4 But ye, brethren, "are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you "as a thief: 5 for ye are all "sons of light, and sons of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness; 6 so then "let us not sleep, as do the rest, but let us "watch and "be sober. 7 For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken "are drunken in the night. 8 But let us, since we are of the day, be sober, "putting on the breastplate of "faith and love; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation. 9 For God appointed us not unto "wrath, but "unto the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, 10 "who died for us, that, whether we "wake or sleep, we should live together with him. 11 Wherefore 1^o exhort one another, and build each other up, even as also ye do.

12 But we beseech you, brethren, to know them that labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you; 13 and to esteem them exceeding highly in love for their work's sake. 14 Be at peace among yourselves. 15 And we exhort you, brethren, admonish the disorderly, encourage the faint-hearted, support the weak, be longsuffering toward all. 16 See that none render unto any one evil for evil; but always follow after that which is good, one toward another, and toward all. 17 Rejoice always; 18 pray without ceasing; 19 in everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus to you-ward. 19 Quench not the Spirit; 20 despise not prophecies; 21 prove all things; hold fast that which is good; 22 abstain from every form of evil.

23 And the God of peace himself sanctify you wholly; and may your spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 24 Faithful is he that calleth you, who will also do it.

25 Brethren, pray for us.

26 Salute all the brethren with a holy kiss. 27 I adjure you by the Lord that this epistle be read unto all the brethren.

28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

1 PAUL, and Silvanus, and Timothy, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; 2 Grace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound to give thanks to God always for you, brethren, even as it is meet, for that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the love of each one of you all toward one another aboundeth; 4 so that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions which ye endure; 5 which is a manifest token of the righteous judgement of God; to the end that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer: 6 if so be that it is a righteous thing with God to recompense affliction to them that afflict you, and to you that are afflicted rest with us, at the revelation of the Lord Jesus from heaven with the angels of his power in flaming fire, rendering vengeance to them that know not

God, and to them that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus: 9 who shall suffer punishment, even eternal destruction from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his might, 10 when he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be marvelled at in all them that believed (because our testimony unto you was believed) in that day. 11 To which end we also pray always for you, that our God may count you worthy of your calling, and fulfil every desire of goodness and every work of faith, with power; 12 that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Now we beseech you, brethren, touching the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and our gathering together unto him; 2 to the end that ye be not quickly shaken from your mind, nor yet be troubled, either by spirit, or by word, or by epistle as from us, as that the day of the Lord is now present; 3 let no man beguile you in any wise: for it will not be, except the falling away come first, and the man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition, he that opposeth and exalteth himself against all that is called God or that is worshipped; so that he sitteth in the temple of God, setting himself forth as God. 5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things? 6 And now ye know that which restraineth, to the end that he may be revealed in his own season. 7 For the mystery of lawlessness doth already work: only there is one that restraineth now, until he be taken out of the way. 8 And then shall be revealed the lawless one, whom the Lord Jesus shall slay with the breath of his mouth, and bring to nought by the manifestation of his coming; even he, whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, and with all deceit of unrighteousness for them that are perishing; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 11 And for this cause God sendeth them a working of error, that they should believe a lie: 12 that they all might be judged who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But we are bound to give thanks to God always for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, for that God chose you from the beginning unto salvation in sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth: 14 whereunto he called you through our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15 So then, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye were taught, whether by word, or by epistle of ours.

16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father which loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, 17 comfort your hearts and stablish them in every good work and word.

1 Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may run and be glorified, even as also it is with you; and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil men; for all have not faith. 3 But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and guard you from the evil one. 4 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command. 5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patience of Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which ye received of us. 7 For yourselves know how ye ought to imitate us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; 8 neither did we eat bread for nought at any man's hand, but in labour and travail, working night and day, that we might not burden any of you: 9 not because we have not the right, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you, that ye should imitate us. 10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, If any will not work, neither let him eat. 11 For we hear of some that walk among you disorderly, that work not at all, but are busybodies. 12 Now them that are such we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread. 13 But ye, brethren, be not weary in well-doing. 14 And if any man obeyeth not our word by this epistle, note that man, that ye have no company with him, to the end that he may be ashamed. 15 And yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

16 Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in all ways. The Lord be with you all.

17 The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write. 18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

I PAUL, "an apostle of Christ Jesus ^baccording to the commandment of ^cGod our Saviour, and Christ Jesus ^cour hope; ^dunto Timothy, ^emy true child in faith: ^fGrace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

^gAs I exhorted thee to tarry at Ephesus, when I was going into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge certain men not ^hto teach a different doctrine, ⁱneither ^jto give heed to fables and endless ^kgenealogies, the which minister ^lquestionings, rather than ^ma ⁿdispensation of God which is in faith; so do I now. ^oBut the end of the charge is love ^pout of a pure heart and ^qa good conscience and ^rfaith unfeigned: ^sfrom which things some having ^tswerved have turned aside unto ^uvain talking; ^vdesiring to be teachers of the law, ^wthough they understand neither what they say, nor whereof they confidently affirm. ^xBut we know that ^ythe law is good, if a man use it lawfully, ^zas knowing this, that ^{aa}law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and unruly, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for ^{ab}murderers of fathers and ^{ac}murderers of mothers, for man-slayers, ^{ad}for fornicators, for abusers of themselves with men, for men-stealers, for liars, for false swearers, and if there be any other thing contrary to ^{ae}the ^{af}sound ^{ag}doctrine; ^{ah}according to ^{ai}the gospel of the glory of ^{aj}the blessed God, ^{ak}which was committed to my trust.

^{al}I thank him ^{am}that ^{an}enabled me, even Christ Jesus our Lord, for that he counted me faithful, ^{ao}appointing me to ^{ap}his service; ^{aq}though I was before a blasphemer, and ^{ar}a persecutor, and injurious: howbeit ^{as}I obtained mercy, ^{at}because I did it ignorantly in unbelief; ^{au}and ^{av}the grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with ^{aw}faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. ^{ax}Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all accep-tation, that Christ Jesus ^{ay}came into the world to save sinners; ^{az}of whom I am chief: ^{ba}howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me as chief might Jesus Christ shew forth all his longsuffering, for an ensample of them which should hereafter believe on him unto eternal life. ^{bb}Now unto ^{bc}the King ^{bd}eternal, ^{be}incorruptible, ^{bf}invisible, ^{bg}the only God, ^{bh}be honour and glory ^{bi}for ever and ever. Amen.

^{bj}This charge ^{bk}I commit unto thee, my child Timothy, according to ^{bl}the prophecies which ^{bm}went before on thee, that by them thou mayest ^{bn}war the good warfare; ^{bo}holding faith and a good conscience; which some having thrust from them ^{bp}made shipwreck concerning the faith: ^{bq}of whom is ^{br}Hymenæus and ^{bs}Alexander; whom I ^{bt}delivered unto Satan, that they might be taught not to ^{bu}blaspheme.

^{bv}I exhort therefore, first of 2 ^{bw}that supplications, prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings, be made for all men; ^{bx}for kings and all that are in high place; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and ^{by}gravity. ^{bz}3 This is good and ^{ca}acceptable in the sight of ^{cb}God our Saviour; ^{cc}who willesh ^{cd}that all men should be saved, and ^{ce}come to ^{cf}the knowledge of the truth. ^{cg}5 For ^{ch}there is one God, one mediator also between God and men, ^{ci}himself man, Christ Jesus, ^{cj}who gave himself a ransom for all; ^{ck}the testimony to be borne ^{cl}in its own times; ^{cm}whereunto I was appointed a ^{cn}preacher and an apostle ^{co}(I speak the truth, I lie not), ^{cp}a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

^{cq}I desire therefore that the men pray ^{cr}in every place, ^{cs}lifting up ^{ct}holy hands, without wrath and ^{cu}disputing. ^{cv}9 In like manner, ^{cw}that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefastness and sobriety; not with braided hair, and gold or pearls or costly raiment; ^{cx}so ^{cy}but (which becometh women professing godliness) through good works. ¹¹ Let a woman learn in quietness ¹² with all subjection. ¹³ But I permit not a woman to teach, nor to have dominion over a man, but to be in quietness. ¹³ For Adam was first formed, ¹⁴ then Eve; ¹⁴ and Adam was not beguiled, but ¹⁵ the woman being beguiled hath fallen into transgression: ¹⁵ but she shall be saved through ¹⁶ the child-bearing, if they continue in ¹⁷ faith and love and sanctification with sobriety.

¹ ² Faithful is the saying, If ³ a man seeketh ⁴ the office of a ⁵ bishop, he desireth a good work. ² The ³ bishop therefore must be without reproach, ⁴ the husband of one wife, ⁵ temperate, soberminded, orderly, ⁶ given to hospitality, ⁷ apt to teach; ³ no brawler, no striker; but ⁴ gentle, not contentious, ⁵ no lover of money; ⁴ one that ruleth well his own house, ⁵ having his children in subjection with all gravity; ⁵ (but if a man knoweth not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of ⁶ the church of God?) ⁶ not a novice, lest ⁷ being puffed up he fall into the ⁸ condemnation of the devil. ⁷ Moreover he must have good testimony from ⁸ them that are without; lest he fall into reproach and ⁹ the snare of the devil. ⁸ Deacons in like manner must be grave, not doubletongued, ⁹ not given to much wine, ¹⁰ not greedy of filthy lucre; ⁹ holding the mystery of the faith in ¹¹ a pure conscience. ¹⁰ And ¹² let these also first be proved; then let them serve as deacons, if they be blameless. ¹¹ Women in like manner must be grave, not slanderers, temperate, ¹² faithful in all things. ¹² Let deacons be ¹³ husbands of one wife, ¹⁴ ruling their children and their own houses well. ¹³ For ¹⁵ they that have served well as deacons gain to themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

¹⁴ These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly; ¹⁵ but if I tarry long, that thou mayest know ¹⁶ how men ought to behave themselves in ¹⁷ the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ¹⁸ ground of the truth. ¹⁶ And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness; ¹⁷ He who was manifested in the flesh, justified in the spirit, ¹⁸ seen of angels, ¹⁹ preached among the nations, ²⁰ believed on in the world, ²¹ received up in glory.

¹ But ² the Spirit saith expressly, that ³ in later times some shall fall away from the faith, giving heed to ⁴ seducing spirits and doctrines of ⁵ devils, ⁶ through the hypocrisy of ⁷ men that speak lies, ⁸ branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron; ⁹ forbidding to marry, and commanding ¹⁰ to abstain from meats, ¹¹ which God created ¹² to be received with thanksgiving by them that believe and know the truth. ⁴ For ⁵ every creature of God is good, and ⁶ nothing is to be rejected, if it be ⁷ received with thanksgiving: ⁵ for it is sanctified ⁶ through the word of God and prayer.

⁶ If thou put the brethren in mind of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the good doctrine which thou hast ⁷ followed until now: ⁷ but refuse profane and old wives' ⁸ fables. And ⁹ exercise thyself unto godliness: ⁸ for ⁹ bodily exercise is profitable ¹⁰ for a little; but godliness ¹¹ is profitable for all things, ¹² having promise of the life which now is, and of that which is to come. ⁹ Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptance. ¹⁰ For to this end we labour and strive, because we have our hope set on the living God, ¹¹ who is the Saviour of all men, specially of them that believe. ¹¹ These things command and teach. ¹² Let no man despise thy youth; but ¹³ be thou an ensample to them that believe, in word, in manner of life, in love, in faith, in purity. ¹³ Till I come, give heed to reading, to exhortation, to teaching. ¹⁴ Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee ¹⁵ by prophecy, ¹⁶ with the laying on of the hands of ¹⁷ the presbytery. ¹⁵ Be diligent in these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy ¹⁶ progress may be manifest unto

all. 16 Take heed to thyself, and to thy teaching. Continue in these things; for in doing this thou shalt save both thyself and them that hear thee.

17 Rebuke not an elder, but exhort him as a father; the younger men as brethren: the elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, in all purity. 3 Honour widows that are widows indeed. 4 But if any widow hath children or grandchildren, let them learn first to shew piety towards their own family, and to requite their parents: for this is acceptable in the sight of God. 5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, hath her hope set on God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day. 6 But she that giveth herself to pleasure is dead while she liveth. 7 These things also command, that they may be without reproach. 8 But if any provideth not for his own, and specially his own household, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever. 9 Let none be enrolled as a widow under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man, well reported of for good works; if she hath brought up children, if she hath used hospitality to strangers, if she hath washed the saints' feet, if she hath relieved the afflicted, if she hath diligently followed every good work. 11 But younger widows refuse: for when they have waxed wanton against Christ, they desire to marry; 12 having condemnation, because they have rejected their first faith. 13 And withal they learn also to be idle, going about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not. 14 I desire therefore that the younger widows marry, bear children, rule the household, give none occasion to the adversary for reviling: 15 for already some are turned aside after Satan. 16 If any woman that believeth hath widows, let her relieve them, and let not the church be burdened; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially those who labour in the word and in teaching. 18 For the scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn. And, The labourer is worthy of his hire. 19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, except at the mouth of two or three witnesses. 20 Them that sin reprove in the sight of all, that the rest also may be in fear. 21 I charge thee in the sight of God, and Christ Jesus, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing by partiality. 22 Lay hands hastily on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure. 23 Be no longer a drinker of water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities. 24 Some men's sins are evident, going before unto judgement; and some men also they follow after. 25 In like manner also there are good works that are evident; and such as are otherwise cannot be hid.

1 Let as many as are servants under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and the doctrine be not blasphemed. 2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but let them serve them the rather, because they that partake of the benefit are believing and beloved. 3 These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man teacheth a different doctrine, and consenteth not to sound words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness; 4 he is puffed up, knowing nothing, but doting about questionings and disputes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, 5 wranglings of men corrupted in mind and bereft of the truth, supposing that godliness is a way of gain. 6 But godliness with contentment is great gain: 7 for we brought nothing into the world, for neither can we carry anything out; 8 but having food and covering we shall be therewith content. 9 But they that desire to be rich fall into a temptation and a snare and many foolish and hurtful lusts, such as drown men in destruction and perdition. 10 For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil: which some reaching after have been led astray from the faith, and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. 12 Fight the good fight of the faith, lay hold on the life eternal, whereunto thou wast called, and didst confess the good confession in the sight of many witnesses. 13 I charge thee in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and of Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed the good confession; 14 that thou keep the commandment, without spot, without reproach, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ: 15 which in its own times he shall shew, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords; 16 who only hath immortality, dwelling in light unapproachable; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power eternal. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in this present world, that they be not highminded, nor have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; 18 that they do good, that they be rich in good works, that they be ready to distribute, willing to communicate; 19 laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on the life which is life indeed.

20 O Timothy, guard that which is committed unto thee, turning away from the profane babblings and oppositions of the knowledge which is falsely so called; 21 which some professing have erred concerning the faith.

Grace be with you.

I PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, according to the promise of the life which is in Christ Jesus, 2 to Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers in a pure conscience, how unceasing is my remembrance of thee in my supplications, night and day 4 longing to see thee, remembering thy tears, that I may be filled with joy; 5 having been reminded of the unfeigned faith that is in thee; which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and, I am persuaded, in thee also. 6 For the which cause I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee through the laying on of my hands. 7 For God gave us not a spirit of fearfulness; but of power and love and discipline. 8 Be not ashamed therefore of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but suffer hardship with the gospel according to the power of God; 9 who saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before times eternal, 10 but hath now been manifested by the appearing of our Saviour Christ Jesus, who abolished death, and brought life and incorruption to light through the gospel, 11^d whereunto I was appointed a ¹ preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher. 12^e For the which cause I suffer also these things: yet ¹ I am not ashamed; for ¹ I know him whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to guard ^{2a} that which I have committed unto him against ¹ that day. 13^f Hold ² the pattern of ³ sound words ^m which thou hast heard from me, in ² faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 14^{aa} That good thing which was committed unto thee guard through the ⁶ Holy Ghost ^o which dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that ² all that are in Asia turned away from me; of whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes. 16 The Lord grant mercy unto ⁶ the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft ⁷ refreshed me, and was not ashamed of ⁶ my chain; 17 but, when he was in Rome, ⁷ he sought me diligently, and found me 18 (the Lord grant unto him to find mercy of the Lord in ² that day); and in how many things he ⁷ ministered at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

1 Thou therefore, ² my child, 2 ² be strengthened in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. 2 And the things ⁷ which thou hast heard from me among many witnesses, the same ² commit thou to faithful men, ² who shall be able to teach others also. 3^{bb} Suffer hardship with me, as ² a good soldier of Christ Jesus. 4 No soldier on service ² entangleth himself in the affairs of ² this life; that he may please him who enrolled him as a soldier. 5 And if also a man ² contend in the games, he is not ⁷ crowned, except he have contended lawfully. 6^c The husbandman that laboureth must be the first to partake of the fruits. 7 Consider what I say; for the Lord shall give thee understanding in all things. 8 Remember Jesus Christ, ⁷ risen from the dead, ⁷ of the seed of David, ⁷ according to my gospel: 9² wherein I suffer hardship ⁷ unto bonds, as a malefactor; but ² the word of God is not bound. 10 Therefore ² I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they also may obtain ⁷ the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with ⁷ eternal glory. 11^c Faithful is the ⁷ saying: For ⁷ if we died with him, we shall also ⁷ live with him: 12^d if we endure, we shall also reign with him: ⁷ if we shall deny him, he also will deny us: 13^e if we are faithless, ⁷ he abideth faithful; for ² he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, ⁷ charging ² them in the sight of ⁷ the Lord, that they ² strive not about words, ² to no profit, to the subverting of them that hear. 15 Give diligence to present thyself approved unto God, a workman ⁷ that needeth not to be ashamed, ⁷ handling aright the word of truth. 16 But ⁷ shun ⁷ profane babblings: for they will proceed further in ungodliness, 17 and their word will ⁷ eat as doth a gangrene: of whom is ⁷ Hymeneus and Philetus; 18 men who concerning the truth ⁷ have ⁷ erred, ⁷ saying that ² the resurrection is past already, and overthrow the faith of some. 19 Howbeit the firm foundation of God standeth, having this seal, ² The Lord knoweth them that are his: and, Let every one ⁷ that nameth the name of the Lord depart from unrighteousness. 20 Now in ² a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and ² some unto honour, and some unto dishonour. 21^f If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, meet for the master's use, ² prepared unto every good work. 22 But ⁷ flee ⁷ youthful lusts, and follow after righteousness, faith, love, peace, with ⁷ them that call on the Lord ⁷ out of a pure heart. 23 But foolish and ignorant ⁷ questionings refuse, knowing that they gender strifes. 24 And ⁷ the Lord's ⁷ servant must not strive, but ⁷ be gentle towards all, ² apt to teach, forbearing, 25^g in meekness ² correcting them that oppose themselves; ² if peradventure God may give them repentance ² unto the knowledge of the truth, 26 and they may ² recover themselves out of ^athe snare of the devil, having been ^{1a}taken captive ^{2b}by the Lord's servant unto the will of God.

1 But know this, that ^bin the 3 last days grievous times shall come. 2 For men shall be ^clovers of self, ^dlovers of money, ^eboastful, ^fhaughty, railers, ^gdisobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, ^hwithout natural affection, implacable, slanderers, without self-control, fierce, ⁱno lovers of good, ^jtraitors, headstrong, ^kpuffed up, ^llovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God; ^m5 holding a form of godliness, but ⁿhaving denied the power thereof: ^ofrom these also turn away. 6 For of these are ^pthey that creep into houses, and take captive silly women laden with sins, led away by divers lusts, ^qever learning, and never able to ^rcome to the knowledge of the truth. 8 And like as ^sJannes and Jambres ^twithstood Moses, so do these also withstand the truth: ^umen corrupted in mind, ^vreprobate concerning the faith. 9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be evident unto all men, ^was theirs also came to be. 10 But ^xthou didst follow my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, long-suffering, love, patience, ^ypersecutions, sufferings; what things befell me ^zat Antioch, ^{aa}at Iconium, ^{ab}at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: and ^{ac}out of them all ^{ad}the Lord delivered me. 12 Yea, and all that would ^{ae}live godly in Christ Jesus ^{af}shall suffer persecution. 13 But ^{ag}evil men and impostors shall wax worse and worse, deceiving and ^{ah}being deceived. 14 But ^{ai}abide thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of ^{aj}whom thou hast learned them; ^{ak}and that ^{al}from a babe thou hast known ^{am}the sacred writings ^{an}which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. 16 ^{ao}Every scripture inspired of God ^{ap}is also profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for ^{aq}instruction which is in righteousness: ^{ar}that ^{as}the man of God may be complete, ^{at}furnished completely ^{au}unto every good work.

1 ^{av}I charge ^{aw}thee in the sight 4 of God, and of Christ Jesus, ^{ax}who shall judge the quick and the dead, and by ^{ay}his appearing and his kingdom; ^{az}2 preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; ^{ba}reprove, rebuke, ^{bb}exhort, with all long suffering and teaching. 3 ^{bc}For the time will come when they will not endure ^{bd}the ^{be}sound ^{bf}doctrine; but, having itching ears, will heap to themselves teachers after their own lusts; ^{bg}4 and ^{bh}will turn away their ears from the truth, and ^{bi}turn aside unto fables. 5 But ^{bj}be thou sober in all things, ^{bk}suffer hardship, do the work of ^{bl}an evangelist, ^{bm}fulfil thy ministry. 6 For ^{bn}I am already being ^{bo}offered, and the time of my ^{bp}departure is come. 7 ^{bq}I have fought the good fight, ^{br}I have finished the course, ^{bs}I have kept the faith: ^{bt}8 henceforth there is ^{bu}laid up for me ^{bv}the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, ^{bw}the righteous judge, shall give to me at ^{bx}that day: and not only to me, but also to all them ^{by}that have loved his appearing. 9 ^{bz}Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me: ^{ca}10 for ^{cb}Demas ^{cc}forsook me, ^{cd}having loved ^{ce}this present ^{cf}world, and went to Thessalonica; Crescens to ^{cg}Galatia, ^{ch}Titus to Dalmatia. 11 ^{ci}Only Luke is with me. Take ^{cj}Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is useful to me for ministering. 12 But ^{ck}Tychicus I sent to Ephesus. 13 ^{cl}The cloke that I left at Troas with Carpus, bring when thou comest, and the books, especially the parchments. 14 ^{cm}Alexander the copper-smith ^{cn}did me much evil: ^{co}the Lord will render to him according to his works: ^{cp}15 of whom be thou ware also; for he greatly withstood our words. 16 ^{cq}At my first defence no one took my part, but all forsook me: ^{cr}may it not be laid to their account. 17 But ^{cs}the Lord stood by me, and ^{ct}strengthened me; that through me ^{cu}the ^{cv}message might be fully proclaimed, and ^{cw}that all the Gentiles might hear: and ^{cx}I was delivered ^{cy}out of the mouth of the lion. 18 ^{cz}The Lord will deliver me

I PAUL, a ^aservant of God, and ^aan apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and ^bthe knowledge of the truth ^cwhich is according to godliness, ^din hope of eternal life, which God, ^ewho cannot lie, ^fpromised ^gbefore times eternal; ^h3 but ⁱin ^jhis own seasons manifested his word in ^kthe ^lmessage, ^mwhere-with I was intrusted ⁿaccording to the commandment of God our Saviour; ^o4 to Titus, ^pmy true child after ^qa common faith: ^rGrace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Saviour.

^s5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that were wanting, and ^tappoint elders in every city, as I gave thee charge; ^u6 ^vif any man is blameless, the husband of one wife, having children that believe, who are not accused of ^wriot or unruly. ^x7 For the ^ybishop must be blameless, ^zas God's steward; not ^{aa}selfwilled, not soon angry, ^{ab}no brawler, no striker, ^{ac}not greedy of filthy lucre; ^{ad}8 but given to hospitality, a lover of good, soberminded, just, holy, ^{ae}temperate; ^{af}9 ^{ag}holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able both to exhort in ^{ah}the ^{ai}'sound doctrine, and to convict the gainsayers.

^{aj}10 For there are many unruly men, ^{ak}vain talkers and deceivers, specially ^{al}they of the circumcision, ^{am}11 whose mouths must be stopped; ^{an}men who overthrow whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, ^{ao}b for filthy lucre's sake. ^{ap}12 ^{aq}One of themselves, a prophet of their own, said, Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, idle ^{ar}gluttons. ^{as}13 This testimony is true. For which cause ^{at}reprove them ^{au}sharply, that they ^{av}may be ^{aw}sound in the faith, ^{ax}14 ^{ay}not giving heed to Jewish fables, and ^{az}commandments of men ^{ba}who turn away from the truth. ^{bb}15 ^{bc}To the pure all things are pure: but to them that are defiled and ^{bd}unbelieving nothing is pure; but both ^{be}their mind and their conscience are defiled. ^{bf}16 ^{bg}They profess that they know God; but by their works they ^{bh}deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work ^{bi}reprobate.

^{bj}1 But speak thou the things ^{bk}2 which befit ^{bl}the ^{bm}'sound doctrine: ^{bn}2 that aged men be temperate, grave, soberminded, ^{bo}10 ^{bp}sound in faith, in love, in patience: ^{bq}3 ^{br}that aged women likewise be reverent in demeanour, ^{bs}not slanderers, ^{bt}nor enslaved to much wine, teachers of that which is good; ^{bu}4 that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, ^{bv}5 to be soberminded, ^{bw}'chaste, ^{bx}'workers at home, kind, ^{by}'being in subjection to their own husbands, ^{bz}'that the word of God be not blasphemed: ^{ca}6 ^{cb}the younger men likewise exhort to be soberminded: ^{cc}7 in all things shewing ^{cd}themselves ^{ce}'an ensample of good works; in thy doctrine ^{cf}'showing uncorruptness, ^{cg}'gravity, ^{ch}8 ^{ci}sound speech, that cannot be condemned; ^{cj}that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of us. ^{ck}9 ^{cl}Exhort ^{cm}11 servants to be in subjection to their own masters, ^{cn}and to be well-pleasing to them ^{co}in all things; not gain saying; 10 not purloining, 11 but shewing all good fidelity; 12 that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things. 13 For the grace of God hath appeared, bringing salvation to all men, 14 instructing us, to the intent that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly and righteously and godly in this present world; 15 looking for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ; 16 who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a people for his own possession, zealous of good works.

15 These things speak and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

1 Put them in mind to be in subjection to rulers, to authorities, to be obedient, to be ready unto every good work, 2 to speak evil of no man, not to be contentious, to be gentle, shewing all meekness toward all men. 3 For we also were sometime foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, hating one another. 4 But when the kindness of God our Saviour, and his love toward man, appeared, 5 not by works done in righteousness, which we did ourselves, but according to his mercy he saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost, which he poured out upon us richly, through Jesus Christ our Saviour; 7 that, being justified by his grace, we might be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. 8 Faithful is the saying, and concerning these things I will that thou affirm confidently, to the end that they which have believed God may be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men: 9 but shun foolish questionings, and genealogies, and strifes, and fightings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain. 10 A man that is heretical after a first and second admonition refuse; 11 knowing that such a one is perverted, and sinneth, being self-condemned.

12 When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or Tychicus, give diligence to come unto me to Nicopolis: for there I have determined to winter. 13 Set forward Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them. 14 And let our people also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitful.

15 All that are with me salute thee. Salute them that love us in faith.

Grace be with you all.

hast laid the foundation of the earth,

And the heavens are the works of thy hands:

11 They shall perish; but thou continuest:

And they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

12 And as a mantle shalt thou roll them up,

As a garment, and they shall be changed:

But thou art the same, And thy years shall not fail.

13 But of which of the angels hath he said at any time,

"Sit thou on my right hand,

"Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet?"

14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to do service for the sake of them that shall inherit salvation?

1 Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things that were heard, lest haply we drift away from them.

2 For if the word spoken through angels proved steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward;

3 how shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation? which having at the first been spoken through the Lord, was confirmed unto us by them that heard;

4 God also bearing witness with them, both by signs and wonders, and by manifold powers, and by

1 gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will.

5 For not unto angels did he subject the world to come, whereof we speak. 6 But one hath somewhere testified, saying,

"What is man, that thou art mindful of him?"

Or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him a little lower than the angels;

Thou crownedst him with glory and honour,

8 And didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 Thou didst put all things in subjection under his feet.

For in that he subjected all things unto him, he left nothing that is not subject to him. But now we see not yet all things subjected to him. 9 But we behold him who hath been made a little lower than the angels, even Jesus, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honour, that by the grace of God he should taste death for every man. 10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the author of their salvation perfect through sufferings. 11 For both he that sanctifieth and they that are sanctified are all of one; for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 saying,

"I will declare thy name unto my brethren,

In the midst of the congregation I will sing thy praise.

13 And again, "I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold, I and the children which God hath given me. 14 Since then the children are sharers in flesh and blood, he also himself in like manner partook of the same; that through death he might bring to nought him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; 15 and might deliver all them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. 16 For verily not of angels doth he take hold, but he taketh hold of the seed of Abraham. 17 Wherefore it behoved him in all things to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. 18 For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

1 Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, even Jesus; a who was faithful to him that appointed him, was also as

Moses in all his house. 3 For he hath been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, by so much as

15 That is,

he that ¹built the house hath more honour than the house. 4 For every house is ¹built by some one; but ²he that ¹built all things is God. 5 ³And Moses indeed was faithful in all ²his house ²as a servant, ⁴for a testimony of those things which were afterward to be spoken; 6 but Christ ⁵as a son, over ²his house; ⁶whose house are we, if we hold fast our boldness and the glorying of our hope firm ⁴unto the end. 7 Wherefore, even as the Holy Ghost saith,

‘To-day if ye shall hear his voice,
8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation,

Like as in the day of the temptation in the wilderness,

9 ⁸Wherewith your fathers tempted ^{me} by proving ^{me},

And saw my works ⁷forty years.

10 Wherefore I was displeased with this generation,
And said, They do alway err in their heart:

But they did not know my ways;
11 ⁹As I swear in my wrath,

‘They shall not enter into my rest.

12 Take heed, brethren, lest haply there shall be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from ¹the living God: 13 but ¹exhort one another day by day, so long as it is called To-day; lest any one of you be hardened by ¹the deceitfulness of sin: 14 for we are become partakers ⁵of Christ, ²if we hold fast the beginning of our confidence firm unto the end: 15 while it is said,

‘To-day if ye shall hear his voice,
Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 For ¹who, when they heard, did provoke? nay, did not ²all they that came out of Egypt by Moses?

17 And with whom was he displeased forty years? was it not with them that sinned, ⁶whose ⁶carcasses fell in the wilderness? 18 And to whom swore he that ²they should not enter into his rest, but to them that were disobedient? 19 And we see that ²they were not able to enter in because of unbelief.

20 Let us fear therefore, lest haply, a promise being left of entering into his rest, any one of you should seem ¹to have come short of it. 2 For indeed we have had ¹good tidings preached unto us, even as also they: but ¹the word of hearing did not profit them, because ²they were not united by faith with them that heard. 3 ³For we which have believed do enter into that rest; even as he hath said,

‘As I swear in my wrath,
‘They shall not enter into my rest:

although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he hath said somewhere of the seventh day on this wise, ‘And God rested on the seventh day from all his works; 5 and in this place again,

‘They shall not enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some should enter therein, and they to whom ¹⁰the good tidings were before preached ¹failed to enter in because of disobedience, 7 he again defineth a certain day, ¹¹saying in David, after so long a time, To-day, as it hath been before said,

‘To-day if ye shall hear his voice,
Harden not your hearts.

8 For if ¹²Joshua had given them rest, he would not have spoken afterward of another day. 9 There remaineth therefore a sabbath rest for the people of God. 10 For he that is entered into his rest hath himself also ²rested from his works, as God did from his. 11 Let us therefore give diligence to enter into that rest, ¹²that no man fall ¹²after the same example of disobedience. 12 For ¹the word of God is living, and ²active, and ³sharper than any ⁴two-edged sword, and piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and ⁵quick to discern the thoughts and intents of the heart. 13 And ⁶there is no creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are ⁷naked and laid open before the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Having then ¹a great high priest, ²who hath passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, ³let us hold fast our confession.

1 Or, established. 2 That is, God's house. 3 See Num. 12. 7. 4 Or, if they shall enter. 5 Or, limbs. 6 Or, a gospel. 7 Some ancient authorities read it was. 8 Some ancient authorities read We therefore. 9 Or, the gospel was. 10 Or, To-day, saying in David, after so long a time, as it hath been &c. 11 Or, Jesus. 12 Or, into Gr. in.

15 For we have not a high priest ¹that cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but one that hath been in all points ²tempted like as we are, ³yet without sin. 16 ⁴Let us therefore draw near with boldness unto the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace to help us in time of need.

5 For every high priest, being taken from among men, ¹is appointed for men ²in things pertaining to God, ³that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins: ⁴a ⁵who can bear gently with the ignorant and erring, for that he himself also ⁶is compassed with infirmity; ⁷and by reason thereof is bound, ⁸as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins. ⁹And ¹⁰no man taketh the honour unto himself, but when he is called of God, ¹¹even as was Aaron. ¹²So Christ also ¹³glorified not himself to be made a high priest, but he that spake unto him,

¹⁴Thou art my Son,

This day have I begotten thee: ¹⁵as he saith also in another place,

¹⁶Thou art a priest for ever

After the order of Melchizedek.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, ¹having offered up prayers and supplications ²with strong crying and tears unto him ³that was able to save him ⁴from death, and ⁵having been heard for his godly fear, ⁶though ⁷he was a Son, yet ⁸learned obedience by the things which he suffered; ⁹and ¹⁰having been made perfect, he became unto all them that obey him ¹¹the ¹²author of eternal salvation; ¹³named of God a high priest ¹⁴after the order of Melchizedek.

11 Of ¹whom we have many things to say, and ²hard of interpretation, seeing ye are become dull of hearing. ³For when by reason of the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need again ⁴that some one teach you the rudiments of ⁵the ⁶first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of ⁷milk, and not of solid food. ⁸For every one that partaketh of milk is without experience of the word of righteousness; for he is ⁹a babe. ¹⁰But solid food is for ¹¹fullgrown men, ¹²even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised ¹³to discern good and evil.

6 Wherefore ¹let us ²cease to speak of ³the first principles of Christ, and press on unto ⁴perfection; not laying again a foundation of repentance ⁵from dead works, and of faith toward God, ⁶of ⁷the teaching of ⁸baptisms, and of ⁹laying on of hands, and of ¹⁰resurrection of the dead, and of ¹¹eternal judgement. ¹²And this will we do, ¹³if God permit. ¹⁴For as touching those ¹⁵who were once enlightened ¹⁶and tasted of ¹⁷the heavenly gift, and ¹⁸were made partakers of the Holy Ghost, ¹⁹and ²⁰tasted the good word of God, and the powers of ²¹the age to come, ²²and ²³then fell away, ²⁴it is impossible to renew them again unto repentance; ²⁵seeing ²⁶they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame. ²⁷For ²⁸the land which hath drunk the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them for whose sake it is also tilled, receiveth blessing from God: ²⁹but ³⁰if it beareth thorns and thistles, it is rejected and nigh unto a curse; ³¹whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that ¹accompany salvation, though we thus speak: ²for ³God is not unrighteous to forget ⁴your work and the love which ye shewed toward his name, in that ye ⁵ministered unto the saints, and still do minister. ⁶And we desire that each one of you may shew the same diligence unto the ⁷fulness ⁸of hope even to the end: ⁹that ye be not sluggish, but ¹⁰imitators of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, since he could swear by none greater, ¹he swore by himself, ²saying, ³Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee. ⁴And thus,

¹having patiently endured, he obtained the promise. ¹⁶For men swear by the greater: and in every dispute of theirs ¹⁷the oath is final for confirmation. ¹⁷Wherein God, being minded to shew more abundantly unto ¹⁸the heirs of the promise ¹⁹the immutability of his counsel, ¹²interposed with an oath: ¹⁸that by two immutable things, in which ²it is impossible for God to lie, we may have a strong encouragement, who have fled for refuge to lay hold of the hope ¹⁹set before us; ¹⁹which we have as an anchor of the soul, ²⁰a hope both sure and steadfast and entering into that which is ²¹within the veil; ²⁰whither as a forerunner Jesus entered for us, ²¹having become a high priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

¹For this ²Melchizedek, king of ³Salem, priest of ⁴God Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him, ⁵a to whom also Abraham divided a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, King of righteousness, and then also King of Salem, which is, King of peace; ⁶without father, without mother, ⁷without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like unto the Son of God), abideth a priest continually.

¹¹Now if there was perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for under it hath the people received the law), what further need was ¹²there that another priest should arise after the order of Melchizedek, and not be reckoned after the order of Aaron? ¹²For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also ²of the law. ¹³For he of whom these things are said ²belongeth to another tribe, from which no man hath given attendance at the altar. ¹⁴For it is evident that our Lord hath sprung ³out of Judah; as to which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priests. ¹⁵And ¹⁶what we say is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Melchizedek there ariseth another priest, ¹⁶who hath been made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an ¹⁷endless life: ¹⁷for it is witnessed of him,

¹Thou art a priest for ever

After the order of Melchizedek. ¹⁸For there is a disannulling of a foregoing commandment ¹because of its weakness and unprofitableness ¹⁹(for ¹the law made nothing perfect), and a bringing in thereupon of ²a better hope, through which ²we draw nigh unto God. ²⁰And inasmuch as ¹¹it is not without the taking of an oath ²¹(for they indeed have been made priests without an oath; but he with an oath ²by him that saith ³of him,

¹The Lord sware and will not repent himself,

Thou art a priest for ever);

²²by so much also hath Jesus become the surety of ²a better ¹covenant. ²³And they indeed have been made priests many in number, because that by death they are hindered from continuing; ²⁴but he, because he abideth ³for ever, ²hath his priesthood ⁹unchangeable. ²⁵Wherefore also he is able to save ¹⁰to the uttermost ²them that draw near unto God ⁹through him, seeing he ever liveth ¹⁰to make intercession for them.

²⁶For such a high priest became us, ¹holy, guileless, undefiled, ¹separated from sinners, and ²made higher than the heavens; ²⁷who needeth not daily, like those high

¹ Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, That I will ^{} make a new ^{} covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah; ⁹ Not according to the ^{} covenant that I made with their fathers In the day that I took them by the hand to lead them forth out of the land of Egypt; For they continued not in my ^{} covenant, And I regarded them not, saith the Lord. ¹⁰ For this is the ^{*} covenant that I will make with the house of Israel After those days, saith the Lord; perfect, 10 being only (with j meats and drinks and k divers washings) carnal ordinances, imposed until a time of reformation.

11 But Christ having come a high priest ^{of} the good things to come, through ^{the} greater and more perfect tabernacle, ^{not} made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation, 12 nor yet through ^{the} blood of goats and calves, but ^{through} his own blood, ^{entered} in ^{once} for all into the holy place, ^{having} obtained eternal redemption. 13 For if ^{the} blood of goats and bulls, and ^{the} ashes of a heifer sprinkling them that have been defiled, sanctify unto the cleanness of the flesh: 14 how much more shall ^{the} blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit ^{offered} himself without blemish unto God, ^{cleanse} ^{your} conscience ^{from} dead works ^{to} serve the living God? 15 And for this cause he is ^{the} mediator of a new ^{covenant}, ^{that} a death having taken place for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first ^{covenant}, ^{they} that have been called may ^{receive} the promise of the eternal inheritance. 16 For where a ^{testament} is, there must of necessity ^{be} the death of him that made it. 17 For ^a ^{testament} is of force ^{where} there hath been death: ^{for} doth it ever avail while he that made it liveth? 18 Wherefore even the first ^{covenant} hath not been dedicated ^{without} blood. 19 For when every commandment had been spoken by Moses unto all the people according to the law, he took ^{the} blood of the calves and the goats, ^{with} water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself, and all the people, 20 saying, 'This is the blood of the ^{covenant} which God commanded to you-ward. 21 Moreover ^{the} tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry he sprinkled in like manner with the blood. 22 And according to the law, I may almost say, all things are cleansed with blood, and ^{apart} from shedding of blood there is no remission.

23 It was necessary therefore that ^{the} copies of the things in the heavens should be cleansed with these;

but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. 24 For Christ entered not into a holy place ^{made} with hands, like in pattern to the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear before the face of God ^{for} us: 25 nor yet that he should offer himself often; as ^{the} high priest entereth into ^{the} holy place year by year with blood not his own; 26 else must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now ^{once} at the ^{end} of the ages ^{hath} he been manifested to put away sin ^{by} the sacrifice of himself. 27 And inasmuch as ^{it} is ^{appointed} unto men once to die, and ^{after} this cometh judgement; 28 so Christ also, having been once offered ^{to} bear the sins of ^{many}, shall appear ^a second time, ^{apart} from sin, to them that ^{wait} for him, unto salvation.

1 For the law having ^a ^{shadow} of the good things to come, not the very image of the things, 10 ^{they} can never with the same sacrifices year by year, which they offer continually, make perfect them that draw nigh. 2 Else would they not have ceased to be offered, because the worshippers, having been once cleansed, would have had no more conscience of sins? 3 But ⁱⁿ those ^{sacrifices} ^{there} is a remembrance made of sins year by year. 4 For ^{it} is impossible that the blood of bulls and goats should take away sins. 5 Wherefore ^{when} he cometh into the world, he saith,

^A Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not,

But a body didst thou prepare for me;

6 In whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hadst no pleasure:

7 Then said I, Lo, I am come (In the roll of the book it is written of me)

To do thy will, O God.

8 Saying above, ^A Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein (the which are offered according to the law), 9 then hath he said, 'Lo, I am come to do thy will. He tak-

1 Some ancient authorities read the good things that are come.
 2 The Greek word here used signifies both covenant and testament.
 3 Or, for it doth never. 4 Or, be brought. 5 Or, by his sacrifice. 6 Or, laid up for. 7 Or, consumption. 8 Or, by his sacrifice. 9 Or, laid up for.

eth away the first, that he may establish the second. ¹⁰ By which will we have been sanctified through the offering of ² the body of Jesus Christ ¹ once for all. ¹¹ And every ³ priest intendeth standeth ⁴ day by day ministering and ⁵ offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, the ⁶ which can never take away sins: ¹² but he, when he had offered one sacrifice for ⁷ sins for ever, ⁸ sat down on the right hand of God; ¹³ from henceforth expecting ⁹ till his enemies be made the footstool of his feet. ¹⁴ For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. ¹⁵ And the Holy Ghost also beareth witness to us: for after he hath said,

¹⁶ 'This is the ¹ covenant that ² I will make with them
After those days, saith the Lord;
I will put my laws on their heart,
And upon their mind also will I write them;

then saith he,
¹⁷ 'And their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.
¹⁸ Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

¹⁹ Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into ¹ the holy place by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰ by ³ the way which he dedicated for us, a new and living way, through ⁴ the veil, that is to say, his flesh; ²¹ and ⁵ having ⁶ a great priest over the house of God; ²² let us draw near with a true heart in ⁷ fulness of faith, having our hearts ⁸ sprinkled ⁹ from an evil ¹⁰ conscience, and our body ¹¹ washed with pure water: ²³ let us hold fast the confession of our hope that it waver not; for ¹² he is faithful that promised: ²⁴ and ¹³ let us consider one another to provoke unto love and good works; ²⁵ not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the custom of some is, but exhorting ¹⁴ one another; and ¹⁵ so much the more, as ye see ¹⁶ the day drawing nigh.

of judgement, and ⁴ a ⁵ fierceness of fire which shall devour the adversaries. ²⁸ A man that hath set at nought Moses' law dieth without compassion ⁶ on the word of two or three witnesses: ²⁹ of how much sorer punishment, think ye, shall he be judged worthy, ⁷ who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted ⁸ the blood of the covenant, ⁹ wherewith he was sanctified, ¹⁰ an unholy thing, and ¹¹ hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace? ³⁰ For we know him that said, 'Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense. And again, 'The Lord shall judge his people. ³¹ It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

³² But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ¹ ye were enlightened, ye endured ² a great conflict of sufferings; ³³ partly, being made ³ a gazingsstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, becoming partakers with them that were so used. ³⁴ For ⁴ ye both had compassion on them that were in bonds, and ⁵ took joyfully the spoiling of your possessions, knowing ¹⁰ ⁶ that ¹¹ ye yourselves have ⁷ a better possession and an abiding one. ³⁵ Cast not away therefore your boldness, which hath great ⁸ recompense of reward. ³⁶ For ⁹ ye have need of patience, that, ¹⁰ having done the will of God, ye may ¹¹ receive the promise.

³⁷ For ¹ yet a very little while, ² He that cometh shall come, and ³ shall not tarry.

³⁸ But ¹ my righteous one shall live by faith:

And if he shrink back, my soul hath no pleasure in him.

³⁹ But we are not ¹ of them that shrink back unto perdition; but of them that have faith unto the ² saving of the soul.

² For therein the elders had witness borne to them. ³ By faith we understand that ¹ the ² worlds have been framed by the word of God, so that what is seen hath not been made out of ³ things which do appear. 4 By faith ^a Abel offered unto God ^a a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he had witness borne to him that he was righteous, ¹ God bearing witness ² in respect of his gifts; and ³ through it he being dead yet ^a speaketh. 5 By faith ^a Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and he was not found, because God translated him: for before his translation he hath had witness borne to him that he had been well-pleasing unto God: 6 and without faith it is impossible to be well-pleasing unto him: for he that cometh to God ^a must believe that he is, ^a and that he is a rewarder of them that seek after him. 7 By faith ^a Noah, being warned of God concerning ^a things not seen as yet, moved with godly fear, ^a prepared an ark to the saving of his house; through which he condemned the world, and became heir of ^a the righteousness which is according to faith. 8 By faith ^a Abraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out unto a place ^a which he was to receive for an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. 9 By faith he became a sojourner in ^a the land of promise, as in a land not his own, ^a dwelling in tents, ^a with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise: 10 for he looked for ^a the city which hath ^a the foundations, ^a whose ^a builder and maker is God. 11 By faith even ^a Sarah herself received power to conceive seed when she was past age, since she counted ^a him faithful who had promised: 12 wherefore also there sprang of one, and ^a him as good as dead, ^a so many as the stars of heaven in multitude, and as the sand, which is by the sea shore, innumerable.

13 These all died ^a in faith, ^a not having received the promises, but ^a having seen them and greeted them from afar, and ^a having confessed that they were ^a strangers and pilgrims on the earth. 14 For they that say such things make it manifest that they are seeking after a country of their own. 15 And if indeed they had been mindful of that country from which they went out, ^a they would have had opportunity to return. 16 But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed of them, ^a to be called their God: for ^a he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith ^a Abraham, being tried, ^a offered up Isaac: yea, he that had gladly received the promises was offering up his only begotten son; 18 even he ^a to whom it was said, ^a In Isaac shall thy seed be called: 19 ^a accounting that God ^a is able to raise up, even from the dead; from whence he did also in a parable receive him back. 20 By faith ^a Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even concerning things to come. 21 By faith ^a Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph; and ^a worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff. 22 By faith ^a Joseph, when his end was nigh, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones. 23 By faith ^a Moses, when he was born, was hid three months by his parents, because they saw he was a goodly child; and they were not afraid of ^a the king's commandment. 24 By faith Moses, when he was grown up, ^a refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; 25 ^a choosing rather to be evil entreated with the people of God, than to enjoy ^a the pleasures of sin for a season; 26 ^a accounting the reproach of ^a Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt: for he looked unto ^a the recompense of reward. 27 By faith he ^a forsook Egypt, ^a not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, ^a as seeing him who is invisible. 28 By faith ^a he ^a kept the passover, and the sprinkling of the blood, that the destroyer of the firstborn should not touch them. 29 By faith ^a they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were swallowed up. 30 By faith ^a the walls of Jericho fell down, after they had been compassed about for seven days. 31 By faith ^a Rahab the harlot perished not with them that were disobedient, ^a having received the spies with peace. 32 And what shall I more say? for the time

 11 war, "turned to flight armies of 12 aliens. 35 "Women received their 13 dead by a resurrection: and others
 14 "were "tortured, not accepting 15 their deliverance; "that they 16 might obtain a better resurrection:
 17 36 and others had trial of "mock-18 ings and scourgings, yea, more-19 over of "bonds and imprisonment:
 20 37 "they were stoned, they were 21 sawn asunder, they were tempted,
 22 "they were slain with the sword:
 23 "they went about in sheepskins, in 24 goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, 25 evil entreated 38 (of whom the world 26 was not worthy), "wandering in 27 deserts and mountains and caves, 28 and the holes of the earth. 39 And 29 these all, "having had witness borne 30 to them through their faith, "re-
 31 ceived not the promise, 40 God
 32 having "provided some better thing 33 concerning us, "that apart from 34 us they should not be made per-35 fect.

12 Therefore let us also, seeing we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside "every weight, and "the sin which "doth so easily beset us, and "let us run "with patience the race that is "set before us, a looking unto Jesus the "author and perfecter of our faith,
 "who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising "shame, and "hath sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.
 3 For "consider him that hath endured such gainsaying of sinners against "themselves, that ye wax not weary, "fainting in your souls.
 4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin: 5 and ye have forgotten the exhortation, which reasoneth with you as with sons,

"My son, "regard not lightly
 the chastening of the Lord,

Nor faint when thou art re-proved of him;

6 For "whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth,
 And scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 "It is for chastening that ye endure; "God dealth with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father chasteneth not? 8 But if ye are without chastening, "whereof all have been made partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.
 9 Furthermore, we had the fathers of our flesh to chasten us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto
 "the Father of "spirits, "and live?
 10 For they verily for a few days chastened us as seemed good to them; but he for our profit, "that we may be partakers of his holiness.
 11 All chastening seemeth "for the present to be not joyous, but grievous: yet afterward it yieldeth
 "peaceable fruit unto them that have been exercised thereby, even the fruit of righteousness. 12 Wherefore 10 "lift up the hands that hang down, and the palsied knees; 13 and "make straight paths for your feet, that that which is lame be not 11 turned out of the way, "but rather be healed.

14 "Follow after peace with all men, and the "sanctification "without which no man shall see the Lord: 15 looking carefully 15 lest there be any man that 15 "falleth short of the grace of God; lest any "root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby the many be defiled; 16 lest there be any "for-nicator, or profane person, as Esau,
 "who for one mess of meat sold his own birthright. 17 For ye know that even when "he afterward desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected (for he found no "place of repentance), though he sought it diligently with tears.

18 For ye are not come unto 14 "a mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, and unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest, 19 and "the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; "which voice they that heard intreated that no word more should be spoken unto them: ²⁰for they could not endure that which was enjoined, ²¹If even a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned: ²²and ²³so fearful was the appearance, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake: ²⁴but ye are come unto ²⁵'mount Zion, and unto the city of the living God, ²⁶the heavenly Jerusalem, ²⁷and to ²⁸'innumerable hosts of angels, ²⁹to the general assembly and ³⁰'church of the first-born who are ³¹'enrolled in heaven, and to ³²'God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, ³³and to Jesus ³⁴'the mediator of a new ³⁵covenant, and to ³⁶'the blood of sprinkling ³⁷that speaketh better ³⁸'than that of Abel. ³⁹See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For ⁴⁰'if they escaped not, when they refused him that warned them on earth, much more ⁴¹shall not we escape, who turn away from him ⁴²that warneth from heaven: ⁴³'whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, ⁴⁴'Yet once more will I make to tremble not the earth only, but also the heaven. ⁴⁵And this word, Yet once more, signifieth ⁴⁶'the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that have been made, that those things which are not shaken may remain. ⁴⁷Wherefore, receiving ⁴⁸'a kingdom that cannot be shaken, ⁴⁹let us have ⁵⁰'grace, whereby we may offer service well-pleasing to God with ⁵¹'reverence and awe: ⁵²for our ⁵³'God is a consuming fire.

13 Let ¹'love of the brethren continue. ²'Forget not to shew love unto strangers: for thereby ³'some have entertained angels unawares. ⁴'Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; that they are evil entreated, as being yourselves also in the body. ⁵'Let marriage be had in honour among all, and let the bed be undefiled: ⁶'for fornicators and adulterers God will judge. ⁷'Be ye ⁸'free from the love of money; ⁹'content with such things as ye have: for himself hath said, ¹⁰'I will in no wise fail thee, neither will I in any wise forsake thee. ¹¹So that with good courage we say,

'The Lord is my helper; ²'I will not fear:

What shall man do unto me?

⁷Remember them ⁸'that had the rule over you, which spake unto you the word of God; and considering the issue of their ⁹'life, ¹⁰'imitate their faith. ¹¹Jesus Christ ¹²'the same yesterday and to-day, ¹³yea and ¹⁴'for ever. ¹⁵Be not ¹⁶'carried away by divers and strange teachings: for it is good that the heart be established by grace; ¹⁷'not by meats, wherein they that ¹⁸'occupied themselves were not profited. ¹⁹We have an altar, ²⁰'whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle. ²¹For ²²'the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the holy place ²³'by the high priest as an offering for sin, are burned ²⁴'without the camp. ²⁵Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people ²⁶'through his own blood, ²⁷'suffered ²⁸'without the gate. ²⁹Let us therefore go forth unto him without the camp, bearing ³⁰'his reproach. ³¹For ³²'we have not here an abiding city, but we seek after ³³'the city which is to come. ³⁴Through him ³⁵'then let us offer up ³⁶'a sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, ³⁷'the fruit of lips which make confession to his name. ³⁸But to do good and ³⁹'to communicate forget not: for with such ⁴⁰'sacrifices God is well pleased. ⁴¹Obey them ⁴²'that have the rule over you, and submit to them: ⁴³'for they watch in behalf of your souls, as they that shall ⁴⁴'give account; ⁴⁵'that they may do this with joy, and not with ⁴⁶'grief: for this ⁴⁷'were unprofitable for you.

¹⁸'Pray for us: for we are persuaded that we have a good conscience, desiring to live honestly in all things. ¹⁹And I exhort you the more exceedingly to do this, ²⁰'that I may be restored to you the sooner.

²⁰Now ²¹'the God of peace, ²²'who brought again from the dead ²³'the great shepherd of the sheep ²⁴'with ²⁵'the blood of the eternal covenant, ²⁶even our Lord Jesus, ²⁷'make you perfect in every good ²⁸'thing to do his will, ²⁹'working in ³⁰'us that which is well-pleasing in his sight,

1 ¹ JAMES, a ² servant of God I and ³ of the Lord Jesus Christ, to ⁴ the twelve tribes which are of ⁵ the Dispersion, ⁶ greeting.

2 ⁷ Count it all joy, my brethren, when ye fall into ⁸ manifold ⁹ temptations; ¹⁰ knowing that ¹¹ the proof of your faith ¹² worketh patience. 4 And let patience have ¹³ its perfect work, that ye may be ¹⁴ perfect and entire, lacking in nothing.

5 But ¹⁵ if any of you lacketh wisdom, ¹⁶ let him ask of God, ¹⁷ who giveth to all liberally and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. 6 But ¹⁸ let him ask in faith, ¹⁹ nothing doubting: for he that doubteth is like ²⁰ the surge of the sea driven by the wind and tossed. 7 For let not that man think ²¹ that he shall receive anything of the Lord; ²² ²³ a doubleminded man, ²⁴ unstable in all his ways.

8 But let the brother of low degree glory in his high estate: ²⁵ ²⁶ and the rich, in that he is made low: because ²⁷ as the flower of the grass he shall pass away. ²⁸ For the sun ariseth with the scorching wind, and ²⁹ withereth the grass; and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his goings.

12 ³⁰ Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he hath been approved, he shall receive ³¹ the crown of life, ³² which the Lord promised to them that love him. 13 ³³ Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted ³⁴ of God: for God ³⁵ cannot be tempted with ³⁶ evil, and he himself tempteth no man: ³⁷ ³⁸ but each man is ³⁹ tempted, when he is drawn away by his own lust, and enticed. ³⁹ Then the lust, ⁴⁰ when it hath conceived, beareth sin: and ⁴¹ the sin, when it is full-grown, bringeth forth death. ⁴² Be not deceived, my beloved brethren. ⁴³ Every good ⁴⁴ gift and every perfect boon is from above, coming down from ⁴⁵ the Father of lights, ⁴⁶ with whom can be no variation, neither shadow that is cast by turning. ⁴⁷ Of his own will he ⁴⁸ brought us forth by the word of truth, ⁴⁹ that we should be a kind of ⁵⁰ firstfruits of his creatures.

19 ⁵¹ ⁵² Ye know ⁵³ this, my beloved brethren. But let every man ⁵⁴ be swift to hear, ⁵⁵ slow to speak, ⁵⁶ slow to wrath: ⁵⁷ for the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God. ⁵⁸ Wherefore ⁵⁹ putting away all filthiness and overflowing of ⁶⁰ wickedness, receive ⁶¹ with meekness the ⁶² implanted word, ⁶³ which is able to save your souls. ⁶⁴ But be ye ⁶⁵ doers of the word, and not hearers only, deluding your own selves. ⁶⁶ For if any one is a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding ⁶⁷ his natural face in a mirror: ⁶⁸ ⁶⁹ ⁷⁰ for he beholdeth himself, and goeth away, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. ⁷¹ But he that looketh into the perfect law, ⁷² the law of liberty, and so continueth, being not a hearer that forgetteth, but a doer that worketh, ⁷³ this man shall be blessed in his doing. ⁷⁴ If any man ⁷⁵ thinketh himself to be religious, ⁷⁶ while he bridleth not his tongue but deceiveth his heart, this man's religion is vain. 27 Pure religion and undefiled before our God and Father is this, 'to visit 'the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and 'to keep himself 'unspotted from the world.

1 My brethren, 1 hold not the 2 faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, 3 the Lord of glory, with 'respect of persons. 2 For if there come into your 2 synagogue a man with a gold ring, in fine clothing, and there come in also a poor man in vile clothing; 3 and ye have regard to him that weareth the fine clothing, and say, Sit thou here in a good place; and 'ye say to the poor man, Stand thou there, or sit under my footstool; 4 are ye not divided 4 in your own mind, and become 5 judges with evil thoughts? 5 Harken, my beloved brethren; 6 did not God choose them that are poor as to the world to be 'rich in faith, and heirs of 4 the kingdom 'which he promised to them that love him? 6 But ye 'have dishonoured the poor man. Do not the rich 'oppress you, and themselves 4 drag you 'before the judgement-seats? 7 Do not they blaspheme the honourable 'name 'by the which ye are called? 8 Howbeit if ye fulfil the royal law, according to the scripture, 8 Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well: 9 but if ye have 'respect of persons, ye commit sin, being convicted by the law as transgressors. 10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet stumble in one point, 10 he is become guilty of all. 11 For he that said, 'Do not commit adultery, said also, 'Do not kill. Now if thou dost not commit adultery, but killest, thou art become a transgressor of the law. 12 So speak ye, and so do, as men that are to be judged by 2 a law of liberty. 13 For 2 judgement is without mercy to him that hath shewed no mercy: mercy glorieth against judgement.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, if a man say he hath faith, 'but have not works? can that faith save him? 15 'If a brother or sister be naked, and in lack of daily food,

16 and one of you say unto them, Go in peace, be ye warmed and filled; and yet ye give them not the things needful to the body; what doth it profit? 17 Even so faith, if it have not works, is dead in itself. 18 Yea, a man will say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith 'apart from thy works, and I 'by my works will shew thee my faith. 19 Thou believest that 'God is one; thou doest well: 'the 8 devils also believe, and shudder. 20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith apart from works is barren? 21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, in that he offered up Isaac his son upon the altar? 22 Thou seest that 'faith wrought with his works, and 'by works was faith made perfect; 23 and the scripture was fulfilled which saith, 'And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness; and he was called the 6 friend of God. 24 Ye see that by works a man is justified, and not only by faith. 25 And in like manner was not also 'Rahab the harlot justified by works, 4 in that she received the messengers, and sent them out another way? 26 For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, even so faith apart from works is dead.

1 Be not many teachers, my 3 brethren, knowing that we shall receive 10 heavier judgement. 2 For 5 in many things we all stumble. If any stumbleth not in word, 6 the same is a perfect man, 2 able to bridle the whole body also. 3 Now if we put 'the horses' bridles into their mouths, that they may obey us, we turn about their whole body also. 4 Behold, the ships also, though they are so great, and are driven by rough winds, are yet turned about by a very small rudder, whither the impulse of the steersman willet. 5 So the tongue also is a little member, and 5 boasteth great things. Behold, 11 how much wood is kindled by how small a fire! 6 And 2 the tongue is 12 a fire: 12 the world of iniquity among our members is the tongue, 1 which defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the wheel of ¹ nature, and is set on fire by hell. ⁷ For every ² kind of beasts and birds, of creeping things and things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed ³ by mankind: ⁸ but the tongue can no man tame; it is a restless evil, it is ⁹ full of deadly poison. ⁹ Therewith bless we the Lord and Father; and therewith curse we men, ¹⁰ which are made after the likeness of God: ¹⁰ out of the same mouth cometh forth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be. ¹¹ Doth the fountain send forth from the same opening sweet water and bitter? ¹² can a fig tree, my brethren, yield olives, or a vine figs? neither can salt water yield sweet.

to dwell in us long unto envying? ⁶ But ¹³ he giveth ¹⁴ more grace. Wherefore the scripture saith, ⁷ God resisteth the proud, but ⁸ giveth grace to the humble. ⁷ Be subject therefore unto God; but ⁹ resist the devil, and he will flee from you. ⁸ Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. ¹⁰ Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and ¹¹ purify your hearts, ¹² ye doubleminded. ⁹ Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness. ¹⁰ Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall exalt you.

¹¹ Speak not one against another, brethren. He that speaketh against a brother, or ¹² judgeth his brother, speaketh against the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judgest the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge. ¹² One only is ¹³ the lawgiver and ¹⁴ judge, even he who is able to save and ¹⁵ to destroy: but ¹⁶ who art thou that judgest thy neighbour?

¹³ Go to now, ye that say, ¹⁴ To-day or to-morrow we will go into this city, and spend a year there, and trade, and get gain: ¹⁵ whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. What is your life? For ¹⁶ ye are a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then ¹⁷ vanisheth away. ¹⁴ For that ye ought to say, ¹⁸ If the Lord will, we shall both live, and do this or that. ¹⁶ But now ye glory in your vauntings: ¹⁹ all such glorying is evil. ¹⁷ To him therefore that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

¹ Go to now, ² ye rich, weep ³ and howl for your ⁴ miseries that are coming upon you. ² Your riches are corrupted, and ³ your garments are moth-eaten. ³ Your gold and your silver are rusted; and their rust shall be for a testimony ⁵ against you, and shall eat up your flesh as fire. ⁴ Ye have laid up your treasure ⁶ in the last days. ⁴ Behold, ⁷ the hire of the labourers who mowed your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth out: and ⁸ the cries of them

7 Be patient therefore, brethren, until the ¹coming of the Lord. tion * the prophets sought and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you: 11 searching what time or what manner of time ^{the Spirit of Christ} which was in them did point unto, ^{when it testified beforehand} the sufferings ^{of Christ}, and the glories that should follow them. 12 ^{To whom it was revealed}, that ^{not unto themselves}, but unto you, did they minister these things, which now have been announced unto you through them that preached the gospel unto you ^{by the Holy Ghost sent forth from heaven}; ^{which things} angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore ^{girding up the loins of your mind}, ^{be sober and set your hope perfectly on the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ}; 14 as children of obedience, ^{not fashioning yourselves according to your former lusts} ^{in the time of your ignorance}: 15 but ^{like as he which called you is holy}, be ye yourselves also holy ^{in all manner of living}; 16 because it is written, ^{Ye shall be holy; for I am holy}. 17 And if ye ^{call on him as Father}, who ^{without respect of persons} judgeth according to each man's work, pass the time of your sojourning ^{in fear}: 18 knowing that ye ^{were redeemed, not with corruptible things, with silver or gold, from your vain manner of life handed down from your fathers}; 19 but ^{with precious blood}, as of ^{a lamb without blemish and without spot}, even the blood of Christ: 20 ^{who was foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world}, but ^{was manifested at the end of the times for your sake}, 21 ^{who through him are believers in God}, ^{which raised him from the dead}, and ^{gave him glory}; so that your faith and hope might be in God. 22 Seeing ye have purified your souls in your obedience to the truth unto ^{unfeigned love of the brethren}, ^{love one another} ^{from the}

25 ^{But the word of the Lord} abideth for ever.

And this is the ^{word} ^{of good tidings} which was preached unto you.

1 ^{Putting away therefore all wickedness, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings}, ^{as newborn babes}, long for the ^{spiritual milk} which is without guile, that ye may grow thereby unto salvation; 3 if ye have ^{tasted that the Lord is gracious}: 4 unto whom coming, a living stone, ^{rejected indeed of men, but with God elect}, ^{precious}, ^{ye also, as living stones}, are built up ^{in a spiritual house}, to be ^{a holy priesthood}, ^{to offer up spiritual sacrifices}, ^{acceptable to God through Jesus Christ}. 6 Because it is contained in ^{scripture}, ^{Behold, I lay in Zion a chief corner stone, elect, precious}: ^{And he that believeth on him} shall not be put to shame.

7 ^{For you therefore} ^{which believe} is the ^{preciousness}: but for such as ^{disbelieve},

^{The stone which the builders rejected}, ^{The same was made the head of the corner};

8 and,

^{A stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence};

17 for they ^{stumble at the word}, being disobedient: ^{whereunto also they were appointed}. 9 But ye are ^{an elect race}, ^{a royal priesthood}, ^{a holy nation}, ^{a people for God's own possession}, that ye may shew forth the excellencies of him who called you ^{out of darkness into his marvellous light}: 10 ^{which in time past were no people}, but now are the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Beloved, I beseech you ¹as sojourners and pilgrims, ²to abstain from fleshly lusts, ³which war against the soul; ¹²having your behaviour seemly among the Gentiles; that, wherein they speak against you as evil-doers, ⁴they may by your good works, which they behold, glorify God in ⁵the day of visitation.

13 ¹Be subject to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme; ¹⁴or unto governors, as sent ²by him ³for vengeance on evil-doers and ⁴for praise to them that do well. ¹⁵For so is the will of God, ⁶that by well-doing ye should put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: ¹⁶as free, and not ⁷using your freedom for a cloke of ⁸wickedness, but ⁹as bondservants of God. ¹⁷¹Honour all men. ²Love the brotherhood. ³Fear God. Honour the king.

18 ¹Servants, be in subjection to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. ¹⁹For this is ²acceptable, ³if for conscience ⁴toward God a man endureth griefs, suffering wrongfully. ²⁰For what glory is it, if, when ye sin, and are buffeted ⁵for it, ye shall take it patiently? but ⁶if, when ye do well, and suffer ⁷for it, ye shall take it patiently, this is ⁸acceptable with God. ²¹For ⁹hereunto were ye called: ¹⁰because Christ also suffered for you, ¹¹leaving you an example, that ye should follow his steps: ²²¹who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: ²³²who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, threatened not; but ³committed ⁴himself to him that judgeth righteously: ²⁴¹who his own self ²bare our sins in his body upon the tree, that we, ³having died unto sins, ⁴might live unto righteousness; ⁵by whose ⁶stripes ye were healed. ²⁵For ⁷ye were going astray like sheep; but are now returned unto ⁸the Shepherd and ⁹Bishop of your souls.

3 ¹In like manner, ye wives, ²be in subjection to your own husbands; that, even if any obey not the word, ³they may without the word ⁴be gained by the ⁵behaviour of their wives; ²a beholding your ³chaste ⁴behaviour ⁵coupled with fear. ³Whose ⁴adorning ⁵let it not be the outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on apparel; ⁴but ⁵let it be ⁶the hidden man of the heart, in the incorruptible ⁷apparel of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. ⁵For after this manner aforesime the holy women also, who hoped in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own ⁶husbands: ⁶as Sarah obeyed Abraham, ⁷calling him lord: whose children ye now are, if ye do well, and ⁸are not ⁹put in fear by any terror.

7 ¹Ye husbands, in like manner, dwell with ²your wives according to knowledge, giving honour ³unto the woman, as unto the weaker ⁴vessel, as being also joint-heirs of the grace of life; to the end that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, ¹be ye all likeminded, ²compassionate, ³loving as brethren, ⁴tenderhearted, ⁵humble-minded: ⁶not rendering evil for evil, or reviling for reviling; but contrariwise ⁷blessing; for ⁸hereunto were ye called, that ye should inherit a blessing. ¹⁰For,

He that would love life,
And see good days,
Let him refrain his tongue from evil,
And his lips that they speak no guile:

11 And let him turn away from evil, and do good;
Let him seek peace, and pursue it.
12 For the eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous,
And his ears unto their supplication:

But the face of the Lord is upon them that do evil.

13 And ¹who is he that will harm you, if ye be zealous of that which is good? ¹⁴But and if ye should suffer for righteousness' sake, blessed ⁵are ye: and ⁶fear not their fear, ⁷neither be troubled; ¹⁵but ⁸sanctify in your hearts Christ as Lord: ⁹being ¹⁰ready always to give answer to every man that asketh

you a reason concerning the hope that is in you, yet ¹with meekness and ²fear: ¹⁶having a good conscience; that, ³wherein ye are spoken against, they may be put to shame who revile your good manner of life in Christ. ¹⁷For ⁴it is better, if the will of God should so will, that ye suffer for well-doing than for evil-doing. ¹⁸Because Christ also ⁵suffered for sins ⁶once, the righteous for the unrighteous, ⁷that he might bring us to God; being put to death ⁸in the flesh, but quickened ⁹in the spirit; ¹⁹in which also he went and ¹⁰preached unto the spirits in prison, ²⁰at which aforetime were disobedient, ²¹when the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, ²²while the ark was a preparing, ²³wherein few, that is, ²⁴eight souls, were saved through water: ²⁵at which also ²⁶after a true likeness ²⁷doth now save you, even baptism, not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but ²⁸the ²⁹interrogation of a good conscience toward God, ³⁰through the resurrection of Jesus Christ; ³¹who is on the right hand of God, having gone into heaven; ³²angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

4 Forasmuch then as ¹Christ suffered in the flesh, ²arm ye yourselves also with the same ³mind; for ⁴he that hath suffered in the flesh ⁵hath ceased ⁶from sin; ⁷so that ⁸ye no longer should live ⁹the rest of your time in the flesh to ¹⁰the lusts of men, but ¹¹to the will of God. ¹²For the time past ¹³may suffice ¹⁴to have wrought the desire of the Gentiles, and to have walked in lasciviousness, lusts, winebibbings, revellings, carousings, and abominable idolatries: ¹⁵wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them into the same ¹⁶excess of ¹⁷riot, ¹⁸speaking evil of you: ¹⁹who shall give account to him that is ready ²⁰to judge the quick and the dead. ²¹For unto this end ²²was the gospel preached even to the dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But ¹the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore of sound mind, and ²be sober ³unto ⁴prayer: ⁵above all things being fervent in your love among yourselves; for ⁶love covereth a multitude of sins: ⁷using hospitality one to another without murmuring: ⁸according as each hath received a gift, ministering it among yourselves, ⁹as good stewards of the manifold grace of God; ¹⁰if any man speaketh, speaking as it were ¹¹oracles of God; if any man ministereth, ministering ¹²as of the strength which God supplieth: that in all things ¹³God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, ¹⁴whose is the glory and ¹⁵the dominion ¹⁶for ever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning ¹the fiery trial among you, which cometh upon you to prove you, as though a strange thing happened unto you: ²but ³insomuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings, rejoice; that ⁴at the revelation of his glory also ye may rejoice with exceeding joy. ⁵If ye are reproached ⁶for the name of Christ, blessed are ye; because the Spirit of glory and the Spirit of God resteth upon you. ⁷For ⁸let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evil-doer, or ⁹as a meddler in other men's matters: ¹⁰but ¹¹if a man suffer as a ¹²Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God ¹³in this name. ¹⁴For the time ¹⁵is come for judgement: ¹⁶to begin at the house of God: and ¹⁷if it begin first at us, what shall be the end of them that ¹⁸obey not the gospel of God? ¹⁹And ²⁰if the righteous is scarcely saved, where shall the ungodly and sinner appear? ²¹Wherefore let them also that suffer according to the will of God ²²commit their souls in well-doing unto a faithful Creator.

5 The elders therefore among you I exhort, ¹who am a fellow-elder, and ²a witness of the sufferings of Christ, who am also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed: ³Tend the flock of God which is among you, ⁴exercising

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

¹ ²SIMON Peter, ³a ⁴servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained ⁵like precious faith with us ⁶in the righteousness of ⁷our ⁸God and Saviour Jesus Christ: ⁹Grace to you and peace be multiplied ¹⁰in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord; ¹¹seeing that his divine power hath granted unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him ¹²that called us ¹³by his own glory and virtue; ¹⁴whereby he hath granted unto us his precious and exceeding great promises; that through these ye may become ¹⁵partakers of ¹⁶the divine nature, ¹⁷having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by lust. ¹⁸Yea, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply ¹⁹virtue; and in ²⁰your virtue ²¹knowledge; and in ²²your knowledge ²³temperance; and in ²⁴your temperance ²⁵patience; and in ²⁶your patience godliness; ²⁷and in ²⁸your godliness ²⁹love of the brethren; and in ³⁰your love of the brethren ³¹love. ³²For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor ³³unfruitful unto the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. ³⁴For he that lacketh these things ³⁵is blind, ³⁶seeing only what is near, having forgotten ³⁷the cleansing from his old sins. ³⁸Wherefore, brethren, give the more diligence ³⁹to make your calling and ⁴⁰election sure: for if ye do these things, ⁴¹ye shall never stumble: ⁴²for thus shall be richly supplied unto you ⁴³the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

¹² Wherefore I shall be ready ¹³always to put you in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and are established in ¹⁴the truth which is with ¹⁵you. ¹⁶And I think it right, as long as I am in this ¹⁷tabernacle, ¹⁸to stir you up by putting you in remembrance; 14^a knowing that the putting off of my tabernacle cometh swiftly, ^beven as our Lord Jesus Christ signified unto me. 15 Yea, I will give diligence that at every time ye may be able after my ^cdecease to call these things to remembrance. 16 For we did not follow ^dcunningly devised ^efables, when we made known unto you ^fthe power and ^gcoming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but ^hwe were eye-witnesses of his majesty. 17 For he ⁱreceived from God the Father honour and glory, when there ^jcame such a voice to him from the excellent glory, ^kThis is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased: 18 and this voice we ^lourselves heard ^mcome out of heaven, when we were with him in ⁿthe holy mount. 19 And ^owe have the word of prophecy ^pmade more sure; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, ^qas unto a lamp shining in a ^rdark place, until the day dawn, and ^sthe day-star ^tarise in your hearts: 20 knowing this first, that no prophecy of scripture is of ^uprivate interpretation. 21 For ^vno prophecy ever ^wcame by the will of man: but men spake from God, ^xbeing moved by the ^yHoly Ghost.

2 But ^zthere arose false prophets also among the people, as ^{aa}among you also there shall be false teachers, who shall ^{ab}privily bring in ^{ac}destructive heresies, ^{ad}denying even the Master ^{ae}that bought them, bringing upon themselves swift destruction. 3 And many shall follow their lascivious doings; by reason of whom the way of the truth ^{af}shall be evil spoken of. 3 And ^{ag}in covetousness shall they ^{ah}with feigned words ^{ai}make merchandise of you: ^{aj}whose sentence now from of old lingereth not, and their destruction slumbereth not. 4 For if God spared not ^{ak}angels when they sinned, but ^{al}cast them down to ^{am}hell, and ^{an}committed them to ^{ao}pits of darkness, ^{ap}to be reserved unto judgement; 5 and spared not the ancient world, but ^{aq}preserved Noah with seven others, ^{ar}a preacher of righteousness, when he brought ^{as}a flood upon the world of the ungodly; 6 and ^{at}turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, ^{au}having made them an example unto those that should ^{av}live ungodly; 7 and ^{aw}delivered righteous Lot, sore distressed by the lascivious life of the wicked 8 (for ^{ax}that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, ^{ay}vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their lawless deeds): 9 ^{az}the Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptation, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment unto the day of judgement; 10 but chiefly ^{ba}them that walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement, and ^{bb}despise dominion. Daring, selfwilled, they tremble not ^{bc}to rail at ^{bd}10 dignities: 11 ^{be}whereas angels, though greater in might and power, bring not a railing judgement against them before the Lord. 12 ^{bf}But these, as creatures without reason, ^{bg}born ^{bh}mere animals ^{bi}to be taken and destroyed, railing in matters whereof they are ignorant, shall in their ^{bj}destroying surely be destroyed, 13 suffering wrong as ^{bk}the hire of wrong-doing; ^{bl}men that count it pleasure ^{bm}to revel in the day-time, ^{bn}spots and blemishes, revelling ^{bo}in their ^{bp}love-feasts while ^{bq}they feast with you; 14 having eyes full of ^{br}adultery, and ^{bs}that cannot cease from sin; enticing unstedfast souls; having a heart ^{bt}exercised in covetousness; ^{bu}children of cursing; 15 forsaking the right way, ^{bv}they went astray, having followed ^{bw}the way of Balaam the son of ^{bx}22 Beor, who loved ^{by}the hire of wrong-doing; 16 but he was rebuked for his own transgression: ^{bz}a dumb ass spake with man's voice and stayed the madness of the prophet. 17 ^{ca}These are springs without water, and mists driven by a storm; ^{cb}for whom the blackness of darkness hath been reserved. 18 For, ^{cc}uttering great swelling words of vanity, they entice in the lusts of the flesh, by lasciviousness, those who are just ^{cd}escaping from them that live in error; 19 promising them ^{ce}liberty, ^{cf}while they themselves are bondservants of corruption; for of ¹whom a man is overcome, of the same is he also brought into bondage. ²⁰For if, ²¹after they have escaped the defilements of the world ²²through the knowledge of ²³the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein and overcome, ²⁴the last state is become worse with them than the first. ²⁵For ²⁶it were better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after knowing it, to turn back from ²⁷the holy commandment delivered unto them. ²⁸It has happened unto them according to the true proverb, The ²⁹"dog turning to his own vomit again, and the sow that had washed to wallowing in the mire.

¹This is now, beloved, the 3 second epistle that I write unto you; and in both of them ²I stir up your sincere mind by putting you in remembrance; ³that ye should remember the words which were spoken before by ⁴the holy prophets, and the commandment of the Lord and Saviour through your apostles: ⁵knowing this first, that ⁶in the last days mockers shall come with mockery, ⁷walking after their own lusts, ⁸and ⁹saying, Where is the promise of ¹⁰his ¹¹coming? for, from the day that the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation. ¹²For this they wilfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth ¹³compacted out of water and ¹⁴amidst water, ¹⁵by the word of God; ¹⁶by which means the world that then was, ¹⁷being overflowed with water, ¹⁸perished: ¹⁹but ²⁰the heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same word have been ²¹stored up for fire, being reserved against the day of judgement and ²²destruction of ungodly men.

²³But forget not this one thing, beloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and ²⁴a thousand years as one day. ²⁵The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, ²⁶as some count slackness; but ²⁷is longsuffering to you-ward, ²⁸not wishing that any should perish, but ²⁹that all should come to repentance. ³⁰But ³¹the day of the Lord will come as a thief; in the which ³²the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and ³³the ³⁴elements shall be dissolved with fervent heat, and the earth and the works that are therein shall be ³⁵burned up. ³⁶Seeing that these things are thus all to be dissolved, ³⁷what manner of persons ought ye to be in ³⁸all holy living and godliness, ³⁹looking for and ⁴⁰earnestly desiring the ⁴¹coming of the day of God, by reason of which the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and ⁴²the ⁴³elements shall melt with fervent heat? ⁴⁴But, according to his promise, we look for ⁴⁵"new heavens and a new earth, ⁴⁶wherein dwell eth righteousness.

⁴⁷Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for these things, give diligence ⁴⁸that ye may be found in peace, ⁴⁹without spot and ⁵⁰blameless in his sight. ⁵¹And account that ⁵²the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as ⁵³our beloved brother Paul also, ⁵⁴according to the wisdom given to him, wrote unto you; ⁵⁵as also in all ⁵⁶his epistles, ⁵⁷speaking in them of these things; ⁵⁸wherein are some things hard to be understood, which the ignorant and unstablest wrest, ⁵⁹as ⁶⁰they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction. ⁶¹Ye therefore, beloved, ⁶²knowing ⁶³these things beforehand, ⁶⁴beware lest, being carried away with the error of the wicked, ye fall from your own steadfastness. ⁶⁵But ⁶⁶grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. ⁶⁷To him ⁶⁸be the glory both now and ⁶⁹for ever. Amen.

I ¹ ^a THAT which was ^b from the beginning, that ^c which we have heard, that ^d which we have seen with our eyes, ^e that which we beheld, and ^f our hands handled, concerning the ¹ Word of life ² (and ³ the life ^a was manifested, and we have seen, and ^b bear witness, and declare unto you the life, the eternal life, ^a which was with the Father, and ^a was manifested unto us); ³ ^c that which we have seen and heard declare we unto you also, that ye also may have fellowship with us: yea, and ⁴ our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ: ⁴ and these things we write, ^a that ² our joy may be fulfilled.

⁵ And this is the message which we have heard from him, and announce unto you, that ^m God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. ⁶ If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in the darkness, we lie, and ^o do not the truth: ⁷ but ^p if we walk in the light, ^q as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and ^r the blood of Jesus his Son cleanseth us from all sin. ⁸ If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and ^t the truth is not in us. ⁹ If we confess our sins, he is ^u faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and ^v to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. ¹⁰ If we say that we have not sinned, ^w we make him a liar, and ^x his word is not in us.

¹ My little children, these ² things write I unto you, that ye may not sin. And if any man sin, ³ we have an ³ Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: ² and ⁴ he is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but ⁵ also for the whole world. ³ And hereby know we that we know him, if we ^c keep his commandments. ⁴ He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, ^d is a liar, and ^e the truth is not in him: ⁵ but whoso ^c keepeth his word, in him verily hath ^f the love of God been perfected. ⁶ Hereby know we that we are in him: ⁶ he that saith he ^a abideth in him ^b ought himself also to walk even as he walked.

18 Little children, ^ait is the last hour: and as ye heard that ^dantichrist cometh, even now have there arisen ^emany antichrists; ^fwhereby we know that it is the last hour. 19 ^gThey went out from us, but they were not of us; for ^hif they had been of us, they would have continued with us: but ⁱthey went out, ^jthat they might be made manifest ^khow that they all are not of us. 20 And ye have ^lan anointing from ^mthe Holy One, ⁿand ^oye know all things. 21 I have not written unto you because ^pye know not the truth, but because ^qye know it, and ^rbecause no lie is of the truth. 22 Who is the liar but ^she that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? This is ^tthe antichrist, ^ueven he that denieth the Father and the Son. 23 ^vWhosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: he that confesseth the Son hath the Father also. 24 As for you, let that abide in you ^wwhich ye heard from the beginning. If that which ye heard from the beginning abide in you, ^xye also shall abide in the Son, and in the Father. 25 And this is the promise which he promised ^yus, ^zeven ^{aa}the life eternal. 26 These things have I written unto you concerning ^{ab}them that would lead you astray. 27 And as for you, ^{ac}the anointing which ye received of him abideth in you, and ^{ad}ye need not that any one teach you; but as his anointing teacheth you concerning all things, ^{ae}and ^{af}is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, ^{ag}ye abide in him. 28 And now, ^{ah}my little children, abide in him; that, ^{ai}if he shall be manifested, ^{aj}we may have boldness, and not be ashamed ^{ak}before him at his ^{al}coming. 29 If ye know that ^{am}he is righteous, ^{an}ye know that ^{ao}every one also that doeth righteousness is begotten of him. 30 Behold ^{ap}what manner of ^{aq}love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called ^{ar}children of God: and ^{as}such we are. For this cause ^{at}the world knoweth us not, because ^{au}it knew him not. 31 Beloved, ^{av}now are we ^{aw}children of God, and ^{ax}it is not yet made manifest what he shall be.

We know that, ^{ay}if ^{az}he shall be manifested, ^{ba}we shall be like him; for ^{bb}we shall see him even as he is. 3 And every one that hath this hope ^{bc}set on him ^{bd}purifieth himself, even as he is pure. 4 Every one that doeth sin doeth also lawlessness: and ^{be}sin is lawlessness. 5 And ye know that ^{bf}he was manifested to ^{bg}take away sins; and ^{bh}in him is no sin. 6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: ^{bi}whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither ^{bj}knoweth him. 7 ^{bk}My little children, ^{bl}let no man lead you astray: ^{bm}he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous: ^{bn}he that doeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. To this end was the Son of God manifested, ^{bo}that he might destroy the works of the devil. 9 ^{bp}Whosoever is begotten of God doeth no sin, because his seed abideth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is begotten of God. 10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: ^{bq}whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, ^{br}neither he that ^{bs}loveth not his brother. 11 For ^{bt}this is the message which ye heard from the beginning, ^{bu}that we should love one another: 12 not as ^{bv}Cain was of the evil one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? ^{bw}Because his works were evil, and his brother's righteous. 13 Marvel not, brethren, ^{bx}if the world hateth you. 14 We know that ^{by}we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not abideth in death. 15 ^{bz}Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that ^{ca}no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. 16 Hereby know we love, because ^{cb}he laid down his life for us: and ^{cc}we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. 17 But ^{cd}whoso hath the world's goods, and beholdeth his brother in need, and ^{ce}shutteth up his compassion from him, ^{cf}how doth the love of God abide in him? 18 ^{cg}My little children, let us not ^{ch}love in word, neither with the tongue; but in deed and ^{ci}truth. 19 Hereby shall we know that we are of the truth, and shall

1 Or, that not all are of us. 2 Some very ancient authorities read and ye all know. 3 Or, that 4 Some ancient authorities read you. 5 Or, so it is true, and as he is; and even as he is. 6 Or, know ye 7 Or, from him. 8 Gr. presence. 9 Or, know ye 10 Or, it 11 Or, bear sins 12 Or, hath known

1 assure our heart before him, 20 where in so ever our heart condemn us; because God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. 21 Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, we have boldness toward God; 22 and whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do the things that are pleasing in his sight. 23 And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, even as he gave us commandment. 24 And he that keepeth his commandments abideth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he gave us.

1 Beloved, believe not every spirit, but prove the spirits, whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. 2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: every spirit which confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: 3 and every spirit which confesseth not Jesus is not of God: and this is the spirit of the antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it cometh; and now it is in the world already. 4 Ye are of God, my little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you than he that is in the world. 5 They are of the world: therefore speak they as of the world, and the world heareth them. 6 We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he who is not of God heareth us not. By this we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is begotten of God, and knoweth God. 8 He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love. 9 Herein was the love of God manifested in us, that God hath sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. 10 Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. 11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

12 No man hath beheld God at any time: if we love one another, God abideth in us, and his love is perfected in us: 13 hereby know we that we abide in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. 14 And we have beheld and bear witness that the Father hath sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. 15 Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God abideth in him, and he in God. 16 And we know and have believed the love which God hath in us. God is love; and he that abideth in love abideth in God, and God abideth in him. 17 Herein is love made perfect with us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgement; because as he is, even so are we in this world. 18 There is no fear in love: but perfect love casteth out fear, because fear hath punishment; and he that feareth is not made perfect in love. 19 We love, because he first loved us. 20 If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, cannot love God whom he hath not seen. 21 And this commandment have we from him, that he who loveth God love his brother also.

1 Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is begotten of God: and whosoever loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him. 2 Hereby we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and do his commandments. 3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous. 4 For whatsoever is begotten of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that hath overcome the world, even our faith. 5 And who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? 6 This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not with the water only, but with the water and with the blood. 7 And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is the truth. 8 For there are three who bear witness, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood:

and the three agree in one. 9^a If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for the witness of God is this, ^b that he hath borne witness concerning his Son. 10 He that believeth on the Son of God ^c hath the witness in him: he that believeth not God ^d hath made him a liar; ^e because he hath not believed in the witness that God hath borne concerning his Son. 11 And the witness is this, that God gave unto us ^f eternal life, and ^g this life is in his Son. 12 ^h He that hath the Son hath the life; he that hath not the Son of God hath not the life. 13 ⁱ These things have I written unto you, that ye may know that ye have eternal life, ^j even unto you that ^k believe on the name of the Son of God. 14 And this is ^l the boldness which we have toward him, that, ^m if we ask anything according to his will, he heareth us: 15 and if we know that he heareth us whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we have asked of him. 16 If any man see his brother sinning a sin not unto death, ⁿ he shall ask, and ^o God will give him life for them that sin not unto death. ^p There is ^q a sin unto death: ^r not concerning this do I say that he should make request. 17 ^s All unrighteousness is sin: and there is ^t a sin not unto death.

18 We know that ^u whosoever is begotten of God sinneth not; but ^v he that was begotten of God ^w keepeth ^x him, and the evil one toucheth him not. 19 We know that we are of God, and ^y the whole world lieth in the evil one. 20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and ^z hath given us an understanding, that we know ^{aa} him that is true, and we are in him that is true, ^{ab} even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and ^{ac} eternal life. 21 ^{ad} My little children, ^{ae} guard yourselves from idols.

1^a THE elder unto Galus the beloved, ^b whom I love in truth.
2 Beloved, I pray that in all things thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.
3 For ^c I ¹ rejoiced greatly, when brethren came and bare witness unto thy truth, even as thou walkest in truth.
4 Greater ² joy have I none than ³ this, to hear of ^d my children walking in the truth.
5 Beloved, thou doest a faithful work in whatsoever thou doest toward ^e them that are brethren and ^f strangers withal; ⁶ who bare witness to thy love before the church: whom thou wilt do well to set forward on their journey ^g worthily of God: ⁷ because that for the sake of ^h the Name they went forth, ⁱ taking nothing of the Gentiles. ⁸ We therefore ought to welcome such, that we may be fellow-workers with the truth.
9 I wrote somewhat unto the church: but Diotrephes, ^j who lov-

eth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not. ¹⁰ Therefore, if I come, I will bring to remembrance his works which he doeth, prating against us with wicked words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and them that would he forbiddeth, and casteth ^k them out of the church.
11 Beloved, ^l imitate not that which is evil, but that which is good. ^m He that doeth good is of God: ⁿ he that doeth evil hath not seen God. ¹² Demetrius ^o hath the witness of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, we also bear witness; and ^p thou knowest that our witness is true.
13 ^q I had many things to write unto thee, but I am unwilling to write ^r them to thee with ink and pen: ¹⁴ but I hope shortly to see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be unto thee. The friends salute thee. Salute the friends ^s by name.

1^a JUDAS, ^b a servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, ^c to them that are called, ^d beloved in God the Father, and ^e kept for Jesus Christ: ² Mercy unto you and ^f peace and love be multiplied.
3 Beloved, while I was giving all diligence to write unto you of our ^g common salvation, I was constrained to write unto you exhorting you ^h to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered unto the saints. ⁴ For ⁱ there are certain men ^j crept in privily, ^k even ^l they who were of old set forth unto this condemnation, ungodly men, turning ^m the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and ⁿ denying ^o our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

5 Now I desire ^p to put you in remembrance, though ye know all things once for all, how that ^q the Lord, having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, ^r afterward destroyed them that believed not. ⁶ And ^s angels which kept not their own principality, but left their proper habitation, he hath kept in everlasting bonds under darkness unto the judgement of the great day. ⁷ Even as ^t Sodom and Gomorrah, and ^u the cities about them, having in like manner with these given themselves over to fornication, and ^v gone after strange flesh, are set forth ^w as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire. ⁸ Yet in like manner these also in their dreamings defile the flesh, and set

THE Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God "gave him "to shew unto his "servants, even the things which must shortly come to pass: and "he sent and signified "it by his angel unto his servant John; 2 "who bare witness of the word of God, and of "the testimony of Jesus Christ, even "of all things that he saw. 3 "Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things which are written therein: "for the time is at hand.

4 JOHN to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace to you and peace, from "him "which is and "which was and "which is to come; and from "the seven Spirits which are before his throne; 5 and from Jesus Christ, "who is "the faithful witness, "the firstborn of the dead, and "the ruler of the kings of the earth. Unto^p him that loveth us, and looseth us from our sins² by his blood; 6 and he made us to be^r a kingdom, to be^r priests unto^r his God and Father; to him be^r the glory and the dominion³ for ever and ever. Amen. 7 Behold, "he cometh with the clouds; and "every eye shall see him, and they which pierced him; and all the tribes of the earth shall mourn over him. Even so, Amen.

8 "I am the Alpha and the Omega, saith "the Lord God, "which is and which was and "which is to come, the Almighty.

9 I John, your brother and "partaker with you in "the tribulation and "kingdom and "patience which are in Jesus, was in the isle that is called Patmos, "for the word of God and the testimony of Jesus.

10 "I was in the Spirit "on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a great voice, "as of a trumpet 11 saying, "What thou seest, write in a book, and send it to the seven churches; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamum, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea. 12 And I turned to see the voice which spake with me. And having turned I saw "seven golden "candlesticks; 13 and in the midst of the "candlesticks "one like unto "a son of man, "clothed with a garment down to the foot, and "a girt about at the breasts with a golden girdle. 14 And his head and "his hair were white as white wool, white as snow; and "his eyes were as a flame of fire; 15 and "his feet like unto burnished brass, as if it had been refined in a furnace; and "his voice as the voice of many waters. 16 And "he had in his right hand seven stars: and "out of his mouth proceeded a sharp two-edged sword: and "his countenance was as the sun shineth "in his strength.

17 And "when I saw him, I fell at his feet as one dead. And "he laid his right hand upon me, "saying, Fear not; "I am the first and the last, 18 and the Living one; and "I "was dead, and behold, I am alive for evermore, and "I have the keys of death and of Hades. 19 "Write therefore "the things which thou sawest, and the things which are, and the things which shall come to pass hereafter; 20 the mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest "in my right hand, and "the seven golden "candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and "the seven "candlesticks are seven churches.

1 To the angel of the church 2 in Ephesus write;

These things saith "he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, "he that walketh in the midst of the seven golden "candlesticks: 2 "I know thy works, and thy toil and patience, and that thou canst not bear evil men, and "didst try them "which call themselves apostles, and they are not, and didst find them false; 3 and thou hast patience and didst bear "for my name's sake, and "hast not grown weary. 4 But I have this against thee, that thou didst leave "thy first love. 5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do "the first works; or else "I come to thee, and will move thy "candlestick out of its place, except thou repent. 6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the works of "the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. 7 "He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. "To him that overcometh, to him will I give to eat of "the tree of life, which is in "the "Paradise of God.

8 And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write;

These things saith "the first and the last, "which "was dead, and lived again: 9 I know thy tribulation, and "thy poverty ("but thou art rich), and the "blasphemy of "them which say they are Jews, and they are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. 10 Fear not the things which thou art about to suffer: behold, the devil is about to cast some of you into prison, "that ye may be tried; 11 and "ye shall have "tribulation "ten days. "Be thou faithful "unto death, and I will give thee ^bthe crown of life. 12 ^cHe that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. ^cHe that overcometh shall not be hurt of ^dthe second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamum write :

These things saith he that hath ^ethe sharp two-edged sword : 13 I know where thou dwellest, ^eeven ^fwhere Satan's throne is : and thou holdest fast my name, and didst not ^gdeny my faith, even in the days ^gof Antipas ^hmy witness, my faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan dwelleth. 14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there some that hold the teaching of ⁱBalaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, ^jto eat things sacrificed to idols, and ^kto commit fornication. 15 So hast thou also some that hold the teaching of ^kthe Nicolaitans in like manner. 16 Repent therefore ; or else ^mI come to thee quickly, and ⁿI will make war against them with ⁿthe sword of my mouth. 17 ^cHe that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. ^cTo him that overcometh, to him will I give of ^othe hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and upon the stone ^pa new name written, ^qwhich no one knoweth but he that receiveth it.

18 And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write ;

These things saith the Son of God, ^rwho hath his eyes like a flame of fire, and his feet are like unto burnished brass : 19 ^sI know thy works, and thy love and faith and ministry and patience, and that thy last works are more than the first. 20 But I have ^tthis against thee, that thou sufferest ^tthe woman ^tJezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess ; and she teacheth and seduceth my servants ^uto commit fornication, and ^uto eat things sacrificed to idols. 21 And I gave her time that she should repent ; and ^vshe willeth not to repent of her fornication. 22 Behold, I do cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of ^wher works. 23 And I will kill her children with ^wdeath ; and all the churches shall know that I am he ^wwhich searcheth the reins and hearts : and ^xI will give unto each one of you according to your works. 24 But to you I say, to the rest that are in Thyatira, as many as have not this teaching, which know not ^ythe deep things of Satan, as they say ; I ^ycast upon you none other burden. 25 Howbeit ^ythat which ye have, hold fast till I come. 26 And ^zhe that overcometh, and he that keepeth my works ^zunto the end, ^zto him will I give authority over the nations : 27 and ^zhe shall ^zrule them with a rod of ^ziron, ^zas the vessels of the potter are broken to shivers ; as I also have received of my Father : 28 and I will give him ^zthe morning star. 29 ^bHe that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

1 And to the angel of the 3 church in Sardis write ;

These things saith he ^athat hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars : I know thy works, that thou hast a name ^athat thou livest, ^aand thou art dead. 2 Be thou watchful, and stablish the things that remain, which were ready to die : for I have ^bfound no works of thine ^bfulfilled before my God. 3 ^cRemember therefore how thou hast received and didst hear ; and keep ^cit, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, ^cI will come ^cas a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee. 4 But thou hast a few ^dnames in Sardis which did not ^ddefile their garments : and they shall walk with me ^din white ; for they are ^dworthy. 5 ^eHe that overcometh shall thus be arrayed in white garments ; and I will in no wise ^eblot his name out of ^ethe book of life, and ^eI will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels. 6 ^fHe that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write ;

These things saith ^ghe that is holy, ^ghe that is true, ^ghe that hath the key of David, ^ahe that openeth, and none shall shut, and that shutteth, and none openeth: ⁸I know thy works (behold, I have ¹set before thee ^ba door opened, which none can shut), that thou hast a little power, and didst keep my word, and didst not deny my name. ⁹Behold, I give of ^cthe synagogue of Satan, of them which say they are Jews, and they are not, but do lie; behold, ^dI will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that ^eI have loved thee. ¹⁰Because thou didst keep the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of ^ftrial, that hour which is to come upon the whole ^gworld, to ^htry ⁱthem that dwell upon the earth. ¹¹^jI come quickly: ^kI hold fast that which thou hast, that no one take ^lthy crown. ¹²^mHe that overcometh, I will make him ⁿa pillar in the ^otemple of my God, and he shall go out thence no more: and I will write upon him ^pthe name of my God, and ^qthe name of the city of my God, ^rthe new Jerusalem, ^swhich cometh down out of heaven from my God, and mine own ^tnew name. ¹³^uHe that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

¹⁴And to the angel of the church in Laodicea write;

These things saith the ^vAmen, ^wthe faithful and true witness, ^xthe beginning of the creation of God: ¹⁵I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: ^yI would thou wert cold or hot. ¹⁶So because thou art lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spew thee out of my mouth. ¹⁷^zBecause thou sayest, I am rich, and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art the wretched one and miserable and poor and ^{aa}blind and naked: ¹⁸I counsel thee ^{ab}to buy of me gold refined by fire, that thou mayest become rich; and ^{ac}white garments, that thou mayest clothe thyself, and ^{ad}that the shame of thy nakedness be not made manifest; and ^{ae}eyesalve to anoint thine eyes, ^{af}that thou mayest see. ¹⁹^{ag}As many as I love, I reprove and chasten: ^{ah}be zealous therefore, and repent. ²⁰Be-

hold, I stand at the door and ^{ai}knock: ^{aj}if any man hear my voice and open the door, ^{ak}I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. ²¹^{al}He that overcometh, ^{am}I will give to him to sit down with me in my throne, as ^{an}I also overcame, and sat down with my Father in his throne. ²²^{ao}He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

²³After these things I saw, 4 and behold, a door opened in heaven, and the first voice which I heard, ²⁴a voice ^{as}as of a trumpet speaking with me, one saying, ²⁵Come up hither, and ²⁶I will shew thee the things which must ²⁷come to pass hereafter. ²⁸Straightway ²⁹I was in the Spirit: and behold, ³⁰there was a throne set in heaven, and one sitting upon the throne; ³¹and he that sat ³²was to look upon like a ³³jasper stone and a sardius: and ³⁴there was ³⁵a rainbow round about the throne, like an emerald to look upon. ³⁶And round about the throne ³⁷were ³⁸four and twenty thrones: and upon the thrones ³⁹I saw four and twenty elders sitting, ⁴⁰arrayed in white garments; and on their heads ⁴¹crowns of gold. ⁴²And out of the throne proceed ⁴³lightnings and voices and thunders. down before him that sitteth on the throne, and shall worship him that liveth ¹for ever and ever, and shall cast ²their crowns before the throne, saying, ¹¹Worthy art thou, our Lord and our God, to receive the glory and the honour and the power: for ³thou didst create all things, and ⁴because of thy will they were, and were created.

¹ And I saw ²in the right hand of him that sat on the throne ³a book written within and on the back, ⁴close sealed with seven seals.

² And ¹I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a great voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof? ³ And no one in the heaven, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the book, or to look thereon. ⁴ And I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open the book, or to look thereon: ⁵ and one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, ⁶the Lion ⁷that is of the tribe of Judah, ⁸the Root of David, hath overcome, to open the book and the seven seals thereof. ⁶ And I saw in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, ⁹a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, having seven horns, and ¹⁰seven eyes, which are ¹¹the ¹²seven Spirits of God, sent forth into all the earth. ⁷ And he came, and he ¹³taketh ¹⁴it out of the right hand of him that sat on the throne. ⁸ And when he had taken the book, the four living creatures and the four and twenty elders ¹⁵fell down before the Lamb, ¹⁶having each one a harp, and ¹⁷golden bowls full of incense, ¹⁸which are the prayers of the saints. ⁹ And they sing ¹⁹a new song, saying, Worthy art thou to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for ²⁰thou wast slain, and ²¹didst purchase unto God with thy blood ²²men of ²³every tribe, and tongue, and people, and nation, and madest them ²⁴to be unto our God ²⁵a kingdom and priests; and they reign upon the earth. ¹¹ And I saw, and I heard a voice of many angels round about the throne and the living creatures and the elders; and the number of them was ²⁶ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; ¹²saying with a great voice, ¹³Worthy is the Lamb that hath been slain to receive the power, and riches, and wisdom, and might, and honour, and glory, and blessing. ¹³ And ¹⁴every created thing which is in the heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and on the sea, and all things that are in them, heard I saying, Unto him that sitteth on the throne, and unto the Lamb, ¹⁵be the blessing, and the honour, and the glory, and the dominion, ¹⁶for ever and ever. ¹⁴ And the four living creatures ¹⁷said, Amen. And the elders ¹⁸fell down and worshipped.

³ And when he opened the second seal, I heard ⁴the second living creature saying, Come ⁵. ⁴ And another ⁶horse came forth, ⁷a red horse: and to him that sat thereon it was given ⁸to take ⁹peace from the earth, and that they should slay one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

⁵ And when he opened the third seal, I heard ⁶the third living creature saying, Come ⁷. And I saw, and behold, ⁸a black horse; and he that sat thereon had a balance in his hand. ⁶ And I heard as it were a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, ⁹A ¹⁰measure of wheat for a ¹¹penny, and three measures of barley for a ¹²penny; and the oil and the wine ¹³hurt thou not.

⁷ And when he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of ⁸the fourth living creature saying, Come ⁹. ⁸ And I saw, and behold, ¹⁰a pale horse; and he that sat upon him, his name was Death; and Hades followed with him. And there was given unto them authority over the fourth part of the earth, to kill ¹¹with sword, and with famine, and with ¹death, and ²by the wild beasts of the earth.

9 And when he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath ³the altar ⁴the souls of them that had been slain ⁵for the word of God, and for ⁶the testimony which they held: 10 and they cried with a great voice, saying, ⁷How long, O Master, ⁸the holy and true, ⁹dost thou not judge and ¹⁰avenge our blood on ¹¹them that dwell on the earth? 11 And there was given them to each one ¹²a white robe; and it was said unto them, ¹³that they should rest yet for a little time, ¹⁴until their fellow-servants also and their brethren, which should be killed even as they were, ¹⁵should ¹⁶be fulfilled.

12 And I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and ¹³there was a great earthquake; and ¹⁴the sun became black as ¹⁵sackcloth of hair, and the whole moon became as blood; 13 and ¹⁴the stars of the heaven fell unto the earth, ¹⁵as a fig tree casteth her unripe figs, when she is shaken of a great wind. 14 And ¹⁵the heaven was removed ¹⁶as a scroll when it is rolled up; and ¹⁷every mountain and island were moved out of their places. 15 And the kings of the earth, and the princes, and the ¹⁶chief captains, and the rich, and the strong, and every bondman and freeman, ¹⁷hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains; 16 and they say to the mountains and to the rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of ¹⁸him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: 17 for ¹⁹the great day of their wrath is come; and ²⁰who is able to stand?

7 I After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding ²the four winds of the earth, ³that no wind should blow on the earth, or on the sea, or upon any tree. 2 And I saw another angel ascend ⁴from the sunrising, having ⁵the seal of the living God: and he cried with a great voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, 3 saying, ⁶Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we shall have sealed the servants of our God ⁷on their foreheads. 4 And ⁸I heard the number of them which were sealed, a hundred and forty and four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Judah ¹were sealed twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand:

6 Of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand:

7 Of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand:

8 Of the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Benjamin ¹were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After these things I saw, and behold, ²a great multitude, which no man could number, ³out of every nation, and of ⁴all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, ⁵arrayed in white robes, and ⁶palms in their hands; 10 and they cry with a great voice, saying, ⁷Salvation unto our God which sitteth on the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 And all the angels were standing round about the throne, and ²about the elders and ³the four living creatures; and they ⁴fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, 12 saying, Amen: ⁵Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, ⁶be unto our God ⁷for ever and ever. Amen. 13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, These which are ⁸arrayed in the white robes, who are they, and whence came they? 14 And I ⁵say unto him, My lord, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which come out of ²the great tribulation, and ³they washed their robes, and ⁴made them white ⁵in the blood of the Lamb. 15 Therefore are they before the throne of

God; and ^othey serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne ²shall spread his tabernacle over them. ¹⁶They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither ³shall the sun strike upon them, nor any heat: ¹⁷for the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne ⁴shall be their shepherd, and shall guide them unto fountains of ⁵'waters of life: and ⁶God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes.

¹ And when he opened ⁷the seventh seal, there followed a silence in heaven about the space of half an hour. ² And I saw ⁸the seven angels ⁹which stand before God; and there were given unto them seven trumpets.

³ And another angel came and stood ¹⁰over the altar, having a golden censor; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should ²add it unto ¹¹the prayers of all the saints upon ¹²the golden altar which was before the throne. ⁴ And ¹³the smoke of the incense, ¹⁴with the prayers of the saints, went up before God out of the angel's hand. ⁵ And the angel ¹⁵taketh the censor; and ¹⁶he filled it with the fire of the altar, and cast it ¹⁷upon the earth: and ¹⁸there followed ¹⁹thunders, and voices, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

⁶ And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

⁷ And the first sounded, and there followed ²⁰hail and ²¹fire, mingled with blood, and they were cast ²²upon the earth: and ²³the third part of the earth was burnt up, and the third part of ²⁴the trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

⁸ And the second angel sounded, and as it were ²⁵a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea ²⁶became blood; ²⁷and there died the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, ²⁸even they that had life; and the third part of ²⁹the ships was destroyed.

¹⁰ And the third angel sounded, and ³⁰there fell from heaven a great star, burning as a torch, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon ³¹the fountains of the waters; ³²and the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters ³³became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, ³⁴because they were made bitter.

¹² And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of ³⁵the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; that the third part of them should be darkened, and the day should not shine for the third part of it, and the night in like manner.

⁴ And it was said unto them ⁴⁵that they should not hurt ⁴⁶the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only such men as have not ⁴⁷the seal of God on their foreheads. ⁵ And it was given them that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented ⁴⁸five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when it striketh a man. ⁶ And in those days ⁴⁹men shall seek death, and shall in no wise find it; and they shall desire to die, and death fleeth from them. ⁷ And ⁵⁰the ⁵¹shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared for war; and ⁵²upon their heads as it were crowns like unto gold, and their faces were ⁵³as men's faces. ⁸ And they had hair as the hair of women, and ⁵⁴their teeth were as ⁵⁵the teeth of lions. ⁹ And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and 12 ^gThe first Woe is past: behold, there come yet two Wo es hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard ^ha voice from ⁱthe horns of the golden altar which is before God, ^jone saying to the sixth angel, which had the trumpet, Loose ^kthe four angels which are bound at ^lthe great river Euphrates. 15 And the four angels were loosed, which had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, that ^mthey should kill the third part of men. 16 And the number of the armies of ⁿthe horsemen was ^otwice ten thousand times ten thousand: ^pI heard the number of them. 17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates ^qas of fire and of hyacinth and of brimstone: and the heads of the horses are ^ras the heads of lions; and out of their mouths proceedeth fire and smoke and brimstone. 18 By these three plagues was the third part of men killed, by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone, which proceeded out of their mouths. 19 For the power of the horses is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails are like unto serpents, and have heads; and with them they do hurt. 20 And the rest of mankind, which were not killed with these plagues, ^srepented not of ^tthe works of their hands, that they should not worship ^udevils, ^vand the idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood; which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk: ^wand they repented not of their murders, nor of their ^xsorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

1 And I saw another strong IO angel coming down out of heaven, arrayed with a cloud; and ^ythe rainbow was upon his head, and ^zhis feet as pillars of fire; ^{aa}and ^{ab}he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left upon the earth; ^{ac}and he cried with a great voice, ^{ad}as a lion roareth: and when he cried, the seven thunders uttered their voices. 4 And when the seven thunders uttered ^{ae}their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying, ^{af}Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not. 5 And the angel which I saw standing upon the sea and upon the earth ^{ag}lifted up his right hand to heaven, and swore by ^{ah}him that liveth ^{ai}for ever and ever, ^{aj}who created the heaven and the things that are therein, and the earth and the things that are therein, ^{ak}and the sea and the things that are therein, ^{al}that there shall be ^{am}time no longer: ^{an}but ^{ao}in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then is finished the mystery of God, ^{ap}according to the good tidings which he declared to his servants the prophets. 8 And the voice which I heard from heaven, ^{aq}I heard it again speaking with me, and saying, Go, take the book which is open in the hand of the angel that standeth upon the sea and upon the earth. 9 And I went unto the angel, saying unto him that he should give me the little book. holy city shall they tread under foot¹ forty and two months. 3 And I will give unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy² a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth. 4 These are³ the two olive trees and the two candlesticks, standing before the Lord of the earth. 5 And if any man desireth to hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man shall desire to hurt them, in this manner must he be killed. 6 These have the power⁴ to shut the heaven, that it rain not during the days of their prophecy: and they have power over the waters⁵ to turn them into blood, and to smite the earth with every plague, as often as they shall desire. 7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that cometh up out of the abyss⁶ shall make war with them, and overcome them, and kill them. 8 And their dead bodies lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified. 9 And from among the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations do men look upon their dead bodies three days and a half, and suffer not their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb. 10 And they that dwell on the earth rejoice over them, and make merry; and they shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwell on the earth. 11 And after the three days and a half the breath of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which beheld them. 12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they went up into heaven in the cloud; and their enemies beheld them. 13 And in that hour there was a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell; and there were killed in the earthquake seven thousand persons; and the rest were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven. 14 The second Woe is past: behold, the third Woe cometh quickly. 15 And the seventh angel sounded; and there followed great voices in heaven, and they said, The kingdom of the world is become the kingdom of our Lord, and of his Christ: and he shall reign for ever and ever. 16 And the four and twenty elders, which sit before God on their thrones, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God, saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God, the Almighty, which art and which wast; because thou hast taken thy great power, and didst reign. 18 And the nations were wroth, and thy wrath came, and the time of the dead to be judged, and the time to give their reward to thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and to them that fear thy name, the small and the great; and to destroy them that destroy the earth.

19 And there was opened the temple of God that is in heaven; and there was seen in his temple the ark of his covenant; and there followed lightnings, and voices, and thunders, and an earthquake, and great hail.

12 And a great sign was seen in heaven; a woman arrayed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars; and she was with child: and she crieth out, travelling in birth, and in pain to be delivered. 3 And there was seen another sign in heaven; and behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his heads seven diadems. 4 And his tail draweth the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was about to be delivered, that when she was delivered, he might devour her child. 5 And she was delivered of a son, a man child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and unto his throne. 6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that there they may nourish her a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

dragon warred and his angels; 8 and they prevailed not, neither was their place found any more in heaven. 9 And ^athe great dragon was cast down, ^athe old serpent, he that is called the Devil and Satan, ^athe deceiver of the whole ¹ world; ^b he was cast down to the earth, and his angels were cast down with him. 10 And I heard a great voice in heaven, saying, ² Now is come ^c the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, ^d which accuseth them before our God day and night. 11 And ^e they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb, and because of the word of their testimony; and ^f they loved not their life ³ even unto death. 12 Therefore ⁴ rejoice, O heavens, and ye that ⁵ dwell in them. ⁶ Woe for the earth and for the sea: because the devil is gone down unto you, having great wrath, ⁷ knowing that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast down to the earth, he persecuted ^a the woman which brought forth the man child. 14 And there were given to the woman the two ¹ wings of the great eagle, that she might fly ² into the wilderness ³ her place, where she is nourished ⁴ for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. 15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth after the woman water ^a as a river, that he might cause her to be carried away by the stream. 16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the river which the dragon cast out of his mouth. 17 And the dragon waxed wroth with the woman, and went away ^a to make war with the rest of ^b her seed, ^c which keep the commandments of God, and hold ^d the testimony of Jesus: 1 and he stood upon the sand of the sea.

And I saw ^a a beast coming up out of the sea, ^b having ten horns and seven heads, and on his horns ten diadems, and upon his heads ^c names of blasphemy. 2 And the beast which I saw was ^d like unto a leopard, and his feet were as ^e the feet of ^f a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of ³ a lion: and ⁴ the dragon gave him his power, and ⁵ his throne, and great authority. 3 And I saw one of his heads as though it had been ⁶ smitten unto death; and his death-stroke was healed: and ⁷ the whole earth wondered after the beast; 4 and they worshipped the dragon, because he gave his authority unto the beast; and they worshipped the beast, saying, ⁸ Who is like unto the beast? and who is able to war with him? 5 and there was given to him ⁹ a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and there was given to him authority ¹⁰ to continue ¹¹ forty and two months. 6 And he opened his mouth for blasphemies against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, ¹² even them that ¹³ dwell in the heaven. 7 ¹⁴ And it was given unto him ¹⁵ to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and there was given to him authority over every tribe and people and tongue and nation. 8 And all ¹⁶ that dwell on the earth shall worship him, ¹⁷ every one whose name hath not been ¹⁸ written in ¹⁹ the book of life of ²⁰ the Lamb: ²¹ that hath been slain from the foundation of the world. 9 ²² If any man hath an ear, let him hear. 10 ²³ If any man ²⁴ will be taken into captivity, into captivity he goeth: ²⁵ if any man shall kill with the sword, with the sword must he be killed. ²⁶ Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

11 And ^a I saw another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like unto a lamb, and he spake as a dragon. 12 And he exerciseth all the authority of the first beast in his sight. And he maketh the earth and them that dwell therein to worship the first beast, ^b whose death-stroke was healed. 13 And ^c he doeth great signs, that he should even ^d make fire to come down out of heaven upon the earth in the sight of men. 14 And ^e he deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by reason of the signs which it was given him to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, ¹who hath the stroke of the sword, and lived. ¹⁵And it was given unto him to give breath to it, even to the image of the beast, ¹that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as should not ¹worship the image of the beast ¹should be killed. ¹⁶And he causeth all, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free and the bond, that there be given them ¹a mark on their right hand, or upon their forehead; ¹⁷and that no man should be able to buy or to sell, save he that hath the mark, even ¹the name of the beast or ¹the number of his name. ¹⁸¹Here is wisdom. He that hath understanding, let him count the number of the beast; for it is the number ¹of a man: and his number is ²Six hundred and sixty and six.

¹And I saw, and behold, 14 ¹the Lamb standing on ¹the mount Zion, and with him ¹a hundred and forty and four thousand, ¹having his name, and the name of his Father, written ¹on their foreheads. ²And I heard a voice from heaven, ¹as the voice of many waters, and ¹as the voice of a great thunder: and the voice which I heard was as the voice of ¹harpers harping with their harps: ³and they sing as it were ¹a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders: and ¹no man could learn the song save the hundred and forty and four thousand, even they that had been purchased out of the earth. ⁴These are they which were not defiled with women; for ¹they are virgins. These are they ¹which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were purchased from among men, to be ¹the firstfruits unto God and unto the Lamb. ⁵And ¹in their mouth was found no lie: they are ²without blemish.

⁶And I saw another angel ¹flying in mid heaven, having an eternal gospel to proclaim unto ¹them that ¹dwell on the earth, and unto every nation and tribe and tongue and people; ⁷and he saith with a great voice, ¹Fear God, and ¹give him glory; for the hour of his judgement is come: and ¹worship him that made the heaven and the earth and sea and ¹fountains of waters.

⁸And another, a second angel, followed, saying, ¹Fallen, fallen is ¹Babylon the great, ¹which hath made all the nations to drink of ¹the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

⁹And another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a great voice, If any man ¹worshippeth the beast and his image, and receiveth ¹a mark on his forehead, or upon his hand, ¹⁰he also shall drink ¹of the wine of the wrath of God, ¹which is ¹prepared unmixed in the cup of his anger; and ¹he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: ¹¹and ¹the smoke of their torment goeth up ¹for ever and ever; and ¹they have no rest day and night, they that ¹worship the beast and his image, and whoso receiveth the mark of his name. ¹²¹Here is the patience of the saints, they that ¹keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

¹³And I heard a voice from heaven saying, Write, ¹Blessed are the dead ¹which die ¹in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, ¹that they may rest from their labours; for ¹their works follow with them.

¹⁴And I saw, and behold, a white cloud; and on the cloud I saw one sitting ¹like unto ¹a son of man, ¹having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. ¹⁵And another angel ¹came out from the temple, crying with a great voice to him that sat on the cloud, ¹Send forth thy sickle, and reap: for the hour to reap is come; for ¹the harvest of the earth is ¹overripe. ¹⁶And he that sat on the cloud cast his sickle upon the earth; and the earth was reaped.

sharp sickle, saying, Send forth thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe. 19 And the angel cast his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vintage of the earth, and cast it into the winepress, the great winepress, of the wrath of God. 20 And the winepress was trodden without the city, and there came out blood from the winepress, even unto the brides of the horses, as far as a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

1 And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having seven plagues, which are the last, for in them is finished the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were a glassy sea mingled with fire; and them that come victorious from the beast, and from his image, and from the number of his name, standing by the glassy sea, having harps of God. 3 And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, O Lord God, the Almighty; righteous and true are thy ways, thou King of the ages. 4 Who shall not fear, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy; for all the nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy righteous acts have been made manifest.

5 And after these things I saw, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened: 6 and there came out from the temple the seven angels that had the seven plagues, arrayed with precious stone, pure and bright, and girt about their breasts with golden girdles. 7 And one of the four living creatures gave unto the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever. 8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and none was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels should be finished.

1 And I heard a great voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, Go ye, and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God into the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his bowl into the earth; and it became a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and which worshipped his image.

3 And the second poured out his bowl into the sea; and it became blood as of a dead man; and every living soul died, even the things that were in the sea.

4 And the third poured out his bowl into the rivers and the fountains of the waters; and it became blood. 5 And I heard the angel of the waters saying, Righteous art thou, which art and which wast, thou Holy One, because thou didst thus judge: 6 for they poured out the blood of saints and prophets, and blood hast thou given them to drink: they are worthy. 7 And I heard the altar saying, Yea, O Lord God, the Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgements.

8 And the fourth poured out his bowl upon the sun; and it was given unto it to scorch men with fire. 9 And men were scorched with great heat: and they blasphemed the name of the God which hath the power over these plagues; and they repented not to give him glory.

10 And the fifth poured out his bowl upon the throne of the beast; and his kingdom was darkened; and they gnawed their tongues for pain, and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores; and they repented not of their works.

12 And the sixth poured out his bowl upon the great river, the river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way might be made ready for the kings that come from the sunrising. 13 And I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, as it were frogs: 14 for they are ¹spirits of ²devils, ³working signs; which go forth ⁴unto the kings of the whole ⁵world, ⁶to gather them together unto the war of ⁷the great day of God, the Almighty. 15 (Behold, ⁸I come as a thief. ⁹Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, ¹⁰lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.) 16 And ¹¹they gathered them together into the place which is called in Hebrew Har-¹²Magdon.

17 And the seventh poured out his bowl upon ¹the air; and there came forth a great voice out of the temple, from the throne, saying, ²It is done: 18 and there were ³lightnings, and voices, and thunders; and ⁴there was a great earthquake, ⁵such as was not since ⁶there were men upon the earth, so great an earthquake, so mighty. 19 And ⁷the great city ⁸was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and ⁹Babylon the great ¹⁰was remembered in the sight of God, ¹¹to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. 20 And ¹²every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. 21 And ¹³a great hall, every stone about the weight of a talent, cometh down out of heaven upon men: and ¹⁴men blasphemed God because of ¹⁵the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof is exceeding great.

17 And there came ¹one of the seven angels that had ²the seven bowls, and spake with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the judgement of ³the great harlot ⁴that sitteth upon many waters; ⁵a ⁶with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, and ⁷they that dwell in the earth ⁸were made drunken with the wine of her fornication. 3 And ⁹he carried me away in the Spirit ¹⁰into a wilderness: and I saw a woman sitting upon ¹¹a scarlet-coloured beast, ¹²full of ¹³names of blasphemy, ¹⁴having seven heads and ten horns. 4 And the woman ¹⁵was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and ¹⁶decked ¹⁷with gold and precious stone and pearls, having in her hand ¹⁸a golden cup full of abominations, ¹⁹even the unclean things of her fornication, and upon her forehead a name written, ²⁰MYSTERY, ²¹BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE HARLOTS AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. 6 And I saw the woman drunken ⁷with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of ⁸the ⁹martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I wondered with a great wonder. 7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou wonder? I will tell thee ¹⁰the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and the ten horns. 8 The beast that thou sawest ⁹was, and is not; and ¹⁰is about to come up out of ¹¹the abyss, ¹²and ¹³to go into perdition. And ¹⁴they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, they whose name hath not been written ¹⁵in ¹⁶the book of life ¹⁷from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast, how that ¹⁸he was, and is not, and ¹⁹shall come. 9 ¹⁰Here is the ¹¹mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth: 10 and ¹¹they are seven kings; the five are fallen, the one is, the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a little while. 11 And the beast ¹²that was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven; and he goeth into perdition. 12 And ¹³the ten horns that thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but they receive authority as kings, with the beast, ¹⁴for one hour. 13 These have one mind, and they give their power and authority unto the beast. 14 These ¹⁵shall war against the Lamb, and ¹⁶the Lamb shall overcome them, for he is ¹⁷Lord of lords, and ¹⁸King of kings; and they also shall overcome that are with him, ¹⁹called and chosen and faithful. 15 And he saith unto me, ²⁰The waters which thou sawest, where the harlot sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues. 16 And ¹⁷the ten horns which thou sawest, and the beast, ¹⁸these shall hate the harlot, and shall make her ¹⁹desolate and ²⁰naked; and ²¹shall eat her flesh, and ²²shall burn her utterly with fire.

17 For ¹God did put in their hearts to do his mind, and to come to one mind, and ²to give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God should be accomplished. 18 And the woman whom thou sawest is ³the great city, which ⁴reigneth over the kings of the earth.

18 After these things I saw ¹another angel coming down out of heaven, having great authority; and ²the earth was lightened with his glory. 2 And he cried with a mighty voice, saying, ³Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, and is become ⁴a habitation of ⁵devils, and a ⁶hold ⁷of every unclean spirit, and a ⁸hold ⁹of every unclean and hateful bird. 3 For ⁴by ⁵the wine of the wrath of her fornication all the nations are fallen; and ⁶the kings of the earth committed fornication with her, and ⁷the merchants of the earth waxed rich by the power of her ⁸wantonness.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, ⁵Come forth, my people, out of her, that ye have no fellowship with her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues: 5 for ⁶her sins ⁷have reached even unto heaven, and ⁸God hath remembered her iniquities. 6 ⁷Render unto her even as she rendered, and double unto her ⁸the double according to her works: ⁹in the cup which she mingled, mingle unto her double. 7 ⁸How much soever she glorified herself, and waxed ⁹wanton, so much give her of torment and mourning: for she saith in her heart, ¹⁰I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall in no wise see mourning. 8 Therefore ⁹in one day shall her plagues come, death, and mourning, and famine; and ¹⁰she shall be utterly burned with fire; for ¹¹strong is ¹²the Lord God which judged her. 9 And ¹³the kings of the earth, who committed fornication and lived ¹⁴wantonly with her, ¹⁵shall weep and wail over her, ¹⁶when they look upon the smoke of her burning, ¹⁷standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Woe, woe, ¹⁸the great city, Babylon, the strong city! for ¹⁹in one hour is thy judgement come. 11 And ¹²the merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, for no man buyeth their ¹³merchandise any more; ¹⁴12 merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stone, and pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet; and all thyine wood, and every vessel of ivory, and every vessel made of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble; ¹⁵13 and cinnamon, and ¹⁶spice, and incense, and ointment, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and cattle, and sheep; and ¹⁷merchandise of horses and chariots and ¹⁸slaves; and ¹⁹14 souls of men. 14 And the fruits which thy soul lusted after are gone from thee, and all things that were dainty and sumptuous are perished from thee, and ²⁰men shall find them no more at all. 15 ¹⁶The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, ¹⁷shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning; ¹⁸16 saying, Woe, woe, the great city, ¹⁹she that was arrayed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and ²⁰17 decked with gold and precious stone and pearl! ²¹17 for ²²in one hour so great riches ²³is made desolate. And ²⁴every shipmaster, and every one that saileth any whither, and mariners, and as many as ²⁵18 gain their living by sea, stood afar off, ²⁶18 and ²⁷cried out ²⁸as they looked upon the smoke of her burning, saying, ²⁹What ³⁰city is like the great city? ³¹19 And they cast ³²dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, Woe, woe, the great city, ³³wherein were made rich all that had their ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for ³⁴in one hour she is made desolate. ³⁵20 Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye saints, and ³⁶ye apostles, and ye prophets; for ³⁷God hath judged your judgement on her.

21 And ³⁸17 a strong angel ³⁹took up a stone as it were a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with a mighty fall shall Babylon, ⁴⁰the great city, be cast down, and shall be found no more at all. 22 And ⁴¹the voice of harpers and minstrels and flute-players and

1 And I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand. 2 And he laid hold on the dragon, the old serpent, which is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years, 3 and cast him into the abyss, and shut it, and sealed it over him, that he should deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years should be finished: after this he must be loosed for a little time.

4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgement was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus, and for the word of God, and such as worshipped not the beast, neither his image, and received not the mark upon their forehead and upon their hand; and they lived, and reigned with Christ a thousand years. 5 The rest of the dead lived not until the thousand years should be finished. This is the first resurrection. 6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: over these the second death hath no power; but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are finished, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, 8 and shall come forth to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to the war: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. 9 And they went up over the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down out of heaven, and devoured them. 10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where are also the beast and the false prophet; and they shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat upon it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. 12 And I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne; and books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of the things which were written in the books, according to their works. 13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and Hades gave up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. 14 And death and Hades were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death, even the lake of fire. 15 And if any was not found written in the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire.

21 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth are passed away; and the sea is no more. 2 And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, made ready as a bride adorned for her husband. 3 And I heard a great voice out of the throne saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he shall dwell with them, and they shall be his peoples, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God: 4 and he shall wipe away every tear from their eyes; and death shall be no more; neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain, any more: the first things are passed away. 5 And he that sitteth on the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he saith, Write: for these words are faithful and true. 6 And he said unto me, They are come to pass. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely. 7 He that overcometh shall inherit these things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son. 8 But for the fearful, and unbelieving, and abominable, and murderers, and fornicators, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, their part shall be in the lake that burneth with fire and brimstone; which is the second death.

9 And there came one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls, who were laden with the seven last plagues; and he spake with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the wife of the Lamb. 10 And he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and shewed me the holy city Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, 11 having the glory of God: 12 light was like unto a stone most precious, as it were a jasper stone, clear as crystal: 13 having a wall great and high; 14 having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels; and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel: 15 on the east were three gates; and on the north three gates; and on the south three gates; and on the west three gates. 16 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. 17 And he that spake with me had for a measure a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof. 18 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length thereof is as great as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs: the length and the breadth and the height thereof are equal. 19 And he measured the wall thereof, a hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of an angel. 20 And the building of the wall thereof was jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto pure glass. 21 The foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcidony; the fourth, emerald; 22 the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, jacinth; the twelfth, amethyst. 23 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; each one of the several gates was

of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass. 24 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God the Almighty, and the Lamb, are the temple thereof. 25 And the city hath no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine upon it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the lamp thereof is the Lamb. 26 And the nations shall walk amidst the light thereof: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory into it. 27 And the gates thereof shall in no wise be shut by day (for there shall be no night there): 28 and they shall bring the glory and the honour of the nations into it: 29 and there shall in no wise enter into it anything unclean, or he that maketh an abomination and a lie: but only they which are written in the Lamb's book of life. 30 And he shewed me a river of water of life, bright as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb, in the midst of the street thereof. 31 And on this side of the river and on that was the tree of life, bearing twelve manner of fruits, yielding its fruit every month; and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. 32 And there shall be no curse any more: and the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be therein: and his servants shall do him service; 33 and they shall see his face; and his name shall be on their foreheads. 34 And there shall be night no more; and they need no light of lamp, neither light of sun; for the Lord God shall give them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

35 And he said unto me, These words are faithful and true: and the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly come to pass. 36 And behold, I come quickly. Blessed is he that keepeth the words of the prophecy of this book.

HORACE HART, PRINTER TO THE UNIVERSITY

PREFACE.

THE Version of the Apocrypha which is here presented to the Reader forms the last portion of the Revision of the Authorised Version of 1611.

The present work, owing to various circumstances, has been somewhat long delayed. It will be found, however, to have been executed carefully and faithfully, though it was of necessity intrusted to small Committees formed out of the two Companies of Revisers.

The Revision of the Authorised Version of the Apocrypha was included in the arrangement between the Companies and the Representatives of the Presses of Oxford and Cambridge, and was to be proceeded with as soon as the other and greater portions of the work were concluded. No division of labour in regard to the Apocrypha was formally made between the two Companies, but as it appeared clearly desirable that there should be no unnecessary delay in the revision, there was an understanding between the Companies that the New Testament Company should commence the work as soon as the Revision of the Authorised Version of the New Testament was completed and published. For this, preparation was made by the New Testament Company as their work was drawing to its close, and in the following manner.

It was resolved (March 21, 1879) that, after the conclusion of the Revision of the Authorised Version of the New Testament, the Company should be divided into three Committees, to be called the London, Westminster, and Cambridge Committees, for the purpose of beginning the Revision of the Apocrypha.

The London Committee was to consist of the following members:—The Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol (Dr. Ellicott), the Bishop of Salisbury (Dr. Moberly), the Bishop of St. Andrews (Dr. Wordsworth), the Dean of Rochester (Dr. Scott), the Dean of Lichfield (Dr. Bickersteth), the Master of the Temple (Dr. Vaughan), Rev. Principal Angus, and Rev. Prebendary Humphry. This Committee was to take the Book of Ecclesiasticus.

The Westminster Committee was to consist of the following members:—The Archbishop of Dublin (Dr. Trench), the Dean of Westminster (Dr. Stanley), the Archdeacon of Dublin (Dr. Lee), the Archdeacon of Oxford (Dr. Palmer), Rev. Dr. Scrivener, Rev. Principal Brown, Rev. Principal Newth, and Rev. Dr. Vance Smith. This Committee was to take the First Book of Maccabees. The Books of Tobit and Judith were afterwards, by special arrangement with the Old Testament Company, undertaken by this Committee.

The Cambridge Committee was to consist of the following members:—The Bishop of Durham (Dr. Lightfoot), the Dean of Lincoln (Mr. Blakesley), Rev. Professor Hort, Rev. Professor Kennedy, Rev. Professor Westcott, Rev. Dr. Milligan, PREFACE.

Rev. Dr. Moulton, and Rev. Dr. Roberts. This Committee was to take the Book of Wisdom and the Second Book of Maccabees.

In connexion with the foregoing resolution it was resolved at the final meeting of the Company, on Thursday, November 11, 1880:—(1) that the decisions be arrived at by simple majorities; (2) that the successive portions of the work when printed be forwarded to the members of the other two Committees. A third resolution was passed constituting the Rev. Dr. Troutbeck the General Secretary of the three Committees, and, as such, responsible for the printing of the portions of the work as they were finished; but the latter part of this resolution was modified, and the whole of the printing was carried on at the University Press, Oxford.

The London Committee, to which the Revision of the Authorised Version of the Book of Ecclesiasticus was intrusted, commenced their labours on May 11, 1881, and completed their first revision of the Version on July 20, 1882, and their second and final revision on May 25, 1883. The breaking up of the text of the Version into parallelisms was undertaken at a later period. Of the members of the Committee, two, the Bishops of Salisbury and St. Andrews, found themselves unable through age and distance from London to attend the meetings. The attendance of the remainder was such that there were rarely less than four present. Whenever the number fell below this, all debateable points were reserved for fuller meetings. Considerable attention was paid to the text; but the materials available for correcting it were but scanty. In regard to the revision of the Version, especial care was taken to preserve the general tone of the Authorised Version, and to maintain the somewhat greater freedom of rendering which characterizes the translation of the Apocrypha when compared with the translation of the Old or of the New Testament.

The Westminster Committee completed their first revision of the First Book of Maccabees on July 5, their second revision on November 3, 1881. Their first revision of the Books of Judith and Tobit was completed on July 6, their second revision on October 11, 1882. With regard to the Greek text they derived great assistance from Dr. Scrivener, but the number of places in which it was thought right to abandon readings that seemed to be represented in the Authorised Version was not large. The English Version was found to require much care. In the First Book of Maccabees, for example, a well-known peculiarity of the writer had been obliterated by the repeated introduction, with or without the use of italics, of the words 'God' and 'the Lord,' which never occur in the best Greek text. Archbishop Trench worked with the Committee until they were close to the end of the First Book of Maccabees. Dean Stanley also attended up to about the same time: Principal Brown did not take any part in the work.

Of the members of the Cambridge Committee the Bishop of Durham (Dr. Lightfoot), the Dean of Lincoln (Mr. Blakesley), and Professor Kennedy were compelled for various reasons to withdraw from the work of revision. Dr. Roberts supplied notes on various parts of the two books. Dr. Hort, Dr. Moulton and Dr. Westcott conducted the revision with this assistance at weekly meetings during term time from March 3, 1881 to the spring of 1890, when Dr. Westcott was removed to Durham. In the remainder of the work Dr. Westcott took part by correspondence. The first revision of 2 Maccabees was completed on May 20, 1885, and the final revision December 7, 1889. The first revision of Wisdom was completed between May 20, 1885 and June 20, 1888; and the second revision between November 23, 1889 and November 21, 1891. The singular difficulty and importance of the Book of Wisdom led the revisers to review the version a third time. The whole revision of the two books was substantially completed before the summer of 1892. A few questions were reserved for later decision. These were considered by Dr. Hort in the summer of that year, and, with the help of his notes, finally determined by Dr. Westcott and Dr. Moulton.

After the revision of the Old Testament had been completed the Old Testament Company (July 9, 1884) passed the following resolution:—

PREFACE.

'That the Dean of Peterborough (Dr. Perowne), Professor Lumby, Professor Robertson Smith, Mr. Bensly, Mr. Cheyne, and the Secretary (Mr. Aldis Wright) be a Committee to translate the remaining books of the Apocrypha, and

That Dr. Field be invited to assist in the formation of the text.'

The Dean of Peterborough (Dr. Perowne), now Bishop of Worcester, and Mr. (now Professor) Cheyne, found themselves unable to take part in the work, and the Committee were deprived of the assistance of Dr. Field by his death in April, 1885.

The Books of the Apocrypha which were left for them to revise were 1 and 2 Esdras, the additions to Esther, Baruch, the Song of the Three Holy Children, the History of Susanna, Bel and the Dragon, and the Prayer of Manasses.

For the text of these portions, with the exception of 2 Esdras, they were entirely dependent upon the inadequate materials already existing, and did not therefore attempt any complete revision. But as the late Professor Bensly had reconstructed the text of the Latin version of 2 Esdras from a full collation of all the independent MSS. at present known, the Committee fully availed themselves of the results which he generously placed at their disposal. They were thus able to incorporate the missing fragment, vii. 36-105, which was edited by Professor Bensly with elaborate care, and published by the Cambridge University Press (1875), and to make use of many improved readings which he proposed to adopt in his critical edition. It is satisfactory to know that this work has been left in a sufficiently forward state to admit of its being easily completed.

In regard to the language of the Revised Version the Committee followed the general principles which were observed by the Old Testament Revision Company.

In the case of Proper Names it has not been found possible to secure uniformity of plan in the work of the four Committees. In some Books these names appear in their familiar Old Testament forms, after the Hebrew; whilst in others, the forms of the Authorised Version are usually retained, or are but slightly altered, in accordance with the Greek. Lists of the Greek readings—or, in 2 Esdras, the Latin readings—adopted by the Committees will shortly be published*.

Such is a brief account of the circumstances under which the present work was executed. The Revisers conclude with the hope and the belief that it will be found helpful to the student, and acceptable to the general reader of the Apocrypha.

January, 1896.

* The preparation of these lists was undertaken by Dr. Moulton. As however the work was still far from complete at the time of his death in February 1898, the publication of the readings has now been abandoned.

I ¹⁴AND Josias ^bheld the passover in Jerusalem unto his Lord, and offered the passover the fourteenth day of the first month; ^ahaving set the priests according to their ^cdaily courses, being arrayed in their vestments, in the temple of the Lord. ³And he spake unto the Levites, ^{1d}the temple-servants of Israel, that they should hallow themselves unto the Lord, to set the holy ark of the Lord ^ein the house that king Solomon the son of David had built: ⁴and said, / Ye shall no more have need to bear it upon your shoulders: now therefore serve the Lord your God, and minister unto his people Israel, and prepare you after your fathers' houses and kindreds, ⁵according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the magnificence of Solomon his son: and standing in the holy place ^aaccording to the several divisions of the families of you the Levites, who minister in the presence of your brethren the children of Israel, ⁶offer the passover in order, and make ready the sacrifices for your brethren, and keep the passover ^aaccording to the commandment of the Lord, which was given unto Moses. ⁷And unto the people which were present Josias gave thirty thousand lambs and kids, and three thousand calves: these things were given of the king's substance, according as he promised, to the people, and to the priests and Levites. ⁸And Helkias, and Zacharias, and ²Ezyelus, the rulers of the temple, gave to the priests for the passover two thousand and six hundred sheep, and three hundred calves. ⁹And Jeconias, and Samaias, and Nathanel his brother, and Sabias, and Ochielus, and Joram, captains over thousands, gave to the Levites for the passover five thousand sheep, and ⁷seven hundred calves. ¹⁰And when these things were done, the priests and Levites, having the unleavened bread, stood in comely order according to the kindreds, ¹¹and ^aaccording to the several divisions by fathers' houses, before the people, to offer to the Lord, as it is written in the book of Moses: and thus ¹²did they in the morning. ¹³And they roasted the passover with fire, as appertaineth: and the sacrifices they sod in the brasen vessels and caldrons with a good savour, ¹³and set them before all the people: and afterward they prepared for themselves, and for the priests their brethren, the sons of Aaron. ¹⁴For the priests offered the fat until night: and the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests their brethren, the sons of Aaron. ¹⁵The holy singers also, the sons of Asaph, were in their order, according to the appointment of David, to wit, Asaph, Zacharias, ¹and Eddinus, who ^awas of the king's retinue. ¹⁶Moreover ^athe porters were at every gate; none had need to depart from his ^cdaily course: for their brethren the Levites prepared for them. ¹⁷Thus were the things that belonged to the sacrifices of the Lord accomplished in that day, in holding the passover, ¹⁸and offering sacrifices upon the altar of the Lord, ^aaccording to the commandment of king Josias. ¹⁹So the children of Israel which were present at that time held the passover, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days. ²⁰And ^csuch a passover was not held in Israel since the time of the prophet Samuel. ²¹Yea, all the kings of Israel held not such a passover as Josias, and the priests, and the Levites, and the Jews, held with all Israel that were present in their dwelling place at Jerusalem. ²²In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josias was this passover held. ²³And the works of Josias were upright before his Lord with a heart full of godliness. ²⁴Moreover the things that came to pass in his days have been written in times past, concerning those that sinned, and did wickedly against the Lord above every people and kingdom, and how they grieved him ^cexceedingly, so that the words of the Lord were confirmed against Israel.

²⁵Now after all these acts of Josias it came to pass, / that Pharaoh the king of Egypt came to raise war at Carchemish upon Euphrates: and Josias went out against him. ²⁶But the king of Egypt sent to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, O king of Judah? ²⁷I am not sent out from the Lord God against thee; for my war is upon Euphrates: and now the Lord is with me, yea, the Lord is with me hasting me forward: depart from me, and ^bbe not against the Lord. ²⁸Howbeit Josias did not turn back ^cunto his chariot, but undertook to fight with him, not regarding the words of the prophet Jeremy ^{spoken} by the mouth of the Lord: ²⁹but joined battle with him in the plain of Megiddo, and the princes came down against king Josias. ³⁰Then said the king unto his servants, Carry me away out of the battle; for I am very weak. And immediately his servants carried him away out of the host. ³¹Then gat he up upon his second chariot; and being brought back to Jerusalem he died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his fathers. ³²And in all Jewry they mourned for Josias; ³³and Jeremy the prophet lamented for Josias, and the chief men with the women made lamentation for him, unto this day: and this was given out for an ordinance to be done continually in all the nation of Israel. ³⁴These things are written in the book of the histories of the kings of Judaea, and every one of the acts that Josias did, and his glory, and his understanding in the law of the Lord, and the things that he had done before, and the things now recited, are reported in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

³⁵And the people took ¹Joachaz the son of Josias, and made him king instead of Josias his father, when he was twenty and three years old. ³⁶And he reigned in ²Judah and in Jerusalem three months: and then the king of Egypt deposed him from reigning in Jerusalem. ³⁷And he set a tax upon the people of a hundred talents of silver and one talent of gold. ³⁸The king of Egypt also made king Joakim his brother king of Judaea and Jerusalem. ³⁹And Joakim bound the nobles: but Zarakas his brother he apprehended, and brought him up out of Egypt.

⁴⁰Five and twenty years old was Joakim when he began to reign in Judaea and Jerusalem; and he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord. ⁴¹And against him Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon came up, and bound him with a chain of brass, and carried him unto Babylon. ⁴²Nabuchodonosor also took of the holy vessels of the Lord, and carried them away, and set them up in his own temple at Babylon. ⁴³But those things that are reported of him, and of his uncleanness and impiety, are written in the chronicles of the kings.

⁴⁴And Joakim his son reigned in his stead: ⁴⁵for when he was made king he was ⁴⁶eighteen years old; ⁴⁷and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem; and did that which was evil before the Lord.

⁴⁸So after a year Nabuchodonosor sent and caused him to be brought unto Babylon with the holy vessels of the Lord; ⁴⁹and made Sedekias king of Judaea and Jerusalem, ⁵⁰when he was one and twenty years old; and he reigned eleven years: ⁵¹and he also did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, and ⁵²cared not for the words that were spoken by Jeremy the prophet from the mouth of the Lord. ⁵³And after that king Nabuchodonosor had made him to swear by the name of the Lord, he forswore himself, and rebelled; and hardening his neck, and his heart, he transgressed the laws of the Lord, the God of Israel. ⁵⁴Moreover the governors of the people and of the priests did many things wickedly, ⁵⁵and passed all the pollutions of all nations, and defiled the temple of the Lord, which was sanctified in Jerusalem. ⁵⁶And the God of their fathers sent by his messenger to call them back, because he had compassion on them and on his dwelling place. ⁵⁷But they mocked his messengers; and in the day when the Lord spake unto them, they scoffed at his prophets: ⁵⁸so far forth, that he, being wroth with his people for their great ungodliness, commanded to bring up the kings of the Chaldeans against them; ⁵⁹who slew their young men with the sword, round about their holy temple, and spared neither young man nor maid, old man nor child; but he delivered all into their hands. ⁶⁰And they took all the holy vessels of the Lord, both great and small, with ⁶¹the vessels of the ark of the Lord, and the king's treasures, and carried them away unto Babylon. ⁶²And they burnt the house of the Lord, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem, and burnt the towers thereof with fire: ⁶³and as for her glorious things, they never ceased till they had brought them all to nought: and the people that were not slain with the sword he carried unto Babylon: ⁶⁴and they were servants unto him and to his children, till the Persians reigned, to fulfil ⁶⁵the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremy: ⁶⁶Until ⁶⁷the land hath enjoyed her sabbaths, the whole time of her desolation shall she keep sabbath, to fulfil threescore and ten years.

¹In the first year of Cyrus king of the Persians, that the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremy might be accomplished, ²the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of the Persians, and he made proclamation through all his kingdom, and also by writing, saying, Thus saith Cyrus king of the Persians; The Lord of Israel, the Most High Lord, hath made me king of the whole world, and commanded me to build him a house at Jerusalem that is in Judaea. ³If therefore there be any of you that are of his people, ⁴let the Lord, even his Lord, be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem that is in Judaea, and build the house of the Lord of Israel: he is the Lord that dwelleth in Jerusalem. ⁵Of such therefore as dwell in divers places, let them that are in his own place help each one with gold, and with silver, ⁷with gifts, with horses also and cattle, beside the other things which have been added by vow for the temple of the Lord which is in Jerusalem.

⁸Then the chief of the families of Judah and of the tribe of Benjamin stood up; the priests also, and the Levites, and all they whose spirit the Lord had stirred to go up, to build the house for the Lord which is in Jerusalem. ⁹And they that dwelt round about them helped them in all things with silver and gold, with horses and cattle, and with very many gifts that were vowed of a great number whose minds were stirred up thereto. ¹⁰King Cyrus also brought forth the holy vessels of the Lord, which ¹Nabuchodonosor had carried away from Jerusalem, and had set up in his temple of idols. ¹¹Now when Cyrus king of the Persians had brought them forth, he delivered them to Mithradates his treasurer, ¹²and by him they were delivered to ¹³Sanabassar the governor of Judea. ¹³And this was the number of them: A thousand golden cups, a thousand cups of silver, ¹⁴censers of silver twenty nine, vials of gold thirty, and of silver ¹⁵two thousand four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand. ¹⁶So all the vessels of gold and of silver were brought up, even ¹⁷five thousand four hundred threescore and nine, ¹⁸and were carried back by Sanabassar, together with them of the captivity, from Babylon to Jerusalem.

¹⁹But in the time of Artaxerxes king of the Persians Belemus, and Mithradates, and Tabellius, and ²⁰Rathumus, and Beelthumus, and ²¹Samellius the scribe, with the others that were in commission with them, dwelling in Samaria and other places, wrote unto him against them that dwelt in Judea and Jerusalem the letter following: ²²To king Artaxerxes our lord, Thy servants, Rathumus the ²³storywriter, and Samellius the scribe, and the rest of their council, and the judges that are in ²⁴Colesyria and Phoenicia. ²⁵Be it now known to our lord the king, that the Jews that are come up from you to us, being come unto Jerusalem, do build that rebellious and wicked city, and do repair the marketplaces and the walls of it, and do lay the foundation of a temple. ²⁶Now if this city be builded and the walls thereof be finished, they will not only refuse to give tribute, but will even stand up against kings. ²⁷And forasmuch as the things pertaining to the temple are now in hand, we think it meet not to neglect such a matter, ²⁸but to speak unto our lord the king, to the intent that, if it be thy pleasure, search may be made in the books of thy fathers: ²⁹and thou shalt find in the chronicles what is written concerning these things, and shalt understand that that city was rebellious, troubling both kings and cities: ³⁰and that the Jews were rebellious, and raised always wars therein of old time; for the which cause even this city was laid waste. ³¹Wherefore now we do declare unto thee, O lord the king, that if this city be builded again, and the walls thereof set up anew, thou shalt from henceforth have no passage into ³²Colesyria and Phoenicia. ³³Then the king wrote back again to ³⁴Rathumus the storywriter, and Beelthumus, and ³⁵Samellius the scribe, and to the rest that were in commission, and dwelt in Samaria and Syria and Phoenicia, after this manner: ³⁶I have read the epistle which ye have sent unto me: therefore I commanded to make search, and it hath been found that that city of old time hath made insurrection against kings; ³⁷and the men were given to rebellion and war therein: and that mighty kings and fierce were in Jerusalem, who reigned and exacted tribute in ³⁸Colesyria and Phoenicia. ³⁹Now therefore I have commanded to hinder those men from building the city, and heed to be taken that there be nothing done contrary to this order; ⁴⁰and that those wicked doings proceed no further to the annoyance of kings. ⁴¹Then king Artaxerxes his letters being read, Rathumus, and Samellius the scribe, and the rest that were in commission with them, removing in haste unto Jerusalem with horsemen and a multitude of people in battle array, began to hinder the builders; and the building of the temple in Jerusalem ceased until the ⁴²second year of the reign of Darius king of the Persians.

3 Now king Darius made a great feast unto all his subjects, and unto all that were born in his house, ²and unto all the princes of Media and of Persia, ³and to all the satraps and captains and governors that were under him, ⁴from India unto Ethiopia, in the hundred twenty and seven provinces. ⁵And when they had eaten and drunken, and being satisfied were gone home, then Darius the king went into his bed-chamber, and slept, and awaked out of his sleep.

⁶Then the three young men of the body-guard, that kept the king's person, spake one to another: ⁷Let every one of us say one thing which shall be strongest: and he whose sentence shall seem wiser than the others, unto him shall Darius the king give great gifts, and great honours in token of victory: ⁸as, ⁹to be clothed in purple, ¹⁰to drink

in gold, and ¹⁰to sleep upon gold, and a chariot with bridles of gold, and a head-tire of fine linen, and ¹¹a chain about his neck: ⁷and he shall sit next to Darius because of his wisdom, and shall be called Darius ⁸his cousin. ⁸And then they wrote every one his sentence, and set to their seals, and laid the writing under king Darius his pillow, ⁹and said, When the king is risen, some shall give him the writing; and of whose side the king and the three princes of Persia shall judge that his sentence is the wisest, to him shall the victory be given, as it is written. ¹⁰The first wrote, Wine is the strongest. ¹¹The second wrote, The king is strongest. ¹²The third wrote, Women are strongest: but above all things Truth beareth away the victory.

¹³Now when the king was risen up, they took the writing, and gave it unto him, and so he read it: ¹⁴and sending forth he called all the princes of Persia and of Media, ¹⁵and the satraps, and the captains, and the governors, and the chief officers; ¹⁶and sat him down in the royal seat of judgement; and the writing was read before them. ¹⁷And he said, Call the young men, and they shall explain their own sentences. So they were called, and came in. ¹⁸And they said unto them, Declare unto us your mind concerning the things ye have written.

Then began the first, who had spoken of the strength of wine, ¹⁹and said thus, O sirs, how exceeding strong is wine! ²⁰it causeth all men to err that drink it: ²¹it maketh the mind of the king and of the fatherless child to be all one; of the bondman and of the freeman, of the poor man and of the rich: ²²it turneth also every thought into jollity and mirth, so that a man remembereth neither sorrow nor debt: ²³and it maketh every heart rich, so that a man remembereth neither king nor satrap; and it maketh to speak all things by talents: ²⁴and when they are in their cups, they forget their love both to friends and brethren, and a little after draw their swords: ²⁵but when they awake from their wine, they remember not what they have done. ²⁶O sirs, is not wine the strongest, seeing that it enforceth to do thus? And when he had so spoken, he held his peace.

⁴Then the second, that had spoken of the strength of the king, began to say, ⁵O sirs, do not men excel in strength, ⁶that bear rule over the sea and land, and all things in them? ³But yet is the king stronger: and he is their lord, and hath dominion over them; and in whatsoever he commandeth them they obey him. ⁴If he bid them make war the one against the other, they do it:

and if he send them out against the enemies, they go, and overcome mountains, walls, and towers. ⁵They play and are slain, and transgress not the king's commandment: if they get the victory, they bring all to the king, as well the spoil, as all things else. ⁶ Likewise for those that are no soldiers, and have not to do with wars, but use husbandry, when they have reaped again that which they had sown, they bring it to the king, and compel one another to pay tribute unto the king. ⁷And he is ¹but one man: ²if he command to kill, they kill; if he command to spare, they spare; ³if he command to smite, they smite; if he command to make desolate, they make desolate; if he command to build, they build; ⁹if he command to cut down, they cut down; if he command to plant, they plant. ¹⁰So all his people and his armies obey him: furthermore he lieth down, he eateth and drinketh, and taketh his rest: ¹¹and these keep watch round about him, neither may any one depart, and do his own business, neither disobey they him in anything. ¹²O sirs, how should not the king be strongest, seeing that in such sort he is obeyed? And he held his peace.

¹³Then the third, who had spoken of women, and of truth, (this was 'Zorobabel') began to speak. ¹⁴O sirs, is not the king great, and men are many, and wine is strong? who is it then that ruleth them, or hath the lordship over them? are they not women? ¹⁵Women have borne the king and all the people that bear rule by sea and land. ¹⁶Even of them came they: and they nourished them up that planted the vineyards, from whence the wine cometh. ¹⁷These also make garments for men; these bring glory unto men; and without women cannot men be. ¹⁸Yes, and if men have gathered together gold and silver and every other goodly thing, ¹⁹and see a woman which is comely in favour and beauty, ²⁰they let all those things go, and ²¹gape after her, and even with open mouth fix their eyes fast on her; and ²²have all more desire unto her than unto gold or silver, or any goodly thing whatsoever. ²³A man leaveth his own father that brought him up, and his own country, and cleaveth unto his wife. ²⁴And with his wife he endeth his days, and remembereth neither father, nor mother, nor country. ²⁵By this also ye must know that women have dominion over you: do ye not labour and toil, and give and bring all to women? ²⁶Yes, a man taketh his sword, and goeth forth to make outroads, and to rob and to steal, and to sail upon the sea and upon rivers; ²⁷and ²⁸looketh upon a lion, and ²⁹walketh in the darkness; and when he hath stolen, spoiled, and robbed, he bringeth it to his love. ²⁵ Wherefore a man loveth his wife better than father or mother. ²⁶ Yea, many there be that have run out of their wits for women, and become bondmen for their sakes. ²⁷ Many also have perished, have stumbled, and sinned, for women. ²⁸ And now do ye not believe me? is not the king great in his power? do not all regions fear to touch him? ²⁹ Yet did I see him and Apame the king's concubine, the daughter of the illustrious Bartacus, sitting ³⁰ at the right hand of the king, and taking the crown from the king's head, and setting it upon her own head; yea, she struck the king with her left hand: ³¹ and therewithal the kingaped and gazed upon her with open mouth: if she laughed upon him, he laughed also: but if she took any displeasure at him, he was fain to flatter, that she might be reconciled to him again. ³² O sirs, how can it be but women should be strong, seeing they do thus?

³³ Then the king and the nobles looked one upon another: so he began to speak concerning truth. ³⁴ O sirs, are not women strong? great is the earth, high is the heaven, swift is the sun in his course, for he compasseth the heavens round about, and fetcheth his course again to his own place in one day. ³⁵ Is he not great that maketh these things? therefore great is ³⁶ truth, and stronger than all things. ³⁷ All the earth calleth upon truth, and the heaven bleaseth her: all works shake and tremble, but with ³⁸ her is no unrighteous thing. ³⁹ Wine is unrighteous, the king is unrighteous, women are unrighteous, all the children of men are unrighteous, and unrighteous are all such their works; and ⁴⁰ there is no truth in them; in their unrighteousness also they shall perish. ⁴¹ But truth abideth, and is strong for ever; she liveth and conquereth for evermore. ⁴² With her there is ⁴³ no accepting of persons or rewards; but she doeth the things that are just, and refraineth from all unrighteous and wicked things; and all men do well like of her works. ⁴⁴ Neither in her judgement is any unrighteousness; and she is ⁴⁵ the strength, and the kingdom, and the power, and the majesty, of all ages. Blessed be the ⁴⁶ God of truth. ⁴⁷ And with that he held his tongue. And all the people then shouted, and said, Great is truth, and strong above all things.

⁴⁸ Then said the king unto him, Ask what thou wilt more ⁴⁹ than is appointed in writing, and we will give it thee, inasmuch as thou art found wisest; and thou ⁵⁰ shalt sit next me, and shalt be called my cousin. ⁵¹ Then said he unto the king, Remember thy vow, which thou didst vow to build Jerusalem, in the day when thou camest to thy kingdom, ⁵² and to send away all the vessels that were taken out of Jerusalem, which Cyrus set apart, when he vowed to destroy Babylon, and vowed to send them again thither. ⁵³ Thou didst also vow to build up the temple, which ⁵⁴ the Edomites burned when Judaea was made desolate by the Chaldeans. ⁵⁵ And now, O lord the king, this is that which I require, and which I desire of thee, and this is the princely liberality ⁵⁶ that shall proceed from thee: I pray therefore that thou make good the vow, the performance whereof thou hast vowed to ⁵⁷ the King of heaven with thine own mouth.

⁵⁸ Then Darius the king stood up, and kissed him, and wrote letters for him unto all the treasurers and governors and captains and satraps, that they should safely bring on their way both him, and all those that should go up with him to build Jerusalem. ⁵⁹ He wrote letters also unto all the governors that were in ⁶⁰ Coelestria and Phenicia, and unto them in ⁶¹ Libanus, that they should bring cedar wood from ⁶² Libanus unto Jerusalem, and that they should build the city with him. ⁶³ Moreover he wrote for all the Jews that should go out of his realm up into Jewry, concerning their freedom, that no officer, no governor, no satrap, nor treasurer, should forcibly enter into their doors; ⁶⁴ and that all the country which they occupied should be free to them without tribute; and that ⁶⁵ the Edomites should give over the villages of the Jews which then they held: ⁶⁶ and that there should be yearly given twenty talents to the building of the temple, until the time that it were built; ⁶⁷ and other ten talents yearly, for burnt offerings to be presented upon the altar ⁶⁸ every day, as they had a commandment to offer seventeen: ⁶⁹ and that all they that should come from Babylonia to build the city should have their freedom, as well they as their posterity, and all the priests that came. ⁷⁰ He wrote also to give them their charges, and the priests' vestments wherein they minister; ⁷¹ and for the Levites he wrote that their charges should be given them until the day that the house were finished, and Jerusalem builded up. ⁷² And he commanded to give to all that kept the city lands and wages. ⁷³ He sent away also all the vessels from Babylon, ⁷⁴ that Cyrus had set apart; and all that Cyrus had given in commandment, the same charged he also to be done, and sent unto Jerusalem.

⁷⁵ Now when this young man was gone forth, he lifted up his face to mules, five thousand five hundred twenty and five beasts of burien. ⁴⁴ And certain of the chief men of their families, when they came to the temple of God that is in Jerusalem, vowed to set up the house again in its own place according to their ability, ⁴⁵ and to give into the holy treasury of the works a thousand pounds of gold, five thousand of silver, and a hundred priestly vestments. ⁴⁶ And the priests and the Levites and they that were of the people dwelt in Jerusalem and the country; the holy singers also and the porters and all Israel in their villages.

⁴⁷ But when ⁴⁸ the seventh month was at hand, and when the children of Israel were every man in his own place, they came all together with one consent into ⁴⁹ the broad place before the first porch which is toward the east. ⁵⁰ Then stood up ⁵¹ Jesus the son of Josedek, and his brethren the priests, and ⁵² Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, and his brethren, and made ready the altar of the God of Israel, ⁵³ to offer burnt sacrifices upon it, according as it is expressly commanded in the book of Moses the man of God. ⁵⁴ And ⁵⁵ certain were gathered unto them out of the other nations of the land, and they erected the altar upon its own place, because all the nations of the land were at enmity with them, and oppressed them; ⁵⁶ and they offered sacrifices according to the time, and burnt offerings to the Lord both morning and evening. ⁵⁷ Also they held the feast of tabernacles, ⁵⁸ as it is commanded in the law, and offered sacrifices daily, as was meet: ⁵⁹ and after that, the continual oblations, and the sacrifices of the sabbaths, and of the new moons, and of all the consecrated feasts. ⁶⁰ And all they that had made any vow to God began to offer sacrifices to God from the new moon of ⁶¹ the ⁶² seventh month, although the temple of God was not yet built. ⁶³ And they gave money unto the masons and carpenters; and meat and drink, ⁶⁴ and cars unto them of Sidon and Tyre, that they should bring ⁶⁵ cedar trees from ⁶⁶ Libanus, ⁶⁷ and convey them in floats to the haven of ⁶⁸ Joppa, according to the commandment which was written for them by Cyrus king of the Persians. ⁶⁹ And in the second year after his coming to the temple of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, and Jesus the son of Josedek, and their brethren, and the priests the Levites, and all they that were come unto Jerusalem out of the captivity: ⁷⁰ and they laid the foundation of the temple of God on the new moon of the second month, in the second year after they were come to Jewry and Jerusalem. ⁵⁸ And they appointed the Levites from twenty years old over the works of the Lord. Then stood up ⁵⁹ Jesus, and his sons and brethren, and Kadmiel his brother, and the sons of Jesus, Emadabun, and the sons of Joda the son of Iliadun, and their sons and brethren, all the Levites, with one accord set forth of the business, labouring to advance the works in the house of God. So the builders builded the temple of the Lord. ⁶⁰ And the priests stood arrayed in their vestments ⁶¹ with musical instruments and trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with their cymbals, ⁶² singing songs of thanksgiving, and praising the Lord, after the order of David king of Israel. ⁶³ And they sang aloud, praising the Lord in songs of thanksgiving, because his goodness and his glory are for ever in all Israel. ⁶⁴ And all the people sounded trumpets, and shouted with a loud voice, singing songs of thanksgiving unto the Lord for the rearing up of the house of the Lord. ⁶⁵ Also of the priests the Levites, and of the heads of their families, the ancients who had seen the former house came to the building of this with lamentation and great weeping. ⁶⁶ But many with trumpets and joy ⁶⁷ shouted with loud voice, ⁶⁸ insomuch that the people heard not the trumpets for the weeping of the people: for the multitude sounded marvellously, so that it was heard afar off. ⁶⁹ Wherefore when the enemies of the tribe of Judah and Benjamin heard it, they came to know what that noise of trumpets should mean. ⁷⁰ And they perceived that they that were of the captivity did build the temple unto the Lord, the God of Israel. ⁷¹ So they went to Zorobabel and ⁷² Jesus, and to the chief men of the families, and said unto them, We will build together with you. ⁷³ For we likewise, as ye, do obey your Lord, and do sacrifice unto him from the days of ⁷⁴ Asbasareth the king of the Assyrians, who brought us hither. ⁷⁵ Then Zorobabel and Jesus and the chief men of the families of Israel said unto them, It is not ⁷⁶ for you to build the house unto the Lord our God. ⁷⁷ We ourselves alone will build unto the Lord of Israel, according as Cyrus the king of the Persians hath commanded us. ⁷⁸ But the heathen of the land lying heavy upon the inhabitants of Judaea, and ⁷⁹ holding them strait, hindered their building; ⁸⁰ and ⁸¹ by their secret plots, and popular persuasions and commotions, they hindered the finishing of the building all the time that king Cyrus lived: so they were hindered from building for the space of two years, until the reign of Darius.

¹ Now ² in the second year of the reign of Darius, ³ Aggeus and Zacharias the son of ⁴ Addo, the prophets, prophesied unto the Jews in Jewry and Jerusalem; in the name of the Lord, the God of Israel, ⁵ prophesied they unto them. ⁶ Then stood up Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, and Jesus the son of Josedek, and began to build the house of the Lord at Jerusalem, the prophets of the Lord being with them, ⁷ and helping them. ⁸ At the same time came unto them ⁹ Sisinnies the governor of ¹⁰ Syria and Phenicia, with ¹¹ Sathrabuzanes and his companions, and said unto them, ¹² By whose appointment do ye build this house and this roof, and perform all the other things? and who are the builders that perform these things? ¹³ Nevertheless the elders of the Jews obtained favour, because the Lord had ¹⁴ visited the captivity; ¹⁵ and they were not hindered from building, until such time as communication was made unto Darius concerning them, and his answer signified.

⁷ The copy of the letter which Sisinnies, governor of ⁸ Syria and Phenicia, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions, the rulers in ⁹ Syria and Phenicia, wrote and sent unto Darius; ¹⁰ To king Darius, ¹¹ greeting: Let all things be known unto our lord the king, that being come into the country of Judaea, and entered into the city of Jerusalem, we found in the city of Jerusalem the elders of the Jews that were of the captivity ¹² building a house unto the Lord, great and new, of hewn and costly stones, with timber laid in the walls. ¹³ And those works are done with great speed, and the work goeth on prosperously in their hands, and with all glory and diligence is it accomplished. ¹⁴ Then asked we these elders, saying, By whose commandment build ye this house, and lay the foundations of these works? ¹⁵ Therefore, to the intent that we might give knowledge unto thee by writing who were the chief doers, we questioned them, and we required of them the names in writing of their principal men. ¹⁶ So they gave us this answer, We are the servants of the Lord which made heaven and earth. ¹⁷ And as for this house, it was builded many years ago by a king of Israel great and strong, and was finished. ¹⁸ But when our fathers sinned against the Lord of Israel which is in heaven, and ¹⁹ provoked him unto wrath, he gave them over into the hands of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, king of the Chaldeans; ¹⁶and they pulled down the house, and burned it, and carried away the people captives unto Babylon. ¹⁷But in the first year that Cyrus reigned over the country of Babylon, king Cyrus wrote to build up this house. ¹⁸And the holy vessels of gold and of silver, that Nabuchodonosor had carried away out of the house at Jerusalem, and had set up in his own temple, ¹⁹those Cyrus the king brought forth again out of the temple in Babylonia, and they were delivered to Zorobabel and to ²⁰Sanabassar the governor, ²¹with commandment that he should carry away ²²all these vessels, and put them in the temple at Jerusalem; and that the temple of the Lord should be built in its place. ²³Then ²⁴Sanabassar, being come hither, laid the foundations of the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem; and from that time to this being still a building, it is not yet fully ended. ²⁵Now therefore, if it seem good, O king, let search be made among the royal archives of our lord the king that are in Babylon: ²⁶and if it be found that the building of the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem hath been done with the consent of king Cyrus, and it seem good unto our lord the king, let him signify unto us thereof.

²⁷Then commanded king Darius to seek among the archives that were laid up at Babylon: and so at ²⁸Ecbatana the palace, which is in the country of Media, there was found ²⁹a roll wherein these things were recorded. ³⁰In the first year of the reign of Cyrus king Cyrus commanded to build up the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem, where they do sacrifice with ³¹continual fire: ³²whose height shall be sixty cubits, and the breadth sixty cubits, with three rows of hewn stones, and one row of new wood of that country; and the expenses thereof to be given out of the house of king Cyrus: ³³and that ³⁴the holy vessels of the house of the Lord, both of gold and silver, that Nabuchodonosor took out of the house at Jerusalem, and carried away to Babylon, should be restored to the house at Jerusalem, and be set in the place where they were before. ³⁵And also he commanded that Sisinnus the governor of ³⁶Syria and Phoenicia, and Sathrabuzanes, and their companions, and those which were appointed rulers in Syria and Phoenicia, should be careful not to meddle with the place, but suffer Zorobabel, the servant of the Lord, and governor of Judaea, and the elders of the Jews, to build that house of the Lord in its place. ³⁶And I also do command to have it built up whole again; and that they look diligently to help those that be of the captivity of Judaea, till the house of the Lord be finished: ³⁷and that out of the tribute of ³⁸Coelesyria and Phoenicia a portion be carefully given these men for the sacrifices of the Lord, ³⁹that is, to Zorobabel the governor, for bullocks, and rams, and lambs; ⁴⁰and also corn, salt, wine, and oil, and that continually every year without further question, according as the priests that be in Jerusalem shall signify to be daily spent: ⁴¹that drink offerings may be made to the ⁴²Most High God for the king and for his children, and that they may pray for their lives. ⁴³And that commandment be given that whosoever shall transgress, yea, or neglect anything ⁴⁴herein written, out of his own house shall a tree be taken, and he thereon be hanged, and all his goods seized for the king. ⁴⁵The Lord therefore, whose name is there called upon, utterly destroy every king and nation, that shall stretch out his hand to hinder or endamage that house of the Lord in Jerusalem. ⁴⁶I Darius the king have ordained that according unto these things it be done with diligence.

7 ¹Then Sisinnus the governor of ²Coelesyria and Phoenicia, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions, following the commandments of king Darius, ³did very carefully oversee the holy works, assisting the elders of the Jews and rulers of the temple. ⁴And so the holy works prospered, while Aggeus and Zacharias the prophets prophesied. ⁵And they finished these things by the commandment of the Lord, the God of Israel, and with the consent of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes, kings of the Persians. ⁶And ⁷thus was ⁸the house finished by the ⁹three and twentieth day of the month Adar, in the sixth year of king Darius. ¹⁰And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the other that were of the captivity, that were added unto ¹¹them, did according to the things written in the book of Moses. ¹²And to the dedication of the temple of the Lord they offered a hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; ¹³and twelve he-goats for the sin of all Israel, according to the number of the twelve ¹⁴princes of the tribes of Israel. ¹⁵The priests also and the Levites stood arrayed in their vestments, according to their kindreds, for the services of the Lord, ¹⁶the God of Israel, according to the book of Moses: and the porters at every gate.

¹⁷And the children of Israel that came out of the captivity held the passover the fourteenth day of the first month, when the priests and the Levites were sanctified together, ¹¹and all they that were of the captivity; for they were sanctified. For the Levites were all sanctified together, ¹²and they offered the passover for all them of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves. ¹³And the children of Israel that came out of the captivity did eat, even all they that had separated themselves from the abominations of the heathen of the land, and sought the Lord. ¹⁴And they kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days, making merry before the Lord, ¹⁵for that he had turned the counsel of ¹⁶the king of Assyria toward them, to strengthen their hands in the works of the Lord, ¹⁷the God of Israel.

¹⁸And after these things, when Artaxerxes the king of the Persians reigned, came ¹⁹Esdra the son of Azarias, the son of Zechrias, the son of Helkias, the son of Salem, ²⁰the son of Sadduk, the son of Ahitob, the son of Amarias, the son of Ozias, ²¹the son of Memeroth, the son of Zarias, the son of Savias, the son of Boccas, the son of Abisue, the son of Phinees, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest. ²²This Esdras went up from Babylon, as being a ready scribe in the law of Moses, that was given by ²³the God of Israel. ²⁴And the king did him honour: for he found grace in his sight in all his requests. ²⁵There went up with him also certain of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and Levites, and holy singers, and porters, and ²⁶temple-servants, unto Jerusalem. ²⁷In the seventh year of the reign of Artaxerxes, in the fifth month, this was the king's seventh year; for they went from Babylon on the new moon of the first month, and came to Jerusalem, according to the ²⁸prosperous journey which the Lord gave them ²⁹for his sake. ³⁰For Esdras had very great skill, so that he omitted nothing of the law and commandments of the Lord, but taught all Israel the ordinances and judgements.

³¹Now the commission, which was written from Artaxerxes the king, came to Esdras the priest and ³²reader of the law of the Lord, whereof this that followeth is a copy; ³³King Artaxerxes unto Esdras the priest and ³⁴reader of the law of the Lord, ³⁵greeting: ³⁶Having determined to deal graciously, I have given order, that such of the nation of the Jews, and of the priests and Levites, ³⁷and of those within our realm, as are willing and desirous, should go with thee unto Jerusalem. ³⁸As many therefore as have a mind thereunto, let them

depart with thee, as it hath seemed good both to me and ³⁹my seven friends the counsellors; ⁴⁰that they may look unto the affairs of Judea and Jerusalem, agreeably to that which is in the law of the Lord, ⁴¹and carry the gifts unto the Lord of Israel to Jerusalem, which I and my friends have vowed; and that all the gold and silver that can be found in the country of Babylonia for the Lord in Jerusalem, ⁴²with that also which is given of the people for the temple of the Lord their God that is at Jerusalem, be collected: even the gold and silver for bullocks, rams, and lambs, and things thereunto appertaining; ⁴³to the end that they may offer sacrifices unto the Lord upon the altar of the Lord their God, which is in Jerusalem. ⁴⁴And whatsoever thou and thy brethren are minded to do with gold and silver, that perform, according to the will of thy God. ⁴⁵And the holy vessels of the Lord, which are given thee for the use of the temple of thy God, which is in Jerusalem: ⁴⁶and whatsoever thing else thou shalt remember for the use of the temple of thy God, thou shalt give it out of the king's treasury. ⁴⁷And I king Artaxerxes have also commanded the keepers of the treasures in ⁴⁸Syria and Phoenicia, that whatsoever Esdras the priest and ⁴⁹reader of the law of the ⁵⁰Most High God shall send for, they should give it him with all diligence, ⁵¹so to the sum of a hundred talents of silver, likewise also of wheat even to a hundred ⁵²measures, and a hundred ⁵³firkins of wine, and ⁵⁴salt in abundance. ⁵⁵Let all things be performed after the law of God diligently unto the ⁵⁶Most High God, that wrath come not upon the kingdom of the king and his sons. ⁵⁷I command you also, that no tax, nor any other imposition, be laid on any of the priests, or Levites, or holy singers, or porters, or ⁵⁸temple-servants, or any that have employment in this temple, and that no man have authority to impose anything upon them. ⁵⁹And thou, Esdras, according to the wisdom of God ordain judges and justices, that they may judge in all ⁶⁰Syria and Phoenicia all those that know the law of thy God; and those that know it not thou shalt teach. ⁶¹And whosoever shall transgress the law of thy God, and of the king, shall be punished diligently, whether it be by death, or other punishment, by penalty of money, or by ⁶²imprisonment.

⁶³Then said Esdras the scribe, Blessed be the only Lord, the God of my fathers, who hath put these things into the heart of the king, to glorify his house that is in Jerusalem: ²⁶and hath honoured me in the sight of the king, and his counsellors, and all his friends and nobles. ²⁷Therefore was I encouraged by the help of the Lord my God, and gathered together out of Israel men to go up with me. ²⁸And these are the chief according to their families and the several divisions thereof, that went up with me from Babylon in the reign of king Artaxerxes: ²⁹of the sons of Phinees, Gerson: of the sons of Ithamar, Gamaiel: of the sons of David, ¹Attus ²the son of Sechenias: ³⁰of the sons of Phoros, Zacharias; and with him were counted a hundred and fifty men: ³¹of the sons of Phaath Moab, Elianias the son of ³Zaraias, and with him two hundred men: ³²of the sons of Zathoes, Sechenias the son of Jezelus, and with him ⁴three hundred men: of the sons of Adin, Obeth the son of Jonathan, and with him two hundred and fifty men: ³³of the sons of Elam, Jesias son of ⁵Gotholias, and with him seventy men: ³⁴of the sons of Saphatias, ⁷Zaraias son of Michael, and with him threescore and ten men: ³⁵of the sons of Joab, ⁸Abadias son of ⁹Jezelus, and with him two hundred and twelve men: ³⁶of the sons of Baniias, Salimoth son of Josaphias, and with him a hundred and threescore men: ³⁷of the sons of Babi, Zacharias son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight men: ³⁸of the sons of ¹¹Astath, Joannes son of ¹²Akatan, and with him a hundred and ten men: ³⁹of the sons of Adonikam, the last, and these are the names of them, Eliphalat, Jeuel, and ¹³Samaias, and with them seventy men: ⁴⁰of the sons of ¹⁴Bago, Uthi the son of Istalcurus, and with him seventy men.

⁴¹And I gathered them together to the river called ¹⁵Theras; and there we pitched our tents three days, and I surveyed them. ⁴²But when I had found there none of the priests and Levites, ⁴³then sent I unto Eleazar, and ¹⁶Iduel, and ¹⁷Maasmas, ⁴⁴and Elnathan, and Samaias, and ¹⁸Joribus, Nathan, Ennatan, Zacharias, and Moellamus, principal men and men of understanding. ⁴⁵And I bade them that they should go unto ¹⁹Loddens the captain, who was in the place of ²⁰the treasury: ⁴⁶and commanded them that they should speak unto Loddens, and to his brethren, and to the treasurers in that place, to send us such men as might execute the priests' office in the house of our Lord. ⁴⁷And by the mighty hand of our Lord they brought unto us ²¹men of understanding of the sons of ²²Mooli the son of Levi, the son of Israel, ²³Asebebias, and his sons, and his brethren, who were eighteen, ²⁴and ²⁵Asebias, and Annuns, and Osaiias his brother, of the sons of Chanunens, and their sons were twenty men; ⁴⁸and of ²⁶the temple-servants whom David and the principal men had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty temple-servants, the catalogue of all their names was shewed. ⁵⁰And there I vowed a fast for the young men before our Lord, to desire of him a ²⁷prosperous journey both for us and for our children and cattle that were with us: ⁵¹for I was ashamed to ask of the king footmen, and horsemen, and conduct for safeguard against our adversaries. ⁵²For we had said unto the king, that the power of our Lord would be with them that seek him, to support them in all ways. ⁵³And again we besought our Lord as touching these things, and found him favourable unto us. ⁵⁴Then I separated twelve men of the chiefs of the priests, ²⁸Aseerebias, and Assamias, and ten men of their brethren with them: ⁵⁵and I ²⁹weighed them the silver, and the gold, and the holy vessels of the house of our Lord, which the king, and his counsellors, and the nobles, and all Israel, had given. ⁵⁶And when I had weighed it, I delivered unto them six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels of a hundred talents, and a hundred talents of gold, ⁵⁷and twenty golden vessels, and ³⁰twelve vessels of brass, even of fine brass, glittering like gold. ⁵⁸And I said unto them, Both ye are holy unto the Lord, ³¹and the vessels are holy, and the gold and the silver are a vow unto the Lord, the Lord of our fathers. ⁵⁹Watch ye, and keep them till ye deliver them to the chiefs of the priests and Levites, and to the principal men of the families of Israel, in Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of our Lord. ⁶⁰So the priests and the Levites, who received the silver and the gold and the vessels which were in Jerusalem, brought them into the temple of the Lord.

⁶¹And from the river ³²Theras we departed the twelfth day of the first month, until we came to Jerusalem, by the mighty hand of our Lord which was upon us: and the Lord delivered us from assault by the way, from every enemy, and so we came to Jerusalem. ⁶²And when we had been there three days, the silver and gold was ³³weighed and delivered in the house of our Lord on the fourth day unto ³⁴Marmoth the priest the son of ³⁵Urias. ⁶³And with him was Eleazar the son of Phinees, and with them were Josabab the son of Jesus and ¹Moeth the son of Sabannus, the Levites: all was delivered them by number and weight. ⁶⁴And all the weight of them was written up the same hour. ⁶⁵Moreover they that were come out of the captivity offered sacrifices unto the Lord, ⁶⁶the God of Israel, even twelve bullocks for all Israel, four-score and sixteen rams, ⁶⁷threescore and twelve lambs, goats for a peace offering, twelve; all of them a sacrifice to the Lord. ⁶⁸And they delivered the king's commandments unto the king's stewards, and to the governors of ⁶⁹Coele-syria and Phenicia; and they honoured the people and the temple of the Lord.

⁶⁹Now when these things were done, the principal men came unto me, and said, ⁷⁰The nation of Israel, and the princes, and the priests and the Levites, have not put away from them the strange people of the land, ⁷¹nor the uncleannesses of the Gentiles, to wit, of the Canaanites, Hittites, Perezites, Jebusites, and the Moabites, Egyptians, and ⁷²Edomites. ⁷³For both they and their sons have married with their daughters, and the holy seed is mixed with the strange people of the land; and from the beginning of this matter the rulers and the nobles have been partakers of this iniquity. ⁷⁴And as soon as I had heard these things, I rent my clothes, and my holy garment, and plucked the hair from off my head and beard, and sat me down sad and full of heaviness. ⁷⁵So all they that were moved at the word of the Lord, ⁷⁶the God of Israel, assembled unto me, whilst I mourned for the iniquity: but I sat still full of heaviness until the evening sacrifice. ⁷⁷Then rising up from the fast with my clothes and my holy garment rent, and bowing my knees, and stretching forth my hands unto the Lord, ⁷⁸I said, O Lord, I am ashamed and confounded before thy face; ⁷⁹for our sins are multiplied above our heads, and our errors have reached up unto heaven, ⁸⁰ever since the time of our fathers; and we are in great sin, even unto this day. ⁸¹And for our sins and our fathers' we with our brethren and our kings and our priests were given up unto the kings of the earth, to the sword, and to captivity, and ⁸²for a prey with shame, unto this day. ⁸³And now in some measure hath mercy been shewed unto us from thee, O Lord, that there should be left us ⁸⁴a root and a name in the place of thy sanctuary; ⁸⁵and to discover unto us a light in the house of the Lord our God, and to give us ⁸⁶food in the time of our servitude. ⁸⁷Yea, when we were in bondage, we were not forsaken of our Lord; but he made us gracious before the kings of Persia, so that they gave us ⁸⁸food, ⁸⁹and glorified the temple of our Lord, and raised up the desolate Sion, to give us a sure abiding in Jewry and Jerusalem. ⁹⁰And now, O Lord, what shall we say, having these things? for we have transgressed thy commandments, which thou gavest by the hand of thy servants the prophets, saying, ⁹¹That the land, which ye enter into to possess as a heritage, is a land polluted with the pollutions of the strangers of the land, and they have filled it with their uncleanness. ⁹²Therefore now shall ye not join your daughters unto their sons, neither shall ye take their daughters unto your sons. ⁹³Neither shall ye seek to have peace with them for ever, that ye may be strong, and eat the good things of the land, and that ye may leave it for an inheritance unto your children for evermore. ⁹⁴And all that is befallen is done unto us for our wicked works and great sins: for thou, O Lord, didst make our sins light, ⁹⁵and didst give unto us such ⁹⁶a root: but we have turned back again to transgress thy law, in mingling ourselves with the uncleanness of the heathen of the land. ⁹⁷Thou wast not angry with us to destroy us, till thou ⁹⁸hadst left us neither ⁹⁹root, seed, nor name. ¹⁰⁰O Lord of Israel, thou art true: for we are left ¹⁰¹a root this day. ¹⁰²Behold, now are we before thee in our iniquities, for we cannot stand any longer before thee by reason of these things.

¹⁰³And as Esdras in his prayer made his confession, weeping, and lying flat upon the ground before the temple, there gathered unto him from Jerusalem a very great throng of men and women and children: for there was great weeping among the multitude. ¹⁰⁴Then Jechonias the son of Jeelus, one of the sons of Israel, called out, and said, O Esdras, we have sinned against the Lord God, we have married strange women of the heathen of the land, and now is all Israel ¹⁰⁵aloft. ¹⁰⁶Let us make an oath unto the Lord herein, that we will put away all our wives, which ¹⁰⁷we have taken of the strangers, with their children, ¹⁰⁸like as seemeth good unto thee, and to as many as do obey the law of the Lord. ¹⁰⁹Arise, and put in execution: for to thee doth this matter appertain, and we will be with thee to do valiantly. ¹¹⁰So Esdras arose, and took an oath of the chief of the priests and Levites of all Israel to do after these things; and so they sware.

¹¹¹Then Esdras rising from the court of the temple went to the chamber of Jonas the son of Eliasib, and lodged there, and did eat no bread

nor drink water, mourning for the great iniquities of the multitude. ³ And there was made proclamation in all Jewry and Jerusalem to all them that were of the captivity, that they should be gathered together at Jerusalem: ⁴ and that whosoever met not there within two or three days, according as the elders that bare rule appointed, their cattle should be seized to the use of the temple, and himself cast out from the multitude of them that were of the captivity.

⁵ And in three days were all they of the tribe of Judah and Benjamin gathered together at Jerusalem: this was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month. ⁶ And all the multitude sat together trembling in the broad place before the temple because of the present foul weather. ⁷ So Esdras arose up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed the law and married strange wives, thereby to increase the sins of Israel. ⁸ And now make confession and give glory unto the Lord, the God of our fathers, and do his will, and separate yourselves from the heathen of the land, and from the strange women. ⁹ Then cried the whole multitude, and said with a loud voice, Like as thou hast spoken, so will we do. ¹⁰ But forasmuch as the multitude is great, and it is foul weather, so that we cannot stand without, and this is not a work of one day or two, seeing our sin in these things is spread far: ¹¹ therefore let the rulers of the multitude stay, and let all them of our habitations that have strange wives come at the time appointed, ¹² and with them the rulers and judges of every place, till we turn away the wrath of the Lord from us for this matter. ¹³ Then Jonathan the son of Azazel and ¹⁴ Ezekias the son of Thocanus accordingly took the matter upon them: and Mosollamus and Levis and Sabbateus were assessors to them. ¹⁵ And they that were of the captivity did according to all these things.

¹⁶ And Esdras the priest chose unto him principal men of their families, all by name: and on the new moon of the tenth month they were shut in together to examine the matter. ¹⁷ So their cause that held strange wives was brought to an end by the new moon of the first month. ¹⁸ And of the priests that were come together, and had strange wives, there were found; ¹⁹ of the sons of ²⁰ Jesus the son of Josedek, and his brethren; ²¹ Mathelas, and Eleazar, and ²² Joribus, and ²³ Joadanus. ²⁴ And they gave their hands to put away their wives, and to offer rams to make recon-

⁷⁸ And the whole multitude were gathered together with one accord into the broad place before the porch of the temple toward the east: ⁷⁹ and they said unto Esdras the priest and ⁸⁰ reader, Bring the law of Moses, that was given of the Lord, the God of Israel. ⁸¹ So Esdras ⁸² the chief priest brought the law unto the whole multitude both of men and women, and to all the priests, to hear the law ⁸³ on the new moon of the seventh month. ⁸⁴ And he read in the broad place before the porch of the temple from morning unto midday, before both men and women; and ¹all the multitude gave heed unto the law. ²And Esdras the priest and ³reader of the law stood up upon the pulpit of wood, which was made for that purpose. ⁴And there stood up by him Mattathias, Sammus, Ananias, Azarias, Urias, ⁵Ezekias, ⁶Baalsamus, upon the right hand: ⁴and upon his left hand, ⁴Phaldeus, Misael, Melchias, ⁵Lothasubus, Nabarias, Zacharias. ⁴⁵Then took Esdras the book of the law before the multitude, and sat honourably in the first place before all. ⁴⁶And when he opened the law, they stood all straight up. So Esdras blessed the Lord God ²Most High, ³the God of hosts, Almighty. ⁴⁷And all the people answered, Amen; and lifting up their hands they fell to the ground, and worshipped the Lord. ⁴⁸Also Jesus, Annus, Sarabias, Iadinus, Jacubus, Sabateus, ⁶Auteas, Maiannas, and Calitas, Azarias, and Jozabbus, and Ananias, Phalias, the Levites, taught the law of the Lord, ¹and read to the multitude the law of the Lord, making them withal ²to understand it. ⁴⁹Then said ⁵Attharates unto Esdras 'the chief priest and ³reader, and to the Levites that taught the multitude, even to all, ⁵⁰This day is holy unto the Lord; (now they all wept when they heard the law: ⁵¹go then, and eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions ²to them that have nothing; ⁵²for the day is holy unto the Lord: and be not sorrowful; for the Lord will bring you to honour. ⁵³So the Levites published all things to the people, saying, This day is holy; be not sorrowful. ⁵⁴Then went they their way, every one to eat and drink, and make merry, and to give portions ²to them that had nothing, and to make great cheer; ⁵⁵because ⁵they ⁶understood the words wherein they were instructed, and for the which they had been assembled.

II. ESDRAS.

¹THE second book of the prophet I ²Esdras, the son of Saraïas, the son of Azaraias, the son of Helkias, the son of Salemas, the son of Sadoc, the son of Ahitob, ³the son of Achias, the son of Phinees, the son of Heli, the son of Amarias, the son of Azieï, the son of Marimoth, the son of Arna, the son of Ozias, the son of Borith, the son of Abisset, the son of Phinees, the son of Eleazar, ³the son of Aaron, of the tribe of Levi; which was captive in the land of the Medes, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of the Persians.

⁴And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, ⁵Go thy way, and ⁶shew my people their sinful deeds, and their children their wickedness which they have done against me; that they may tell their children's children: ⁶because the sins of their fathers are increased in them: for they have forgotten me, and ⁶have done sacrifice unto strange gods. ⁷Did not I ⁴bring them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage? but they have provoked me unto wrath, and despised my counsels. ⁸Shake thou then the hair of thy head, and cast all evils upon them, for they have not been obedient unto my law, ⁷but it is a rebellious people. ⁹How long shall I forbear them, unto whom I have done so much good? ¹⁰Many kings have I overthrown for their sakes; ¹Pharaoh with his servants and all his host have I smitten down. ¹¹All the nations have I destroyed before them, and in the east I have scattered the people of two provinces, even of ²Tyre and ¹Sidon, and have slain all their adversaries. ¹²Speak thou therefore unto them, saying,

Thus saith the Lord, ¹³Of a truth I brought you through the sea, and ²where there was no path I made for you highways; I gave you ²Moses for a leader, and ²Aaron for a priest. ¹⁴I ²gave you light in a pillar of fire, and great wonders have I done among you; ¹⁵yet have ye forgotten me, saith the Lord.

¹⁵Thus saith the Lord Almighty, ¹⁶The quails were for a token to you; ¹⁷I gave you a camp for your safeguard, nevertheless ¹⁸ye murmured there: ¹⁹and ye triumphed not in my name for the destruction of your enemies, but ever to this day do ye yet murmur. ²⁰Where are the benefits that I have done for you? when ye were hungry and thirsty in the wilderness, did ye not cry unto me, ²¹saying, ²²'Why hast thou brought us into this wilderness to kill us?' ²³It had been better for us to have served the Egyptians, than to die in this wilderness. ²⁴I had pity upon your mournings, and ²⁵gave you manna for food; ye did eat ²⁶'angels' bread. ²⁷When ye were thirsty, did I not ^vcleave the rock, and waters flowed out to your fill? for the heat I covered you ^swith the leaves of the trees. ²¹I divided among you fruitful lands; I cast out the ^aCanaanites, the Pherezites, ^band the Philistines, before you: ^cwhat shall I yet do more for you? saith the Lord.

²²Thus saith the Lord Almighty, When ye were in the wilderness, at ^dthe bitter river, being athirst, and blaspheming my name, ^eI gave you not fire for your blasphemies, but ^fcast a tree in the water, and made the river sweet. ²⁴What shall I do unto thee, O Jacob? ^gthou, Judah, wouldst not obey me: ^hI will turn me to other nations, and unto them will I give my name, that they may keep my statutes. ²⁵ⁱSeeing ye have forsaken me, I also will forsake you; when ye ask me to be merciful unto you, I will have no mercy upon you. ²⁶Whensoever ye shall call upon me, I will not hear you: for ye have defiled your hands with blood, ^jand your feet are swift to commit manslaughter. ²⁷Ye have not as it were forsaken me, but your own selves, saith the Lord.

²⁸Thus saith the Lord Almighty, Have I not prayed you as a father his sons, as a mother her daughters, and ^ka nurse her young babes, ²⁹that ^lye would be my people, and I should be your God; that ye would be my children, and I should be your father? ³⁰^mI gathered you together, as a hen ⁿgathereth her chickens under her wings: but now, what shall I do unto you? I will cast you out from my presence. ³¹^oWhen ye offer oblations unto me, I will turn my face from you: for your solemn feast days, your new moons, and your circumcisions of the flesh, have I rejected. ³²^pI sent unto you my servants the prophets, whom ye have taken and slain, and torn their bodies in pieces, ^qwhose blood I will require of ^ryour hands, saith the Lord.

³³Thus saith the Lord Almighty, ^sYour house is desolate, I will cast you out ^tas the wind doth stubble. ³⁴And ^uyour children shall not be fruitful; for they have neglected my commandment ^vunto you, and done that which is evil before me. ³⁵Your houses will I give to a people that shall come; ^wwhich not having heard of me yet believe me; they to whom I have shewed no signs shall do that which I have commanded. ³⁶They have seen no prophets, yet they shall call their former estate to remembrance. ³⁷I take to witness the grace of the people that shall come, whose little ones rejoice with gladness: ^xand though they see me not with bodily eyes, yet in spirit they shall believe the thing that I say.

³⁸And now, O father, behold with glory; and ^ysee the people that come from the east: ³⁹unto whom I will give for leaders, ^zAbraham, Isaac, and Jacob, ⁴⁰Osese, Amos, and Micah, Joel, Abdias, and Jonas, ⁴¹Nahum, and Abacuc, Sophonias, Aggeus, Zachary, and Malachy, ⁴²which is called also the angel of the Lord.

⁴³Thus saith the Lord, ⁴⁴I brought 2 this people out of bondage, and I gave them my commandments by my servants the prophets; ⁴⁵whom they would not hear, but set my counsels at naught. ⁴⁶The mother that bare them saith unto them, ⁴⁷Go your way, O my children; ⁴⁸for I am a widow and forsaken. ⁴⁹I brought you up with gladness, and with sorrow and heaviness have I lost you: for ye have sinned before the Lord God, and done that which is evil before me. ⁵⁰But what shall I now do unto you? ⁵¹for I am a widow and forsaken: ⁵²go your way, O my children, and ask mercy of the Lord. ⁵³As for me, O father, I call upon thee for a witness over the mother of ⁵⁴these children, because they would not keep my covenant, ⁵⁵that thou bring them to confusion, ⁵⁶and their mother to a spoil, that ⁵⁷there may be no offspring of them. ⁵⁸Let them be scattered abroad among the heathen, let their names be blotted out of the earth: for they have despised my ⁵⁹covenant. ⁶⁰Woe unto thee, Assur, ⁶¹thou that hidest the unrighteous with thee! O thou wicked nation, remember ⁶²what I did unto Sodom and Gomorrah; ⁶³whose land lieth in clods of pitch and heaps of ashes: even so also will I do unto them that have not hearkened unto me, saith the Lord Almighty.

⁶⁴Thus saith the Lord unto Esdras, Tell my people that I will give them the kingdom of Jerusalem, which I would have given unto Israel. ⁶⁵Their glory also will I take unto me, and give these ⁶⁶the everlasting tabernacles, which I had prepared for them. ⁶⁷They shall have ⁶⁸the tree of life for an ointment of sweet savour; they shall neither labour, nor be weary. ⁶⁹Ask, and ye shall receive: pray for few days unto you, ⁷⁰that they may be shortened: ⁷¹the kingdom is already prepared for you: ⁷²watch. ⁷³Take heaven and earth to witness, take them to witness; for I have given up the evil, and created the good: for I live, saith the Lord.

⁷⁴Mother, embrace thy children; I will bring them out with gladness ⁷⁵like a dove; ⁷⁶establish their feet; ⁷⁷for I have chosen thee, saith the Lord. ⁷⁸And ⁷⁹those that be dead will I raise up again from their places, and bring them out of the tombs: for I ⁸⁰have known my name in them. ⁸¹Fear not, ⁸²thou mother of the children: for I have chosen thee, saith the Lord. ²⁸For thy help will I send my servants Esaias and ²⁹Jeremy, after whose counsel I have sanctified and prepared for thee ³⁰twelve trees laden with divers fruits, ³¹and as many fountains flowing with milk and honey, and seven mighty mountains, whereupon there grow roses and lilies, whereby I will fill thy children with joy. ³²Do right to the widow, judge the fatherless, give to the poor, defend the orphan, ³³clothe the naked, ³⁴heal the broken and the weak, laugh not a lame man to scorn, defend the maimed, and let the blind man come unto the sight of my glory. ³⁵Keep the old and young within thy walls. ³⁶Whosoever thou findest the dead, set a sign upon them and commit them to the grave, and ³⁷I will give thee the first place in my resurrection. ³⁸Abide still, O my people, and take thy rest, for thy quietness shall come. ³⁹Nourish thy children, O thou good nurse, and ⁴⁰establish their feet. ⁴¹As for the servants whom I have given thee, there shall not one of them perish; for I will require them from among thy number. ⁴²Be not careful overmuch: for when the day of tribulation and anguish cometh, ⁴³others shall weep and be sorrowful, but thou shalt be merry and have abundance. ⁴⁴The nations shall envy thee, but they shall be able to do nothing against thee, saith the Lord. ⁴⁵My hands shall cover thee, so that thy children see not ⁴⁶hell. ⁴⁷Be joyful, ⁴⁸O thou mother, with thy children; for I will deliver thee, saith the Lord. ⁴⁹Remember thy children that sleep, for I shall bring them out of the secret places of the earth, and shew mercy unto them: for I am merciful, saith the Lord Almighty. ⁵⁰Embrace thy children until I come, and proclaim mercy unto them: for my wells run over, and my grace shall not fail.

³¹ Esdras received a charge from the Lord upon ³²the mount Horeb, that I should go unto Israel; but when I came unto them, they would none of me, and rejected the commandment of the Lord. ³⁴And therefore I say unto you, O ye nations, that hear and understand, look for ³⁵your shepherd, he shall give you everlasting ³⁶rest; ³⁷for he is high at hand, ³⁸that shall come in the end of the world. ³⁹Be ready to ⁴⁰the rewards of the kingdom, for ⁴¹the everlasting light shall shine upon you for evermore. ⁴²Flee ⁴³the shadow of this world, receive the joyfulness of ⁴⁴your glory: I call to witness my saviour openly. ⁴⁵O receive that which is given you of the Lord, and be joyful, giving thanks unto him ⁴⁶that hath called you to heavenly kingdoms. ⁴⁷Arise up and stand, and behold ⁴⁸the number of ⁴⁹those that be sealed ⁵⁰in the feast of the Lord; ⁵¹they that withdrew them from ⁵²the shadow of the world have received ⁵³glorious garments of the Lord. ⁵⁴Look upon thy number, O Sion, and make up the reckoning of those of thine that are ⁵⁵clothed in white, which have fulfilled the law of the Lord. ⁵⁶The number of thy children, whom thou longest for, is fulfilled: beseech the power of the Lord, that thy people, which have been called from the beginning, may be hallowed.

⁴⁰ I Esdras saw upon ⁴¹the mount Sion ⁴²a great multitude, whom I could not number, and they all praised the Lord with songs. ⁴³And in the midst of them there was a young man of a high stature, taller than all the rest, and upon every one of their heads ⁴⁴he set crowns, and was more exalted; whereat I marvelled greatly. ⁴⁵So I asked the angel, and said, ⁴⁶What are these, my Lord? ⁴⁷He answered and said unto me, These be they that have put off ⁴⁸the mortal clothing, and put on the immortal, and have confessed the name of God: now are they crowned, and ⁴⁹receive palms. ⁵⁰Then said I unto the angel, What young man is he that setteth crowns upon them, and giveth them palms in their hands? ⁵¹So he answered and said unto me, It is the Son of God, ⁵²whom they have confessed in the world. Then began I greatly to commend them that stood so stiffly for the name of the Lord. ⁵³Then the angel said unto me, Go thy way, and tell my people what manner of things, and how great wonders of the Lord God thou hast seen.

³ In the thirtieth year after ⁴the ruin of the city, I Salathiel (the same is Esdras) was in Babylon, and ⁵lay troubled upon my bed, and my thoughts came up over my heart: ⁶for I saw the desolation of Sion, and ⁷the wealth of them that dwell at Babylon. ⁸And my spirit was sore moved, so that I began to speak words full of fear to the Most High, and said, ⁹O Lord that bearest rule, didst thou not speak at the beginning, when thou didst fashion the earth, and that thyself alone, and ¹⁰commandedst the ¹¹dust, and ¹²it ¹³gave thee Adam, a body without a soul? yet it was the workmanship of thine hands, and ¹⁴thou didst breathe into him the breath of life, and he was made living before thee. ¹⁵And thou leddest him into paradise, which thy right hand did plant, before ever the earth came forward. ¹⁶And unto him thou gavest ¹⁷thy one commandment: ¹⁸which he transgressed, and ¹⁹immediately thou appointedst death for him and in his generations; and there were born of him nations and tribes, peoples and kindreds, out of number. ⁸And every nation walked after their own will, and did ungodly things before thee, and despised thy commandments, and ⁹thou didst not forbid them. ¹⁰Nevertheless again in process of time thou broughtest the flood upon those that dwell in the world, and destroyedst them. ¹¹And it came to pass that the same hap befell them; like as death was to Adam, so was the flood to these. ¹²Nevertheless one of them thou leftest, ¹³Noah with his household, even all the righteous men that came of him. ¹⁴And it came to pass, that when they that dwell upon the earth began to multiply, they multiplied also children, and peoples, and many nations, and began again to be more ungodly than the first. ¹⁵And it came to pass, when they did wickedly before thee, ¹⁶thou didst choose thee one from among them, ¹⁷whose name was Abraham; ¹⁸and him thou lovedst, and ¹⁹unto him only thou shewedst the end of the times secretly by night: ²⁰and madest an everlasting covenant with him, promising him that thou wouldest never forsake his seed. ²¹And ²²unto him thou gavest Isaac, and ²³unto Isaac thou gavest Jacob and Esau. ²⁴And thou didst set apart Jacob for thyself, but didst put by Esau: and Jacob became a great multitude. ²⁵And it came to pass, that when thou leddest his seed out of Egypt, ²⁶thou broughtest them up to the mount Sinai. ²⁷Thou bowedst the heavens also, and ²⁸didst shake the earth, and movdest the whole world, and madest the depths to tremble, and troubledst the course of that age. ²⁹And thy glory went through four gates, of fire, and of earthquake, and of wind, and of cold; that thou mightest give the law unto the seed of Jacob, and the commandment unto the generation of Israel. ³⁰And yet tookest thou not away from them their ³¹wicked heart, that thy law might bring forth fruit in them. ³²For the first Adam bearing a ³³wicked heart transgressed, and was overcome; and not he only, but all they also that are born of him. ³⁴Thus disease was made permanent; ³⁵and the law was in the heart of the people along with the ³⁶wickedness of the root; so the good departed away, and that which was ³⁷wicked abode still. ³⁸So the times passed away, and the years were brought to an end: ³⁹then didst thou raise thee up a servant, called David, ⁴⁰whom thou commandedst to build a city ⁴¹unto thy name, and to offer oblations unto thee therein ⁴²of thine own. ⁴³When this was done many years, then they that inhabited the city did evil, ⁴⁴in all things doing even as Adam and all his generations had done: for they also bare a ⁴⁵wicked heart; ⁴⁶and so thou gavest thy city over into the hands of thine enemies. ⁴⁷And I said then in mine heart, ⁴⁸Are their deeds any better that inhabit Babylon? and hath she therefore dominion over Sion? ⁴⁹For it came to pass when I came hither, that I saw also impieties without number, and my soul saw many evil-doers in this ⁵⁰thirtieth year, so that my heart failed me. ⁵¹For I have seen how thou sufferest them sinning, and hast spared the ungodly doers, and hast destroyed thy people, and hast preserved thine enemies; and ⁵²thou hast not signified ⁵³unto any ⁵⁴how thy way may be comprehended. ⁵⁵Are the deeds of Babylon better than those of Sion? ⁵⁶Or is there any other nation that knoweth thee beside Israel? or what tribes have so believed thy covenants as these tribes of Jacob? ⁵⁷And yet their reward appeareth not, and their labour hath no fruit: for I have gone hither and thither through the nations, and I see that they abound ⁵⁸in wealth, and think not upon thy commandments. ⁵⁹Weigh thou therefore our iniquities now in the balance, and theirs also that dwell in the world; and so shall it be found which way the scale inclineth. ⁶⁰Or when was it that they which dwell upon the earth have not sinned in thy sight? or what nation hath so kept thy commandments? ⁶¹Thou shalt find that men who may be reckoned by name have kept thy precepts; but nations thou shalt not find.

⁶²And the angel that was sent unto me, whose name was ⁶³Uriel, gave me an answer, ⁶⁴and said to me, ⁶⁵Thy heart hath utterly failed thee in regarding this world, ⁶⁶and thinkest thou to comprehend the way of the Most High? ⁶⁷Then said I, Yea, my Lord.

And he answered me, and said, I am sent to shew thee three ways, and to set forth ⁶⁸three similitudes before thee: ⁶⁹whereof if thou canst declare me one, I also will shew thee the way that thou desirest to see, and I will teach thee wherefore the heart is ⁷⁰wicked.

⁷¹And I said, Say on, my Lord.

Then said he unto me, Go to, weigh me a weight of fire, or ⁷²measure me a ⁷³measure of wind, or call me again the day that is past.

⁷⁴Then answered I and said, Who of the sons of men is able to do this, that thou shouldest ask me of such things?

⁷⁵And he said unto me, If I had asked thee, saying, How many dwellings are there in the heart of the sea? ⁷⁶or how many springs are there at the fountain head of the deep? or how many ⁷⁷ways are above the firmament? or which are the outgoings ¹of hell? or which are the paths of ²paradise? ³peradventure thou wouldest say unto me, ⁴I never went down into the deep, nor as yet into hell, neither did I ever climb up into heaven. ⁵Nevertheless now have I asked thee but only of the fire and wind, and of the day, things where-through thou hast passed, and ⁶without which thou canst not be, and yet hast thou given me no answer of them.

⁷He said moreover unto me, Thine own things, that are grown up with thee, canst thou not know; ⁸how then can ⁹thy vessel ¹⁰comprehend the way of the Most High? and how can he that is already worn out with the corrupted world understand ¹¹incorruption?

¹²And when I heard these things / I fell upon my face, and said unto him, ¹³It were better that we were not here at all, than that we should come hither and live in the midst of ungodliness, and suffer, and not know wherefore.

¹⁴He answered me, and said, ¹⁵The woods of the trees of the field went forth, and took counsel together, ¹⁶and said, Come, let us go and make war against the sea, that it may depart away before us, and that we may make us more woods. ¹⁷The waves of the sea also in like manner took counsel together, and said, Come, let us go up and subdue the wood of the plain, that there also we may make us another country. ¹⁸The counsel of the wood was in vain, for ¹⁹the fire came and consumed it: ²⁰likewise also the counsel of the waves of the sea, for ²¹the sand stood up and stopped them. ²²If thou wert judge now betwixt these two, whom wouldest thou justify, or whom condemn?

²³I answered and said, It is a foolish counsel that they both have taken, for the ground is given unto the wood, and ²⁴the place of the sea is given to bear his waves.

²⁵Then answered he me, and said, Thou hast given a right judgement, and why judgest thou not in thine own case? ²⁶For like as the ground is given unto the wood, and the sea to his waves, ²⁷even so they that dwell upon the earth may understand nothing but that which is upon the earth: and he only that *dwell*eth above the heavens may understand the things that are above the height of the heavens.

²⁸Then answered I and said, I beseech thee, O Lord, ²⁹wherefore is the power of understanding given unto me? ³⁰For it was not my mind to be curious of the ways above, but of such things as pass by us daily; ³¹because Israel is given up as a reproach to the heathen, and the people whom thou hast loved ³²is given over unto ungodly nations, and the law of our forefathers is made of none effect, and the written covenants are nowhere regarded, ³³and we pass away out of the world ³⁴as grasshoppers, and ³⁵our life is as a vapour, neither are we worthy to obtain mercy. ³⁶What will he then do for his name ³⁷whereby we are called? Of these things have I asked.

³⁸Then answered he me, and said, If thou be alive, thou shalt see, and if thou livest ³⁹long, thou shalt marvel; ⁴⁰for the world hasteth fast to pass away. ⁴¹For it is not able to bear the things that are promised to the righteous in the times to come: ⁴²for this world is full of sadness and infirmities. ⁴³For the evil ⁴⁴whereof thou askest me is sown, but the gathering thereof is not yet come. ⁴⁵If therefore that which is sown be not reaped, and if the place where the evil is sown pass not away, there cannot come the field where the good is sown. ⁴⁶For a grain of evil seed was sown in the heart of Adam from the beginning, and how much wickedness hath it brought forth unto this time! and how much shall it yet bring forth ⁴⁷until the ⁴⁸time of threshing come! ⁴⁹Ponder now by thyself, how great fruit of wickedness a grain of evil seed hath brought forth. ⁵⁰When the ears which are without number shall be sown, how great a floor shall they fill!

⁵¹Then I answered and said, ⁵²How long? and when shall these things come to pass? wherefore are our years ⁵³few and evil?

⁵⁴And he answered me, and said, ⁵⁵Thou dost not hasten more than the Most High: for thy haste is ⁵⁶for thine own self, but he that is above hasteneth on behalf of many. ⁵⁷Did not the souls of the righteous ask question of these things in their ⁵⁸chambers, saying, How long ⁵⁹are we here? when cometh the fruit of the ⁶⁰threshing time of our reward? ⁶¹And unto them Jeremiel the archangel gave answer, and said, ⁶²Even when the number is fulfilled of them that are like unto you. ⁶³For he hath weighed the world in the balance; ⁶⁴and by measure hath he measured the times, and by number hath he numbered the seasons; and he shall not ⁶⁵move nor stir them, until the said measure be fulfilled.

⁶⁶Then answered I and said, ⁶⁷O Lord that bearest rule, ⁶⁸yet even we all are full of impiety: ⁶⁹and for our sakes peradventure it is that the ¹threshing time of the righteous is kept back, because of the sins of them that dwell upon the earth.

⁴⁰ So he answered me, and said, Go thy way to a woman with child, and ask of her when she hath fulfilled her nine months, if her womb may keep the birth any longer within her.

⁴¹ Then said I, No, Lord, that can it not.

And he said unto me, In the grave ²the chambers of souls are like the womb: ⁴² for like as a woman that travaileth maketh haste to escape the anguish of the travail: even so do these places haste to deliver those things that are committed unto them from the beginning. ⁴³ Then shall it be shewed thee concerning those things which thou desirest to see.

⁴⁴ Then answered I and said, ³ If I have found favour in thy sight, and if it be possible, and if I be meet therefore, ⁴⁵ shew me this also, whether there be more to come than is past, or whether the more part is gone over us. ⁴⁶ For what is gone I know, but what is for to come I know not.

⁴⁸ So I stood, and saw, and, behold, a hot burning oven passed by before me: and it happened, that when the flame was gone by I looked, and, behold, the smoke remained still. ⁴⁹ After this there passed by before me a watery cloud, and sent down much rain with a storm; and when the stormy rain was past, the drops remained therein still.

⁵⁰ Then said he unto me, Consider with thyself; as the rain is more than the drops, and as the fire is greater than the smoke, ⁵¹ so the quantity which is past did more exceed; but the drops and the smoke remained still.

⁵² Then I prayed, and said, May I live, thinkest thou, until that time? or who shall be in those days?

⁵³ He answered me, and said, ⁵⁴ As for the tokens whereof thou askest me, I may tell thee of them in part: but as touching thy life, I am not sent to shew thee; for I do not know it.

grant thee to live, thou shalt see ¹⁵ that which is after the third kingdom to be troubled; and the sun shall suddenly shine forth in the night, and the moon in the day: ¹⁶ and blood shall drop out of wood, and ¹⁷ the stone shall give his voice, and the peoples shall be troubled; and ¹⁸ their goings shall be changed: ¹⁹ and he shall rule, whom they that dwell upon the earth look not for, and the fowls shall take their flight away together: ²⁰ and the Sodomitish sea shall cast out fish, and make a noise in the night, which many have not known: but all shall hear the voice thereof. ²¹ There shall be chaos also in many places, and the fire shall be oft sent out, and the wild beasts shall change their places, and women shall bring forth monsters: ²² and ²³ salt waters shall be found in the sweet, and ²⁴ all friends shall destroy one another; ²⁵ then shall wit hide itself, and understanding withdraw itself into its chamber; ²⁶ and it shall be sought of many, and shall not be found: and ²⁷ unrighteousness and incontinency shall be multiplied upon earth. ²⁸ One land also shall ask another, and say, Is righteousness, is a man that doeth righteousness, gone through thee? And it shall say, No. ²⁹ And it shall come to pass at that time that men shall hope, but shall not obtain: they shall labour, but their ways shall not prosper. ³⁰ To shew thee such tokens I have leave; and if thou wilt pray again, and weep as now, and ³¹ fast seven days, thou shalt hear yet greater things than these.

³² Then I awaked, and an extreme trembling went through my body, and my mind was troubled, ³³ so that it fainted. ³⁴ So the angel that was come to talk with me held me, ³⁵ comforted me, and set me up upon my feet. ³⁶ And in the second night it came to pass, that ³⁷ Phaltiel the captain of the people came unto me, saying, Where hast thou been? ³⁸ why is thy countenance sad? ³⁹ or knowest thou not that Israel is committed unto thee in the land of their captivity? ⁴⁰ Up then, and eat some bread, and forsake us not, ⁴¹ as the shepherd that leaveth his flock in the hands of cruel wolves. ⁴² Then said I unto him, Go thy ways from me, and come not nigh me for ⁴³ seven days, and then shalt thou come unto me. And he heard what I said, and went from me.

⁴⁴ And so I ⁴⁵ fasted seven days, mourning and weeping, like as ⁴⁶ Uriel the angel commanded me. ⁴⁷ And after seven days so it was, ⁴⁸ that the thoughts of my heart were very grievous unto me again, ⁴⁹ and my soul ⁵⁰ recovered the spirit of understanding, and I began to speak words before the Most High again, ⁵¹ and said,

“O Lord that bearest rule, of all the woods of the earth, and of all the trees thereof, thou hast chosen thee / one vine: ²⁴and of all the lands of the world thou hast chosen thee one ¹country: and of all the flowers of the world thou hast chosen thee one ²lily: ²⁵and of all the depths of the sea thou hast filled thee ³one river: and of all builded cities / thou hast hallowed Zion unto thyself: ²⁶and of all the fowls that are created thou hast named thee ⁴one dove: and of all the cattle that are made thou hast provided thee one ⁵sheep: ²⁷and among all the multitudes of peoples thou hast gotten thee one people: and unto this people, ²⁸whom thou lovedst, thou gavest a law that is approved of all. ²⁹And now, O Lord, why hast thou given this one people over unto many, and ³⁰hast dishonoured the one root above others, ³¹and hast scattered thine only one among many? ³²And they which did gainsay thy promises have trodden them down that believed thy covenants. ³³If thou dost so much hate thy people, ³⁴they should be punished with thine own hands.

³⁵Now when I had spoken these words, ³⁶the angel that came to me the night afore was sent unto me, ³⁷and said unto me, Hear me, and I will instruct thee; hearken unto me, and I shall tell thee more.

³⁸And I said, Speak on, my Lord. Then said he unto me, Thou art sore troubled in mind for Israel's sake: ³⁹lovest thou that people better than he that made them?

⁴⁰And I said, No, Lord: but of very grief have I spoken: for my reins torment me every hour, while I labour ⁴¹to comprehend the way of the Most High, and to seek out part of his judgement.

⁴²And he said unto me, Thou canst not. And I said, Wherefore, Lord, or whereunto was I born? or ⁴³why was not my mother's womb then my grave, that I might not have seen the travail of Jacob, and the wearisome toil of the stock of Israel?

⁴⁴And he said unto me, ⁴⁵Number me them that are not yet come, gather me together the drops that are scattered abroad, make me the flowers green again that are withered, ⁴⁶open me ⁴⁷the chambers that are closed, and bring me forth the winds that in them are shut up, or shew me the image of a voice: and then I will declare to thee the travail that thou askest to see.

⁴⁸And I said, ⁴⁹O Lord that bearest rule, who may know these things, but he that hath not his dwelling with men? ⁵⁰As for me, I am unwise: how may I then speak of these things whereof thou askest me?

⁴⁰Then said he unto me, Like as thou canst do none of these things that I have spoken of, even so canst thou not find out my judgement, or ⁵¹the end of the love that I have promised unto my people.

⁴⁴And I said, But, lo, O Lord, thou hast made the promise unto them that be in the end: and what shall they that have been before us, or we ⁵²that be now, or they that shall come after us?

⁴⁸And he said unto me, I will liken my judgement unto a ring: ⁵³like as there is no slackness of them that be last, even so there is no swiftness of them that be first.

⁴³So I answered and said, Couldst thou not make them to be at once that have been made, and that be now, and that are for to come; ⁵⁴that thou mightest shew thy judgement the sooner?

⁴⁴Then answered he me, and said, ⁵⁵The creature may not haste above the creator; neither may the world hold them at once that shall be created therein.

⁴⁵And I said, How hast thou said unto thy servant, that ⁵⁶thou wilt surely make alive at once the creature that thou hast created? ⁵⁷If therefore they shall be alive at once, and the creature shall sustain them: even so it might now also support them to be present at once.

⁴⁶And he said unto me, Ask the womb of a woman, and say unto her, If thou bringest forth ten children, why ⁵⁸dost thou it at several times? pray her therefore to bring forth ten children at once.

⁴⁷And I said, She cannot: but must do it by distance of time.

⁴⁸Then said he unto me, Even so have I given ⁵⁹the womb of the earth to those that be sown therein in their several times. ⁴⁹For like as a young child may not bring forth, neither ⁶⁰she that is grown old bring forth any more, even so have I disposed the world which I created.

⁵⁰And I asked, and said, Seeing thou hast now shewed me the way, I will speak before thee: Is our mother, ⁶¹of whom thou hast told me, still young? or doth she now draw nigh unto age?

⁵²He answered me, and said, Ask a woman that beareth children, and she shall tell thee. ⁵³Say unto her, Wherefore are not they whom thou hast now brought forth like those that were before, but less of stature? ⁵⁴And she also shall answer thee, They that be born in the strength of youth are of one fashion, and they that are born in the time of age, when the womb faileth, are otherwise. ⁵⁵Consider therefore thou also, how that ⁵⁶ye are less of stature than those that were before you. 55 And so are they that come after you less than ye, as born of the creature which now beginneth to be old, and is past the strength of youth.

56 Then said I, Lord, I beseech thee, if I have found favour in thy sight, shew thy servant by whom thou visitest thy creature.

6 And he said unto me, In the beginning, when the earth was made, before the outgoings of the world were fixed, or ever the gatherings of the winds blew, before the voices of the thunder sounded and before the flashes of the lightning shone, or ever the foundations of Paradise were laid, before the fair flowers were seen, or ever the powers of the earthquake were established, before the innumerable hosts of angels were gathered together, or ever the heights of the air were lifted up, before the measures of the firmament were named, or ever the footstool of Sion was established, and are the present years were sought out, and over the imaginations of them that now sin were estranged, before they were sealed that have gathered faith for a treasure: then did I consider these things, and they all were made through me alone, and through none other: as by me also they shall be ended, and by none other.

7 Then answered I and said, What shall be the parting asunder of the times? or when shall be the end of the first, and the beginning of it that followeth?

8 And he said unto me, From Abraham unto Abraham, inasmuch as Jacob and Esau were born of him, for Jacob's hand held the heel of Esau from the beginning. 9 For Esau is the end of this world, and Jacob is the beginning of it that followeth. 10 The beginning of a man is his hand, and the end of a man is his heel; between the heel and the hand seek thou nought else, Esdras.

11 I answered then and said, O Lord that bearest rule, if I have found favour in thy sight, I beseech thee, shew thy servant the end of thy tokens, whereof thou shewdest me part the last night.

12 So he answered and said unto me, Stand up upon thy feet, and thou shalt hear a mighty sounding voice; and if the place whereon thou standest be greatly moved, when it speaketh be not thou afraid: for the word is of the end, and the foundations of the earth shall understand, that the speech is of them: they shall tremble and be moved: for they know that their end must be changed.

17 And it happened, that when I had heard it I stood up upon my feet, and hearkened, and behold, there was a voice that spake, and the sound of it was like the sound of many waters. 18 And it said, Behold, the days come, and it shall be that when I draw nigh to visit them that dwell upon the earth, and when I shall make inquisition of them that have done hurt unjustly with their unrighteousness, and when the affliction of Sion shall be fulfilled, and when the seal shall be set upon the world that is to pass away, then will I shew these tokens: the books shall be opened before the firmament, and all shall see together: and the children of a year old shall speak with their voices, the women with child shall bring forth untimely children at three or four months, and they shall live, and dance. 22 And suddenly shall the sown places appear unsown, the full storehouses shall suddenly be found empty: 23 and the trumpet shall give a sound, which when every man heareth, they shall be suddenly afraid. 24 At that time shall friends make war one against another like enemies, and the earth shall stand in fear with those that dwell therein, the springs of the fountains shall stand still, so that for three hours they shall not run. 25 And it shall be that whoever remaineth after all these things that I have told thee of, he shall be saved, and shall see my salvation, and the end of my world. 26 And they shall see the men that have been taken up, who have not tasted death from their birth: and the heart of the inhabitants shall be changed, and turned into another meaning. 27 For evil shall be blotted out, and deceit shall be quenched; 28 and faith shall flourish, and corruption shall be overcome, and the truth, which hath been so long without fruit, shall be declared.

29 And when he talked with me, behold, by little and little the place whereon I stood rocked to and fro. 30 And he said unto me, These things came I to shew thee this night. 31 If therefore thou wilt pray yet again, and fast seven days more, I shall yet tell thee greater things than these. 32 For thy voice hath surely been heard before the Most High: for the Mighty hath seen thy righteous dealing, he hath seen aforetime also thy chastity, which thou hast had ever since thy youth. 33 And therefore hath he sent me to shew thee all these things, and to say unto thee, Be of good comfort, and fear not. 34 And be not hasty in regard of the former times, to think vain things, that thou mayest not hasten in the latter times.

"I wept again, and fasted seven days in like manner, that I might fulfil the three weeks which he told me. 36 And in the eighth night was my heart vexed within me again, and I began to speak before the Most High. 37 For my spirit was greatly set on fire, and my soul was in distress. 38 And I said, O Lord, of a truth thou spakest at the beginning of the creation, upon the first day, and saidst thus; "Let heaven and earth be made; and thy word perfected the work. 39 And then was the spirit hovering, and darkness and silence were on every side; the sound of man's voice was not yet. 40 Then commandedst thou a ray of light to be brought forth of thy treasures, that then thy works might appear. 41 Upon the second day again thou madest the spirit of the firmament and commandedst it to part asunder, and to make a division betwixt the waters, that the one part might go up, and the other remain beneath. 42 Upon the third day thou didst command that the waters should be gathered together in the seventh part of the earth: six parts didst thou dry up, and keep them, to the intent that of these some being both planted and tilled might serve before thee. 43 For as soon as thy word went forth the work was done. 44 For immediately there came forth great and innumerable fruit, and manifold pleasures for the taste, and flowers of inimitable colour, and odours of most exquisite smell: and this was done the third day. 45 Upon the fourth day thou commandedst that the sun should shine, and the moon give her light, and the stars should be in their order: 46 and gavest them a charge to do service unto man, that was to be made. 47 Upon the fifth day thou saidst unto the seventh part, where the water was gathered together, that it should bring forth living creatures, fowls and fishes: and so it came to pass, 48 that the dumb water and without life brought forth living things as it was bidden, that the peoples might therefore praise thy wondrous works. 49 Then didst thou preserve two living creatures, the one thou calledst Behemoth, and the other thou calledst Leviathan: 50 and thou didst separate the one from the other: for the seventh part, namely, where the water was gathered together, might not hold them both. 51 Unto Behemoth thou gavest one part, which was dried up on the third day, that he should dwell in the same, wherein are a thousand hills: 52 but unto Leviathan thou gavest the seventh part, namely, the moist; and thou hast kept them to be devoured of whom thou wilt, and when. 53 But upon the sixth day thou gavest commandment unto the earth, that it should bring forth before thee cattle, beasts, and creeping things: 54 and over these Adam, whom thou ordainedst lord over all the works that thou hast made: of him come we all, the people whom thou hast chosen. 55 All this have I spoken before thee, O Lord, because thou hast said that for our sakes thou madest this world. 56 As for the other nations, which also come of Adam, thou hast said that they are nothing, and are like unto spittle: and thou hast likened the abundance of them unto a drop that falleth from a vessel. 57 And now, O Lord, behold, these nations, which are reputed as nothing, be lords over us, and devour us. 58 But we thy people, whom thou hast called thy firstborn, thy only begotten, and thy fervent lover, are given into their hands. 59 If the world now be made for our sakes, why do we not possess for an inheritance our world? how long shall this endure?

7 And when I had made an end of speaking these words, there was sent unto me the angel which had been sent unto me the nights afore: and he said unto me, Up, Esdras, and hear the words that I am come to tell thee. 3 And I said, Speak on, my Lord. Then said he unto me, There is a sea set in a wide place, that it might be broad and vast. 4 But the entrance thereof shall be set in a narrow place so as to be like a river; 5 whoso then should desire to go into the sea to look upon it, or to rule it, if he went not through the narrow, how could he come into the broad? 6 Another thing also: There is a city builded and set in a plain country, and full of all good things; 7 but the entrance thereof is narrow, and is set in a dangerous place to fall, having a fire on the right hand, and on the left a deep water: 8 and there is one only path between them both, even between the fire and the water, so small that there could but one man go there at once. 9 If this city now be given unto a man for an inheritance, if the heir pass not the danger set before him, how shall he receive his inheritance? 10 And I said, It is so, Lord. Then said he unto me, Even so also is Israel's portion. 11 Because for their sakes I made the world: and when Adam transgressed my statutes, then was decreed that now is done. 12 Then were the entrances of this world made narrow, and sorrowful and toilsome: they are but few and evil, full of perils, and charged with great toils. 13 For the entrances of the greater world are wide and sure, and bring forth fruit of immortality. 14 If then they that live enter not these strait and vain things, they can never receive those that are laid up for them. ¹⁵ Now therefore why disquietest thou thyself, seeing thou art but a corruptible man? and why art thou moved, whereas thou art but mortal? ¹⁶ and why hast thou not considered in thy mind that which is to come, rather than that which is present? ¹⁷ Then answered I and said, O Lord that bearest rule, lo, thou hast ordained in thy law, that the righteous should inherit these things, but that the ungodly should perish. ¹⁸ The righteous therefore shall suffer strait things, and hope for wide: but they that have done wickedly have suffered the strait things, and yet shall not see the wide. ¹⁹ And he said unto me, ²⁰ Thou art not a judge above God, neither hast thou understanding above the Most High. ²¹ Yea, rather let many that now be perish, than that the law of God which is set before them be despised. ²² For God straitly commanded such as came, even as they came, what they should do to live, and what they should observe to avoid punishment. ²³ Nevertheless they were not obedient unto him; but spake against him, and imagined for themselves vain things; and framed cunning devices of wickedness; and ²⁴ said moreover of the Most High, that he is not; and knew not his ways: ²⁵ but they despised his law, and denied his covenants; they have not been faithful to his statutes, and have not performed his works. ²⁶ Therefore, Esdras, for the empty are empty things, and for the full are the full things. ²⁷ For behold, the time shall come, and it shall be, when these tokens, of which I told thee before, shall come to pass, that the bride shall appear, even the city coming forth, and she shall be seen, that now is withdrawn from the earth. ²⁸ And whosoever is delivered from the foresaid evils, the same shall see my wonders. ²⁹ For my son Jesus shall be revealed with those that be with him, and shall rejoice them that remain four hundred years. ³⁰ After these years shall my son Christ die, and all that have the breath of life. ³¹ And the world shall be turned into the old silence seven days, like as in the first beginning: so that no man shall remain. ³² And after seven days the world, that yet awaketh not, shall be raised up, and that shall die that is corruptible. ³³ And the earth shall restore those that are asleep in her, and so shall the dust those that dwell therein in silence, and the secret places shall deliver those souls that were committed unto them. ³⁴ And the Most High shall be revealed upon the seat of judgement¹, and compassion shall pass away, and longsuffering shall be withdrawn: ³⁴ but judgement only shall remain, truth shall stand, and faith shall wax strong: ³⁵ and the work shall follow, and the reward shall be shewed, and good deeds shall awake, and wicked deeds shall not sleep. ³⁶ And the pit of torment shall appear, and over against it shall be the place of rest: and the furnace of hell shall be shewed, and over against it the paradise of delight. ³⁷ And then shall the Most High say to the nations that are raised from the dead, See ye and understand whom ye have denied, or whom ye have not served, or whose commandments ye have despised. ³⁸ Look on this side and on that: here is delight and rest, and there fire and torments. Thus shall he speak unto them in the day of judgement: ³⁹ This is a day that hath neither sun, nor moon, nor stars, neither cloud, nor thunder, nor lightning, neither wind, nor water, nor air, neither darkness, nor evening, nor morning, neither summer, nor spring, nor heat, nor winter, neither frost, nor cold, nor hail, nor rain, nor dew, neither noon, nor night, nor dawn, neither shining, nor brightness, nor light, save only the splendour of the glory of the Most High, whereby all shall see the things that are set before them: ⁴³ for it shall endure as it were a week of years. ⁴⁴ This is my judgement and the ordinance thereof; but to thee only have I shewed these things.

⁴⁵ And I answered, I said even then, O Lord, and I say now: Blessed are they that be now alive, and keep the statutes ordained of thee. ⁴⁶ But as touching them for whom my prayer was made, what shall I say? for who is there of them that be alive that hath not sinned, and who of the sons of men that hath not transgressed thy covenant? ⁴⁷ And now I see, that the world to come shall bring delight to few, but torments unto many. ⁴⁸ For an evil heart hath grown up in us, which hath led us astray from these statutes, and hath brought us into corruption and into the ways of death, hath shewed us the paths of perdition and removed us far from life; and that, not a few only, but well nigh all that have been created.

⁴⁹ And he answered me, and said, Hearken unto me, and I will instruct thee; and I will admonish thee yet again: ⁵⁰ for this cause the Most High hath not made one world, but two. ⁵¹ For whereas thou hast said that the just are not many, but few, and the ungodly abound, hear the answer thereunto. [52] If thou have choice stones exceeding few, ¹ wilt thou set for thee over against them according to their number things of lead and clay?

[53] And I said, Lord, how shall this be?

[54] And he said unto me, Not only this, ² but ask the earth, and she shall tell thee; intreat her, and she shall declare unto thee. [55] For thou shalt say unto her, ³ Thou bringest forth gold and silver and brass, and iron also and lead and clay: [56] but silver is more abundant than gold, and brass than silver, and iron than brass, lead than iron, and clay than lead. [57] Judge thou therefore which things are precious and to be desired, whatso is abundant or what is rare.

[58] And I said, ⁴ O Lord that bearest rule, that which is plentiful is of less worth, for that which is more rare is more precious.

[59] And he answered me, and said, ⁵ Weigh within thyself the things that thou hast thought, for he that hath what is hard to get rejoiceth over him that hath what is plentiful. [60] So also is the ⁶ judgement which I have promised: ⁷ for I will rejoice over the few that shall be saved, inasmuch as ⁸ these are they that have made my glory now to prevail, and of whom my name is now named. [61] ⁹ And I will not grieve over the multitude of them that perish; for these are they that are now like unto vapour, and are become as flame and smoke; they are set on fire and burn hotly, and are quenched.

[62] And I answered and said, O thou earth, wherefore hast thou brought forth, if the mind is made out of dust, like as all other created things? [63] ¹⁰ For it were better that the dust itself had been unborn, so that the mind might not have been made therefrom. [64] But now the mind groweth with us, and by reason of this we are tormented, because we perish and know it. [65] Let the race of men lament and the beasts of the field be glad; let all that are born lament, but let the fourfooted beasts and the cattle rejoice. [66] For it is far better with them than with us; for they look not for judgement, neither do they know of torments or of salvation promised unto them after death. [67] For what doth it profit us, that we shall be preserved alive, but yet be afflicted with torment? [68] For all that are born are ¹¹ defiled with iniquities, and are full of sins and laden with offences: [69] and ¹² if after death we were not to come into judgement, peradventure it had been better for us.

[70] And he answered me, and said, When the Most High made the world, and Adam and all them that came of him, he first ¹³ prepared the judgement and the things that pertain unto the judgement. [71] And now understand from thine own words, ¹⁴ for thou hast said that the mind groweth with us. [72] They therefore that dwell upon the earth shall be tormented for this reason, ¹⁵ that having understanding they have wrought iniquity, and receiving commandments have not kept them, and having obtained a law they dealt unfaithfully with that which they received. [73] What then will they have to say in the judgement, or how will they answer in the last times? [74] ¹⁶ For how great a time hath the Most High been long-suffering with them that inhabit the world, and not for their sakes, but because of the times which he hath fore-ordained!

[75] And I answered and said, If I have found grace in thy sight, O Lord, shew this also unto thy servant, whether after death, even now when every one of us giveth up his soul, we shall be kept in rest until those times come, ¹⁷ in which thou shalt renew the creation, or whether we shall be tormented forthwith.

[76] And he answered me, and said, I will shew thee this also; but join not thyself with them that are scornors, nor number thyself with them that are tormented. [77] For thou hast ¹⁸ a treasure of good works laid up with the Most High, but it shall not be shewed thee until the last times. [78] For concerning death the teaching is: When the determinate sentence hath gone forth from the Most High that a man should die, as the spirit leaveth the body ¹⁹ to return again to him who gave it, ²⁰ it adoreth the glory of the Most High first of all. [79] And if it be one of those that have been scornors and have not kept the way of the Most High, and that have despised his law, and that hate them that fear ²¹ God, [80] these spirits shall not enter ²² into habitations, but shall wander and be in torments forthwith, ever grieving and sad, in seven ways. [81] The first way, because they have despised the law of the Most High. [82] The second way, ²³ because they cannot now make a good returning that they may live. [83] The third way, ²⁴ they shall see the reward laid up for them that have believed the covenants of the Most High. [84] The fourth way, they shall consider the torment laid up for themselves in the last days. [85] The fifth way, they shall see ²⁵ the dwelling places of the others guarded by angels, with great quietness. [86] The sixth way, they shall see ²⁶ how forthwith some of them shall pass into torment. [87] The seventh way, which is ²⁷ more grievous than all the aforesaid ways, because they shall pine away in confusion and be consumed with ¹shame, and shall be withered up by fears, seeing the glory of the Most High before whom they have sinned whilst living, and before whom they shall be judged in the last times. [98] Now this is the order of those who have kept the ways of the Most High, when they shall be separated from the corruptible vessel. [99] In the time ¹that they dwelt therein they painfully served the Most High, and ²were in jeopardy every hour, that they might keep the law of ³the lawgiver perfectly. [90] Wherefore this is the teaching concerning them: [91] 'First of all they shall see with great joy the glory of him who taketh them up, for they shall have rest in seven orders. [92] The first order, because they have striven with great labour to overcome ⁴the evil thought which was fashioned together with them, that it might not lead them astray from life into death. [93] The second order, because they see the perplexity in which the souls of the ungodly wander, and ⁵the punishment that awaiteth them. [94] The third order, they see ⁶the witness which he that fashioned them beareth concerning them, that while they lived they kept the law ⁷which was given them in trust. [95] The fourth order, they understand the rest which, being gathered ⁸in their chambers, they now enjoy with great quietness, guarded by angels, and the glory that awaiteth them in the last days. [96] The fifth order, they rejoice, seeing how they have now escaped from ⁹that which is corruptible, and how they shall inherit that which is to come, while they see moreover ¹⁰the straitness and the ¹¹painfulness from which they have been delivered, and the large room which they shall receive with joy and immortality. [97] The sixth order, when it is shewed unto them ¹²how their face shall shine as the sun, and how ¹³they shall be made like unto the light of the stars, being henceforth incorruptible. [98] The seventh order, which is greater than all the aforesaid orders, because they shall rejoice with confidence, and because they shall be bold without confusion, and shall be glad without fear, for they hasten ¹⁴to behold the face of him whom in their lifetime they served, and from whom ¹⁵they shall receive their reward in glory. [99] This is the order of the souls of the just, as from henceforth ¹⁶is announced unto them, and aforesaid are the ways of torture which they that would not give heed shall suffer from henceforth. [100] And I answered and said, Shall time therefore be given unto the souls after they are separated from the bodies, that they may see that whereof thou hast spoken unto me? [101] And he said, Their freedom shall be for seven days, that for seven days they may see the things whereof thou hast been told, and afterwards they shall be gathered together ¹⁷in their habitations. [102] And I answered and said, ¹⁸¶ If I have found favour in thy sight, shew further unto me thy servant whether in the day of judgement the just will be able to intercede for the ungodly or to intreat the Most High for them, [103] whether fathers for children, or children for parents, or brethren for brethren, or kinsfolk for their next of kin, or ¹⁹friends for them that are most dear. [104] And he answered me, and said, Since thou hast found favour in my sight, ²⁰¶ I will shew thee this also: The day of judgement is ²¹a day of decision, and displayeth unto all the seal of truth; even as now a father sendeth not his son, or a son his father, or a master his slave, or a ²²friend him that is most dear, that in his stead he may ²³'be sick, or sleep, or eat, or be healed: [105] ²⁴¶ so never shall any one pray for another ²⁵in that day, neither shall one lay a burden on another, ²⁶¶ for then shall all bear every one his own righteousness or unrighteousness. [106] And I answered and said, How do we now find that first ²⁷'Abraham prayed for the people of Sodom, and ²⁸Moses for the fathers that sinned in the wilderness: 37 [107] and ²⁹'Joshua after him for Israel in the days of ³⁰'Achar: 38 [108] and ³¹'Samuel ³²'in the days of Saul; and ³³'David for the plague: and ³⁴'Solomon for them that should worship in the sanctuary: 39 [109] and ³⁵'Elijah for those that received rain; and ³⁶'for the dead, that he might live: 40 [110] and ³⁷'Hezekiah for the people in the days of Sennacherib: and many for many? 41 [111] If therefore now, when corruption is grown up, and unrighteousness increased, the righteous have prayed for the ungodly, wherefore shall it not be so then also? 42 [112] He answered me, and said, This present world is not the end; the full glory abideth ³⁸'not therein: therefore have they who were able prayed for the weak. 43 [113] But the day of judgement shall be the end of this time, ³⁹'and the beginning ⁴⁰'of the immortality for to come, ⁴¹'wherein corruption is passed away, 44 [114] intemperance is at an end, ⁴²'infidelity is cut off, but righteousness is grown, and truth is sprung up. 45 [115] Then shall no man be able to have mercy on him that is cast in judgement, nor to thrust down ⁴³'him that hath gotten the victory. 46 [116] I answered then and said, This is my first and last saying, *that it had been better that the earth had not given thee Adam: or else, when it had given him, to have restrained him from sinning. 47^[117] For what profit is it for all that are in this present time to live in heaviness, and after death to look for punishment? 48^[118] O thou Adam, what hast thou done? for though it was thou that sinned, & the evil is not fallen on thee alone, but upon all of us that come of thee. 49^[119] For what profit is it unto us, if there be promised us an immortal time, whereas *we have done the works that bring death? 50^[120] And that there is promised us an everlasting hope, whereas ourselves most miserably are become vain? 51^[121] And that there are reserved habitations of health and safety, whereas we have lived wickedly? 52^[122] And that the glory of the Most High shall defend them which have led a pure life, whereas we have walked in the most wicked ways of all? 53^[123] And that there shall be shewed *a paradise, whose fruit endureth without decay, wherein is abundance and healing, but we shall not enter into it, 54^[124] for we have walked in unpleasant places? 55^[125] And that the faces of them which have used abstinence *shall shine above the stars, whereas *our faces shall be blacker than darkness? 56^[126] For while we lived and committed iniquity, we considered not what we should have to suffer after death.

57^[127] Then he answered and said, This is the condition of *the battle, which man that is born upon the earth shall fight; 58^[128] that, if he be overcome, he shall suffer as thou hast said: but if he get the victory, he shall receive the thing that I say. 59^[129] For this is the way whereof Moses spake unto the people while he lived, saying, *Choose thee life, that thou mayest live. 60^[130] Nevertheless they believed not him, nor yet the prophets after him, no, nor me which have spoken unto them; 61^[131] so that there shall not be such heaviness in their destruction, as *there shall be joy over them that are persuaded to salvation.

62^[132] I answered then and said, I know, Lord, that the Most High is now called merciful, in that he hath mercy upon them which are not yet come into the world; 63^[133] and compassionate, in that he hath compassion upon those that turn to his law; 64^[134] and long-suffering, for that he long suffereth those that have sinned, *as his creatures; 65^[135] and bountiful, for that he is ready to give rather than to exact; 66^[136] and of great mercy, for that he multiplieth more and more mercies to them that are present, and that are past, and also to them which are to come; 67^[137] (for if he multiplied not his mercies, *the world would not continue with them that dwell therein); 68^[138] and one that forgiveth, *for if he did not forgive of his goodness, that they which have committed iniquities might be eased of them, the ten thousandth part of men would not remain living; 69^[139] and a judge, for if he did not pardon them that were created by his word, and *shot out the multitude of *offences, 70^[140] there would peradventure be very few left in an innumerable multitude.

8 *And he answered me, and said, The Most High hath made this world for many, *but the world to come for few. *I will tell thee now a similitude, Esdras; *As when thou askest the earth, it shall say unto thee, that it giveth very much mould whereof earthen vessels are made, and little dust that gold cometh of: even so is the course of the present world. 39 There be many created, but few shall be saved.

4 And I answered and said, Swallow down understanding then, O my soul, and let my heart devour wisdom. 5 For thou *art come hither without thy will, and departest when thou wouldest not: for there is given thee no longer space than only to live a short time. 6 O Lord, that art over us, suffer thy servant, that we may pray before thee, and give us seed unto our heart, and culture to our understanding, that there may come fruit of it, whereby every one shall live that is corrupt, who beareth the *likeness of a man. 7 For thou art alone, and *we all one workmanship of thine hands, like as thou hast said. 8 *Forasmuch as thou quickenest the body that is fashioned now in the womb, and givest it members, thy creature is preserved in fire and water, and nine months doth thy workmanship endure thy creature which is created in her. 9 But that which keepeth and that which is kept shall both be kept *by thy keeping: and when the womb giveth up again that which hath grown in it, *thou hast commanded that out of the parts of the body, that is to say, out of the breasts, be given milk, which is the fruit of the breasts, *that the thing which is fashioned may be nourished for a time, and afterwards thou shalt order it in thy mercy. 10 Yea, thou hast brought it up in thy righteousness, and nurtured it in thy law, and corrected it with thy judgement. 11 *And thou shalt mortify it as thy creature, and *quicken it as thy work. 12 *If therefore thou shalt lightly and suddenly destroy him which with so great labour was fashioned by thy commandment, *to what purpose was he made? 13 Now therefore I will speak; touching man in general, thou knowest best; but touching thy people will I speak, for whose sake I am sorry; ¹⁶and for thine inheritance, for whose cause I mourn; and for Israel, for whom I am heavy; and-for the seed of Jacob, for whose sake I am troubled; ¹⁷therefore will I begin to pray before thee for myself and for them: for I see the falls of us that dwell in the land; ¹⁸but I have heard ¹⁹the swiftness of the judgement which is to come. ²⁰Therefore hear my voice, and understand my saying, and I will speak before thee.

The beginning of the words of Esdras, ¹before he was taken up. And he said, ²O Lord, thou that ³abidest for ever, whose eyes are exalted, and ⁴whose chambers are in the air; ⁵whose throne is inestimable; whose glory may not be comprehended; before whom the hosts of angels stand with trembling; ⁶at whose bidding ⁷they are changed to wind and fire; whose word is sure, and sayings constant; whose ordinance is strong, and commandment fearful; ⁸whose look ⁹drieth up the depths, and whose indignation maketh the mountains to melt away, and whose truth beareth witness: ¹⁰hear, O Lord, the prayer of thy servant, and give ear to the petition of thy handywork; ¹¹attend unto my words, for so long as I live I will speak, and so long as I have understanding I will answer. ¹²O look not upon the sins of thy people; but on them that have served thee in truth. ¹³Regard not the doings of them that deal wickedly, but of them that have kept thy covenants in affliction. ¹⁴Think not upon those that have walked feignedly before thee; but remember them which have willingly known thy fear. ¹⁵Let it not be thy will to destroy them ¹⁶which have lived like cattle; but look upon them that have ¹⁷clearly taught thy law. ¹⁸Take thou no indignation at them which are deemed worse than beasts; but love them that have always put their trust in thy glory. ¹⁹For we and our fathers ²⁰have ²¹passed our lives in ²²ways that bring death: but thou because of us sinners ²³art called merciful. ²⁴For if thou hast a desire to have mercy upon us, ²⁵then shalt thou be called merciful, to us, namely, that have no works of righteousness. ²⁶For the just, ²⁷which have many good works laid up with thee, shall for their own deeds receive reward. ²⁸For what is man, that thou shouldst take displeasure at him? or what is a corruptible race, that thou shouldst be so bitter toward it? ²⁹For in truth there is no man among them that be born, but he hath dealt wickedly; and among them ³⁰that have lived there is none which hath not done amiss. ³¹For in this, O Lord, thy righteousness and thy goodness shall be declared, if thou be merciful unto them which have no store of good works.

³²Then answered he me, and said, Some things hast thou spoken aright, and according unto thy words so shall it come to pass. ³³For indeed I will not think on the fashioning of them which have sinned, or their death, their judgement, or their destruction: ³⁴but I will rejoice over the framing of the righteous, ³⁵their pilgrimage also, and the salvation, and the reward, that they shall have. ³⁶Like therefore as I have spoken, so shall it be. ³⁷For as the husbandman soweth much seed upon the ground, and planteth many trees, and yet not all that is sown shall ³⁸come up in due season, neither shall all that is planted take root: even so they that are sown in the world ³⁹shall not all be saved.

⁴⁰I answered then and said, ⁴¹If I have found favour, let me speak before thee. ⁴²Forasmuch as the husbandman's seed, if it come not up, seeing that it hath not received thy rain in due season, or if it be corrupted through too much rain, ⁴³so perisheth; ⁴⁴likewise man, which is formed with thy hands, and ⁴⁵is called thine own image, because he is made like unto thee, ⁴⁶for whose sake thou hast formed all things, even him hast thou made like unto the husbandman's seed. ⁴⁷Be not wroth with us, but ⁴⁸spare thy people, and have mercy upon thine inheritance; for thou hast mercy upon thine own creation.

⁴⁹Then answered he me, and said, Things present are for them that now be, and things to come for such as shall be hereafter. ⁵⁰For thou comest far short that thou shouldst be able to love my creature more than I. But thou hast brought thyself full high unto the unrighteous. Let this never be. ⁵¹Yet in this shalt thou be admirable before the Most High; ⁵²in that thou hast humbled thyself, as it becometh thee, and hast not judged thyself worthy to be among the righteous, so as to be much glorified. ⁵³For many grievous miseries shall befall them that in the last times dwell in the world, because they have walked in great pride. ⁵⁴But understand thou for thyself, and of such as be ⁵⁵like thee seek out the glory. ⁵⁶For unto you is ⁵⁷paradise opened, ⁵⁸the tree of life is planted, ⁵⁹the time to come is prepared, ⁶⁰plenteousness is made ready, ⁶¹a city is builded, and rest is ⁶²allowed, goodness is perfected, wisdom being perfect aforehand. ⁵³The root of evil is sealed up from you, weakness is done away from you, and ¹[death] is hidden; ²hell and corruption are fled into forgetfulness: ⁵⁴sorrows are passed away, and in the end is shewed the treasure of immortality. ⁵⁵Therefore ask thou no more questions concerning the multitude of them that perish. ⁵⁶For when they had received liberty, they despised the Most High, thought scorn of his law, and forsook his ways. ⁵⁷Moreover they have trodden down his righteous, ⁵⁸and ⁵⁹said in their heart, that there is no God; yea, and that knowing they must die. ⁵⁹For as the things aforesaid shall receive you, ⁶⁰so thirst and pain which are prepared ^{shall receive} them: ⁶¹for the Most High willed not that men should come to nought: ⁶²but they which be created have themselves defiled the name of him that made them, and were ^{unthankful} unto him which prepared life for them. ⁶³And therefore is my judgement now at hand, ⁶⁴which I have not shewed unto all men, ⁶⁵but unto thee, ⁶⁶and a few like thee.

Then answered I and said, ⁶⁷Behold, O Lord, ⁶⁸now hast thou shewed me the multitude of the wonders, which thou wilt do in the last times: but at what time, thou hast not shewed me.

⁹And he answered me, and said, Measure thou diligently within thyself: and when thou seest that a certain part of the signs are past, which have been told thee beforehand, ²then shalt thou understand, that it is the very time, wherein the Most High ^{will} visit the world which was made by him. ³And when there shall be seen in the world ^{earthquakes}, disquietude of peoples, ⁴devices of nations, wavering of leaders, disquietude of princes, ⁵then shalt thou understand, that the Most High spake of these things from the days that were aforesaid from the beginning. ⁶For like as of all that is made in the world, the beginning ^{is} evident, and the end manifest; ⁷so also are the times of the Most High: the beginnings are manifest in wonders and mighty works, and the end in effects and signs. ⁸And every one that shall be saved, and ^{shall} be able to escape by his works, ⁹or by faith, whereby he hath believed, ¹⁰shall be preserved from the said perils, ¹¹and shall see my salvation in my land, and ¹²within my borders, which I have sanctified for me from the beginning. ¹³Then shall they be amazed, which now have abused my ways: and they that have cast them away despitefully shall dwell in torments. ¹⁴For as many as in their life have received benefits, and yet have not known me; ¹⁵and as many as have scorned my law, while they had yet liberty, and, when as yet place of repentance was open unto them, understood not, but despised ¹⁶it: ¹⁷the same must know ¹⁸it after death by torment. ¹⁹And therefore be thou no longer curious how the ungodly shall be punished; but inquire how the righteous shall be saved. ²⁰They ^{whose} the world is, and ²¹for whom the world was created.

²²And I answered and said, ²³I have said before, and now do speak, and will speak it also hereafter, that ²⁴there be more of them which perish, than of them which shall be saved: ²⁵like as a wave is greater than a drop.

²⁷And he answered me, saying, Like as the field is, so is also the seed; and as the flowers be, such are the colours also; and ²⁸such as the work is, such also is the ²⁹judgement thereon; and as is the husbandman, so is his threshing-floor also. For there was a time in the world, ³⁰even then when I was preparing for them that now live, before the world was made for them to dwell in; and then no man spake against me, ³¹for ³²there was not any: but now they which are created in this world that is prepared, both ³³with ³⁴a table that faileth not, and a law which is ³⁵unsearchable, are corrupted in their manners. ³⁶So I considered my world, and, lo, it was destroyed, and my earth, and, lo, it was in peril, because of the devices that were come into it. ³⁷And I saw, and spared them, but not greatly, and saved me a grape out of a cluster, and ³⁸a plant out of ³⁹a great forest. ⁴⁰Let the multitude perish then, which was born in vain; and let my grape be saved, and my plant; for with great labour have I made them perfect. ⁴¹Nevertheless if thou wilt cease yet ⁴²seven days more, (howbeit thou shalt not fast in them, ⁴³but shalt go into a field of flowers, where no house is builded, and ⁴⁴eat only of the flowers of the field; and thou shalt taste no flesh, and shalt drink no wine, but shalt eat flowers only;) ⁴⁵and pray unto the Most High continually, then will I come and talk with thee.

⁴⁶So I went my way, like as he commanded me, into the field which is called ⁴⁷Ardat; and there I sat among the flowers, and did eat of the herbs of the field, and the meat of the same satisfied me. ⁴⁸And it came to pass after seven days that I lay upon the grass, ⁴⁹and my heart was vexed again, ⁵⁰like as before: ⁵¹and my mouth was opened, and I began to speak before the Most High, and said, ⁵²O Lord, ⁵³d thou didst shew thyself among us, unto our fathers in the wilderness, when they went forth out of Egypt, and when they came into the wilderness, where no man treadeth and that beareth no fruit; 30 and thou didst say, Hear me, thou Israel; and mark my words, O seed of Jacob. 31 For, behold, I sow my law in you, and it shall bring forth fruit in you, and ye shall be glorified in it for ever. 32 But our fathers, which received the law, kept it not, and observed not the statutes; and the fruit of the law did not perish, neither could it, for it was thine; 33 yet they that received it perished, because they kept not the thing that was sown in them. 34 And, lo, it is a custom, that when the ground hath received seed, or the sea a ship, or any vessel meat or drink, and when it cometh to pass that that which is sown, or that which is launched, 35 or the things which have been received, should come to an end, these come to an end, but the receptacles remain: yet with us it hath not happened so. 36 For we that have received the law shall perish by sin, and our heart also which received it. 37 Notwithstanding the law perisheth not, but remaineth in its honour.

38 And when I spake these things in my heart, I looked about me with mine eyes, and upon the right side I saw a woman, and, behold, she mourned and wept with a loud voice, and was much grieved in mind, and her clothes were rent, and she had ashes upon her head. 39 Then let I my thoughts go wherein I was occupied, and turned me unto her, and said unto her, Wherefore weepest thou? and why art thou grieved in thy mind?

40 And she said unto me, Let me alone, my lord, that I may bewail myself, and add unto my sorrow, for I am sore vexed in my mind, and brought very low.

41 And I said unto her, What aileth thee? tell me. 42 She said unto me, I thy servant was barren, and had no child, though I had a husband thirty years. 43 And every hour and every day these thirty years did I make my prayer to the Most High day and night. 44 And it came to pass after thirty years that God heard me thine handmaid, and looked upon my low estate, and considered my trouble, and gave me a son: and I rejoiced in him greatly, I and my husband, and all my neighbours: and we gave great honour unto the Mighty. 45 And I nourished him with great travail. 46 So when he grew up, and I came to take him a wife, I made a feast day. 47 And it so came to pass, that when my son was entered into his wedding chamber, he fell down, and died. 48 Then we all overthrew the lights, and all my neighbours

bours rose up to comfort me: and I remained quiet unto the second day at night. 3 And it came to pass, when they had all left off to comfort me, to the end I might be quiet, then rose I up by night, and fled, and came hither into this field, as thou seest. 4 And I do now purpose not to return into the city, but here to stay, and neither to eat nor drink, but continually to mourn and to fast until I die.

5 Then left I the meditations wherein I was, and answered her in anger, and said, 6 Thou foolish woman above all other, seest thou not our mourning, and what hath happened unto us? 7 how that Sion the mother of us all is full of sorrow, and much humbled. 8 It is right now to mourn very sore, seeing we all mourn, and to be sorrowful, seeing we are all in sorrow, but thou sorrowest for one son. 9 For ask the earth, and she shall tell thee, that it is she which ought to mourn for so many that grow upon her. 10 For out of her all had their beginnings, and others shall come; and, behold, they walk almost all into destruction, and the multitude of them is utterly rooted out. 11 Who then should make more mourning, she, that hath lost so great a multitude, or thou, which art grieved but for one? 12 But if thou sayest unto me, My lamentation is not like the earth's, for I have lost the fruit of my womb, which I brought forth with pains, and bare with sorrows: 13 but it is with the earth after the manner of the earth; the multitude present in it is gone, as it came: 14 then say I unto thee, Like as thou hast brought forth with sorrow; even so the earth also hath given her fruit, namely, man, ever since the beginning unto him that made her. 15 Now therefore keep thy sorrow to thyself, and bear with a good courage the adversities which have befallen thee. 16 For if thou shalt acknowledge the decree of God to be just, thou shalt both receive thy son in time, and shalt be praised among women. 17 Go thy way then into the city to thine husband.

18 And she said unto me, That will I not do: I will not go into the city, but here will I die.

19 So I proceeded to speak further unto her, and said, 20 Do not so, but suffer thyself to be prevailed on by reason of the adversities of Sion; and be comforted by reason of the sorrow of Jerusalem. 21 For thou seest that our sanctuary is laid waste, our altar broken down, our temple destroyed; 22 our psaltery is brought low, our song is put to silence, our rejoicing is at an end; 23 the light of our candlestick is put out, the ark of our covenant is spoiled, our holy things are defiled, and the name that is called upon us is profaned; our freemen are despitely treated, our priests are burnt, our Levites are gone into captivity, our virgins are defiled, and our wives ravished; our righteous men carried away, our little ones betrayed, our young men are brought into bondage, and our strong men are become weak; and what is more than all, the seal of Sion—for she hath now lost the seal of her honour, and is delivered into the hands of them that hate us. Thou therefore shake off thy great heaviness, and put away from thee the multitude of sorrows, that the Mighty may be merciful unto thee again, and the Most High may give thee rest, even ease from thy travails.

And it came to pass, while I was talking with her, behold, her face upon a sudden shined exceedingly, and her countenance glistered like lightning, so that I was sore afraid of her, and mused what this might be; and behold, suddenly she made a great cry very fearful; so that the earth shook at the noise. And I looked, and behold, the woman appeared unto me no more, but there was a city builded, and a place shewed itself from large foundations: then was I afraid, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Where is Uriel the angel, who came unto me at the first? for he hath caused me to fall into this great trance, and mine end is turned into corruption, and my prayer to rebuke. And as I was speaking these words, behold, the angel who had come unto me at the first came unto me, and he looked upon me: and lo, I lay as one that had been dead, and mine understanding was taken from me; and he took me by the right hand, and comforted me, and set me upon my feet, and said unto me, What aileth thee? and why art thou so disquieted? and why is thine understanding troubled, and the thoughts of thine heart? And I said, Because thou hast forsaken me: yet I did according to thy words, and went into the field, and, lo, I have seen, and yet see, that which I am not able to express. And he said unto me, Stand up like a man, and I will advise thee. Then said I, Speak on, my Lord; only forsake me not, lest I die frustrate of my hope. For I have seen that I knew not, and hear that I do not know. Or is my sense deceived, or my soul in a dream? Now therefore I beseech thee to shew thy servant concerning this trance.

And he answered me, and said, Hear me, and I shall inform thee, and tell thee concerning the things whereof thou art afraid: for the Most High hath revealed many secret things unto thee. He hath seen that thy way is right: for that thou sorrowest continually for thy people, and makest great lamentation for Sion. Therefore is the meaning of the vision. The woman which appeared unto thee a little while ago, whom thou sawest mourning, and beganest to comfort her: and now seeest thou the likeness of the woman no more, but there appeared unto thee a city in building: and whereas she told thee of the death of her son, this is the solution: This woman, whom thou sawest, is Sion, whom thou now seeest as a city builded; and whereas she said unto thee, that she hath been thirty years barren, it is, because there were three thousand years in the world wherein there was no offering as yet offered in her. And it came to pass after three thousand years that Solomon builded the city, and offered offerings: then it was that the barren bare a son. And whereas she told thee that she nourished him with travail: that was the dwelling in Jerusalem. And whereas she said unto thee, My son coming into his marriage chamber died, and that misfortune befell her: this was the destruction that came to Jerusalem. And behold, thou sawest her likeness, how she mourned for her son, and thou beganest to comfort her for what hath befallen her; these were the things to be opened unto thee. For now the Most High, seeing that thou art grieved unfeignedly, and sufferest from thy whole heart for her, hath shewed thee the brightness of her glory, and the comeliness of her beauty: and therefore I bade thee remain in the field where no house was builded: for I knew that the Most High would shew this unto thee. Therefore I commanded thee to come into the field, where no foundation of any building was. For in the place wherein the city of the Most High was to be shewed, the work of no man's building could stand. Therefore fear thou not, nor let thine heart be affrighted, but go thy way in, and see the beauty and greatness of the building, as much as thine eyes be able to see: and then shalt thou hear as much as thine ears may comprehend. For thou art blessed above many, and with the Most High art called by name, like as but few. But to-morrow at night thou shalt remain here; and so shall the Most High shew thee those visions in dreams, of what the Most High will do unto them that dwell upon earth in the last days. So I slept that night and another, like as he commanded me.

And it came to pass the second night that I saw a dream, and, behold, there came up from the sea

'an eagle, which had / twelve feathered wings, and three heads. * And I saw, and, behold, she spread her wings over all the earth, and / all the winds of heaven blew on her, / and the clouds were gathered together against her. 3 And I beheld, and out of her wings there grew other wings / over against them; / and they became little wings and small. 4 / But her heads were at rest: the head in the midst was greater than the other heads, yet rested it with them. 5 Moreover I beheld, and, lo, the eagle flew with her wings, to reign over the earth, and over them that dwell therein. 6 And I beheld how that all things under heaven were subject unto her, and no man spake against her, no, not one creature upon earth. 7 And I beheld, and, lo, the eagle rose upon her talons, and uttered her voice to her wings, saying, 8 Watch not all at once: sleep every one in his own place, and watch by course: 9 but let the heads be preserved for the last. 10 And I beheld, and, lo, the voice went not out of her heads, but from the midst of her body. 11 And I numbered 12 her wings that were over against the other, and, behold, there were eight of them. 13 And I beheld, and, lo, / on the right side there arose one wing, and reigned over all the earth: 13 and so it was, that when it reigned, the end of it came, and it appeared not, so that the place thereof appeared no more: and the next following rose up, and reigned, and it bare rule a great time; 14 and it happened, that when it reigned, the end of it came also, so that it appeared no more, like as the first. 15 And, lo, there came a voice unto it, and said, 16 Hear thou that hast borne rule over the earth all this time: this I proclaim unto thee, before thou shalt appear no more, 17 There shall none after thee attain unto thy time, neither unto the half thereof. 18 Then arose the third, and had the rule as the others before, and it also appeared no more. 19 So went it with all the wings one after another, as that every one bare rule, and then appeared no more. 20 And I beheld, and, lo, in process of time the 3 wings that followed were set up / upon the / right side, that they might rule also; and some of them ruled, but within a while they appeared no more: 21 some also of them were set up, but ruled not. 22 After this I beheld, and, lo, / the twelve wings appeared no more, nor 2 / two of the little wings: 23 and there was no more left upon the eagle's body, / but the three heads that rested, and 2 six little wings. 24 And I beheld, and, lo, 2 two little wings divided themselves from the six, and remained under the head that was upon the right side: but four remained in their place. 25 And I beheld, and, lo, these 3 under wings thought to set up themselves, and to have the rule. 26 And I beheld, and, lo, there was one set up, but within a while it appeared no more. 27 A second also, and it was sooner away than the first. 28 And I beheld, and, lo, the two that remained thought also in themselves to reign: 29 and while they so thought, behold, there awaked / one of the heads that were at rest, namely, it that was in the midst; for that was greater than the two other heads. 30 And I beheld how that it joined 31 the two other heads with it. 32 And, behold, the head was turned with them that were with it, and did eat up the two 3 under wings that thought to have reigned. 33 But this head held the whole earth in possession, and bare rule over those that dwell therein / with much oppression; and it had the governance of the world more than all the wings that had been. 34 And after this I beheld, and, lo, the head also that was in the midst suddenly appeared no more, like as the wings. 35 But there remained the two heads, 36 which also in like sort reigned over the earth, and over those that dwell therein. 37 And I beheld, and, lo, the head upon the right side devoured it that was upon the left side.

38 Then I heard a voice, which said unto me, Look before thee, and consider the thing that thou seest. 39 And I beheld, and, lo, as it were 3 a lion roused out of the wood roaring: and I heard how that he sent out a man's voice unto the eagle, and spake, saying, 40 Hear thou, I will talk with thee, and the Most High shall say unto thee, 41 Art not thou it that remainest of 4 the four beasts, whom I made to reign in my world, that the end of my times might come through them? 42 And 5 the fourth came, and overcame all the beasts that were past, and held the world in governance with great trembling, and the whole compass of the earth / with grievous oppression; and so long time dwelt he upon the earth with deceit. 43 And thou hast judged the earth, but not with truth. 44 For thou hast afflicted the meek, thou hast hurt the peaceable, thou hast hated them that speak truth, thou hast loved liars, and destroyed the dwellings of them that brought forth fruit, and hast cast down the walls of such as did thee no harm. 45 Therefore is thy insolent dealing come up unto the Most High, and thy pride unto the Mighty. 46 The Most High also hath looked upon his times, and, behold, they are ended, and his ages are fulfilled. 47 And therefore appear no more, thou eagle, nor / thy horrible wings, nor / thy evil little wings, nor thy cruel heads, nor thy hurtful talons, nor all thy vain body: ⁴⁵ that all the earth may be refreshed, and be eased, being delivered from thy violence, and that she may hope for the judgement and mercy of him that made her.

12 And it came to pass, whiles the lion spake these words unto the eagle, I beheld, and lo, ¹ the head that remained appeared no more, and ² the two wings which went over unto it arose and set themselves up to reign, and / their kingdom was small, and full of uproar. ³ And I beheld, and lo, they appeared no more, and the whole body of the eagle was burnt, so that the earth was in great fear: then awaked I by reason of great ecstasy of mind, and from great fear, and said unto my spirit, ⁴ Lo, this hast thou done unto me, in that thou searchest out the ways of the Most High. ⁵ Lo, I am yet weary in my mind, and very weak in my spirit; nor is there the least strength in me, ⁶ for the great fear wherewith I was affrighted this night. ⁷ Therefore will I now beseech the Most High, that he will strengthen me unto the end. ⁸ And I said, O Lord that bearest rule, if I have found favour in thy sight, ⁹ and if I am justified with thee above many others, and if my prayer indeed be come up before thy face; ¹⁰ strengthen me then, and shew me thy servant the interpretation and plain meaning of this fearful vision, that thou mayest perfectly comfort my soul. ⁹ For thou hast judged me worthy to shew me the end of time and the last times.

¹⁰ And he said unto me, This is the interpretation of this vision which thou sawest: ¹¹ The eagle, whom thou sawest come up from the sea, is ¹² the fourth kingdom which appeared in vision to thy brother Daniel. ¹³ But it was not expounded unto him, as I now expound it unto thee or have expounded it. ¹⁴ Behold, the days come, that there shall rise up a kingdom upon earth, and it shall be feared above all the kingdoms that were before it. ¹⁵ In the same shall twelve kings reign, one after another: ¹⁶ whereof the second shall begin to reign, and shall have a longer time than any of the twelve. ¹⁷ This is the interpretation of the two wings, which thou sawest. ¹⁸ And whereas thou hearest a voice which spake, not going out from the heads, but from the midst of the body thereof, this is the interpretation: ¹⁹ That after the time of that kingdom there shall arise no small contentions, and it shall stand in peril of falling: nevertheless it shall not then fall, but shall be restored again to its first estate. ²⁰ And whereas thou

sawest ²¹ the eight under wings sticking to her wings, this is the interpretation: ²² That in it there shall arise eight kings, whose times shall be but small, and their years swift. ²³ And two of them shall perish, when the middle time approacheth: four shall be kept for a while until the time of the ending thereof shall approach: ²⁴ but two shall be kept unto the end. ²⁵ And whereas thou sawest ²⁶ three heads resting, this is the interpretation: ²⁷ In the last days thereof shall the Most High raise up three kingdoms, and renew many things therein, and they shall bear rule over the earth, ²⁸ and over those that dwell therein, ²⁹ with much oppression, above all those that were before them: therefore are they called the heads of the eagle. ³⁰ For these are they that shall accomplish her wickedness, and that shall finish her last end. ³¹ And whereas thou sawest that ³² the great head appeared no more, it signifieth that one of them shall die upon his bed, and yet with pain. ³³ But for the two that remained, the sword shall devour them. ³⁴ For the sword of the one shall devour him that was with him: but he also shall fall by the sword in the last days. ³⁵ And whereas thou sawest ³⁶ two under wings passing over unto the head that is on the right side, ³⁷ this is the interpretation: These are they, whom the Most High hath kept unto his end: ³⁸ this is the small kingdom and full of trouble, as thou sawest. ³⁹ And the lion, whom thou sawest rising up out of the wood, and roaring, and speaking to the eagle, and rebuking her for her unrighteousness, and all her words which thou hast heard; ⁴⁰ this is ⁴¹ the anointed one, whom the Most High hath kept unto the end ⁴² of days, who shall spring up out of the seed of David, and he shall come and speak unto them and ⁴³ reprove them for their wickedness and their unrighteousness, and shall ⁴⁴ heap up before them their contemptuous dealings. ⁴⁵ For at the first he shall set them alive in his judgement, and when he hath reprov'd them, he shall destroy them. ⁴⁶ For the rest of my people shall he deliver with mercy, those that have been preserved throughout my borders, and he shall make them joyful until the coming of the end, even the day of judgement, whereof I have spoken unto thee from the beginning. ⁴⁷ This is the dream that thou sawest, and this is the interpretation thereof: ⁴⁸ and thou only hast been meet to know this secret of the Most High. ⁴⁹ Therefore write all these things that thou hast seen in a book, and put them in a secret place: ⁵⁰ and thou shalt teach them to the wise of thy people, whose hearts thou knowest are able to comprehend and keep these secrets. ³⁹ But wait thou here thyself yet ^a seven days more, that there may be shewed unto thee whatsoever it pleaseth the Most High to shew thee. And he departed from me.

⁴⁰ And it came to pass, when all the people ¹ saw that the seven days were past, and I not come again into the city, they gathered them all together, from the least unto the greatest, and came unto me, and spake to me, saying, ⁴¹ What have we offended thee? and what evil have we done against thee, that thou hast utterly forsaken us, and sittest in this place? ⁴² For of all ^m the prophets thou only art left us, as ⁿ a cluster of the vintage, and ^o as a lamp in a dark place, and as ^p a haven for a ship saved from the tempest. ⁴³ Are not the evils which are come to us sufficient? ⁴⁴ If thou shalt forsake us, ^q how much better had it been for us, if we also had been consumed ^r in the burning of Sion! ⁴⁵ For we are not better than they that died there. And they wept with a loud voice. And I answered them, and said, ⁴⁶ Be of good comfort, O Israel; and be not sorrowful, thou house of Jacob: ⁴⁷ for the Most High hath you in remembrance, and the Mighty hath not forgotten you ^s for ever. ⁴⁸ As for me, I have not forsaken you, neither am I departed from you: but am come into this place, to pray for ^t the desolation of Sion, and that I might seek mercy for ^u the low estate of your sanctuary. ⁴⁹ And now go your way every man to his own house, and after these days will I come unto you. ⁵⁰ So the people went their way into the city, like as I said unto them: ⁵¹ but I sat in the field seven days, ^v as the angel commanded me; and in those days ^w I did eat only of the flowers of the field, and had ^x my meat of the herbs.

13 And it came to pass ^a after seven days, I dreamed a dream by night: ^b and, lo, ^c there arose a wind from the sea, that it moved all the waves thereof. ³ And I beheld, and, lo, ^d [this wind caused ^e to come up from the midst of the sea as it were the likeness of a man, and I beheld, and, lo,] that man ^f flew ^g with the clouds of heaven: ⁴ and ^h when he turned his countenance to look, all things trembled that were seen under him. ⁵ And whensoever the voice went out of his mouth, all they burned that heard his voice, like as the ⁱ wax melteth when it feeleth the fire. ⁶ And after this I beheld, and, lo, there was gathered together a multitude of men, out of number, from the four winds of heaven, to make war against ^j the man that came out of the sea. ⁷ And I beheld, and, lo, he graved himself ^a a great mountain, and flew up upon it. ⁷ But I sought to see the region or place whereout the mountain was graven, and I could not. ⁸ And after this I beheld, and, lo, all they which were gathered together to fight against him were sore afraid, and yet durst fight. ⁹ And, lo, as he saw the assault of the multitude that came, he neither lifted up his hand, nor held spear, nor any instrument of war: ¹⁰ but only I saw how that he sent out of his mouth as it had been a flood of fire, and out of his lips a flaming breath, and out of his tongue he cast forth sparks ^b of the storm. ¹¹ And these were all mingled together; the flood of fire, the flaming breath, and the great storm; and fell upon the assault of the multitude which was prepared to fight, and burned them up every one, so that upon a sudden of an innumerable multitude nothing was to be perceived, but only ^c dust of ashes and smell of smoke: when I saw this I was amazed. ¹² Afterward I beheld the same man come down from the mountain, and call unto him ^d another multitude which was peaceable. ¹³ And there came ^e much people unto him, whereof some were glad, some were sorry, some of them were bound, and other some ^f brought of them that were offered: then through great fear I awaked, and prayed unto the Most High, and said, ¹⁴ Thou hast shewed thy servant these wonders from the beginning, ¹⁵ and hast counted me worthy that thou shouldst receive my prayer: ¹⁶ and now shew me moreover the interpretation of this dream. ¹⁷ For as I conceive in mine understanding, woe unto ^g them that shall be left in those days! and much more woe unto them that are not left! ¹⁸ For they that were not left shall be in heaviness, ¹⁹ understanding the things that are laid up in the latter days, but not attaining unto them. ²⁰ But woe unto ^h them also that are left, for this cause; for they shall see great perils and many necessities, like as these dreams declare. ²¹ Yet is it ⁱ better for one to be in peril and to come into ^j these things, than ^k to pass away as a cloud out of the world, and not to see the things that ^l shall happen in the last days.

And he answered unto me, and said, ²² The interpretation of the vision shall I tell thee, and I will also open unto thee the things whereof thou hast made mention. ²³ Whereas thou hast spoken of them that are left behind, this is the interpretation: ²⁴ He that shall ^m endure the peril in that time ⁿ shall keep them that be fallen into danger, even ^o such as have works, ^p and faith toward the Almighty. ²⁴ Know therefore, that they which be left behind are more blessed than they that be dead. ²⁵ These are the interpretations of the vision: Whereas ²⁶ thou sawest a man coming up from the midst of the sea, ²⁶ the same is he whom the Most High hath kept a great season, which by ²⁷ his own self shall deliver his creature: and he shall order them that are left behind. ²⁷ And ²⁸ whereas thou sawest, that out of his mouth there came wind, and fire, and storm; ²⁸ and whereas he held neither spear, nor any instrument of war, but destroyed the assault of that multitude which came to fight against him; this is the interpretation: ²⁹ Behold, the days come, when the Most High will begin ³⁰ to deliver them that are upon the earth. ³⁰ And there shall come astonishment of mind upon them that dwell on the earth. ³¹ And one shall think to war against another, city against city, place against place, people against people, and kingdom against kingdom. ³² And it shall be, when these things shall come to pass, and the signs shall happen ³³ which I shewed thee before, then shall ³⁴ my Son be revealed, ³⁴ whom thou sawest as a man ascending. ³³ And it shall be, when all the nations hear his voice, every man shall leave his own land and the battle they have one against another. ³⁴ And an innumerable multitude shall be gathered together, as thou sawest, desiring to come, and to fight against him. ³⁵ But he shall stand upon the top of the mount Sion. ³⁶ And Sion shall come, and shall be shewed to all men, being prepared and builded, like as thou sawest ³⁷ the mountain ³⁸ graven without hands. ³⁷ And this ³⁹ my Son shall rebuke the nations which are come for their wickedness, with ⁴⁰ plagues that are like unto ⁴¹ a tempest; ³⁸ and shall taunt them to their face with their evil thoughts, and the torments wherewith they shall be tormented, ⁴² which are likened unto a flame; and he shall destroy them without labour by the law, which is likened unto fire. ³⁹ And whereas thou sawest that he gathered unto him ⁴³ another multitude that was peaceable; ⁴⁰ these are the ten tribes, which were led away out of their own land in the time of Osea the king, ⁴¹ whom Salmanassar the king of the Assyrians led away captive, and he carried them beyond the River, and they were carried into another land. ⁴² But they took this counsel among themselves, that they would leave the multitude of the heathen, and go forth into a further country, where never mankind dwelt, ⁴³ that they might there keep their statutes, which they had not kept in their own land. ⁴³ And they entered by the narrow passages of ⁴⁴ the river Euphrates. ⁴⁴ For the Most High then wrought signs for them, ⁴⁵ and stayed the springs of the River, till they were passed over. ⁴⁵ For through that country there was a great way to go, namely, of a year and a half: and the same region is called ⁴⁶ Arzareth. ⁴⁶ Then dwelt they there until the latter time; and now when they begin to come again, ⁴⁷ the Most High ⁴⁸ stayeth the springs of the River again, that they may go through: therefore sawest thou the multitude gathered together with peace. ⁴⁸ But those that be left behind of thy people are they that are found ⁴⁹ within my holy border. ⁴⁹ It shall be therefore when he shall destroy the multitude of the nations that are gathered together, he shall defend the people that remain. ⁵⁰ And then shall he shew them very many wonders.

⁵¹ Then said I, ⁵² O Lord that bearest rule, shew me this: wherefore I have seen ⁵³ the man coming up from the midst of the sea. ⁵² And he said unto me, Like as one can neither seek out nor know what is in the deep of the sea, even so can no man upon earth see ⁵⁴ my Son, or those that be with him, but ⁵⁵ in the time of ⁵⁶ his day. ⁵³ This is the interpretation of the dream which thou sawest, and ⁵⁴ for this thou only art enlightened herein. ⁵⁴ For thou hast forsaken thine own ways, and applied thy diligence unto mine, and hast sought out my law. ⁵⁵ Thy life hast thou ordered in wisdom, and ⁵⁶ hast called understanding thy mother. ⁵⁶ And therefore have I shewed thee this; ⁵⁷ for there is a reward laid up with the Most High: and it shall be, ⁵⁸ after other three days I will speak other things unto thee, and declare unto thee mighty and wondrous things. ⁵⁷ Then went I forth and passed into the field, giving praise and thanks greatly unto the Most High because of his wonders, which he did from time to time; ⁵⁸ and ⁵⁹ because he governeth the time, and such things as fall in their seasons. And there I sat ⁶⁰ three days.

I4 And it came to pass upon ⁶¹ the third day, I sat under an oak, and, behold, there came a voice out of a bush over against me, and said, Esdras, Esdras. ⁶² And I said, Here am I, Lord. ⁶³ And I stood up upon my feet. ⁶⁴ Then said he unto me, ⁶⁵ In the bush I did manifestly reveal myself, and talked with Moses, when my people were in bondage in Egypt: ⁶⁶ and I sent him, and ⁶⁷ he led my people out of Egypt; and I brought him up to the mount of Sinai, ⁶⁸ where I held him by me for many days; ⁶⁹ and told him many wondrous things, and shewed him the secrets of the times, and the end of the seasons; and commanded him, saying, ⁶These words shalt thou publish openly, and these shalt thou hide. ⁷And now I say unto thee, ⁸Lay up in thy heart the signs that I have shewed, and the dreams that thou hast seen, and the interpretations which thou hast heard: ⁹for ¹⁰thou shalt be taken away from men, and from henceforth thou shalt remain with ¹¹my Son, and with ¹²such as be like thee, until the times be ended. ¹³For the world hath lost its youth, and the times begin to wax old. ¹⁴For the world is divided into twelve parts, ¹⁵and ten parts of it are gone already, ¹⁶even the half of the tenth part: ¹⁷and there remain of it two parts after the middle of the tenth part. ¹⁸Now therefore ¹⁹set thine house in order, and ²⁰reprove thy people, comfort the lowly among them, ²¹and instruct such of them as be wise, and now renounce the life that is corruptible, ²²and let go from thee mortal thoughts, ²³cast away from thee the burdens of man, put off now thy weak nature, ²⁴and lay aside the thoughts that are most grievous unto thee, and haste thee to remove from these times. ²⁵For yet worse evils than those which thou hast seen happen shall be done hereafter. ²⁶For look, how much the world shall be weaker through age, so much the more shall evils increase upon them that dwell therein. ²⁷For the truth shall withdraw itself further off, and leaving be hard at hand: for now hasteth ²⁸the eagle to come, ²⁹which thou sawest in vision. ³⁰Then answered I and said, ³¹I will speak before thee, O Lord. ³²Behold, I will go, ³³as thou hast commanded me, and reprove the people that now be: but they that shall be born afterward, who shall admonish them? for the world is set in darkness, and they that dwell therein are without light. ³⁴For thy law is burnt, therefore no man knoweth the things that are done of thee, or the works that shall be done. ³⁵But if I have found favour before thee, ³⁶send the Holy Spirit into me, and I shall write all that hath been done in the world since the beginning, even the things that were written in thy law, that men may be able to find the path, and that they which would live in the latter days may live. ³⁷And he answered me and said, Go thy way, gather the people together, and say unto them, ³⁸that they seek thee not for forty days. ³⁹But look thou prepare these many tablets, and take with thee Sares, Dabris, Selemia, Ethanus, and Asiel, these five, which are ⁴⁰ready to write swiftly; ⁴¹and come hither, and I shall light ⁴²a lamp of understanding in thine heart, which shall not be put out, till the things be ended which thou shalt write. ⁴³And when thou hast done, some things shalt thou publish openly, and ⁴⁴some things shalt thou deliver in secret to the wise: to-morrow this hour shalt thou begin to write.

⁴⁵Then went I forth, as he commanded me, and gathered all the people together, and said, ⁴⁶Hear these words, O Israel. ⁴⁷Our fathers at the beginning were strangers in Egypt, and they were delivered from thence, ⁴⁸and received the law of life, which they kept not, which ye also have transgressed after them. ⁴⁹Then was ⁵⁰the land, even the land of Sion, given you for a possession: but ye yourselves, and your fathers, have done unrighteousness, and have not kept the ways which the Most High commanded you. ⁵¹And forasmuch as ⁵²he is a righteous judge, he took from you for a while the thing that he had given you. ⁵³And now ye are here, and your brethren are among you. ⁵⁴Therefore if so be that ye will rule over your own understanding, and instruct your hearts, ye shall be kept alive, and after death ye shall obtain mercy. ⁵⁵For ⁵⁶after death shall the judgement come, ⁵⁷when we shall live again: and ⁵⁸then shall the names of the righteous be manifest, and ⁵⁹the works of the ungodly shall be declared. ⁶⁰Let no man therefore come unto me now, nor seek after me ⁶¹these forty days. ⁶²So I took the five men, as he commanded me, and we went forth into the field, and remained there. ⁶³And it came to pass on the morrow that, lo, a voice called me, saying, Esdras, ⁶⁴open thy mouth, and drink that I give thee to drink. ⁶⁵Then opened I my mouth, and, behold, there was reached unto me a full cup, which was full as it were with water, but the colour of it was like fire. ⁶⁶And I took it, and drank: and when I had drunk of it, my heart uttered understanding, and wisdom grew in my breast, for my spirit retained its memory: ⁶⁷and my mouth was opened, and shut no more. ⁶⁸The Most High gave understanding unto ⁶⁹the five men, and they wrote by course the things that were told them, in ⁷⁰characters which they knew not, and they sat forty days: now they wrote in the day-time, and at night they ate bread. ⁷¹As for me, I spake in the day, and by night I held not my tongue. ⁷²So in ⁷³forty days were written ⁷⁴four-score and fourteen books. ⁷⁵And it came to pass, when ⁷⁶the forty days were fulfilled, that the Most High spake unto me, saying, The first that thou hast written publish openly, and let the worthy and unworthy read it: ⁴⁶but keep the seventy last, that thou mayest deliver them to such as be wise among thy people: ⁴⁷for in them is the spring of understanding, ⁴⁸the fountain of wisdom, and ⁴⁹the stream of knowledge. ⁴⁸And I did so.

15 ¹Behold, speak thou in the ears of my people the words of prophecy, ²which I will put in thy mouth, saith the Lord: ³and cause thou them to be written ⁴in paper: for ⁵they are faithful and true. ³Fear not their imaginations against thee, let not the unbelief of them that speak against thee trouble thee. ⁴For all the unbelievers shall die in their unbelief.

⁵Behold, saith the Lord, I bring evils upon the whole earth; ⁶sword and famine, and death and destruction. ⁶For wickedness hath prevailed over every land, and their hurtful works ⁷are come to the full. ⁷Therefore saith the Lord, ⁸I will hold my peace no more as touching their wickedness, which they profanely commit, neither will I suffer them in these things, which they wickedly practise: behold, ⁹the innocent and righteous blood crieth unto me, and the souls of the righteous cry out continually. ⁹I will surely avenge them, saith the Lord, and will receive unto me all the innocent blood from among them. ¹⁰Behold, ¹¹my people is led as a flock to the slaughter: I will not suffer them now ¹²to dwell in the land of Egypt: ¹³but ¹⁴I will bring them out with a mighty hand and with a high arm, and will smite Egypt with plagues, as aforetime, and will destroy all the land thereof. ¹⁵Let Egypt mourn, and the foundations thereof, for the plague of the chastisement and the punishment that God shall bring upon it. ¹⁶Let the husbandmen that till the ground mourn: for their seeds shall fail and their trees shall be laid waste through the blasting and hail, and ¹⁷a terrible star. ¹⁸Woe to the world and them that dwell therein! ¹⁹For the sword and their destruction draweth nigh, and ²⁰the nation shall rise up against nation to battle with weapons in their hands. ²¹For there shall be sedition among men; and waxing strong one against another, they shall not regard their king nor the chief of their great ones, in their might. ²²For a man shall desire to go into a city, and shall not be able. ²³For because of their pride the cities shall be troubled, the houses shall be destroyed, and men shall be afraid. ²⁴For a man shall have no pity upon his neighbour, but shall make an assault on their houses with the sword, and spoil their goods, because of the lack of bread, and for great tribulation.

²⁵Behold, saith God, I call together all the kings of the earth, to stir up them that are from the rising of the sun, from the south, from the east, and Libanus; ²⁶to turn themselves one against another, and repay the things that they have done to them. ²⁷Like as they do yet this day unto my chosen, so will I do also, and ²⁸recompense in their bosom. Thus saith the Lord God: ²⁹My right hand shall not spare the sinners, and ³⁰my sword shall not cease over them that shed innocent blood upon the earth. ³¹And a fire is gone forth from his wrath, and hath consumed the foundations of the earth, and the sinners, like the straw that is kindled. ³²Woe to them that sin, and keep not my commandments! saith the Lord. ³³I will not spare them: go your way, ye rebellious children, defile not my sanctuary. ³⁴For the Lord knoweth all them that trespass against him, therefore hath he delivered them unto death and destruction. ³⁵For now are the evils come upon the whole earth, and ye shall remain in them: for God shall not deliver you, because ye have sinned against him.

³⁶Behold, a vision horrible, and the appearance thereof from the east! ³⁷And the nations of the ³⁸dragons of Arabia shall come out with many chariots, and from the day that they set forth the hissing of them is carried over the earth, so that all they which shall hear them may fear also and tremble. ³⁹Also the Carmonians raging in wrath shall go forth ⁴⁰as the wild boars of the wood, and with great power shall they come, and join battle with them, and shall waste a portion of the land of the Assyrians with their teeth. ⁴¹And then shall the dragons have the upper hand, remembering their ⁴²nature; and if they shall turn themselves, conspiring together in great power to persecute them, ⁴³then these shall be troubled, and keep silence through their power, and shall turn and flee. ⁴⁴And from the land of the Assyrians shall the lier in wait besiege them, and consume one of them, and upon their host shall be fear and trembling, and ⁴⁵sedition against their kings. ⁴⁶Behold, ⁴⁷clouds from the east and from the north unto the south, and they are very horrible to look upon, full of wrath and storm. ⁴⁸They shall dash one against another, and they shall pour out a plentiful ⁴⁹storm upon the earth, ⁵⁰even their own star; and ⁵¹there shall be blood from the sword unto the horse's belly, ⁵²and to the thigh of man, and to the camel's hough. ⁵³And there shall be fearfulness and great trembling upon earth: and they that see that wrath shall be afraid, and trembling shall take hold upon them.

³² And after this shall there be stirred up great storms from the south, and from the north, and another part from the west. ³³ And strong winds shall arise from the east, and shall shut it up, even the cloud which he raised in wrath; and ³⁴ the star that was to cause destruction by the east wind shall be violently driven toward the south and west. ⁴⁰ And great clouds and mighty and full of wrath shall be lifted up, and the star, that they may destroy all the earth, and them that dwell therein; and they shall pour out over every high and eminent one ⁴¹ a terrible star, ⁴² fire, and hail, and flying swords, and many waters, that all plains may be full, and all rivers, with the abundance of those waters. ⁴³ And they shall break down the cities and walls, mountains and hills, trees of the wood, and grass of the meadows, and their corn. ⁴³ And they shall go on steadfastly unto Babylon, and destroy her. ⁴⁴ They shall come unto her, and compass her about; the star and all wrath shall they pour out upon her: ⁴⁵ then shall the dust and smoke go up unto the heaven, and all they that be about her shall bewail her. ⁴⁵ And they that remain shall do service unto them that have put her in fear.

⁴⁶ And thou, O Asia, that art partaker in ⁴⁷ the beauty of Babylon, and in the glory of her person: ⁴⁷ woe unto thee, thou wretch, because thou hast made thyself like unto her; ⁴⁸ thou hast decked thy daughters in whoredom, that they might please and glory in thy lovers, which have always desired thee to commit whoredom withal! ⁴⁸ Thou hast followed her that is hateful in all her works and inventions: therefore saith God, ⁴⁹ I will send evils upon thee; ⁵⁰ widowhood, poverty, famine, sword, and pestilence, to waste thy houses unto destruction and death. ⁵⁰ And the glory of thy power shall be dried up ⁵¹ as a flower, when the heat shall arise that is sent over thee. ⁵² Thou shalt be weakened as a poor woman with stripes, and as one chastised with wounds, so that thy mighty ones and thy lovers thou shalt not be able to receive. ⁵³ Would I with jealousy have so proceeded against thee, saith the Lord, ⁵³ if thou hadst not always slain my chosen, exalting the stroke of thine hands, and saying over their ⁵⁴ dead, ⁵⁴ when thou wast drunken, ⁵⁴ Set forth the beauty of thy countenance? ⁵⁵ The reward of a harlot shall be in thy bosom, therefore shalt thou receive recompense. ⁵⁶ Like as thou shalt do unto my chosen, saith the Lord, even so shall God do unto thee, and shall deliver thee into mischief. ⁵⁷ And thy children shall die of hunger, and thou shalt fall by the sword: and thy cities shall be broken down, and all thine shall perish by the sword in the field. ⁵⁸ And they that be in the mountains shall die of hunger, and ⁵⁹ eat their own flesh, and drink their own blood, for very hunger of bread, and thirst of water. ⁵⁹ Thou unhappy above all shalt come and shalt again receive evils. ⁶⁰ And in the passage they shall rush on ⁶¹ the idle city, and shall destroy some portion of thy land, and mar part of thy glory, and shall return again to Babylon ⁶² that was destroyed. ⁶¹ And thou shalt be cast down by them ⁶³ as stubble, and they shall be unto thee as fire; ⁶⁴ and shall devour thee, and thy cities, thy land, and thy mountains; all thy woods and thy fruitful trees shall they burn up with fire. ⁶³ They shall carry thy children away captive, and shall spoil thy wealth, and mar the glory of thy face.

16 ¹ Woe unto thee, Babylon, and ² Asia! woe unto thee, O Egypt, and Syria! ³ Gird up yourselves with sackcloth and garments ⁴ of hair, and bewail your children, and lament; for your destruction is at hand. ³ A sword is sent upon you, and who is he that may turn it back? ⁴ A fire is sent upon you, and who is he that may quench it? ⁵ Evils are sent upon you, and who is he that may drive them away? ⁶ May one drive away ⁷ a hungry lion in the wood? ⁸ Or may one quench the fire in stubble, when it hath once begun to burn? ⁷ May one turn again ⁸ the arrow that is shot of a strong archer? ⁸ The Lord God sendeth the evils, and who shall drive them away? ⁹ A fire shall go forth from his wrath, and who is he that may quench it? ¹⁰ He shall cast lightning, and who shall not fear? he shall thunder, and who shall not tremble? ¹¹ The Lord shall threaten, and who shall not be utterly broken in pieces at his presence? ¹² The earth quaketh, and the foundations thereof; the sea ariseth up with waves from the deep, and the waves of it shall be troubled, and ¹³ the fishes thereof also, at the presence of the Lord, and before the glory of his power: ¹³ for strong is his right hand that bendeth the bow, his arrows that he shooteth are ¹⁴ sharp, and ¹⁵ shall not miss, when they begin to be shot into the ends of the world. ¹⁴ Behold, the evils are sent forth, and shall not return again, until they come upon the earth. ¹⁵ The fire is kindled, and shall not be put out, till it consume the foundations of the earth. ¹⁶ Like as ¹⁷ an arrow which is shot of a mighty archer returneth not backward, even so the evils that are sent forth upon earth shall not return again.

17 Woe is me! woe is me! who will deliver me in those days?
 18 The beginning of sorrows, and there shall be great mournings; the beginning of famine, and many shall perish; the beginning of wars, and the powers shall stand in fear; the beginning of evils, and all shall tremble! what shall they do in all this when the evils shall come? 19 Behold, famine and plague, tribulation and anguish! they are sent as scourges for amendment. 20 But for all these things they shall not turn them from their wickedness, nor be always mindful of the scourges. 21 Behold, victuals shall be so good cheap upon earth, that they shall think themselves to be in good case, and even then shall evils grow upon earth, sword, famine, and great confusion. 22 For many of them that dwell upon earth shall perish of famine; and the other, that escape the famine, shall the sword destroy. 23 And the dead shall be cast out as dung, and there shall be no man to comfort them: for the earth shall be left desolate, and the cities thereof shall be cast down. 24 There shall be no husbandman left to till the earth, and to sow it. 25 The trees shall give fruit, and who shall gather them? 26 The grapes shall ripen, and who shall tread them? for in all places there shall be a great forsaking: 27 for one man shall desire to see another, or to hear his voice. 28 For of a city there shall be ten left, and two of the field, which have hidden themselves in the thick groves, and in the clefts of the rocks. 29 As in an orchard of olives upon every tree there be left three or four olives, 30 or as when a vineyard is gathered there be some clusters left by them that diligently seek through the vineyard; 31 even so in those days there shall be three or four left by them that search their houses with the sword. 32 And the earth shall be left desolate, and the fields thereof shall be for briars, and her ways and all her paths shall bring forth thorns, because no sheep shall pass therethrough. 33 The virgins shall mourn, having no bridegrooms; the women shall mourn, having no husbands; their daughters shall mourn, having no helpers. 34 In the wars shall their bridegrooms be destroyed, and their husbands shall perish of famine. 35 Hear now these things, and understand them, ye servants of the Lord. 36 Behold, the word of the Lord, receive it: disbelieve not the things whereof the Lord speaketh. 37 Behold, the evils draw nigh, and are not slack. 38 Like as a woman with child in the ninth month, when the hour of her delivery draweth near, within two or three hours doleful pains compass her womb, and when the child cometh forth from the womb, there shall be no tarrying for a moment: 39 even so shall not the evils be slack to come upon the earth, and the world shall groan, and sorrows shall take hold of it on every side. 40 O my people, hear my word: make you ready to the battle, and in those evils be even as pilgrims upon the earth. 41 He that selleth, let him be as he that fleeth away: and he that buyeth, as one that will lose: 42 he that occupieth merchandise, as he that hath no profit by it; and he that buildeth, as he that shall not dwell therein: 43 he that soweth, as if he should not reap: so also he that pruneth the vines, as he that shall not gather the grapes: 44 they that marry, as they that shall get no children; and they that marry not, as the widowed. 45 Inasmuch as they that labour labour in vain; 46 for strangers shall reap their fruits, and spoil their goods, overthrow their houses, and take their children captive, for in captivity and famine shall they beget their children: 47 and they that traffick traffick to become a spoil: the more they deck their cities, their houses, their possessions, and their own persons, 48 the more will I hate them for their sins, saith the Lord. 49 Like as a right honest and virtuous woman hateth a harlot, 50 so shall righteousness hate iniquity, when she decketh herself, and shall accuse her to her face, when he cometh that shall defend him that diligently searcheth out every sin upon earth.

51 Therefore be ye not like thereunto, nor to the works thereof. 52 For yet a little while, and iniquity shall be taken away out of the earth, and righteousness shall reign over us. 53 Let not the sinner say that he hath not sinned: for he shall burn as coals of fire upon his head, which saith, I have not sinned before God and his glory. 54 Behold, the Lord knoweth all the works of men, their imaginations, their thoughts, and their hearts. 55 Who said, Let the earth be made; and it was made: Let the heaven be made; and it was made. 56 And at his word were the stars established, and he knoweth the number of the stars. 57 Who searcheth the deep, and the treasures thereof; he hath measured the sea, and what it containeth. 58 Who hath shut the sea in the midst of the waters, and with his word hath he hanged the earth upon the waters. 59 Who spreadeth out the heaven like a vault; upon the waters hath he founded it. 60 Who hath made the desert springs of water, and pools upon the tops of the mountains, to send forth rivers from the height to water the earth. 61 Who framed man, and put a heart in the midst of the body, and gave him breath, life, and understanding, 62 yea, the spirit of God Almighty. He who made all things, and searcheth out hidden things in hidden places, ⁶³surely he knoweth your imagination, ⁶⁴and what ye think in your hearts. ⁶⁵Woe to them that sin, and would fain hide their sin! ⁶⁶Forasmuch as the Lord will exactly search out all your works, and he will put you all to shame. ⁶⁷And when your sins are brought forth before men, ye shall be ashamed, and ⁶⁸your own iniquities shall stand as your accusers in that day. ⁶⁹What will ye do? or how will ye hide your sins before God and his angels? ⁷⁰Behold, God is the judge, fear him: leave off from your sins, and forget your iniquities, to meddle no more with them for ever: so shall God lead you forth, and deliver you from all tribulation.

⁷¹For, behold, the burning wrath of a great multitude is kindled over you, and they shall take away certain of you, and ⁷²seed you with that which is slain unto idols. ⁷³And they that consent unto them shall be had in derision and in reproach, and be trodden under foot of them. ⁷⁴For there shall be ⁷⁵in divers places, and in the next cities, a great insurrection upon those that fear the Lord. ⁷⁶They shall be like mad men, sparing none, but spoiling and destroying them that still fear the Lord. ⁷⁷For they shall waste and take away their goods, and cast them out of their houses. ⁷⁸Then shall be manifest the trial of mine elect; ⁷⁹even as the gold that is tried in the fire. ⁸⁰Hear, O ye mine elect, saith the Lord: behold, the days of tribulation are at hand, and I will deliver you from them. ⁸¹Be ye not afraid, neither doubt; ⁸²for God is your guide: ⁸³and ye who keep my commandments and precepts, saith the Lord God, ⁸⁴let not your sins weigh you down, and let not your iniquities lift up themselves. ⁸⁵Woe unto them that are fast bound with their sins, and covered with their iniquities, like as a field is fast bound with bushes, and the path thereof covered with thorns, that no man may travel through! ⁸⁶It is even shut off, and ⁸⁷given up to be consumed of fire.

TOBIT.

I THE book of the words of Tobit, the son of Tobiel, the son of Ananias, the son of Adiel, the son of Gabael, of the seed of Asiel, of the tribe of Naphtali; ²who in the days of ³Enemessar king of the Assyrians was carried away captive out of ⁴Thisbe, which is on the right hand of ⁵Kedesh Naphtali in Galilee above Asher.

⁶I Tobit walked in the ways of truth and righteousness all the days of my life, and I did ⁷many almsdeeds to my brethren and my nation, who went with me into the land of the Assyrians, to Nineveh. ⁸And when I was in mine own country, in the land of Israel, while I was yet young, ⁹all the tribe of Naphtali my father fell away from the house of Jerusalem, which was chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, that all the tribes should sacrifice ¹⁰there, and the temple of the habitation of the Most High was hallowed and built ¹¹therein for all ages. ¹²And all the tribes which fell away together ¹³sacrificed to ¹⁴the heifer Baal, and so did the house of Naphtali my father. ¹⁵And I alone went often to Jerusalem at the feasts, ¹⁶as it hath been ordained unto all Israel by an everlasting decree, ¹⁷having the firstfruits and the tenths of mine increase, and ¹⁸that which was first shorn; and I gave them at the altar to the priests the sons of Aaron. ¹⁹The tenth part of all mine increase I gave to the sons of Levi, who ministered at Jerusalem: and ²⁰the second tenth part I sold away, and went, and spent it each year at Jerusalem: ²¹and ²²the third I gave unto them to whom it was meet, as Deborah my father's mother had commanded me, because I was left an orphan by my father. ²³And when I became a man, I took to wife ²⁴Anna of the seed ²⁵of our own family, and of her I begat Tobias. ²⁶And when I was carried away captive to Nineveh, all my brethren and those that were of my kindred did eat of ²⁷the bread of the Gentiles: ²⁸but I kept myself from eating, ²⁹because I remembered God with all my soul. ³⁰And the Most High gave me grace and ³¹favour in the sight of ³²Enemessar, and I was his purveyor. ³³And I went into Media, and left in trust with ³⁴Gabael, the brother of Gabrias, at ³⁵Rages of Media, ten talents of silver.

³⁶And when ³⁷Enemessar was dead, ³⁸Sennacherib his son reigned in his stead; and ³⁹in his time the highways were troubled, and I could no more go into Media. ⁴⁰And in the days of 7 Enemessar I did many almsdeeds to my brethren: 8 I gave my bread to the hungry, 9 and my garments to the naked: and if I saw any of my race dead, and cast forth on the wall of Nineveh, 10 I buried him. 11 And if Sennacherib the king slew any, when he came fleeing from Judea, 12 I buried them privily; for in his wrath he slew many; and the bodies were sought for by the king, and were not found. 13 But one of the Ninevites went and shewed to the king concerning me, how that I buried them, and hid myself; and when I knew that I was sought for to be put to death, I withdrew myself for fear. 14 And all my goods were forcibly taken away, and there was nothing left unto me, save my wife Anna and my son Tobias. 15 And there passed not five and fifty days, before two of his sons slew him, and they fled into the mountains of Ararat. And Sarchedonus his son reigned in his stead; and he appointed over all the accounts of his kingdom, and over all his affairs, Achicharus my brother Anael's son. 16 And Achicharus made request for me, and I came to Nineveh. Now Achicharus was cupbearer, and keeper of the signet, and steward, and overseer of the accounts: and Sarchedonus appointed him next unto himself: but he was my brother's son.

2 Now when I was come home again, and my wife Anna was restored unto me, and my son Tobias, in the feast of Pentecost, which is the holy feast of the seven weeks, there was a good dinner prepared me, and I sat down to eat. 3 And I saw abundance of meat, and I said to my son, Go and bring what poor man soever thou shalt find of our brethren, who is mindful of the Lord; and, lo, I tarry for thee. 4 And he came, and said, Father, one of our race is strangled, and is cast out in the marketplace. 5 And before I had tasted aught, I sprang up, and took him up into a chamber until the sun was set. 6 And I returned, and washed myself, and ate my bread in heaviness, 7 and remembered the prophecy of Amos, as he said,

4 Your feasts shall be turned into mourning,

And all your mirth into lamentation.

7 And I wept: and when the sun was set, I went and made a grave, and buried him.

8 And my neighbours mocked me, and said, He is no longer afraid to be put to death for this matter: and yet

9 he fled away: and, lo, he burieth the dead again. 10 And the same night I returned from burying him, and slept by the wall of my courtyard, being polluted; and my face was uncovered:

11 and I knew not that there were sparrows in the wall; and, mine eyes being open, the sparrows muted warm dung into mine eyes, and white films came in mine eyes; and I went to the physicians, and they helped me not: but Achicharus did nourish me, until I went into Elymais.

12 And my wife Anna did spin in the women's chambers, 13 and did send the work back to the owners. And they on their part paid her wages, and gave her also besides a kid. 14 But when it came to my house, it began to cry, and I said unto her, From whence is this kid? is it stolen? render it to the owners; for it is not lawful to eat anything that is stolen. 15 But she said, It hath been given me for a gift more than the wages. And I did not believe her, and I bade her render it to the owners; and I was ashamed at her. But she answered and said unto me, Where are thine alms and thy righteous deeds? behold, thou and all thy works are known.

3 And I was grieved and wept, and prayed in sorrow, saying,

O Lord, thou art righteous, and all thy works and all thy ways are mercy and truth, and thou judgest true and righteous judgement for ever. 3 Remember me, and look on me; take not vengeance on me for my sins and mine ignorances, and the sins of my fathers, which sinned before thee: 4 for they disobeyed thy commandments; and thou gavest us for a spoil, and for captivity, and for death, and for a proverb of reproach to all the nations among whom we are dispersed. 5 And now many are thy judgements, true are they; that thou shouldst deal with me according to my sins and the sins of my fathers: because we did not keep thy commandments, for we walked not in truth before thee. 6 And now deal with me according to that which is pleasing in thy sight, command my spirit to be taken from me, that I may be released, and become earth: for it is profitable for me to die rather than to live, because I have heard false reproaches, and there is much sorrow in me: command that I be now released from my distress, and go to the everlasting place: turn not thy face away from me.

7 The same day it happened unto Sarah the daughter of Raguel in Ecbatana of Media, that she also was reproached by her father's maid-servants; 8 because that she had been given to seven husbands, and Asmodeus the evil spirit slew them, before they had lain with her. And they said unto her, Dost thou not know that thou strangest thy husbands? thou hast had already seven husbands, and thou hast had no profit of any one of them. 9 Wherefore doest thou scourge us? if they be dead, go thy ways with them; let us never see of thee either son or daughter. ¹⁰ When she heard these things, she was grieved exceedingly, so that she thought to have hanged herself: and she said, I am the only daughter of my father; if I do this, it shall be a reproach unto him, and ¹¹ I shall bring down his old age with sorrow to ¹² the grave. ¹² And she prayed ¹³ by the window, and said, ¹⁴ Blessed art thou, O Lord my God, and blessed is thy holy and honourable name for ever: ¹⁵ let all thy works praise thee for ever. ¹⁶ And now, Lord, ¹⁷ I have set mine eyes and my face toward thee: ¹⁸ command that I be released from the earth, and that I no more hear reproach. ¹⁹ Thou knowest, Lord, that I am pure from all sin with man, ²⁰ and that I never polluted my name, nor the name of my father, in the land of my captivity: I am the only daughter of my father, and he hath no child that shall be his heir, nor brother near him, nor son belonging to him, that I should keep myself for a wife unto him: seven husbands of mine are dead already; why should I live? And if it please thee not to slay me, command some regard to be had of me, and pity taken of me, and that I hear no more reproach.

²¹ And the prayer of both was heard before the glory of the great God. ²² Raphael also was sent to heal them both, ²³ to scale away the white films from Tobit's eyes, and to give Sarah the daughter of Raguel for a wife to Tobias the son of Tobit; and to bind ²⁴ Asmodeus the evil ²⁵ spirit; ²⁶ because it belonged to Tobias that he should inherit her. The selfsame time did Tobit return and enter into his house, and Sarah the daughter of Raguel came down from her upper chamber.

²⁷ In that day Tobit remembered ²⁸ concerning the money which he had left in trust with Gabael in ²⁹ Rages of Media, and he said in himself, I have asked for death; why do I not call my son Tobias, that I may shew to him of the money before I die? ³⁰ And he called him, and said,

My child, ³¹ when I die, bury me: and ³² despise not thy mother; ³³ honour her all the days of thy life, and do that which is pleasing unto her, and grieve her not. ³⁴ Remember, my child, that she hath seen many dangers for thee, when thou wast in her womb. When she is dead, bury her by me in one grave. ³⁵ My child, ³⁶ be mindful of the Lord our God all thy days, and let not thy will be set to sin and to transgress his commandments: do righteousness all the days of thy life, and follow not the ways of unrighteousness. ³⁷ For if thou doest the truth, thy doings shall prosperously succeed to thee, and to all them that do righteousness. ³⁸ Give alms of thy substance; and ³⁹ when thou givest alms, ⁴⁰ let not thine eye be envious: ⁴¹ turn not away thy face from any poor man, and the face of God shall not be turned away from thee. ⁴² As thy substance is, give alms of it according to thine abundance: if thou have little, be not afraid to give alms according to that little: ⁴³ for thou layest up a good treasure for thyself against the day of necessity: ⁴⁴ because alms delivereth from death, and suffereth not to come into darkness. ⁴⁵ Alms is a good gift in the sight of the Most High for all that give it. ⁴⁶ Beware, my child, of all whoredom, and take first a wife of the seed of thy fathers, and ⁴⁷ take not a strange wife, which is not of thy father's tribe: for we are the sons of the prophets. Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, our fathers of old time, remember, my child, that they all took wives of their brethren, and were blessed in their children, and their seed shall inherit the land. ⁴⁸ And now, my child, love thy brethren, and scorn not in thy heart thy brethren, and the sons and the daughters of thy people, to take a wife of them: for in scornfulness is destruction and much trouble, and in naughtiness is decay and great want: for naughtiness is the mother of famine. ⁴⁹ Let not the wages of any man, which shall work for thee, tarry with thee, but render it unto him out of hand: and if thou serve God, recompense shall be made unto thee. Take heed to thyself, my child, in all thy works, and be discreet in all thy behaviour. ⁵⁰ And what thou thyself hatest, do to no man. ⁵¹ Drink not wine unto drunkenness, and let not drunkenness go with thee on thy way. ⁵² Give of thy bread to the hungry, and of thy garments to them that are naked: ⁵³ of all thine abundance give alms; ⁵⁴ and let not thine eye be envious when thou givest alms. ⁵⁵ Pour out thy bread on the ⁵⁶ burial of the just, and give nothing to sinners. ⁵⁷ Ask counsel of every man that is wise, and despise not any counsel that is profitable. ⁵⁸ And bless the Lord thy God at all times, and ask of him that thy ways may be made straight, and that all thy paths and counsels may prosper: for every nation hath not counsel; but ⁵⁹ the Lord himself giveth all good things, and he humbly whom he will, as he will. And now, my child, remember my commandments, and let them not be blotted out of thy mind. ⁶⁰ And now I shew thee of the ten talents of silver, which I left in trust with ⁶¹ Gabael the son of Gabrias at ⁶² Rages of Media. ⁶³ And fear not, my child, because ⁶⁴ we are made poor: ⁶⁵ thou hast much wealth, if thou fear

God, and depart from all sin, and do that which is pleasing in his sight.

5 And Tobias answered and said unto him, Father, I will do all things, whatsoever thou hast commanded me: but how shall I be able to receive the money, seeing I know him not? 3 And he gave him the handwriting, and said unto him, Seek thee a man which shall go with thee, and I will give him wages, whiles I yet live: and go and receive the money. 4 And he went to seek a man, and found Raphael which was an angel; and he knew it not; and he said unto him, Can I go with thee to Rages of Media? and knowest thou the places well? 6 And the angel said unto him, I will go with thee, and I know the way well: and I have lodged with our brother Gabael. 7 And Tobias said unto him, Wait for me, and I will tell my father. 8 And he said unto him, Go, and tarry not. And he went in and said to his father, Behold, I have found one which will go with me. But he said, Call him unto me, that I may know of what tribe he is, and whether he be a trusty man to go with thee.

9 And he called him, and he came in, and they saluted one another. 10 And Tobit said unto him, Brother, of what tribe and of what family art thou? Shew me. 11 And he said unto him, Seekest thou a tribe and a family, or a hired man which shall go with thy son? And Tobit said unto him, I would know, brother, thy kindred and thy name. 12 And he said, I am Azarias, the son of Ananias the great, of thy brethren. 13 And he said unto him, Welcome, brother; and be not angry with me, because I sought to know thy tribe and family: and thou art my brother, of an honest and good lineage: for I knew Ananias and Jathan, the sons of Shemaiah the great, when we went together to Jerusalem to worship, and offered the firstborn, and the tenths of our increase; and they went not astray in the error of our brethren: my brother, thou art of a great stock. 14 But tell me, what wages shall I give thee? a drachma a day, and those things that be necessary for thee, as unto my son? 15 And moreover, if ye return safe and sound, I will add something to thy wages. 16 And so they consented. And he said to Tobias, Prepare thyself for the journey, and God prosper you. And his son prepared what was needful for the journey, and his father said unto him, Go thou with this man; but God, which dwelleth in heaven, shall prosper your journey; and may his angel go with you. And they both went forth to depart, and the young man's dog with them.

17 But Anna his mother wept, and said to Tobit, Why hast thou sent away our child? is he not the staff of our hand, in going in and out before us? 18 Be not greedy to add money to money: but let it be as refuse in respect of our child. 19 For as the Lord hath given us to live, so doth it suffice us. 20 And Tobit said to her, Take no care, my sister; he shall return safe and sound, and thine eyes shall see him. 21 For a good angel shall go with him, and his journey shall be prospered, and he shall return safe and sound. 22 And she made an end of weeping.

6 Now as they went on their journey, they came at eventide to the river Tigris, and they lodged there. But the young man went down to wash himself, and a fish leaped out of the river, and would have swallowed up the young man. 3 But the angel said unto him, Take hold on the fish, and the young man caught hold of the fish, and cast it up on the land. 4 And the angel said unto him, Cut the fish open, and take the heart and the liver and the gall, and put them up safely. 5 And the young man did as the angel commanded him; but they roasted the fish, and ate it. And they both went on their way, till they drew near to Ecbatana. 6 And the young man said to the angel, Brother Azarias, to what use is the heart and the liver and the gall of the fish? 7 And he said unto him, Touching the heart and the liver, if a devil or an evil spirit trouble any, we must make a smoke thereof before the man or the woman, and the party shall be no more vexed. 8 But as for the gall, it is good to anoint a man that hath white films in his eyes, and he shall be healed.

9 But when they drew nigh unto Rages, the angel said to the young man, Brother, to-day we shall lodge with Raguel, and he is thy kinsman; and he hath an only daughter, named Sarah. I will speak for her, that she should be given thee for a wife. 11 For to thee doth the inheritance of her appertain, and thou only art of her kindred: and the maid is fair and wise. And now hear me, and I will speak to her father; and when we return from Rages we will celebrate the marriage: for I know that Raguel may in no wise marry her to another according to the law of Moses, or else he shall be liable to death, because it appertaineth unto thee to take the inheritance, rather than any other. 13 Then the young man said unto the angel, Brother Azarias, I have heard that this maid hath been given to seven men, and that they all perished in the bride-chamber. ¹⁴ And now I am the only son of my father, and I am afraid, lest I go in and die, even as those before me: for a ¹⁵ devil loveth her, which hurteth no man, but those which come unto her: and now I fear lest I die, and ¹⁶ bring my father's and my mother's life to the grave with sorrow because of me: and they have no other son to bury them. ¹⁷ But the angel said unto him, Dost thou not remember the words which thy father commanded thee, ¹⁸ that thou shouldest take a wife of thine own kindred? and now hear me, brother; for she shall be thy wife; and make thou no reckoning of the devil; for this night shall she be given thee to wife. ¹⁹ And ²⁰ when thou shalt come into the bride-chamber, thou shalt take the ashes of incense, and shalt lay upon them some of the heart and liver of the fish, ²¹ and shalt make a smoke therewith: ²² and the devil ²³ shall smell it, and flee away, and never come again any more. But when thou goest nigh unto her, rise up both of you, and cry to God which is merciful, and he shall save you, and have mercy on you. Fear not, for she was prepared for thee from the beginning; and thou shalt save her, and she shall go with thee. And I suppose that thou shalt have children of her. And when Tobias heard these things, he loved her, and his soul clave to her exceedingly.

7 ¹ And they came to ² Ecbatana, and arrived at the house of ³ Raguel. But Sarah met them; and she saluted them, and they her; and she brought them into the house. ⁴ And he said to Edna his wife, ⁵ How like is the young man to Tobit my cousin. ⁶ And Raguel asked them, From whence are ye, brethren? And they said unto him, We are of ⁷ the sons of Naphtali, which are captives in Nineveh. ⁸ And he said unto them, Know ye Tobit our brother? But they said, We know him. And he said unto them, ⁹ Is he in good health? ¹⁰ But they said, He is both alive, and in good health: and Tobias said, He is my father. ¹¹ And ¹² Raguel sprang up, and kissed him, and wept, ¹³ and blessed him, and said unto him, ¹⁴ Thou art the son of an honest and good man. And when he had heard that Tobit had lost his sight, he was grieved, and wept; ¹⁵ and Edna his wife and Sarah his daughter wept. And they received them gladly; and they killed a ram of the flock, and set store of meat before them.

But Tobias said to ¹ Raphael, Brother Azarias, speak of those things of which thou didst talk in the way, and let the matter be finished. ² And he communicated the thing to ³ Raguel: and Raguel said to Tobias, Eat and drink, and make merry: ⁴ for it appertaineth unto thee to take my child. Howbeit I will shew thee the truth. ⁵ I have given my child to seven men, and whosoever they came in unto her, they died in the night. But for the present be merry. And Tobias said, ⁶ I will taste nothing here, until ye make covenant and enter into covenant with me. ⁷ And Raguel said, Take her to thyself from henceforth according to the manner: thou art her brother, and she is thine: but the merciful God shall give all good success to you. ⁸ And he called his daughter Sarah, and took her by the hand, and gave her to be wife to Tobias, and said, Behold, take her to thyself ⁹ after the law of Moses, and ¹⁰ lead her away to thy father. And he blessed them; ¹¹ and he called Edna his wife, and took a book, and wrote an instrument, and sealed it. ¹² And they began to eat.

¹³ And Raguel called his wife Edna, and said unto her, Sister, prepare the other chamber, and bring her in thither. ¹⁴ And she did as he bade her, and brought her in thither: and she wept, and she received the tears of her daughter, and said unto her, ¹⁵ Be of good comfort, my child; the Lord of heaven and earth give thee ¹⁶ favour for this thy sorrow: be of good comfort, my daughter.

8 ¹ And when they had finished their supper, they brought Tobias in unto her. ² But as he went, he remembered ³ the words of ⁴ Raphael, and took the ashes of the incense, and put the heart and the liver of the fish thereupon, and made a smoke therewith. ⁵ But when ⁶ the devil smelled the smell, he fled into the uppermost parts of Egypt, and the angel ⁷ bound him. ⁸ But after they were both shut in together, Tobias rose up from the bed, and said, Sister, arise, and let us pray that the Lord may have mercy on us. ⁹ And Tobias began to say, ¹⁰ Blessed art thou, O God of our fathers, and blessed is thy holy and glorious name for ever; let the heavens bless thee, and all thy creatures. ¹¹ Thou madest Adam, ¹² and gavest him Eve his wife ¹³ for a helper and a stay: of them came the seed of men: thou didst say, It is not good that the man should be alone; let us make him a helper like unto him. ¹⁴ And now, O Lord, I take not this my sister for lost, but in truth: command that I may find mercy and grow old with her. ¹⁵ And she said with him, Amen. ¹⁶ And they slept both that night.

And ¹ Raguel arose, and went and digged a grave, ² saying, Lest he also should die. ³ And Raguel came into his house, ⁴ and said to Edna his wife,

Send one of the maidservants, and let them see whether he be alive: but if not, ⁷that we may bury him, and no man know it. ⁸So the maidservant opened the door, and went in, and found them both sleeping, ⁹and came forth, and told them that he was alive. ¹⁰And Raguel blessed God, saying,

¹¹Blessed art thou, O God, with all pure and holy blessing; and ¹²let thy saints bless thee, and all thy creatures; and let ¹³all thine angels and thine elect bless thee for ever. ¹⁴Blessed art thou, because thou hast made me glad; and it hath not befallen me as I suspected; but thou hast dealt with us according to thy great mercy. ¹⁵Blessed art thou, because thou hast had mercy on two that were the only begotten children of their parents: shew them mercy, O Lord; accomplish their life in health with gladness and mercy.

¹⁶But he commanded his servants to fill the grave. ¹⁷And he kept ¹⁸the wedding feast for them ¹⁹fourteen days. ²⁰And before the days of ²¹the wedding feast were finished, Raguel sware unto him, that he should not depart till ²²the fourteen days of the wedding feast were fulfilled; ²³and that then he should take ²⁴the half of his goods, and go in safety to his father; and the rest, said he, ²⁵when I and my wife shall die.

²⁶And Tobias called ²⁷Raphael, and ²⁸said unto him, ²⁹Brother Azarias, take with thee a servant, and two camels, and go to ³⁰Rages of Media to Gabael, and receive ³¹the money for me, and bring him to the wedding feast: ³²because Raguel hath sworn that I shall not depart; ³³and my father ³⁴counteth the days; and if I tarry long, he will be sorely grieved. ³⁵And ³⁶Raphael went on his way, and lodged with Gabael, and gave him ³⁷the handwriting: but he brought forth the bags with their seals, and gave them to him. ³⁸And they rose up early in the morning together, and came to the wedding feast: and Tobias blessed his wife.

³⁹And Tobit his father made ⁴⁰IO ⁴¹his count every day: and when the days of the journey were expired, and they came not, ⁴²he said, ⁴³I is he perchance detained? or is Gabael perchance dead, and there is no man to give him the money? ⁴⁴And he was sorely grieved. ⁴⁵But his wife said unto him, The child hath perished, seeing he tarrieth long; and she began to bewail him, and said, ⁴⁶I care for nothing, my child, since I have let thee go, ⁴⁷the light of mine eyes. ⁴⁸And Tobias saith unto her, Hold thy peace, take no care; he is in good health. ⁴⁹And she said unto him, Hold thy peace, deceive me not; my child hath perished. And she went out every day into the way by which they went, and did eat no bread in the day-time, and ceased not whole nights to bewail her son Tobias, until ⁵⁰the fourteen days of the wedding feast were expired, which Raguel had sworn that he should spend there.

But Tobias said unto Raguel, Send me away, for my father and my mother look no more to see me. ⁵¹But his father in law said unto him, Abide with me, and I will send to thy father, and they shall declare unto him how things go with thee. ⁵²And Tobias saith, No; but send me away to my father. ⁵³But Raguel arose, and gave him Sarah his wife, and ⁵⁴half his goods, servants and cattle and money; ⁵⁵and he blessed them, and sent them away, saying, ⁵⁶The God of heaven shall prosper you, my children, before I die. ⁵⁷And he said to his daughter, Honour thy father and thy mother in law; they are now thy parents; let me hear a good report of thee. And he kissed her. And Edna said to Tobias, The Lord of heaven restore thee, dear brother, and grant to me that I may see thy children of my daughter Sarah, that I may rejoice before the Lord: and, behold, I commit my daughter unto thee in special trust: vex her not.

II ¹After these things Tobias also went his way, blessing God because he had prospered his journey; and he blessed Raguel and Edna his wife. And he went on his way till they drew near unto Nineveh. ²And ³Raphael said to Tobias, Knowest thou not, brother, how thou didst leave thy father? ⁴Let us run forward before thy wife, and prepare the house. ⁵But take in thy hand ⁶the gill of the fish. And they went their way, and ⁷the dog went after them. ⁸And Anna sat looking about toward the way for her son. ⁹And she espied him coming, and said to his father, Behold, thy son cometh, and the man that went with him. ¹⁰And ¹¹Raphael said, I know, Tobias, that thy father will open his eyes. ¹²Do thou therefore anoint his eyes with ¹³the gall, and being pricked therewith, he shall rub, and shall make the white films to fall away, and he shall see thee.

¹⁴And Anna ran unto him, and ¹⁵fell upon the neck of her son, and said unto him, I have seen thee, my child; ¹⁶from henceforth I will die. And they wept both. ¹⁷And Tobit went forth toward the door, and stumbled: but his son ran unto him, ¹⁸and took hold of his father: and he strake the gall on his father's eyes, saying, Be of good cheer, my father. ¹⁹But when his eyes began to smart, he rubbed them; ²⁰and the white films scaled away from the corners of his eyes; and he saw his son, and fell upon his neck. ²⁴ And he wept, and said, ²⁵ Blessed art thou, O God, and blessed is thy name for ever, and blessed are all thy holy angels; ²⁶ for thou didst scourge, and didst have mercy on me: behold, I see my son Tobias. And his son went in rejoicing, and told his father the great things that had happened to him in Media.

²⁷ And Tobit went out to meet his daughter in law at the gate of Nineveh, rejoicing, and blessing God: and they which saw him go marvelled, because he had received his sight. ²⁸ And Tobit gave thanks before them, because God had shewed mercy on him. And when Tobit came near to Sarah his daughter in law, he blessed her, saying, ²⁹ Welcome, daughter: blessed is God which hath brought thee unto us, and blessed are thy father and thy mother. And there was joy to all his brethren which were at Nineveh. ³⁰ And ³¹ Achiarus, and Nasab his brother's son, came: ³² and Tobias' wedding feast was kept ³³ seven days with great gladness.

I2 And Tobit called his son Tobias, and said unto him, See, my child, that the man which went with thee have ¹ his wages, and thou must give him more. ² And he said unto him, Father, it is no harm to me to give him the half of ³ those things which I have brought: ⁴ for he hath led me for thee in safety, and he cured my wife, and brought my money, and likewise cured thee. ⁵ And the old man said, It is due unto him. ⁶ And he called the angel, and said unto him, Take the half of all that ye have brought. ⁷ Then he called them both privily, and said unto them,

Bless God, and give him thanks, and magnify him, and give him thanks in the sight of all that live, for the things which he hath done with you. ⁸ It is good to bless God and exalt his name, shewing forth with honour the works of God; and be not slack to give him thanks. ⁹ It is good to keep close the secret of a king, but to reveal gloriously the works of God. ¹⁰ Do good, and evil shall not find you. ¹¹ Good is prayer with fasting and alms and righteousness. ¹² A little with righteousness is better than much with unrighteousness. ¹³ It is better to give alms than to lay up gold: ¹⁴ for alms doth deliver from death, and it shall purge away all sin. They that do alms and righteousness shall be filled with life; ¹⁵ so but ¹⁶ they that sin are enemies to their own life. ¹⁷ Surely I will keep close nothing from you. I have said, ¹⁸ It is good to keep close the secret of a king, but to reveal gloriously the works of God. ¹⁹ And now, ²⁰ when thou didst pray, and ²¹ Sarah thy daughter in law, I did bring ²² the memorial of your prayer before the Holy One: and ²³ when thou didst bury the dead, I was with thee likewise. ²⁴ And when thou didst not delay to rise up, and leave thy dinner, that thou mightest go ²⁵ and cover the dead, thy good deed was not hid from me: but I was with thee. ²⁶ And now God did send me to heal thee and Sarah thy daughter in law. ²⁷ I am ²⁸ Raphael, one of the ²⁹ seven holy angels, which present the prayers of the saints, and go in before the glory of the Holy One.

³⁰ And they were both troubled, and ³¹ fell upon their faces; for they were afraid. ³² And he said unto them, Be not afraid, ye shall have peace; but bless God for ever. ³³ For not of any favour of mine, but by the will of your God I came; wherefore bless him for ever. ³⁴ All these days did I appear unto you; and I did neither eat nor drink, but ye saw ³⁵ a vision. ³⁶ And now give God thanks: because ³⁷ I ascend to him that sent me: and write in a book all the things which have been done. ³⁸ And they rose up, and saw him no more. ³⁹ And they confessed the great and wonderful works of God, and how the angel of the Lord had appeared unto them.

I3 And Tobit wrote a prayer for rejoicing, and said,

Blessed is God that liveth for ever,

And blessed is his kingdom.

² For he scourgeth, and sheweth mercy:

He leadeth down to ¹ the grave, and bringeth up again:

And there is none that shall escape his hand.

³ Give thanks unto him before the Gentiles, ye children of Israel:

For he hath scattered us among them.

⁴ There declare his greatness, And extol him before all the living:

Because he is our Lord, And God is our Father for ever.

⁵ And he will scourge us for our iniquities, and will again shew mercy,

And will gather us out of all the nations among whom ye are scattered.

⁶ If ye turn to him with your whole heart and with your whole soul,

To do truth before him, Then will he turn unto you,

And will not hide his face from you. And see what he will do with you,

And give him thanks with your whole mouth,

And bless the Lord of righteousness, And exalt ⁷ the everlasting King.

I ⁸ in the land of my captivity give him thanks,

And shew his strength and majesty to a nation of sinners.

That his tabernacle may be builded in thee again with joy,
And that he may make glad in thee those that are captives,
And love in thee for ever those that are miserable.

11 *Many nations shall come from far to the name of the Lord God

* With gifts in their hands, even gifts to *the King of heaven;
Generations of generations shall praise thee,
And sing songs of rejoicing.

12 *Cursed are all they that hate thee;
Blessed shall be all they that love thee for ever.

13 Rejoice and be exceeding glad for *the sons of the righteous:

For they shall be gathered together and shall bless the Lord of the righteous.

14 O *blessed are they that love thee;
They shall rejoice for thy peace:

*Blessed are all they that sorrowed for all thy scourges:

Because they shall rejoice for thee,
When they have seen all thy glory;
And they shall be made glad for ever.

15 Let my soul bless God *the great King.

16 *For Jerusalem shall be builded with sapphires and emeralds and precious stones;

Thy walls and towers and battlements with pure gold.

17 And the streets of Jerusalem shall be paved with beryl and carbuncle and stones of *Ophir.

18 *And all her streets shall say, Hallelujah, and give praise,
Saying, Blessed is God, which hath exalted thee for ever.

* And Tobit made an end of giving thanks. *And he was eight and fifty years old when he lost his sight; and after eight years he received it again: and he gave alms, and he feared the Lord God more and more, and gave thanks unto him.

3 Now he grew very old; and he called his son, and the six sons of his son, and said unto him,

My child, take thy sons: behold, I am grown old, and am ready to depart out of this life. *Go into Media, my child, for I surely believe all the things which

*Jonah the prophet spake of Nineveh, that it shall be overthrown, but in Media there shall rather be peace for a season;

and *that our brethren shall be scattered in the earth from the good land; and Jerusalem shall be desolate, and the house of God in it shall be burned up, and shall be desolate for a time; and God shall again have mercy on them, and bring them back into the land, *and they shall build the house, but *not like to the former house, until the times of that age be fulfilled; and *afterward they shall return from the places of their captivity, and build up Jerusalem with honour, and the house of God shall be built in it for ever with a glorious building, even as the prophets spake concerning it. *And *all the nations shall turn to fear the Lord God truly, *and shall bury their idols. *And all the nations shall bless the Lord, and his people shall give thanks unto God, and the Lord shall exalt his people; and all they that love the Lord God in truth and righteousness shall rejoice, shewing mercy to our brethren. *And now, my child, depart from Nineveh, because those things which *the prophet Jonah spake shall surely come to pass. *But keep thou the law and the ordinances, and shew thyself merciful and righteous, *that it may be well with thee. *And bury me decently, and thy mother with me; and dwell ye no longer at Nineveh. See, my child, what Aman did to *Achiacharus that nourished him, how *out of light he brought him into darkness, and all the recompense that he made him: and *Achiacharus was saved, but the other had his recompense, and he went down into darkness. *Manasses gave alms, and escaped the snare of death which he set for him: but Aman fell into the snare, and perished. *And now, my children, *consider what alms doeth, and how righteousness doth deliver.

And while he was saying these things, he gave up the ghost in the bed; but he was a hundred and eight and fifty years old: and *he buried him magnificently. *And when Anna died, *he buried her with his father. But Tobias departed with his wife and his sons to *Ecbatana unto Raguel his father in law, *and he grew old in honour, and he buried his father and mother in law magnificently, and he inherited their substance, and his father Tobit's. *And he died at *Ecbatana of Media, being a hundred and seven and twenty years old. *And before he died he heard of *the destruction of Nineveh, *which Nebuchadnezzar and Ahasuerus took captive; and before his death he rejoiced over Nineveh.

JUDITH.

I ¹In the twelfth year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, ²who reigned over the Assyrians in Nineveh, ³the great city; in the days of ⁴Arphaxad, who reigned over ⁵the Medes in ⁶Ecbatana, ⁷and built at ⁸Ecbatana and round about it walls of hewn stones three cubits broad and six cubits long, and made the height of the wall seventy cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits; ⁹and set the towers thereof at the gates thereof, a hundred cubits high, and the breadth thereof in the foundation threescore cubits; ¹⁰and made the gates thereof, even gates that were raised to the height of seventy cubits, and the breadth of them forty cubits, for the going forth of his mighty hosts, and the setting in array of his footmen: ¹¹even in those days king Nebuchadnezzar made war with king Arphaxad in the great plain: this plain is in the borders of ¹²Ragau. ¹³And there came to meet him all that dwelt in the hill country, and all that dwell by Euphrates, and ¹⁴Tigris, and Hydaspes, and in the plain of Arioch the king of the ¹⁵Elymeans; and many nations of the sons of Chelod assembled themselves to the battle.

¹⁶And Nebuchadnezzar king of the Assyrians sent unto all ¹⁷that dwell in Persia, and to all that dwell westward, to those that dwell in ¹⁸Cilicia and ¹⁹Damascus and ²⁰Libanus and Antilibanus, and to all that dwell over against the sea coast, ²¹and to those among the nations that were of ²²Carmel and ²³Gilead, and to the higher ²⁴Galilee and the great plain of ²⁵Esdraelon, ²⁶and to all that were in ²⁷Samaria and the cities thereof, and beyond Jordan unto Jerusalem, and Betane, and ²⁸Chellus, and ²⁹Kadesha, and ³⁰the river of Egypt, and ³¹Tahpanhes, and ³²Rameses, and all ³³the land of Goshen, ³⁴until thou comest above Tanis and ³⁵Memphis, and to all that dwell in Egypt, until thou comest to the borders of Ethiopia. ³⁶And all they that dwell in all the land ³⁷made light of the commandment of Nebuchadnezzar king of the Assyrians, and went not with him to the war; for they were not afraid of him, but he was before them as one man; and they turned away his messengers from their presence without effect, and with disgrace.

³⁸And Nebuchadnezzar was exceeding wroth with all this land, and he sware by his throne and kingdom, that he would surely be avenged upon all the coasts of ³⁹Cilicia and ⁴⁰Damascus and

Syria, that he would slay with his sword all the inhabitants of the land of ⁴¹Moab, and the children of ⁴²Ammon, and all Judaea, and all that were in Egypt, until thou comest to the borders of ⁴³the two seas. ⁴⁴And he set the battle in array with his host against king ⁴⁵Arphaxad in the seventeenth year; and he prevailed in his battle, and turned to flight all the host of ⁴⁶Arphaxad, and all his horse, and all his chariots; ⁴⁷and he became master of his cities, and he came even unto ⁴⁸Ecbatana, and took the towers, and spoiled the streets thereof, and ⁴⁹turned the beauty thereof into shame. ⁵⁰And he took ⁵¹Arphaxad in the mountains of ⁵²Ragau, and smote him through with his darts, and destroyed him utterly, unto this day. ⁵³And he returned with them to Nineveh, he and ⁵⁴all his company of sundry nations, an exceeding great multitude of men of war, and there he took his ease and banqueted, he and his host, a hundred and twenty days.

2 ¹And in the eighteenth year, the two and twentieth day of the first month, there was talk in the house of Nebuchadnezzar king of the Assyrians, that he should be avenged on all the land, ²even as he spake. ³And he called together all his servants, and all his great men, and communicated with them his secret counsel, and ⁴concluded the afflicting of all the land out of his own mouth. ⁵And they decreed to destroy all flesh ⁶which followed not the word of his mouth. ⁷And it came to pass, when he had ended his counsel, Nebuchadnezzar king of the Assyrians called Holofernes the chief captain of his host, ⁸which was next after himself, and said unto him,

⁹Thus saith ¹⁰the great king, ¹¹the lord of all the earth, Behold, thou shalt go forth from my presence, and take with thee men that trust in their strength, unto ¹²a hundred and twenty thousand footmen; and the number of horses with their riders twelve thousand: ¹³and thou shalt go forth against all the west country, ¹⁴because they disobeyed the commandment of my mouth. ¹⁵And thou shalt declare unto them, that they prepare earth and water; because I will go forth in my wrath against them, and ¹⁶will cover the whole face of the earth with the feet of my host, and I will give them for a spoil unto them: ¹⁷and their slain shall fill their valleys and brooks, and the river shall be filled with their dead, till it overflow: ¹⁸and I will lead

	them captives to the utmost parts of all the earth. ¹⁰ But thou shalt go forth, and take beforehand for me all their coats; and ¹¹ if they shall yield themselves unto thee, then shalt thou reserve them for me till the day of their reproof. ¹² But as for them that are disobedient, ¹³ thine eye shall not spare; but thou shalt give them up to be slain and to be spoiled in all thy land. ¹⁴ For ¹⁵ as I live, and by the power of my kingdom, I have spoken, and I will do this with my hand. ¹⁶ And thou, moreover, shalt not transgress aught of the commandments of thy lord, but thou shalt surely accomplish them, as I have commanded thee, and thou shalt not defer to do them. ¹⁷ And Holofernes went forth from the presence of his lord, and called all the governors and the captains and officers of the host of Asshur; ¹⁸ and he numbered chosen men for the battle, ¹⁹ as his lord had commanded him, unto a hundred and twenty thousand, and twelve thousand archers on horseback; ²⁰ and he ranged them, as a great multitude is ordered for the war. ²¹ And he took camels and asses and mules for their baggage, an exceeding great multitude; and sheep and oxen and goats without number for their provision; ²² and great store of victual for every man, and exceeding much gold and silver out of the king's house. ²³ And he went forth, he and all his host, on their journey, to go before king Nebuchadnezzar, and ²⁴ to cover all the face of the earth westward with their chariots and horsemen and chosen footmen. ²⁵ And a great company of sundry nations went forth with them like locusts, and like the sand of the earth: for they could not be numbered by reason of their multitude. ²⁶ And they departed out of Nineveh three days' journey toward the plain of Bectileth, and encamped from Bectileth near the mountain which is at the left hand of the upper Cilicia. ²⁷ And he took all his host, his footmen and horsemen and chariots, and went away from thence into the hill country, ²⁸ and destroyed Put and Lud, and spoiled all the children of Rases, and the children of Ishmael, which were over against the wilderness to the south of the land of the Chellians. ²⁹ And he went over Euphrates, and brake down all the high cities that were upon the river Arbonai, until thou comest to the sea. ³⁰ And he took possession of the borders of Cilicia, and slew all that resisted him, and came unto the borders of Japheth, which were toward the south, over against Arabia. ³¹ And he compassed about all the children of Midian, and set on fire their tents, and spoiled their sheepcotes. ³² And he went down into	the plain of Damascus ¹ in the days of wheat harvest, and set on fire all their fields, and utterly destroyed their flocks and herds, and spoiled their cities, and laid their plains waste, and smote all their young men with the edge of the sword. ² And the fear and the dread of him fell upon them that dwell on the sea coast, upon them that were in Sidon and Tyre, and them that dwell in Sur and Ocina, and all that dwell in Jemnaan; and they that dwell in Azotus and Ascalon feared him exceedingly. ³ And they sent unto him messengers with words of peace, saying, Behold, we the servants of Nebuchadnezzar the great king lie before thee: use us as it is pleasing in thy sight. Behold, our dwellings, and all our country, and all our fields of wheat, and our flocks and herds, and all the sheepcotes of our tents, lie before thy face: use them as it may please thee. Behold, even our cities and they that dwell in them are thy servants: come and deal with them as it is good in thine eyes. And the men came to Holofernes, and declared unto him according to these words. ⁴ And he came down toward the sea coast, he and his host, and set garrisons in the high cities, and took out of them chosen men for allies. And they received him, they and all the country round about them, with garlands and dances and timbrels. And he cast down all their borders, and cut down their groves: and it had been given unto him to destroy all the gods of the land, that all the nations should worship Nebuchadnezzar only, and that all their tongues and their tribes should call upon him as god. And he came towards Esdraelon nigh unto Dotaa, which is over against the great ridge of Judaea. And he encamped between Geba and Scythopolis, and he was there a whole month, that he might gather together all the baggage of his host. ⁵ And the children of Israel that dwell in Judaea heard all that Holofernes the chief captain of Nebuchadnezzar king of the Assyrians had done to the nations, and after what manner he had spoiled all their temples, and destroyed them utterly. And they were exceedingly afraid before him, and were troubled for Jerusalem, and for the temple of the Lord their God: because they were newly come up from the captivity, and all the people of Judaea were lately gathered together; and the vessels, and the altar, and the house, were sanctified after the profanation. ⁶ And they sent into every coast of Samaria, and to Konse, and to Bethhoron,	¹ Cp. ch. 4. 5. ² See ch. 3. 6. ³ 1 Sam. 5. 1. 1 Mac. 4. 18. and Belmair, and Jericho, and to ¹Choba, and ²Esora, and to the valley of Salem; ³and they possessed themselves beforehand of all the tops of the high mountains, and fortified the villages that were in them, and laid up victual for the provision of war: ⁴for their fields were newly reaped. ⁵And ⁶Joakim the high priest, which was in those days at Jerusalem, wrote to them that dwelt in ⁷Bethulia, and ⁸Betomes-thaim, which is over against ⁹Esdraelon toward the plain that is nigh unto ¹⁰Do-thaim, ¹¹charging them to seize upon ¹²the ascents of the hill country; because by them was the entrance into Judaea, and it was easy to stop them from approaching, inasmuch as the approach was narrow, ¹³with space for two men at the most. ¹⁴And the children of Israel did as ¹⁵Joakim the high priest had commanded them, and ¹⁶the senate of all the people of Israel, which dwelt at Jerusalem.

¹⁷And every man of Israel cried to God with great earnestness, and with great earnestness did they humble their souls. ¹⁸The, and their wives, and ¹⁹their babes, and ²⁰their cattle, and every sojourner and hireling and servant bought with their money, ²¹put sackcloth upon their loins. ²²And every man and woman of Israel, and the little children, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, ²³fell before the temple, and ²⁴cast ashes upon their heads, and ²⁵spread out their sackcloth before the Lord; and they put sackcloth about the altar: ²⁶and they cried to the God of Israel earnestly with one consent, that he would not give their babes for a prey, and their wives for a spoil, and the cities of their inheritance to destruction, and the sanctuary to profanation and reproach, for the nations to rejoice at. ²⁷And the Lord heard their voice, and ²⁸looked upon their affliction: and the people continued fasting many days in all Judaea and Jerusalem ²⁹before the sanctuary of the Lord Almighty. ³⁰And ³¹Joakim the high priest, and all the priests that stood before the Lord, and they that ministered unto the Lord, ³²had their loins girt about with sackcloth, and offered ³³the continual burnt offering, and the vows and the free gifts of the people; ³⁴and ³⁵they had ashes on their ³⁶mitres; and they cried unto the Lord with all their power, that he would look upon all the house of Israel for good.

5 And it was told Holofernes, the chief captain of the host of Asshur, that the children of Israel had prepared for war, ²and had shut up the passages of the hill country, and ³had fortified all the tops of the high hills, and had laid impediments in the plains: ⁴and he was exceeding wroth, and he called all the princes of Moab, and the captains of ⁵Ammon, and all the governors of ⁶the sea coast, ⁷and he said unto them, Tell me now, ye sons of Canaan, who is this people, that dwelleth in the hill country, and what are the cities that they inhabit, and what is the multitude of their host, and wherein is their power and their strength, and what king is set over them, to be the leader of their army; ⁸and why have they turned their backs, that they should not come and meet me, more than all that dwell in the west.

⁹And ¹⁰Achior, the leader of all the children of Ammon, said unto him,

Let my lord now hear a word from the mouth of thy servant, and I will tell thee the truth concerning this people, which dwelleth in this hill country, nigh unto the place where thou dwellest: and there shall no lie come out of the mouth of thy servant. ¹¹This people are descended ¹²of the Chaldeans: ¹³and they sojourned heretofore in ¹⁴Mesopotamia, ¹⁵because they were not minded to follow the gods of their fathers, which were in the land ¹⁶of the Chaldeans. ¹⁷And they departed from the way of their parents, and worshipped ¹⁸the God of heaven, the God whom they knew: and they cast them out from the face of their gods, and they fled into ¹⁹Mesopotamia, and sojourned there many days. ²⁰And their God commanded them to depart from the place where they sojourned, and to go into the land of Canaan: and they dwelt there, and ²¹were increased with gold and silver, and with exceeding much cattle. ²²And they went down into Egypt, ²³for a famine covered all the land of Canaan; and there they sojourned, until they were grown up; ²⁴and they became there a great multitude, so that one could not number their nation. ²⁵And the king of Egypt rose up against them, and ²⁶dealt subtly with them, ²⁷and brought them low, ²⁸making them to labour in brick, and made them slaves. ²⁹And ³⁰they cried unto their God, and ³¹he smote all the land of Egypt with incurable plagues: ³²and the Egyptians cast them out of their sight. ³³And God dried up the Red sea before them, ³⁴and ³⁵brought them into the way of Sinai, and ³⁶Kadesh-Barnea, and they cast out all that dwelt in the wilderness. ³⁷And they dwelt in the land of the Amorites, and they destroyed by their strength all them of Heshbon, and ³⁸passing over Jordan ³⁹they possessed all the hill country. ⁴⁰And they cast out before them the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Jebusite, and the Shechemite, and all the Gergashites, and they dwelt in that country many days. ⁴¹And whilst they sinned not before their God, they prospered, because God that hateth iniquity was with them. ¹⁸ But when they departed from the way which he appointed them, they were destroyed in many battles very sore, and ¹⁹ were led captives into a land that was not theirs, and the temple of their God was cast to the ground, and their cities were taken by their adversaries. ²⁰ And now they are returned to their God, and are ²¹ come up from ²² the dispersion where they were dispersed, and have possessed Jerusalem, where their sanctuary is, and are seated in the hill country: for it was desolate. ²³ And now, my lord and master, if there is any error in this people, and they sin against their God, we will consider what this thing is wherein they stumble, and we will go up and overcome them. ²⁴ But if there is no lawlessness in their nation, let my lord now pass by, ²⁵ lest their Lord defend them, and their God be for them, and we shall be a reproach before all the earth.

²⁶ And it came to pass, when ²⁷ Achior had finished speaking these words, all the people that compassed the tent and stood round about it murmured; and the great men of Holofernes, and all that dwelt ²⁸ by the sea side, and in ²⁹ Moab, spake that he should kill him. ³⁰ For, ³¹ said they, we will not be afraid of the children of Israel: ³² for, lo, it is a people that hath no power nor might to make the battle strong. ³³ Wherefore now we will go up, and ³⁴ they shall be a prey to be devoured of all thine army, lord Holofernes.

6 ¹ And when the tumult of the men that were about the council was ceased, Holofernes the chief captain of the host of Asshur said unto ² Achior and to all the children of ³ Moab before all the people of the aliens,

⁴ And who art thou, ⁵ Achior, and ⁶ the hirelings of ⁷ Ephraim, that thou hast prophesied among us as to-day, and hast said, that we should not make war with the race of Israel. ⁸ because their God will defend them? ⁹ And who is God but Nebuchadnezzar? ¹⁰ He shall send forth his might, and shall destroy them from the face of the earth, and ¹¹ their God shall not deliver them: but we his servants shall smite them ¹² as one man; and they shall not sustain ¹³ the might of our horses. ¹⁴ For with them we shall burn them up, and their mountains ¹⁵ shall be drunken with their blood, and their plains ¹⁶ shall be filled with their dead bodies, and their footsteps shall not stand before us, but they shall surely perish, saith king Nebuchadnezzar, ¹⁷ Lord of all the earth: for he said, The words that ¹⁸ I have spoken shall not be in vain. ¹⁹ But thou, ²⁰ Achior, ²¹ hireling of Ammon, which hast spoken these words in the day of thine iniquity, shalt see my face no more from this day, until I shall be avenged of the race of those that came out of Egypt. ⁶ And then shall the sword of mine army, and the multitude of them that serve me, pass through thy sides, and thou shalt fall among their slain, ⁷ when I shall return. ⁸ And my servants shall bring thee back into the hill country, and shall set thee in one of the cities ⁹ of the ascents: ¹⁰ and thou shalt not perish, till thou be destroyed with them. ¹¹ And if thou hopest in thy heart that they shall not be taken, let not ¹² thy countenance fall. I have spoken it, and none of my words shall fall to the ground.

¹³ And Holofernes commanded his servants, that waited in his tent, to take ¹⁴ Achior, and bring him back to ¹⁵ Bethulia, and deliver him into the hands of the children of Israel. ¹⁶ And his servants took him, and brought him out of the camp into the plain, and they removed from the midst of the plain country into the hill country, and came unto ¹⁷ the fountains that were under ¹⁸ Bethulia. ¹⁹ And when the men of the city saw them on the top of the hill, they took up their weapons, and went out of the city against them to the top of the hill: and every man that used a sling kept them from coming up, and cast stones against them. ²⁰ And they gat them privily under the hill, and bound Achior, and cast him down, and left him at the foot of the hill, and went away unto their lord. ²¹ But the children of Israel descended from their city, and came upon him, and loosed him, and led him away into ²² Bethulia, and presented him to the rulers of their city; ²³ which were in those days ²⁴ Ozias the son of Micah, of the tribe of Simeon, and Chabris the son of Gothoniel, and Charimis the son of Melchiel. ²⁵ And they called together all ²⁶ the elders of the city; and all their young men ran together, and their women, to the assembly; and they set Achior in the midst of all their people. And Ozias asked him of that which had happened: ²⁷ and he answered and declared unto them the words of the council of Holofernes, and all the words that he had spoken in the midst of the princes of the children of Asshur, ²⁸ and all the great words that Holofernes had spoken against the house of Israel. ²⁹ And the people fell down and worshipped God, and cried, saying, ³⁰ O Lord ³¹ God of heaven, behold their arrogance, and pity the low estate of our race, and look upon the face of those ³² that are sanctified unto thee this day. ³³ And they comforted Achior, and praised him exceedingly. ³⁴ And Ozias took him out of the assembly into his house, and made a feast to the elders; and they called on the God of Israel for help all that night.

7 But the next day Holofernes gave command to all his army, and to all his people which were come to be his allies, ^athat they should remove their camp toward ^bBethulia, and take beforehand ^cthe ascents of the hill country, and make war against the children of Israel. ^aAnd every mighty man of them removed that day, and the host of their men of war was ^aa hundred and seventy thousand footmen, and twelve thousand horsemen, beside the baggage, and the men that were afoot among them, an exceeding great multitude. ³And they encamped in the valley near unto ^cBethulia, ^dby the fountain, and they spread themselves in breadth over ^eDothaim even to Belmaim, and in length from ^fBethulia unto Cyamon, which is over against ^fEsdraelon.

⁴But the children of Israel, when they saw the multitude of them, were troubled exceedingly, and said every one to his neighbour, Now shall these men ^glick up the face of all the earth; and neither the high mountains, nor the valleys, nor the hills, shall be able to bear their weight. ⁵And every man took up his weapons of war, and when they had kindled fires upon their towers, they remained and watched all that night.

⁶But on the second day Holofernes led out all his horse in the sight of the children of Israel which were in Bethulia, ⁷and viewed the ascents to their city, and searched out ^dthe fountains of the waters, and seized upon them, and set garrisons of men of war over them, and himself departed to his people.

⁸And there came unto him all the rulers of ^bthe children of Esau, and ^call the leaders of the people of ^fMoab, and the captains of ^hthe sea coast, and said, ⁹Let our lord now hear a word, that there be not an overthrow in thy host.

¹⁰For this people of the children of Israel do not trust in their spears, but ⁱin the height of the mountains wherein they dwell, for it is not easy to come up to the tops of their mountains.

¹¹And now, my lord, fight not against them as men fight who join battle, and there shall not so much as one man of thy people perish. ¹²Remain in thy camp, and keep safe every man of thy host, and let thy servants get possession of ^dthe fountain of water, which issueth forth of the foot of the mountain: ¹³because all the inhabitants of Bethulia have their water thence; and thirst shall kill them, and they shall give up their city: and we and our people will go up to the tops of the mountains that are near, and will encamp upon them, to watch that not one man go out of the city. ¹⁴And they shall be consumed with famine, they and their wives and their children, and before the sword come against them they shall be laid low in the streets where they dwell. ¹⁵And thou shalt render them an evil reward; because they rebelled, and met not thy face in peace.

¹⁹And the children of Israel cried unto the Lord their God, for their spirit fainted; for all their enemies had compassed them round about, and there was no way to escape out from among them. ²⁰And all the army of Asshur remained about them, their footmen and their chariots and their horsemen, four and thirty days; and all their vessels of water failed all the inhabitants of ^fBethulia. ²¹And the cisterns were emptied, and they had not water to drink their fill for one day: ²²for they gave them drink by measure. ²³And ^ctheir young children were out of heart, ²⁴and the women and the young men fainted for thirst, and they fell down in the streets of the city, and in the passages of the gates, and there was no longer any strength in them. ²⁵And all the people were gathered together against ^gOzias, and against the rulers of the city, the young men and the women and the children, and they cried with a loud voice, and said before all the elders, ²⁶God be judge between you and us: because ye have done us great wrong, in that ye have not spoken words of peace with the children of Asshur. ²⁷And now we have no helper: but God ^hhath sold us into their hands, that we should be laid low before them with thirst and great destruction. ²⁸And now call them unto you, and deliver up the whole city ⁱfor a prey to the people of Holofernes, and to all his host. ²⁹For it is better for us to be made a spoil unto them: for we shall be servants, and ^oour souls shall live, and we shall not see the death of our babes before our eyes, and our wives and our children fainting in death.

28 We take to witness against you the heaven and the earth, and our God and the Lord of our fathers, which punisheth us according to our sins and the sins of our fathers, that he do not according as we have said this day.

29 And there was great weeping of all with one consent in the midst of the assembly; and they cried unto the Lord God with a loud voice. 30 And Ozias said to them, Brethren, be of good courage, let us yet endure five days, in the which space the Lord our God shall turn his mercy toward us; for he will not forsake us utterly. 31 But if these days pass, and there come no help unto us, I will do according to your words. 32 And he dispersed the people, every man to his own camp; and they went away unto the walls and towers of their city; and he sent the women and children into their houses: and they were brought very low in the city.

8 And in those days Judith heard thereof, the daughter of Merari, the son of Ox, the son of Joseph, the son of Oziel, the son of Elkiah, the son of Ananias, the son of Gideon, the son of Raphaim, the son of Alitub, the son of Elihu, the son of Eliab, the son of Nathanael, the son of Salamei, the son of Salasadaï, the son of Israel. And her husband was Manasses, of her tribe and of her family, and he died in the days of barley harvest. 3 For he stood over them that bound sheaves in the field, and the heat came upon his head, and he fell on his bed, and died in his city Bethulia: and they buried him with his fathers in the field which is between Bethaim and Balamon. 4 And Judith was a widow in her house three years and four months. 5 And she made her a tent upon the roof of her house, and put on sackcloth upon her loins; and the garments of her widowhood were upon her. 6 And she fasted all the days of her widowhood, save the eves of the sabbaths, and the sabbaths, and the eves of the new moons, and the new moons, and the feasts and joyful days of the house of Israel. 7 And she was of a goodly countenance, and exceeding beautiful to behold: and her husband Manasses had left her gold, and silver, and menservants, and maidservants, and cattle, and lands; and she remained upon them. 8 And there was none that gave her an evil word; for she feared God exceedingly.

9 And she heard the evil words of the people against the governor, because they fainted for lack of water; and Judith heard all the words that Ozias spake unto them, how he sware to them that he would deliver the city unto the Assyrians after five days. 10 And she sent her maid, that was over all things that she had, to call Ozias and Chabris and Charmis, the elders of her city.

11 And they came unto her, and she said unto them,

Hear me now, O ye rulers of the inhabitants of Bethulia: for your word that ye have spoken before the people this day is not right, and ye have set the oath which ye have pronounced between God and you, and have promised to deliver the city to our enemies, unless within these days the Lord turn to help you. 22 And now who are ye that have tempted God this day, and stand instead of God among the children of men? 23 And now try the Lord Almighty, and ye shall never know anything. 24 For ye shall not find the depth of the heart of man, and ye shall not perceive the things that he thinketh; and how shall ye search out God, which hath made all these things, and know his mind, and comprehend his purpose? Nay, my brethren, provoke not the Lord our God to anger. 25 For if he be not minded to help us within these five days, he hath power to defend us in such time as he will, or to destroy us before the face of our enemies. 26 But do not ye pledge the counsels of the Lord our God: for God is not as man, that he should be threatened; neither as the son of man, that he should be turned by intreaty. 27 Wherefore let us wait for the salvation that cometh from him, and call upon him to help us, and he will hear our voice, if it please him. 28 For there arose none in our age, neither is there any of us to-day, tribe, or kindred, or family, or city, which worship gods made with hands, as it was in the former days; for the which cause our fathers were given to the sword, and for a spoil, and fell with a great fall before our enemies. 29 But we know none other god beside him, wherefore we hope that he will not despise us, nor any of our race. 31 For if we be taken so, all Judaea shall sit upon the ground, and our sanctuary shall be spoiled; and of our blood shall he require the profanation thereof. 32 And the slaughter of our brethren, and the captivity of the land, and the desolation of our inheritance, shall he turn upon our heads among the Gentiles, whosoever we shall be in bondage; and we shall be an offence and a reproach before them that take us for a possession. 33 For our bondage shall not be ordered to favour: but the Lord our God shall turn it to dishonour. 34 And now, brethren, let us shew an example to our brethren, because their soul hangeth upon us, and the sanctuary and the house and the altar rest upon us. 35 Besides all this let us give thanks to the Lord our God, which trieth us, even as he did our fathers also. 36 Remember all the things which he did to Abraham, and all the things in which he tried Isaac, and all the things which happened to Jacob in Mesopotamia of Syria, when he kept the sheep of Laban his mother's brother. ²⁷ For he hath not tried us in the fire, as he did them, to search out their hearts, neither hath he taken vengeance on us; ¹ but the Lord doth scourge them that come near unto him, to admonish them.

²⁸ And ²⁹ Ozias said to her, All that thou hast spoken hast thou spoken with a good heart, and there is none that shall gainsay thy words. ²⁹ For this is not the first day wherein thy wisdom is manifested; but from the beginning of thy days all the people have known thine understanding, because the disposition of thy heart is good. ³⁰ But the people were exceeding thirsty, and compelled us to do as we spake to them, and to bring an oath upon ourselves, which we will not break. ³¹ And now pray thou for us, because thou art a godly woman, and the Lord shall send us rain to fill our cisterns, and we shall faint no more. ³² And Judith said unto them, Hear me, and I will do a thing, which shall go down to all generations among the children of our race. ³³ Ye shall stand at the gate this night, and I will go forth with my maid: and, within the days after which ye said that ye would deliver the city to our enemies, the Lord shall visit Israel by my hand. ³⁴ But ye shall not inquire of mine act: for I will not declare it unto you, till the things be finished that I do. ³⁵ And ³⁶ Ozias and the rulers said unto her, Go in peace, and the Lord God be before thee, to take vengeance on our enemies. ³⁶ And they returned from the tent, and went to their stations.

O Lord God of my father Simeon, vnto whose hand thou gavest a sword to take vengeance of the strangers, who loosened the girdle of a virgin to defile her, and uncovered the thigh to her shame, and profaned the womb to her reproach; for thou saidst, It shall not be so; and they did so: ³ wherefore thou gavest their rulers to be slain, and their bed, ¹ which was ashamed for her that was deceived, to be dyed in blood, and smoted the servants with their lorde, and the lords upon their thrones; ⁴ and gavest their wives for a prey, and their daughters to be captives, and all their spoils to be divided among thy dear children; which were moved with zeal for thee, and abhorred the pollution of their blood, and called upon thee for aid: O God, O my God, hear me also that am a widow. ⁵ For thou wroughtest the things that were before those things, and those things, and such as ensued after; and thou didst devise the things which are now, and the things which are to come; and the things which thou didst devise came to pass; ⁶ yea, the things which thou didst determine stood before thee, and said, Lo, we are here: for all thy ways are prepared, and thy judgement is with foreknowledge. ⁷ For, behold, the Assyrians are multiplied in their power; ⁸ they are exalted with horse and rider; they have gloried in the strength of their footmen; ⁹ they have trusted in shield and spear and bow and sling; and they know not that thou art the Lord that breaketh the battles: the Lord is thy name. ¹⁰ Dash thou down their strength in thy power, and bring down their force in thy wrath: for they have purposed to profane thy sanctuary, and to defile the tabernacle where thy glorious name resteth, and to cast down with the sword the horn of thine altar. ¹¹ Look upon their pride, and send thy wrath upon their heads: give into my hand, which am a widow, the might that I have conceived. ¹² Smite by the deceit of my lips the servant with the prince, and the prince with his servant: break down their stateliness by the hand of a woman. ¹³ For thy power standeth not in multitude, nor thy might in strong men: but thou art a God of the afflicted, thou art a helper of the oppressed, an upholder of the weak, a protector of the forlorn, a saviour of them that are without hope. ¹⁴ Yea, yea, God of my father, and God of the inheritance of Israel, Lord of the heavens and of the earth, Creator of the waters, King of every creature, hear thou my prayer: ¹⁵ and make my speech and deceit to be their wound and stripe, who have purposed hard things against thy covenant, and thy hallowed house, and the top of Sion, and the house of the possession of thy children. ¹⁶ And make every nation and tribe of thine to know that thou art God, the God of all power and might, and that there is none other that protecteth the race of Israel but thou.

IO And it came to pass, when she had ceased to cry unto the God of Israel, and had made an end of all these words, that she rose up where she had fallen down, and called her maid, and went down into the house, in the which she was wont to abide on the sabbath days and on her feast days, and pulled off the sackcloth which she had put on, and put off the garments of her widowhood, and washed her body

⁶And they went forth to the gate of the city of ¹Bethulia, and found ²standing thereby ³Ozias, and the elders of the city, Chabris and Charimis. ⁷But when they saw her, that her countenance was altered, and her apparel was changed, ⁸they wondered at her beauty very exceedingly, and said unto her, ⁹The God of our fathers give thee favour, and accomplish thy purposes to the glory of the children of Israel, ¹⁰and to the exaltation of Jerusalem. And she worshipped God, ¹¹and said unto them, Command that they open unto me the gate of the city, and I will go forth to accomplish the things ¹²whereof ye spake with me. And they commanded the young men to open unto her, as she had spoken: ¹³and they did so.

And Judith went out, she, and her handmaid with her; and the men of the city looked after her, until she was gone down the mountain, until she had passed the valley, and they could see her no more. ²¹And they went straight onward in the valley: and ²²the watch of the Assyrians met her; ²³and they took her, and asked her, Of what people art thou? and whence comest thou? and whither goest thou? And she said, I am a daughter of the Hebrews, and I flee away from their presence; ²⁴because they are about to be given you to be consumed: ²⁵and I am coming into the presence of Holofernes the chief captain of your host, to declare words of truth; and I will shew before him a way, whereby he shall go, and win all the hill country, and there shall not be lacking of his men one person, nor one life. ²⁶Now when the men heard her words, and considered her countenance, ²⁷the beauty thereof was exceeding marvellous in their eyes, and they said unto her, ²⁸Thou hast saved thy life, in that thou hast hastened to come down to the presence of our lord: and now come to his tent, and some of us shall conduct thee, until they shall deliver thee into his hands. ²⁹But ³⁰when thou standest before him, be not afraid in thine heart, but declare unto him according to thy words; and he shall entreat thee well. ²⁷And they chose out of them a hundred men, and appointed them to accompany her and her maid; and they brought them to the tent of Holofernes.

²⁸And there was a concourse throughout all the camp, for her coming was noised among the tents; and they came and compassed her about, as she stood without the tent of Holofernes, until they told him of her. ²⁹³⁰And they marvelled at her beauty, and marvelled at the children of Israel because of her, and each one said to his neighbour, Who shall despise this people, that have among them such women? for it is not good that one man of them be left, seeing that, if they are let go, they shall be able to deceive the whole earth. ³¹And they that lay near Holofernes, and all his servants, went forth ³²and brought her into the tent. ³³And Holofernes was resting upon his bed ³⁴under the canopy, ³⁵which was woven with purple and gold and emeralds and precious stones. ³⁶And they told him of her; and he came forth into the space before his tent, with silver lamps going before him. ³⁷But when Judith was come before him and his servants, they all marvelled at the beauty of her countenance; and ³⁸she fell down upon her face, and did reverence unto him: and his servants raised her up.

II And Holofernes said unto her, Woman, be of good comfort, fear not in thy heart: for I never hurt any that hath chosen to serve Nebuchadnezzar, ²the king of all the earth. ³And now, if thy people that dwelleth in the hill country ⁴had not set light by me, I would not have lifted up my spear against them: but they have done these things to themselves. ⁵And now tell me wherefore thou didst flee from them, and camest unto us: for thou art come to save thyself; be of good comfort, thou shalt live this night, and hereafter: ⁶for there is none that shall wrong thee, but all shall entreat thee well, as is done unto the servants of king Nebuchadnezzar my lord. ⁷And Judith said unto him,

Receive the words of thy servant, and let thy handmaid speak in thy presence, and I will declare no lie unto my lord this night. ⁸And if thou shalt follow the words of thy handmaid, God shall bring the thing to pass perfectly with thee; and my lord shall not fail of his purposes. ⁹¹⁰As Nebuchadnezzar ¹¹king of all the earth liveth, and as his power liveth, who hath sent thee for the preservation of every living thing, not only do men serve him by thee, ¹²but also the beasts of the field and the cattle and the birds of the heaven shall live through thy strength, in the time of Nebuchadnezzar and of all his house. ⁸ For we have heard of thy wisdom and the subtil devices of thy soul, and it hath been reported in all the earth, that thou only art brave in all the kingdom, and mighty in knowledge, and wonderful in feats of war. ⁹ And now as concerning the matter, which ^a Achior did speak in thy council, we have heard his words: for the men of ^b Bethulia saved him, and he declared unto them all that he had spoken before thee. ¹⁰ Wherefore, O lord and master, neglect not ^c my word; but lay it up in thy heart, for it is true: for our race shall not be punished, neither shall the sword prevail against them, except they sin against thy God. ¹¹ And now, that my lord be not defeated and frustrate of his purpose, and that death may fall upon them, their sin hath overtaken them, wherewith they shall ^d provoke their God to anger, whensoever they shall do wickedness. ¹² Since their victuals failed them, ^e and all their water was scant, ^f they took counsel to lay hands upon their cattle, and determined to consume all those things, which God charged them by his laws that they should not eat: ¹³ and they are resolved to spend ^g the firstfruits of the corn, and the tenths of the wine and the oil, which they had sanctified, and reserved for the priests that stand before the face of our God in Jerusalem; the which things it is not fitting for any of the people so much as to touch with their hands. ¹⁴ And they have sent some to Jerusalem, because they also that dwell there have done this thing, to bring them a licence from ^h the senate. ¹⁵ And it shall be, when one shall bring them word, and they shall do it, they shall be given thee to be destroyed the same day. ¹⁶ Wherefore I thy servant, knowing all this, fled away from their presence; and God sent me to work things with thee, whereto all the earth shall be astonished, even as many as shall hear it. ¹⁷ For thy servant is religious, and serveth ⁱ the God of heaven ^j day and night; and now, my lord, I will abide with thee, and thy servant will go forth by night into the valley, and I will pray unto God, and he shall tell me when they have committed their sins: ¹⁸ and I will come and shew it also unto thee; and thou shalt go forth with all thy host, and there shall be none of them that shall resist thee. ¹⁹ And I will lead thee through the midst of Judaea, until thou comest over against Jerusalem; and I will set thy seat in the midst thereof; and thou shalt drive them ^k as sheep that have no shepherd, and ^l a dog shall not so much as open his mouth before thee: for these things were told me according to my foreknowledge, and were declared unto me, and I was sent to tell thee.

²⁰ And her words were pleasing in the sight of Holofernes and of all his servants; and they marvelled at her wisdom, and said, ²¹ There is not such a woman from one end of the earth to the other, for beauty of face, and wisdom of words. ²² And Holofernes said unto her, God did well to send thee before the people, that might should be in our hands, and destruction among them that ^m lightly regarded my lord. ²³ And now thou art beautiful in thy countenance, and witty in thy words: for if thou shalt do as thou hast spoken, ⁿ thy God shall be my God, and thou shalt dwell in the house of king Nebuchadnezzar, and shalt be renowned through the whole earth.

I2 ²⁴ And he commanded to bring her in where ^o his silver vessels were set, and bade that they should prepare for her of his own meats, and that she should drink of his own wine. ²⁵ And Judith said, ^p I will not eat thereof, lest there be an occasion of stumbling: but provision shall be made for me ^q of the things that are come with me. ²⁶ And Holofernes said unto her, But if the things that be with thee should fail, whence shall we be able to give thee the like? for there is none of thy race with us. ²⁷ And Judith said unto him, ^r As thy soul liveth, my lord, thy servant shall not spend those things that be with me, ^s until the Lord work by my hand the things that he hath determined. ²⁸ And the servants of Holofernes ^t brought her into the tent, and she slept till midnight, and she rose up toward the morning watch, ²⁹ and sent to Holofernes, saying, Let my lord now command that they suffer thy servant to go forth ^u unto prayer. ³⁰ And Holofernes commanded his guards that they should not stay her: and she abode in the camp three days, and went out every night into the valley of ^v Bethulia, and washed herself ^w at the fountain of water in the camp. ³¹ And when she came up, she besought the Lord God of Israel to direct her way ^x to the raising up of the children of his people. ³² And she came in clean, and remained in the tent, until she took her meat toward evening.

³³ And it came to pass ^y on the fourth day, Holofernes made a feast to his own servants only, and called none of the officers to the banquet. ³⁴ And he said to Bagoas the eunuch, who had charge over all that he had, Go now, and persuade this Hebrew woman which is with thee, that she come unto us, and eat and drink with us. ³⁵ For, lo, it is a shame for our person, if we shall let such a woman go, not having had her company; for if we draw her not unto us, she shall laugh us to scorn. ³⁶ And Bagoas went from the presence of Holofernes, and came in to her, and said, Let not this fair damsel fear to come to my lord, and to be honoured in his presence, and to drink wine and be merry with us, and to be made this day as one of the daughters of the children of Asshur, which wait in the house of Nebuchadnezzar. ¹⁴And Judith said unto him, And who am I, that I should gainsay my lord? for whatsoever shall be pleasing in his eyes I will do speedily, and this shall be my joy unto the day of my death. ¹⁵And she arose, and decked herself with her apparel and all her woman's attire; and her servant went and laid fleeces on the ground for her over against Holofernes, which she had received of Bagoas for her daily use, that she might sit and eat upon them. ¹⁶And Judith came in and sat down, and ¹⁷Holofernes' heart was ravished with her, and his soul was moved, and he desired exceedingly her company: and he was watching for a time to deceive her, from the day that he had seen her. ¹⁷And Holofernes said unto her, Drink now, and be merry with us. ¹⁸And Judith said, I will drink now, my lord, because my life is magnified in me this day more than all the days since I was born. ¹⁹And she took and ate and drank before him ²⁰what her servant had prepared. ²⁰And Holofernes took great delight in her, and drank exceedingly much wine, more than he had drunk at any time in one day since he was born.

13 But when the evening was come, ²¹his servants made haste to depart, and Bagoas shut the tent without, and dismissed them that waited from the presence of his lord; and they went away to their beds: for they were all weary, because the feast had been long. ²²But Judith was left alone in the tent, and Holofernes lying along upon his bed: ²³for he was overflown with wine. ³And Judith had said to her servant that she should stand without her bedchamber, and wait for her coming forth, as she did daily: for she said she would go forth ²⁴to her prayer; and she spake to Bagoas according to the same words. ⁴And all went away from her presence, and none was left in the bedchamber, neither small nor great. And Judith, standing by his bed, said in her heart, O Lord God ⁵of all power, look in this hour upon the works of my hands ⁶for the exaltation of Jerusalem. ⁵For now is the time to help thee inheritance, and to do ⁷the thing that I have purposed to the destruction of the enemies which are risen up against us. ⁶And she came to the rail of the bed, which was at Holofernes' head, and took down ⁷his scimitar from thence; ⁷and she drew near unto the bed, and took hold of the hair of his head, and said, Strengthen me, O Lord God of Israel, this day. ⁸And she smote twice upon his neck with all her might, and ⁹took away his head from him, and tumbled his body down from the bed, and took down ¹⁰the canopy from the pillars; and after a little while she went forth, and gave Holofernes' head to her maid; ¹⁰and she put it in ¹¹her bag of victuals: and they twain went forth together unto prayer, according to their custom: and they passed through the camp, and compassed that valley, and went up to the mountain of ¹²Bethulia, and came to the gates thereof.

¹¹And Judith said afar off to the watchmen at the gates, Open, open now the gate: God is with us, even our God, to shew his power yet in Israel, and his might against the enemy, as he hath done even this day. ¹²And it came to pass, when the men of her city heard her voice, they made haste to go down to the gate of their city, and they called together ¹³the elders of the city. ¹³And they ran all together, both small and great, for it was strange unto them that she was come: and they opened the gate, and received them, making a fire to give light, and compassed them round about. ¹⁴And she said to them with a loud voice, Praise God, praise him: praise God, ¹⁵who hath not taken away his mercy from the house of Israel, but hath destroyed our enemies by my hand this night. ¹⁵And she took forth the head out of ¹⁶the bag, and shewed it, and said unto them, Behold, the head of Holofernes, the chief captain of the host of Asshur, and behold, ¹⁷the canopy, wherein he did lie in his drunkenness; and the Lord smote him ¹⁸by the hand of a woman. ¹⁶And ¹⁹as the Lord liveth, who preserved me in my way that I went, my countenance deceived him to his destruction, and he did not commit sin with me, to defile and shame me. ¹⁷And all the people were exceedingly amazed, and ²⁰bowed themselves, and worshipped God, and said with one accord, Blessed art thou, O our God, which hast this day brought to nought the enemies of thy people. ¹⁸And Ozias said unto her, ²¹Blessed art thou, daughter, in the sight of the Most High God, above all the women upon the earth; and blessed is the Lord God, who created the heavens and the earth, who directed thee to the smiting of the head of the prince of our enemies. ¹⁹For thy hope shall not depart from the heart of men that remember the strength of God for ever. ²⁰And God turn these things to thee for a perpetual praise, to visit thee with good things, because thou didst not spare thy life by reason of the affliction of our race, but didst avenge our fall, walking a straight way before our God. ²¹And all the people said, So be it, so be it.

14 And Judith said unto them, Hear me now, my brethren, and take this head, and ²hang it upon the battlement of your wall. ²And it shall be, so soon as the morning shall appear, and the sun shall come forth upon the earth, ye shall take up every one his weapons of war, and go forth every valiant man of you out of the city, and ye shall set a captain over them, as though ye would go down to the plain toward ¹the watch of the children of Asshur; and ye shall not go down. ³And these shall take up their panoplies, and shall go into their camp, and rouse up the captains of the host of Asshur, and they shall run together to the tent of Holofernes, and they shall not find him: ⁴and fear shall fall upon them, and they shall flee before your face. ⁴And ye, and all that inhabit every coast of Israel, shall pursue them, and overthrow them as they go. ⁵But before ye do these things, call me Achior the Ammonite, that he may see and know him that despised the house of Israel, and ⁶that sent him to us, as it were to death.

⁶And they called Achior ⁷out of the house of Ozias; but when he came, and saw the head of Holofernes in a man's hand in the assembly of the people, he fell upon his face, and his spirit failed. ⁷But when ⁸they had recovered him, ⁹he fell at Judith's feet, and did reverence unto her, and said, ¹⁰Blessed art thou in every tent of Judah, and in every nation, which hearing thy name shall be troubled. ¹¹And now tell me all the things that thou hast done in these days. And Judith declared unto him in the midst of the people all the things that she had done, from the day that she went forth until the time that she spake unto them. ⁹But when she left off speaking, the people shouted with a loud voice, and made a joyful noise in their city. ¹⁰But when Achior saw all the things that the God of Israel had done, he believed in God exceedingly, ¹¹and circumcised the flesh of his foreskin, and was joined unto the house of Israel, unto this day.

¹²But as soon as the morning arose, ¹³they hanged the head of Holofernes upon the wall, and every man took up his weapons, and they went forth by bands unto ¹⁴the ascents of the mountain. ¹⁵But when the children of Asshur saw them, they sent hither and thither to their leaders; but they went to their captains and tribunes, and to every one of their rulers. ¹⁶And they came to Holofernes' tent, and said ¹⁷to him that was over all that he had, Waken now our lord: for the slaves have been bold to come down against us to battle, that they may be utterly destroyed. ¹⁸And Bagoas went in, and knocked at the outer door of the tent; for he supposed that he was sleeping with Judith. ¹⁹But when none hearkened to him, he opened it, and went into the bedchamber, and found him cast upon the threshold dead, and his head had been taken from him. ¹⁶And he cried with a loud voice, with weeping and groaning and a mighty cry, and rent his garments. ¹⁷And he entered into the tent where Judith lodged: and he found her not, and he leaped out to the people, and cried aloud, ¹⁸The slaves have dealt treacherously: one woman of the Hebrews hath brought shame upon the house of king Nebuchadnezzar; for, behold, Holofernes ¹⁹lieth upon the ground, and his head is not on him. ²⁰But when the rulers of the host of Asshur heard the words, ²¹they rent their coats, and their soul was troubled exceedingly, and there was a cry and an exceeding great noise in the midst of the camp.

²²And when they that were in the tents heard, they were amazed at the thing that was come to pass.

²³And trembling and fear fell upon them, and no man durst abide any more in the sight of his neighbour, but rushing out with one accord, they fled into every way of the plain and of the hill country. ³And they that had encamped in the hill country round about ⁴Bethulia fled away. And then the children of Israel, every one that was a warrior among them, rushed out upon them. ⁴And Ozias sent to ⁵Betomasthaim, and Bebai, and ⁶Chobai, and Chola, and to every coast of Israel, such as should tell concerning the things that had been accomplished, and that all should rush forth upon their enemies to destroy them. ⁵But when the children of Israel heard, they all fell upon them with one accord, and smote them unto ⁶Chobai: ⁷yea, and in like manner also they of Jerusalem and of all the hill country came (for men had told them what things were come to pass in the camp of their enemies), and they that were in ⁸Gilead and in ⁹Galilee fell upon their flank with a great slaughter, until they were past ¹⁰Damascus and the borders thereof. ⁶But the residue, that dwelt at ⁷Bethulia, fell upon the camp of Asshur, and spoiled them, and were enriched exceedingly. ⁷But the children of Israel returned from the slaughter, and gat possession of that which remained; and the villages and the cities, that were in the hill country and in the plain country, took many spoils: for there was an exceeding great store.

⁸And Joakim the high priest, and ⁹the senate of the children of Israel that dwelt in Jerusalem, came to behold the good things which the Lord had shewed to Israel, and to see Judith, and to salute her. ⁹But when they came unto her, they all blessed her with one accord, and said unto her, Thou art ¹⁰the

AFTER THE GREEK.

IO ⁴Then Mardocheus said, These things are of God. ⁵For I remember the dream ⁶which I saw concerning these matters, and nothing thereof hath failed. ⁷As for the little fountain that became a river, and there was light, and the sun, and much water, the river is Esther, whom the king married, and made queen: ⁸and the two dragons are I and Aman: ⁹and the nations are those that were assembled ¹⁰to destroy the name of the Jews: ¹¹and my nation, this is Israel, which cried to God, and were saved: for the Lord hath saved his people, and the Lord hath delivered us from all these evils, and ¹²God hath wrought signs and great wonders, which have not been done among the nations. ¹³Therefore hath he made two lots, one for the people of God, and another for all the nations. ¹⁴And these two lots came at the hour, and time, and day of judgement, before God among all the nations. ¹⁵So God remembered his people, and justified his inheritance. ¹⁶Therefore these days shall be unto them in the month Adar, the fourteenth and fifteenth day of the month, with an assembly, and joy, and with gladness before God, throughout the generations for ever among his people Israel.

II ¹In the fourth year of the reign of ²Ptolemy and Cleopatra, Dositheus, who said he was a priest and Levite, and Ptolemy his son, brought ³the epistle of Phrurai ⁴here set forth, which they said was the same, and that Lysimachus the son of Ptolemy, that was in Jerusalem, had interpreted it.

¹In the second year of the reign of Artaxerxes the great, in the first day of ²the month Nisan, ³Mardocheus the son of Jairus, the son of Semeias, the son of Kiseus, of the tribe of Benjamin, ⁴had a dream: ⁵who was a Jew, and dwelt in the city of ⁶Susa, a great man, being a servitor in the king's court; ⁷and he was of the captivity, which Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon carried from Jerusalem with Jeconias king of Judaea; and this was his dream: ⁸Behold, ⁹noise and tumult, thunders and earthquake, and uproar upon the earth: ¹⁰and, behold, ¹¹two great dragons came forth, both of them ready to fight, and their cry was great. ¹²And at their cry all nations were ready to battle, that they might fight against ¹³the righteous nation. ¹⁴And, lo, ¹⁵a day of darkness and gloominess, tribulation and anguish, affliction and great uproar upon the earth. ¹⁶And ¹⁷the whole righteous nation was troubled, fearing ¹⁸the evils that should befall them, and were ready to perish. ¹⁹Then they cried unto God, and upon their cry, as it were from a little fountain, there came a great ²⁰river, even much water. ²¹The light and the sun rose up, and ²²the lowly were exalted, and devoured the glorious. ²³Now when ²⁴Mardocheus, who had seen this dream, and what God had determined to do, was awake, he bare it in mind, and until night by all means was desirous to know it. ²⁵And ²⁶Mardocheus took his rest in the court with ²⁷Gabatha and ²⁸Tharra, the two eunuchs of the king, that were keepers of the court. ²⁹And he heard their communings, and searched out their purposes, and learned that they were about to lay hands upon Artaxerxes the king; *and he certified the king of them. 3^d Then the king examined the two eunuchs, and after that they had confessed it, they were led to execution. 4th And the king wrote these things for a memorial; *Mardocheus also wrote concerning these things. 5 So the king commanded Mardocheus to serve in the court, and for this he gave him gifts. 6 Howbeit Aman the son of Amadathus, *a Bugean, who was in great honour with the king, *sought to molest Mardocheus and his people because of the two eunuchs of the king.

13 Now this is the copy of the letter: *The great king Artaxerxes writeth these things to the princes of *a hundred and seven and twenty provinces from India unto Ethiopia, and to the governors that are set under them. *After that I became lord over many nations, and *had dominion over the whole world, not lifted up with presumption of my authority, but carrying myself alway with equity and mildness. *I purposed to settle my subjects continually in a quiet life, and making my kingdom peaceable, and open for passage to the utmost coasts, to renew peace, which is desired of all men. 3 Now when I asked my counsellors how this might be brought to pass, Aman, that excelled in wisdom among us, and was approved for his constant good will and steadfast fidelity, and *had the honour of the second place in the kingdom, 4 declared unto us, that in all nations throughout the world ^bthere was scattered a certain malignant people, that had laws contrary to all nations, and continually set aside the commandments of kings, so as the uniting of our kingdoms, honourably intended by us, cannot go forward. 5 Seeing then we understand that this nation is alone continually in opposition unto all men, following perversely a life which is strange to our laws, and evil affected to our state, working all the mischief they can, that our kingdom may not be firmly established: 6 therefore have we commanded, that they that are signified in writing unto you by Aman, who is ordained over the affairs, *and is a second father unto us, shall all, with their wives and children, be utterly destroyed by the sword of their enemies, without all mercy and pity, 7 the fourteenth day of the twelfth month Adar of this present year: 7 that they, who of old and now also are malicious, may in one day with violence go down to 8 the grave, and so ever hereafter cause our affairs to be well settled, and without trouble.

8 *Then Mardocheus made his prayer unto the Lord, calling to remembrance all the works of the Lord, 9 and said, O Lord, Lord, thou King Almighty: *for the whole world is in thy power, and if it be thy will to save Israel, there is no man that can gainsay thee: 10 for thou hast made heaven and earth, and all the wondrous things that are beneath the heaven; 11 and thou art Lord of all, and there is no man that can resist thee, which art the Lord. 12 Thou knowest all things, and thou knowest, Lord, that it was neither in contempt nor pride, nor for any desire of glory, that 13 I did not bow down to proud Aman. 13 For I could have been content with good will for the salvation of Israel to kiss the soles of his feet. 14 But I did this, that I might not prefer the glory of man above the glory of God: neither will I bow down unto any but to thee, which art my Lord, neither will I do it in pride. 15 And now, O Lord, thou God and King, *the God of Abraham, 16 spare thy people: for their eyes are upon us to bring us to nought, and they desire to destroy 17 the heritage, that hath been thine from the beginning. 18 *Despise not thy portion, which thou didst redeem out of the land of Egypt for thine own self. 19 Hear my prayer, and be merciful unto thine inheritance: *and turn our mourning into feasting, that we may live, O Lord, and sing praises to thy name: and destroy not 20 the mouth of them that praise thee, O Lord.

18 And all Israel cried out mightily, because their death was before their eyes. 2 Queen Esther also, being seized as it were with the agony of death, resorted unto the Lord: *and laid away her glorious apparel, and put on the garments of anguish and mourning: and instead of the most excellent ointments, 2 she covered her head with ashes and dung, and she humbled her body greatly, and all the places of the ornaments of her joy she covered with her tangled hair. 3 And she prayed unto the Lord, the God of Israel, saying, O my Lord, thou only art our King: help me that am desolate and have no other helper but thee: 4 for my danger is in mine hand. 5 From my youth up I have heard in the tribe of my family, that thou, O Lord, 6 tookest Israel from among all the nations, and *our fathers from all their progenitors, for a perpetual inheritance, and didst perform for them whatsoever thou didst promise. 7 And now we have sinned before thee, *and thou hast given us into the hands of our enemies, 7 because we glorified their gods: *O Lord, thou art righteous. 8 Nevertheless it satisfieth them not, that we are in bitter captivity: but *they have stricken hands with their idols, ⁹that they will abolish the thing that thou with thy mouth hast ordained, and destroy thine inheritance, and stop ¹⁰the mouth of them that praise thee, and quench the glory of thy house, and thine altar, ¹¹and open the mouths of the heathen to set forth the virtues of ¹²idols, and ¹³that a fleshly king shall be magnified for ever. ¹⁴O Lord, give not thy sceptre unto them ¹⁵that be nothing, and let them not laugh at our fall; ¹⁶but turn their device upon themselves, and make him an example, that hath begun this against us. ¹⁷Remember, O Lord, make thyself known in the time of our affliction, and give me boldness, O ¹⁸King of the gods, and holder of all dominion. ¹⁹Give me eloquent speech in my mouth ²⁰before the lion: and turn his heart to hate him that fighteth against us, that there may be an end of him, and of them that are likeminded with him: ²¹but deliver us with thine hand, and help me that am desolate and have no other ²²helper but thee, O Lord. ²³Thou hast knowledge of all things; and thou knowest that I hate the glory of the wicked, and abhor the bed of the uncircumcised, and of every alien. ²⁴Thou knowest my necessity: that I abhor the sign of my high estate, ²⁵which is upon mine head in the days wherein I shew myself. I abhor it ²⁶as a menstruous rag, and I wear it not when I am private by myself. ²⁷And thine handmaid ²⁸hath not eaten at Aman's table, neither have I honoured the king's feast, nor ²⁹drunk the wine of the drink offerings. ³⁰Neither had thine handmaid any joy since the day that I was brought hither to this present, but in thee, O Lord, thou God of Abraham. ³¹O God, that art mighty above all, ³²hear the voice of the forlorn, and deliver us out of the hands of the mischievous, and deliver me out of my fear.

15 ¹And ²'upon the third day, when she had ended her prayer, she laid away ³her garments of service, and put on her glorious apparel. ⁴And being majestically adorned, after she had called upon ⁵the all-seeing God and ⁶saviour, she took her two maids with her: ⁷and upon the one she leaned, as carrying herself delicately; ⁸and the other followed, bearing up her train. ⁹And she was ruddy through the perfection of her beauty, and her countenance was cheerful ¹⁰and right amiable: but her heart was in anguish for fear. ¹¹Then having passed through all the doors, she stood before the king, who sat upon his royal throne, and was clothed with all his robes of majesty, all ¹²glittering with gold and precious stones; and he was very dreadful. ¹³Then lifting up his countenance that was flushed with glory, he looked upon ¹⁴her in fierce anger: ¹⁵and the queen fell down, and turned pale, and fainted, and she bowed herself upon the head of the maid that went before. ¹⁶Then God changed the spirit of the king into mildness, who in an agony leaped from his throne, and took her in his arms, till she came to herself again, and comforted her with soothing words, and said unto her, ¹⁷Esther, what is the matter? I am thy brother, be of good cheer: ¹⁸thou shalt not die, for ¹⁹our commandment is for our subjects: come near. ²⁰So he held up his golden sceptre, and laid it upon her neck, ²¹and embraced her, and said, ²²Speak unto me. ²³Then said she unto him, I saw thee, my lord, ²⁴as an angel of God, and my heart was troubled for fear of thy glory. ²⁵For wonderful art thou, my lord, and thy countenance is full of grace. ²⁶And as she was speaking, she fell down for faintness. ²⁷Then the king was troubled, and all his servants comforted her. ²⁸

16 ¹The great king Artaxerxes unto the governors of countries in a hundred and seven and twenty provinces from India unto Ethiopia, and unto them that are well affected to our state, ²greeting. ³Many, the more often they are honoured with the great bounty of their ⁴benefactors, the more proud they are waxen, and endeavour to hurt not our subjects only, but not being able to bear abundance, do take in hand to practise also against those that do them good: ⁵and take not only thankfulness away from among men, but also lifted up with the boastful words of them that were never good, they think to escape the evil-hating justice of God, ⁶who always seeth all things. ⁷Sometimes also fair speech of those that are put in trust to manage their friends' affairs, hath caused many that are in authority to be ⁸partakers of innocent blood, and hath unwrapped them in remediless calamities: ⁹beguiling with the false deceit of their lewd disposition the innocent good will of princes. ¹⁰Now ye may see this, as we have declared, not so much by more ancient histories, as ye may, if ye search what hath been wickedly done of late through the pestilent behaviour of them that are unworthily placed in authority. ¹¹And we must take care for the time to come, to render our kingdom quiet and peaceable for all men, ¹²both by changing our purposes, and always judging things that come before our eyes with more equal proceeding. ¹³For Aman, ¹⁴as a Macedonian, the son of Amadathus, an alien in truth from the Persian blood, and far distant from our goodness, being as a guest received of us, ¹² had so far forth obtained the favour that we shew toward every nation, as that he was called ¹³ our father, and was continually honoured of all men, ¹⁴ was the next person unto the royal throne. ¹⁵ But he, not bearing his high estate, went about to deprive us of our kingdom and our life; ¹⁶ having by manifold and cunning deceits sought of us the destruction, as well of Mardocheus, who saved our life, and continually procured our good, as also of Esther the blameless partaker of our kingdom, together with their whole nation. ¹⁷ For by these means he thought, finding us destitute of friends, to have translated the kingdom of the Persians to the Macedonians. ¹⁸ But we find that the Jews, whom this most ungracious wretch hath delivered to utter destruction, are no evil-doers, but live by most just laws: ¹⁹ and that they be children of ²⁰ the most high and most mighty living God, who hath ordered the kingdom both unto us and to our progenitors in the most excellent manner. ²¹ Wherefore ye shall do well not to put in execution the letters ²² sent unto you by Aman the son of Amadathus. ²³ For he, that was the worker of these things, ²⁴ is hanged at the gates of ²⁵ Susa ²⁶ with all his family: God, who ruleth all things, speedily rendering vengeance to him according to his deserts. ²⁷ Therefore ye shall publish openly the copy of this letter in all places, and let the Jews live after their own laws, ²⁸ and ye shall aid them, that even the same day, ²⁹ being the thirteenth day of the twelfth month Adar, they may defend themselves against those who set upon them in the time of their affliction. ³⁰ For Almighty God hath made this day to be a joy unto them, instead of the destruction of the chosen people. ³¹ And ye shall therefore among your commemorative feasts keep it a high day with all feasting: ³² that both now and hereafter there may be safety to us, and the well affected Persians; but to those which do conspire against us a memorial of destruction. ³³ Therefore every city or country whatsoever, which shall not do according to these things, shall be utterly destroyed without mercy with ³⁴ fire and sword; it shall be made not only unpassable for men, ³⁵ but also most hateful to wild beasts and fowls for ever.

I ¹ Love righteousness, ye that be judges of the earth,
Think ye of the Lord ² with a good mind,
And in singleness of heart seek ye him;
³ Because he is found of them that tempt him not,
And ⁴ is manifested to them that do not distrust him.
⁵ For crooked thoughts separate from God;
And the ⁶ supreme Power, when it is brought to the proof, ⁷ putteth to confusion the foolish:
⁸ Because wisdom will not enter into a soul that deviseth evil,
Nor dwell in a body that is held in pledge by sin.
⁹ For a holy spirit of discipline will flee deceit,
And will start away ¹⁰ from thoughts that are without understanding,
And will be ¹¹ put to confusion when unrighteousness hath come in.

¹² For ¹³ wisdom is a spirit / that loveth man,
And she will not hold a ¹⁴ blasphemer guiltless for his lips;
Because ¹⁵ God beareth witness of his reins,
And is a true overseer of his heart,
And ¹⁶ a hearer of his tongue:
¹⁷ Because ¹⁸ the spirit of the Lord hath filled ¹⁹ the world,
And that ²⁰ which holdeth all things together hath knowledge of every voice.
²¹ Therefore no man that uttereth unrighteous things shall be unseen;
²² Neither shall Justice, when it convicteth, pass him by.
²³ For in the ²⁴ midst of his counsels the ungodly shall be searched out;
And the sound of his words shall come unto the Lord
To bring to conviction his lawless deeds:

^a ch. 2. 2.	⁷ But ^a a righteous man, though he die before his time, shall be at rest. ⁸ (For honourable old age is not that which standeth in length of time, Nor is its measure given by number of years: ⁹ But understanding is gray hairs unto men, And an unspotted life is ripe old age.) ¹⁰ ^a Being found well-pleasing unto God he was beloved of ^{him}, And while living among sinners he was translated: ¹¹ ^f He was caught away, lest ¹ wickedness should change his understanding, Or guile deceive his soul. ¹² (For the bewitching of naughtiness ^a bedimmeth the things which are good, And the giddy whirl of desire perverteth an innocent mind.) ¹³ Being made perfect in a little while, he fulfilled long ² years; ¹⁴ For his soul was pleasing unto the Lord: Therefore ² hastened he out of the midst of wickedness. ¹⁵ But as for the peoples, ¹ seeing and understanding not, Neither laying ⁴ this to heart, ¹⁶ That grace and mercy are with his chosen, And that ⁵ he visiteth his holy ones:— But ^a a righteous man that is dead shall condemn the ungodly that are living, And ² youth that is quickly perfected the many years of an unrighteous man's old age; ¹⁷ ^o For the ungodly shall see a wise man's end, And shall not understand what the Lord purposed concerning him, And for what he safely kept him:— ¹⁸ They shall see, and they shall despise; But them ^p the Lord shall laugh to scorn. And ^{how} is his lot among saints? ⁶ Verily we went astray from the way of truth, And ⁷ the light of righteousness shined not for us, And the sun rose not for us. ⁷ We ^a took our fill of the paths of lawlessness and destruction, And we journeyed ^a through trackless deserts, But the way of the Lord we knew not. ⁸ What did our arrogancy profit us? And what good have riches ¹² and vaunting brought us? ⁹ Those things all passed away ^b as a shadow, And ^c as a message that runneth by: ¹⁰ ^d As a ship passing through the billowy water, Whereof, when it is gone by, there is no trace to be found, Neither pathway of its keel in the billows: ¹¹ ^d Or as when a bird flieth through the air, No token of her passage is found, But the light wind, lashed with the stroke of her pinions, And rent asunder ¹³ with the violent rush of the moving wings, is passed through,	^r Pa. 2. 6. ^a Cp. And afterwards no sign of her coming is found therein :

25 Or as when an arrow is shot at a mark,

The air departed closeth up again immediately,
So that men know not where it passed through :

26 So we also, as soon as we were born,
1 ceased to be ;
And of virtue we had no sign to shew,
But in our wickedness we were utterly consumed.

27 Because ¹the hope of the ungodly man is ²as chaff carried by the wind,

And ³as ⁴foam vanishing before a tempest ;
And is scattered ⁵as smoke is scattered by the wind,
And passeth by ⁶as the remembrance of a guest that tarrieth but a day.

28 But the righteous live for ever,
And ¹in the Lord is their reward,
And the care for them with the Most High.

29 Therefore shall they receive ²the crown of royal dignity
And ³the diadem of beauty from the Lord's hand ;

Because ⁴with his right hand shall he cover them,
And with his arm shall he shield them.

30 He shall take his ¹jealousy as complete armour,

And shall make the whole creation his weapons ²for vengeance on his enemies :

31 He shall put on righteousness as a breastplate,

And shall array himself with judgement unfeigned as with a helmet ;

32 He shall take holiness as an invincible shield,

And he shall sharpen stern wrath for a sword :

And the world shall go forth with him to fight against his insensate foes.

33 Shafts of lightning shall fly with true aim,

And from the clouds, as from a well drawn bow, shall they leap to the mark.

34 And as from an engine of war shall be hurled hailstones full of wrath ;

The water of the sea shall be angered against them,

And rivers shall sternly overwhelm them ;

35 A mighty blast shall encounter them,

And as a tempest shall it winnow them away :

And so shall lawlessness make all the land desolate,
And their evil-doing shall overturn the thrones of princes.

6 ¹Hear therefore, ye kings, and understand ;

Learn, ye judges of the ends of the earth :

2 Give ear, ye that have dominion over much people,
And make your boast ³in multitudes of nations.

3 Because your dominion was given you from the Lord,
And your sovereignty from the Most High ;

Who shall search out your works,
And shall make inquisition of your counsels :

4 Because being officers of his kingdom,
2 ye did not judge aright,
Neither kept ye ¹law, nor walked after the counsel of God.

5 Awfully and swiftly shall he come upon you ;

Because a stern judgement befalleth them that be in high place :

6 For the man of low estate may be pardoned in mercy,
But mighty men shall be ¹searched out mightily.

7 For the Sovereign Lord of all will not refrain himself ²for any man's person, Neither will he reverence greatness ;

Because it is he that made both small and great,

And alike he taketh thought for all ;

8 But ¹strict is the scrutiny that cometh upon the powerful.

9 Unto you therefore, O princes, are my words,

That ye may learn wisdom and ²fall not from the right way.

10 For they that have kept holily the things that are holy shall themselves be ¹hallowed ;

And ²they that have been taught them shall find what to answer ;

11 Set your desire therefore on my words ;

Long for them, and ye shall be ¹trained by their discipline.

12 Wisdom ¹is radiant and fadeth not away ;

And easily is she beheld of them that love her,

And found of them that seek her.

13 She forestalleth them that desire to know her, making herself first known.

14 He that riseth up early to seek her shall have no toil,

- 19 The circuits of years and the ¹⁰ positions of stars;
- 20 The natures of living creatures and the ragings of wild beasts, The violences of winds and the thoughts of men, The diversities of plants and the virtues of roots:
- 21 All things that are either secret or manifest I learned,
- 22 For she that is the artificer of all things taught me, even wisdom.
- For there is in her a spirit quick of understanding, holy,
- Alone in kind, manifold, Subtil, freely moving, Clear in utterance, unpolluted, Distinct, unharmed, Loving what is good, keen, unhindered,
- Benevolent, loving toward man, Steadfast, sure, free from care, All-powerful, all-surveying, And penetrating through all spirits That are quick of understanding, pure, most subtil:
- 24 For wisdom is more mobile than any motion;
- Yea, she pervadeth and penetrateth all things by reason of her pureness.
- 25 For she is the breath of the power of God, And a clear effluence of the glory of the Almighty;
- Therefore can nothing defiled find entrance into her.
- 26 For she is an effluence from everlasting light, And an unspotted mirror of the working of God, And an image of his goodness.
- 27 And she, being one, hath power to do all things; And remaining in herself, reneweth all things:
- And from generation to generation passing into holy souls She maketh men friends of God and prophets.
- 28 For nothing doth God love save him that dwelleth with wisdom.
- 29 For she is fairer than the sun, And above all the constellations of the stars:
- Being compared with light, she is found to be before it;
- 30 For to the light of day succeedeth night, But against wisdom evil doth not prevail;
- 8 But she reacheth from one end of the world to the other with full strength,
- And ordereth all things graciously.
- 9 Her I loved and sought out from my youth, And I sought to take her for my bride, And I became enamoured of her beauty.
- 3 She glorified her noble birth in that it is given her to live with God, And the Sovereign Lord of all loved her.
- 4 For she is initiated into the knowledge of God, And she chooseth out for him his works.
- 5 But if riches are a desired possession in life,
- What is richer than wisdom, which worketh all things?
- 6 And if understanding worketh, Who more than wisdom is an artificer of the things that are?
- 7 And if a man loveth righteousness,
- The fruits of wisdom's labour are virtues, For she teacheth soberness and understanding, righteousness and courage;
- And there is nothing in life for men more profitable than these.
- 8 And if a man lengthen even for much experience, She knoweth the things of old, and divineth the things to come:
- She understandeth subtilties of speeches and interpretations of dark sayings:
- She foreseeeth signs and wonders, and the issues of seasons and times.
- 9 I determined therefore to take her unto me to live with me, Knowing that she is one who would give me good thoughts for counsel, And encourage me in cares and grief.
- 20 Because of her I shall have glory among multitudes, And honour in the sight of elders, though I be young.
- 21 I shall be found of a quick conceit when I give judgement, And in the presence of princes I shall be admired.
- 22 When I am silent, they shall wait for me; And when I open my lips, they shall give heed unto me; And if I continue speaking, they shall lay their hand upon their mouth.
- 23 Because of her I shall have immortality, And leave behind an eternal memory to them that come after me.

18 And it was thus that the ways of them which are on earth were corrected, 19 And men were taught the things that are pleasing unto thee;
And 4through wisdom were they saved.

IO 1 Wisdom guarded to the end
2 the first formed father of the world, 3 that was created alone,
And delivered him out of his own transgression,
4 And 4gave him strength to get dominion over all things.
5 But 6when an unrighteous man fell away from her in his anger,
He perished himself in the rage wherewith he slew his brother.
6 And when for his cause 7the earth was drowning with a flood,
8 Wisdom again saved it,
Guiding 9the righteous man's course 10by a poor piece of wood.

5 Moreover, 1when nations consenting together in wickedness had been confounded,
2 Wisdom 3knew the righteous man, and preserved him blameless unto God,
And 4kept him strong when his heart yearned toward his child.

6 While 7the ungodly were perishing, 8wisdom delivered 9a righteous man,
When he fled from the fire that descended out of heaven 10on 11Pentapolis.

7 To whose wickedness a smoking waste still witnesseth,
And plants bearing fair fruit that cometh not to ripeness;
Yea and a 2disbelieving soul hath a memorial there, 3a pillar of salt still standing.

8 For having passed wisdom by, Not only were they disabled from recognising the things which are good,
But they also left behind them 4for human life a monument of their folly;
To the end that 5where they 6went astray they might fail even to be unseen:

9 But wisdom delivered out of troubles those that waited on her.

10 1When a righteous man was a fugitive from a brother's wrath, 2wisdom guided him in straight paths;
3She shewed him God's kingdom, and gave him knowledge of holy things;
4She prospered him in his toils, and multiplied the fruits of his labour;
11 5When in their covetousness men dealt hardly with him,
She stood by him and made him rich;
12 6She guarded him from enemies, And from those that lay in wait she kept him safe,
And 7over his sore conflict she watched as judge,
That he might know that godliness is more powerful than 8all.

13 9When a righteous man was sold, 1wisdom forsook him not,
2But 3from sin she delivered him; 4She went down with him into a dungeon, 14 5And in bonds she left him not, Till she brought him the sceptre of a kingdom,
And authority over those that dealt tyrannously with him;
She shewed them also to be false that had mockingly accused him, And gave him eternal glory.

15 1Wisdom 2delivered 3a holy people and a blameless seed 4from a nation of oppressors.

16 5She entered into the soul of 6a servant of the Lord, And 7withstood terrible kings 8in wonders and signs.

17 She rendered unto holy men 9a reward of their toils;
She guided them along a marvellous way,
10And became unto them a covering in the day-time,
And a flame of stars through the night.

18 1She brought them over the Red 2sea,
And led them through much water;
19 3But their enemies she drowned, And out of the bottom of the deep she cast them up.

20 1Therefore the righteous spoiled the ungodly;
2And they sang praise to thy holy name, O Lord,
And extolled with one accord thy hand that fought for them:

21 Because wisdom opened 2the mouth of the dumb,
And made 3the tongues of babes 4to speak clearly.

II ¹ She prospered their works in the hand of a holy ² prophet.

³ They journeyed through a desert without inhabitant, And in trackless regions they pitched their tents.

⁴ They withstood enemies, and ¹ repelled foes.

⁴ They thirsted, and they called upon thee, And ² there was given them water out of ³ the ⁴ flinty rock, And healing of their thirst out of the hard stone.

⁵ For by what things their foes were punished, By these they in their need were benefited.

⁶ When the enemy were troubled with clotted blood instead of a river's ever-flowing fountain,

⁷ To rebuke ⁸ the decree for the slaying of babes, Thou gavest them abundant water beyond all hope,

⁸ Having shewn them by ⁹ the thirst which they had suffered ¹⁰ how thou didst punish the adversaries.

⁹ For when they were tried, albeit but in mercy chastened, They learned how the ungodly were tormented, being judged with wrath:

¹⁰ For these, ¹¹ as a father, ¹² admonishing them, thou didst prove; But those, as a stern king, condemning them, thou didst search out.

¹¹ Yea and whether they were far off from the righteous or near them, they were alike distressed;

¹² For a double grief took hold on them, And a groaning at the remembrance of things past.

¹³ For when they heard that through their own punishments the others ¹⁴ had been benefited,

¹⁴ They felt the presence of the Lord; For him who long before ¹⁵ was cast forth and exposed they left off mocking:

In the last issue of what came to pass ¹⁶ they marvelled, Having thirsted in another manner than the righteous.

¹⁵ But in requital of ¹⁷ the senseless imaginings of their unrighteousness,

¹⁶ Wherein they were led astray to worship irrational reptiles and wretched vermin,

Thou didst send upon them a multitude of irrational creatures for vengeance;

¹⁶ That they might learn, that by what things a man sinneth, by these he is punished.

¹⁷ For thine all-powerful hand, That created the world out of ¹⁸ formless matter,

¹⁸ Lacked not means to send upon them ¹⁹ a multitude of bears, or fierce lions,

¹⁹ Or ²⁰ new-created wild beasts, ²¹ full of rage, of unknown kind, Either breathing out a blast of fiery breath,

²⁰ Or blowing forth from their nostrils noisome smoke, Or flashing dreadful sparkles from their eyes;

²¹ Which had power not only to consume them by their ²² violence, But to destroy them even by the terror of their sight.

²² Yea and without these might they have fallen by a single breath, Being pursued by ²³ justice, and scattered abroad by the breath of thy power.

²³ But by measure and number and weight thou didst order all things.

²⁴ For to be greatly strong is thine at all times; And ²⁵ the might of thine arm who shall withstand?

²⁵ Because the whole world before thee is ²⁶ as a grain ²⁷ in a balance, And ²⁸ as a drop of dew that at morning cometh down upon the earth.

²⁶ But ²⁹ thou hast mercy on all men, because thou hast power to do all things,

And ³⁰ thou overlookest the sins of men ³¹ to the end they may repent.

³¹ For ³² thou lovest all things that are,

And abhorrest none of the things which thou didst make; For never wouldest thou have formed anything if thou didst hate it.

³² And how would anything have endured, except thou hadst willed it?

Or that which was not ³³ called by thee, how would it have been preserved?

³³ But ³⁴ thou sparest all things, because they are thine, O Sovereign Lord, ³⁵ thou lover of men's ³⁶ lives;

12 ³⁷ For thine incorruptible spirit ³⁸ is in all things.

³⁸ Wherefore thou convictest ³⁹ by little and little them that ⁴⁰ fall from the right way,

And, putting them in remembrance ^bby the very things wherein they sin, dost thou admonish them,
That escaping from their wickedness they may believe on thee, O Lord.

- 3 For verily the old inhabitants of thy ^choly land,
4 ^dHating them because they practised detestable works of enchantments and unholy rites
5 (^eMerciless ^fslaughters of children, And sacrificial banquets of men's flesh and of blood),
6 Confederates in an impious fellowship, ^gAnd murderers of their own helpless babes, /It was thy counsel to destroy by the hands of our fathers; 7 That the land ^hwhich in thy sight is most precious of all lands Might receive a worthy colony of God's ⁱservants.
8 Nevertheless even these ^jthou didst spare as being men,
And ^k'thou sentest ^lhornets as forerunners of thy host,
To cause them to perish ^m'by little and little;
9 Not that thou wast unable to subdue the ungodly under the hand of the righteous in battle, ⁿOr by terrible beasts or ^o'by one stern word to make away with them at once;
10 But judging them ^p'by little and little thou gavest them a place of repentance,
Not being ignorant that ^qtheir nature by birth was evil, and their wickedness inborn,
And that their manner of thought would in no wise ever be changed, 11 For they were a seed ^r'accursed from the beginning:
Neither was it through fear of any that thou didst leave them then unpunished for their sins.

- 12 ^sFor who shall say, What hast thou done?
Or who shall withstand thy judgement?
And who shall accuse thee for the perishing of nations which thou didst make?
Or who shall come and stand before thee as an avenger for unrighteous men?
13 For neither is there ^tany God beside thee ^u'that careth for all,
That thou mightest shew unto him that thou didst not judge unrighteously:

¹ The words rendered slaughters and impious in verses 5 and 6 differ but slightly from the readings of the Greek text, which here yield no sense. ² Or, in them.
³ Or, children. ⁴ Or, snare. ⁵ The Greek text here is perhaps corrupt. ⁶ Or, even beyond. ⁷ Or, living creatures: and so elsewhere in this book.

- 14 Neither shall king or prince be able to look thee in the face to plead for those whom thou hast punished.
15 But being righteous thou rulest all things righteously, ^vDeeming it a thing alien from thy power
To condemn one that doth not himself deserve to be punished.
16 For thy strength is the beginning of righteousness,
And ^w'thy sovereignty over all maketh thee to forbear all.
17 For ^x'when men believe not that thou art perfect in power, thou shewest thy strength, ^yAnd ^z'in dealing with them that know ^{aa}'thou puttest their boldness to confusion.
18 But thou, being sovereign over thy strength, judgest in gentleness,
And with great forbearance dost thou govern us;
^{ab}For the power is thine whensoever thou hast the will.

- 19 ^{ac}'But thou didst teach thy people by such works as these,
How that the righteous must be a lover of men;
And thou didst make thy sons to be of good hope,
Because thou givest repentance when men have sinned.
20 For if ^{ad}'on them that were enemies of thy ^{ae}'servants and due to death Thou didst take vengeance with so great heedfulness and indulgence, Giving them times and place whereby they might escape from their wickedness;
21 With how great carefulness didst thou judge thy sons, ^{af}To whose fathers thou gavest oaths and covenants of good promises!
22 While therefore thou dost chasten us, thou scourgest our enemies ten thousand times more,
To the intent that we may ponder thy goodness ^{ag}'when we judge,
And when we are judged may look for mercy.
23 Wherefore also the unrighteous that lived in folly of life ^{ah}'Thou didst torment through ^{ai}'their own abominations.
24 For verily they went astray very far ^{aj}'in the ways of error, ^{ak}Taking as gods those ^{al}'animals which even among their enemies were held in dishonour,
Deceived like foolish babes.
25 Therefore, as ^{am}'unto unreasoning children, thou didst send thy judgement to mock them.

²⁶ But they that would not be admonished ¹ by a mocking correction as of children

Shall have experience of a judgement worthy of God.

²⁷ For through the sufferings whereat they were indignant,

² Being punished in these creatures which they supposed to be gods,

³ They saw, and recognised as the true God him whom ⁴ before they ⁵ refused to know:

⁶ Wherefore also the last end of condemnation came upon them.

⁷ For verily all men by nature ⁸ were but ⁹ vain who had no perception of God,

And ¹⁰ from the good things that are seen they gained not power to know ¹¹ him that is,

Neither by giving heed to the works did they recognise the artificer;

¹² But either fire, or wind, or swift air,

Or ¹³ circling ¹⁴ stars, or raging water, or ¹⁵ luminaries of heaven, They thought to be gods that rule the world.

¹⁶ And if it was through delight in their beauty that they took them to be gods,

Let them know how much better than these is their Sovereign Lord; For the first author of beauty created them:

¹⁷ But if it was through astonishment at their power and ¹⁸ influence,

¹⁹ Let them understand from them how much more powerful is he that formed them;

²⁰ For from the ²¹ greatness of the beauty ²² even of created things

²³ In like proportion ²⁴ does man form the image of their first maker.

²⁵ But yet for these ²⁶ men there is but small blame,

For they too peradventure do but go astray

²⁷ While they are seeking God and desiring to find him.

²⁸ For ²⁹ living among his works they make diligent search,

And they ³⁰ yield themselves up to sight, because the things that they look upon are beautiful.

³¹ But again even ³² they are not to be excused.

³³ For if they had power to know so much,

That they should be able to explore ³⁴ the course of things,

How is it that they did not sooner find the Sovereign Lord of these his works?

³⁵ But miserable ³⁶ were they, and ³⁷ in ³⁸ dead things ³⁹ were their hopes, Who called them gods which are

⁴⁰ works of men's hands, Gold and silver, wrought with careful art, and ⁴¹ likenesses of animals, Or a useless stone, the work of an ancient hand.

⁴² Yea and if ⁴³ some ⁴⁴ woodcutter, having sawn down a ⁴⁵ tree that is easily moved,

Skilfully strippeth away all its bark, And fashioning it in comely form maketh ⁴⁶ a vessel useful for the service of life;

⁴⁷ And burning the refuse of his handy-work to dress his food, eateth his fill;

⁴⁸ And taking the very refuse thereof which served to no use,

A crooked piece of wood and full of knots,

Carveth it with the diligence of his idleness,

And shapeth it by the skill of his ⁴⁹ indolence;

⁵⁰ Then he giveth it the semblance of the image of a man,

⁵¹ Or maketh it like some ⁵² paltry animal,

⁵³ Smearing it with vermilion, and with ⁵⁴ paint colouring it red,

And smearing over every stain that is therein;

⁵⁵ And having made for it a chamber worthy of it,

⁵⁶ He setteth it in a wall, making it fast with iron.

⁵⁷ While then he taketh thought for it ⁵⁸ that it may not fall down,

⁵⁹ Knowing that it is unable to help itself;

(For verily it is an image, and hath need of help;)

⁶⁰ When he maketh his prayer concerning goods and his marriage and children,

He is not ashamed to speak to that which hath no life;

⁶¹ Yea for health he calleth upon that which is weak,

And for life he beseecheth ⁶² that which is dead,

And for aid he supplicateth that which hath least experience,

And for a ⁶³ good journey ⁶⁴ that which cannot so much as move a step,

⁶⁵ And for gaining and ⁶⁶ getting and good success of his hands

¹ Or, by a correction, which was as children's play. ² Or, denied that they knew. ³ Or, are. ⁴ Or, circles of stars. ⁵ Some authorities read greatness and beauty of. ⁶ Some authorities omit even. ⁷ Or, correspondingly. ⁸ Or, the first maker of them behold. ⁹ Or, being occupied with. ¹⁰ Or, trust their sight that the things. ¹¹ Or, life. ¹² Or, the world. ¹³ Or, the age. ¹⁴ Or, amongst. ¹⁵ Or, carpenter who is a woodcutter. ¹⁶ Or, plant. ¹⁷ The Greek word, slightly changed, would mean trunk. ¹⁸ Or, leisure. ¹⁹ Or, And. ²⁰ Or, rough.

He asketh ability of that which with its hands is most unable.

14 ² Again, one preparing to sail, and about to journey over raging waves,

^b Calleth upon a piece of wood more rotten than the vessel that carrieth him;

² For that vessel the hunger for gains devised, And an artificer, even wisdom, built it;

³ And thy providence, O Father, guideth it along,

^d Because even in the sea thou gavest a way,

And in the waves a sure path,

⁴ Shewing that thou canst save out of every danger, That so even without art a man may put to sea;

⁵ And it is thy will that the works of thy wisdom should not be idle;

Therefore also do men intrust their lives to ^e a little piece of wood, And passing through the surge ¹ on a raft are brought safe to land.

⁶ For ² in the old time also, when ^f proud giants were perishing, The hope of the world, ^g taking refuge on a raft,

Left to ³ the race of men a seed of generations to come,

^h Thy hand guiding the helm.

⁷ For blessed ⁱ hath been wood through which cometh righteousness:

⁸ But the idol made with hands is accursed, itself and ^j he that made it;

Because his was the working, and ^k the corruptible thing was named a god:

⁹ ² For both the ungodly doer and his ungodliness are alike hateful to God;

¹⁰ For verily the deed shall be punished together with him that committed it.

¹¹ Therefore also ⁴ among the idols of the nations shall there be a visitation,

Because, though formed of things which God created, they were made ^m an abomination,

And stumblingblocks to the souls of men,

ⁿ And a snare to the feet of the foolish.

¹² For ^o the devising of idols was the beginning of fornication,

And ^p the invention of them the corruption of life:

¹³ For neither were they from the beginning, ^q neither shall they be for ever;

¹⁴ For by the vaingloriousness of men they entered into the world, And therefore was a speedy and devised for them.

¹⁵ For a father worn with untimely grief, Making an image of the child quickly taken away, Now honoured him as a god which was then a dead man, And delivered to those that were under him ^r mysteries and solemn rites.

¹⁶ Afterward the ungodly custom, in process of time grown strong, was kept as a law,

And ^s by the commandments of princes the graven images received worship.

¹⁷ And when men could not honour them in presence because they dwelt far off,

Imagining the likenesses from afar, They made a visible image of the king whom they honoured, That by their zeal they might flatter the absent as if present.

¹⁸ But unto a yet higher pitch was worship raised even by them that knew him not,

Urged forward by the ambition of the artificer:

¹⁹ For he, wishing peradventure to please one in authority,

^t Used his art to force the likeness toward a greater beauty;

²⁰ And the multitude, allured by reason of the grace of his handy-work,

^u Now accounted as an object of devotion him that a little before was honoured as a man.

²¹ And ^v this became ^w a hidden danger unto life,

Because men, in bondage either ^x to calamity or ^y to tyranny,

Invested stones and stocks ^z with the incommunicable Name.

²² Afterward it was not enough for them to go astray as touching the knowledge of God;

But also, while they live ¹ in ² sore conflict through ignorance of him,

³ That multitude of evils they call peace.

²³ For either ⁴ slaughtering children in solemn rites, or ⁵ celebrating secret mysteries,

Or ⁶ holding frantic revels of strange ordinances,

²⁴ No longer do they ⁷ guard either life or purity of marriage,

But one brings upon another either death by treachery, or anguish by adulterate offspring.

27 For the worship of ³⁰ those 'nameless idols

³¹ Is a beginning and cause and end of every evil.

28 For their worshippers either make merry unto madness, or prophesy lies,

Or live unrighteously, or lightly forswear themselves.

29 For putting their trust in lifeless idols,

³² When they have sworn a wicked oath, they expect not to suffer harm.

30 But for both ³³ sins shall the just doom pursue them,

Because they had evil thoughts of God by giving heed to idols,

And ³⁴ swore unrighteously in deceit through contempt for holiness.

31 For it is not the power of them by whom men swear,

But it is ³⁵ that ³⁶ Justice which hath regard to them that sin,

That visiteth always the transgression of the unrighteous.

15 * But thou, our God, art gracious and true, Longsuffering, and in mercy ordering all things.

1 For even if we sin, ² we are thine, knowing thy dominion;

But we shall not sin, knowing that we have been accounted thine:

3 For ⁴ to be acquainted with thee is ⁵ perfect righteousness,

And to know thy dominion is ⁶ the root of immortality.

4 ⁷ For neither were we led astray by any evil device of men's art,

Nor yet by ⁸ painters' fruitless labour, A form stained with varied colours;

5 ⁹ The sight whereof leadeth fools into ¹⁰ lust:

Their desire is for the ¹¹ breathless form of a ¹² dead image.

6 Lovers of evil things, and worthy of such hopes as these,

Are ¹³ both they that do, and they that desire, and they that worship.

7 ¹⁴ For a potter, kneading soft earth, Laboriously mouldeth each several vessel for our service:

Nay, ¹⁵ out of the same clay doth he fashion

Both ¹⁶ the vessels that minister to clean uses, and those of a contrary sort,

All in like manner;

But what shall be the use of each vessel of either sort,

The ¹⁷ craftsman himself is the judge.

8 And also, labouring to an evil end, he mouldeth a vain god out of the same clay,

He who, having but a little before been made of earth,

After a short space ¹⁸ goeth his way to the earth out of which he was taken,

When he is ¹⁹ required to render back the ²⁰ soul ²¹ which was lent him.

9 Howbeit he hath anxious care, Not because his powers must fail,

Nor because his span of life is short; But he matcheth himself against goldsmiths and ²² silversmiths, And he imitateth moulders in ²³ brass,

And esteemeth it glory that he mouldeth counterfeits.

10 His heart is ashes,

And his hope of less value than earth,

And his life of less honour than clay:

11 Because he was ignorant of him that moulded him,

And of him that inspired into him ²⁴ an active ²⁵ soul,

And ²⁶ breathed into him a vital spirit.

12 But ²⁷ he accounted our very life to be a ²⁸ plaything,

And our ²⁹ lifetime ³⁰ a gainful ³¹ fair;

For, saith he, one must get gain whence one can, though it be by evil.

13 For this man beyond all others knoweth that he sinneth,

³² Out of earthy matter making brittle vessels and graven images.

14 But most foolish ³³ were they all, and ³⁴ of feeble soul than a babe,

The enemies of thy people, who oppressed them;

15 Because they even accounted all the idols of the nations to be gods;

³⁵ Which have neither the use of eyes for seeing,

Nor nostrils ³⁶ for drawing breath, Nor ears to hear,

Nor fingers for handling, And ³⁷ their feet are helpless for walking.

16 For a man made them, And one ³⁸ whose own spirit is borrowed moulded them;

For no one hath power, being a man, to mould a god like unto himself,

¹⁸ For ¹thy ²nature manifested ³thy sweetness toward ⁴thy children; While ⁵that bread, ministering to the desire of the eater, Tempered itself according to every man's choice.

¹⁹ But snow and ice endured fire, and melted not, ²⁰That ²¹men might know that fire was destroying the fruits of the enemies,
Burning in the hail and flashing in the rains;

²² And ²³that this ²⁴element again, in order that righteous men may be nourished,
Hath even forgotten its own power.

²⁵ For the creation, ministering to thee its maker, Straineth its force against the unrighteous, for punishment,
And slackeneth it in behalf of them that trust in thee, for beneficence.

²⁶ Therefore at that time also, ²⁷converting itself into all forms,
It ministered to thine all-nourishing bounty,
According to the desire of them that ²⁸made supplication;

²⁹ That thy sons, ³⁰whom thou lovedst,
O Lord, might learn

³¹That it is not the ³²growth of the earth's fruits that nourisheth a man,
But that thy word preserveth them that trust thee.

³³ For that which was ³⁴not marred by fire,

³⁵When it was simply warmed by a faint sunbeam melted away;

³⁶ That it might be known that ³⁷we must rise before the sun to give thee thanks,

³⁸And must plead with thee at the dawning of the light:

³⁹ For the hope of ⁴⁰the unthankful shall melt as the winter's hoar frost,
And shall flow away as water that hath no use.

17 ¹ For ²great are thy judgements,
³and hard to ⁴interpret;
Therefore souls ⁵undisciplined went astray.

⁶ For when lawless men had supposed that they held a holy nation in their power,

⁷They ⁸themselves, prisoners of darkness, and bound in the fetters of a long night,
Close kept beneath their roofs,
Lay exiled from the eternal providence.

⁹ For ¹⁰while they thought that they were unseen in their secret sins,

They were ¹¹sundered one from another by a dark curtain of forgetfulness,
Stricken with terrible awe, and sore troubled by ¹²spectral forms.

¹³ For neither did ¹⁴the dark recesses that held them guard them from fears,

But ¹⁵sounds ¹⁶rushing down rang around them,
And ¹⁷phantoms appeared, cheerless with unsmiling faces.

¹⁸ And no force of fire prevailed to give them light,

¹⁹Neither were the brightest flames of the stars strong enough to illumine that gloomy night:

²⁰ But only there appeared to them the glimmering of a fire self-kindled, full of fear;

And in terror they deemed the things which they saw

To be worse than that sight, on which they could not gaze.

²¹ And they lay ²²helpless, ²³made the sport of magic art,
And ²⁴a shameful rebuke of their vaunts of understanding:

²⁵ For they that promised to drive away terrors and troublings from a sick soul,

These were ²⁶themselves sick with a ludicrous fearfulness:

²⁷ For even if no troublous thing affrighted them,

Yet, ²⁸fearcd with the creepings of vermin and hissings of serpents, ²⁹to they perished ³⁰for very trembling, Refusing even to look on the air,
which could on no side be escaped.

³¹ For wickedness, ³²condemned by a witness within, ³³is a coward thing,

And, ³⁴being pressed hard by conscience, ³⁵always ³⁶forecasteth the worst lot:

³⁷ For fear is nothing else but ³⁸a surrender of the succours which reason offeth;

³⁹ And from within ⁴⁰the heart the expectation of them being less

Maketh of greater account the ignorance of the cause that bringeth the torment.

⁴¹ But they, all through the night which was powerless indeed, And which came upon them out of the recesses of powerless Hades,
All sleeping the same sleep,

⁴² Now were haunted by ⁴³monstrous apparitions,

And now were paralysed by their soul's ⁴⁴surrendering;

For fear sudden and unlooked for ⁴⁵came upon them.

¹⁵ And not only so, but God shall ⁷visit the men of Sodom after another sort,

⁸ Since they received as enemies them that were aliens;

And then afflicted with dreadful toils,
Them that had already shared with them in the same rights.

¹⁷ And moreover ⁹they were stricken with loss of sight

THE WISDOM OF JESUS THE SON OF SIRACH,

OR

ECCLESIASTICUS.

The Prologue of the Wisdom of Jesus the Son of Sirach.

WHEREAS many and great things have been delivered unto us by ¹the law and the prophets, and by the others that have followed in their steps, for the which things we must give Israel the praise of instruction and wisdom; and since not only the readers must needs become skilful themselves, but also they that love learning must be able to profit them which are without, both by speaking and writing; my grandfather Jesus, having much given himself to the reading of the law, and the prophets, and the other books of our fathers, and having gained great familiarity therein, was drawn on also himself to write somewhat pertaining to instruction and wisdom; in order that those who love learning, and are addicted to these things, might make progress much more by living according to the law. Ye are instructed therefore to read with favour and attention, and to pardon us, if in any parts of what we have laboured to interpret, we may seem to fail in some of the phrases. For things originally spoken ²in Hebrew have not the same force in them, when they are translated into another tongue: and not only these, but ³the law itself, and the prophecies, and the rest of the books, have no small difference, when they are spoken in their original language. For having come into Egypt in the eight and thirtieth year of Euergetes the king, and having continued there some time, I found ⁴a copy affording no small instruction. I thought it therefore most necessary for me to

I ¹ ALL wisdom cometh from the Lord,

And ² is with him for ever.

³ The sand of the seas, and the drops of rain,

And the days of eternity, who shall number?

⁴ The height of the heaven, and the breadth of the earth,
And the deep, and wisdom, who shall search them out?

⁵ Wisdom hath been created before all things,
And the understanding of prudence from everlasting.¹

⁶ To whom hath the root of wisdom been revealed?
And who hath known her shrewd counsels?²

⁷ There is none wise, greatly to be feared,
The Lord sitting upon his throne:

⁸ He created her,
And saw, and numbered her,
And poured her out upon all his works.

⁹ She is with all flesh according to his gift;
And he gave her freely to them that love him.

¹⁰ The fear of the Lord is glory, and exultation,
And gladness, and a crown of rejoicing.

¹¹ The fear of the Lord shall delight the heart,
And shall give gladness, and joy, and length of days.

¹² Whoso feareth the Lord, it shall go well with him at the last,
And in the day of his death he shall be blessed.

¹³ To fear the Lord is the beginning of wisdom;
And it was created together with the faithful in the womb.

¹⁴ With men she laid an eternal foundation;
And with their seed shall she be had in trust.

¹⁵ To fear the Lord is the fulness of wisdom;
And she satiateth men with her fruits.

¹⁶ She shall fill all her house with desirable things,
And her garners with her produce.

¹⁷ The fear of the Lord is the crown of wisdom,
Making peace and perfect health to flourish.³

¹⁸ He both saw and numbered her;
He rained down skill and knowledge of understanding,
And exalted the honour of them that hold her fast.

¹⁹ To fear the Lord is the root of wisdom;
And her branches are length of days.⁴

²⁰ Unjust wrath can never be justified;
For the sway of his wrath is his downfall.

²¹ A man that is long suffering will bear for a season,
And afterward gladness shall spring up unto him;

²² He will hide his words for a season,
And the lips of many shall tell forth his understanding.

²³ A parable of knowledge is in the treasures of wisdom;
But godliness is an abomination to a sinner.

²⁴ If thou desire wisdom, keep the commandments,
And the Lord shall give her unto thee freely:

²⁵ For the fear of the Lord is wisdom and instruction;
And in faith and meekness is his good pleasure.

²⁶ Disobey not the fear of the Lord;
And come not unto him with a double heart.

²⁷ Be not a hypocrite in the mouths of men;
And take good heed to thy lips.

²⁸ Exalt not thyself, lest thou fall,
And bring dishonour upon thy soul;
And so the Lord shall reveal thy secrets,

And shall cast thee down in the midst of the congregation;
Because thou camest not unto the fear of the Lord,
And thy heart was full of deceit.

2 ¹ My son, if thou comest to serve the Lord,
Prepare thy soul for temptation.

² Set thy heart aright, and constantly endure,
And make not haste in time of calamity.

³ Cleave unto him, and depart not,
That thou mayest be increased at thy latter end.

⁴ Accept whatsoever is brought upon thee,
And be long suffering when thou passest into humiliation.

mercy;
And turn not aside, lest ye fall.

8 Ye that fear the Lord, put your trust in him;

^e And your reward shall not fail.

9 Ye that fear the Lord, hope for good things,
And for eternal gladness and mercy.

10 Look at the generations of old, and see:

^f Who did ever put his trust in the Lord, and was ashamed?
Or who did abide in his fear, and was forsaken?

^g Or who did call upon him, and he despised him?

11 ^h For the Lord is full of compassion and mercy;
And he forgiveth sins, ⁱ and saveth in time of affliction.

12 Woe unto ^j fearful hearts, and to

And to the sinner that ^k goeth two

13 Woe unto the faint heart! for it

Therefore shall it not be defended.

14 Woe unto you that have ^l lost your

And what will ye do when the Lord shall visit you?

15 They that fear the Lord will not disobey his words;
And ^m they that love him will keep his ways.

16 They that fear the Lord will seek his good pleasure;
And they that love him shall be ⁿ filled with the law.

17 They that fear the Lord will prepare their hearts,
And will humble their souls in his sight, ^o saying,

^p We will fall into the hands of the Lord,
And not into the hands of men:

^q For as his majesty is,
So also is his mercy.

3 ^r Hear me your father, O my children,
And do thereafter, that ye may be saved.

^s For the Lord hath given the father
^t glory as touching the children, And hath confirmed the judgement of the mother as touching the sons.

3 ^u He that honoureth his father shall make atonement for sins:

4 And he that giveth glory to his mother is as one ^v that layeth up treasure.

5 Whoso honoureth his father shall have joy of his children;
And in the day of his prayer he shall be heard.

6 He that giveth glory to his father
^w shall have length of days;
And he that hearkeneth unto the Lord shall bring rest unto his mother,

7 ^x And ^y will do service under his parents, as unto masters.

8 ^z In deed and word honour thy father,
That a blessing may come upon thee from him.

9 ^{aa} For the blessing of the father esta-blisheth the houses of children;
But the curse of the mother rooteth out the foundations.

20 Glorify not thyself in the dishonour of thy father;
For thy father's dishonour is no glory unto thee.

21 ^{ab} For the glory of a man is from the honour of his father;
And a mother in dishonour is a reproach to her children.

22 My son, ^{ac} help thy father in his old age;
And grieve him not as long as he liveth.

23 And if he fail in understanding, have patience with him;
And dishonour him not ^{ad} while thou art in thy full strength.

24 For the relieving of thy father shall not be forgotten:
^{ae} And instead of sins it shall be added to build thee up.

25 In the day of thine affliction it shall remember thee;
As fair weather upon ice,
So shall thy sins also melt away.

26 He that forsaketh his father is as a blasphemer;
And ^{af} he that provoketh his mother is cursed of the Lord.

27 My son, go on with thy business in meekness;
So shalt thou be beloved of an ^{ag} acceptable man.

28 ^{ah} The greater thou art, humble thyself the more,
And thou shalt find favour before the Lord.²

29 For great is the potency of the Lord,
And he is glorified of them that are lowly.

30 ^{ai} Seek not things that are too hard for thee,
And search not out things that are above thy strength.

²⁵ Speak not against the truth;

And be ashamed for thine ignorance.

²⁶ Be not ashamed to make confession of thy sins;

And force not the current of the river.

²⁷ Lay not thyself down for a fool to tread upon;

And accept not the person of one that is mighty.

²⁸ Strive for the truth unto death, and the Lord God shall fight for thee.

²⁹ Be not ¹hasty in thy tongue,

And in thy deeds slack and remiss.

³⁰ Be not ^aas a lion in thy house,

^bNor fanciful among thy servants.

³¹ Let not thine hand be stretched out to receive, and ²closed when thou shouldest repay.

³ Set not thy heart upon thy goods;

And say not, 'They are sufficient for me.

⁴ Follow not thine own mind and thy strength,

To walk in the desires of thy heart;

⁵ And say not, 'Who shall have dominion over me?

For the Lord will surely take vengeance on thee.

⁶ Say not, I sinned, and what happened unto me?

'For the Lord is long-suffering.'

⁷ Concerning atonement, be not without fear,

'To add sin upon sins:

⁸ And say not, His compassion is great;

He will be pacified for the multitude of my sins:

⁹ For mercy and wrath are with him,

And his indignation will rest upon sinners.

¹⁰ Make no tarrying to turn to the Lord;

And put not off from day to day:

¹¹ For suddenly shall the wrath of the Lord come forth;

And thou shalt perish in the time of vengeance.

¹² Set not thine heart upon unrighteous gains:

¹³ For thou shalt profit nothing in the day of calamity.

¹⁴ Winnow not with every wind,

And walk not in every path:

Thus doeth the sinner ¹⁵that hath a double tongue.

¹⁶ Be steadfast in thy understanding;

And let thy word be one.

¹⁷ Be swift to hear;

And ¹⁸with patience make thine answer.

¹⁹ If thou hast understanding, answer

thy neighbour;

And if not, let thy hand be upon thy mouth.

²⁰ Glory and dishonour is in talk:

And the tongue of a man is his fall.

²¹ Be not called ^aa whisperer;

And lie not in wait with thy tongue:

For upon the thief there is shame,

And an evil condemnation upon him

²²that hath a double tongue.

²³ In a great matter and in a small, be not ignorant;

²⁴ And instead of a friend become not an enemy;

For an evil name shall inherit shame and reproach:

Even so shall the sinner ²⁵that hath a double tongue.

²⁶ Exalt not thyself in the counsel of thy soul;

That thy soul be not torn in pieces

as a bull:

²⁷ Thou shalt eat up thy leaves, and destroy thy fruits,

And leave thyself ^aas a dry tree.

²⁸ A wicked soul shall destroy him that hath gotten it,

And shall make him ^aas a laughingstock to his enemies.

²⁹ Sweet words will multiply ^aa man's friends;

And a fair-speaking tongue will multiply courtesies.

³⁰ Let those that are at peace with thee be many;

But thy counsellors ^aone of a thousand.

³¹ If thou wouldest get thee a friend, get him ^aby proving,

And be not in haste to trust him.

³² For there is a friend ^athat is so for his own occasion;

And ^ahe will not continue in the day

of thy affliction.

³³ And there is a friend that turneth to enmity;

And he will discover strife to thy reproach.

³⁴ And ^athere is a friend that is a companion at the table;

And ^ahe will not continue in the day

of thy affliction.

³⁵ And in thy prosperity he will be as

And will be bold over thy servants:

³⁶ If thou shalt be brought low, he will be against thee,

And will hide himself from thy face.

³⁷ Separate thyself from thine enemies;

The deep, and the earth, shall be moved when he shall visit.

19 *The mountains and the foundations of the earth together Are shaken with trembling, when he looketh upon them.

20 And no heart shall think upon these things:

And ²who shall conceive his ways? And ³there is a tempest which no man shall see;

*Yea, the more part of his works are ¹hid.

22 Who shall declare the works of his righteousness?

Or who shall endure them? For his covenant is afar off.²

23 He that is wanting in ³understanding thinketh upon these things; And an unwise and erring man thinketh follies.

24 *My son, hearken unto me, and learn knowledge, And give heed to my words with thy heart.

25 I will shew forth instruction *by weight, And declare knowledge exactly.

26 In the judgement of the Lord are his works from the beginning; And from the making of them he disposed the parts thereof.

27 *He garnished his works for ever, And the beginnings of them unto their generations:

They neither hunger, nor are weary, And they cease not from their works.

28 No one thrusteth aside his neighbour; *And they shall never disobey his word.

29 After this also *the Lord looked upon the earth, And filled it with his blessings.

30 *All manner of living things covered the face thereof; And ⁴into it is their return.

17 *The Lord created man of the earth, And ⁵turned him back unto it again.

*He gave them days by number, and a set time,

*And gave them authority over the things that are thereon.

3 He endued them with strength proper to them;

And *made them according to his own image.

4 *He put the fear of ⁶man upon all flesh,

And ⁷gave him to have dominion over beasts and fowls.⁷

6 Counsel, and tongue, and eyes,

Ears, and heart, gave he them to understand withal.

7 *He filled them with the knowledge of wisdom,

And shewed them good and evil.

8 He set his eye upon their hearts, To shew them the majesty of his works.⁸

10 And ⁹they shall praise the name of his holiness,

*That they may declare the majesty of his works.

11 He added unto them knowledge, And gave them a law *of life for a heritage.

12 *He made an everlasting covenant with them,

And ¹⁰shewed them his judgements.

13 Their eyes saw the majesty of his glory;

*And their ear heard the glory of ¹⁰his voice.

14 And he said unto them, Beware of all unrighteousness;

And ¹¹he gave them commandment, each man concerning his neighbour.

15. *Their ways are ever before him; They shall not be hid from his eyes.¹¹

17 ¹²For every nation ¹²he appointed a ruler;

And ¹³Israel is the Lord's portion.¹¹

19 All their works are as the sun before him;

*And his eyes are continually upon their ways.

20 Their iniquities are not hid from him; And all their sins are before the Lord.¹¹

22 *With him the souls of a man is *as a signet;

And he will keep the bounty of a man *as the apple of the eye.³

23 *Afterwards he will rise up and recompense them,

And *render their recompense upon their head.

24 *Howbeit unto them that repent he granteth a return;

And he comforteth them that are losing patience.

25 *Return unto the Lord, and forsake sins:

Make thy prayer before his face, and lessen the offence.

26 Turn again to the Most High, and turn away from iniquity;¹³

17 As ^cthe vine I put forth grace;
And ^dmy flowers are the fruit of glory and riches.¹

19 ^eCome unto me, ye that are desirous of me,

^tIn three things I was beautified,
And stood up beautiful before the Lord and men:

^uThe concord of brethren, and ^vfriendship of neighbours,
And ^wa woman and her husband that walk together in agreement.

2 ^xBut three sorts of men my soul hateth,
And I am greatly offended at their life:

A poor man that is haughty, and a rich man ^ythat is a liar,
And an old man that is an adulterer lacking understanding.

3 ^zIn thy youth thou hast not gathered, And how shouldest thou find in thine old age?

4 ^{aa}How beautiful a thing is judgement for gray hairs,
And for elders to know counsel!

5 How beautiful is the wisdom of old men,
And thought and counsel to men that are in honour!

6 ^{ab}Much experience is the crown of old men;
And ^{ac}their glorying is the fear of the Lord.

7 There be nine things that I have thought of, and in mine heart counted happy;
And the tenth I will utter with my tongue:

^{ad}A man that hath joy of his children;
^{ae}A man that liveth and looketh upon the fall of his enemies:

8 Happy is he that dwelleth with a wife of understanding;
And he that hath not slipped with his tongue;

And he that hath not served a man that is unworthy of him:

9 ^{af}Happy is he that hath found prudence;
And he that discourseth in the ears of them that listen.

10 ^{ag}How great is he that hath found wisdom!

^{ah}Yet is there none above him that feareth the Lord.

11 ^{ai}The fear of the Lord passeth all things:
He that holdeth it, to whom shall he be likened?⁴

13 ^{aj}Give me any plague but the plague of the heart;
And any wickedness but ^{ak}the wickedness of a woman;

14 Any calamity, but a calamity ^{al}from them that hate me;

¹² Gen. 2. 6, 1 Tim. 2. 14, ¹³ Cp. Rom. 9. 12.	24 ¹² From a woman was the beginning of sin; And because of her ¹³ we all die.	14 A silent woman is a gift of the Lord; And there is nothing so much worth as a well-instructed soul.	¹² Cp. Prov. 15. 30.
¹⁴ Cp. Prov. 17. 14.	25 ¹⁴ Give not water an outlet; Neither to a wicked woman freedom of speech.	15 A shamefast woman is grace upon grace; And there is no ¹⁵ price worthy of a continent soul.
¹⁵ See Deut. 24. 1.	26 ¹⁵ If she go not ¹⁶ as thou wouldest have her, Cut her off from thy flesh. ³	16 As the sun when it ariseth in the highest places of the Lord, So is the beauty of a good wife ¹⁷ in the ordering of ¹⁸ a man's house.	¹³ Cp. Prov. 31. 27.
¹⁷ ch. 25. 15.	28 ¹⁷ A good wife is a good portion: She shall be given in the portion of such as fear the Lord.	18 As the golden pillars are upon a base of silver, So are beautiful feet with the breasts of one that is stedfast. ⁴
¹⁸ Cp. Prov. 18. 22 & 19. 14.	29 Whether a man be rich or poor, ¹⁹ A good heart maketh at all times a cheerful countenance.	20 ¹⁹ For two things my heart is grieved; And for the third anger cometh upon me: A man of war that suffereth for poverty;	¹⁵ Cp. ch. 23. 16.

And 'men of understanding that are counted as refuse:
¹ One that turneth back from righteousness to sin;
The Lord shall prepare him for the sword.

²⁹ ² A merchant shall hardly keep himself from wrong doing;
And a huckster shall not be acquitted of sin.

27 ³ Many have sinned for 'a thing indifferent;
And 'he that seeketh to multiply gain will turn his eye away.

⁴ A nail will stick fast between the joinings of stones;
'And sin will 'thrust itself in between buying and selling.

⁵ Unless a man hold on diligently in the fear of the Lord,
His house shall soon be overthrowen.

⁶ In the shaking of a sieve, the refuse remaineth;
So the filth of man in his reasoning.

⁷ The furnace will prove the potter's vessels;
And the trial of a man is in his reasoning.

⁸ The fruit of a tree declareth the husbandry thereof;
'So is the utterance of the thought of the heart of a man.

⁹ Praise no man before thou hearest him reason;
For this is the trial of men.

¹⁰ If thou followest righteousness, thou shalt obtain her,
And 'put her on, as 'a long robe of glory.

¹¹ Birds will resort unto their like;
And truth will return unto them that practise her.

¹² The lion lieth in wait for prey;
So doth sin for them that work iniquity.

¹³ The discourse of a godly man is always wisdom:
But the foolish man changeth as the moon.

¹⁴ Among men void of understanding 'observe the opportunity;
But stay continually among the thoughtful.

¹⁵ The discourse of fools is an offence;
And 'their laughter is in the wantonness of sin.

¹⁶ The talk of a man of many oaths will make the hair stand upright;
And their strife maketh one stop his ears.

¹⁷ The strife of the proud is a shedding of blood;
And their reviling of each other is a grievous thing to hear.

¹⁸ He that revealeth secrets destroyeth credit,
And shall not find a friend to his mind.

¹⁹ Love a friend, and keep faith with him:

'But if thou reveal his secrets,
Thou shalt not pursue after him;
²⁰ For as a man hath destroyed his enemy,

So hast thou destroyed the friendship of thy neighbour.

²¹ And as a bird which thou hast loosed out of thy hand,
So hast thou let thy neighbour go,
and thou wilt not catch him again:

²² Pursue him not, for he is gone far away,
And hath escaped 'as a gazelle out of the snare.

²³ For a wound may be bound up, 'and after reviling there may be a reconciliation;
But he that revealeth secrets hath lost hope.

²⁴ One that winketh with the eye con-triveth evil things;
And no man will remove him from it.

²⁵ When thou art present, 'he will speak sweetly,
And will admire thy words;
But afterward he will writhe his mouth,

And set a trap for thee in thy words.
²⁶ I have hated many things, but nothing like him;
And 'the Lord will hate him.

²⁷ One that casteth a stone on high casteth it on his own head;
And a deceitful stroke will open wounds.

²⁸ He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it;
And 'he that setteth a snare shall be taken therein.

²⁹ He that doeth evil things, they shall roll upon him,
And he shall not know whence they have come to him.

³⁰ Mockery and reproach are from the haughty;
And vengeance, 'as a lion, shall lie in wait for him.

³¹ They that rejoice at the fall of the godly shall be taken in a snare;
And 'Janguish shall consume them before they die.

³² Wrath and anger, these also are abominations;
And a sinful man shall possess them.

28 ¹ He that taketh vengeance shall find vengeance from the Lord;
And he will surely 'make firm his sins.

^a Vain and false hopes are for a man void of understanding;
 And dreams give wings to fools.

3 ^aAs one that catcheth at a shadow, and followeth after the wind,
 So is he that setteth his mind on dreams.

3 The vision of dreams is as this thing against that,
^dThe likeness of a face over against a face.

4 ^aOf an unclean thing what shall be cleansed?
 And of that which is false what shall be true?

5 ^fDivinations, and soothsayings, and dreams, are vain:
 And the heart fancieth, as a woman's in travail.

6 ^gIf they be not sent from the Most High in thy visitation,
 Give not thy heart unto them.

7 For dreams have led many astray:
 And they have failed by putting their hope in them.

8 Without lying shall the law be accomplished;

 And ^hhe that hath much experience will declare understanding.

10 He that hath no experience knoweth few things:
 But ^hhe that hath wandered shall increase his skill.

11 ^jIn my wandering I have seen many things;
 And more than my words is my understanding.

12 ^k Ofttimes was I in danger even unto death;
 And I was preserved because of these things.

13 ^lThe spirit of those that fear the Lord shall live;
 For their hope is upon him that saveth them.

14 ^mWhoso feareth the Lord shall not be afraid, and shall not play the coward;
 For ⁿhe is his hope.

15 Blessed is the soul of him that feareth the Lord:
 To whom doth he give heed? and who is his stay?

16 ^oThe eyes of the Lord are upon them that love him,

^pA mighty protection and strong stay,

^qA cover from the hot blast, and a cover from the noonday,

^rA guard from stumbling, and a succour from falling.

17 He raiseth up the soul, and ^senlighteneth the eyes:

He giveth healing, life, and blessing.

18 ^tHe that sacrificeth of a thing wrongfully gotten, his offering is made in mockery;

And the mockeries of wicked men are not well-pleasing.

19 ^uThe Most High hath no pleasure in the offerings of the ungodly;

^vNeither is he pacified for sins by the multitude of sacrifices.

20 ^wAs one that killeth the son before his father's eyes

24 One praying, and another cursing,

25 ^{aa}He that washeth himself after touching a dead body, and toucheth it again,

And what profit hath he in his humiliation?

35 ^aHe that keepeth the law multiplieth offerings;

3 ^dTo depart from wickedness is a thing pleasing to the Lord;

4 ^eSee that thou appear not in the presence of the Lord empty.

5 For all these things are to be done because of the commandment.

6 The offering of the righteous maketh the altar fat;

That driveth oxen, and is occupied in their labours,
And whose discourse is of the stock of bulls?

²⁶ He will set his heart upon turning his furrows;
And his wakefulness is to give his heifers their fodder.

²⁷ So is every artificer and workmaster,
That passeth his time by night as by day;
They that cut gravings of signets,
And his diligence is to make great variety;

²⁸ He will set his heart to preserve likeness in his portraiture,
And will be wakeful to finish his work.

²⁹ So is the smith sitting by the anvil,
And considering the unwrought iron:
The vapour of the fire will waste his flesh;
And in the heat of the furnace will he wrestle with his work:

The noise of the hammer will ¹be ever in his ear,
And his eyes are upon the pattern of the vessel;
He will set his heart upon perfecting his works,
And he will be wakeful to adorn them perfectly.

³⁰ So is the potter sitting at his work,
And turning the wheel about with his feet,
Who is always anxiously set at his work,

³¹ And all his handywork is by number;
He will fashion the clay with his arm,
And will bend its strength in front of his feet;
He will apply his heart to finish the glazing;
And he will be wakeful to make clean the furnace.

³² All these put their trust in their hands;
And each becometh wise in his own work.

And in the assembly they shall not mount on high;
They shall not sit on the seat of the judge,
And they shall not understand the covenant of judgement:
Neither shall they declare instruction and judgement;
And where parables are they shall not be found.

³⁵ But they will maintain the fabric of the ²world;
And in the handywork of their craft is their prayer.

39 ¹Not so he that hath applied his soul,
And ²meditateth in the law of the Most High;

³He will seek out the wisdom of all the ancients,
And will be occupied in prophecies.

⁴He will keep the discourse of the men of renown,
And will enter in amidst the subtilties of parables.

⁵He will seek out the hidden meaning of proverbs,
And be conversant in the dark sayings of parables.

⁶He will serve among great men,
And appear before him that ruleth:
⁷He will travel through the land of strange nations;
For ⁸he hath tried good things and evil among men.

⁹He will apply his heart to resort early to the Lord that made him,
And will make supplication before the Most High,
And will open his mouth in prayer,
And will make supplication for his sins.

¹⁰If the great Lord will,
He shall be filled with the spirit of understanding;
He shall ¹¹pour forth the words of his wisdom,
And in prayer give thanks unto the Lord.

¹²He shall direct his counsel and knowledge,
And in his secrets shall he meditate.

¹³He shall shew forth the instruction which he hath been taught,
And shall glory in the law of the covenant of the Lord.

¹⁴Many shall commend his understanding;
And so long as the world endureth,
¹⁵it shall not be blotted out:

¹⁶His memorial shall not depart,
And his name shall live from generation to generation.

¹⁷Nations shall declare his wisdom,
And the congregation shall tell out his praise.

¹⁸If he continue, he shall leave a greater name than a thousand:

16 ¹Enoch pleased the Lord, and was translated,
Being an example of repentance to all generations.

17 ²Noah was found perfect and righteous;
In the season of wrath he was taken in exchange for the world;
³Therefore was there left a remnant unto the earth,
When the flood came.

18 ⁴Everlasting covenants were made with him,
That all flesh should no more be blotted out by a flood.

19 ⁵Abraham was a great father of a multitude of nations;
And there was none found like him in glory;

20 Who kept the law of the Most High, And was taken into covenant with him:

21 ⁶In his flesh he established the covenant;
And ⁷when he was proved, he was found faithful.

22 ⁸Therefore he assured him by an oath,
That the nations should be blessed in his seed;

23 That he would multiply him ⁹as the dust of the earth,
And exalt his seed ¹⁰as the stars, And cause them to inherit from sea to sea,
And ¹¹from the River unto the utmost part of the earth.

24 ¹²In Isaac also did he establish likewise, for Abraham his father's sake,
The blessing of all men, and the covenant:

25 And ¹³he made it rest upon the head of Jacob;
He acknowledged him in his blessings,
And gave to him by inheritance, And divided his portions;
¹⁴Among twelve tribes did he part them.

45 ¹⁵ And he brought out of him a man of mercy,

¹⁶Which found favour in the sight of all flesh;

A man beloved of God and men, even Moses,

¹⁷Whose memorial is blessed.
¹⁸He made him like to the glory of the saints,
And magnified him in the fears of his enemies.

3 ¹⁹By his words he caused the wonders to cease;
He glorified him in the sight of kings;

²⁰He gave him commandment for his people,
And ²¹showed him part of his glory.

4 He sanctified him in his faithfulness and ²²meekness;
He chose him out of all flesh.

5 He made him to hear his voice,
And led him ²³into the thick darkness, And gave him commandments ²⁴face to face,
Even the law of life and knowledge, That he might teach Jacob the covenant,
And Israel his judgements.

6 ²⁵He exalted Aaron, a holy man like unto him,
Even his brother, of the tribe of Levi.

7 He established for him an everlasting covenant,
And ²⁶gave him the priesthood of the people;
He ²⁷beautified him with comely ornaments,

8 And girded him about with a robe of glory.
²⁸He clothed him with the perfection of exultation;

9 And strengthened him with apparel of ²⁹honour,
³⁰The linen breeches, ³¹the long robe, and ³²the ephod.

10 And he compassed him ³³with pomegranates of gold,
And with many bells round about,

³⁴To send forth a sound as he went, To make a sound that might be heard in the temple,
For a memorial to the children of his people;

11 With a holy garment, with gold and blue and purple, the work of the embroiderer, ³⁵With an oracle of judgement, ³⁶even with the Urim and Thummim;

12 With twisted scarlet, the work of the craftsman;
³⁷With precious stones graven like a signet, in a setting of gold, the work of the jeweller,

For a memorial engraved in writing, after the number of the tribes of Israel;

13 ³⁸With a crown of gold upon the mitre, ³⁹having graven on it, as on a signet, ⁴⁰HOLINESS,
An ornament of honour, a work of might,
The desires of the eyes, goodly and beautiful.

14 Before him there never have been any such;
No stranger put them on, ⁴¹but his sons only, and his offering perpetually.

15 His sacrifices shall be wholly consumed
⁴²Every day twice continually.

And anointed him with holy oil:
It was unto him for an everlasting covenant,
And to his seed, ^aall the days of heaven,
To minister unto him, and to execute also the priest's office,
And ^bbless his people in his name.
¹⁶ ^cHe chose him out of all living To offer sacrifice to the Lord, Incense, and a sweet savour, for a memorial,
To make reconciliation for thy people.

¹⁷ ^dHe gave unto him in his commandments,
^eYea, authority in the covenants of judgements, ^fTo teach Jacob the testimonies,
And to enlighten Israel in his law.

¹⁸ ^gStrangers gathered themselves together against him,
And envied him in the wilderness,
Even Dathan and Abiram with their company,
And the congregation of Korah, with wrath and anger.

¹⁹ ^hThe Lord saw it, and it displeased him;
And in the wrath of his anger they were destroyed:
He did wonders upon them,
To consume them with flaming fire.

²⁰ And ⁱhe added glory to Aaron,
And gave him a heritage:
^jHe divided unto him the firstfruits of the increase;
And first did he prepare bread in abundance:

²¹ ^kFor they shall eat the sacrifices of the Lord,
Which he gave unto him and to his seed.

²² ^lHowbeit in the land of the people he shall have no inheritance,
And he hath no portion among the people:
For he himself is thy portion and inheritance.

²³ And ^mPhineas the son of Eleazar is the third in glory,
In that he was zealous in the fear of the Lord,
And stood fast in the good forwardness of his soul when the people turned away,
And he made reconciliation for Israel.

²⁴ Therefore was there a covenant of peace established for him,
That he should be leader of the ⁿsaints and of his people;
That he and his seed should have the dignity of the priesthood for ever.

²⁵ ^oAlso he made a covenant with David the son of Jesse, of the tribe of Judah;

The inheritance of the king is his alone from son to son;
So the inheritance of Aaron is also unto his seed.

²⁶ ^pGod give you wisdom in your heart
To judge his people in righteousness,
That their good things be not abolished,
And that their glory endure for all their generations.

46 ¹ Joshua the son of ²Nun was valiant in war,
And was the successor of Moses ³in prophecies:

Who according to his name was made great

⁴For the saving of ⁵God's elect,
To take vengeance of the enemies that rose up against them,
⁶That he might give Israel their inheritance.

⁷ ⁸How was he glorified in the lifting up his hands,
And in stretching out his sword against the cities!

⁹ Who before him so stood fast?
For the Lord himself brought his enemies unto him.

¹⁰ ¹¹Did not the sun go back by his hand?

And did not one day become as two?
¹² He called upon the Most High and Mighty One,
When his foes pressed him round about;

And the great Lord heard him.
¹³ ¹⁴With hailstones of mighty power He caused war to break violently upon the nation,
And ¹⁵in the going down he destroyed them that resisted;
That the nations might know his ¹⁶armour,
How that he fought in the sight of the Lord;

For he followed after the Mighty One.
¹⁷ Also in the time of Moses he did a work of mercy,

¹⁸ He and Caleb the son of Jephunneh,
In that they withstood the adversary, Hindered the people from sin,
And stilled the murmuring of wickedness.

¹⁹ And of ²⁰six hundred thousand people on foot, ²¹they two alone were preserved
To bring them into the heritage,
Even into a land ²²flowing with milk and honey.

²³ ²⁴Also the Lord gave strength unto Caleb,
And it remained with him unto his old age;
So that he entered upon the height of the land,
And his seed obtained it for a heritage:

BARUCH.

I ¹AND these are the words of the book, which ^aBaruch the son of ^bNerias, the son of Maaseas, the son of Sedekias, the son of Helkias, wrote in Babylon, ^cin the fifth year, and in the ^cseventh day of the month, ^dwhat time as the Chaldeans took Jerusalem, ^eand burnt it with fire. ³And Baruch did read the words of this book in the hearing of ^fJechonias the son of Joakim king of Judah, and in the hearing of all the people that came to hear the book, ⁴and in the hearing of the mighty men, and of the kings' sons, and in the hearing of the elders, and in the hearing of all the people, ⁵from the least unto the greatest, even of all them that dwelt at Babylon by the river Sud. ⁵And they wept, and fasted, ¹and prayed before the Lord; ⁶they made also a collection of money ⁷according to every man's power: ⁷and they sent ⁸to Jerusalem unto Joakim the high priest, the son of ¹Helkias, the son of ²Salom, and to the priests, and to all the people which were found with him at Jerusalem, ⁸at the same time when he took ¹the vessels of the house of the Lord, that had been carried out of the temple, to return ²them into the land of Judah, the tenth day of the month ³Sivan, namely, silver vessels, which ⁴Sedekias the son of Josias king of Judah had made, ⁵after that Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon had carried away ⁶Jechonias, and the princes, and the captives, and the mighty men, and the people of the land, from Jerusalem, and brought them unto Babylon. ¹⁰And they said, ^oBehold, we have sent you money; buy you therefore with the money ^pburnt offerings, and sin offerings, and incense, and prepare ^qan oblation, and offer upon the altar of the Lord our God; ¹¹and ^rpray for the life of ^sNabuchodonosor king of Babylon, and for the life of ^tBaltasar his son, that their days may be ^uas the days of heaven above the earth: ¹²and the Lord will give us strength, and ^vlighten our eyes, and we shall live ^wunder the shadow of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, and under the shadow of ^xBaltasar his son, and we shall serve them many days, and find favour in their sight. ¹³Pray for us also unto the Lord our God, for we have sinned against the Lord our God; and unto this day the wrath of the Lord and his indignation is not turned from us. ¹⁴And ye shall read ^athis book which we have sent unto you, to make confession in the house of the Lord, upon ^bthe day of the feast and on the days of the solemn assembly.

¹⁵And ye shall say, ^cTo the Lord our God ^dbelongeth righteousness, but unto us ^econfusion of face, as at this day, unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, ¹⁶and to our kings, and to our princes, and to our priests, and to our prophets, and to our fathers: ¹⁷for that we have sinned before the Lord, ¹⁸and disobeyed him, and ¹⁹have not hearkened unto the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in the commandments of the Lord that he hath set before us: ¹⁹since the day that the Lord brought our fathers out of the land of Egypt, unto this present day, we have been disobedient unto the Lord our God, and we have dealt unadvisedly in not hearkening unto his voice. ²⁰Wherefore the plagues cleave unto us, ²¹and the curse, which the Lord commanded Moses his servant ²²to pronounce in the day that he brought our fathers out of the land of Egypt, to give us a land ²³that floweth with milk and honey, as at this day. ²⁴Nevertheless we hearkened not unto the voice of the Lord our God, according unto all the words of the prophets, ²⁵whom he sent unto us: ²⁶but we walked every man in the imagination of his own wicked heart, to serve strange gods, and to do that which is evil in the sight of the Lord our God. ²⁷Therefore the Lord hath made good his word, ²⁸which he pronounced against us, and against our judges that judged Israel, and against our kings, and against our princes, and against the men of Israel and Judah, ²⁹to bring upon us great plagues, such as never happened under the whole heaven, ³⁰as it came to pass in Jerusalem, according to the things that are written in the law of Moses; ³¹that we should eat every man the flesh of his own son, and every man the flesh of his own daughter. ³²Moreover he hath given them to be in subjection to ³³all the kingdoms that are round about us, to be ³⁴a reproach and ³⁵a desolation among all the people round about, where the Lord hath scattered them. ³⁶Thus were they cast down, and not exalted, because we sinned against the Lord our God, in not hearkening unto his voice. ³⁷To the Lord our God ³⁸belongeth righteousness:

but unto us and to our fathers ^p confusion of face, as at this day. ^f For all these plagues are come upon us, which the Lord hath pronounced against us. ^d Yet have we not intreated the favour of the Lord, in turning every one from the thoughts of his wicked heart. ^f Therefore hath the Lord kept watch over the plagues, and the Lord hath brought them upon us; ^f for the Lord is righteous in all his works which he hath commanded us. ^d Yet we have not hearkened unto his voice, to walk in the commandments of the Lord that he hath set before us.

^d And now, O Lord, thou God of Israel, that hast brought thy people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with signs, and with wonders, and with great power, and with a high arm, and ^f hast gotten thyself a name, as at this day: ^d O Lord our God, ^f we have sinned, we have done ungodly, we have dealt unrighteously in all thine ordinances. ^d Let thy wrath turn from us: ^f for we are but a few left among the heathen, where thou hast scattered us. ^d Hear our prayer, O Lord, and our petition, and deliver us for thine own sake, and give us favour in the sight of them which have led us away captive: ^d that all the earth may know that thou art the Lord our God, because Israel and his posterity is called by thy name. ^d O Lord, look down from thine holy house, and consider us: ^f incline thine ear, O Lord, and hear: ^f open thine eyes, and behold: ^f for the dead that are in ¹ the grave, whose breath is taken from their bodies, will give unto the Lord neither glory nor righteousness: ^d but the soul that is greatly vexed, which goeth stooping and feeble, and the eyes that fail, and the hungry soul, will give thee glory and righteousness, O Lord. ^d For we do not present our supplication before thee, O Lord our God, for the righteousness of our fathers, and of our kings. ^d For thou hast sent thy wrath and thine indignation upon us, as thou hast spoken by thy servants the prophets, saying, ^d Thus saith the Lord, Bow your shoulders to serve the king of Babylon, and remain in the land that I gave unto your fathers. ^d But if ye will not hear the voice of the Lord, to serve the king of Babylon, ^d I will cause to cease out of the cities of Judah, and from without Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: ^d and the whole land shall be desolate without inhabitant. ^d But we would not hearken unto thy voice, to serve the king of Babylon: therefore hast thou made good thy words that thou spakest by thy servants the prophets, namely, ^f that the bones of our kings, and the bones of our fathers, should be taken out of their places. ^d And, lo, ^d they are cast out to the heat by day, and to the frost by night, and they died in great miseries ¹ by famine, by sword, and by pestilence. ^d And the house ² which is called by thy name hast thou laid waste, as at this day, for the wickedness of the house of Israel and the house of Judah. ^d Yet, O Lord our God, thou hast dealt with us after all thy kindness, and according to all that great mercy of thine, ^d as thou spakest by thy servant Moses in the day when thou didst command him to write thy law before the children of Israel, saying, ^d If ye will not hear my voice, surely this very great multitude shall be turned into a small number among the nations, where I will scatter them. ^d For I know that they will not hear me, ³ because it is a stiffnecked people: ^d but in the land of their captivity they shall lay it to heart, ^d and shall know that I am the Lord their God: ^d and I will give them a heart, and ears to hear: ^d and they shall praise me in the land of their captivity, and think upon my name, ^d and shall return from their stiff neck, and from their wicked deeds: for they shall remember the way of their fathers, which sinned before the Lord. ^d And I will bring them again into the land which I swore unto their fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, and they shall be lords of it: and I will increase them, and they shall not be diminished. ^d And I will make an everlasting covenant with them to be their God, and they shall be my people: ^d and I will no more remove my people of Israel out of the land that I have given them.

^d O Lord Almighty, thou God of Israel, ³ the soul in anguish, the troubled spirit, crieth unto thee. ^d Hear, O Lord, and have mercy; for thou art a merciful God: yes, have mercy upon us, because we have sinned before thee. ^d For ⁴ thou sittest as king for ever, and we perish evermore. ^d O Lord Almighty, thou God of Israel, hear now the prayer of ² the dead Israelites, and of the children of them which were sinners before thee, that hearkened not unto the voice of thee their God: ^d for the which cause these plagues came unto us. ^d Remember not the iniquities of our fathers: but remember thy power and thy name ^{now} at this time. ^d For thou art the Lord our God, and thee, O Lord, will we praise. ^d For for this cause thou hast put thy fear in our hearts, ^d to the intent that we should call upon thy name: and we will praise thee in our captivity, ^f for we have ⁵ called to mind all the iniquity of our fathers, that sinned before thee. ⁸ Behold, we are yet this day in our captivity, where thou hast scattered us, ⁹ for a reproach and a curse, and to be subject to penalty, according to all the iniquities of our fathers, which departed from the Lord our God.

⁹ Hear, O Israel, the commandments of life: give ear to understand wisdom. ¹⁰ How happeneth it, O Israel, that thou art in thine enemies' land, that thou art waxen old in a strange country, ¹¹ that thou art defiled with the dead, ¹² that thou art counted ^b with them that go down into ¹ the grave? ¹³ Thou hast forsaken ^c the fountain of wisdom. ¹⁴ For if thou hadst walked in the way of God, thou shouldst have dwelled in peace for ever. ¹⁵ Learn where is ² wisdom, where is strength, where is understanding; that thou mayest know also where is ³ length of days, and life, where is the light of the eyes, and peace. ¹⁶ Who hath found out her place? and who hath come into her treasures? ¹⁷ Where are the princes of the heathen, and such as ^d ruled the beasts that are upon the earth; ¹⁸ they that had ^e their pasture with the fowls of the air, and they that hoarded up silver and gold, wherein men trust; and of whose getting there is no end? ¹⁹ For they that ^f wrought in silver, and were so careful, and whose works are past finding out, ²⁰ they are vanished and ^g gone down to ¹ the grave, and others are come up in their steads. ²¹ Younger men have seen the light, and dwelt upon the earth: but ^h the way of knowledge have they not known, ²² neither understood they the paths thereof: neither have their children laid hold of it: they are far off from ⁴ their way. ²³ It hath not been heard of in Canaan, neither hath it been seen in ⁱ Teman. ²⁴ The ² sons also of Agar that seek understanding, which are in the land, the merchants of ^j Mervan and ^k Teman, and the authors of fables, and the searchers out of understanding; none of these have known the way of wisdom, or remembered her paths. ²⁵ O Israel, how great is the house of God! and how large is the place of his possession! ²⁶ great, and hath none end; high, and unmeasurable. ²⁷ There were ^l the giants born that were famous of old, great of stature, and expert in war. ²⁸ These did not God choose, neither gave he ⁴ the way of knowledge unto them: ²⁹ so they perished, because they had no ² wisdom, they perished through their own foolishness. ³⁰ Who hath gone up into heaven, and taken her, and ^o brought her down from the clouds? ³¹ Who hath gone over the sea, and found her, and will bring her ^p for choice gold? ³² There is none that knoweth her way, nor any that comprehendeth her path. ³³ But he that knoweth all things knoweth her, he found her out with his understanding: he that prepared the earth for evermore hath filled it with fourfooted beasts: ³⁴ he that sendeth forth the light, and it goeth; he called it, and it obeyed him with fear: ³⁵ and the stars shined ^q in their watches, and were glad: when ^r he called them, they said, Here we be; they shined with gladness unto him that made them. ³⁶ This is our God, and there shall none other be accounted of in comparison of him. ³⁷ He hath found out all the way of knowledge, and ^s hath given it unto Jacob his servant, and to Israel that is beloved of him. ³⁸ Afterward did she appear upon earth, and ^t was conversant with men.

4 ¹ This is the book of the com- mandments of God, and the law that endureth for ever: ² all they that hold it fast are appointed to life; but such as leave it shall die. ³ Turn thee, O Jacob, and take hold of it: ⁴ walk towards her shining in the presence of the light thereof. ⁵ Give not thy glory to another, nor the things that are profitable unto thee to a strange nation. ⁶ O Israel, happy are we: ⁷ for the things that are pleasing to God are made known unto us. ⁸ Be of good cheer, my people, the memorial of Israel. ⁹ Ye were sold to the nations, but not for destruction: because ye moved God to wrath, ye were delivered unto your adversaries. ¹⁰ For ye provoked him that made you ^u by sacrificing unto demons, and not to God. ¹¹ Ye forgot the everlasting God, that brought you up; ye grieved also Jerusalem, that nursed you. ¹² For she saw the wrath that is come upon you from God, and said, Harken, ^v ye women that dwell about Sion: for God hath brought upon me great mourning; ¹³ for I have seen the captivity of my sons and daughters, which the Everlasting hath brought upon them. ¹⁴ For with joy did I nourish them; ¹⁵ but sent them away with weeping and mourning. ¹⁶ Let no man rejoice over me, ¹⁷ a widow, and forsaken of many: for the sins of my children am I left desolate; ¹⁸ because they turned aside from the law of God, ¹⁹ and had no regard to his statutes, neither walked they in the ways of God's commandments, nor trod in the paths of discipline in his righteousness. ²⁰ Let them that dwell about Sion come, and remember ye the captivity of my sons and daughters, which the Everlasting hath brought upon them. ²¹ For he hath brought a nation upon them from far, a shameless nation, and of a strange language, ²² who neither revered old man, nor pitied child. ²⁶ And they have carried away the dear beloved sons of the widow, and left her that was alone desolate of her daughters. ²⁷ But I, what can I help you? ²⁸ For he that brought ² these plagues upon you will deliver you from the hand of your enemies. ²⁹ Go your way, O my children, go your way: for I am left desolate. ³⁰ I have put off the garment of peace, and put upon me the sackcloth of my petition: ³¹ I will cry unto the Everlasting as long as I live. ³² Be of good cheer, O my children, cry unto God, and he shall deliver you from the power and hand of the enemies. ³³ For I have trusted in the Everlasting, that he will save you; and joy is come unto me from the Holy One, because of the mercy which shall soon come unto you ¹ from the Everlasting your Saviour. ³⁴ For I sent you out with mourning and weeping: ² but God will give you to me again with joy and gladness for ever. ³⁵ For like as now they that dwell about Sion have seen your captivity: so shall they see shortly your salvation from ³ our God, which shall come upon you with great glory, and brightness of the Everlasting. ³⁶ My children, suffer patiently the wrath that is come upon you from God: for thine enemy hath persecuted thee; but shortly thou shalt see his destruction, and shalt tread ⁴ upon their necks. ³⁷ My delicate ones have gone rough ways; they were taken away as a flock carried off by the enemies. ³⁸ Be of good cheer, O my children, and cry unto God: for ye shall be remembered of him that hath brought ⁵ these things upon you. ³⁹ For as it was your mind to go astray from God: so, return and seek him ten times more. ⁴⁰ For he that brought ² these plagues upon you shall bring you everlasting joy again with your salvation. ⁴¹ Be of good cheer, O Jerusalem: for he that ⁶ called thee by name will comfort thee. ⁴² Miserable are they that afflicted thee, and rejoiced at thy fall. ⁴³ Miserable are the cities which thy children served: miserable is she that received thy sons. ⁴⁴ For as she rejoiced at thy fall, and was glad of thy ruin: so shall she be grieved for her own desolation. ⁴⁵ And I will take away her exultation in her great multitude, and her boasting shall be turned into mourning. ⁴⁶ For fire shall come upon her from the Everlasting, long to endure; and she shall be inhabited of ⁷ devils for a great time. ⁴⁷ O Jerusalem, look about thee toward the east, and behold the joy that cometh unto thee from God. ⁴⁸ Lo, ⁸ thy sons come, whom thou sentest away, they come ⁹ gathered together from the east to the west at the word of the Holy One, rejoicing in the glory of God. ¹ Put off, O Jerusalem, ² the garment of thy mourning and affliction, and ³ put on the comeliness of the glory that ⁴ cometh from God for ever. ⁵ Cast about thee ⁶ the robe of the righteousness which ⁷ cometh from God; ⁸ set a diadem on thine head of the glory of the Everlasting. ⁹ For God will shew thy brightness unto every region under heaven. ¹⁰ For thy name shall be called of God for ever ¹¹ The peace of righteousness, and ¹² The glory of godliness. ¹³ Arise, O Jerusalem, and stand upon the height, and ¹⁴ look about thee toward the east, and behold thy children ¹⁵ gathered from the going down of the sun unto the rising thereof at the word of the Holy One, rejoicing that God hath remembered them. ¹⁶ For they went from thee on foot, being led away of their enemies: ¹⁷ but God bringeth them in unto thee borne on high with glory, ¹⁸ as on a royal throne. ¹⁹ For God hath appointed that every high mountain, and the everlasting hills, should be made low, and the valleys filled up, to make plain the ground, that Israel may go safely in the glory of God. ²⁰ Moreover the woods and every sweet-smelling tree have overshadowed Israel by the commandment of God. ²¹ For God shall lead Israel with joy in the light of his glory with the mercy and righteousness that cometh from him.

THE EPISTLE OF JEREMY.

¹ A copy of an epistle, which Jeremy sent unto them which were to be led captives into Babylon by the king of the Babylonians, to certify them, as it was commanded him of God. ² Because of the sins which ye have committed before God, ye shall be led away captives into Babylon by Nabuchodonosor king of the Babylonians. ³ So when ye be come unto Babylon, ye shall remain there many years, and for a long season, even for seven generations: and after that I will bring you out peaceably from thence. ⁴ But now shall ye see in Babylon ⁵ gods of silver, and of gold, and of wood, ⁶ borne upon shoulders, which cause the nations to fear. ⁷ Beware therefore that ye in no wise become like unto the strangers, neither let fear take hold upon you because of them, when ye see the multitude before them and behind them, worshipping them. ⁸ But say ye in your hearts, O Lord, we must worship thee. ⁹ For mine angel is with you, ¹⁰ and I myself do care for your ¹¹ souls. ¹² For their tongue is polished by the workman, and they themselves are ¹³ overlaid with gold and with silver; yet are they but false, and ¹⁴ cannot speak. ¹⁵ And taking gold, as it were for a virgin that loveth to go gay, they make crowns for the heads of their gods: ¹⁰and sometimes also the priests convey from their gods gold and silver, and bestow it upon themselves; ¹¹and will even give thereof to ¹²the common harlots: ¹³and they deck them as men with garments, ¹⁴even ¹⁵the gods of silver, and gods of gold, and of wood. ¹⁶Yet cannot these gods save themselves from ¹⁷rust and moths, though they be covered ¹⁸with purple raiment. ¹⁹They wipe their faces because of ²⁰the dust of the temple, which is thick upon them. ²¹And he that cannot put to death one that offendeth against him holdeth a sceptre, as though he were judge of a country. ²²He hath also a dagger in his right hand, and an axe: but cannot deliver himself from war and ²³robbers. ²⁴Whereby they are known not to be gods: therefore fear them not. ²⁵For like as a vessel that a man useth is nothing worth when it is broken; even so it is with their gods: when they be set up in the temples their eyes be full of ²⁶dust through the feet of them that come in. ²⁷And as the courts are made sure on every side upon him that offendeth the king, as being committed to suffer death; ²⁸even so the priests make fast their temples with doors, with locks, and bars, ²⁹lest they be carried off by robbers. ³⁰They light their candles, yea, more than for themselves, whereof ³¹they cannot see one. ³²They are ³³as one of the beams of the temple; and men say their hearts are eaten out, when things creeping out of the earth devour both them and their raiment: they feel it not ³⁴when their faces are blacked through the smoke that cometh out of the temple: ³⁵upon their bodies and heads alight bats, swallows, and birds; and in like manner the cats also. ³⁶Whereby ye may know that they are no gods: therefore fear them not. ³⁷Notwithstanding the gold ³⁸wherewith they are beset to make them beautiful, except one wipe off the rust, they will not shine: for not even when they were molten did they feel it. ³⁹Things ⁴⁰wherein there is no breath are bought at any cost. ⁴¹Having no feet, ⁴²they are borne upon shoulders, whereby they declare unto men that they be nothing worth. ⁴³They also that serve them are ashamed: for ⁴⁴if they fall to the ground at any time, they cannot rise up again of themselves: neither, if one set them upright, can they move of themselves: neither, if they be set awry, can they make themselves straight: ⁴⁵but the offerings are set before them, as if they were dead men. ⁴⁶And the things that are sacrificed unto them, their priests sell and spend; and in like manner their wives also lay up part thereof in salt; ⁴⁷but unto the poor and to the impotent will they give nothing thereof. ⁴⁸The menstuous woman and ⁴⁹the woman in childbed touch their sacrifices: ⁵⁰knowing therefore by these things that they are no gods, fear them not. ⁵¹For how can they be called gods? because women set meat before ⁵²the gods of silver, gold, and wood. ⁵³And in their temples the priests ⁵⁴sit on seats, ⁵⁵having their clothes rent, and ⁵⁶their heads and beards shaven, and nothing upon their heads. ⁵⁷They roar and cry before their gods, as men do ⁵⁸at the feast when one is dead. ⁵⁹The priests also take off ⁶⁰garments from them, and clothe their wives and children withal. ⁶¹Whether it be evil that one doeth unto them, or good, they are not able to recompense it: they can neither ⁶²set up a king, nor put him down. ⁶³In like manner, they can neither give riches nor money: ⁶⁴though a man make a vow unto them, and keep it not, they will never exact it. ⁶⁵They can save no man from death, neither deliver the weak from the mighty. ⁶⁶They cannot restore a blind man to his sight, nor deliver any that is in distress. ⁶⁷They can shew no mercy to the widow, nor do good to the fatherless. ⁶⁸They are like the stones that be ⁶⁹hewn out of the mountain, ⁷⁰these gods of wood, and that are ⁷¹overlaid with gold and with silver: ⁷²they that minister unto them shall be confounded. ⁷³How should a man then think or say that they are gods, when even the Chaldeans themselves dishonour them? ⁷⁴Who if they shall see one dumb that cannot speak, they bring him, and treat him to call upon ⁷⁵Bel, as though he were able to understand. ⁷⁶Yet they cannot perceive this themselves, and forsake them: for they have no understanding. ⁷⁷The women also with cords about them sit in the ways, ⁷⁸burning bran for incense: but if any of them, drawn by some that passeth by, lie with him, she reproacheth her fellow, that she was not thought as worthy as herself, nor her cord broken. ⁷⁹Whatsoever is done among them is false: how should a man then think or say that they are gods? ⁸⁰They are fashioned by carpenters and goldsmiths: they can be nothing else than the workmen will have them to be. ⁸¹And they themselves that fashioned them can never continue long; how then should the things that are fashioned by them? ⁸²For they have left ⁸³lies and ⁸⁴reproaches to them that come after. ⁸⁵For when there cometh any war or plague upon them, the priests consult with themselves, where they may be hidden with them. ⁸⁶How then cannot men understand that they be no gods, which can neither save themselves from war, nor from plague? ⁸⁷For seeing they be but of wood, and ^a overlaid with gold and with silver, it shall be known hereafter that they are false: ⁵² and it shall be manifest to all nations and kings that they are no gods, but ^b the works of men's hands, and that there is no work of God in them. ⁵³ Who then may not know that they are no gods? ⁵³ For neither can they ^c set up a king in a land, nor ^d give rain unto men. ⁵⁴ Neither can they judge their own cause, nor ^e redress a wrong, being unable: for they are as crows between heaven and earth. ⁵⁵ For even when fire falleth upon the house of gods of wood, or ^f overlaid with gold or with silver, their priests will flee away, and escape, but they themselves shall be burnt asunder /like beams. ⁵⁶ Moreover they cannot withstand any king or enemies: how should a man then allow or think that they be gods? ⁵⁷ Neither are those gods of wood, and ^g overlaid with silver or with gold, ^h able to escape either from thieves or robbers. ⁵⁸ Whose gold, and silver, and ⁱ garments wherewith they are clothed, they that are strong will take from them, and go away without: ^j neither shall they be able to help themselves. ⁵⁹ Therefore it is better to be a king that sheweth his manhood, or else ^k a vessel in a house profitable for that whereof the owner shall have need, than such false gods; or even a door in a house, to keep the things safe that be therein, than such false gods; or a pillar of wood in a palace, than such false gods. ⁶⁰ For sun, and moon, and stars, being bright and sent to do their offices, ^l are obedient. ⁶¹ Likewise also the lightning when it glittereth is fair to see; and 'after the same manner the wind also bloweth in every country. 6 And when God commandeth the clouds to go over the whole world, they do as they are bidden. 7 And 'the fire sent from above to consume mountains and wood doeth as it is commanded: but these are to be likened unto them neither in shew nor power. 8 Wherefore a man should neither think nor say that they are gods, 9 seeing they are able neither to judge causes, 10 nor to do good unto men. 11 Knowing therefore that they are no gods, fear them not. 12 For 13 they can neither curse nor bless kings: 14 neither can they shew 15 signs in the heavens among the nations, nor shine as the sun, nor give light as the moon. 16 The beasts are better than they: for they can get under a covert, and help themselves. 17 In no wise then is it manifest unto us that they are gods: therefore fear them not. 18 For as a scarecrow 19 in a garden of cucumbers that keepeth nothing, so are their gods of wood, and 20 overlaid with gold and with silver. 21 Likewise also their gods of wood, and 22 overlaid with gold and with silver, are like to a white thorn in an orchard, that every bird sitteth upon; as also to a dead body, that is cast forth into the dark. 23 And ye shall know them to be no gods by the 24 bright 25 purple that roteth upon them: and they themselves afterward shall be consumed, and shall be 26 a reproach in the country. 27 Better therefore is the just man that hath none idols: for he shall be far from reproach.

that thou hast brought upon us, and upon ^{the} holy city of our fathers, even Jerusalem, thou hast executed true judgements: for according to truth and justice hast thou brought all these things upon us because of our sins. ⁶ For we have sinned and committed iniquity, in departing from thee. ⁷ In all things have we trespassed, and not obeyed thy commandments, nor kept them, neither done as thou hast commanded us, ⁸ that it might go well with us. ⁹ Wherefore

all that thou hast brought upon us, and everything that thou hast done to us, thou hast done in true judgement. ⁹And thou didst deliver us into the hands of lawless enemies, and most hateful forsakers of God, and to ^aan unjust king, and the most wicked in all the world. ¹⁰And now ^cwe cannot open our mouth; ^dshame and reproach have befallen thy servants, and them that worship thee. ¹¹^eDeliver us not up utterly, for thy name's sake, neither disannul thou thy covenant: ¹²and cause not thy mercy to depart from us, for the sake of Abraham ^fthat is beloved of thee, and for the sake of Isaac thy servant, and Israel thy holy one; ¹³to whom thou didst promise, ^gthat thou wouldest multiply their seed as the stars of heaven, and as the sand that is upon the sea shore. ¹⁴For we, O Lord, ^hare become less than any nation, and be kept under this day in all the world because of our sins. ¹⁵ⁱNeither is there at this time prince, or prophet, or leader, or burnt offering, or sacrifice, or oblation, or incense, or place to offer before thee, and to find mercy. ¹⁶^jNevertheless in a contrite heart and a humble spirit let us be accepted; ¹⁷^klike as in the burnt offerings of rams and bullocks, and like as in ten thousands of fat lambs; so let our sacrifice be in thy sight this day, and ^lgrant that we may wholly go after thee, ^mfor they shall not be ashamed that put their trust in thee. ¹⁸And now we follow thee with all our heart, we fear thee, and seek thy face. ¹⁹Put us not to shame: but ⁿdeal with us after thy kindness, and according to the multitude of thy mercy. ²⁰Deliver us also according to thy marvellous works, and ^ogive glory to thy name, O Lord: and let all them that do thy servants hurt be confounded; ²¹and let them be ashamed of all their ^ppower and might, and let their strength be broken; ²²and let them know that thou art the Lord, the only God, and glorious over the whole world. ²³And the king's servants, that put them in, ceased not to make the furnace hot with naphtha, pitch, tow, and small wood; ²⁴so that the flame streamed forth above the furnace forty and nine cubits. ²⁵And it spread, and ^qburned those Chaldeans whom it found about the furnace. ²⁶But ^rthe angel of the Lord came down into the furnace together with ^sAzarias and his fellows, and he smote the flame of the fire out of the furnace; ²⁷and made the midst of the furnace as it had been a moist ^twhistling wind, so that the fire touched them not at all, neither ^uhurt nor troubled them. ²⁸Then the three, as out of one mouth,

THE

HISTORY OF SUSANNA,

Set apart from the beginning of DANIEL, because it is not in the Hebrew, as neither the Narration of Bel and the Dragon.

¹ THERE dwelt a man in Babylon, and his name was Joakim: ²and he took a wife, whose name was ³Susanna, the daughter of Helkias, ⁴a very fair woman, and one that feared the Lord. ⁵Her parents also were ⁶righteous, and taught their daughter ⁷according to the law of Moses. ⁸Now Joakim was a great rich man, and had a ⁹fair garden joining unto his house: and to him resorted the Jews; because he was more honourable than all others. ¹⁰And the same year there were appointed ¹¹two of the ancients of the people to be judges, ¹²such as the Lord spake of, that wickedness came from Babylon from ancient judges, who were accounted to govern the people. ¹³These kept much at Joakim's house: and ¹⁴all that had any suits in law came unto them. ¹⁵Now when the people departed away at noon, Susanna went into her husband's garden to walk. ¹⁶And the two elders beheld her going in every day, and walking; and they were inflamed with love for her. ¹⁷And ¹⁸they perverted their own mind, and turned away their eyes, that they might not look unto heaven, nor remember just judgements. ¹⁹And albeit they both were wounded with her love, yet durst not one shew another his grief. ²⁰For they were ashamed to declare their lust, that they desired to have to do with her. ²¹Yet they watched jealously from day to day to see her. ²²And the one said to the other, Let us now go home: for it is dinner time. ²³So when they were gone out, they parted the one from the other, and turning back again they came to the same place; and after that they had asked one another the cause, they acknowledged their lust: and then appointed they a time both together, when they might find her alone. ²⁴And it fell out, as they watched a fit day, she went in as aforetime with two maids only, and she was desirous to wash herself in ²⁵the garden: for it was hot. ²⁶And there was nobody there save the two elders, that had hid themselves, and watched her. ²⁷Then she said to her maids, Bring me oil and washing balls, and shut the garden doors, that I may wash me. ²⁸And they did as she bade them, and shut the garden doors, and went out themselves at the side doors to fetch the things that she had commanded them: and they saw not the elders, because they were hid. ²⁹Now when the maids were gone forth, the two elders rose up, and ran unto her, saying, ³⁰Behold, the garden doors are shut, ³¹that no man can see us, and we are in love with thee; therefore consent unto us, and lie with us. ³²If thou wilt not, we will bear witness against thee, that a young man was with thee: and therefore thou didst send away thy maids from thee. ³³Then Susanna sighed, and said, ³⁴I am straitened on every side: for if I do this thing, ³⁵it is death unto me: and if I do it not, I cannot escape your hands. ³⁶It is better for me to fall into your hands, and not do it, than ^ato sin in the sight of the Lord. ²⁴ With that Susanna cried with a loud voice: and the two elders cried out against her. ²⁵ Then ran the one, and opened the garden doors. ²⁶ So when the servants of the house heard the cry in the garden, they rushed in at the side door, to see what had befallen her. ²⁷ But when the elders had told their tale, the servants were greatly ashamed: for there was never such a report made of Susanna. ²⁸ And it came to pass on the morrow, ^awhen the people assembled to her husband Joakim, the two elders came full of their wicked intent against Susanna to put her to death: ²⁹ and said before the people, Send for Susanna, ^bthe daughter of Helkias, Joakim's wife. So they sent; ³⁰ and she came with her father and mother, her children, and all her kindred. ³¹ Now Susanna was a very delicate woman, and ^bbeautiful to behold. ³² And these wicked men commanded her ^cto be unveiled, (for she was veiled) that they might be filled with her beauty. ³³ Therefore her friends and all that saw her wept. ³⁴ Then the two elders stood up in the midst of the people, and ^dlaid their hands upon her head. ³⁵ And she weeping looked up toward heaven: ^efor her heart trusted in the Lord. ³⁶ And the elders said, As we walked in the garden alone, this woman came in with two maids, and shut the garden doors, and sent the maids away. ³⁷ Then a young man, who there was hid, came unto her, and lay with her. ³⁸ And we, being in a corner of the garden, saw this wickedness, and ran unto them. ³⁹ And when we saw them together, the man we could not hold: for he was stronger than we, and opened the doors, and leaped out. ⁴⁰ But having taken this woman, we asked who the young man was, but she would not tell us: these things do we testify. ⁴¹ Then the assembly believed them, as ^fthose that were elders of the people and judges: so ^gthey condemned her to death. ⁴² Then Susanna cried out with a loud voice, and said, O everlasting God, ^hthat knowest the secrets, that knowest all things before they be: ⁱthou knowest that they have borne false witness against me, and behold, I must die; whereas I never did such things as these men have maliciously invented against me. ⁴⁴ And the Lord heard her voice. ⁴⁵ Therefore when she was led away ^jto be put to death, God ^kraised up the holy spirit of a young youth, whose name was Daniel: ⁴⁶ and he cried with a loud voice, ^lI am clear from the blood of this woman. ⁴⁷ Then all the people turned them toward him, and said, What mean these words that thou hast spoken? ⁴⁸ So he standing in the midst of them said, Are ye such fools, ye sons of Israel, that without examination or knowledge of the truth ye have condemned ^aa daughter of Israel? ⁴⁹ Return again to the place of judgement: for these have borne false witness against her. ⁵⁰ Wherefore all the people turned again in haste, and the elders said unto him, Come, sit down among us, and shew it us, seeing God hath given thee the honour of an elder. ⁵¹ Then said Daniel unto them, Put them asunder one far from another, and I will examine them. ⁵² So when they were put asunder one from another, he called one of them, and said unto him, O thou that art waxen old in wickedness, ^anow are thy sins come home to thee which thou hast committed aforetime, ⁵³ ^ain pronouncing unjust judgement, and condemning the innocent, and letting the guilty go free; albeit the Lord saith, ^bThe innocent and righteous shalt thou not alay. ⁵⁴ Now then, if thou savest her, tell me, Under what tree sawest thou them companying together? Who answered, Under a mastick tree. ⁵⁵ And Daniel said, Right well hast thou lied against thine own head; for even now the angel of God hath received the sentence of God and ^cshall cut thee in two. ⁵⁶ So he put him aside, and commanded to bring the other, and said unto him, O thou ^dseed of Canaan, and not of Judah, beauty hath deceived thee, and lust ^ehath perverted thine heart. ⁵⁷ Thus have ye dealt with the daughters of Israel, and they for fear companied with you: but ^fthe daughter of Judah would not abide your wickedness. ⁵⁸ Now therefore tell me, Under what tree didst thou take them companying together? Who answered, Under a holm tree. ⁵⁹ Then said Daniel unto him, Right well hast thou also lied against thine own head: for the angel of God waiteth with the sword ^gto cut thee in two, that he may destroy you. ⁶⁰ With that all the assembly cried out with a loud voice, and blessed God, who saveth them ^hthat hope in him. ⁶¹ And they arose against the two elders, for Daniel had convicted them of false witness out of their own mouth: ⁶² and ⁱaccording to the law of Moses they did unto them in such sort as they maliciously intended to do to their neighbour: and they put them to death, and the innocent blood was saved the same day. ⁶³ Therefore ^jHelkias and his wife praised God for their daughter Susanna, with Joakim her husband, and all the kindred, because there was no dishonesty found in her. ⁶⁴ And from that day forth was Daniel had in great reputation in the sight of the people.

¹AND king Astyages was gathered to his fathers, and ²Cyrus the Persian received his kingdom. ³And Daniel lived with the king, and was honoured above all his friends. ⁴Now the Babylonians had an idol, called ⁵Bel, and there were spent upon him every day twelve great measures of fine flour, and forty sheep, and six firkins of wine. ⁶And the king did honour to it, and went daily to worship it: ⁷but Daniel worshipped his own God. And the king said unto him, Why dost thou not worship Bel? ⁸And he said, Because I may not do honour to idols ⁹made with hands, but to ¹⁰the living God, who hath created the heaven and the earth, and hath sovereignty over all flesh. ¹¹Then said the king unto him, Thinkest thou not that Bel is a living god? or seest thou not how much he eateth and drinketh every day? ¹²Then Daniel laughed, and said, O king, be not deceived: for this is but clay within, and brass without, and did never ¹³eat or drink anything. ¹⁴So the king was wroth, and called for his priests, and said unto them, If ye tell me not who this is that devoureth ¹⁵these expenses, ye shall die. ¹⁶But if ye can shew me that Bel devoureth them, then Daniel shall die: for he hath spoken blasphemy against Bel. And Daniel said unto the king, Let it be according to thy word. ¹⁷Now the priests of Bel were three-score and ten, beside their wives and children. And the king went with Daniel into the temple of Bel. ¹⁸So Bel's priests said, Lo, we will get us out: but thou, O king, set on the meat, and mingle the wine and set it forth, and shut the door fast, and ¹⁹seal it with thine own signet; ²⁰and when thou comest in the morning, if thou find not that Bel hath eaten up all, we will suffer death: or else Daniel, that speaketh falsely against us. ²¹And they little regarded it: for under the table they had made a privy entrance, whereby they entered in continually, and consumed those things. ²²And it came to pass, when they were gone forth, the king set the meat before Bel. Now Daniel had commanded his servants to bring ashes, and they strewed all the temple ²³with them in the presence of the king alone: then went they out, and shut the door, and ²⁴sealed it with the king's signet, and so departed. ²⁵Now in the night came the priests with their wives and children, as they were wont to do, and did eat and drink up all. ²⁶In the morning betime the king arose, and Daniel with him. ²⁷And the king said, Daniel, are the seals whole? And he said, Yea, O king, they be whole. ²⁸And as soon as he had opened the door, the king looked upon the table, and cried with a loud voice, Great art thou, O Bel, and with thee is no deceit at all. ²⁹Then laughed Daniel, and held the king that he should not go in, and said, Behold now the pavement, and mark well whose footsteps are these. ³⁰And the king said, I see the footsteps of men, women, and children. And then the king was angry, ³¹and took the priests with their wives and children, who shewed him ³²the privy doors, where they came in, and consumed such things as were upon the table. ³³Therefore the king slew them, and delivered Bel into Daniel's power, who overthrew him and his temple.

³⁴And in that same place there was a great ³⁵dragon, which they of Babylon worshipped. ³⁶And the king said unto Daniel, Wilt thou also say ³⁷that this is of brass? lo, he liveth, and eateth and drinketh; thou canst not say that he is no living god: therefore worship him. ³⁸Then said Daniel, ³⁹I will worship the Lord my God: for he is ⁴⁰a living God. ⁴¹But give me leave, O king, and I shall slay this dragon without sword or staff. The king said, I give thee leave. ⁴²Then Daniel took pitch, and fat, and hair, and did seethe them together, and made lumps thereof: this he put in the dragon's mouth, so the dragon did eat and burst in sunder: and Daniel said, Lo, these are the gods ye worship. ⁴³When they of Babylon heard that, they took great indignation, and conspired against the king, saying, The king is become a Jew, and he ⁴⁴hath pulled down Bel, and slain the dragon, and ⁴⁵put the priests to the sword. ⁴⁶So they came to the king, and said, Deliver us Daniel, or else we will destroy thee and thine house. ⁴⁷Now when the king saw that they pressed him sore, being constrained, the king delivered Daniel unto them: ⁴⁸who cast him into the lions' den: where he was six days. ⁴⁹And in the den there were seven lions, and they had given them every day two carcasses, and two sheep: which then were not given to them, to the intent they might devour Daniel.

33 Now there was in Jewry ¶ the prophet ¹Habakkuk, who had made pottage, and had broken bread into a bowl, and was going into the field, for to bring it to the reapers. 34 But the angel of the Lord said unto Habakkuk, Go carry the dinner that thou hast into Babylon unto Daniel, in the lions' den. 35 And Habakkuk said, Lord, I never saw Babylon; neither do I know where the den is. 36 Then the angel of the Lord ¶ took him by the crown, and lifted him up by the hair of his head, and with the blast of his breath set him in Babylon over the den. 37 And Habakkuk cried, saying, O Daniel, Daniel, ¶ take the dinner which God hath sent thee. 38 And Daniel said, Thou hast remembered me. O God: ¶ neither hast thou forsaken them that love thee. 39 So Daniel arose, and did eat: and the angel of God set Habakkuk in his own place again immediately. 40 Upon the seventh day ¶ the king came to bewail Daniel: and when he came to the den, he looked in, and, behold, Daniel was sitting. 41 Then cried the king with a loud voice, saying, Great art thou, O Lord, thou ¶ God of Daniel, and there is none other beside thee. 42 And he drew him out, and ¶ cast those that were the cause of his destruction into the den: and they were devoured in a moment before his face.

THE

PRAYER OF MANASSES

KING OF JUDAH,

WHEN HE WAS HOLDEN CAPTIVE IN BABYLON.

O LORD Almighty, ¶ that art in heaven, ¶ thou God of our fathers, of Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and of ¶ their righteous seed; who hast made heaven and earth, with all the ¶ ornament thereof; ¶ who hast bound the sea by the word of thy commandment; who hast shut up the deep, and sealed it by thy terrible and glorious name; whom all things fear, yea, tremble before thy power; for the majesty of thy glory cannot be borne, and the anger of thy threatening toward sinners is importable: thy merciful promise is unmeasurable and ¶ unsearchable; for thou art the Lord Most High, ¶ of great compassion, longsuffering and abundant in mercy, and repentest ¶ of bringing evils upon men. ¶ Thou, O Lord, according to thy great goodness hast promised repentance and forgiveness to them that have sinned against thee: and of thine infinite mercies hast appointed repentance unto sinners, ¶ that they may be saved. Thou therefore, O Lord, that art the God of the just, hast not appointed repentance to the just, to Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, which have not sinned against thee; but ¶ thou hast appointed repentance unto me that am a sinner: for I have sinned ¶ above the number of the sands of the sea. ¶ My transgressions are multiplied, ¶ O Lord: my transgressions are multiplied, and ¶ I am not worthy to behold and see the height of heaven for the multitude of mine iniquities. I am bowed down ¶ with many iron bands, that ¶ I cannot lift up mine head ¶ by reason of my sins, neither have I any respite: for I have provoked thy wrath, and done that which is evil before thee: ¶ I did not thy will, neither kept I thy commandments: ¶ I have set up abominations, and have multiplied ¶ detestable things. Now therefore I bow the knee of mine heart, beseeching thee of grace. I have sinned, O Lord, I have sinned, and ¶ I acknowledge mine iniquities: but, I humbly beseech thee, forgive me, O Lord, forgive me, and destroy me not with mine iniquities. Be not angry with me for ever, by reserving evil for me; neither condemn me into ¶ the lower parts of the earth. For thou, ¶ O Lord, art the God of them that repent; and in me thou wilt shew all thy goodness: for thou wilt save me, that am unworthy, according to thy great mercy. And I will praise thee for ever all the days of my life: ¶ for all the host of heaven do sing thy praise, and ¶ thine is the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

* Cp. 1 Cor. 7. 15.

I ¹AND it came to pass, after that ²Alexander the Macedonian, the son of Philip, who came out of the land of ³Chittim, and smote Darius king of the Persians and Medes, it came to pass, after he had smitten him, that he reigned in his stead, in former time, over ⁴Greece. ⁵And he fought many battles, and won many strongholds, and slew the kings of the earth, ⁶and went through to the ends of the earth, and took spoils of a multitude of nations. And ⁷the earth was quiet before him, and he was exalted, and his heart was lifted up, ⁸and he gathered together an exceeding strong host, and ruled over countries and nations and principalities, and they became tributary unto him. ⁹And after these things he fell sick, and perceived that he should die. ¹⁰And he called his servants, which were honourable, which had been brought up with him from his youth, and he divided unto them his kingdom, while he was yet alive. ¹¹And Alexander reigned twelve years, and he died. ¹²And his servants bare rule, each one in his place. ¹³And they did all put ¹⁴diadems upon themselves after that he was dead, and so did their sons after them many years: and they multiplied evils in the earth.

¹⁵And there came forth out of them a ¹⁶sinful root, Antiochus Epiphanes, son of Antiochus the king, who had been a hostage at Rome, and he reigned in ¹⁷the hundred and thirty and seventh year of the kingdom of the Greeks.

¹⁸In those days ¹⁹came there forth out of Israel ²⁰transgressors of the law, and persuaded many, saying, ²¹Let us go and make a covenant with the ²²Gentiles that are round about us; for since we were parted from them many evils have befallen us. ²³And the saying was good in their eyes. ²⁴And certain of the people were forward ²⁵herein and ²⁶went to the king, and he gave them licence to do after the ordinances of the ²⁷Gentiles. ²⁸And ²⁹they built a place of exercise in Jerusalem according to the laws of the ³⁰Gentiles; ³¹and ³²they made themselves uncircumcised, and forsook the holy covenant, and joined themselves to the ³³Gentiles, and ³⁴sold themselves to do evil.

³⁵And the kingdom was well ordered in the sight of Antiochus, and he thought to reign over Egypt, that he might reign over the two kingdoms. ³⁶And ³⁷he entered into Egypt with a ³⁸great multitude, with chariots, and ³⁹with elephants, and with horsemen, and with a great ⁴⁰navy; ⁴¹and he made war against ⁴²Ptolemy king of Egypt; and Ptolemy was put to shame before him, and fled; ⁴³and many fell wounded to death. ⁴⁴And they got possession of the strong cities in the land of Egypt; and he took the spoils of Egypt.

⁴⁵And Antiochus, after that he had smitten Egypt, ⁴⁶returned in ⁴⁷the hundred and forty and third year, and went up against Israel and Jerusalem with a ⁴⁸great multitude, ⁴⁹and entered presumptuously into the sanctuary, and took ⁵⁰the golden altar, and ⁵¹the candlestick of the light, and all that pertained thereto, ⁵²and ⁵³the table of the shewbread, and ⁵⁴the cups to pour withal, and the bowls, and the golden censers, and ⁵⁵the veil, and ⁵⁶the crowns, and the adorning of gold which was on the face of the temple, and he scaled it all off. ⁵⁷And he took the silver and the gold and the precious vessels; and he took the hidden treasures which he found. ⁵⁸And when he had taken all, he went away into his own land, and ⁵⁹he made a great slaughter, and spake very presumptuously. ⁶⁰And there came great mourning upon Israel, in every place where they were; ⁶¹and the rulers and elders groaned, the virgins and young men were made feeble, and the beauty of the women was changed. ⁶²Every bridegroom took up lamentation, she that sat in the marriage chamber was in heaviness. ⁶³And the land was moved for the inhabitants thereof, and all the house of Jacob was clothed with shame.

⁶⁴And after ⁶⁵two full years ⁶⁶the king sent a chief collector of tribute unto the cities of Judah, and he came unto Jerusalem with a ⁶⁷great multitude. ⁶⁸And he spake words of peace unto them in subtilty, and they gave him credence: and he fell upon the city suddenly, and smote it very sore, and destroyed much people out of Israel. ³² And he took the spoils of the city, and set it on fire, and pulled down the houses thereof and the walls thereof on every side. ³³ And they led captive the women and the children, and the cattle they took in possession. ³⁴ And they builded the city of David with a great and strong wall, with strong towers, and it became unto them a citadel. ³⁵ And they put there a sinful nation, transgressors of the law, and they strengthened themselves therein. ³⁶ And they stored up arms and victuals, and gathering together the spoils of Jerusalem, they laid them up there, and they became a sore snare; ³⁷ and it became a place to lie in wait in against the sanctuary, and an evil adversary to Israel continually. ³⁸ And they shed innocent blood on every side of the sanctuary, and defiled the sanctuary. ³⁹ And the inhabitants of Jerusalem fled because of them; and she became a habitation of strangers, and she became strange to them that were born in her, and her children forsook her. ⁴⁰ Her sanctuary was laid waste like a wilderness, her feasts were turned into mourning, her sabbaths into reproach, her honour into contempt. ⁴¹ According to her glory, so was her dishonour multiplied, and her high estate was turned into mourning.

⁴² And king Antiochus wrote to his whole kingdom, that all should be one people, ⁴³ and that each should forsake his own laws. ⁴⁴ And all the nations agreed according to the word of the king; ⁴⁵ and many of Israel consented to his worship, and sacrificed to the idols, and profaned the sabbath. ⁴⁶ And the king sent letters by the hand of messengers unto Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, that they should follow laws strange to the land, ⁴⁷ and should forbid whole burnt offerings and sacrifice and drink offerings in the sanctuary; and should profane the sabbaths and feasts, ⁴⁸ and pollute the sanctuary and them that were holy; ⁴⁹ that they should build altars, and temples, and shrines for idols, and should sacrifice swine's flesh and unclean beasts; ⁵⁰ and that they should leave their sons uncircumcised, that they should make their souls abominable with all manner of uncleanness and profanation; ⁵¹ so that they might forget the law, and change all the ordinances. ⁵² And whosoever shall not do according to the word of the king, he shall die. ⁵³ According to all these words wrote he to his whole kingdom; and he appointed overseers over all the people, and he commanded the cities of Judah to sacrifice, city by city. ⁵⁴ And from the people were gathered together unto them many, every one that had forsaken the law; and they did evil things in the land; ⁵⁵ and they made Israel to hide themselves in every place of refuge which they had.

⁵⁶ And on the fifteenth day of Chislev, in the hundred and forty and fifth year, they builded an abomination of desecration upon the altar, and in the cities of Judah on every side they builded idol altars. ⁵⁷ And at the doors of the houses and in the streets they burnt incense. ⁵⁸ And they rent in pieces the books of the law which they found, and set them on fire. ⁵⁹ And whosoever was found with any a book of the covenant, and if any consented to the law, the king's sentence delivered him to death. ⁶⁰ Thus did they in their might unto Israel, to those that were found month by month in the cities. ⁶¹ And on the five and twentieth day of the month they sacrificed upon the idol altar, which was upon the altar of God. ⁶² And the women that had circumcised their children they put to death according to the commandment. ⁶³ And they hanged their babes about their necks, and destroyed their houses, and them that had circumcised them. ⁶⁴ And many in Israel were fully resolved and confirmed in themselves not to eat unclean things. ⁶⁵ And they chose to die, that they might not be defiled with the meats, and that they might not profane the holy covenant; and they died. ⁶⁶ And there came exceeding great wrath upon Israel.

In those days rose up Mattathias the son of John, the son of Simeon, a priest of the sons of Joarib, from Jerusalem; and he dwelt at Modin. ² And he had five sons, ³ John, who was surnamed Gaddis; ⁴ Simon, who was called Thassi; ⁵ Judas, who was called Maccabeus; ⁶ Eleazar, who was called Avaran; ⁷ Jonathan, who was called Apphus.

And he saw the blasphemies that were committed in Judah and in Jerusalem, and he said,

Woe is me! wherefore was I born to see the destruction of my people, and the destruction of the holy city, and to dwell there, when it was given into the hand of the enemy, the sanctuary into the hand of aliens? ⁸ Her temple is become as a man ⁹ that was glorious: ¹⁰ her vessels of glory are carried away into captivity, her infants are slain in her streets, her young men with the sword of the enemy. ¹¹ What nation hath not inherited her palaces, and gotten possession of her spoils? ¹² Her adorning is all taken away; instead of a free woman she is become a bond woman: ¹³ and, behold, our holy things and our beauty and our glory are laid waste, and the Gentiles have profaned them. ¹³ Wherefore should we live any longer?

¹⁴ And Mattathias and his sons rent their clothes, and put on sackcloth, and mourned exceedingly.

¹⁵ And the king's officers, that were enforcing the apostasy, came into the city ¹⁶ Modin to sacrifice. ¹⁶ And many of Israel came unto them, and Mattathias and his sons were gathered together. ¹⁷ And the king's officers answered and spake to Mattathias, saying, Thou art a ruler and an honourable and great man in this city, and strengthened with sons and brethren: ¹⁸ now therefore come thou first and do the commandment of the king, ¹⁹ as all the nations have done, and the men of Judah, and they that remain in Jerusalem: and thou and thy house shall be in the number of the king's Friends, and thou and thy sons shall be honoured with silver and gold and many gifts. ¹⁹ And Mattathias answered and said with a loud voice, If all the nations that are in the house of the king's dominion hearken unto him, ²⁰ to fall away each one from the worship of his fathers, and have made choice to follow his commandments, ²¹ yet will I and my sons and my brethren walk in the covenant of our fathers. ²² Heaven forbid that we should forsake the law and the ordinances. ²³ We will not hearken to the king's words, to go aside from our worship, ²⁴ on the right hand, or on the left.

³⁴ Then many that sought after justice and judgement went down into the wilderness, to dwell there, ³⁵ they, and their sons, and their wives, and their cattle; because evils were multiplied upon them. ³⁶ And it was told the king's officers, and ³⁷ the forces that were in

Jerusalem, the city of David, that certain men, who had broken the king's commandment, were gone down into ³⁸ the secret places in the wilderness; ³⁹ and many pursued after them, and having overtaken them, they encamped against them, and set the battle in array against them on the sabbath day. ⁴⁰ And they said unto them, Thus far. Come forth, and do according to the word of the king, and ye shall live. ⁴¹ And they said, We will not come forth, neither will we do the word of the king, ⁴² to profane the sabbath day. ⁴³ And they hasted to give them battle. ⁴⁴ And they answered them not, neither cast they a stone at them, nor stopped up ⁴⁵ the secret places, ⁴⁶ saying, Let us die all in our innocency: heaven and earth witness over us, that ye put us to death without trial. ⁴⁷ And they rose up against them in battle on the sabbath, and they died, they ⁴⁸ and their wives and their children, and their cattle, to the number of a thousand ⁴⁹ souls.

⁵⁰ And Mattathias and his friends knew it, and they mourned over them exceedingly. ⁵¹ And one said to another, If we all do as our brethren have done, and fight not against the Gentiles for our lives and our ordinances, they will now quickly destroy us from off the earth. ⁵² And they took counsel on that day, saying, Whosoever shall come against us to battle on the sabbath day, ⁵³ let us fight against him, and we shall in no wise all die, as our brethren died in ⁵⁴ the secret places. ⁵⁵ Then were gathered together unto them a company of ⁵⁶ Hasidians, mighty men of Israel, every one that offered himself willingly for the law. ⁵⁷ And all they that fled from the evils were added to them, and became a stay unto them. ⁵⁸ And they mustered a host, and smote ⁵⁹ sinners in their anger, and lawless men in their wrath: and the rest fled to the Gentiles for safety. ⁶⁰ And Mattathias and his friends went round about, and pulled down the altars; ⁶¹ and they circumcised by force the children that were uncircumcised, as many as they found in the coasts of Israel. ⁶² And they pursued after the sons of pride, and the work prospered in their hand. ⁶³ And they rescued the law out of the hand of the Gentiles, and out of the hand of the kings, neither ⁶⁴ suffered they the sinner to triumph.

⁶⁵ And the days of Mattathias drew near that he should die, and he said unto his sons,

Now have pride and rebuke gotten strength, and a season of overthrow, and wrath of indignation. ⁶⁶ And now, my children, be ye zealous for the law, and give your lives for the covenant of your fathers. ⁶⁷ And call to remembrance the deeds of our fathers which they did in their generations; and receive great glory ¹and an everlasting name. ²Was not Abraham found faithful in temptation, and ³it was reckoned unto him for righteousness? ⁴Joseph in the time of his distress kept the commandment, ⁵and became lord of Egypt. ⁶Phinehas our father, for that he was zealous exceedingly, ⁷obtained the covenant of an everlasting priesthood. ⁸Joshua for fulfilling the word became a judge in Israel. ⁹Caleb for bearing witness in the congregation ¹⁰obtained a heritage in the land. ¹¹David ¹²for being merciful ¹³inherited the throne of a kingdom for ever and ever. ¹⁴Elijah, for that he was ¹⁵exceeding zealous for the law, ¹⁶was taken up into heaven. ¹⁷Hananiah, Azariah, Mishael, ¹⁸believed, and were saved out of the flame. ¹⁹Daniel for his innocency was delivered from the mouth of lions. ²⁰And thus consider ye from generation to generation, that none ²¹that put their trust in him shall want for strength. ²²And ²³be not afraid of the words of a sinful man; for his glory shall be dung and worms. ²⁴To-day he shall be lifted up, and to-morrow he shall in no wise be found, because he is returned unto his dust, and his thought is perished. ²⁵And ye, my children, ²⁶be strong, and shew yourselves men in behalf of the law; for therein shall ye obtain glory. ²⁷And, behold, ²⁸Simon your brother, I know that he is a man of counsel; give ear unto him always: he shall be a father unto you. ²⁹And ³⁰Judas Maccabeus, he hath been strong and mighty from his youth: he shall be your captain, and ³¹shall fight the battle of the people. ³²And take ye unto you all the doers of the law, and avenge the wrong of your people. ³³Render a recompense to the Gentiles, and take heed to the commandments of the law.

³⁴And he blessed them, and was gathered to his fathers. ³⁵And he died in ³⁶the hundred and forty and sixth year, and his sons buried him in the sepulchres of his fathers at ³⁷Modin, and all Israel made great lamentation for him.

3 And his son Judas, who was called Maccabeus, rose up in his stead. ²And all his brethren helped him, and so did ³all they that clave unto his father, and they fought with gladness the battle of Israel. ⁴And he gat his people great glory, and put on a breastplate as a giant, and girt his warlike harness about him, and set battles in array, protecting the army with his sword. ⁵And he was like a lion in his deeds, and as ⁶a lion's whelp roaring for prey. ⁷And he pursued the lawless, seeking them out, and he ⁸burnt up those that troubled his people. ⁹And the lawless shrunk for fear of him, and all the workers of lawlessness were sore troubled, ¹⁰and salvation prospered in his hand. ¹¹And he angered many kings and made Jacob glad with his acts, and ¹²his memorial is blessed for ever. ¹³And he went about among the cities of Judah and destroyed the ungodly ¹⁴out of the land, and ¹⁵turned away wrath from Israel: ¹⁶and he was renowned unto the utmost part of the earth, and he gathered together such as were ready to perish.

¹⁷And ¹⁸Apollonius gathered the Gentiles together, and a great host from ¹⁹Samaria, to fight against Israel. ²⁰And Judas perceived it, and he went forth to meet him, and smote him, and slew him: and many fell wounded to death and the rest fled. ²¹And they took their spoils, and Judas took the sword of ²²Apollonius, and therewith he fought all his days.

²³And Seron, the commander of the host of Syria, heard say that Judas had gathered a gathering and a congregation of faithful men with him, and of such as went out to war; ²⁴and he said, I will make myself a name and get me glory in the kingdom; and I will fight against Judas and them that are with him, that set at nought the word of the king. ²⁵And there went up with him also a mighty army of the ungodly to help him, to take vengeance on the children of Israel.

²⁶And he came near unto ²⁷the going up of Bethhoron, and Judas went forth to meet him with a small company. ²⁸But when they saw the army coming to meet them, they said unto Judas: What? shall we be able, being a small company, to fight against so great an strong a multitude? and we for our part are faint, having tasted no food this day. ²⁹And Judas said, It is an easy thing for many ³⁰to be shut up in the hands of a few; ³¹and with ³²heaven it is all one, to save by many or by few ³³for victory in battle standeth not in the multitude of a host; but strength in heaven. ³⁴They come unto us in fullness of insolence and lawlessness, to destroy us and our wives and our children, for to spoil us: ³⁵but we fight for our lives and ³⁶our laws. ³⁷And himself will discomfit them before our face: but as for you, be ye not afraid of them.

³⁸Now when he had left off speaking he leapt suddenly upon them, and Sero and his army were discomfited before him. ³⁹And they pursued them in ⁴⁰the going down of Bethhoron unto the plain, and there fell of them about eight hundred men; but the residue fled into the land of the Philistines.

25 And the fear of Judas and his brethren, and the dread of them, began to fall upon the nations round about them: 26 and his name came near even unto the king, and every nation told of the battles of Judas.

27 But when king Antiochus heard these words, he was full of indignation: and he sent and gathered together all the forces of his realm, an exceeding strong army. 28 And he opened his treasury, and gave his forces pay for a year, and commanded them to be ready for every need. 29 And he saw that the money failed from his treasures, and that the tributes of the country were small, because of the dissension and plague which he had brought upon the land, to the end that he might take away the laws which had been from the first days; 30 and he feared that he should not have enough as at other times for the charges and the gifts which he gave aforesaid with a liberal hand, and 31 he abounded above the kings that were before him. 32 And he was exceedingly perplexed in his mind, and he determined to go into Persia, and to take the tributes of the countries, and to gather much money. 33 And he left Lysias, an honourable man, and one of the seed royal, to be over the affairs of the king from the river Euphrates unto the borders of Egypt, 34 and to bring up his son Antiochus, until he came again. 35 And he delivered unto him the half of his forces, and the elephants, and gave him charge of all the things that he would have done, and concerning them that dwell in Judaea and in Jerusalem, 36 that he should send a host against them, to root out and destroy the strength of Israel, and the remnant of Jerusalem, and 37 to take away their memorial from the place; 38 and that he should make strangers to dwell in all their coasts, and should divide their land to them by lot. 39 And the king took the half that remained of the forces, and removed from Antioch, from his royal city, the hundred and forty and seventh year; and he passed over the river Euphrates, and went through the upper countries.

35 And Lysias chose Ptolemy the son of Dorymene, and Nicanor, and Gorgias, mighty men of the king's Friends; 39 and with them he sent forty thousand footmen, and seven thousand horse, to go into the land of Judah, and to destroy it, according to the word of the king. 40 And they removed with all their host, and came and pitched near unto Emmaus in the plain country. 41 And the merchants of the country heard the fame of them, and took silver and gold exceeding much, with fethers, and came into the camp to take the children of Israel for servants: and there were added unto them the forces of Syria and of the land of the Philistines.

42 And Judas and his brethren saw that evils were multiplied, and that the forces were encamping in their borders; and they took knowledge of the king's words which he had commanded, to destroy the people and make an end of them; 43 and they said each man to his neighbour, Let us raise up the ruin of our people, and let us fight for our people and the holy place. 44 And the congregation was gathered together, that they might be ready for battle, and that they might pray, and ask for mercy and compassion. 45 And Jerusalem was without inhabitant as a wilderness, there was none of her offspring that went in or went out; and the sanctuary was trodden down, and the sons of strangers were in the citadel, the Gentiles lodged therein; and joy was taken away from Jacob, and the pipe and the harp ceased. 46 And they gathered themselves together, and came to Mizpeh, over against Jerusalem; for in Mizpeh was there a place of prayer aforesaid for Israel. 47 And they fasted that day, and put on sackcloth, and put ashes upon their heads, and rent their clothes, 48 and laid open the book of the law, concerning which the Gentiles were wont to inquire, seeking the likenesses of their idols. 49 And they brought the priests' garments, and the firstfruits, and the tithes: and they stirred up the Nazirites, who had accomplished their days. 50 And they cried aloud toward heaven, saying, What shall we do with these men, and whither shall we carry them away? 51 And thy holy place is trodden down and profaned, and thy priests are in heaviness and brought low. 52 And, behold, the Gentiles are assembled together against us to destroy us: thou knowest what things they imagine against us. 53 How shall we be able to stand before them, except thou be our help? 54 And they sounded with the trumpets, and cried with a loud voice.

55 And after this Judas appointed leaders of the people, captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, and captains of fifties, and captains of tens. 56 And he said to them that were building houses, and were betrothing wives, and were planting vineyards, and were fearful, that they should return, each man to his own house, according to the law. 57 And the army removed, and encamped upon the south side of Emmaus. 58 And Judas said, Gird yourselves, and be valiant men, and be in readiness against the morning, that ye may fight with these Gentiles, that are assembled together against us to destroy us, and our holy place: ⁵⁹ for it is better for us to die in battle, than to look upon the evils of our nation and the holy place. ⁶⁰ Nevertheless, as may be the will ⁶¹ in heaven, so shall he do.

4 ¹ And / Gorgias took five thousand footmen, and a thousand chosen horse, and the army removed by night, ² that it might fall upon the army of the Jews and smite them suddenly: and ³ the men of the citadel were his guides. ³ And Judas heard thereof, and removed, he and the valiant men, that he might smite the king's host which was at ⁴ Emmaus, ⁴ while as yet the forces were dispersed from the camp. ⁵ And Gorgias came into the camp of Judas by night, and found no man; and he sought them in the mountains; for he said, These men flee from us. ⁶ And as soon as it was day, Judas appeared in the plain with three thousand men: howbeit they had not armour nor swords to their minds. ⁷ And they saw the camp of the Gentiles strong and fortified, and horsemen compassing it round about; and these were expert in war. ⁸ And Judas said to the men that were with him, Fear ye not their multitude, neither be ye afraid of their onset. ⁹ Remember how our fathers / were saved in the Red sea, when Pharaoh pursued them with a host. ¹⁰ And now let us cry ¹¹ unto heaven, if he will have us, and will remember the covenant of our fathers, and destroy this army before our face to-day: ¹² and ¹³ all the Gentiles shall know that there is one who redeemeth and saveth Israel. ¹⁴ And the strangers lifted up their eyes, and saw them coming over against them: ¹⁵ and they went out of the camp to battle. And they that were with Judas ¹⁶ sounded their trumpets, ¹⁷ and joined battle, and the Gentiles were discomfited, and fled into the plain. ¹⁸ But all the hindmost fell by the sword: and they pursued them unto ¹⁹ Gasara, and unto the plains of Idumæa and ²⁰ Azotus and ²¹ Jamnia, and there fell of them about three thousand men. ²² And Judas and his host returned from pursuing after them, ²³ and he said unto the people, Be not greedy of the spoils, inasmuch as there is a battle before us; ²⁴ and Gorgias and his host are high unto us in the mountain. But stand ye now against our enemies, and fight against them, and afterwards take the spoils with boldness. ²⁵ While Judas was yet making an end of these words, there appeared a part of them looking out from the mountain: ²⁶ and they saw that their host had been put to flight, and that the Jews were burning the camp; for the smoke that was seen declared what was done. ²⁷ But when they perceived these things, they were sore afraid; and perceiving also the army of Judas in the plain ready for battle, ²⁸ they fled all of them into ²⁹ the land of the ³⁰ Philistines. ³¹ And Judas returned to spoil the camp, and they got much gold, and silver, and blue, and sea purple, and great riches. ³² And they returned home, and sang a song of thanksgiving, and gave praise ³³ unto heaven; ³⁴ because his mercy is good, because his mercy endureth for ever. ³⁵ And Israel had a great deliverance that day.

³⁶ But the strangers, as many as had escaped, came and told ³⁷ Lysias all the things that had happened: ³⁸ but when he heard thereof, he was confounded and discouraged, because neither had such things as he would been done unto Israel, nor had such things as the king commanded him come to pass.

³⁹ And in the next year he gathered together threescore thousand chosen footmen, and five thousand horse, that he might subdue them. ⁴⁰ And they came into Idumæa, and encamped at ⁴¹ Bethsura; and Judas met them with ten thousand men. ⁴² And he saw that the army was strong, and he prayed and said,

Blessed art thou, O Saviour of Israel, who didst quell the onset of the mighty man ⁴³ by the hand of thy servant David, and didst deliver the army of the ⁴⁴ Philistines ⁴⁵ into the hands of Jonathan the son of Saul, and of his armourbearer: ⁴⁶ ⁴⁷ shut up this army in the hand of thy people Israel, and let them be ashamed for their host and their horsemen: ⁴⁸ give them faintness of heart, and cause the boldness of their strength to melt away, and let them quake at their destruction: ⁴⁹ cast them down with the sword of them that love thee, and let all that know thy name praise thee with thanksgiving.

⁵⁰ And they joined battle; and there fell of the army of ⁵¹ Lysias about five thousand men, and they fell down over against them. ⁵² But when Lysias saw that his array was put to flight, and the boldness that had come upon them that were with Judas, and how they were ready either to live or to die nobly, he removed to ⁵³ Antioch, and gathered together hired soldiers, that he might come again into Judæa with even a greater company.

⁵⁴ But Judas and his brethren said, Behold, our enemies are discomfited: let us go up to ⁵⁵ cleanse the holy place, and to dedicate it afresh. ⁵⁶ And all the army was gathered together, and they went up unto mount Zion. ⁵⁷ And they saw the sanctuary laid desolate, and the altar profaned, and the gates burned up, and shrubs growing in the courts as in a forest or as on one of the mountains, and the priests' chambers pulled down; ³⁹ and they rent their clothes, and made great lamentation, and put ashes upon their heads, ⁴⁰ and fell on their faces to the ground, and blew with ⁴¹ the solemn trumpets, and cried toward heaven. ⁴² Then Judas appointed certain men to fight against those that were in the citadel, until he should have cleansed the holy place.

⁴³ And he chose blameless priests, such as had pleasure in the law: ⁴³ and they cleansed the holy place, and bare out the stones of defilement into an unclean place. ⁴⁴ And they took counsel concerning the altar of burnt offerings, which had been profaned, what they should do with it: ⁴⁵ and there came in to their mind a good counsel, that they should pull it down, lest it should be a reproach to them, because the Gentiles had defiled it: and they pulled down the altar, ⁴⁶ and laid up the stones in the mountain of the house in a convenient place, until there should come a prophet to give an answer concerning them. ⁴⁷ And they took whole stones according to the law, and built a new altar after the fashion of the former; ⁴⁸ and they built the holy place, and the inner parts of the house; and they hallowed the courts. ⁴⁹ And they made the holy vessels new, and they brought the candlestick, and the altar of burnt offerings, and of incense, and the table, into the temple. ⁵⁰ And they burned incense upon the altar, and they lighted the lamps that were upon the candlestick, and they gave light in the temple. ⁵¹ And they set leaves upon the table, and spread out the veils, and finished all the works which they made.

⁵² And they rose up early in the morning, on the five and twentieth day of the ninth month, which is the month Chislew, in the hundred and forty and eighth year, ⁵³ and offered sacrifice according to the law upon the new altar of burnt offerings which they had made. ⁵⁴ At what time and on what day the Gentiles had profaned it, even on that day was it dedicated afresh, with songs and harps and lutes, and with cymbals. ⁵⁵ And all the people fell upon their faces, and worshipped, and gave praise unto heaven, which had given them good success. ⁵⁶ And they kept the dedication of the altar eight days, and offered burnt offerings with gladness, and sacrificed a sacrifice of deliverance and praise. ⁵⁷ And they decked the forefront of the temple with crowns of gold and small shields, and dedicated afresh the gates and the priests' chambers, and made doors for them. ⁵⁸ And there was exceeding great gladness among the people, and the reproach of the Gentiles was turned away. ⁵⁹ And Judas and his brethren and the whole congregation of Israel ordained, that the days of the dedication of the altar should be kept in their seasons from year to year by the space of eight days, from the five and twentieth day of the month Chislew, with gladness and joy. ⁶⁰ And at that season they builded up the Mount Sion with high walls and strong towers round about, lest haply the Gentiles should come and tread them down, as they had done aforetime. ⁶¹ And he set there a force to keep it, and they fortified Bethsura to keep it; that the people might have a stronghold over against Idumaea.

5 And it came to pass, when the Gentiles round about heard that the altar was built, and the sanctuary dedicated as aforetime, they were exceeding wroth. ² And they took counsel to destroy the race of Jacob that was in the midst of them, and they began to alay and destroy among the people. ³ And Judas fought against the children of Esau in Idumaea at Akrabatime, because they besieged Israel: and he smote them with a great slaughter, and brought down their pride, and took their spoils. ⁴ And he remembered the wickedness of the children of Beaan, who were unto the people a snare and a stumblingblock, lying in wait for them in the ways. ⁵ And they were shut up by him in the towers; and he encamped against them, and destroyed them utterly, and burned with fire the towers of the place, with all that were therein. ⁶ And he passed over to the children of Ammon, and found a mighty band, and much people, with Timotheus for their leader. ⁷ And he fought many battles with them, and they were discomfited before his face; and he smote them, and gat possession of Jazer, and the villages thereof, and returned again into Judaea.

⁸ And the Gentiles that were in Gilead gathered themselves together against the Israelites that were on their borders, to destroy them. And they fled to the stronghold of Dathema, and sent letters unto Judas and his brethren, saying, The Gentiles that are round about us are gathered together against us to destroy us: and they are preparing to come and get possession of the stronghold whereunto we are fled for refuge, and Timotheus is the leader of their host. Now therefore come and deliver us from their hand, for many of us are fallen. ¹³ And all our brethren that were in the land of Tubias have been put to death; and they have carried into captivity their wives and their children and their stuff; and they destroyed there about a thousand men. ²⁴ While the letters were yet reading, behold, there came other messengers from Galilee with their clothes rent, bringing a report after this wise, ²⁵ saying, That there were gathered together against them those of ^a Ptolemais, and of ^b Tyre, and of Sidon, and all ^c Galilee of the ^d Gentiles, to consume them.

²⁶ Now when Judas and the people heard these words, there assembled together a great congregation, to consult what they should do for their brethren, that were in tribulation, and were assaulted of them. ²⁷ And Judas said unto ^e Simon his brother, Choose thee out men, and go and deliver thy brethren that are in ^f Galilee, but I and ^g Jonathan my brother will go into the land of ^h Gilead. ²⁸ And he left ⁱ Joseph the son of Zacharias, and Azarias, as leaders of the people, with the remnant of the host, in Judaea, for to keep it. ²⁹ And he gave commandment unto them, saying, Take ye the charge of this people, and fight no battle with the Gentiles until that we come again. ³⁰ And unto ^j Simon were divided three thousand men to go into ^k Galilee, but unto Judas eight thousand men to go into the land of ^l Gilead.

³¹ And ^m Simon went into ⁿ Galilee, and fought many battles with the Gentiles, and the Gentiles were discomfited before him. ³² And he pursued them unto the gate of ^o Ptolemais; and there fell of the Gentiles about three thousand men, and he took their spoils. ³³ And they took to them those that were in ^p Galilee, and in Arbatta, with their wives and their children, and all that they had, and brought them into Judaea with great gladness.

³⁴ And Judas Maccabeus and ^q his brother Jonathan ^r passed over Jordan, and went three days' journey in the wilderness; ³⁵ and they met with the ^s Nabathseans, and these met them in a peaceable manner, and told them all things that had befallen their brethren in the land of Gilead: ³⁶ and how that many of them were shut up in ^t Bosora, and ^u Bosor, and Alema, ^v Casphor, Maked, and ^w Carnaim; all these cities are strong and great: ³⁷ and how that they were shut up in the rest of the cities of the land of Gilead, and that to-morrow they have appointed to encamp against the strongholds, and to take them, and to destroy all these men in one day. ³⁸ And Judas and his army turned suddenly by the way of the wilderness unto ^x Bosora; and he took the city, and slew all the males with the edge of the sword, and took all their spoils, and burned the city with fire. ³⁹ And he removed from thence by night, and went till he came to ^y the stronghold. ⁴⁰ And the morning came, and they lifted up their eyes, and, behold, much people which could not be numbered, bearing ladders and engines of war, to take the stronghold; and they were fighting against them. ⁴¹ And Judas saw that the battle was begun, and that the cry of the city went up to heaven, with trumpets and a great sound, ⁴² and he said unto the men of his host, ⁴³ Fight this day for your brethren. ⁴⁴ And he went forth behind them ⁴⁵ in three companies, and they sounded with their trumpets, and cried out in prayer. ⁴⁶ And the army of Timotheus perceived that it was Maccabeus, and they fled from before him; and he smote them with a great slaughter; and there fell of them on that day about eight thousand men. ⁴⁷ And he turned aside to ^z Mizpeh and fought against it, and took it, and slew all the males thereof, and took the spoils thereof, and burned it with fire. ⁴⁸ From thence he removed, and took ^{aa} Casphor, Maked, Bosor, and the other cities of the land of Gilead.

⁴⁹ Now after these things ^{ab} Timotheus gathered another army, and encamped over against Raphon beyond the brook. ⁵⁰ And Judas sent men to spy the army; and they brought him word, saying, All the Gentiles that be round about us are gathered together unto them, an exceeding great host. ⁵¹ And they have hired ^{ac} Arabians to help them, and are encamping beyond the brook, ready to come against thee to battle. And Judas went to meet them. ⁵² And Timotheus said unto the captains of his host, when Judas and his army drew nigh unto the brook of water, If he pass over first unto us, we shall not be able to withstand him; for he will mightily prevail against us: ⁵³ but if he be afraid, and encamp beyond the river, we will cross over unto him, and prevail against him. ⁵⁴ Now when Judas came nigh unto the brook of water, he caused ^{ad} the scribes of the people to remain by the brook, and gave commandment unto them, saying, Suffer no man to encamp, but let all come to the battle. ⁵⁵ And he crossed over the first against them, and all the people after him: and ^{ae} all the Gentiles were discomfited before his face, and cast away their arms, and fled unto the temple at ^{af} Carnaim. ⁵⁶ And ^{ag} they took the city, and burned the temple with fire, together with all that were therein. And ^{ah} Carnaim was subdued, neither could they stand any longer before the face of Judas.

⁵⁷ And Judas gathered together all Israel, them that were in the land of Gilead, from the least unto the greatest, and their wives, and their children, and their stuff, an exceeding great army, that they might come into the land of Judah. ⁴⁵ And ⁴⁶ they came as far as Ephron, and this same city was great, and it was in the way as they should go, exceeding strong: they could not turn aside from it on the right hand or on the left, but must needs pass through the midst of it. ⁴⁷ And they of the city shut them out, and stopped up the gates with stones. ⁴⁸ And Judas sent unto them with words of peace, saying, ⁴⁹ We will pass through thy land to go into our own land, and none shall do you any hurt, we will only pass by on our feet. And they would not open unto him. ⁵⁰ And Judas commanded proclamation to be made in the army, that each man should encamp in the place where he was. ⁵¹ And the men of the host encamped, and fought against the city all that day and all that night, and the city was delivered into his hands; ⁵² and he destroyed all the males with the edge of the sword, and rased the city, and took the spoils thereof, and passed through the city over them that were slain. ⁵³ And they went ⁵⁴ over Jordan into ⁵⁵ the great plain over against ⁵⁶ Bethshan. ⁵⁷ And Judas gathered together those that lagged behind, and encouraged the people all the way through, until he came into the land of Judah. ⁵⁸ And they went up to mount Sion with gladness and joy, and offered whole burnt offerings, because not so much as one of them was slain until they returned in peace.

⁵⁹ And in the days ⁶⁰ when Judas and Jonathan were in the land of Gilead, and ⁶¹ Simon his brother in Galilee before ⁶² Ptolemais, ⁶³ ⁶⁴ Joseph the son of Zacharias, and Azarias, rulers of the host, heard of their exploits and of the war, what things they had done; ⁶⁵ and they said, ⁶⁶ Let us also get us a name, and let us go fight against the Gentiles that are round about us. ⁶⁷ And they gave charge unto the men of the host that was with them, and went toward ⁶⁸ Jamnia. ⁶⁹ And ⁷⁰ Gorgias and his men came out of the city to meet them in battle. ⁷¹ And ⁷² Joseph and Azarias were put to flight, and were pursued unto the borders of Judea; and there fell on that day of the people of Israel about two thousand men. ⁷³ And there was a great overthrow among the people, ⁷⁴ because they hearkened not unto Judas and his brethren, thinking to do some exploit. ⁷⁵ But they were not of the seed of those men, by whose hand deliverance was given unto Israel.

⁷⁶ And the man Judas and his brethren were glorified exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and of all the Gentiles, whosoever their name was heard of; ⁷⁷ and men gathered together unto them, acclaiming them.

⁹² And king Antiochus was journeying through the upper countries; and he heard say, that in ⁹³ Elymais in ⁹⁴ Persia there was a city renowned for riches, for silver and gold; ⁹⁵ and that the temple which was in it was rich exceedingly, and that therein were golden shields, and breastplates, and arms, which ⁹⁶ Alexander, son of Philip, the Macedonian king, who reigned first among the Greeks, left behind there. ⁹⁷ And he came and sought to take the city, and to pillage it; and he was not able, because the thing was known to them of the city, ⁹⁸ and they rose up against him to battle; and he fled, and removed thence with great heaviness, to return unto Babylon.

⁹⁹ And there ¹⁰⁰ came one bringing him tidings into ¹⁰¹ Persia, that the armies, which went against the land of Judah, had been put to flight; ¹⁰² and that ¹⁰³ Lysias went first with a strong host, and was put to shame before them; and that they had waxed strong by reason of arms and power, and with store of spoils, which they took from the armies that they had cut off; ¹⁰⁴ and ¹⁰⁵ that they had pulled down ¹⁰⁶ the abomination which he had built upon the altar that was in Jerusalem; and that they had compassed about the sanctuary with high walls, as before, and ¹⁰⁷ Bethsura, his city. ¹⁰⁸ And it came to pass, when the king heard these words, he was astonished and moved exceedingly; ¹⁰⁹ and he laid him down upon his bed, and fell sick for grief, because it had not befallen him as he looked for. ¹¹⁰ And he was there many days, ¹¹¹ because great grief was renewed upon him, and he made account that he should die. ¹¹² And he called for all his ¹¹³ Friends, and said unto them, Sleep departeth from mine eyes, and my heart faileth for care. ¹¹⁴ And I said in my heart, Unto what tribulation am I come, and how great a flood is it, wherein I now am! for I was gracious and beloved in my power. ¹²But now I remember the evils which I did at Jerusalem, and that ¹³I took all the vessels of silver and gold that were therein, and ¹⁴sent forth to destroy the inhabitants of Judah without a cause. ¹⁵I perceive that on this account these evils are come upon me, and, behold, I perish through great grief in a strange land. ¹⁶And he called for ¹⁷Philip, one of his ¹⁸Friends, and set him over all his kingdom, ¹⁹and gave him his ²⁰diadem, and his robe, and his ²¹signet-ring, to the end he should bring Antiochus his son, and nourish him up that he might be king. ²²And king Antiochus died there in ²³the hundred and forty and ninth year. ²⁴And ²⁵Lysias knew that the king was dead, and he set up Antiochus his son to reign, ²⁶whom he had nourished up being young, and he called his name ²⁷Eupator.

²⁸And they ²⁹that were in the citadel shut up Israel round about the sanctuary, and sought always their hurt, and the strengthening of the Gentiles. ³⁰And Judas thought to destroy them, and called all the people together to besiege them. ³¹And they were gathered together, and besieged them ³²in ³³the hundred and fiftieth year, and he made ³⁴mounds to shoot from, and engines of war. ³⁵And there came forth some of them that were shut up, and there were joined unto them ³⁶certain ungodly men of Israel. ³⁷And they went unto the king, and said, How long wilt thou not execute judgement, and avenge our brethren? ³⁸We were willing to serve thy father, and to walk after his words, and to follow ³⁹his commandments; ⁴⁰and for this cause the children of our people besieged ⁴¹the citadel, and were alienated from us; but as many of us as they could light on ⁴²they slew, and spoiled our inheritances. ⁴³And not against us only did they stretch out their hand, but also against all their borders. ⁴⁴And, behold, they are encamped this day against the citadel at Jerusalem, and ⁴⁵Bethsura have they fortified. ⁴⁶And if ye are not beforehand with them quickly, they will do greater things than these, and thou shalt not be able to control them.

⁴⁷And ⁴⁸when the king heard this, he was angry, and gathered together all his ⁴⁹Friends, even the rulers of his host, and them that were over the horse. ⁵⁰And there came unto him from other kingdoms, and ⁵¹from isles of the sea, bands of hired soldiers. ⁵²And the number of his forces was a hundred thousand footmen, and twenty thousand horsemen, and two and thirty elephants trained for war. ⁵³And they went through Idumea, ⁵⁴and encamped against ⁵⁵Bethsura, and fought against it many days, and made engines of war; and they of ⁵⁶Bethsura came out, and burned them with fire, and fought valiantly. ⁵⁷And Judas removed from the citadel, and encamped at Bethzacharias, over against the king's camp. ⁵⁸And the king rose early in the morning, and removed his army ⁵⁹at full speed along the road to Bethzacharias, and his forces made them ready to battle, and sounded with the trumpets. ⁶⁰And they shewed the elephants ⁶¹the blood of grapes and mulberries, that they might prepare them for the battle. ⁶²And they divided the beasts among the phalanxes, and they set by each elephant a thousand men armed with coats of mail, and helmets of brass on their heads; and for each beast were appointed five hundred chosen horsemen. ⁶³These were ready beforehand, whosoever the beast was; and whithersoever the beast went, they went with him; they departed not from him. ⁶⁴And towers of wood were upon them, strong and covered, one upon each beast, girt fast upon him with cunning contrivances; and upon each beast were two and thirty valiant men that fought upon them, beside his Indian ⁶⁵and the residue of the horsemen he set on this side and that side at the two parts of the army, striking terror into the enemy, and protected by the ⁶⁶phalanxes. ⁶⁷Now when the sun shone upon the shields of gold and brass, the mountains shone therewith, and blazed like torches of fire. ⁶⁸And a part of the king's army was spread upon the high mountains, and some on the low ground, and they went on firmly and in order. ⁶⁹And all that heard the noise of their multitude, and the marching of the multitude, and the rattling of the arms, did quake: for the army was exceeding great and strong. ⁷⁰And Judas and his army drew near for battle, and there fell of the king's army six hundred men. ⁷¹And Eleazar, ⁷²who was called Avaran, saw one of the beasts armed with royal breastplates, and he was higher than all the beasts, and the king seemed to be upon him; ⁷³and he gave himself to deliver his people, and to get him ⁷⁴an everlasting name; ⁷⁵and he ran upon him courageously into the midst of the ⁷⁶phalanx, and slew on the right hand and on the left, and they parted asunder from him on this side and on that. ⁷⁷And he crept under the elephant, and thrust him from beneath, and slew him; and the elephant fell to the earth upon him, and he died there. ⁷⁸And they saw the strength of the kingdom, and the fierce onset of the hosts, and turned away from them.

48 But they of the king's army went up to Jerusalem to meet them, and the king encamped toward Judaea, and toward mount Zion. 49 And he made peace with them of Bethsura; and he came out of the city, because they had no food there to endure the siege, because it was 50 a sabbath to the land. 50 And the king took 51 Bethsura, and appointed a garrison there to keep it. 51 And he encamped against the sanctuary many days; and set there 52 mounds to shoot from, and engines of war, and instruments for casting fire and stones, and pieces to cast darts, and slings. 52 And they also made engines against their engines, and fought for many days. 53 But there were no victuals in the sanctuary, because it was 54 the seventh year, and they that fled for safety into Judaea from among the Gentiles had eaten up the residue of the store; 54 and there were but a few left in the sanctuary, because the famine prevailed against them, and they were scattered, each man to his own place.

55 And 56 Lysias heard say, that 57 Philip, whom Antiochus the king, while he was yet alive, appointed to nourish up his son Antiochus, that he might be king, 58 was returned from 59 Persia and Media, and with him the forces that went with the king, and that he was seeking to take unto him the government. 57 And he made haste, and gave consent to depart; and he said to the king and the leaders of the host and to the men, We decay daily, and our food is scant, and the place where we encamp is strong, and the affairs of the kingdom lie upon us: 58 now therefore let us 59 give the right hand to these men, and make peace with them and with all their nation, 59 and covenant with them, that they shall walk after their own laws, as aforetime: for because of their laws which we abolished they were angered, and did all these things. 60 And the saying pleased the king and the princes, and he sent unto them to make peace; and they accepted thereof. 61 And the king and the princes swore unto them: thereupon they came forth from the stronghold. 62 And the king entered into mount Zion; and he saw the strength of the place, and set at nought the oath which he had sworn, and gave commandment to pull down 63 the wall round about. 63 And he removed in haste, and 64 returned unto 65 Antioch, and found 66 Philip master of the city; and he fought against him, and took the city by force.

7 In 67 the hundred and one and fiftieth year 68 Demetrius the son of Seleucus came forth from Rome, and went up with a few men unto a city by the sea, and reigned there. 69 And it came to pass, when he would go into the house of the kingdom of his fathers, that the army 70 laid hands on Antiochus and Lysias, to bring them unto him. 71 And the thing was known to him, and he said, Shew me not their faces. 72 And the army slew them. And Demetrius sat upon the throne of his kingdom. 73 And there came unto him all 74 the lawless and ungodly men of Israel; and Alcimus was their leader, desiring to be high priest; 75 and they accused the people to the king, saying, Judas and his brethren have destroyed all thy friends, and have scattered us from our own land. 76 Now therefore send a man whom thou trustest, and let him go and see all the havock which he hath made of us, and of the king's country, and how he hath punished them and all that helped them. 77 And the king chose 78 Bacchides, one of the king's 79 Friends, who was ruler in the country beyond 80 the river, and was a great man in the kingdom, and faithful to the king. 81 And he sent him, and that ungodly 82 Alcimus, and made sure to him the high priesthood, and he commanded him to take vengeance upon the children of Israel.

83 And they removed, and came with a great host into the land of Judah, and he sent messengers to Judas and his brethren with words of peace deceitfully. 84 And they gave no heed to their words; for they saw that they were come with a great host. 85 And there were gathered together unto 86 Alcimus and 87 Bacchides a company of scribes, to seek for justice. 88 And the 89 Hasideans were the first among the children of Israel that sought peace of them; 90 for they said, One 91 that is a priest of the seed of Aaron is come with the forces, and he will do us no wrong. 92 And he spake with them words of peace, and swore unto them, saying, We will seek the hurt neither of you nor your friends. 93 And they gave him credence: and he laid hands on threescore men of them, and slew them in one day, according to the word which the psalmist wrote,

94 The flesh of thy saints did they cast out,

And their blood did they shed round about Jerusalem;
And there was no man to bury them.

95 And 96 the fear and the dread of them fell upon all the people, for they said, There is neither truth nor judgement in them; for they have broken the covenant and the oath which they swore. 97 And 98 Bacchides removed from Jerusalem, and encamped in Bethzeth; and he sent and took many of the deserters that were with him, and certain of the people, and he slew them, and 99 cast them into the great pit. 100 And he made sure the country to Alcimus, and left with battle, and conquered them: ⁶Antiochus also, the great king of Asia, who came against them to battle, having a hundred and twenty elephants, with horse, and chariots, and an exceeding great host, and he was discomfited by them, ⁷and they took him alive, and appointed that both he and such as reigned after him should give them a great tribute, and should give hostages, and a parcel of land, to wit, ⁸the country of India, and Media, and Lydia, and of the goodliest of their countries; and they took them from him, and gave them to king Eumenes: ⁹and how they of Greece took counsel to come and destroy them; ¹⁰and the thing was known to them, and they sent against them a captain, and fought against them, and many of them fell down wounded to death, and they made captive their wives and their children, and spoiled them, and conquered their land, and pulled down their strongholds, and spoiled them, and brought them into bondage unto this day: ¹¹and the residue of the kingdoms and of the isles, as many as rose up against them at any time, they destroyed and made them to be their servants; ¹²but with their friends and such as relied upon them they kept amity; and they conquered the kingdoms that were nigh and those that were far off, and all that heard of their fame were afraid of them: ¹³moreover, whosoever they will to succour and to make kings, these do they make kings; and whosoever they will, do they depose; and they are exalted exceedingly: ¹⁴and for all this none of them did ever put on a diadem, neither did they clothe themselves with purple, to be magnified thereby: ¹⁵and how they had made for themselves a senate house, and day by day three hundred and twenty men sat in council, consulting always for the people, to the end they might be well ordered: ¹⁶and how they commit their government to one man year by year, that he should rule over them, and be lord over all their country, and all are obedient to that one, and there is neither envy nor emulation among them.

¹⁷And Judas chose Eupolemus the son of John, the son of Accos, and Jason the son of Eleazar, and sent them to Rome, to make a league of amity and confederacy with them, ¹⁸and that they should take the yoke from them; for they saw that the kingdom of the Greeks did keep Israel in bondage. ¹⁹And they went to Rome (and the way was exceeding long), and they entered into the senate house, and answered and said, ²⁰Judas, who is also called Maccabeus, and his brethren, and the people of the Jews, have sent us unto you, to make a confederacy and peace with you, and that we might be registered your confederates and friends.

²¹And the thing was well-pleasing in their sight. ²²And this is the copy of the writing which they wrote back again upon tables of brass, and sent to Jerusalem, that it might be with them there for a memorial of peace and confederacy:

²³Good success be to the Romans, and to the nation of the Jews, by sea and by land for ever: the sword also and the enemy be far from them. ²⁴But if war arise for Rome first, or any of their confederates in all their dominion, ²⁵the nation of the Jews shall help them as confederates, as the occasion shall prescribe to them, with all their heart: ²⁶and unto them that make war upon them they shall not give, neither supply, food, arms, money, or ships, as it hath seemed good unto Rome, and they shall keep their ordinances without taking anything therefore. ²⁷In the same manner, moreover, if war come first upon the nation of the Jews, the Romans shall help them as confederates with all their soul, as the occasion shall prescribe to them: ²⁸and to them that are confederates with their foes there shall not be given food, arms, money, or ships, as it hath seemed good unto Rome; and they shall keep these ordinances, and that without deceit. ²⁹According to these words have the Romans made a covenant thus with the people of the Jews. ³⁰But if hereafter the one party and the other shall take counsel to add or diminish anything, they shall do it at their pleasure, and whatsoever they shall add or take away shall be established. ³¹And as touching the evils which king Demetrius doeth unto them, we have written to him, saying, Wherefore hast thou made thy yoke heavy upon our friends and confederates the Jews? ³²If therefore they plead any more against thee, we will do them justice, and fight with thee by sea and by land.

³And Demetrius heard that Nicanor was fallen with his forces in battle, and he sent Bacchides and Alcimus again into the land of Judah a second time, and the right wing of his army with them: ⁴and they went by the way that leadeth to Gilegal, and encamped against Meseloth, which is in Arbela, and gat possession of it, and destroyed much people. ⁵And the first month of the hundred and fifty and second year they encamped against Jerusalem: ⁶and they removed, and went to Berea, with twenty thousand footmen and two thousand horse. ⁷And Judas was encamped at Elasa, and three thousand chosen men with him: ⁸and they saw the multitude of the forces, that they were many, and they feared exceedingly: and many slipped away out of the army; there were not left of them more than eight hundred men. ⁷And Judas saw that his army slipped away, and that the battle pressed upon him, and he was sore troubled in heart, for that he had no time to gather them together, and he waxed faint. ⁸And he said to them that were left, Let us arise and go up against our adversaries, if peradventure we may be able to fight with them. ⁹And they would have dissuaded him, saying, We shall in no wise be able: but let us rather save our lives now: let us return again, ¹⁰and our brethren, and fight against them: but we are few. ¹¹And Judas said, Let it not be so that I should do this thing, ¹²to flee from them: and if our time is come, let us die manfully for our brethren's sake, and not leave a cause of reproach against our glory. ¹³And the host removed from the camp, and stood to encounter them, and the horse was parted into two companies, and the slingers and the archers went before the host, and all the mighty men that fought in the front of the battle. ¹⁴But Bacchides was in the right wing; and the phalanx drew near on the two parts, and they blew with their trumpets. ¹⁵And the men of Judas' side, even they ¹⁶sounded with their trumpets, and the earth shook with the shout of the armies, and the battle was joined, and continued from morning until evening. ¹⁷And Judas saw that Bacchides and the strength of his army were on the right side, and there went with him all that were brave in heart, ¹⁸and the right wing was discomfited by them, and he pursued after them unto the mount Asotus. ¹⁹And they that were on the left wing saw that the right wing was discomfited, and they turned and followed upon the footsteps of Judas and of those that were with him: ²⁰and the battle waxed sore, and many on both parts fell wounded to death. ²¹And Judas fell, and the rest fled. ²²And Jonathan and Simon took Judas their brother, and buried him in the sepulchre of his fathers at ²³Modin. ²⁴And they bewailed him, and ²⁵all Israel made great lamentation for him, and mourned many days, and said, ²⁶How is the mighty fallen, the saviour of Israel! ²⁷And the rest of the acts of Judas, and his wars, and the valiant deeds which he did, and his greatness, they are not written; for they were exceeding many. ²⁸And it came to pass after the death of Judas, that ²⁹the lawless put forth their heads in all the coasts of Israel, and all they that wrought iniquity rose up ³⁰(in those days was there an exceeding great famine), and the country went over with them. ³¹And Bacchides chose out ³²the ungodly men, and made them lords of the country. ³³And they sought out and searched for the friends of Judas, and brought them unto Bacchides, and he took vengeance on them, and used them despitefully. ³⁴And there was great tribulation in Israel, such as was not ³⁵since the time that no prophet appeared unto them. ³⁶And ³⁷all the friends of Judas were gathered together, and they said unto Jonathan, ³⁸Since thy brother Judas hath died, we have no man like him to go forth against our enemies and Bacchides, and among ³⁹them of our nation that hate us. ⁴⁰Now therefore we have chosen thee this day to be our prince and leader in his stead, that thou mayest fight our battles. ⁴¹And Jonathan took the governance upon him at that time, and ⁴²rose up in the stead of his brother Judas.

⁴³And Bacchides knew it, and he sought to slay him. ⁴⁴And ⁴⁵Jonathan, and Simon his brother, and all that were with him, knew it; and they fled into ⁴⁶the wilderness of Tekoah, and encamped by the water of the pool Asphar. ⁴⁷And Bacchides knew it ⁴⁸on the sabbath day, and came, he and all his army, over Jordan. ⁴⁹And Jonathan sent his brother, a leader of the multitude, and besought his friends ⁵⁰the Nabatheans, that they might leave with them their baggage, which was much. ⁵¹And the children of Jambri came out of ⁵²Medaba, and took John, and all that he had, and went their way with it.

⁵³But after these things they brought word to Jonathan and Simon his brother, that the children of Jambri were making a great marriage, and were bringing the bride from Nadabath with a great train, a daughter of one of the great nobles of ⁵⁴Canaan. ⁵⁵And they remembered John their brother, and went up, and hid themselves under the covert of the mountain: ⁵⁶and they lifted up their eyes, and saw, and behold, a great ado and much baggage: and the bridegroom came forth, and his friends and his brethren, to meet them with timbrels, and minstrels, and many weapons. ⁵⁷And they rose up against them ⁵⁸from their ambush, and slew them, and many fell wounded to death, and the remnant fell into the mountain, and they took all their spoils. ⁵⁹And the marriage was turned into mourning, and the voice of their minstrels into lamentation. ⁶⁰And they avenged fully the blood of their brother, and turned back to ⁶¹the marsh of Jordan.

⁶²And Bacchides heard it, and he came ⁶³on the sabbath day unto the banks of Jordan with a great host. ⁶⁴And Jonathan said to his company, ⁶⁵Let us stand up now and fight for our lives, for it is not ⁶⁶with us to-day, as yesterday and the day before. ⁶⁷For, behold, the battle is before us and behind us; moreover the water of the Jordan is on this side and on that side, and marsh and wood; and there is no place to turn aside. 45 Now therefore cry unto heaven, that ye may be delivered out of the hand of your enemies.

47 And the battle was joined, and Jonathan stretched forth his hand to smite Bacchides, and he turned away back from him. 48 And Jonathan and they that were with him leapt into the Jordan, and swam over to the other side: and they did not pass over Jordan against them. 49 And there fell of Bacchides' company that day about a thousand men; 50 and he returned to Jerusalem. And they builded strong cities in Judaea, the stronghold that was in Jericho, and Emmaus, and Bethhoron, and Bethel, and Timnath, Pharathon, and Tephon, with high walls and gates and bars. 51 And in them he set a garrison, to vex Israel.
52 And he fortified the city Bethsura, and Gazara, and the citadel, and put forces in them, and store of victuals.
53 And he took the sons of the chief men of the country for hostages, and put them in ward in the citadel at Jerusalem.

54 And in the hundred and fifty and third year, in the second month, Alci-mus commanded to pull down the wall of the inner court of the sanctuary; he pulled down also the works of the prophets; 55 and he began to pull down. At that time was Alcimus stricken, and his works were hindered; and his mouth was stopped, and he was taken with a palsy, and he could no more speak anything and give order concerning his house. 56 And Alcimus died at that time with great torment.
57 And Bacchides saw that Alcimus was dead, and he returned to the king:
and the land of Judah had rest two years.

58 And all the lawless men took counsel, saying, Behold, Jonathan and they of his part are dwelling at ease, and in security: now therefore we will bring Bacchides, and he shall lay hands on them all in one night. 59 And they went and consulted with him. 60 And he removed, and came with a great host, and sent letters privily to all his confederates that were in Judaea, that they should lay hands on Jonathan and those that were with him: and they could not, because their counsel was known unto them. 61 And they that were of Jonathan's part laid hands on about fifty of the men of the country, that were authors of the wickedness, and he slew them. 62 And Jonathan, and Simon, and they that were with him, gat them away to Bethbasi, which is in the wilderness, and he built up that which had been pulled down thereof, and they made it strong. 63 And Bacchides knew it, and he gathered together all his multitude, and sent word to them that were of Judaea. 64 And he went and encamped against Bethbasi, and fought against it many days, and made engines of war. 65 And Jonathan left his brother Simon in the city, and went forth into the country, and he went with a few men. 66 And he smote Odamera and his brethren, and the children of Phasiron in their tent. 67 And they began to smite them, and to go up with their forces. And Simon and they that were with him went out of the city, and set on fire the engines of war, 68 and fought against Bacchides, and he was discomfited by them, and they afflicted him sore; for his counsel was in vain, and his inroad. 69 And they were very wroth with the lawless men that gave him counsel to come into the country, and they slew many of them. And he took counsel to depart into his own land. 70 And Jonathan had knowledge thereof, and sent ambassadors unto him, to the end that they should make peace with him, and that he should restore unto them the captives. 71 And he accepted the thing, and did according to his words, and swore unto him that he would not seek his hurt all the days of his life. 72 And he restored unto him the captives which he had taken aforetime out of the land of Judah, and he returned and departed into his own land, and came not any more into their borders. 73 And the sword ceased from Israel. And Jonathan dwelt at Mich-mash; and Jonathan began to judge the people; and he destroyed the ungodly out of Israel.

IO And in the hundred and sixtieth year Alexander Epiphanes, the son of Antiochus, went up and took possession of Ptolemais: and they received him, and he reigned there.
And Ptolemy Demetrius heard thereof, and he gathered together exceeding great forces, and went forth to meet him in battle.

3 And Demetrius sent letters unto Jonathan with words of peace, so as to magnify him. 4 For he said, Let us be beforehand to make peace with them, ere he make peace with Alexander against us: 5 for he will remember all the evils that we have done against him, and unto his brethren and unto his nation. 6 And he gave him authority to gather together forces, and to provide arms, and that he should be his confederate: and he commanded that they should deliver up to him the hostages that were in the citadel.

7 And Jonathan came to Jerusalem, and read the letters in the audience of all the people, and of them that were in the citadel: ⁸and they were sore afraid, when they heard that the king had given him authority to gather together a host. ⁹And they of the citadel delivered up the hostages unto Jonathan, and he restored them unto their parents. ¹⁰And Jonathan dwelt in Jerusalem, and began to build and renew the city. ¹¹And he commanded them that did the work ¹²to build the walls and the mount Sion round about with square stones for defence; and they did so. ¹³And the strangers, that were in the strongholds which Bacchides had built, fled away; ¹⁴and each man left his place, and departed into his own land. ¹⁵Only at Bethsura were there left certain of those ¹⁶that had forsaken the law and the commandments; for it was a place of refuge unto them.

¹⁷And king Alexander heard all the promises which Demetrius had sent unto Jonathan: and they told him of the battles and the valiant deeds which he and his brethren had done, and of the toils which they had endured; ¹⁸and he said, Shall we find such another man? and now we will make him our Friend and confederate. ¹⁹And he wrote letters, and sent them unto him, according to these words, saying,

²⁰King Alexander to his brother Jonathan, greeting: ²¹We have heard of thee, that thou art a mighty man of valour, and meet to be our Friend. ²²And now we have appointed thee this day to be high priest of thy nation, and to be called the king's Friend (and he sent unto him a purple robe and a crown of gold), and to take our part, and to keep friendship with us.

²³And Jonathan put on the holy garments in the seventh month of the hundred and sixtieth year, at the feast of tabernacles, and he gathered together forces, and provided arms in abundance.

²⁴And Demetrius heard these things, and he was grieved, and said, ²⁵What is this that we have done, that Alexander hath been beforehand with us in establishing friendship with the Jews, to strengthen himself? ²⁶I also will write unto them words of encouragement and of honour and of gifts, that they may be with me to aid me. ²⁷And he sent unto them according to these words:

King Demetrius unto the nation of the Jews, greeting: ²⁸Forasmuch as ye have kept your covenants with us, and continued in our friendship, and have not joined yourselves to our enemies, we have heard hereof, and are glad. ²⁹And now continue ye still to keep faith with us, and we will recompense unto you good things in return for your dealings with us, ³⁰and I will grant you many immunities, and give you gifts. ³¹And now do I free you, and release all the Jews, from the tributes, ³²and from the customs of salt, and ³³from the crowns. ³⁴And instead of the third part of the seed, and instead of the half of the fruit of the trees, which falleth to me to receive, I release it from this day and henceforth, so that I will not take it from the land of Judah, and from the three governments which are added thereto from the country of Samaria and Galilee, from this day forth and for all time. ³⁵And let Jerusalem be holy and free, and her borders; ³⁶the tenths and the tolls also. ³⁷I yield up also my authority over the citadel which is at Jerusalem, and give it to the high priest, that he may appoint in it such men as he shall choose to keep it. ³⁸And every soul of the Jews, that hath been carried captive from the land of Judah into any part of my kingdom, I set at liberty without price; and let all remit the tributes of their cattle also. ³⁹And all the feasts, and the sabbaths, and new moons, and appointed days, and three days before a feast, and three days after a feast, let them all be days of immunity and release for all the Jews that are in my kingdom. ⁴⁰And no man shall have authority to exact from any of them, or to trouble them concerning any matter. ⁴¹And let there be enrolled among the king's forces about thirty thousand men of the Jews, and pay shall be given unto them, as belongeth to all the king's forces. ⁴²And of them some shall be placed in the king's great strongholds, and some of them shall be placed over the affairs of the kingdom, which are of trust: and let those that are over them, and their rulers, be of themselves, and let them walk after their own laws, even as the king hath commanded in the land of Judah. ⁴³And the three governments that have been added to Judaea from the country of Samaria, let them be added to Judaea, that they may be reckoned to be under one, that they may not obey other authority than the high priest's. ⁴⁴As for Ptolemais, and the land pertaining thereto, I have given it as a gift to the sanctuary that is at Jerusalem, for the expenses that befit the sanctuary. ⁴⁵And I give every year fifteen thousand shekels of silver from the king's revenues from the places that are convenient. ⁴⁶And all the overplus, which they that manage the king's affairs paid not in as in the first years, they shall give from henceforth toward the works of the house. ⁴⁷And beside this, the five thousand shekels of silver, which they received from the uses of the sanctuary from the revenue year by year, this also is released, because it appertaineth to the priests that minister. ⁴⁸And whosoever shall flee unto the temple that is at Jerusalem, and be found within all the borders thereof, whether one owe moneys to the king, or any other matter, let them go free, and all that they have in my kingdom. 44 And for the building and renewing of the works of the sanctuary the expense shall be given also out of the king's revenue. 45 And for the building of the walls of Jerusalem, and the fortifying thereof round about, shall the expense be given also out of the king's revenue, and for the building of the walls in Judaea.

46 Now when Jonathan and the people heard these words, they gave no credence unto them, nor received them, because they remembered the great evil which he had done in Israel, and that he had afflicted them very sore. 47 And they were well pleased with Alexander, because he was the first that spake words of peace unto them, and they were confederate with him always. 48 And king Alexander gathered together great forces, and encamped over against Demetrius. 49 And the two kings joined battle, and the army of Alexander fled; and Demetrius followed after him, and prevailed against them. 50 And he strengthened the battle exceedingly until the sun went down: and Demetrius fell that day.

51 And Alexander sent ambassadors to Ptolemy king of Egypt according to these words, saying, 52 Forasmuch as I am returned to my kingdom, and am set on the throne of my fathers, and have gotten the dominion, and have overthrown Demetrius, and have gotten possession of our country; 53 yea, I joined battle with him, and he and his army were discomfited by us, and we sat upon the throne of his kingdom: 54 now also let us establish amity one with the other, and give me now thy daughter to wife: and I will make affinity with thee, and will give both thee and her gifts worthy of thee. 55 And Ptolemy the king answered, saying, Happy is the day wherein thou didst return into the land of thy fathers, and didst sit on the throne of thy kingdom. 56 And now will I do to thee, as thou hast written: but meet me at Ptolemais, that we may see one another; and I will make affinity with thee, even as thou hast said. 57 And Ptolemy went out of Egypt, himself and Cleopatra his daughter, and came unto Ptolemais in the hundred and threescore and second year: 58 and king Alexander met him, and he bestowed on him his daughter Cleopatra, and celebrated her marriage at Ptolemais with great pomp, as the manner of kings is.

59 And king Alexander wrote unto Jonathan, that he should come to meet him. 60 And he went with pomp to Ptolemais, and met the two kings, and gave them and their friends silver and gold, and many gifts, and found favour in their sight. 61 And there were gathered together against him certain pestilent fellows out of Israel, men that were transgressors of the law, to complain against him: and the king gave no heed to them. 62 And the king commanded, and they took off Jonathan's garments, and clothed him in purple: and thus they did. 63 And the king made him sit with him, and said unto his princes, Go forth with him into the midst of the city, and make proclamation, that no man complain against him of any matter, and let no man trouble him for any manner of cause. 64 And it came to pass, when they that complained against him saw his glory according as the herald made proclamation, and saw him clothed in purple, they all fled away. 65 And the king gave him honour, and wrote him among his chief friends, and made him a captain, and governor of a province. 66 And Jonathan returned to Jerusalem with peace and gladness.

67 And in the hundred and threescore and fifth year came Demetrius, son of Demetrius, out of Crete into the land of his fathers: 68 and king Alexander heard thereof, and he was grieved exceedingly, and returned unto Antioch. 69 And Demetrius appointed Apollonius, who was over Coele Syria, and he gathered together a great host, and encamped in Jamnia, and sent unto Jonathan the high priest, saying,

70 Thou alone liftest up thyself against us, but I am had in derision and in reproach because of thee. And why dost thou vaunt thy power against us in the mountains? 71 Now therefore, if thou trustest in thy forces, come down to us into the plain, and there let us try the matter together: for with me is the power of the cities. 72 Ask and learn who I am, and the rest that help us; and they say, Your foot cannot stand before our face; for thy fathers have been twice put to flight in their own land. 73 And now thou shalt not be able to abide the horse and such a host as this in the plain, where is neither stone nor flint, nor place to flee unto.

74 Now when Jonathan heard the words of Apollonius, he was moved in his mind, and he chose out ten thousand men, and went forth from Jerusalem, and Simon his brother met him for to help him. 75 And he encamped against Joppa: and they of the city shut him out, because Apollonius had a garrison in Joppa: 76 and they fought against it. And they of the city were afraid, and opened unto him: and Jonathan became master of Joppa. 77 And Apollonius heard, and he gathered an army of three thousand horse, and a great host, and went to ^aAzotus as though he were on a journey, and therewithal drew onward into the plain, because he had a multitude of horse, and trusted therein. ⁷⁶ And he pursued after him to ^aAzotus, and the armies joined battle¹. ⁷⁷ And Apollonius had left a thousand horse behind them privily. ⁷⁸ And Jonathan knew that there was an ambushment behind him. And they compassed round his army, and cast their darts at the people, from morning until evening: ⁷⁹ but the people stood still, as Jonathan commanded them: and their horses were wearied. ⁸⁰ And Simon drew forth his host, and joined battle with ^athe phalanx (for the horsemen were spent), and they were discomfited by him, and fled. ⁸¹ And the horsemen were scattered in the plain, and they fled to ^aAzotus, and entered into ^aBeth-dagon, their idol's temple, to save themselves. ⁸² And Jonathan burned Azotus, and the cities round about it, and took their spoils; and the temple of ^aDagon, and them that fled into it, ⁸³ he burned with fire. ⁸⁴ And they that had fallen by the sword, with them that were burned, were about eight thousand men. ⁸⁵ And from thence Jonathan removed, and encamped against ^aAscalon, and they of the city came forth to meet him with great pomp. ⁸⁶ And Jonathan, with them that were on his side, returned unto Jerusalem, having many spoils. ⁸⁷ And it came to pass, when king Alexander heard these things, he honoured Jonathan yet more; ⁸⁸ and he sent unto him ^aa buckle of gold, as the use is to give to such as are of the kindred of the kings: and he gave him ^aEkron and all the coasts thereof for a possession.

^aJoppa, and they saluted one another, and they slept there. ⁷ And Jonathan went with the king as far as the river that is called ^aEleutherus, and returned to Jerusalem. ⁸ But ^aking Ptolemy became master of the cities upon the sea coast, unto ^aSeleucia which is by the sea, and he devised evil devices concerning Alexander. ⁹ And he sent ambassadors unto king ^aDemetrius, saying, Come, let us make a covenant with one another, and I will give thee my daughter ^awhom Alexander hath, and thou shalt reign over thy father's kingdom; ¹⁰ for I have repented that I gave my daughter unto him, for he sought to slay me. ¹¹ And he cast blame on him, because he coveted his kingdom. ¹² And taking his daughter from him, he gave her to Demetrius, and was estranged from Alexander, and their enmity was openly seen. ¹³ And Ptolemy entered into ^aAntioch, and put on himself the diadem of ^aAsia; and he put two diadems upon his head, the diadem of Egypt and that of Asia. ¹⁴ But king Alexander was in ^aCilicia at that season, because they of those parts were in revolt. ¹⁵ And Alexander heard of it, and he came against him in war: and Ptolemy led forth his host, and met him with a strong force, and put him to flight. ¹⁶ And Alexander fled into Arabia, that he might be sheltered there; but king Ptolemy was exalted. ¹⁷ And ^aZabdiel the Arabian took off Alexander's head, and sent it to Ptolemy. ¹⁸ And king Ptolemy died the third day after, and they that were in his strongholds were slain by them that were in the strongholds. ¹⁹ And Demetrius reigned in ^athe hundred and threescore and seventh year.

²⁰ In those days ^aJonathan gathered together them of Judaea, to take ^athe citadel that was at Jerusalem: and he made many engines of war against it. ²¹ And certain that hated their own nation, ^amen that transgressed the law, went unto the king, and reported to him that Jonathan was besieging the citadel. ²² And he heard, and was angered; but when he heard it, he set forth immediately, and came to ^aPtolemais, and wrote unto Jonathan, that he should not besiege it, and that he should meet him and speak with him at ^aPtolemais with all speed. ²³ But when Jonathan heard this, he commanded to besiege it still: and he chose certain of the elders of Israel and of the priests, and put himself in peril, ²⁴ and ^ataking silver and gold and raiment and divers presents besides, went to ^aPtolemais unto the king. And he found favour in his sight. ²⁵ And ^acertain lawless men of them that were of the nation made complaints against him, ²⁶ and the king did unto him even as his predecessors had done unto him, and exalted him in the sight of all his friends, and confirmed to him the high priesthood, and all the other honours that he had before, and gave him preeminence among his friends. And Jonathan requested of the king, that he would make Judaea free from tribute, and the three provinces, and the country of Samaria; and promised him three hundred talents. And the king consented, and wrote letters unto Jonathan concerning all these things after this manner:

King Demetrius unto his brother Jonathan, and unto the nation of the Jews, greeting: The copy of the letter which we wrote unto Lathenes our kinsman concerning you, we have written also unto you, that ye may see it. King Demetrius unto Lathenes his father, greeting: We have determined to do good to the nation of the Jews, who are our friends, and observe what is just toward us, because of their good will toward us. We have confirmed therefore unto them the borders of Judaea, and also the three governments of Apharera and Lydda and Ramathaim (these were added unto Judaea from the country of Samaria), and all things appertaining unto them, for all such as do sacrifice in Jerusalem, instead of the king's dues which the king received of them yearly aforetime from the produce of the earth and the fruits of trees. And as for the other things that pertain unto us from henceforth, of the tenths and the tolls that pertain unto us, and the salt pits, and the crowns that pertain unto us, all these we will bestow upon them. And not one of these things shall be annulled from this time forth and for ever. Now therefore be careful to make a copy of these things, and let it be given unto Jonathan, and let it be set up on the holy mount in a meet and conspicuous place.

And king Demetrius saw that the land was quiet before him, and that no resistance was made to him, and he sent away all his forces, each man to his own place, except the foreign forces, which he had raised from the isles of the Gentiles: and all the forces of his fathers hated him. Now Tryphon was of those who aforetime had been of Alexander's part, and he saw that all the forces murmured against Demetrius, and he went to Imalcus the Arabian, who was nourishing up Antiochus the young child of Alexander, and pressed sore upon him that he should deliver him unto him, that he might reign in his father's stead: and he told him all that Demetrius had done, and the hatred wherewith his forces hated him; and he abode there many days.

And Jonathan sent unto king De-

metrius, that he should cast out of Jerusalem them of the citadel, and them that were in the strongholds; for they fought against Israel continually. And Demetrius sent unto Jonathan, saying, I will not only do this for thee and thy nation, but I will greatly honour thee and thy nation, if I find fair occasion. Now therefore thou shalt do well, if thou send me men who shall fight for me; for all my forces are revolted. And Jonathan sent him three thousand valiant men unto Antioch: and they came to the king, and the king was glad at their coming. And they of the city gathered themselves together into the midst of the city, to the number of a hundred and twenty thousand men, and they were minded to slay the king. And the king fled into the court of the palace, and they of the city seized the passages of the city, and began to fight. And the king called the Jews to help him, and they were gathered together unto him all at once, and they dispersed themselves in the city, and slew that day to the number of a hundred thousand. And they set the city on fire, and gat many spoils that day, and saved the king. And they of the city saw that the Jews had made themselves masters of the city as they would, and they waxed faint in their hearts, and they cried out to the king with supplication, saying, Give us thy right hand, and let the Jews cease from fighting against us and the city. And they cast away their arms, and made peace; and the Jews were glorified in the sight of the king, and before all that were in his kingdom; and they returned to Jerusalem, having many spoils. And king Demetrius sat on the throne of his kingdom, and the land was quiet before him. And he lied in all that he spake, and estranged himself from Jonathan, and recompensed him not according to the benefits with which he had recompensed him, and afflicted him exceedingly.

Now after this Tryphon returned, and with him the young child Antiochus; and he reigned, and put on a diadem. And there were gathered unto him all the forces which Demetrius had sent away with disgrace, and they fought against him, and he fled and was put to the rout. And Tryphon took the elephants, and became master of Antioch. And the young Antiochus wrote unto Jonathan, saying, I confirm unto thee the high priesthood, and appoint thee over the four governments, and to be one of the king's friends. And he sent unto him golden vessels and furniture for the table, and gave him leave to drink in golden vessels, and ^ato be clothed in purple, and to have ^aa golden buckle. ⁵⁹And his brother ^aSimon he made captain from the Ladder of ^aTyre unto the borders of Egypt. ⁶⁰And Jonathan went forth, and took his journey beyond the river and through the cities; and all the forces of Syria gathered themselves unto him for to be his confederates. And he came to ^aAscalon, and they of the city met him honourably. ⁶¹And he departed thence to ^aGaza, and they of Gaza shut him out; and he laid siege unto it, and burned the suburbs thereof with fire, and spoiled them. ⁶²And they of ^aGaza made request unto Jonathan, and he ^bgave them his right hand, and took the sons of their princes for hostages, and sent them away to Jerusalem; and he passed through the country as far as ^aDamascus.

⁶³And ^aJonathan heard that Demetrius' princes were come to ^aKedesh, which is in Galilee, with a great host, purposing to remove him from his office; ⁶⁴and he went to meet them, but Simon his brother he left in the country. ⁶⁵And Simon encamped against ^aBethsura, and fought against it many days, and shut it up; ⁶⁶and they made request to him that he would ^bgive them his right hand, and he gave it to them; and he put them out from thence, and ^ctook possession of the city, and set a garrison over it. ⁶⁷And Jonathan and his army encamped at the water of ^aGennesareth, and early in the morning they gat them to the plain of ^aHazor. ⁶⁸And, behold, an army of ^astrangers met him in the plain, and ^bthey laid an ambush for him in the mountains, but themselves met him face to face. ⁶⁹But they that lay in ambush rose out of their places, and joined battle; and all they that were of Jonathan's side fled: ⁷⁰not one of them was left, except Mattathias the son of ^aAbesalom, and Judas the son of Chalphi, captains of the forces. ⁷¹And Jonathan ^arent his clothes, and ^aput earth upon his head, and prayed. ⁷²And he turned again unto them in battle, and put them to the rout, and they fled. ⁷³And they of his side that fled saw it, and returned unto him, and pursued with him unto ^aKedesh unto their camp, and they encamped there. ⁷⁴And there fell of ^athe strangers on that day about three thousand men: and Jonathan returned to Jerusalem.

12 ^aAnd Jonathan saw that the time served him, and ^ahe chose men, and sent them to Rome, to confirm and renew ^athe friendship that they had with them. ^aAnd to the ^aSpartans, and to other places, he sent letters after the same manner. ³And they went unto Rome, and entered into ^athe senate house, and said, Jonathan the high priest, and the nation of the Jews, have sent us, to renew for them the friendship and the confederacy, ^aas in former time. ⁴And they gave them letters unto the men in every place, that they should bring them on their way to the land of Judah in peace. ⁵And this is the copy of the letters which Jonathan wrote to the Spartans:

⁶Jonathan the high priest, and ^athe senate of the nation, and the priests, and the rest of the people of the Jews, unto ^atheir brethren the Spartans, greeting: ⁷Even before this time were letters sent unto ^aOnias the high priest from ^aArius, who was reigning among you, to signify that ye are ^aour brethren, as the copy ^ahere underwritten sheweth. ⁸And ^aOnias entreated honourably the man that was sent, and received the letters, wherein declaration was made of confederacy and friendship. ⁹Therefore we also, albeit we need none of these things, having ^afor our encouragement the holy books which are in our hands, ¹⁰have assayed to send that we might renew our brotherhood and friendship with you, to the end that we should not become estranged from you altogether: for long time is passed since ye sent unto us. ¹¹We therefore at all times ^awithout ceasing, both in our feasts, and on the other convenient days, do remember you in the sacrifices which we offer, and in our prayers, as it is right and meet to be mindful of brethren: ¹²and moreover are glad for your glory. ¹³But as for ourselves, many afflictions and many wars have encompassed us, and the kings that are round about us have fought against us. ¹⁴We were not minded therefore to be troublesome unto you, and to the rest of our confederates and friends, in these wars: ¹⁵for ^awe have the help which is from heaven to help us, and we have been delivered from our enemies, and our enemies have been brought low. ¹⁶We chose therefore ^aNumenius the son of Antiochus, and Antipater the son of Jason, and have sent them unto the Romans, to renew the friendship that we had with them, and the former confederacy. ¹⁷We commanded them therefore to go also unto you, and to salute you, and to deliver you our letters concerning the renewing of friendship and our brotherhood. ¹⁸And now ye shall do well if ye give us an answer thereto. ¹⁹And this is the copy of the letters which they sent to ^aOnias:

²⁰Arising king of the ^aSpartans to Onias the chief priest, greeting: ²¹It hath been found in writing, concerning the ^aSpartans and the Jews, that they are ^abrethren, and that they are of the stock of Abraham: ²²and now, since this is come to our knowledge, ye shall do well to write unto us of your ¹prosperity. ²³ And we moreover do write on our part to you, ²⁴ that your cattle and goods are ours, and ours are yours. We do command therefore that they make report unto you on this wise.

²⁵ And Jonathan heard that Demetrius' princes were returned to fight against him ²⁶ with a greater host than afore, ²⁷ and he removed from Jerusalem, and met them in the country of ²⁸ Hamath; for he gave them no respite to set foot in his country. ²⁹ And he sent spies into his camp, and they came again, and reported to him that they were appointed in such and such a way to fall upon them in the night season. ³⁰ But so soon as the sun was down, Jonathan commanded his men to watch, and to be in arms, that all the night long they might be ready for battle: and he put forth sentinels round about the camp. ³¹ And the adversaries heard that Jonathan and his men were ready for battle, and they feared, and trembled in their hearts, and they kindled fires in their camp. ³² But Jonathan and his men knew it not till the morning; for they saw the lights burning. ³³ And Jonathan pursued after them, and overtook them not; for they were gone over ³⁴ the river Eleutherus. ³⁵ And Jonathan turned aside to the Arabians, who are called Zabadeans, and smote them, and took their spoils. ³⁶ And he set out from thence, and came to ³⁷ Damascus, and took his journey through all the country. ³⁸ And ³⁹ Simon went forth, and took his journey as far as ⁴⁰ Ascalon, and the strongholds that were near unto it. And he turned aside to ⁴¹ Joppa, and took possession of it; ⁴² for he had heard that they were minded to deliver the stronghold unto the ⁴³ men of Demetrius; and he set a garrison there to keep it.

⁴⁴ And Jonathan returned, and called the elders of the people together; and he took counsel with them to build ⁴⁵ strongholds in Judaea, ⁴⁶ and to ⁴⁷ make the walls of Jerusalem higher, and to raise a great mound between the citadel and the city, for to separate it from the city, that so it might be all alone, ⁴⁸ that men might neither buy nor sell. ⁴⁹ And they were gathered together to build the city, and there fell down part of the wall of the brook that is on the east side, and he repaired that which is called Chaphenatha. ⁵⁰ And Simon also built ⁵¹ Adda in the ⁵² plain country, and made it strong, ⁵³ and set up gates and bars.

⁵⁴ And ⁵⁵ Tryphon sought to reign over ⁵⁶ Asia and to put on himself the diadem, and ⁵⁷ to stretch forth his hand against Antiochus the king. ⁵⁸ And he was afraid lest haply Jonathan should not suffer him, and lest he should fight against him; and he sought a way how to take him, that he might destroy him. And he removed, and came to ⁵⁹ Bethshan. ⁶⁰ And Jonathan came forth to meet him with forty thousand men chosen for battle, and came to ⁶¹ Bethshan. ⁶² And ⁶³ Tryphon saw that he came with a great host, and he was afraid to stretch forth his hand against him: ⁶⁴ and he received him honourably, and commanded him unto all his ⁶⁵ Friends, and gave him gifts, and commanded his forces to be obedient unto him, as unto himself. ⁶⁶ And he said unto Jonathan, Why hast thou put all this people to trouble, seeing there is no war betwixt us? ⁶⁷ And now send them away to their homes, but choose for thyself a few men who shall be with thee, and come thou with me to ⁶⁸ Ptolemais, and I will give it up to thee, and the rest of the strongholds and the rest of the forces, and all the king's officers: and I will return and depart; for this is the cause of my coming. ⁶⁹ And he put trust in him, and did even as he said, and sent away his forces, and they departed into the land of Judah. ⁷⁰ But he reserved to himself three thousand men, of whom he left two thousand in Galilee, but one thousand went with him. ⁷¹ Now as soon as Jonathan entered into ⁷² Ptolemais, they of Ptolemais shut the gates, and laid hands on him; and all them that came in with him they slew with the sword. ⁷³ And ⁷⁴ Tryphon sent forces and horsemen into Galilee, and into ⁷⁵ the great plain, to destroy all Jonathan's men. ⁷⁶ And they perceived that ⁷⁷ he was taken and had perished, and they that were with him; and they encouraged one another, and went on their way close together, prepared to fight. ⁷⁸ And they that followed upon them saw that they were ready to fight for their lives, and turned back again. ⁷⁹ And they all came in peace into the land of Judah, and ⁸⁰ they mourned for Jonathan, and them that were with him, and they were sore afraid; and all Israel mourned with a great mourning. ⁸¹ And all the Gentiles that were round about them sought to destroy them utterly: for they said, They have no ruler, nor any to help them: now therefore let us fight against them, and ⁸² take away their memorial from among men.

I3 ⁸³ And ⁸⁴ Simon heard that ⁸⁵ Tryphon had gathered together a mighty host to come into the land of Judah, and ⁸⁶ destroy it utterly. ⁸⁷ And he saw that the people trembled and was in great fear; and he went up to Jerusalem, and gathered the people together; ⁸⁸ and he encouraged them, and said unto them, Ye yourselves know all the things that I, and my brethren, and my father's house, have done for the laws and the sanctuary, and the battles and the distresses which we have seen: 4 by reason hereof / all my brethren have perished for Israel's sake, and I am left alone. 5 And now be it far from me, that I should spare mine own life in any time of affliction; 6 for I am not better than my brethren. 6 Howbeit I will take vengeance for my nation, and for the sanctuary, and for our wives and children; because 7 all the Gentiles are gathered to destroy us of very hatred. 7 And the spirit of the people revived, as soon as they heard these words. 8 And they answered with a loud voice, saying, Thou art our leader instead of Judas and Jonathan thy brother. 9 Fight thou our battles, and all that thou shalt say unto us, that will we do. 10 And he gathered together all the men of war, and made haste 11 to finish the walls of Jerusalem, and he fortified it round about. 12 And he sent Jonathan the son of 13 Absalom, and with him a great host, to 14 Joppa: and he cast out them that were therein, and abode there in it.

15 And 16 Tryphon removed from 17 Ptolemais with a mighty host to enter into the land of Judah, and Jonathan was with him in ward. 18 But Simon encamped at Adida, 19 over against the plain. 20 And 21 Tryphon knew that Simon was risen up instead of his brother Jonathan, and meant to join battle with him, and he sent ambassadors unto him, saying, 22 It is for money which Jonathan thy brother owed unto the king's treasure, by reason of the offices which he had, that we hold him fast. 23 And now send a hundred talents of silver, and two of his sons for hostages, that when he is set at liberty he may not revolt from us, and we will set him at liberty. 27 And Simon knew that they spake unto him deceitfully; and he sendeth the money and the children, lest peradventure he should procure to himself great hatred of the people, 28 and they should say, Because I sent him not the money and the children, he perished. 29 And he sent the children and the hundred talents. And he dealt falsely, and did not set Jonathan at liberty. 30 And after this Tryphon came to invade the land, and destroy it, and he went round about by the way that leadeth unto 31 Adora: and Simon and his army marched over against him to every place, wheresoever he went. 32 Now 33 they of the citadel sent unto Tryphon ambassadors, hastening him to come unto them through the wilderness, and to send them victuals. 34 And Tryphon made ready all his horse to come: and on that night there fell a very great snow, and he came not by reason of the snow. And he removed, and came into the country of 35 Gilead. 36 But when he came near to Bascama, he slew Jonathan, and he was buried there. 37 And Tryphon returned, and went away into his own land.

38 And Simon sent, and took the bones of Jonathan his brother, and buried him at 39 Modin, the city of his fathers. 40 And all Israel made great lamentation over him, and mourned for him many days. 41 And Simon built a monument upon the sepulchre of his father and his brethren, and raised it aloft to the sight, with polished stone behind and before. 42 And he set up seven pyramids, one over against another, for his father, and his mother, and his four brethren. 43 And for these he made cunning devices, setting about them great pillars, and upon the pillars he fashioned 44 all manner of arms for a perpetual memory, and beside the 45 arms ships carved, that they should be seen of 46 all that sail on the sea. 47 This is the sepulchre which he made at 48 Modin, and it is there unto this day.

49 Now Tryphon 50 dealt deceitfully with the young king Antiochus, and slew him, 51 and reigned in his stead, and put on himself the diadem of 52 Asia, and brought a great calamity upon the land. 33 And Simon 34 built the strongholds of Judaea, and fenced them about with high towers, and great walls, and gates, and bars; 35 and he laid up victuals in the strongholds. 34 And Simon chose men, and sent to king Demetrius, to the end he should give the country an immunity, 35 because all that Tryphon did was to plunder. 35 And king Demetrius sent unto him according to these words, and answered him, and wrote a letter unto him, after this manner:

36 King Demetrius unto Simon 37 the high priest and 38 Friend of kings, and unto the elders and nation of the Jews, greeting: 37 38 The golden crown, and the palm branch, which ye sent, we have received: and we are ready to make a 39 steadfast peace with you, yea, and to write unto our officers, 40 to grant immunities unto you. 39 And / whatsoever things we confirmed unto you, they are confirmed; and 41 the strongholds, which ye have builded, let them be your own. 39 As for any oversights and faults committed unto this day, we forgive them, and 42 the crown which ye owed us: and if there were any other toll exacted in Jerusalem, let it be exacted no longer. 40 41 And if there be any among you meet to be enrolled in our court, let them be enrolled, and let there be peace betwixt us.

42 In 43 the hundred and seventieth year was the yoke of the heathen taken away from Israel. 44 And the people 45 began to write in their instruments and contracts, 46 In the first year of Simon 47 the great high priest and captain and leader of the Jews.

43 In those days he encamped against ¹Gazara, and compassed it round about with armies; and he made an engine of siege, and brought it up to the city, and smote a tower, and took it. 44 And they that were in the engine leaped forth into the city; and there was a great uproar in the city: 45 and they of the city rent their clothes, and went up on the walls with their wives and children, and cried with a loud voice, making request to Simon to give them ²his right hand. 46 And they said, Deal not with us according to our wickednesses, but according to thy mercy. 47 And Simon was reconciled unto them, and did not fight against them: and he put them out of the city, and cleansed the houses wherein ³the idols were, and so entered into it with singing and giving praise. 48 And he put all uncleanness out of it, and placed in it such men as would keep the law, and made it stronger than it was before, and built therein ⁴a dwelling place for himself.

49 But ⁵they of the citadel in Jerusalem were hindered from going forth, and from going into the country, and from buying and selling; and they hungered exceedingly, and a great number of them perished through famine. 50 And they cried out to Simon, that he should give them his right hand; and he gave it to them: and he put them out from thence, and he cleansed the citadel from its pollutions. 51 And he entered into it on the three and twentieth day of the second month, in ⁶the hundred and seventy and first year, with praise and palm branches, and with harpe, and with cymbals, and with viols, and with hymns, and with songs: ⁷because a great enemy was destroyed out of Israel. 52 And he ordained that they should keep that day every year with gladness. 53 And the hill of the temple that was by the citadel he made stronger than before, and there he dwelt, himself and his men. 54 And Simon saw that ⁸John his son was a valiant man, and he made him leader of all his forces: and he dwelt in ⁹Gazara.

14 And in ¹⁰the hundred and seventy and second year ¹¹king Demetrius gathered his forces together, and went into ¹²Media, to get him help, that he might fight against Tryphon. 15 And ¹³Arasaces, the king of Persia and Media, heard that Demetrius was come into his borders, and he sent one of his princes to take him alive: 16 and he went and smote the army of Demetrius, and took him, and brought him to ¹⁴Arasaces; and he put him in ward.

17 And the land ¹⁵had rest all the days of Simon: and he sought the good of his nation; and his authority and his glory was well-pleasing to them all his days. 18 And amid all his glory he took ¹⁶Joppa for a haven, and made it an entrance for the isles of the sea; 19 and he enlarged the borders of his nation, and gat possession of the country; 20 and he gathered together a great number of captives, and gat the dominion of ¹⁷Gazara, and ¹⁸Bethsura, and the citadel, and ¹⁹he took away from it its uncleanness; and there was none that resisted him. 21 And they tilled their land in peace, and ²⁰the land gave her increase, and the trees of the plains their fruit. 22 The ancient men sat in the streets, they communed all of them together of good things, and the young men put on glorious and warlike apparel. 23 He provided victuals for the cities, and furnished them with ²¹all manner of munition, until the name of his glory was named ²²unto the end of the earth. 24 He made peace in the land, and Israel rejoiced with great joy: 25 and ²³they sat each man under his vine and his fig tree, and there was none to make them afraid: 26 and there ceased in the land any that fought against them: and the kings were discomfited in those days. 27 And he strengthened all those of his people that were brought low: the law he searched out, and every lawless and wicked person he took away. 28 He glorified the sanctuary, and the vessels of the temple he multiplied.

29 And it was heard at ²⁴Rome that Jonathan was dead, and even unto ²⁵Sparta, and they were exceeding sorry. 30 But as soon as they heard that his brother Simon was made ²⁶high priest in his stead, and ruled the country, and the cities therein, 31 they wrote unto him ²⁷on tables of brass, to renew with him the friendship and the confederacy which they had confirmed with ²⁸Judas and ²⁹Jonathan his brethren; 32 and they were read before the congregation at Jerusalem. 33 And this is the copy of the letters which the Spartans sent:

The rulers of the Spartans, and the city, unto Simon ³⁰the high priest, and unto the elders, and the priests, and the residue of the people of the Jews, your brethren, greeting: 34 The ambassadors that were sent unto our people made report to us of your glory and honour: and we were glad for their coming, 35 and we did register the things that were spoken by them in the ³¹public records after this manner: ³²Numenius son of Antiochus, and Antipater son of Jason, the Jews' ambassadors, came unto us to renew the friendship they had with us. 33 And it pleased the people to entertain the men honourably, and to put the copy of their words in the public records, to the end that the people of the Spartans might have a memorial thereof: moreover they wrote a copy of these things unto Simon the high priest.

²² After this Simon sent Numenius to Rome with a great shield of gold of a thousand pound weight, in order to confirm the confederacy with them.

²³ But when the people heard these things, they said, What thanks shall we give to Simon and his sons? for he and his brethren and the house of his father have made themselves strong, and have chased away in fight the enemies of Israel from them, and confirmed liberty to Israel. ²⁴ And they wrote on tables of brass, and set them upon pillars in mount Sion: and this is the copy of the writing:

On the eighteenth day of Elul, in the hundred and seventy and second year, and this is the third year of Simon the high priest, in Asaramel, in a great congregation of priests and people and princes of the nation, and of the elders of the country, was it notified unto us: Forasmuch as oftentimes there have been wars in the country, but Simon the son of Mattathias, the son of the sons of Joarib, and his brethren, put themselves in jeopardy, and withstood the enemies of their nation, that their sanctuary and the law might be established, and glorified their nation with great glory: ²⁵ and Jonathan assembled their nation together, and became their high priest, and was gathered to his people: ²⁶ and their enemies purposed to invade their country, that they might destroy their country utterly, and stretch forth their hands against their sanctuary: ²⁷ then rose up Simon, and fought for his nation, and spent much of his own substance, and armed the valiant men of his nation, and gave them wages: ²⁸ and he fortified the cities of Judaea, and Bethsura that lieth upon the borders of Judaea, where the arms of the enemies were aforesaid, and set there a garrison of Jews: ²⁹ and he fortified Joppa which is upon the sea, and Gazara which is upon the borders of Azotus, wherein the enemies dwelt aforesaid, and placed Jews there, and set therein all things convenient for the reparation thereof: ³⁰ and the people saw the faith of Simon, and the glory which he thought to bring unto his nation, and they made him their leader and high priest, because he had done all these things, and for the justice and the faith which he kept to his nation, and for that he sought by all means to exalt his people: ³¹ and in his days things prospered in his hands, so that the Gentiles were taken away out of their country, and they also that were in the city of David, they that were in Jerusalem, who had made themselves a citadel, out of which they issued, and polluted all things round about the sanctuary, and did great hurt unto its purity: ³² and he placed Jews therein, and fortified it for the safety of the country and the city, and made high the walls of Jerusalem: ³³ and king Demetrius confirmed to him the high priesthood according to these things, and made him one of his friends, and honoured him with great honour; ³⁴ for he had heard say, that the Jews had been called by the Romans friends and confederates and brethren, and that they had met the ambassadors of Simon honourably: ³⁵ and that the Jews and the priests were well pleased that Simon should be their leader and high priest for ever, until there should arise a faithful prophet; ³⁶ and that he should be captain over them, and should take charge of the sanctuary, to set them over their works, and over the country, and over the arms, and over the strongholds; and that he should take charge of the sanctuary, and that he should be obeyed by all, and that all instruments in the country should be written in his name, and that he should be clothed in purple, and wear gold; ³⁷ and that it should not be lawful for any of the people or of the priests to set at nought any of these things, or to gainsay the words that he should speak, or to gather an assembly in the country without him, or to be clothed in purple, or wear a buckle of gold; ³⁸ but whosoever should do otherwise, or set at nought any of these things, he should be liable to punishment. ³⁹ All the people consented to ordain for Simon that he should do according to these words; ⁴⁰ and Simon accepted hereof, and consented to be high priest, and to be captain and governor of the Jews and of the priests, and to be protector of all.

⁴¹ And they commanded to put this writing on tables of brass, and to set them up within the precinct of the sanctuary in a conspicuous place; ⁴² and moreover to put the copies thereof in the treasury, to the end that Simon and his sons might have them.

15 And Antiochus son of Demetrius the king sent letters from the isles of the sea unto Simon the priest and governor of the Jews, and to all the nation; and the contents thereof were after this manner:

King Antiochus to Simon the chief priest and governor, and to the nation of the Jews, greeting: 3 Forasmuch as certain pestilent fellows have made themselves masters of the kingdom of our fathers, but my purpose is to claim the kingdom, that I may restore it as it was before; and moreover I have raised a multitude of foreign soldiers, and have prepared ships of war; 4 moreover I am minded to land in the country, that I may punish them that have destroyed our country, and them that have made many cities in the kingdom desolate: 5 Now therefore I confirm unto thee all the exactions which the kings that were before me remitted unto thee, and whatsoever gifts besides they remitted unto thee: 6 and I give thee leave to coin money for thy country with thine own stamp, 7 but that Jerusalem and the sanctuary should be free: and all the arms that thou hast prepared, and the strongholds that thou hast built, which thou hast in thy possession, let them remain unto thee: 8 and everything owing to the king, and the things that shall be owing to the king from henceforth and for evermore, let them be remitted unto thee: 9 moreover, when we shall have established our kingdom, we will glorify thee and thy nation and the temple with great glory, so that your glory shall be made manifest in all the earth.

10 In the hundred and seventy and fourth year went Antiochus forth into the land of his fathers; and all the forces came together unto him, so that there were few men with Tryphon. 11 And king Antiochus pursued him, and he came, as he fled, unto Dor, which is by the sea: 12 for he knew that troubles were come upon him all at once, and that his forces had forsaken him. 13 And Antiochus encamped against Dor, and with him a hundred and twenty thousand men of war, and eight thousand horse. 14 And he compassed the city round about, and the ships joined in the attack from the sea; and he vexed the city by land and sea, and suffered no man to go out or in.

15 And Numenius and his company came from Rome, having letters to the kings and to the countries, wherein were written these things:

16 Lucius, consul of the Romans, unto king Ptolemy, greeting: 17 The Jews' ambassadors came unto us as our friends and confederates, to renew the old friendship and confederacy, being sent from Simon the high priest, and from the people of the Jews: 18 moreover they brought a shield of gold of a thousand pound. 19 It pleased us therefore to write unto the kings and unto the countries, that they should not seek their hurt, nor fight against them, and their cities, and their country, nor be confederates with such as fight against them. 20 Moreover it seemed good to us to receive the shield of them. 21 If therefore any pestilent fellows have fled from their country unto you, deliver them unto Simon the high priest, that he may take vengeance on them according to their law.

22 And the same things wrote he to Demetrius the king, and to Attalus, and to Arathes, and to Arames, and unto all the countries, and to Sampsames, and to the Spartans, and unto Delos, and unto Myndos, and unto Sicyon, and unto Caria, and unto Samos, and unto Pamphylia, and unto Lycia, and unto Halicarnassus, and unto Rhodes, and unto Phaselis, and unto Cos, and unto Side, and unto Aradus, and Gortyna, and Cnidus, and Cyprus, and Cyrene. 23 But the copy hereof they wrote to Simon the high priest.

24 But Antiochus the king encamped against Dor the second day, bringing his forces up to it continually, and making engines of war, and he shut up Tryphon from going in or out. 25 And Simon sent him two thousand chosen men to fight on his side; and silver, and gold, and instruments of war in abundance. 26 And he would not receive them, but set at nought all the covenants which he had made with him aforetime, and was estranged from him. 27 And he sent unto him Athenobius, one of his friends, to commune with him, saying,

Ye hold possession of Joppa and Gazara, and the citadel that is in Jerusalem, cities of my kingdom. 28 The borders thereof ye have wasted, and done great hurt in the land, and got the dominion of many places in my kingdom. 29 Now therefore deliver up the cities which ye have taken, and the tributes of the places whereof ye have gotten dominion without the borders of Judaea: 30 or else give me for them five hundred talents of silver; and for the harm that ye have done, and the tributes of the cities, other five hundred talents: or else we will come and subdue you.

31 And Athenobius the king's friend came to Jerusalem; and he saw the glory of Simon, and the cupboard of gold and silver vessels, and his great attendance, and he was amazed; and he reported to him the king's words. 32 And Simon answered, and said unto him,

We have neither taken other men's land, nor have we possession of that which appertaineth to others, but of the inheritance of our fathers; howbeit, it

² Or, he came unto Dor, facing by the way which is by the sea

³ Some authorities read Sampsaces: the Latin versions have Lampeaces.

was had in possession of our enemies wrongfully for a certain time. ³⁴ But we, having opportunity, hold fast the inheritance of our fathers. ³⁵ But as touching ^c Joppa and ^d Gazara, which thou demandest, they did great harm among the people throughout our country, we will give ^e a hundred talents for them.

And he answered him not a word, ³⁶ but returned in a rage to the king, and reported unto him these words, and the glory of Simon, and all that he had seen: and the king was exceeding wroth. ³⁷ But ^a Tryphon embarked on board a ship, and fled to Orthosia.

³⁸ And ^b the king appointed ^c Cendebeus chief captain of the sea coast, and gave him forces of foot and horse: ³⁹ and he commanded him to encamp before Judea, and he commanded him to build up ^d Kidron, and to fortify the gates, and that he should fight against the people: but the king pursued ^e Tryphon. ⁴⁰ And ^f Cendebeus came to ^g Jamnia, and began to provoke the people, and to invade Judea, and to take the people captive, and to slay them. ⁴¹ And he built ^h Kidron, and set horsemen there, and forces of foot, to the end that issuing out they might make outroads upon the ways of Judea, according as the king commanded him.

16 ^a And ^b John went up from ^c Gazara, and told Simon his father what ^d Cendebeus was doing. ^e And Simon called his two eldest sons, Judas and ^f John, and said unto them, ^g I and my brethren and my father's house have fought the battles of Israel from our youth, even unto this day: ^h and things have prospered in our hands, that we should deliver Israel oftentimes. ⁱ But now I am old, and ye moreover, by ^j his mercy, are of a sufficient age: be ye instead of me and ^k my brother, and go forth and fight for our nation; but let the help which is from heaven be with you. ^l And he chose out of the country twenty thousand men of war and horsemen, and they went against ^m Cendebeus, and slept at ⁿ Modin. ^o And rising up in the morning, they went into the plain, and, behold, a great host came to meet them, of footmen and horsemen: and there was a brook betwixt them. ^p And he encamped over against them, he and his people: and he saw that the people were afraid to pass over the brook, and he passed over first, and the men saw him, and passed over after him. ^q And he divided the people, and set the horsemen in the midst of the footmen: but the enemies' horsemen were exceeding many. ^r And ^s they sounded with the trumpets; and ^t Cendebeus and his army were put to the rout, and there fell of them many wounded to death, but they that were left fled to the stronghold: ⁹ at that time was Judas John's brother wounded: but John pursued after them, till he came unto ¹⁰ Kidron, which ¹¹ Cendebeus had built; ¹² and they fled unto the towers that are in the fields of ¹³ Azotus; and ¹⁴ he burned it with fire; and there fell of them about two thousand men. And he returned into Judea in peace.

¹⁵ And Ptolemy the son of Abubus had been appointed captain for ¹⁶ the plain of Jericho, and ¹⁷ he had much silver and gold; ¹⁸ for he was the high priest's son in law. ¹⁹ And ²⁰ his heart was lifted up, and he was minded to make himself master of the country, and he took counsel deceitfully against Simon and his sons, to make away with them. ²¹ Now Simon was visiting the cities that were in the country, and taking care for the good ordering of them; and he went down to ²² Jericho, himself and Mattathias and Judas his sons, in ²³ the hundred and seventy and seventh year, in the eleventh month, the same is the month ²⁴ Sebat: ²⁵ and the son of Abubus received them deceitfully into the little stronghold that is called Dok, which he had built, and made them a great banquet, and hid men there. ²⁶ And when Simon and his sons had drunk freely, Ptolemy and his men rose up, and took their arms, and came in upon Simon into the banquetting place, and slew him, and ²⁷ his two sons, and certain of his servants. ²⁸ And he committed a great iniquity, and recompensed evil for good. ²⁹ And Ptolemy wrote these things, and sent to ³⁰ the king, that he should send him forces to aid him, and should deliver him their country and the cities. ³¹ And he sent others to ³² Gazara to make away with John: and unto ³³ the captains of thousands he sent letters to come unto him, that he might give them ³⁴ silver and gold and gifts. ³⁵ And others he sent to take possession of Jerusalem, and the mount of the temple. ³⁶ And one ran before to ³⁷ Gazara, and told John that his father and brethren were perished, and he hath sent to slay thee also. ³⁸ And when he heard, he was sore amazed; and he laid hands on the men that came to destroy him, and slew them; for he perceived that they were seeking to destroy him.

³⁹ And the rest of the acts of John, and of his wars, and of his valiant deeds which he did, and of the building of the walls which he built, and of his doings, ⁴⁰ behold, they are written in the ⁴¹ chronicles of his high priesthood, from the time that he was made high priest after his father.

² Gr. book of days.

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE MACCABEES.

IN THE brethren, the Jews that are in Jerusalem and they that are in the country of Judaea, send greeting to the brethren, the Jews that are throughout Egypt, and wish them good peace: ²and may God do good unto you, and ³remember his covenant with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, his faithful servants; ⁴and give you all a heart to worship him and do his ¹pleasure with a great heart and a willing soul; ⁵and ⁶open your heart in his law and in his statutes, and make peace, ⁷and hearken to your supplications, and ⁸be reconciled with you, and not forsake you in an evil time. ⁹And now we here are praying for you. ¹⁰In the reign of ¹¹Demetrius, in the hundred threescore and ninth year, we the Jews have already written unto you in the tribulation and in the extremity that hath come upon us in these years, from the time that ¹²Jason and his company revolted from ¹³the holy land and the kingdom, ¹⁴and set ¹⁵the ¹⁶gate on fire, and shed innocent blood: and we besought the Lord, and were heard; and ¹⁷we offered sacrifice and meal offering, and we lighted the lamps, and we set forth the ¹⁸shewbread. ¹⁹And now see that ye keep the days of ²⁰the feast of tabernacles of the month ²¹Chisleu. ²²Written in the hundred fourscore and eighth year.

THEY that are in Jerusalem and they that are in Judaea and ²the senate and Judas, unto Aristobulus, ³king Ptolemy's teacher, who is also of the stock of the ⁴anointed priests, and unto the Jews that are in Egypt, send greeting and health. ⁵Having been saved by God out of great perils, as men arrayed against ⁶a king, we thank him greatly. ⁷For himself cast forth into ⁸Persia them that arrayed themselves ⁹against us in ¹⁰the holy city. ¹¹For when the prince was come there, and the army with him that seemed irresistible, they were cut to pieces in the temple of Nanea by the treachery of Nanea's priests. ¹²For ¹³Antiochus, on the pretence that he would marry her, came unto the place, he and his ¹⁴Friends that were with him, that they might take a great part of the treasures in name of a dowry. ¹⁵And when the priests of Nanea's temple had set ¹⁶the treasures forth, and he was come there with a small company within the wall of the precincts, they shut to the temple when Antiochus was come in: ¹⁷and opening the secret door of the panelled ceiling, they threw stones and ¹⁸struck down the prince, and they hewed ¹⁹him and his company in pieces, and smote off their heads, and cast them to those that were without. ²⁰Blessed be our God in all things, who gave for a prey them that had committed impiety.

²¹Whereas we are now about to keep ²²the purification of the temple in the month ²³Chisleu, on the five and twentieth day, we thought it necessary to certify you thereof, that ²⁴ye also may keep ²⁵a feast of tabernacles, and a memorial of the fire which was given when Nehemiah offered sacrifices, after that he had builded both the temple and the altar. ²⁶For indeed when our fathers were about to be led into the land of Persia, ²⁷the godly priests of that time took of the fire of the altar, and hid it privily in the hollow of a well that was without water, wherein they made it sure, so that the place was unknown to all men. ²⁸Now after many years, when it pleased God, Nehemiah, ²⁹having received a charge from the king of Persia, sent in quest of the fire the descendants of the priests that hid it. When they declared to us that they had found no fire, but thick water, ³⁰he commanded them to draw out thereof and bring to him: and when ³¹the sacrifices had been offered on the altar, Nehemiah commanded the priests ³²to sprinkle with the water both the wood and the things laid thereupon. ³³And when it was done, and some time had passed, and the sun shone out, which before was hid with clouds, there was kindled a great blaze, so that all men marvelled. ³⁴And the priests made a prayer while the sacrifice was consuming, both the priests and all others, ³⁵Jonathan leading and the rest answering, as Nehemiah did. ³⁶And the prayer was after this manner: O Lord, Lord God, ³⁷the Creator of all things, who art terrible and strong and righteous and merciful, who alone art King and gracious, ^awho alone ^asupplier every need, who ^aalone art righteous and almighty and eternal, thou that savest Israel out of all evil, who madest the fathers ^{thy} chosen, and didst sanctify them: ^aaccept the sacrifice for all thy people Israel, and guard ^bthine own portion, and consecrate it. ^c Gather together our ^cDispersion, ^dset at liberty them that are in bondage among the heathen, look upon them that are despised and abhorred, and ^elet the heathen know that thou art our God. ^f Torment them that oppress us and in arrogance shamefully treat us. ^g Plant ^{thy} people in ^{thy} holy place, even ^has Moses said.

^h And thereupon the priests sang the hymns. ³² And as soon as the sacrifice was consumed, then Nehemiah commanded ⁱto pour on great stones the water that was left. ³³ And when this was done, a flame was kindled; ^jbut when the light from the altar ^kshone over against it, ^{all} was consumed. ³³ And when the matter became known, and it was told the king of the Persians, that, in the place where the priests that were led away had hid the fire, there appeared the water, wherewith also Nehemiah and they that were with him purified the sacrifices, ³⁴ then the king, inclosing the place, made it sacred, after he had proved the matter. ³⁵ And when the king would shew favour to any, he would take from them many presents and give them some of ^{this} water. ³⁶ And Nehemiah and they that were with him called this thing Nephthar, which is by interpretation, Cleansing; but most men call it Nephthai.

² It is also found in the records, that Jeremiah the prophet commanded them that were carried away to take of the fire, ^aas hath been signified above: ^aand how that the prophet charged them that were carried away, having given them the law, that they should not forget the statutes of the Lord, neither ^bbe led astray in their minds, when they saw images of gold and silver, and the adornment thereof. ³ And with other such words exhorted he them, that the law should not depart from their heart. ⁴ And it was contained in the writing, that the prophet, being warned of God, commanded that the tabernacle and the ark should follow with him, ⁴when he went forth into the mountain ^jwhere Moses went up and beheld the heritage of God. ⁵ And ^bJeremiah came and found ^aa chamber in the rock, and there he brought in the tabernacle, and ⁱthe ark, and the altar of incense; and he made fast the door. ⁶ And some of those that followed with him came there that they might mark the way, and could not find it. ⁷ But when ^bJeremiah perceived it, he blamed them, saying, Yea and the place shall be unknown ⁸until God ^agather the people again together, and mercy come: ⁹and then shall the Lord disclose these things, and ^athe glory of the Lord shall be seen, ¹⁰and the ⁱcloud.

As also it was shewed with Moses; as also Solomon ²besought that the place might be consecrated greatly, ⁹and it was also declared that he, having wisdom, ^aoffered a sacrifice of dedication, and of the finishing of the temple; ^{so} we would have it now. ²⁰ As Moses prayed unto the Lord, and fire came down out of heaven and consumed the sacrifice, even so prayed Solomon also, and ^rthe fire came down and consumed the burnt offerings; ²¹ (^aand Moses said, Because the sin offering had not been eaten, it was consumed in like manner with the rest;) ²² and ⁱSolomon kept the eight days.

²³ And the same things were related ¹⁰both in the public archives ^aand in ¹¹the records that concern Nehemiah; and how he, founding a library, gathered together the books about the kings and prophets, and the books of David, and letters of kings ^aabout sacred gifts. ²⁴ And in like manner Judas also gathered together for us all those writings that had been scattered by reason of the war that befell, and they are ^{still} with us. ²⁵ If therefore ye have need thereof, send some to fetch them unto you.

²⁶ Seeing then that we ^aare about to keep the purification, we write unto you; ye will therefore do well if ye keep the days. ²⁷ Now God, who saved all his people, and restored the heritage to all, and the kingdom, and the priesthood, and ^athe hallowing, ²⁸even as he promised through the law,—in God have we hope, that he will quickly have mercy upon us, ^aand gather us together out of ¹⁰all the earth into ^athe holy place: for he delivered us out of great evils, and ^apurified the place.

¹⁹ Now the things concerning ^b Judas Maccabeus and his brethren, and ^c the purification of the ^d great temple, and the dedication of the altar, ^e and further the wars against ^f Antiochus Epiphanes, and ^g Eupator his son, ^h and ⁱ the manifestations that came from heaven unto those that vied with one another in manifold deeds for the religion of the Jews; so that, being but a few, they ^j rescued the whole country, and chased the barbarous multitudes, ^k and ^l recovered again the temple ^m renowned all the world over, and freed the city, and restored the laws which were like to be overthrown, seeing the Lord became ⁿ gracious unto them with all forbearance: ^o these things, I say, which have been declared by Jason of ^p Cyrene in five books, we will assay to abridge in one work. ^q For having in view the confused mass of the numbers, and the ^r difficulty which awaiteth them that would enter into the narratives of the history, by reason of the abundance of the matter, ^s we were careful that they who choose to read may be attracted, and that they who wish well to our cause may find it easy to recall ^t what we have written, and that all readers may have profit. ^u And although to us, who have taken upon us the painful labour of the abridgement, the task is not easy, but a matter of sweat and watching ^v (even as it is no light thing unto him that prepareth a banquet, and seeketh the benefit of others); yet for the sake of the gratitude of the many we will gladly endure the painful labour, ^w leaving to the historian the exact handling of every particular, and again ^x having no strength to fill in the outlines of our abridgement. ^y For as the masterbuilder of a new house must care for the whole ^z structure, and again he that undertaketh to ^{aa} decorate and paint it must seek out the things fit for the adorning thereof; even so I think it is also with us. ^{ab} To occupy the ground, and to ^{ac} indulge in long discussions, and to be curious in particulars, becometh the first author of the history: ^{ad} but to strive after brevity of expression, and to avoid a laboured fulness in the treatment, is to be granted to him that would bring a writing into a new form. ^{ae} Here then let us begin the narration, only adding thus much to that which hath been already ^{af} said; for it is a foolish thing to make a long prologue to the history, and to abridge the history itself.

3 ¹ WHEN ² the holy city was inhabited with all peace, and the laws were kept very well, because of the godliness of ³ Onias the high priest, and his hatred of wickedness, ⁴ it came to pass that even the kings themselves did honour the place, and glorify the temple with the noblest presents; ⁵ inasmuch that even ⁶ Seleucus the king of Asia of his own revenues ⁷ bare all the costs belonging to the services of the sacrifices. ⁸ But one ⁹ Simon of the tribe of Benjamin, having been made guardian of the temple, fell out with the high priest about the ¹⁰ ruling of the market in the city. ¹¹ And when he could not overcome ¹² Onias, he gat him to ¹³ Apollonius the son of ¹⁴ Thraseus, who at that time was governor of ¹⁵ Coele Syria and Phoenicia: ¹⁶ and he brought him word how that ¹⁷ the treasury in Jerusalem was full of untold sums of money, so that the multitude of the funds was innumerable, and that they did not pertain to the account of the sacrifices, but that it was possible that these should fall under the king's power. ¹⁸ And when ¹⁹ Apollonius met the king, he informed him of the money whereof he had been told; and the king appointed Heliodorus, who was his chancellor, and sent him with a commandment to accomplish the removal of the aforesaid money. ²⁰ So forthwith Heliodorus took his journey, under a colour of visiting the cities of ²¹ Coele Syria and Phoenicia, but in fact to execute the king's purpose. ²² And when he was come to Jerusalem, and had been courteously received by the high priest ²³ of the city, he laid before ²⁴ them an account of the information which had been given him, and declared wherefore he was come; and he inquired if in truth these things were so. ²⁵ And the high priest explained to him that there were ²⁶ in the treasury deposits of widows and orphans, ²⁷ and moreover some money belonging to Hyrcanus the son of Tobias, a man in very high place, ²⁸ and that the case was not as that impious ²⁹ Simon falsely alleged; and that in all there were four hundred talents of silver and two hundred of gold; ³⁰ and that it was altogether impossible that wrong should be done unto them that had put trust in the holiness of the place, and in the majesty and inviolable sanctity of the temple, ³¹ honoured over all the world. ³² But ³³ Heliodorus, because of the king's commandments given him, said that in any case this money must be confiscated for the king's treasury.

³⁴ So having appointed a day, he entered in to direct the inquiry concerning these matters; and there was no small distress throughout the whole city.

15 And the priests, prostrating themselves before the altar in their priestly garments, and looking toward heaven, called upon him that gave the law concerning deposits, that he should preserve these treasures safe for those that had deposited them. 16 And whosoever saw the mien of the high priest was wounded in mind; for his countenance and the change of his colour betrayed the distress of his soul. 17 For a terror and a shuddering of the body had come over the man, whereby the pain that was in his heart was plainly shewn to them that looked upon him. 18 And they that were in the houses rushed flocking out to make a universal supplication, because the place was like to come into contempt. 19 And the women, 20 girl with sackcloth under their breasts, thronged the streets, and the virgins that were kept in ward ran together, some to the gates, others to the walls, and some looked out through the windows. 20 And all, stretching forth their hands toward heaven, made their solemn supplication. 21 Then it would have pitted a man to see the multitude prostrating themselves all mingled together, and the expectation of the high priest in his sore distress.

22 While therefore they called upon the Almighty Lord to keep the things intrusted to them safe and sure for those that had intrusted them, 23 Heliodorus went on to execute that which had been decreed. 24 But when he was already present there with his guards over against the treasury, the Sovereign of spirits and of all authority caused a great apparition, so that all that had presumed to come in with him, stricken with dismay at the power of God, fainted and were sore afraid.

25 For there was seen by them a horse with a terrible rider upon him, and adorned with beautiful trappings, and he rushed fiercely and smote at Heliodorus with his forefeet, and it seemed that he that sat upon the horse had complete armour of gold. 26 Two other also appeared unto him, young men notable in their strength, and beautiful in their glory, and splendid in their apparel, who stood by him on either side, and scourged him unceasingly, inflicting on him many sore stripes. 27 And when he had fallen suddenly unto the ground, and great darkness had come over him, his guards caught him up and put him into a litter, and carried him, him that had just now entered with a great train and all his guard into the aforesaid treasury, himself now brought to utter helplessness, manifestly made to recognise the sovereignty of God. 28 And so, while he, through the working of God, speechless and bereft of all hope and deliverance, lay prostrate, 29 they blessed the Lord, that made marvellous his own place; and the temple, which a little afore was full of terror and alarm, was filled with joy and gladness after the Almighty Lord appeared.

30 But quickly certain of Heliodorus's familiar friends besought Onias to call upon the Most High, and grant life to him who lay quite at the last gasp. 31 And the high priest, secretly fearing lest the king might come to think that some treachery toward Heliodorus had been perpetrated by the Jews, brought a sacrifice for the deliverance of the man. 32 But as the high priest was making the propitiation, the same young men appeared again to Heliodorus, arrayed in the same garments; and they stood and said, Give Onias the high priest great thanks, for his sake the Lord hath granted thee life; 34 and do thou, since thou hast been scourged from heaven, publish unto all men the sovereign majesty of God. And when they had spoken these words, they vanished out of sight. 35 So Heliodorus, having offered a sacrifice unto the Lord and vowed great vows unto him that had saved his life, and having graciously received Onias, returned with his host to the king. 36 And he testified to all men the works of the great God which he had beheld with his eyes.

37 And when the king asked Heliodorus, what manner of man was fit to be sent yet once again to Jerusalem, he said, 38 If thou hast any enemy or conspirator against the state, send him thither, and thou shalt receive him back well scourged, if he even escape with his life; because of a truth there is about the place a power of God. 39 For he that hath his dwelling in heaven himself hath his eyes upon that place, and helpeth it; and them that come to hurt it he smiteth and destroyeth.

40 And such was the history of Heliodorus and the keeping of the treasury.

41 But the aforesaid Simon, he who had given information of the money, and had betrayed his country, slandered Onias, saying that it was he who had incited Heliodorus, and made himself the author of these evils. 42 And him that was the benefactor of the city, and the guardian of his fellow-countrymen, and a zealot for the laws, he dared to call a conspirator against the state. 43 But when the growing enmity between them waxed so great, that even murders were perpetrated through one of Simon's trusted followers,

Onias, seeing the danger of the contention, and that ¹⁴Apollonius the son of Menestheus, the governor of Coele Syria and Phenicia, was increasing ¹⁵Simon's malice, ¹⁶setook himself to the king, ¹⁷not to be an accuser of his fellow-citizens, but looking to the good of all the ¹⁸people, both public and private; ¹⁹for he saw that without the king's providence it was impossible for the state to obtain peace any more, and that Simon would not cease from his madness.

⁷But when ⁸Seleucus was deceased, and ⁹Antiochus, who was called Epiphanes, succeeded to the kingdom, ¹⁰Jason the brother of Onias supplanted his brother in the high priesthood, ¹¹having promised unto the king at an audience three hundred and threescore talents of silver, and out of another fund eighty talents; ¹²and beside this, he undertook to assign a hundred and fifty more, if it might be allowed him ¹³through the king's authority to set him up ¹⁴a Greek place of exercise and form a body of youths to be trained therein, and to register the inhabitants of Jerusalem ¹⁵as citizens of Antioch. ¹⁶And when the king ¹⁷had given assent, and he had gotten possession of the office, he forthwith brought over them of his own race to the Greek fashion. ¹⁸And setting aside the royal ordinances of special favour to the Jews, granted by the means of John the father of ¹⁹Eupolemus, who went on the embassy to the Romans for friendship and alliance, and seeking to overthrow the lawful modes of life, he brought in new customs forbidden by the law: ²⁰for he eagerly established ²¹a Greek place of exercise under ²²the citadel itself; and caused the noblest of the young men to wear the Greek cap. ²³And thus there was an extreme of Greek fashions, ²⁴and in advance of an alien religion, by reason of the exceeding profaneness of Jason, that ungodly man and no high priest; ²⁵so that the priests had no more any zeal for the services of the altar: but despising the sanctuary, and neglecting the sacrifices, they hastened ²⁶to enjoy that which was unlawfully provided in the palestra, after the summons ²⁷of the discus; ²⁸making of no account the honours of their fathers, and thinking the glories of the Greeks best of all. ²⁹By reason whereof sore calamity beset them; and the men whose ways of living they earnestly followed, and unto whom they desired to be made like in all things, these they had to be their enemies and to punish them.

¹⁷For it is not a light thing to do impiously against the laws of God: ¹⁸but ¹⁹these things the time following shall declare.

²⁰Now when certain games that came every fifth year were kept at ²¹Tyre, and the king was present, ²²the vile Jason sent sacred envoys, ²³as being Antiochians of Jerusalem, bearing three hundred ²⁴drachmas of silver to the sacrifice of Hercules, which even the bearers thereof thought not right to use for any sacrifice, because it was not fit, but to ²⁵expend on another charge. ²⁶And though in the purpose of the sender this money was for the sacrifice of Hercules, yet on account of ²⁷present circumstances it went to the equipment of the galleys.

²⁸Now when ²⁹Apollonius the son of Menestheus was sent into Egypt for the ³⁰enthronement of ³¹Ptolemy Philometor as king, Antiochus, learning that ³²Ptolemy had shewn himself ill affected toward his state, took thought for the security of his realm; wherefore, going by sea to ³³Joppa, he travelled on to Jerusalem. ³⁴And being magnificently received by Jason and the city, he was brought in with torches and shoutings. This done, he afterward led his army down into Phenicia.

³⁵Now after a space of three years Jason sent ³⁶Menelaus, ³⁷the aforesaid Simon's brother, to bear ³⁸to the money unto the king, and to ³⁹make reports concerning some necessary matters. ⁴⁰But he being commended to the king, and ⁴¹having glorified ⁴²himself ⁴³by the display of his authority, got the high priesthood for himself, ⁴⁴outbidding Jason by three hundred talents of silver. ⁴⁵And having received the royal mandates he came to Jerusalem, bringing nothing worthy the high priesthood, but having the passion of a cruel tyrant, and the rage of a savage beast. ⁴⁶And whereas Jason, ⁴⁷who had supplanted his own brother, was supplanted by another and driven as a fugitive into the country of the ⁴⁸Ammonites, ⁴⁹Menelaus had possession of the office: but of the money that had been promised to the king nothing ⁵⁰was duly paid, and that though ⁵¹Sostratus the governor of ⁵²the citadel demanded it ⁵³as (for unto him appertained the gathering of the revenues); for which cause they were both called by the king to his presence. ⁵⁴And Menelaus left his own brother ⁵⁵Lysimachus for his ⁵⁶deputy in the high priesthood; and Sostratus left Crates, who was over the ⁵⁷Cyprians.

^a Acts 9. 11. things, it came to pass that they of ^aTarsus and Mallus made insurrection, because they were to be given as a present to Antiochis, the king's concubine. ³¹ The king therefore came to ^aCilicia in all haste to settle matters, leaving for his ^adeputy Andronicus, a man of high rank. ³² And Menelaus, supposing that he had gotten a favourable opportunity, ^apresented to Andronicus certain vessels of gold belonging to the temple, which he had stolen: other vessels also he had already sold into ^aTyre and the cities round about. ³³ And when Onias had sure knowledge of this, he sharply reproved him, having withdrawn himself into a sanctuary at Daphne, that lieth by ^aAntioch. ³⁴ Wherefore Menelaus, taking Andronicus apart, prayed him ^ato kill Onias. And coming to Onias, and ^abeing persuaded to use treachery, and being received as a friend, Andronicus gave him his right hand with oaths of ^afidelity, and, though he was suspected by him, ^aso persuaded him to come forth of the sanctuary; and forthwith he ^adespatched him without regard of justice. ³⁵ For the which cause not only Jews, but many also of the other nations, had indignation and displeasure at the unjust murder of the man. ³⁶ And when the king was come back again ^afrom the places in ^aCilicia, the Jews that were ^ain the city pleaded before him ^aagainst Andronicus (the Greeks also joining with them in hatred of the wickedness), urging that Onias had been wrongfully slain. ³⁷ Antiochus therefore was heartily sorry, and was moved to pity, and wept, because of ^athe sober and well ordered life of him that was dead; ³⁸ and being inflamed with passion, forthwith he stripped off Andronicus's ^apurple robe, and ^arent off his under garments, and when he had led him round through the whole city unto that very place where he had committed impiety against Onias, there he put the murderer out of the way, the Lord ^arendering to him the punishment he had deserved.

³⁹ Now when many sacrileges had been committed in the city by ^aLysimachus with the consent of Menelaus, and when the bruit thereof was spread abroad outside, the people gathered themselves together against Lysimachus, ^aafter many vessels of gold had been already dispersed. ⁴⁰ And when the multitudes were rising against him, and were filled with anger, ^aLysimachus armed about three thousand men, and with unrighteous violence began the conflict, one Hauran, a man far gone in years and no less also in madness, leading the attack. ⁴¹ But when they perceived the assault of ^aLysimachus, some caught up stones, others logs of wood, and some took handfuls of the ashes that lay near, and they flung them all pell-mell upon ^aLysimachus and them that were with him; ⁴² by reason of which they wounded many of them, and some they struck to the ground, and all of them they forced to flee, but the author of the sacrilege himself they killed beside ^athe treasury.

⁴³ But touching these matters there was an accusation laid against Menelaus. ⁴⁴ And when the king was come to ^aTyre, the three men that were sent by ^athe senate pleaded the cause before him. ⁴⁵ But Menelaus, seeing himself now defeated, promised much money to ^aPtolemy the son of Dorymenes, that he might win over the king. ⁴⁶ Whereupon Ptolemy taking the king aside into a cloister, as it were to take the air, brought him to be of another mind: ⁴⁷ and him that was the cause of all the evil, Menelaus, he discharged from the accusations; but those hapless men, who, if they had pleaded even before ^aScythians, would have been discharged uncondemned, them he sentenced to death. ⁴⁸ Soon then did they, that were ^aspokesmen for the city and the families of Israel and the holy vessels suffer that unrighteous penalty. ⁴⁹ For which cause even certain Tyrians, moved with hatred of the wickedness, provided magnificently for their burial. ⁵⁰ But ^aMenelaus through the covetous dealings of them that were in power ^aremained still in his office, ^acleaving to wickedness, ^aas ^aa great conspirator against his fellow-citizens.

5 Now about this time Antiochus made him ^asecond inroad into Egypt. ^aAnd it ^aso befell that throughout all the city, for the space of almost forty days, there appeared ^ain the midst of the sky horsemen in swift motion, wearing robes inwrought with gold and carrying spears, equipped in troops for battle; ³ and drawing of swords; and on the other side squadrons of horse in array; and encounters and ^apursuits of both armies; and shaking of shields, and multitudes of lances, and casting of darts, ^aand flashing of golden trappings, and girding on of all sorts of armour. ⁴ Wherefore all men besought that ^athe vision might have been given for good.

But when a false rumour had arisen that Antiochus was deceased, ^aJason took not less than a thousand men, and suddenly ¹¹ made an assault upon the city; and they that were upon the wall being routed, and the city being now at length well nigh taken, ^aMenelaus took refuge in ^athe citadel. ¹² But ^aJason slaughtered his own citizens without mercy, not considering that good success against kinsmen is the greatest ill success, but supposing himself to be setting up trophies over enemies, and not over fellow-countrymen. ⁷The office however he did not get, but, receiving shame as the end of his conspiracy, he passed ⁸again a fugitive into the country of the Ammonites. ⁹At the last therefore he met with a miserable end: having been ¹shut up at the court of ²Aretas the prince of ³the Arabians, fleeing from city to city, pursued of all men, hated ⁴as an apostate from the laws, and held in abomination as the butcher of his country and his fellow-citizens, he was cast forth into Egypt; ⁹and he that had driven many from their own country into strange lands perished himself in a strange land, having crossed the sea to ¹⁰the Lacedæmonians, as thinking to find shelter there because they were ¹¹near of kin; ¹²and he that had cast out a multitude unburied ¹³had none to mourn for him, nor had he any funeral at all, or place in the sepulchre of his fathers.

¹²Now when tidings came to the king concerning that which was done, he thought that Judæa was in revolt; whereupon setting out ¹⁴from Egypt in a furious mind, he took the city by force of arms, ¹⁵and ¹⁶commanded his soldiers to cut down without mercy such as came in their way, and to slay such as went up upon the houses; ¹⁷and there was ¹⁸killing of young and old, making away of boys, women, and children, slaying of virgins and infants. ¹⁹And in all the three days of the slaughter there were destroyed fourscore thousand, whereof forty thousand were slain in close combat, and no fewer were sold than slain. ²⁰But not content with this ²¹he presumed to enter into ²²the most holy temple of all the earth, having Menelaus for his guide (him that had proved himself ²³a traitor both to the laws and to his country), ²⁴even ²⁵taking the sacred vessels with his polluted hands, and dragging down with his profane hands ²⁶the offerings that had been dedicated by other kings to the augmentation and glory and honour of the place. ²⁷And Antiochus ²⁸was lifted up in mind, not seeing that because of the sins of the city that dwelt in the city ²⁹the Sovereign Lord had been provoked to anger ³⁰a little while, and therefore his eye was ³¹thus ³²turned away from the place. ³³But had it not so been that they were already holden by many sins, this man, even ³⁴as Heliodorus who was sent by ³⁵Selaucius the king to view ³⁶the treasury, would, so soon as he pressed forward, have been scourged and turned back from his daring deed. ³⁷Howbeit the Lord did not choose the nation for the place's sake, ³⁸but the place for the nation's sake. ³⁹Wherefore also the place itself, having partaken in the calamities that befell the nation, did afterward share in its benefits; ⁴⁰and the place which was forsaken in the wrath of the Almighty was, at ⁴¹the reconciliation of ⁴²the great Sovereign, restored again with all glory.

⁴³As for Antiochus, when ⁴⁴he had carried away out of the temple a thousand and eight hundred talents, he departed in all haste unto ⁴⁵Antioch, weeping in his arrogance to make the land navigable and the sea passable by foot, because ⁴⁶his heart was lifted up. ⁴⁷And moreover ⁴⁸he left governors to afflict the race: at Jerusalem, ⁴⁹Philip, by race a Phrygian, and in character more barbarous than him that set him there; ⁵⁰and at ⁵¹Gerizim, Andronicus; and besides these, Menelaus, who worse than all the rest exalted himself against his fellow-citizens. And having a malicious mind ⁵²toward the Jews whom he had made his citizens, ⁵³he sent that ⁵⁴lord of pollutions ⁵⁵Apollonius with an army of two and twenty thousand, commanding him to slay all those that were of full age, and to sell the women and the younger men. ⁵⁶And he coming to Jerusalem, and playing the man of peace, waited till the holy day of the sabbath, and finding the Jews at rest from work, he commanded his men to parade in arms. ⁵⁷And he put to the sword all them that came forth to the spectacle; and running into the city with the armed men he slew great multitudes. ⁵⁸But Judas, ⁵⁹who is also called Maccabeus, with nine others or thereabout, withdrew himself, and with his company kept himself alive ⁶⁰in the mountains after the manner of wild beasts; and they continued feeding on ⁶¹such poor herbs as grew there, that they might not be partakers of the threatened pollution.

6 ⁶²And not long after this the king sent forth ⁶³an old man of ⁶⁴Athens to compel the Jews ⁶⁵to depart from the laws of their fathers, and not to live after the laws of God; ⁶⁶and also to pollute the sanctuary in Jerusalem, and to call it by the name of ⁶⁷Jupiter Olympius, and to call the sanctuary in ⁶⁸Gerizim by the name of ⁶⁹Jupiter the Protector of strangers, even as they ⁷⁰were that dwelt in the place. ⁷¹But sore and utterly grievous was the visitation of this evil. ⁷²For the temple was filled with riot and revellings by the heathen, who ⁷³dallied with harlots, and had to do with women within the sacred precincts, and moreover brought inside things that were not befitting; ⁷⁴and ⁷⁵the place of sacrifice was filled with those abominable things which had been prohibited by the laws. ⁶ And a man could neither keep the sabbath, nor observe the feasts of the fathers, nor ⁷ so much as confess himself to be a Jew. ⁷ And on the day of the king's birth every month they were led along with bitter constraint ⁸ to eat of the sacrifices; and when the ⁹ feast of Bacchus came, they were compelled to go in procession in honour of ¹⁰ Bacchus, wearing wreaths of ivy. ⁸ And there went out a decree ⁹ to the neighbouring Greek cities, by the suggestion of ¹⁰ Ptolemy, that they should observe the same conduct against the Jews, and should make them eat of the sacrifices; ⁹ and that they should slay such as did not choose to go over to the Greek rites. So the present misery was for all to see: ¹⁰ for two women were brought up for having circumcised their children; and these, when they had led them publicly round about the city, with the babes hung from their breasts, they cast down headlong from the wall. ¹¹ And others, that had run together into the caves near by to keep the seventh day secretly, being betrayed to Philip were all burnt together, ¹² because they scrupled to defend themselves, from regard to the honour of that most solemn day.

¹³ I beseech therefore those that read this book, that they be not discouraged because of the calamities, but account that these punishments were not for the destruction, ¹⁴ but for the chastening of our race. ¹³ For indeed that those who act impiously be not let alone any long time, but straightway meet with retribution, is a sign of great beneficence. ¹⁴ For in the case of the other nations the Sovereign Lord doth with long-suffering forbear, until that he punish them when ¹⁵ they have attained unto the full measure of their sins; but not so judged he as touching us, ¹⁵ that he may not take vengeance on us afterward, ¹⁶ when we be come unto the height of our sins. ¹⁶ Wherefore he never withdraweth his mercy from us; but ¹⁷ though he chasteneth with calamity, yet doth he not forsake his own people. ¹⁷ Howbeit let this that we have spoken suffice to put you in remembrance; ¹⁸ but after these few words we must come to the narrative.

¹⁸ Eleazar, one of the principal scribes, a man already well stricken in years, and of a noble countenance, was compelled to open his mouth ¹⁹ to eat swine's flesh. ¹⁹ But he, ²⁰ welcoming death with renown rather than life with pollution, advanced of his own accord to the instrument of torture, but first spat forth the flesh, ²⁰ coming forward as men ought to come that are resolute to repel such things as not even for the natural love of life is it lawful to taste. ²¹ But they that had the charge of that forbidden ²¹ sacrificial feast took the man aside, for the acquaintance which of old times they had with him, and privately besought him to bring flesh of his own providing, such as was befitting for him to use, and to make as if he did eat of the flesh from the sacrifice, as had been commanded by the king; ²² that by so doing he might be delivered from death, and for his ancient friendship with them ²³ might be treated kindly. ²³ But he, having formed a high resolve, and one that became his years, and the dignity of old age, and the gray hairs ²⁴ which he had reached with honour, and his excellent ²⁵ education from a child, ²⁶ or rather that became the holy ²⁷ laws of God's ordaining, declared his mind accordingly, bidding them quickly send him unto Hades. ²⁴ For it becometh not our years to dissemble, said he, that through this many of the young should suppose that Eleazar, the man of fourscore years and ten, had gone over unto an alien religion; ²⁵ and so they, by reason of his dissimulation, and for the sake of this brief and momentary life, should be led astray because of me, ²⁶ and thus I get to myself a pollution and a stain of mine old age. ²⁶ For even if for the present time I shall remove from me the punishment of men, yet shall I ²⁷ not escape the hands of the Almighty, either living or dead. ²⁷ Wherefore, by manfully parting with my life now, I will shew myself worthy of mine old age, ²⁸ and ²⁹ leave behind ³⁰ a noble ensample to the young to die willingly and nobly a glorious death for the reverend and holy laws. And when he had said these words, he went straightway to the instrument of torture. ²⁹ ³¹ And when they changed the good will they bare him a little before into ill will, because ³² these words of his were, as they thought, ³³ sheer madness, ³⁴ and when he was at the point to die ³⁵ with the ³⁶ stripes, he groaned aloud and said, To the Lord, that hath the holy knowledge, it is manifest that, ³⁷ whereas I might have been delivered from death, I endure sore pains in my body, ³⁸ by being scourged; but in soul I gladly suffer these things for my fear of him. ³⁹ So this man also died after this manner, ⁴⁰ leaving his death for an ensample of nobleness and a memorial of virtue, not only to the young but also to the great body of his nation.

⁴¹ And it came to pass that seven brethren also with their mother were at the king's command taken and shamefully handled with scourges and cords, to compel them to taste of ¹⁰ the abominable swine's flesh. ¹¹ But one of them made himself ¹² the spokesman and said, What wouldest thou ask and learn of us? ¹³ For we are ready to die rather than transgress the laws of our fathers. ¹⁴ And the king fell into a rage, and commanded to heat pans and caldrons: ¹⁵ and when these forthwith were heated, he commanded to cut out the tongue of him that had been their spokesman, and to scalp him, and to cut off his extremities, the rest of his brethren and his mother looking on. ¹⁶ And when he was utterly ¹⁷ maimed, the king commanded to bring him to the fire, being yet alive, and to fry him in the pan. And as the vapour of the pan spread far, they and their mother also exhorted one another to die nobly, saying thus: ¹⁸ The Lord God beholdeth, and in truth is ¹⁹ intreated for us, as Moses declared in ²⁰ this song, which witnesseth against the people to their faces, saying, And he shall be ²¹ intreated for his servants.

²² And when the first had died after this manner, they brought the second to ²³ the mocking; and they pulled off the skin of his head with the hair and asked him, Wilt thou eat, before thy body be punished in every limb? ²⁴ But he answered ²⁵ in the language of his fathers and said to them, No. Wherefore he also underwent the next torture in succession, as the first had done. ²⁶ And when he was at the last gasp, he said, Thou, miscreant, dost release us out of this present life, but the King of the world ²⁷ shall raise up us, who have died for his laws, unto an eternal renewal of life.

²⁸ And after him was the third made a mockstock. And when he was required, he quickly put out his tongue, and stretched forth his hands courageously, ²⁹ and nobly said; From heaven I possess these; and for his laws' sake I condemn these; and from him I hope ³⁰ to receive these back again: ³¹ inasmuch that the king himself and they that were with him were astonished at the young man's soul, for that he nothing regarded the pains.

³² And when he too was dead, they shamefully handled and tortured the fourth in like manner. ³³ And being come near unto death he said thus: It is good to die at the hands of men and look for the hopes which are given by God, ³⁴ that we shall be raised up again by him; for as for thee, ³⁵ thou shalt have no resurrection unto life.

³⁶ And next after him they brought the fifth, and shamefully handled him. ³⁷ But he looked toward ³⁸ the king and said, Because thou hast authority among men, though thou art thyself corruptible, thou dost what thou wilt; yet think not that our race hath been forsaken of God; ³⁹ but hold thou on thy way, and behold his sovereign majesty, ⁴⁰ how it will torture thee and thy seed.

⁴¹ And after him they brought the sixth. And when he was at the point to die he said, Be not vainly deceived, ⁴² for we suffer these things for our own doings, as sinning against our own God: marvellous things are come to pass; ⁴³ but think not thou ⁴⁴ that thou shalt be unpunished, having assayed ⁴⁵ to fight against God.

⁴⁶ But above all was the mother marvellous and worthy of honourable memory; for when she looked on seven sons perishing within the space of one day, she bare the sight with a good courage for the hopes that she had set on the Lord. ⁴⁷ And she exhorted each one of them ⁴⁸ in the language of their fathers, filled with a noble temper and stirring up her womanish thought with manly passion, saying unto them, ⁴⁹ I know not how ye came into my womb, neither was it I that bestowed on you your ⁵⁰ spirit and your life, and it was not I that brought into order the first elements of each one of you. ⁵¹ Therefore ⁵² the Creator of the world, who fashioned the ⁵³ generation of man and devised the ⁵⁴ generation of all things, in mercy ⁵⁵ giveth back to you again both your ⁵⁶ spirit and your life, as ye now condemn your own selves for his laws' sake. ⁵⁷ But Antiochus, thinking himself to be despised, ⁵⁸ and suspecting the reproachful voice, whilst the youngest was yet alive did not only make his appeal to him by words, but also at the same time promised with oaths that ⁵⁹ he would enrich him and ⁶⁰ raise him to high estate, if he would turn from the customs of his fathers, and that he would take him for his ⁶¹ Friend and intrust him with affairs.

⁶² But when the young man would in no wise give heed, the king called unto him his mother, and exhorted her that she would counsel the lad to save himself. ⁶³ And when he had exhorted her with many words, she undertook to persuade her son. ⁶⁴ But bending toward him, laughing the cruel tyrant to scorn, she spake thus ⁶⁵ in the language of her fathers: My son, have pity upon me that carried thee nine months in my womb, and gave thee suck three years, and nourished and brought thee up unto this age, and sustained thee. ⁶⁶ I beseech thee, my child, to lift thine eyes unto the heaven and the earth, and to see all things that are therein, and thus to recognise that God ⁶⁷ made them not of things that were, and that the race of men in this wise cometh into being. ⁶⁸ Fear not this butcher, but, proving

30 But before she had yet ended speaking, the young man said, Whom wait ye for? I obey not the commandment of the king, but I hearken to the commandment of the law that was given to our fathers through Moses. 31 But thou, that hast devised all manner of evil against the Hebrews, shalt in no wise escape the hands of God. 32 For we are suffering because of our own sins; 33 and if for rebuke and chastening our living Lord hath been angered a little while, yet shall he again be reconciled with his own servants. 34 But thou, O unholy man and of all most vile, be not vainly lifted up in thy wild pride with uncertain hopes, raising thy hand against the heavenly children; 35 for not yet hast thou escaped the judgement of the Almighty God that seeth all things. 36 For these our brethren, having endured a short pain that bringeth everlasting life, have now died under God's covenant; but thou, through the judgement of God, shalt receive in just measure the penalties of thine arrogance. 37 But I, as my brethren, give up both body and soul for the laws of our fathers, calling upon God that he may speedily become gracious to the nation; and that thou amidst trials and plagues mayest confess that he alone is God; 38 and that in me and my brethren thou mayest stay the wrath of the Almighty, which hath been justly brought upon our whole race. 39 But the king, falling into a rage, handled him worse than all the rest, being exasperated at his mocking. 40 So he also died pure from pollution, putting his whole trust in the Lord.

51 But when Philip saw the man gaining ground by little and little, and increasing more and more in his prosperity, he wrote unto Ptolemy, the governor of Coele Syria and Phenicia, that he should support the king's cause. 52 And Ptolemy quickly appointed Nicanor the son of Patroclus, one of the king's Chief Friends, and sent him, in command of no fewer than twenty thousand of all nations, to destroy the whole race of Judaea; and with him he joined Gorgias also, a captain and one that had experience in matters of war. 53 And Nicanor undertook by the sale of the captive Jews to make up for the king the tribute of two thousand talents which he was to pay to the Romans. 54 And immediately he sent unto the cities upon the sea coast, inviting them to buy Jewish slaves, promising to allow fourscore and ten slaves for a talent, not expecting the judgement that was to follow upon him from the Almighty.

55 But tidings came to Judas concerning the inroad of Nicanor; and when he communicated to them that were with him the presence of the army, 56 they that were cowardly and distrustful of the judgement of God ran away and left the country. 57 And others sold all that was left over to them, and withal besought the Lord to deliver them that had been sold as slaves by the impious Nicanor or ever he met them; 58 and this, if not for their own sakes, yet for the covenants made with their fathers, and because he had called them by his reverend and glorious name. 59 And Maccabeus gathered his men together, six thousand in number, 60 and exhorted them not to be stricken with dismay at the enemy, nor to fear the great multitude of the heathen who came wrongfully against them; but to contend nobly, 61 setting before their eyes the outrage that had been lawlessly perpetrated upon the holy place, and the shameful handling of the city that had been turned to mockery, and further the overthrow of the mode of life received from their ancestors. ¹⁸ For they, said he, trust to arms, and withal to deeds of daring; but we trust on the Almighty God, since he is able at a beck to cast down them that are coming against us, and even the whole world. ¹⁹ And moreover he recounted unto them the help given from time to time in the days of their ancestors, both the help given in the days of Sennacherib, how that a hundred fourscore and five thousand perished, ²⁰ and the help given in the land of Babylon, even the battle that was fought against the Gauls, how that they came to the engagement eight thousand in all, with four thousand Macedonians, and how that, the Macedonians being hard pressed, the six thousand destroyed the hundred and twenty thousand, because of the succour which they had from heaven, and took great booty. ²¹ And when he had with these words made them of good courage, and ready to die for the laws and their country, he divided his army into four parts; ²² appointing his brethren to be with himself leaders of the several bands, to wit, Simon and Joseph and Jonathan, giving each the command of fifteen hundred men, ²³ and moreover Eleazar also: then, having read aloud the sacred book, and having given as watchword, THE HELP OF GOD, leading the first band himself, ²⁴ he joined battle with Nicanor. ²⁵ And, since the Almighty fought on their side, they slew of the enemy above nine thousand, and wounded and disabled the more part of Nicanor's army, and compelled all to flee; ²⁶ and they took the money of those that had come there to buy them. And after they had pursued them for some distance, they returned, being constrained by the time of the day; ²⁷ for it was the day before the sabbath, and for this cause they made no effort to chase them far. ²⁸ And when they had gathered the arms of the enemy together, and had stripped off their spoils, they occupied themselves about the sabbath, blessing and thanking the Lord exceedingly, who had saved them unto this day, for that he had caused a beginning of mercy to distil upon them. ²⁹ And after the sabbath, when they had given of the spoils to the maimed, and to the widows and orphans, the residue they distributed among themselves and their children. ³⁰ And when they had accomplished these things, and had made a common supplication, they besought the merciful Lord to be wholly reconciled with his servants.

³¹ And having had an encounter with the forces of Timotheus and Bacchides, they killed above twenty thousand of them, and made themselves masters of strongholds exceeding high, and divided very much plunder, giving the maimed and orphans and widows, and moreover the aged also, an equal share with themselves. ³² And when they had gathered the arms of the enemy together, they stored them all up carefully in the most important positions, and the residue of the spoils they carried to Jerusalem. ³³ And they killed the phylarch of Timotheus's forces, a most unholy man, and one who had done the Jews much hurt. ³⁴ And as they kept the feast of victory in the city of their fathers, they burned those that had set the sacred gates on fire, and among them Callisthenes, who had fled into an outhouse; and so they received the meet reward of their impiety.

³⁵ And the thrice-accursed Nicanor, who had brought the thousand merchants to buy the Jews for slaves, being through the help of the Lord humbled by them who in his eyes were held to be of least account, put off his glorious apparel, and passing through the midland, shunning all company like a fugitive slave, arrived at Antioch, having, as he thought, had the greatest possible good fortune, though his host was destroyed. ³⁶ And he that had taken upon him to make tribute sure for the Romans by the captivity of the men of Jerusalem published abroad that the Jews had One who fought for them, and that because this was so the Jews were invulnerable, because they followed the laws ordained by him.

Now about that time it befell that Antiochus had returned in disorder from the region of Persia. ³⁷ For he had entered into the city called Persepolis, and he assayed to rob a temple and to hold down the city. Whereupon there was an onset of the multitudes, and Antiochus and his men turned to make defence with arms; and it came to pass that Antiochus was put to flight by the people of the country and broke up his camp with disgrace. ³⁸ And while he was at Ecbatana, news was brought him what had happened unto Nicanor and the forces of

Wherefore, ²the judgement from heaven even now accompanying him, he gave order to his charioteer to drive without ceasing and despatch the journey; for thus he arrogantly spake: I will make Jerusalem ³a common graveyard of Jews, when I come there. 5 But ⁴the All-seeing Lord, the God of Israel, smote him with a ⁵fatal and invisible stroke; ⁶and as soon as he had ceased speaking this word, an incurable pain of the bowels seized him, and bitter torments of the inner parts; ⁷and ⁸that most justly, for he had tormented other men's bowels with many and strange sufferings. 7 But he in no wise ceased from his rude insolence; nay, still more was he filled with arrogance, ⁹breathing fire in his passion against the Jews, and commanding to haste the journey. But it came to pass moreover that he fell from his chariot as it rushed along, and having a grievous fall was racked in all the members of his body. 8 And he that but now supposed himself ¹⁰to have the waves of the sea at his bidding, so vainglorious was he beyond the condition of a man, and that thought ¹¹to weigh the heights of the mountains in a balance, was now brought to the ground and carried ¹²in a litter, ¹³shewing unto all that the power was manifestly God's; ¹⁴so that out of the body of the impious man ¹⁵worms swarmed, and while he was still living in anguish and pains, his flesh fell off, and by reason of the stench all the army turned with loathing from his corruption. ¹⁶And the man that a little afore supposed himself ¹⁷to touch the stars of heaven, no one could endure to carry for his intolerable stench. ¹⁸Hereupon therefore he began in great part to cease from his arrogance, being broken ¹⁹in spirit, and to come to knowledge under the scourge of God, his pains increasing every moment. ²⁰And when he himself could not abide his own smell, he said these words: It is right ²¹to be subject unto God, ²²and that one who is mortal should not ²³be minded arrogantly. ²⁴And the vile man vowed unto the ²⁵Sovereign Lord, who now ²⁶no more would have pity upon him, saying on this wise: ²⁷that ²⁸the holy city, to the which he was going in haste, to lay it even with the ground and to ²⁹make it ³⁰a common graveyard, he would declare free; ³¹and as touching the Jews, whom he had decided not even to count worthy of burial, but to cast them out to the beasts with their infants, for the birds to devour, he would make them all equal to citizens	of ³²Athens; ³³and the holy sanctuary, which before he had spoiled, he would adorn with goodliest offerings, and would restore ³⁴all the sacred vessels many times multiplied, and ³⁵out of his own revenues would defray the charges that were required for the sacrifices; ³⁶and beside all this, that he would become a Jew, and would visit every inhabited place, publishing abroad the might of God. ³⁷But when his sufferings did in no wise cease, for the judgement of God had come upon him in righteousness, having given up all hope of himself, he wrote unto the Jews the letter written below, having the nature of a supplication, to this effect: ³⁸To the worthy Jews, ³⁹this fellow-citizens, Antiochus, king and general, wisheth much joy and health and prosperity. ⁴⁰May ye and your children fare well; and your affairs shall be to your mind. Having my hope in heaven, ⁴¹I remembered with affection your honour and good will ⁴²toward me. Returning ⁴³out of the region of Persia, and being taken with a noisome sickness, I deemed it necessary to take thought for the common safety of all, ⁴⁴not despairing of myself, but having great hope to escape from the sickness. ⁴⁵But considering that my father also, at what time ⁴⁶he led an army into the upper country, appointed his successor, ⁴⁷to the end that, if anything fell out contrary to expectation, or if any unwelcome tidings were brought, they ⁴⁸that remained in the country, knowing to whom the state had been left, might not be troubled; ⁴⁹and, beside all this, observing how that the princes that are borderers and neighbours unto my kingdom watch opportunities, and look for the future event, ⁵⁰I have appointed my son Antiochus to be king, whom I often committed and commended to most of you, when I was hastening unto the upper provinces; and I have written to him what is written below. ⁵¹I exhort you therefore and beseech you, having in your remembrance ⁵²the benefits done to you in common and severally, to preserve each of you your present good will toward me and my son. ⁵³For I am persuaded that he in gentleness and kindness will follow my purpose and treat you with indulgence. ⁵⁴So the murderer and blasphemer, having endured the sorest sufferings, even as he had dealt with other men, ended his life among the mountains by a most piteous fate in a strange land. ⁵⁵And ⁵⁶Philip his foster-brother conveyed the body ⁵⁷home; and then, fearing the son of Antiochus, he betook himself to ⁵⁸Ptolemy Philometor in Egypt.	* Cp. ch. 4. 1. * ch. 5. 16. * See ch. 3. 2. * Cp. ch. 4. 19 & 23. * ver. 1. * Cp. 1 Macc. 2. 37. * See 1 Macc. 1. 10. * See ver. 14 -16. * Cp. 1 Macc. 6. 16. * 1 Macc. 6. 14, 24, 62. * ch. 4. 21. ¹ Or, in his spirit. ² Gr. remediless. ³ Or, shewing manifestly unto all the power of God. ⁴ Some authorities read he minded as if equal to God. ⁵ Gr. build. ⁶ Or, Ye fare well, and your children; and your affairs are to your mind. The Greek text in verses 20 and 21 is uncertain.

IO ¹And Maccabeus and they that were with him, the Lord leading them on, ²recovered the temple and the city; ³and they pulled down ⁴the altars that had been built in the marketplace by the aliens, and also ⁵the walls of sacred inclosures. ⁶And ⁷having cleansed the sanctuary ⁸they made another altar of sacrifice; and ⁹striking stones and taking fire out of them, they offered sacrifices, after they had ceased for two years, ¹⁰and burned incense, and ¹¹lighted lamps, and set forth the shewbread. ¹²And when they had done these things, ¹³they fell prostrate and besought the Lord that they might fall no more into such evils; but that, if ever they should sin, ¹⁴they might be chastened by him with forbearance, and not be delivered unto blaspheming and barbarous heathen. ¹⁵Now on the same day that the sanctuary was profaned by aliens, upon that very day did it come to pass that the cleansing of the sanctuary was made, even on the five and twentieth day of the same month, which is ¹⁶Chisleu. ¹⁷And they kept eight days with gladness in the manner of the feast of tabernacles, remembering how that ¹⁸not long afore, during the feast of tabernacles, they were wandering in the mountains and in the caves after the manner of wild beasts. ¹⁹Wherefore bearing waunds wreathed with leaves, ²⁰and fair boughs, and ²¹palms also, ²²they offered up hymns of thanksgiving to him that had prosperously brought to pass the cleansing of his own place. ²³They ordained also with a common statute and decree, for all the nation of the Jews, that they should keep these days every year.

²⁴And ²⁵such was the end of ²⁶Antiochus, who was called Epiphanes. ²⁷But now will we declare what came to pass under Antiochus named ²⁸Eupator, who proved himself a true son of that ungodly man, and will gather up briefly the ²⁹successive evils of the wars. ³⁰For this man, when he succeeded to the kingdom, appointed one ³¹Lysias to be chancellor, and supreme governor of Coelestria and Phenicia. ³²For ³³Ptolemy that was called Macron, setting an example of observing justice toward the Jews because of the wrong that had been done unto them, endeavoured to ³⁴conduct his dealings with them on peaceful terms. ³⁵Whereupon being accused by the ³⁶king's ³⁷Friends before ³⁸Eupator, and hearing himself called traitor at every turn, because he had abandoned ³⁹Cyprus which ⁴⁰Philometor had intrusted to him, and had withdrawn himself unto ⁴¹Antiochus called Epiphanes, and ⁴²failing to uphold the honour of his office, he took poison and made away with himself.

⁴³But ⁴⁴Gorgias, when he was made governor of the district, maintained a force of mercenaries, and at every turn kept up war with the Jews. ⁴⁵And together with him ⁴⁶the Idumeans also, being masters of important strongholds, harassed the Jews; and receiving unto them those that had taken refuge there from Jerusalem, they assayed to keep up war. ⁴⁷But Maccabeus and his men, having made solemn supplication and besought God to fight on their side, rushed upon the strongholds of the Idumeans; ⁴⁸and assaulting them vigorously they made themselves masters of the positions, and kept off all that fought upon the wall, and slew those that fell in their way, and killed no fewer than twenty thousand. ⁴⁹And because no less than nine thousand were fled into two towers exceeding strong and having all things needed for a siege, ⁵⁰Maccabeus, having left ⁵¹Simon and ⁵²Joseph, and ⁵³Zaccheus besides and them that were with him, a force sufficient to besiege them, departed himself unto places where he was most needed. ⁵⁴But Simon and they that were with him, yielding to covetousness, were bribed by certain of those that were in the towers, and receiving seventy thousand ⁵⁵drachmas let some of them slip away. ⁵⁶But when word was brought to Maccabeus of what was done, he gathered the leaders of the people together, and accused those men of having sold their brethren for money, by setting their enemies free to fight against them. ⁵⁷So he slew these men for having turned traitors, and forthwith took possession of the two towers. ⁵⁸And ⁵⁹prospering with his arms in all things he took in hand, he destroyed in the two strongholds ⁶⁰more than twenty thousand.

⁶¹Now ⁶²Timotheus, who had been before defeated by the Jews, having gathered together foreign forces in great multitudes, and having collected the ⁶³horsemen which belonged to Asia, not a few, came as though he would take Judaea by force of arms. ⁶⁴But as he drew near, Maccabeus and his men ⁶⁵sprinkled earth upon their heads and ⁶⁶girded their loins with sackcloth, in supplication to God, ⁶⁷and falling down upon the step in front of the altar, besought him to become ⁶⁸gracious to them, and ⁶⁹be an enemy to their enemies and an adversary to their adversaries, as the law declareth. ⁷⁰And rising from their prayer they took up their arms, and advanced some distance from the city; and when they had come near to their enemies they ⁷¹halted. ⁷²And when the dawn was now spreading, the two armies joined battle; the one part having this, beside their virtue, for a pledge of success and victory, that they had fled unto the Lord for refuge, the others making their passion their leader in the strife. ²⁹But when the battle waxed strong, ³⁰there appeared out of heaven unto their adversaries five men on horses with bridles of gold, in splendid array; ³¹and two of them, ³²leading on the Jews, ³³and taking Maccabeus in the midst of them, and covering him with their own armour, guarded him from wounds, while on the adversaries they shot forth arrows and thunderbolts; by reason whereof they were blinded and thrown into confusion, and were cut to pieces, filled with bewilderment. ³⁴And there were slain twenty thousand and five hundred, beside six hundred horsemen.

³⁵But Timotheus himself fled into a stronghold called Gazara, a fortress of exceeding strength, ³⁶Chereas being in command there. ³⁷But Maccabeus and his men were glad and laid siege to the fortress four and twenty days. ³⁸And they that were within, trusting to the strength of the place, blasphemed exceedingly, and hurled forth impious words. ³⁹But at dawn of the five and twentieth day certain young men of the company of Maccabeus, inflamed with passion because of the blasphemies, assaulted the wall with masculine force and with ⁴⁰furious passion, and cut down whosoever came in their way. ⁴¹And others climbing up in like manner, while the besieged were distracted with them that had made their way within, set fire to the towers, and kindling fires ⁴²burned the blasphemers alive; while others broke open the gates, and, having given entrance to the rest of the band, occupied the city. ⁴³And they slew ⁴⁴Timotheus, who was hidden in a cistern, and his brother Chereas, and Apollonians. ⁴⁵And when they had accomplished these things, ⁴⁶they blessed the Lord ⁴⁷with hymns and thanksgivings, him who doeth great benefits unto Israel, and giveth them the victory.

⁴⁸Now after a very little time II ⁴⁹Lysias, the king's guardian and kinsman and chancellor, being sore displeased for the things that had come to pass, ⁵⁰collected about fourscore thousand footmen and all his horsemen and came against the Jews, thinking to make the city ⁵¹a place for Greeks to dwell in, and to levy tribute on the temple, as ⁵²on the other sacred places of the nations, and ⁵³to put up the high priesthood to sale every year; ⁵⁴holding in no account the might of God, but puffed up with his ten thousands of footmen, and his thousands of horsemen, and his fourscore elephants. ⁵⁵And coming into Judaea and drawing near to Bethsuron, which was a strong place and distant from Jerusalem about ⁵⁶five leagues, he pressed it hard. ⁵⁷But when Maccabeus and his men learned that he was besieging the strongholds, they and all the people with lamentations and tears made supplication unto the Lord ⁵⁸to send a good angel to save Israel. ⁵⁹And Maccabeus himself took up arms first, and exhorted the others to jeopard themselves together with him and succour their brethren; and they sallied forth with him right willingly. ⁶⁰And as they were there, close to Jerusalem, there appeared ⁶¹at their head one on horseback in white apparel, brandishing ⁶²weapons of gold. ⁶³And they all together praised ⁶⁴the merciful God, and were yet more strengthened in heart: being ready to ⁶⁵assail not men only but the wildest beasts, and walls of iron, ⁶⁶they advanced in array, having him that is in heaven to fight on their side, for the Lord had mercy on them. ⁶⁷And hurling themselves ⁶⁸like lions upon the enemy, ⁶⁹they slew of them eleven thousand footmen and sixteen hundred horsemen, and forced all the rest to flee. ⁷⁰But the more part of them escaped wounded and naked; and Lysias also himself escaped by shameful flight. ⁷¹But as he was a man not void of understanding, weighing with himself the defeat which had befallen him, and considering that ⁷²the Hebrews could not be overcome, because the Almighty God fought on their side, he sent again ⁷³unto them, ⁷⁴and persuaded them to come to terms on condition that all their rights were acknowledged, and ⁷⁵promised ⁷⁶that he would also persuade the king to become their friend. ⁷⁷And Maccabeus gave consent upon all the conditions which ⁷⁸Lysias proposed to him, being careful of the common good; for whatsoever ⁷⁹requests Maccabeus delivered in writing unto Lysias concerning the Jews the king allowed. ⁸⁰For the letters written unto the Jews from Lysias were to this effect:

Lysias unto the ⁸¹people of the Jews, greeting. ⁸²John and ⁸³Abasalom, who were sent from you, having delivered the ⁸⁴petition written below, made request concerning the things signified therein. ⁸⁵What things aever therefore had need to be brought before the king I declared to him, and what things were possible he allowed. ⁸⁶If then ye will preserve your good will toward the state, henceforward also will I endeavour to contribute to your good. ⁸⁷And on this behalf I have given order in detail, both to these men and to those that are sent from me, to confer with you.

* Cp. 1 Macc. 10. 18 & 11. 30.

King Antiochus unto his brother Lyzias, greeting. 23 Seeing that our father passed unto the gods having the wish that the subjects of his kingdom should be undisturbed and give themselves to the care of their own affairs, 24 we, having heard that the Jews do not consent to our father's purpose to turn them unto the customs of the Greeks, but choose rather their own manner of living, and make request that the customs of their law be allowed unto them,—25 choosing therefore that this nation also should be free from disturbance, we determine that their temple be restored to them, and that they live according to the customs that were in the days of their ancestors. 26 Thou wilt therefore do well to send messengers unto them and give them the right hand of friendship, that they, knowing our mind, may be of good heart, and gladly occupy themselves with the conduct of their own affairs.

King Antiochus to the senate of the Jews and to the other Jews, greeting. 28 If ye fare well, we have our desire: we ourselves also are in good health. 29 Menelaus informed us that your desire was to return home and follow your own business. 30 They therefore that depart home up to the thirtieth day of Xanthicus shall have our friendship, with full permission that the Jews use their own proper meats and observe their own laws, even as heretofore; and none of them shall be in any way molested for the things that have been ignorantly done. 31 Moreover I have sent Menelaus also, that he may encourage you. 32 Fare ye well. Written in the hundred forty and eighth year, on the fifteenth day of Xanthicus.

But certain of the governors of districts, Timotheus and Apollonius the son of Gennesus, and Hieronymus also and Demophon, and beside them Nicanor the governor of Cyprus, would not suffer them to enjoy tranquillity and live in peace. 3 And men of Joppa perpetrated this great impiety: they invited the Jews that dwelt among them to go with their wives and children into the boats which they had provided, as though they had no ill will towards them; and when the Jews, relying on the common decree of the city, accepted the invitation, as men desiring to live in peace and suspecting nothing, they took them out to sea and drowned them, in number not less than two hundred. 5 But when Judas heard of the cruelty done unto his fellow-countrymen, giving command to the men that were with him and calling upon God the righteous Judge, he came against the murderers of his brethren, and set the haven on fire by night, and burned the boats, and put to the sword those that had fled thither. 7 But when the town was closed against him, he withdrew, intending to come again to root out the whole community of the men of Joppa. 8 But learning that the men of Jamnia were minded to do in like manner unto the Jews that sojourned among them, 9 he fell upon the Jamnites also by night, and set fire to the haven together with the fleet, so that the glare of the light was seen at Jerusalem, two hundred and forty furlongs distant.

Now when they had drawn off nine furlongs from thence, as they marched against Timotheus, a host of Arabians attacked him, no fewer than five thousand footmen and five hundred horsemen. 2 And when a sore battle had been fought, and Judas and his company by the help of God had good success, the nomads being overcome besought Judas to grant them friendship, promising to give him cattle, and to help his people in all other ways. 3 So Judas, thinking that they would indeed be profitable in many things, agreed to live in peace with them; and receiving pledges of friendship they departed to their tents. 4 And he also fell upon a certain city Gephyrrum, strong and fenced about with walls, and inhabited by a mixed multitude of divers nations; and it was named Caspin.¹⁴ But they that were within, trusting to the strength of the walls and to their store of provisions, behaved themselves rudely toward Judas and them that were with him, railing, and furthermore blaspheming and speaking impious words.¹⁵ But Judas and his company, calling upon ^{the} great Sovereign of the world, who without rams and cunning engines of war ^{hurled} down Jericho in the times of Joshua, rushed wildly against the wall; ^{and} having taken the city by the will of God, they made unspeakable slaughter, inasmuch that the adjoining lake, which was two furlongs broad, appeared to be filled with the deluge of blood.

¹⁷ And when they had drawn off seven hundred and fifty furlongs from thence, they made their way to Charax, unto the Jews that are called ¹ Tubieni.¹⁸ And ¹⁹ Timotheus they found not in occupation of that district, for he had then departed from the district without accomplishing anything, but had left behind a garrison, and that a very strong one, in a certain post. ²⁰ But Dositheus and Sosipater, who were of Maccabeus's captains, sallied forth and destroyed those that had been left by Timotheus in the stronghold, above ten thousand men. ²¹ And Maccabeus, ranging his own army by bands, set ²² these two over the bands, and marched in haste against Timotheus, ²³ who had with him a hundred and twenty thousand footmen and two thousand and five hundred horsemen. ²⁴ But when Timotheus heard of the inroad of Judas, he at once sent away the women and the children and also the baggage into the fortress called ²⁵ Carnion; for the place was hard to besiege and difficult of access by reason of the narrowness of the approaches on all sides. ²⁶ But when the band of Judas, who led the van, appeared in sight, and when terror came upon the enemy and fear, because ²⁷ the manifestation of him who beholdeth all things came upon them, they fled amain, carried this way and that, so that they were often hurt of their own men, and pierced with the points of their swords. ²⁸ And Judas continued the pursuit the more hotly, putting the wicked wretches to the sword, and he destroyed as many as thirty thousand men. ²⁹ But ³⁰ Timotheus himself, falling in with the company of Dositheus and Sosipater, besought them with much ³¹ crafty guile to let him go with his life, because he had in his power the parents of many of them and the brethren of some: ³² otherwise, said he, little regard will ³³ be shewn to these. ³⁴ So when he had with many words confirmed the agreement to restore them without hurt, they let him go that they might save their brethren.

³⁵ And Judas, marching against ³⁶ Carnion and the temple of Atergatis, slew five and twenty thousand persons. ³⁷ And after he had put these to flight and destroyed them, ³⁸ he marched against Ephron also, a strong city, ³⁹ wherein were multitudes of people of all nations; and stalwart young men placed ⁴⁰ on the walls made a vigorous defence; and there were great stores of engines and darts there. ⁴¹ But calling upon ⁴² the Sovereign who with might ⁴³ breaketh in pieces the ⁴⁴ strength of ⁴⁵ the enemy, ⁴⁶ they got the city into their hands, and slew as many as twenty and five thousand of them that were within. ⁴⁷ And setting out from thence they marched in haste against ⁴⁸ Scythopolis, which is distant from Jerusalem six hundred furlongs. ⁴⁹ But when the Jews that were settled there testified of the good will that the Scythopolitans had shewn toward them, and of their kindly bearing toward them in the times of their misfortune, ⁵⁰ they gave thanks, and further exhorted them to remain well affected toward the race for the future; and ⁵¹ they went up to Jerusalem, ⁵² the feast of weeks being close at hand.

⁵³ But after the feast called ⁵⁴ Pentecost ⁵⁵ they marched in haste against ⁵⁶ Gorgias the governor of Idumea; ⁵⁷ and he came out with three thousand footmen and four hundred horsemen. ⁵⁸ And when they had set themselves in array, it came to pass that a few of the Jews fell. ⁵⁹ And a certain Dositheus, one ⁶⁰ of Bacenor's company, who was on horseback and a strong man, pressed hard on Gorgias, and taking hold of his cloke drew him along by main force; and while he was minded to take the accursed man alive, one of the Thracian horsemen bore down upon him and disabled his shoulder, and ⁶¹ so Gorgias escaped unto ⁶² Marisa. ⁶³ And when they that were with Eedris had been fighting long and were wearied out, Judas called upon the Lord to shew himself, fighting on their side and leading the van of the battle; ⁶⁴ and then ⁶⁵ in the language of his fathers he raised the battle-cry joined with hymns, and rushing unawares upon the troops of Gorgias put them to flight.

⁶⁶ And Judas gathering his army came unto the city of ⁶⁷ Adullam; and as the seventh day was coming on, ⁶⁸ they purified themselves according to the custom, and ⁶⁹ kept the sabbath there.

39 And on the day following, ¹at which time it had become necessary, Judas and his company came to take up the bodies of them that had fallen, ²and in company with their kinsmen to bring them back unto the sepulchres of their fathers. ³But under the garments of each one of the dead they found ⁴consecrated tokens of the idols of ⁵Jamnia, ⁶which the law forbids the Jews to have ought to do with; and it became clear to all that it was for this cause that they had fallen. ⁷All therefore, blessing the ⁸works of the Lord, ⁹the righteous Judge, ¹⁰who maketh manifest the things that are hid, ¹¹betook themselves unto supplication, beseeching that the sin committed might be wholly blotted out. And the noble Judas exhorted the multitude to keep themselves from sin, forasmuch as they had seen before their eyes what things had come to pass because of the sin of them that had fallen. ¹²And when he had made a collection man by man to the sum of two thousand ¹³drachmas of silver, he sent unto Jerusalem to offer ¹⁴a sacrifice for sin, doing therein right well and honourably, in that he took thought for ¹⁵a resurrection. ¹⁶For if he were not expecting that they that had fallen would rise again, it were superfluous and idle to pray for the dead. ¹⁷(And if he did it looking unto an honourable memorial of gratitude laid up for them that ¹⁸die ¹⁹in godliness, holy and godly was the thought.) Wherefore he made ²⁰the propitiation for them that had died, that they might be released from their sin.

13 In ¹the hundred forty and ninth year tidings were brought to Judas and his company that ²Antiochus Eupator was coming with great multitudes against Judaea, ³and with him ⁴Lysias his guardian and chancellor, ⁵each having a Greek force, ⁶a hundred and ten thousand footmen, and five thousand and three hundred horsemen, and two and twenty elephants, and three hundred chariots armed with scythes.

3 And ¹Menelaus also joined himself with them, and with great dissimulation encouraged Antiochus, not for the saving of his country, but because he thought that he would be set over the government. ²But the ³King of kings stirred up the ⁴passion of Antiochus against the wicked wretch; and when Lysias informed him that this man was the cause of all the evils, the ⁵king commanded to bring him unto Beroea, and ⁶to put him to death after the manner of that place. ⁷Now there is in that place a tower of fifty cubits high, full of ashes, and it had all round it a ⁸gallery ⁹descending sheer on every side into the ashes. ¹⁰Here him that is ¹¹guilty of sacrilege, or hath attained a preeminence in any other evil deeds, they ¹²all push forward into destruction. ¹³By such a fate it befell the breaker of the law, ¹⁴Menelaus, to die, without obtaining so much as a grave in the earth, and ¹⁵that right justly; ¹⁶for inasmuch as he had perpetrated many sins ¹⁷against the altar, whose fire and whose ashes were holy, in ashes did he receive his death.

9 Now the king, ¹⁰infuriated in spirit, was coming with intent to inflict on the Jews the very worst of the sufferings that had befallen them in his father's time. ¹¹But when Judas heard of these things, he gave charge to the multitude to call upon the Lord day and night, ¹²beseeching him, if ever at any other time, so now to succour them that were at the point to be deprived of the law and their country and the holy temple, ¹³and not to suffer the people that had been but now a little while revived to fall into the hands of those profane heathen. ¹⁴So when they had all done the same thing together, ¹⁵beseeching ¹⁶the merciful Lord ¹⁷with weeping and fastings and ¹⁸prostration for three days without ceasing, Judas exhorted them and commanded they should join him for service. ¹⁹And having gone apart with the elders he resolved that, before the king's army should enter into Judaea and make themselves masters of the city, they should go forth and try the matter ²⁰in fight ²¹by the help of ²²God. ²³And committing the decision to ²⁴the ²⁵Lord of the world, and exhorting them that were with him to contend nobly even unto death ²⁶for laws, temple, city, country, ²⁷commonwealth, he pitched his camp by ²⁸Modin. ²⁹And ³⁰having given out to his men the watchword, VICTORY IS GOD'S, with a chosen body of the bravest young men he fell upon the camp ³¹by night and penetrated to the king's ³²tent, and slew ³³of the ³⁴army as many as two thousand men, and ³⁵brought down the chiefest elephant with him that was in the ³⁶tower upon him. ³⁷And at last they filled the ³⁸army with terror and alarm, and departed with good success. ³⁹And this had been accomplished when the day was but now dawning, because of ⁴⁰the Lord's protection that gave ⁴¹Judas help.

18 But the king, having had a taste of the exceeding boldness of the Jews, made attempts by stratagem upon their positions, ²and upon a strong fortress of the Jews at ³Bethsura; he advanced, ⁴was turned back, failed, was defeated. ²⁰ And Judas conveyed such things as were necessary unto them that were within. ²¹ But Rhodocus, from the Jewish ranks, made known to the enemy the secrets of his countrymen. He was sought out, and taken, and shut up in prison. ²² The king treated with them in Bethsura the second time, ²³ gave his hand, took theirs, departed, attacked the forces of Judas, was put to the worse, ²⁴ heard that Philip who had been left as chancellor in Antioch had become reckless, was confounded, ²⁵ made to the Jews an overture of peace, submitted himself and swore to acknowledge all their rights, came to terms with them and offered sacrifice, honoured the sanctuary and the place, ²⁶ shewed kindness and graciously received Maccabeus, left Hegemonides governor from Ptolemais even unto the Gerrenians, ²⁷ came to Ptolemais. The men of Ptolemais were displeased at the treaty, for they had exceeding great indignation against the Jews: they desired to annul the articles of the agreement. ²⁸ Lysias came forward to speak, made the best defence that was possible, persuaded, pacified, made them well affected, ²⁹ departed unto Antioch. This was the issue of the inroad and departure of the king.

I⁴ Now after a space of three years tidings were brought to Judas and his company that Demetrius the son of Seleucus, having sailed into the haven of Tripolis with a mighty host and a fleet, ² had gotten possession of the country, ³ having made away with Antiochus and Lysias his guardian.

³ But one Alcimus, who had formerly been high priest, and had wilfully polluted himself in the times ⁴ when there was no mingling with the Gentiles, considering that there was no deliverance for him in any way, nor any more access unto the holy altar, ⁵ came to king Demetrius in about the hundred and one and fiftieth year, presenting to him a chaplet of gold and a palm, and beside these some of the festal olive boughs of the temple. And for that day he held his peace; ⁶ but having gotten opportunity to further his own madness, being called by Demetrius into a meeting of his council, and asked how the Jews stood affected and what they purposed, he answered thereunto, ⁷ Those of the Jews that he called ⁸ Hasidæans, whose leader is Judas Maccabeus, keep up war, and are seditious, not suffering the kingdom to find tranquillity. ⁹ Wherefore, having laid aside mine ancestral glory, I mean the high priesthood, I am now come ¹⁰ hither; ¹¹ first for the unfeigned care I have for the things that concern the king, and secondly because I have regard also to mine own fellow-citizens: for, through the unadvised dealing of those of whom I spake before, our whole race is in no small misfortune. ² But do thou, O king, having informed thyself of these things severely, take thought both for our country and for our race, which ³ is surrounded by foes, according to the gracious kindness with which thou receivest all. ⁴ For as long as Judas remaineth alive, it is impossible that the state should find peace. ⁵ And when he had spoken such words as these, at once ⁶ the rest of the king's Friends, having ill will against Judas, inflamed Demetrius yet more. ⁷ And forthwith appointing Nicanor, who had been master of the elephants, and making him governor of Judea, he sent him forth, ⁸ giving him written instructions to make away with Judas himself and to scatter them that were with him and to set up Alcimus as high priest of the great temple. ⁹ And those in Judea that ¹⁰ had before driven Judas into exile thronged to Nicanor in flocks, supposing that the misfortunes and calamities of the Jews would be successes to themselves.

¹¹ But when the Jews heard of Nicanor's inroad and the assault of the heathen, ¹² they sprinkled earth upon their heads and made solemn supplication to him who had established his own people for evermore, and who alway, making manifest his presence, upholdeth them that are his own portion. ¹³ And when the leader had given his commands, he straightway setteth out from thence, and joineth battle with them at a village called Lessau. ¹⁴ But Simon, the brother of Judas, had encountered Nicanor, ¹⁵ yet not till late, having received a check by reason of the sudden consternation caused by his adversaries.

¹⁶ Nevertheless Nicanor, hearing of the manliness of them that were with Judas, and their courage in fighting for their country, shrunk from bringing the matter to the decision of the sword. ¹⁷ Wherefore he sent Posidonius and Theodotus and Mattathias to give and receive pledges of friendship. ¹⁸ So when these proposals had been long considered, and the leader had made the troops acquainted therewith, and it appeared that they were all of like mind, they consented to the covenants. ¹⁹ And they appointed a day on which to meet together by themselves. And a litter was borne forward from each army; they set chairs of state; ²⁰ Judas stationed armed men ready in convenient places, ²¹ lest haply there should suddenly be treachery on the part of the enemy; they held such conference as was meet. ²³Nicanor tarried in Jerusalem, and did nothing to cause disturbance, but dismissed the flocks of people that had gathered together. ²⁴And he kept Judas always in his presence; he had gained a hearty affection for the man; ²⁵he urged him to marry and beget children; he married, settled quietly, took part in common life.

²⁶But Alcimus, perceiving the good will that was betwixt them, and having got possession of the covenants that had been made, came unto Demetrius and told him that Nicanor was ill affected toward the state, for he had appointed ²⁷that conspirator against his kingdom, Judas, to be his successor. ²⁷And the king, falling into a rage, and being exasperated by the calumnies of that most wicked man, wrote to Nicanor, signifying that he was displeased at the covenants, and commanding him to send Maccabeus prisoner unto Antioch in all haste. ²⁸And when this message came to Nicanor, he was confounded, and was sore troubled at the thought of annulling the articles that had been agreed upon, the man having done no wrong; ²⁹but because there was no dealing against the king, ³⁰he watched his time to execute this purpose by stratagem. ³⁰But Maccabeus, when he perceived that Nicanor was behaving more harshly in his dealings with him, and that he had become ruder in his customary bearing, understanding that this harshness came not of good, gathered together not a few of his men, and concealed himself from Nicanor.

³¹But the other, when he became aware that he had been bravely defeated by the stratagem of Judas, came to the great and holy temple, while the priests were offering the usual sacrifices, and commanded them to deliver up the man. ³²And when they declared with oaths that they had no knowledge where the man was whom he sought, ³³he stretched forth his right hand toward the sanctuary, and swore this oath: If ye will not deliver up to me Judas as a prisoner, I will lay this temple of God even with the ground, and will break down the altar, and I will erect here a temple unto Bacchus for all to see. ³⁴And having said this he departed. But the priests, stretching forth their hands toward heaven, called upon him that ever fighteth for our nation, in these words: ³⁵Thou, O Lord of the universe, who in thyself hast need of nothing, wast well pleased that a sanctuary of thy habitation should be set among us; ³⁶so now, O holy Lord of all hallowing, keep undefiled for ever this house that hath been lately cleansed.

³⁷Now information was given to Nicanor against one Bazi, an elder of Jerusalem, as being a lover of his countrymen and a man of very good report, and one called Father of the Jews for his good will toward them. ³⁸For in the former times when there was no mingling with the Gentiles he had been accused of cleaving to the Jews' religion, and had jeopardized body and life with all earnestness for the religion of the Jews. ³⁹And Nicanor, wishing to make evident the ill will that he bare unto the Jews, sent above five hundred soldiers to take him; ⁴⁰for he thought by taking him to inflict a calamity upon them. ⁴¹But when the troops were on the point of taking the tower, and were forcing the door of the court, and bade bring fire and burn the doors, he being surrounded on every side fell upon his sword, ⁴²choosing rather to die nobly than to fall into the hands of the wicked wretches, and suffer outrage unworthy of his own nobleness: ⁴³but since he missed his stroke through the excitement of the struggle, and the crowds were now rushing within the door, he ran bravely up to the wall and cast himself down manfully among the crowds. ⁴⁴But as they quickly gave back, a space was made, and he fell on the middle of his side. ⁴⁵And having yet breath within him, and being inflamed with passion, he rose up, and though his blood gushed out in streams and his wounds were grievous, he ran through the crowds, and standing upon a steep rock, ⁴⁶when as his blood was now well nigh spent, he drew forth his bowels through the wound, and taking them in both his hands he shook them at the crowds; and calling upon him who is Lord of the life and the spirit ⁴⁷to restore him ⁴⁸these again, he thus died.

¹⁵But Nicanor, hearing that Judas and his company were in the region of Samaria, resolved to set upon them with all security on the day of rest. ²And when the Jews that were compelled to follow him said, O destroy not so savagely and barbarously, but give due glory to the day which he that beholdeth all things hath honoured and hallowed above other days; ³then the thrice-cursed wretch asked if there were a Sovereign in heaven that had commanded to keep the sabbath day. ⁴And when they declared, There is the Lord, living himself

Pa Sovereign in heaven, who bade us observe the seventh day; 5 then saith the other, I also am a sovereign upon the earth, 1 who now command to take up arms and execute the king's business. Nevertheless he prevailed not to execute his 2 cruel purpose.

6 And Nicanor, 7 bearing himself haughtily in all vaingloriousness, had determined to set up a monument of complete victory over Judas and all them that were with him: 7 but Maccabeus still trusted unceasingly, with all hope that he should obtain help from the Lord. 8 And 9 he exhorted his company not to be fearful at the 10 inroad of the heathen, but, keeping in mind 11 the help which of old they had oft-times received from heaven, so now also to look for the victory which would come unto them from the Almighty; 9 and comforting them out of 12 the law and the prophets, and withal putting them in mind of the conflicts that they had maintained, he made them more eager for the battle. 10 And when he had roused their 11 spirit, he gave them his commands, at the same time pointing out the perfidiousness of the heathen and their breach of their oaths. 11 And arming each one of them, not so much with the sure defence of shields and spears as with the encouragement that lieth in good words, and moreover relating to them a dream 12 worthy to be believed, he made them all exceeding glad. 12 And the vision of that dream was this: He saw 13 Onias, him that was high priest, a noble and good man, reverend in bearing, yet gentle in manner and well-spoken, and exercised from a child in all points of virtue, 14 with outstretched hands invoking blessings on the whole body of the Jews: 13 thereupon he saw a man appear, of venerable age and exceeding glory, and wonderful and most majestic was the dignity around him: 14 and Onias answered and said, This is the lover of the brethren, he who prayeth much for the people and 15 the holy city, 16 Jeremiah the prophet of God: 15 and Jeremiah stretching forth his right hand delivered to Judas a sword of gold, and in giving it addressed him thus, 16 Take the holy sword, a gift from God, wherewith thou shalt smite down the adversaries.

17 And being encouraged by the words of Judas, which were of a lofty strain, and able to incite unto virtue and to stir the souls of the young unto manly courage, they determined 1 not to carry on a campaign, but nobly to bear down upon the enemy, and fighting hand to hand with all courage bring the matter to an issue, because the city and the sanctuary and the temple were in danger. 18 For their fear for wives and children, and furthermore for brethren and kinsfolk, was in less account with them; 19 but greatest and first was their fear for the consecrated sanctuary. 19 And they also that were shut up in the city were in no light distress, being troubled because of the encounter in the open ground.

20 And when all were now waiting for the decision of the issue, and the enemy had already joined battle, and the army had been set in array, and the 21 elephants brought back to a convenient post, and the horsemen drawn up 22 on the flank, 23 Maccabeus, perceiving the presence of the 24 troops, and the various arms with which they were equipped, and the savageness of the 25 elephants, holding up his hands unto heaven called upon the Lord 26 that worketh wonders, 27 recognising that success cometh not by arms, but that, according as the Lord shall judge, he gaineth the victory for them that are worthy. 28 And calling upon God he said after this manner: Thou, 29 O Sovereign Lord, 30 didst send thine angel in the time of Hezekiah king of Judaea, and he slew of the 31 host of Sennacherib as many as a hundred fourscore and five thousand; 32 so now also, 33 O Sovereign of the heavens, 34 send a good angel before us to bring terror and trembling: 35 through the greatness of thine arm let them be stricken with dismay that with blasphemy are come hither against 36 thy holy people. And as he ended with these words, 37 Nicanor and his company advanced with trumpets and peans; 38 but Judas and his company joined battle with the enemy with invocation and prayers. 39 And 40 contending with their hands, and praying unto God with their hearts, they slew no less than thirty and five thousand men, being made exceeding glad 41 by the manifestation of God.

42 And when the engagement was over, and they were returning again with joy, they recognised Nicanor 43 lying dead in full armour; 44 and there arose a shout and 45 tumult, and then they blessed the 46 Sovereign Lord 47 in the language of their fathers. 48 And he that in all things was in body and soul the foremost champion of his fellow-citizens, he that kept through life the good will of his youth toward his countrymen, commanded 49 to cut off Nicanor's head, and his hand with the shoulder, and bring them to Jerusalem. 50 And when he had arrived there, and had called his countrymen together and set the priests before the altar, he sent for them that were in ²the citadel; ³and shewing the head of the vile Nicanor, and the hand of that profane man, ⁴which with proud brags he had stretched out against the holy house of the Almighty, ⁵and cutting out the tongue of the impious Nicanor, he said that he would give ¹it by pieces ²to the birds, and hang up the ³rewards of his madness over against the sanctuary. ⁴And they all looking up unto heaven blessed ⁵the Lord ⁶who had manifested himself, saying, Blessed be he that hath preserved his own place undefiled. ⁷And ⁸he hanged Nicanor's head and shoulder from ⁹the citadel, a sign, evident unto all and manifest, of ¹⁰the help of the Lord. ¹¹And they all ordained with a common decree in no wise to let this day pass undistinguished, but to mark with honour the thirteenth day of the twelfth month (it is called ¹²Adar in the Syrian tongue), the day before ¹³the day of Mordecai.

³⁷ THIS then having been the issue of the attempt of Nicanor, and the city having from those times been held by ³⁸the Hebrews, I also will here make an end of my book. ³⁹And if I have written well and to the point in my story, this is what I myself desired; but if meanly and indifferently, this is all I could attain unto. ⁴⁰For as it is ⁴¹distasteful to drink wine alone and in like manner again to drink water alone, ⁴²while the mingling of wine with water at once ⁴³giveth full pleasantness to the flavour; so also the fashioning of the language delighteth the ears of them that read the story.
